Twenty-Nine Students Are Allotted Jacksonville Normal

The relief which the federal government has been giving to all classes of people has been extended in a limited way to the college students, and is for the purpose of enabling students to remain in college and to return. All first twenty-nine students were allotted to Jacksonville, the remuneration to be thirty dollars per month, no more than twenty dollars per month nor less than ten dollars per month, and the sum of fifteen dollars per month.

One hundred and fifty applications were received, and about the time all applications were made a telegram was received reducing the number of people per year, and later was changed to the original number, so that twenty-nine students will have the grant for working and receiving this help to stay in college.

MANY TO ATTEND

A large number of students and faculty members are planning to attend the Fourth Annual meeting of the Alabama Educational Association, to be held in Birmingham on Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Mr. J. P. Glamar is the official faculty delegate, and Mr. A. C. Shelton is alternate.

Judge Feidelson Speaks At College

On Friday morning, March 9, Judge Charles Feidelson, editor of the Birmingham Age- Herald, delivered an address in the college auditorium on The Negro Problem. In a very straightforward and convincing manner, Judge Feidelson put across the feeling that the negro race is being overlooked and that there is a difference between the negro and white races. Several suggestions were made for the negro race to follow in order to better themselves.

BUCK TIMES NOW FOR ALUMNI LUNCHEON

All alumni and friends are urged by A. C. Shelton, in charge of arrangements, to buy tickets as early as possible to the Jacksonville luncheon which will be held at the Tutwiler Hotel on Friday, March 31, Mr. Shelton states that by making early reservations the service will be greatly improved.

THE USE OF THE BALLOT

The voters of Alabama should feel their responsibility of selecting the best qualified persons for holding public office before casting their ballots in the coming elections. It is no time to elect professional politicians but a time for electing men who are willing to dedicate their services to the state and people, irrespective of party.

The friends of education should question candidates for the legislature and determine their stand in regard to education. The ballot is the test by which the voters are enabled to judge the best qualified persons for holding the position of which they seek.

Newspaper Reading

High school and College graduates have been criticized in recent years for their lack of general information. This criticism has come from those who are concerned about the need for a well-informed, well-educated citizenry. By reading the daily newspapers and magazines, students can keep themselves informed of current events and developments.

The DRINKING PROBLEM

One of the most serious problems facing society today is that of habitual drinking among boys and young men. It is doubtful if any young person will ever become an alcoholic before he has had his first drink as a means of "wetting off" among his associates. His later drinks are taken because of the breakdown of his will. He is taking the taste of what he believes to be everything social, political, and moral issue and make their decisions on the facts of the presented. They should be taught to see all sides of a question before making a decision.

When the schools and colleges give more emphasis to the teaching of reading, they will be better-equipped to deal with the problem of alcoholism. The teaching of reading is essential for the development of a well-educated class of people and the success of our democratic form of government will be assured.

The TEACHING PROFESSION

The individual who thinks only of his own interests and some means of acquiring wealth has no place in the teaching profession. It is a true profession, and has never been rated for high salaries and a commensurate source of wealth. Teachers too often have suffered from low salaries but as a general rule they have given their best efforts toward the educational development of the children. Only those who are willing to meet the situation must be admitted to the profession. Such sacrifices should enter the teaching profession. They should also be able to feel that a deed is done in service, as no good deed ever goes forth that no good deed will be known. Teachers are the backbone of the society, they should be the envy of every person to help protect the many fine young men who do not have the strength to resist the temptations of forming the drinking habit.

DEBT OF GRATEFULNESS
The thousands of boys and girls of Alabama owe a debt of gratitude to President Roosevelt and the New Deal for the aid given the schools, making it possible to run a full term. It is impossible to estimate the value of such aid in helping the children in school whose parents were unable to pay tuition fees for them. Our great leaders have come from the homes of poor parents. To deny them equal rights would be unjust to the future of the state and nation.
