

Large Number to Receive Degrees and Diplomas

College Will Close Banner Year

At the close of Summer quarter on August 14, Jacksonville will have established an all-time record for the State Teachers Colleges of Alabama, and the college will take its place among the largest of the entire South. The regular residence enrollment for the regular session was 1476 students and the Summer school enrollment was approximately 1100, making a total for the twelve months of above two thousand. The extension enrollment was in excess of 800, running the total of people served by the college to above three thousand for the year 1935-36. This number does not include the more than 500 children in the demonstration schools. With a faculty one-fourth of whom hold Ph.D. degrees and all of whom hold M. A. degrees or above, and a course of study consisting of strong academic courses Jacksonville will continue to move forward in the future. Included in the present curriculum may be found 45 quarter hours of English, 36 quarter hours of history, 27 quarter hours in both mathematics and French, 24 quarter hours in geography, and 27 quarter hours in biology and chemistry. The course of study is so liberal that large numbers of people are turning to the State Teachers College for academic training preparatory to lines of work other than teaching.

THE FIFTH QUARTER HONOR ROLL IS ANNOUNCED

Approximately one hundred students were listed on the honor roll for the fifth quarter. The large number gaining this distinction may be due to the fact that all students enrolled in fifth quarter classes are experienced teachers. Only those who average a grade of B or better are placed on the honor roll. The enrollment for the quarter was approximately six hundred people whose schools closed early.

- The honor roll is as follows:
- SOPHOMORES
Adcock, Rebecca, Bangor.
Allen, Beulah, Port Payne.
Apperson, Henry, Billingsley.
Atchison, Eleanor, Columbian.
Atchison, Mary Will, Columbian.

DR. C. W. DAUGETTE

J. S. T. C. GRADUATE TO TEACH IN CUBA

Shelley McClendon, who will receive his two-year diploma from J. S. T. C. at the end of the Summer quarter, will leave immediately for Cuba where he will be located for the coming year. Mr. McClendon has accepted the position as principal of the school for children of United States Naval officers stationed at Guantanamo Bay.

Mr. McClendon will sail from Miami, Florida, and go to Guantanamo Bay via Havana, where he will stop for sightseeing enroute.

Extension Classes To Be Organized

A. C. Shelton, Director of Extension, states that plans are being made for the organization of extension classes in every county of the Jacksonville Teachers College district. Mr. Shelton states that more than 800 people were enrolled last year and the indications are that a larger number will be enrolled during 1936-37.

HOUSTON COLE RE- CEIVES PROMOTION

Houston Cole, who has been principal of Tuscaloosa County High School at Northport, was recently elected County Superintendent of Tuscaloosa County to succeed H. G. Dowling, who was named Superintendent of the Tuscaloosa City Schools. Mr. Cole is a graduate of the two-year course and has many friends among the Jacksonville faculty, students and alumni.

MANY STUDENTS TO RE- CEIVE NYA AID

It has been announced by President C. W. Daugette that a large number of students will receive NYA assistance this year. Those receiving the aid must not be able to attend college otherwise but they must be able to defray the additional part of their school expenses. Definite plans have not been announced by the National Youth Administration but those interested should communicate with Dr. Daugette.

Jacksonville Students Rise in Field of Education

During a recent election two more J. S. T. C. students, Mr. Leroy Brown of Heflin and Mr. Alton Lovvorn of Wedowee were added to the ranks of County Superintendents of Education in Alabama.

Mr. Brown is only 27 years old, and he received his B. S. degree here last summer. This summer he is working toward his A. M. degree at the University of Alabama. He was a candidate for Superintendent of Education in Cleburne in May and succeeded his opponent, who was a very popular man.

Mr. Lovvorn was elected Superintendent of Randolph County by a large majority. Since last attending college here he married Miss Lila McCarley, also a former student of Jacksonville.

Mr. Lovvorn will be connected with the Randolph County High School until he takes his office next spring.

Graduation Exercises to Be Held August 14

DEDICATION

This issue of the TEACOLA is dedicated to the new students who will enter Jacksonville on September 14. In the issue we have sought to point out some of the high spots of campus life for the benefit of the prospective students as well as those already present.

New students will find a friendly and wholesome atmosphere on the Jacksonville Campus on the part of both students and faculty members. Each person shows an interest in every other individual, making the environment pleasant and home-like.

Frankly, we want a large enrollment of first-class students next fall, just as we have had for the past several years. We are sure that you will never regret your choice of Jacksonville.

Prospective Students, write us, or better still, visit us. We ask only an opportunity to "sell" this school to you!

—THE TEACOLA STAFF.

SCHOOL BEGAN IN 1884

The State Teachers College had its beginning as a State Normal School on September 1, 1884. James G. Ryals, Jr., was the first president. He died during his second year and was succeeded by J. H. Chappel. Other presidents were C. B. Gibson, J. B. Jarrett, and Jacobb Forney, who was succeeded by Dr. C. W. Daugette in 1899. During the thirty-seven years of Dr. Daugette's presidency, the school has grown by leaps and bounds in numbers and in service to the state. Is is now third in size of all colleges in Alabama, being surpassed by the University and Auburn only.

It is estimated that more than one-sixth of the county and city superintendents and a large number of other school officials received a part of their training at Jacksonville. With full membership in the Alabama Association of Colleges, the American Association of Teachers Colleges with an "A" rating, and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the State Teachers College will continue to grow in numbers and importance.

STUDENTS GUARD AGAINST POLIO

President C. W. Daugette reports that one hundred per cent of the 741 resident college students enrolled for the last term of the summer quarter, and the 300 children of the laboratory school have all been sprayed against polio although no case has been reported anywhere near Jacksonville.

Approximately 300 people will receive B. S. degrees and two-year diplomas at summer graduation exercises on August 14. Many of those receiving two-year diplomas will remain in school next year even though they will receive class D certificates which are good for a period of six years and may be changed into permanent certificates on the basis of four years of successful teaching.

Those who are to receive B. S. degrees are as follows: Ovie Blackwell, Fyffe; Clarice D. Boaz, Childersburg; Clyde B. Brown, Chavies; W. L. Brown, Jasper; Bennett Browning, Millerville; Marvin Clements, Wellington; Mrs. Mattie Cornelius, Oneonta; Audrey Driskill, Dawson; Mamie Lee Dunn, Boaz; Iva Durham, Altoona; Mary Lee Foote, Somerville; Mae Gardner, Fairfax; Esther Hall Greer, Fayetteville; Inez Hamilton, Gadsden; James Lee Honea, Piedmont; Georgia Lee Howell, Piedmont; J. Williams, Jacksonville; Baxter Woodall, Piedmont; Mary Summers, Sylacauga.

The candidates for two-year diplomas are as follows:

Ossie Adcock, Bangor; Noel Allen, Roanoke; Henry Apperson, Billingsley; Louise Mason Ayers, Guntersville; A. M. Bailey, Fyffe; Haitie Barganier, Cordova; Thelma Barnes, Camp Hill; Beatrice Barnett, Crossville; A. C. Baswell, Cook Springs; Herschel Beard, Guntersville; Reba D. Bentley, Westover; Jesse W. Black, Joppa; Elizabeth Blackburn, Cedar Bluff; Leasie Blackwell, Fyffe; Mamie Beatrice Blackwood, Blountsville; Malcolm Blake, Double Springs; Opal Blalock, Wilsonville; Mary Jones Booker, Alabama City; Floris Boone, Wedowee; Lillie J. Boozer, Jacksonville; Howard Bramblett, Dutton; Mable W. Broadhead, Verbena;

GRADUATES HAVE POSITIONS

According to President C. W. Daugette, of the 254 students to be graduated from the two-year course on August 14, 192 have had experience as teachers and are teachers now in service. Of the 34 who will receive degrees, 30 are teachers of experience. More than 200 of the 254 graduates have places to teach. Others plan to return for further work. Of the 34 who are to receive degrees only three are still open to positions.

Powell and Hinds Families Furnish Many Students

The Hinds family of Arab and the Powell family of Fyffe, Route 2, have been well represented in the Jacksonville student body during the past several years. The sixth member of the Hinds family and the seventh member of the Powell family are now enrolled.

Woodrow Hinds completed the four-year course and received the B. S. degree while Lyle, Irene, Bessie, and Leon completed the two-year course, and some have done additional work above the two years. Virginia is now enrolled and Margaret is expected to be among the members of the freshman class at the beginning of the Fall quarter.

Irby Powell is completing the work for the B. S. degree at the end of the Summer quarter and is the second of the family to receive a degree at Jacksonville. Opal received a degree in 1931. Alton, Gordon, and Roy have completed two-year courses, while Thurston and Velma have done a considerable amount of work in the college. Pauline and Dewey Powell are listed among the prospects for the Fall quarter. Alton is also enrolled at the present time working toward the B. S. degree.

KID CIRCUS

A most unusual and refreshing performance was given Tuesday afternoon by the children of Jacksonville. A circus, a real circus, was the product of genuine ingenuity and latent ability on the part of the principal performers. A large crowd enthusiastically applauded the splendid efforts of the children.

Horse-racing, exhibitions of goat-driving, tap-dancing, acrobatics and histrionics featured the well-balanced program.

Children of faculty members were prominent in the show, among them being Baskin Landers, clown; Jeffie Pearl Landers, back-back rider; Mary Jane Landers, age 4, old maid; Allen Shelton, jockey, and Thomas Shelton, balloon peddler. Other children taking part were: John Pruett, clown; Gordon Wood, snake charmer; Billie Wood, announcer; Betty Furguson, acrobat; Bill Wilson, goat-driver and clown extraordinary; John Rowan, jockey, and Frank Casey, jockey (winner in race).

GIFT OF THE MORNING

Now, Morning, I saw you come over the hills
Concealing a gift in your bosom for me.
Reveal it now the while you unfold.
"New thoughts of old things", said the Morning to me;
"Old thoughts of new things, too, I bring unto thee,
All spun into threads of pure gold.
Take them and weave", said the Morning to me,
"A net, and my echo will chant unto thee,
New songs of the things that are old."

SWINDALL-LESTER

A marriage of much interest to their many friends in Jacksonville was that of Miss Annie Laura Swindall, of Goodwater, and Mr. Bill Lester, of Jacksonville, on July 21 in Goodwater.

Mrs. Lester was formerly a popular student of Jacksonville State Teachers College. For the past year she has been teaching in Coosa County.

Mr. Lester is a well known young man of Jacksonville. At present he holds a position with the Word Motor Company of Gadsden. Both are widely known in Jacksonville and Goodwater.

After a trip through Tennessee, Kentucky, the Virginias and Ohio they will be at home in Gadsden.

Fannie Fainheart

Fan', Ol' Gal:

You've been a life-saver to a bunch of ginks, but I don't believe you can do me much good because I'm in a hessavamell. However, here goes:

Last year I had quite a crush on a red-headed dame, and she was fairly reciprocative. She went away last fall, but I had no fear that she would change her rating of me ere the fifth quarter. Now comes the problem: The Lord knows I can't afford an auto, not even a '33 chevvy, but she's giving more attention either to my rival on his car than she ever did to me. I believe you're stumped, eh?

Yours truly,

FOSTER OLIVER.

My dear Foster:

To me, contrary to your opinion, your problem is not even problematical. The car has nothing to do with the situation. Perhaps you've lost your power of concentration, or else it's just a case of the better man winning.

Yours,

FANNY FAINTHEART.

Dear Miss Fainheart:

I am a small, blonde fellow from South Alabama. I have a reputation about here for conceit, but there is nothing to it. I underestimate myself, if anything.

Now comes the problem: I was undoubtedly the most outstanding star on the football team last year, and never got hurt to amount to anything, but the little gal which I'm being seen with everywhere that's proper is afraid I'll get hurt. She says I'm too skinny and frail to play football. She says she'll break with me if I don't give it up. What is your solution?

Sincerely,

M.

Dear M.:

By all means go ahead and play football. If you get hurt she will be the first to come to you. If you don't, she will share your glory and never think of her foolish demand.

You're entirely justified in your size-up of yourself. You're a very big little man.

Yours,

FANNIE FAINTHEART.

The Young Women's Christian Association is a vital part of the campus activities. The organization is designed for the development and training in spiritual values and christian principles.

Every girl that is enrolled in school is automatically a member of the Y. W. C. A. The girls elect a president, a co-president for the Hall in which the president does not stay, a vice-president, and a secretary. The president presides at the meetings in her Hall and the co-president attends to the duties in her Hall.

Each evening the Y. W. conducts vesper services. The students meet at the end of a busy day to refresh themselves and to gain inner strength by quietness and meditation; they meet to express their gratitude for opportunities, blessings and contentment in songs, prayers, and devotion.

On Wednesday evenings the Halls have joint meetings to discuss special questions that arise.

On Sunday mornings the girls conduct "Morning Watch." The programs are both inspirational and educational; they are planned to remind every girl to watch her thoughts and actions, to watch for beauty, to watch for opportunities of doing good and being kind, and to watch most of all—for Him, our Saviour!

The Rev. J. Ivey Edwards Guest Speaker

The Rev. J. Ivey Edwards, pastor of the Jacksonville Baptist Church, was the guest speaker at assembly Friday morning, July 24, when he led the devotional. The program was sponsored by students from the counties of Chilton, Shelby, and Talladega, and was directed by Mrs. Ada Pitts.

Mrs. Pitts, who has been on the administrative staff at the college for the past seventeen years, is a native of Sheby County, having lived at Vincent and Columbiana. The Rev. Mr. Edwards formerly lived at Wilsonville in Shelby County. His talk was full of encouragement to the student as he urged the young person to show stability by sticking by a plan for education.

A vocal solo by Mrs. Rhodes, of Talladega County, was enjoyed. Miss Helene Easley was at the piano.

TEACHING AT HOME

The average young person who secures a certificate to teach usually places his application in his home school where he will continue to be thought of in the same way as if he were a student. Those young people who wish to make the most outstanding success should attempt to secure positions as far away from home as possible. It has always been said that an expert is an ordinary man away from home. One of the most unfortunate situations in the state today is the fact that school authorities in the various counties are employing only local people. This policy should be abolished for the benefit of the teachers of the county as well as the benefit of the students. It is hoped that we may rise above such political issues as the barring of people from other counties in any county system of the state. The state as a whole is paying a larger amount of the money for the teachers' salaries and we feel that no barrier should be placed on Alabama people anywhere in the state, at least.

New thoughts and ideas should permeate the teaching profession. The best possible means of effecting this is by employing well-prepared teachers from widely separated parts of the state, or even from other states. We are not saying that teaching at home should never be allowed, but we do say that in a majority of cases such a system is not for the best interests of the school nor the teacher.

We feel also that a teacher should board in the community in which he teaches. The practice of driving from six to twenty miles to his school causes the teacher to lose sight of the community life in which, as a teacher and a leader, he should be a vital part. Teacher, try to be an integral part of your community!

WHAT DOES GOD MEAN TO YOU?

"Several years ago I left Calcutta and journeyed to the little city of Bolpur to meet Rabindranath Tagore, the great poet of India. During the course of our conversation, I asked, "Sir Rabindranath, what does God mean to you?" He speaks as he writes, and if you are familiar with the beautiful verses of "Gitanjali", you will at once anticipate the style that characterized his extraordinary reply. "When I was but a boy", he said, "one morning before the sun was up my father took me into the jungle. We stood there together in the darkness. My father told me that the sweet smelling earth was God's, that he was in it, that he was of it, that he had created it. The light began to filter down through the leaves of the trees, and my father told me that God was the light, that he was in the light, that he was of the light, that he had created the light so that I might behold all the beauties of the world. And then", he said, "the birds began to sing, and my father told me that God was the music, that he was in the music, and of the music." I shall not soon forget the reverent attitude manifested by the poet when he said, "My father turned to me there in that early morning and said, "My boy, you are living in God's world of harmony and of beauty. I want you to promise me that as long as you live you will never strike a harsh nor dissonant note." That is what God means to me."

SCREENFARE

Several agree with Screenfare that "Wife vs. Secretary" should have been a much better picture. We feel that we could have imagined at least half of the smooching with satisfactory results. However, the picture was a honey for the guys who wanted to review the Gable technique at leisure. His entire performance was rather a review of technique than acting.

Thursday and Friday, July 30 and 31, comes the first picture of its kind ever to be filmed successfully in technicolor. "Trail of the Lonesome Pine", starring Sylvia Lidney, Henry Fouda and Fred MaMcurray, is a picture that the producers claim to be epochal, while many fans concur with them. I have heard several name it the finest picture they ever saw, and while they may not be qualified to unconditionally name it that, the picture is well worth your notice. The filming is all done in the natural setting in natural colors. There is a bit of incongruity in the casting: Sylvia Sidney, a Jewess, is cast as a Southern mountain girl; the Southern mountaineers are the purest Anglo-Saxons in the nation!

Saturday, Mein Gott, another horzobery. It gifs "Bar 20 Rides Again" mit Bill Boyd und Jimmy Ellison. Yippee!

Monday, August 3, "Florida Special" should be heap much fun. Jack Oakie and Sally Ellers, it seems, are the passengers who get the most attention.

Wednesday, August 5, "The Preview Murder Case" will be solved as an anti-climax to bank night. Gail Patrick, a Birmingham girl who has made good, and Reginald Denny share the stardom.

Thursday and Friday, August 6 and 7, the cinemenu is "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." You who read the story in AMERICAN will recall it as OPERA HAT, by C. B. Kelland. Advance notices declare the picture worthy of the book, and in that case its a real delicacy. Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur! What more can one ask?

Saturday, August 8, the "Princess" presents "Sky Parade", with Jinny Allen and Kitty DeMille.

Monday, August 10, comes still another heralded picture, "Milky Way", with Adolph Menjou and Harold Lloyd. It's been a long time since I saw Harold, so I'll be there.

Tuesday, August 11, "Trapped by Television", with Lyle Talbot and Mary Astor.

Reasonable Assignments

We wonder if all teachers are reasonable in the making of assignments. We believe in providing for individual differences in teaching by making maximum and minimum assignments so that the brighter students may have all to do that can be accomplished in the available time. We fear that in some cases such long assignments are made that the student fails to get much information in trying to cover the entire assignment.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

There are all kinds, you know, so it's just as well to dip into the heap occasionally and pick one at random. For instance:

Dear Editor:

You have asked readers of the Teacola to send in contributions and I think I should comply with your request since so many enjoy what I have to say. Probably I should have said that the boys will enjoy reading this letter since so many are my friends. I am sorry the girls don't like me, but you know how it is when a girl has so many boy friends. The other girls are just naturally jealous of a girl who is so popular. I have tried to get several of the boys to fall in love with some of the other girls, but they all say that I am the only one whom they can care for. I don't know why they like me so well, but I guess it is because I take so much pride in the way I dress and then, too, I am just naturally pleasant and good natured all the time and that appeals to the young men.

A friend suggested recently that I offer a beauty culture course for the benefit of the girls who are not so well endowed with personality. I have been thinking of offering my services to a limited number of girls, but you know they are so jealous that they would not appreciate my offer. I think we have the nicest boys in school that I have ever met; I am just crazy about all of them. I hate to see school close as I will have

Dear Editor:

I must let you and all readers of the Teacola know how much I have enjoyed my work in school during the spring and summer quarters. I attended another college before coming to Jacksonville, but I think this school is so much better in every way. The teachers are so nice and considerate that it makes hard work a pleasure. Those who have never been to Jacksonville should come one quarter and that will convince them that this is the best college in Alabama.

The social environment here is very wholesome. The boys and girls are all so nice that it is an inspiration to associate with them. I expect to send my sister here in September and I am glad that she can be under the care and direction of such a fine group of people.

Uneasy lies the head of the editor. Read this'n:

Dear Editor:

After working in the Teacola office for a year, and hearing you brag about how the paper was going to pick-up when you got to be editor. Well I just don't see any improvement.

It seems that after two years of experience you could put out a paper that a few students would like.

Take, for instance, your picture: We see you every day; why fill up space with it? Give us news, that is what we want. You could take any number of love cases on the campus and run a serial story—but no, it is always something about yourself. Forget about yourself and think of others for awhile.

MY IDEAL MAN

I read in the TEACOLA a few weeks ago of the requirements a dame must meet if she expects to rate with the more popular males on the State Teachers College campus. The requirements made by some were severe while others were much more liberal. While I read this article, I wondered if the authors had the idea that they were nothing less than perfect gentlemen in the estimation of all girls. Some few might stand the test of a co-ed's ideal boy if they were placed under a spot-light, but I am quite sure the larger portion would fall short in many things. And a few would not have enough good qualities to meet the standards of any well-educated girl.

I know that some girls fall into the class of low standards, many into the average group, and an unusually few into the highest group. The latter I admire, and may they thrive and in time become the great majority!

While my mind was still on the subject of ideal boys and girls, I decided that I would consider a few points of an ideal boy.

His hair may be any color, including red, and I am not particular about the color of his eyes or the fairness or darkness of his complexion, but he must be clean and neat looking at all times. He must have at least a high school education and a high ambition in the vocational field in which he chooses as his career. He may smoke if he wishes, but the drinking of anything stronger than Coca-Cola is not permissible under any circumstances. He must enjoy seeing picture shows, appreciate good music, and be as good a dancer as the average boy.

He must be honest, courteous, congenial, and also reasonably easy to get along with. There is never a convenient or suitable time for his slight or sarcastic remarks about anyone, nor shall he be eternally boasting about himself. He must be able to carry on a conversation with anyone with whom he may come in contact, and see more than his side of questions that arise.

He must be able to participate mildly in all of the most common sports, he must excel in one particular game. He must always play the game of life, as well as sports, fairly and squarely. It is very necessary that he take proper care of himself from a social, physical, mental, and moral standpoint, but he must not overdo the thing by throwing down or running over someone.

He must attend church at least once each Sunday if he lives where church services are held each Sunday.

This is my personal criticism of an ideal boy and girl. It may be scorned by some, and some may disagree with part of it, but I firmly believe that I am voicing the opinions of the average student.

STUDENTS' BOARDING CLUB

Offers Modern Conveniences. Club Rates Help Many Through College

The Students' Boarding Club is closing a most successful year, and advance reservations indicate that many students will take advantage of this plan for 1936-37.

To give adequate care on a minimum amount is the objective of this organization. The monthly fee for room and board for the past year has not exceeded $12, thereby giving the student of limited means an opportunity to secure an education.

Comfortable living quarters are available in Weatherly Hall for women and in Forney Hall for men. All members of the Students' Boarding Club take their meals at the cafeteria in Weatherly Hall. Forney Hall is not far from the cafeteria and is accessible to it by a concrete walk. Both of these dormitories have all modern conveniences. Meals in the cafeteria are prepared under the personal direction of a trained and experienced dietitian.

The Boarding Club is managed by a student committee under the direction of Mrs. L. J. Hendrix, a graduate dietitian, and is solely a student organization.

HISTORY CLUB

Realizing the drastic need for more familiarity with the political and economic problems of the nation, a few earnest history students under the leadership of Dr. R. P. Felgar organized the History Club in March, 1933. The members of the club dedicated themselves to the task of meeting this need by discussing the needs of the present, the mistakes of the past and the possibilities of the future.

To carry out the above mentioned aim, the club agreed to meet once a month and conduct a program built around national problems and events. Each month since March, 1933 constructive programs have been rendered which consisted of papers and talks which deal with state, national and world topics. For example one feature program of the summer quarter of 1936 was a talk on the forthcoming presidential election by Dr. Felgar, the club's faculty adviser.

Each quarter the History Club has a social. The nature of these socials have been quite varied, consisting at different times of picnics, steak fries, parties, barn dances, etc.

To make application for membership to the History Club one must have at least an average of B in History. All applicants must apply to the executive committee at least one week before the regular meeting time. At the next meeting the applicant is discussed and voted upon by the Club. A two-thirds majority of the members present must vote for the applicant before he is admitted as a member of the Club.

All officers of the History Club are students of Jacksonville State Teachers College, and must have been members of the Club for at least three months.

An executive committee of three members make up the officers of the Club. The chairman acts as president and the other two members act as vice president and secretary and treasury.

The committee is elected by a unique method which is little used by our other college organizations. The committee members are nom-

THE TEACOLA AND ANOTHER YEAR

The purpose of a college is fully as much to prepare one for living as for a living. The TEACOLA has as its intent the aiding of the organization of those things which lend a flavor and zest to campus life. In that we have fallen short, we are sorry; in that we have bright plans for the coming year we feel that we shall not again fall so short.

Next Fall we hope to bring about a general revamping of the TEACOLA, increasing the size if not the frequency of each edition through a progressive advertising program.

We are hoping that among the freshmen this Fall we will find talent and inclination for newspaper work. There is no better training for writing and thinking than newspaper work.

JUNIOR DANCE WAS HELD RECENTLY

One of the highlights of the summer social season was the junior class dance given Saturday night. An unusually large crowd was present, drawn no doubt by the John Lampe orchestra, of Gadsden, as much as anything else. There were hardly enough stags, but stickiness was practically non-existent.

Miss Bill Nichols and several faculty members acted as chaperons.

Miss Faye McLendon of LaFayette visited the college Thursday.

The Cherokee County Group Conducts Assembly

The Cherokee County students had charge of the assembly program Monday, July 20. A humorous reading was given by Miss Lillian Coffey. Miss Clara James gave the "Reflections of Jacksonville State Teachers College in Cherokee County." From her statements the faculty members had better walk in a straight and narrow path, for they know not who walks in their footsteps.

Mr. Ernest Plunkett concluded the program with the announcement of the Cherokee County Centennial to be held at Center, Alabama, August 14 and 15. A cordial invitation was extended to one and all.

More Homes Needed in Jacksonville

The overflow enrollment of students in the State Teachers College during the past year shows evidence of a pressing need for more homes in the city of Jacksonville. Many students were unable to find living accommodations during the Spring quarter and were forced to go to other schools. It is stated by A. C. Shelton that real estate values in Jacksonville are below those in other cities and towns of a smaller size. People wishing to move to a school town are being given a special invitation to investigate Jacksonville.

Student Thinks Education Within Reach of All

According to Sanders Roberts of Altoona, boys and girls who feel an urge to get an education should make up their minds, then get started at the earliest possible time.

Roberts finished high school at Altoona in 1932, got married immediately afterwards and began farming. In the summer of 1935 he decided that there would never be a better time to begin his college education than the present. Crop conditions were very unfavorable and the outlook very gloomy.

His high school principal, J. O. Dickenson, accompanied him and others to Jacksonville to see arrangements could be made toward entering college in September. He was told of a possibility of borrowing money through a loan fund which would cover the amount of his fees. He was also told of a possibility of obtaining room rent free at the Atkins' farm which is two and a half or three miles from the college.

Early in September Mr. and Mrs. Roberts arrived in Jacksonville with their household furnishings and $25.00 in money. Roberts began hunting odd jobs around the town and found many opportunities to work where others had failed. At the end of the first quarter Roberts had done so well that he felt that he could also take care of his wife's expenses and that she might enter college also.

During the past nine months they have walked back and forth every day, are never late for classes, and have made grades high enough to entitle them to be placed on the honor roll, a place which is enjoyed by only exceptional students. In spite of the fact that much time is spent in hunting up outside work to help defray expenses and in carrying on this work, Roberts states that he is happy and contented with his school work and expects to

The French Club

The French Club was organized in January, 1936, under the direction of Dr. J. O. Van Hook. All college students who have had or are taking French are eligible for membership. Dr. Jones, Head of the French Department, is now faculty adviser.

The purpose of the club is to study the life and works of some important French people, and to gain a better understanding of the French people and their customs. Regular meetings are held once a month and a social is given each quarter. The present officers are as follows:

Robert Felgar, President.
 Ola Brown, Secretary and Treasurer.
 Dr. Jones, Adviser.

The School Orchestra

The outlook for the college orchestra and glee club for next year is very bright. The orchestra has been developing for some time through the enthusiastic leadership of Miss Ewing in interesting students to come to school here who have talent for music. We understand that two semi-professional musicians are making plans to enter school here for the winter to take active parts in the school orchestra. With the addition of these and other musicians to the orchestra we hope to organize a dance orchestra for the school's entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts feel that any young man or young woman who is interested in an education can go to college if he has a sufficient amount of nerve and determination. They have received no outside assistance during the past twelve months.

Interesting plans are being made for the men's Glee Club. A large number of men in school are interested in the work of the Glee Club and a large number is expected during the winter.

Many Lettermen Back for Football

Coach Shotts announced that candidates for places on the football team will enter training August 31. This gives the boys three weeks to get into condition for the opening game against Spring Hill in Mobile.

Most of the lettermen from last year are returning, but Coach Shotts must find men to fill the shoes of Captain "Red" Hudson at end; Bursleson and Sandlin at tackle; Akers at center; Emmett Baker at quarterback; and Hoke Wallace, at guard. The lettermen who return are John Baker, full-back; Maxwell and Hunter, halves; Brown, Carter, and Bassett, guards; Hutchins, end. These boys will be pushed by reserves from last season and newcomers. Some of the boys who should step this year are "Red" Kemp, Forby Ford, Caldwell, and Penny, who are coming out for the first time. Penny is big, fast, and tough, and he should put up a real scrap for a place on the varsity.

Coach Shotts expects to have a much stronger team than usual this year, and with practically the same schedule as last year, it is expected that Jacksonville will be on the winning side of the slate.

Football Schedule Is Announced

Coach Tom Shotts has announced the opening of the football training camp to be held on the campus to begin August 31. All prospective players are urged to be present at that time. Those who are interested should communicate with Coach Shotts.

PROSPECTS OF A TRACK TEAM BRIGHTER

We have high hopes of adding track to the list of sports which are enjoyed on our campus. A track team would be a worthwhile addition because it has many advantages. Track is one of the least expensive of all college sports. Equipment for track can be installed very cheaply. Track can be enjoyed by anyone who has any athletic ability because of the wide variety of events. A track meet is a beautiful and spectacular event from the spectator's viewpoint. Track tends to produce good sportsmanship because the individual is competing alone and can blame his failure on no one but himself.

Track is one of the oldest of sports and is a favorite throughout the world today. This year is one of especial interest to track fans since it is the year of the Olympic games.

Let us all boost track, and four years hence, when the world's athletes assemble again, who knows but that some star will bear the banner of J. S. T. C. to the starting post?

cludes four S. I. A. A. teams and one Dixie Conference team. The schedule for 1936 is as follows:

*September 19, Spring Hill at Mobile.

September 25, Tenn. Poly. at Cookeville, Tenn.

*October 2, Murfreesboro at Murfreesboro, Tenn.

*October 9, Union University at Jackson, Tenn.

October 17, Marion Institute at Marion, Ala.

October 30, Piedmont College at Demorest, Ga.

*November 13, Rollins College at Orlando, Florida.

* Night Game.

SWIMMING CLASSES ADVANCE RAPIDLY

The class in life-saving, under the guidance of "Vic" Wakefield, who is an expert at swimming, is offering a systematic and useful course. The first lessons are devoted to the rudiments of the art of saving lives, and as his pupils improve he plans to introduce a rigorous routine.

The instructions offered by Mr. Wakefield are not falling on barren ground. Numbered among his pupils are the most skillful swimmers in school. All the lifeguards are devoting themselves to these lessons, and they hope to become more proficient in their work.

Mr. Wakefield is teaching an advanced swimming class also. The purpose of this class is to smooth out the rough places in the strokes of his pupils. Before long many boys and girls who formerly struggled feebly through the waters will be seen gliding by with the grace and ease of mermaids and mermans.

The first-aid and artificial respiration which is taught in these courses will prove to be of great benefit to prospective teachers. No one who works with children can know too much about these things. Mr. Wakefield is a well qualified instructor. He attended college at the University of Florida, where he was rated tops as a swimmer. Since leaving school he has worked with Boy Scouts and other organizations as a swimming instructor.

Baptist Pastor Invites Prospective Students

It is the great privilege of the First Baptist Church of Jacksonville to welcome you. One of our greatest opportunities lies in your presence among us. We always look forward to your coming with great anticipation.

Our people take much delight in greeting you at our services. They are a congenial and "homey" group. You will just naturally feel at home with them. And our services are conducted in much the same manner as those from which you came.

BASKET BALL

Coach Stephenson is looking forward to another successful basket ball season this Winter. Most of last year's squad will return this Fall. Among those who are returning are: Bryant Steel, James Kemp, Ernest Penny, Emmett Plunkett, W. C. Cranford, and Arnold Caldwell.

Grady Jacobs, a forward of last season, will be missed in the lineup next year. However, Coach Stephenson is expecting an All-State man from Pisgah High School to fill the shoes of Jacobs. Eulon Hill will also be missed next year. Hill has accepted a teaching position at Boaz.

Coach Stephenson is considering taking a road trip up North this Winter; he is also scheduling several games in Florida.

The team had a very successful season last year in spite of defeats at the hands of several strong teams. Among the strong teams played last season were Olson's Swedes, House of David, Western Kentucky, Oglethorpe, and Spring Hill College of Mobile. Most of these teams will be booked for another year.

vice in our church open to you. Students in great numbers sing in the choir. Some teach and fill other offices in the Sunday School. We have had two Baptist training unions purely for students and hope to have more as we grow. The Baptist Student Union is wholly for students and you can find a great field of activity here.

We especially extend a welcome to all Baptist students and to those who prefer the Baptist Church. Also we welcome all who have no other church home here.

One of the peculiar joys of the pastor has been the opportunity of talking over various problems with the different students. He invites you to bring any problem you may have and he will give his very best to help you solve it. Whatever confidences that may be made shall be kept inviolate.

We are looking forward to September 14 with extreme delight. THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, (Signed) J. Ivey Edwards, Pastor.

METHODIST WELCOME

The Methodist Episcopal Church South, Jacksonville, takes this opportunity of giving a cordial welcome to all Methodist students who are now, and who expect to be enrolled in the State Teachers College. We have services every Sunday and every Wednesday, Sunday School meeting at 10:00 o'clock and the Young Peoples' Department in the evening just before the evening preaching service. We are anxious to have students feel at home in our church just the same as if they were in their home church. We even invite them to transfer their membership to us during their stay in Jacksonville. We have a Sunday School class set aside for students. Several members of the faculty are members of our church and participate in this work.

R. C. WILSON, Pastor.

Mr. Lee Waites Miles was a visitor in the Teacola office this week. He is a former student of S. T. C. and a graduate of Howard College. At present he is teaching and coaching at Hayden High School.
