

Curriculum Conference Held Wednesday

Faculty Members Appear on Program

Prof. Hendrix, Mrs. Wood, Miss Huger and Miss Randolph Talk

J. S. T. C. faculty members are frequently requested to make club talks and appear on programs of various organizations in Jacksonville and elsewhere.

Prof. Lance Hendrix addressed a Gadsden Chapter of the D. A. R. Wednesday afternoon, talking on the Puritans. Prof. Hendrix recently reviewed "Gone with the Wind", by Margaret Mitchell, at a luncheon given by the Gadsden Woman's Club at the Reich Hotel.

At a recent meeting of the Progressive Study Club, with Mrs. E. J. Landers as hostess, Mrs. C. R. Wood reviewed "Martha Berry", by Tracey Byers.

Miss Mary Huger recently made a talk at a P. T. A. meeting at the Eleventh Street school, in Gadsden, using for her subject, "Food and Clothing for the Child."

Miss Ethel Randolph reviewed "Gone with the Wind" at the latest meeting of the Book Club which was held at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Cayley, with Mrs. Cayley and Mrs. H. B. Mock as associate hostesses.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN HOLD MEETING HERE

Miss Bullock and Miss Rees Hostesses

The Anniston branch of the American Association of University Women held the second meeting of the year Saturday at the home of Mrs. A. J. Kitchens, with Miss Louise Bullock and Miss Mayo Rees associate hostesses.

After a business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. The December meeting will be in Anniston.

Miss Maude Luttrell is president of this branch of the national organization.

G. AND I. H. CLUB MEETS

The Geography and International Relations Club met Thursday evening, Nov. 5, in Bibb Graves Hall, with the president, Lois Collier, in the chair.

The program on the West Indies, was given by Mildred Sheppard and Charles Hallman. Miss Sheppard read an interesting paper, "Economic and Geographic Features of U. S. Possessions in West Indies." She also gave an interesting account of a visit to Cuba. Mr. Hallman talked on "Political Relations of the Islands to the United States."

WEATHERLY HALL GIRLS WILL ENTERTAIN

The Weatherly Hall girls will entertain at their Fall quarter social affair which will be an informal dance in Bibb Graves Hall Friday evening at eight o'clock.

JACKSONVILLE ALUMNUS MADE CITY OFFICIAL

Woodrow Hinds, Mayor of Arab by 2 to 1 Majority. Brother of 6 J. S. T. C. Students

Woodrow Hinds, recently elected mayor of Arab, is a graduate of Jacksonville State Teachers College, and one of seven of the family to attend the institution. Mr. Hinds, who was elected by a majority of two to one, received the B. S. degree three years ago.

Faculty members recall that while Mr. Hinds was here he was a campus leader, displaying unusual ability and initiative in a number of activities. He was at one time in charge of Forney Hall, a post never before entrusted to a student. He is now principal of the Junior High School at Grassy, near Arab.

The seventh of Mr. Hinds' family to attend J. S. T. C. is Margaret Hinds, now a freshman. Other members of the family who have attended the college, all receiving the two-year diploma, are Lyle, Irene, Bessie, Virginia and Lynn. Virginia Hinds expects to return for work on the B. S. degree at the Summer session.

U. D. C. PRESENTS RADIO ARTISTS

Scholarship Fund Grows by "Snowball and Sunshine" Program

The Gen. John H. Forney Chapter U. D. C. presented "Snowball and Sunshine", WSB radio artists, in a program Saturday evening at Kilby Hall. Proceeds were used to increase the U. D. C. scholarship fund for J. S. T. C.

"Snowball and Sunshine" are black face comedians, and the program given here was similar to the skits which they broadcast from Atlanta. They were supported by a cast of eight people, including dancers, singers and other musicians.

For the past five years the Gen. Forney Chapter has raised one hundred dollars annually for their scholarship offering to the college. Mrs. Loy W. Allison, wife of Dr. Allison, head of the psychology department, is president, and Mrs. C. W. Doughtie, librarian, has been active in the organization for a number of years.

Y. W. A. MEETING WITH MRS. GLAZNER

Mrs. J. F. Glazner entertained the members of the Ann Hasseltine Y. W. A. at her home Saturday afternoon, Nov. 14.

After the devotional, led by Ruth Noble, the following program was carried out:

Talk, by the president, Arra B. Jones; "A Y. W. A. in Rio de Janeiro", Jesse Frank Clark; "Herodias, the Pioneer", Ruby Burton; "A Y. W. A. Dream That Came True", Iris Dodd.

Arra B. Jones announced that Miss Eva Berry, a state worker, will teach a study course in Jacksonville soon.

POPULAR CO-ED

CLAIRE MAE JONES

Claire Mae Jones is president of the Morgan Literary Society for Girls, president of the Daugette Hall Club and corresponding secretary of the Girls' Glee Club in which organization she sings alto. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Jones, of Ragland.

SATURDAY STUDENTS DOING SIX MONTHS' WORK IN TWO QUARTERS

Saturday courses at J. S. T. C. are so arranged that six months' work may be done during the Fall and Winter quarters. Classes are from eight to twelve o'clock Saturday morning, and are especially convenient for teachers and others employed in Calhoun County and areas adjoining.

Classes in science 101, 102 and 103 are taught by Prof. Chas. M. Gary. Prof. Thomas A. Frick has science 301, 302 and 303. Dr. Otis Whaley is instructor of history 301, 302 and 303. Classes in practical arts 301, 302 and 423 are with Dr. Clara Weishaupt, and mathematics 401, 402 and 403 with Dean Claude R. Wood.

STUDENTS PLAN FOR THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Thanksgiving holidays will begin when students leave for home Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 25. Friday's classes have been made up in advance so that the holiday may extend until Monday, Nov. 30. As many students reside in nearby counties, a large number will spend the holidays with their parents at home.

NATIVE OF FRANCE ADDRESSES FRENCH CLUB AT MEETING

Mlle. Buhler Speaks on Cathedrals of Her Country

Mlle. Alice Buhler, of Avignon, France, was presented in an address at a recent meeting of the French Club.

Mlle. Buhler's subject was: "What the Churches are for us in France, particularly La Sainte Chapelle de Paris."

Illustrating her discourse, the speaker presented on the screen pictures of certain magnificent cathedrals. The climax of her address was reached with her detailed illustrated description of La Sainte Chapelle de Paris.

DR. WHALEY ADDRESSES HISTORY CLUB

Reviews Important Decision of Supreme Court

Dr. Otis Whaley, recently added to the J. S. T. C. faculty in the department of history and other social studies, was the speaker at an interesting meeting of the History Club when he addressed a group of faculty members and students on some recent decisions of the Supreme Court. This was Dr. Whaley's first appearance on a college program since coming to Jacksonville in September.

Dr. Whaley's discussion of some vitally important decisions of the Supreme Court emphasized the powerful authority of the tribunal. He pointed out that the body may set aside laws passed by Congress and states when they are considered in violation of the Constitution, and referred to the court's authority to decide the application of Federal laws. He discussed the personnel of the court, touching briefly on the politics of Chief Justices Hughes and his eight associates.

One of the interesting decisions discussed was the New York Milk Control Suit, the verdict on which determined the constitutionality of NRA price-fixing.

Mildred Sheppard discussed current events, giving a resume of the week's news, foreign, national and state.

New members added to the club were James Corley, Dorothy Barber and Iris Dodd.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Will you please enlighten me on a certain subject which I have heard discussed rather freely for the past two days? Why are the students not allowed to use the new grand piano?

Surely the reason is not so elemental as that someone will wear the newness off! Or possibly that the charges for tuning are so exorbitant that they should more than equal the negated pleasure of numerous co-eds in not being allowed the use of the piano!

I have read the notice on the piano, and realize the importance of restraining one's impulses to lay books, sit, or tap dance on its gleaming polish, but I contend that it would have the tenderest of care should the students be allowed a more direct interest in it.

It so happens that this rat is an "ed" and is forbidden the sharing of the co-eds' dance privileges, but he, nevertheless, would enjoy the jazz much more from the grand than from the tin pan.

Believe me, being a rat, I'm not supposed to, but I think that we should differentiate somehow between a piano and a pile of glass.

Sincerely,
"FROSH."

Mrs. Dana T. Davis has returned from Chattanooga where she attended the wedding of her niece, Catherine Dana Tatum, to Frederick Maston Dearing.

Miss Gertrude Prather, of Ridgegrove, visited her sister, Gussie Mae, at Weatherly Hall Sunday.

DR. CAMPBELL SPEAKER; C. B. SMITH PRESIDES

Curriculum Study Programs Discussed

A curriculum study conference was held here Wednesday. School officials and other educators from the Jacksonville State Teachers College district were present. Mr. Charles B. Smith, director of the curriculum study program, State Department of Education, presided.

Dr. Doak S. Campbell, of Peabody College, a national authority on curriculum building, addressed the group and led the discussion. Dr. Campbell's purpose was to assist in getting school officials and teachers organized thoroughly and effectively for the orientation phase of the extensive program. He dealt specifically with problems involved in the setting up of local curriculum study programs.

The program began at 10 o'clock when Dr. Campbell addressed the faculty and student body at assembly. Later Dr. Campbell addressed visiting educators and officials.

The afternoon session was a continuation of round table conferences.

Visitors and the J. S. T. C. faculty and officials were entertained at luncheon at a Daugette Hall. The College Orchestra furnished music at the luncheon hour.

NEW GRAND PIANO FOR GRAVES HALL

Mrs. Love Directs Musical Program in Celebration

President Daugette Talked On Personality

Celebrating the addition of a concert grand piano to the auditorium in Bibb Graves Hall, a musical program was given at assembly Friday morning, Oct. 31, directed by Mrs. Nathalie Ewing Love. LaMar Triplett played as a piano solo "Prelude in C Sharp Minor." Henry Greer, soloist of the Men's Glee Club, sang "The Old Refrain," accompanied by Mr. Triplett. A vocal solo, "I Hear a Brown Bird Singing," was rendered by Mrs. Lorraine Tingle Poreh, with accompaniment by Miss Ada Curtiss. A two-piano duet, "Roses of Picardy," was given by Helene Easley and Mr. Triplett. President C. W. Daugette talked to the group on personality.

BRINGS MENTION OF CONDITIONS IN STATE

President Daugette Speaks

"What do we in Alabama expect to do toward advancing education in our own state?" This question was asked by President Daugette at one of the assembly periods during National Education Week when he talked to the faculty and student body.

Dr. Daugette spoke of conditions of schools in the state before the days of compulsory education, and stated that the future of the public schools will be similar to that condition if something is not done for the relief of education.

THE "FUTURE VETERANS" MOVEMENT FALLS APART

Immediately after the inception of the V. F. W., an S. T. C. boy who wrote inquiring as to the nature of the new organization was promptly answered with a deluge of literature, an appointment as head of the Jacksonville Chapter, membership cards and buttons—and an urgent appeal for financial aid in the form of registration fees for the expenses of the National Council. A group here who were tentatively interested in the movement sounded the opinions of the students, and finally realized that sentiment for the future vets would never be strong here.

In its original form, the V. F. W. was a caustic satire on the payment of the A. E. F. bonus. It provoked laughter by its telling blows at the unprotected flanks of the American Legion. Undoubtedly the American Legion lost much prestige as a result of the V. F. W. thrusts.

Later, the organization got out of the hands of its creators. A strong anti-war faction arose and a radical wing even implied that young men should refuse to fight if called upon. Right here, actually, the V. F. W. began to dissolve.

It seems to us that the dissolution of the V. F. W. is a landmark, a proof that patriotism is not dead within young Americans.

To jibe at an organization is all right, but defense of country is another matter. National Commander of the V. F. W., Lewis Gore, to halt this tendency in his brain child, has very wisely ordered the dissolution of the Veterans of Future Wars, Inc.

FATHER COUGHLIN RETIRES FROM RADIO WORK

Father Coughlin has announced that he would retire from political activities carried on over the radio. This is a splendid idea which came about two years too late.

Coughlin was Lemke's firmest backer and was to swing the votes of the National Union for Social Justice, giving around 9,000,000 ballots in favor of the Socialist's candidate. On election day not over ten percent of these Union members stuck to their party and as a result Coughlin, who had promised earlier in the campaign that he would quit politics if his work proved ineffective, has kept his promise.

Such men as Coughlin have added very little to our ideas and ideals of our democracy and government. He has kept the ether full of fanatical accusations and ideas, which November 3 proved not many Americans either believed in or agreed with. Coughlin endeavored to have faith in our government undermined—his was a campaign of destruction, not construction.

What Coughlin has done about withdrawing is his most commendable and sagacious move.—Auburn Plainsman.

PERSONALITY

"Does one's personality increase after he leaves the elementary schools?" At assembly Friday morning President Daugette talked to the group regarding the foregoing question, stating that the faculty had discussed personality at a recent meeting. Not only was the answer in the affirmative, Dr. Daugette said, but emphasis should be placed upon such a development. "Courtesy is the manifestation of kindness in the heart", said the president. If we have lovable traits and show them to people they will respond. In order to have friends, you must show yourself friendly. Many people are courteous and kind at heart, but do not have the art of radiating courtesy and kindness."

According to the president, a beautiful face is not a requisite for a charming personality, but the homely person may become radiant by personality development.

As Given by Harolyn Franklin on a Morgan Program

Time: 1947.
Place: Anywhere.

TINY POWELL in a New York theater as a ballet dancer. He has revolutionized ballet dancing which in 1936 was considered only fit for women.

MALCOLM BREWER, disappointed in his expectations of becoming a world dictator, like Napoleon, met his Waterloo. He has had to content himself with being director-in-chief of the natives of the Canary Islands.

PETE MATHEWS, our friend and fellow Morganite, has won world renown as an orator by taking up the young people's cause. He has waged a winning fight for the eradication of fire-flies from secluded spots.

LEE JONES, having lost his voice, and thus his great power of argumentation, has been forced to give up his ambition to be a lawyer, and is now teacher in a school for the deaf and dumb.

BRYANT STEELE residing in Paris as a world renowned designer of sports clothes for men. He it was who started the fashionable fad of using ropes for suspenders while participating in various sports. As you may remember, Mr. Steele introduced the fad while attending school in Jacksonville.

THAD BARROW is head of Tammany Hall. His thirst for politics is finally satisfied.

KERMIT MATHISON, our budding genius of a sports writer, is filling his ambition as an important sportsman. He is publicity manager of the flea races and rooster fights in South America.

ADRIEN HAON, a traveling speaker, making annual visits to all the ladies' clubs. His subject is always "How to be Charming."

SCREENFARE

Today

The cinema attraction now showing is "Ladies In Love," with Ann Sothern and Francis Lederer, who regaled us less than two weeks ago in "My American Wife," and if this show is as much as two-thirds as good as that it's well worth a two-bit ticket.

Saturday

Tomorrow is a red-letter day for us movie-goers, because it marks, perhaps, the gradual departure from the Saturday horse-opera we are becoming so used to. And what a departure! To none other than the inimitable Rogers-Astaire team, "Follow The Fleet," adds such stars as Randy Scott.

Monday

Comes the film version of the Earthworm Tractor stories of the Saturday Evening Post. Joe E. Brown is the super-salesman who blunders into orders with the most unorthodox technique imaginable.

Tuesday

"Let's Sing Again," a highly recommended picture designed especially for the lovers of cinemelodies, features a child singer, Bobbie Breen. The kid is said to be sensational, and he has able assistance from Henri Armetta.

Wednesday

Bank night adds "Public Enemy's Wife," with Margaret Lindsay and Pat O'Brien.

Thursday and Friday

The Princess presents the most highly touted Western of the decade, "The Texas Rangers." Fred MacMurray and Jean Parker are just two among a whole bevy of stars in this show which Libberty rated "four stars."

Saturday

We again return to the old routine for Saturdays and another "shoot 'em quick" entitled "Arizona Raiders," with Marsha Hunt and Buster Crabbe. Bloodshed guaranteed or your money back.

Monday

"I'd Give My Life," featuring Sir Guy Standing and Frances Drake.

Tuesday

"Walking On Air," with Ann Sothern and Gene Raymond shouldn't be so bad. The fair-haired lad and lassie are plenty good.

Wednesday

Bank night adds "Hollywood Boulevard."

Thursday and Friday

The high spot of the program will come last. One of the most heralded pictures of the past five years is the screen version of Hervey Allen's "Anthony Adverse," with the interpretation of "Anthony" by Fredric March and "Angela" by Olivia DeHavilland. The only show that you just can't afford to even think of missing.

because someone told her she was stuck up?

SOCIETY

Y. M. C. A. PARTY AT DAUGETTE HALL

The Y. M. C. A. entertained at the regular Fall quarter social Saturday evening, November 7, at Daugette Hall. The evening's festivities began with a "mixer" game. The contest was in the form of questions to which the answers were popularly advertised articles. Prom dates concluded the evening's entertainment. An ice course with individual cakes was served.

Those present were James Corley, Lewis McGee, Adrien Haon, B. B. Desmond, Ogburn Gardner, Truman Denman, Millard Lawrence, Waldo Self, Lorene LeCroy, Emma Kate Mynatt, Alvin Gann, Iris Dodd, Eleanor Simmons, Eula Mae Young, Willene Ballinger and Alma Thompson.

B. S. U. THANKSGIVING SERVICE

State President Will Come for Camp-Fire Meeting

Saturday afternoon, Nov. 21, a Thanksgiving Camp-Fire service will be held at the Park under the direction of the B. S. U. Oliver Wilbanks, junior at the University of Alabama, and state president of the B. S. U., will speak at this meeting.

If the weather is inclement, the meeting will be held at the Baptist Church in the form of a Vesper service.

Everyone is invited.

Community Singing

Lee Jones Leads Group at Weatherly Hall Sunday

There was a Community Singing in the parlors at Weatherly Hall Sunday afternoon between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30. The Forney Hall boys were invited, and the singing was led by Lee Jones. Enjoyment of the afternoon reached the proportions of a request for a similar program at an early date.

FRENCH CLUB ENTERTAINS

Party is Held at Daugette Hall

The French Club's quarter social affair was a Hallowe'en party at Daugette Hall. The guests were welcomed by ghosts and were given the privilege of visiting Bluebeard's wives, strung up by the hair of their heads. Another ghost related the fearful and tragic tale of John Broom's body. All guests were branded with the sign of the French Club on the backs of their necks. After many Hallowe'en games were engaged in, dancing was enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones and family; Mlle. Alice Buhler, of Avignon, France; Mildred Sheppard, Catherine Cayley, Robert Felgar, Lucy Williams, Joyce Harper, Bennie Steinberg, Lila Bramblett, Edgar Sanders, Kathryn Hay, Pete Matthews, Evelyn Page, Ray Hollis, Eloise Moses and Lynn Cole.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson, of Weogufka, were recent guests of their daughter, Alma.

Adele Crews has returned from Wedowee where she was called on account of the illness of her mother.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB TO BROADCAST

The Women's Glee Club, under direction of Miss Ada M. Curtiss, will broadcast a program of Christmas music over WRBC Sunday, December 6, at 4 p. m. The program will include solos, a duet and choruses.

The Glee Club has a membership of 30 with excellent talent. Miss Helen Easley will be the accompanist.

INITIATION GIRLS "J" CLUB

The Girls' "J" Club initiated four new members the past week. Letters were awarded to them at assembly period Friday, November 6. The new members are Eleanor Jane Johnston, Peggy Austin, Wilma Johnson and Omega Woodall.

Officers of the club are: President, Rubye Hyatt, and secretary, Jewell Jackson.

DR. WEISHAUP EJECTED TO HONORARY SOCIETY.

Dr. Clara Weishaupt, assistant professor of science and arts, has been elected to active membership in the Ohio State Chapter of the Society of the Sigma Xi.

Dr. Weishaupt, who has been at J. S. T. C. since 1935, received B. S., M. Sc. and Ph. D. degrees from the Ohio State University.

Dr. Weishaupt was an associate member of Xi prior to election to active membership.

Weatherly Hall girls spending the week-end at home were Nettie Giles, Marie Vaughn and Cleo Lambert, Heflin; Hazel Tidwell, Nell Tracy, Center; Marilyn Green, Talladega; Thelma Longshore and Helen Summers, Cedar Bluff; Eleanor Simmons, Gadsden, and Elna Martin, Attalla. Beatrice Cox accompanied Elna Martin home for a week-end visit.

Helen and Kermit Mathison spent the week-end with their parents at New Hope. Mr. and Mrs. Mathison accompanied them back to Jacksonville and visited on the campus Sunday.

Charles Mawell, of Atlanta, was the guest of his brother, J. C. Maxwell, this week.

Geraldine Merritt, who was called to her home in LaFayette on account of the illness of her father, has returned.

WAKEFIELD'S

Fannie Faintheart

Dear Miss Faintheart:

I have recently been distinguished by having the title of "authority on what the well-dressed man will wear" bestowed upon me. Of course, modesty being the keynote in my character, I can't openly tell people what a well-informed stylist for men I have become. Having spent three years at J. S. T. C. in noticing the fashionable foibles of the outstanding males of years, I feel that I am capable of great things in the designing field. Miss Faintheart, I have, written below, descriptions of a few of the newest, but lasting creations in men's clothing. The male population has grown tired of women's browbeating and usurpance of the world of fashion. The world-renowned French designer, Monsieur Adrien Haon and I give you an offering.

Sincerely,
BRYANT STEELE.

My dear Mr. Steele:

Your offering was received with mute wonder and admiration. No further words of mine are necessary. I print your offering verbatim. All I have to say is, "I wonder what fanned that coal of genius into fame. There is only one answer to my mind—as the French would say: Cherchez la femme!"

Appreciatively,
FANNY FAINTHEART.

1. I head my list with a buttoniere which must always be worn for dances, banquets and the evening affairs. The smartest is made of bright, but hard, wooden flowers tied with bamboo vines with the thorns left on. This little gadget not only will prove to be quite decorative, but equally effective. Its purpose is for defense against the fairer (?) sex.

2. I have marvelous news for men! You too can wear red—not dull, "siskess" red, but bright, red red. Here's how: For beach and sports wear, what is the rage? No, not white flannels any more, but red ones. I saw it with my own eyes on the Riviera.

To match their flannels, they wore—red, box-shaped, caps.

3. Have you seen the latest shirts? Convenient? Boy-o-Boy! No collar, but a brilliantly-hued scarf of red, purple, or yellow that knots carelessly on the left side—no more ties, tie pins, and lost buttons. They don't button. One just crawls in—head first of course.

4. The coats, of course, fasten down the left side to correspond with the knotted scarf; however, they don't button; they "zip" with colored zippers.

5. Trousers for everyday wear are similar to the past year's style only in that they are shorter and scalloped at the bottom so as to allow a view of the new shoes which will be worn this year.

6. The shoes may be any color except black or brown. They are extremely high topped and are preferably made of dyed snake skin covered with bright cellophane. They are very decorative!

I hope to have some more ideas concerning men's styles before many months. I hope the men here will push this clothing emancipation movement of the men. Boys, just think how some of you will look in red flannels and cellophane shoes! It's the gypsy in me!"

Eagle-Owls Trounce Navy In Five-Touchdown Romp

Teachers Unleash Devastating Attack to Down Aviators

Baker, Hudson Star in Pensacola Battle

(The Pensacola Journal)

Paced by a swivel-hipped back, Johnnie Baker, and "Red" Hudson, stellar end, who were the outstanding performers at Legion Field, the Jacksonville State Teachers College from Alabama downed the Naval Air station, 33 to 13.

With one of the best blocking teams seen against the Navy this season, the Teachers also proved their worth as ball carriers. Fine blocking and tackling were agumented by a nifty backfield led by Johnnie Baker, who accounted for the first touchdown. His running mate at fullback, Colvin, chalked up two touchdowns and an extra point. Signal-barking Maxwell at quarter handled his team well, threw a touchdown pass to Britton, left half, and booted one of the extra points. Britton scored the other marker from a running play.

CLIFTON LEADS NAVY

The Navy was again led by Coach "Jumping Joe" Clifton, who scored one of their touchdowns, while Country Austin, right tackle, scored the other six points on a surprise play.

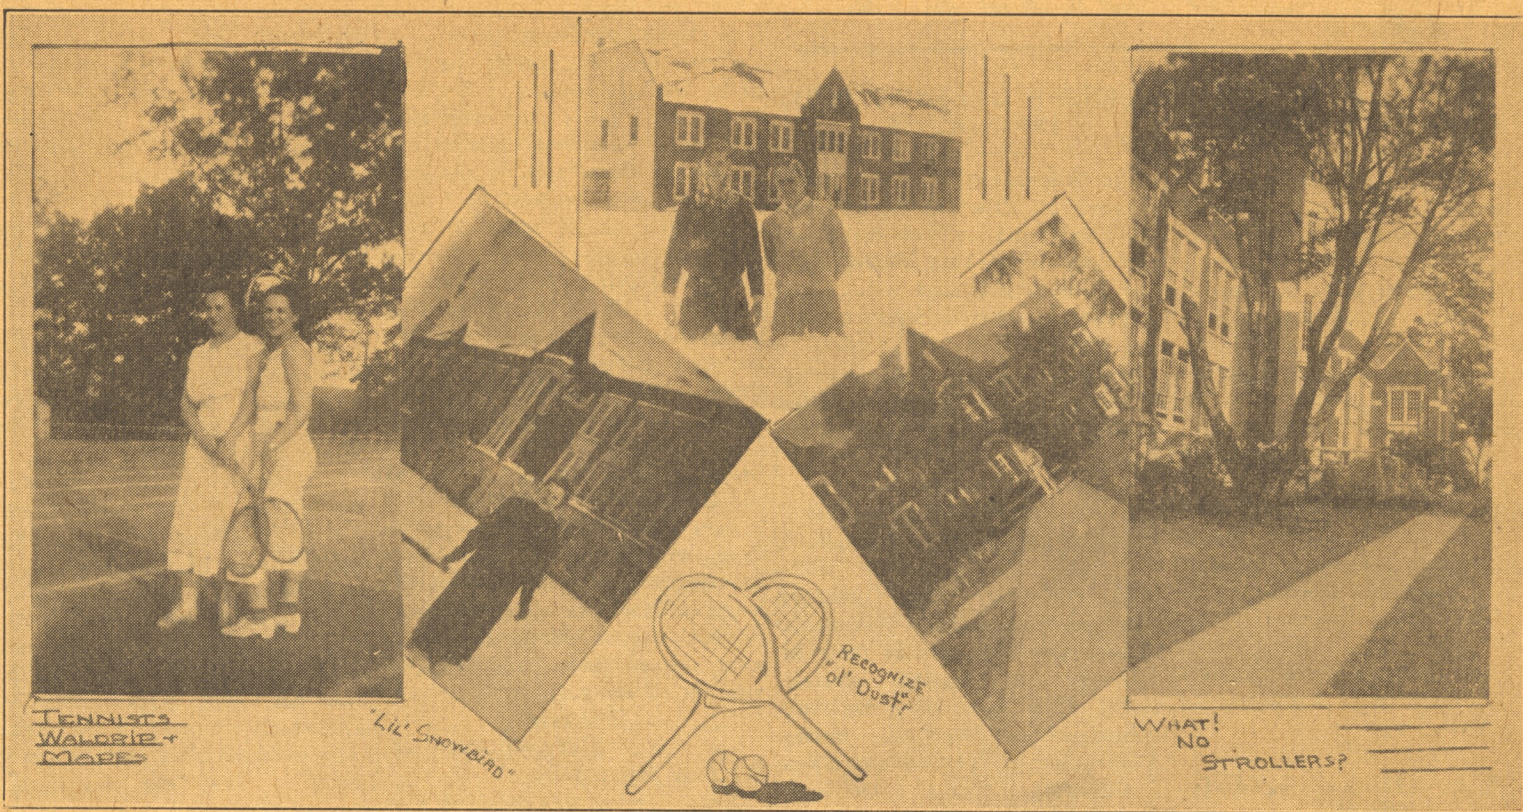

The State Teachers opened with the reception of the kick-off and marched up the field from their own 40 yard line to a touchdown on seven plays. Baker went over the last line for the touchdown and Colvin rushed the extra point over.

They scored a scant two minutes later on a fine pass from Quarterback Maxwell to Britton. But the extra point was missed by Maxwell from placement. The Teachers rolled up five first downs in the first quarter to none for the Navy, who were minus their leader, Clifton.

With Clifton in the lineup in the second quarter the Navy squelched the scoring attack of the Alabama lads, holding them to one first down and one touchdown, while they countered with their initial first down. On a reverse play from their own 30 yard marker Colvin swung around left end to tally the third touchdown, and Maxwell flung a pass to Bassett, a wingman, to the end zone for the extra point.

TIDE TURNS

The tide was turned in favor of the Navy in the third quarter when they recovered an Alabama fumble in midfield. From here they drove down the field on some

We are inaugurating our publication of home-made photos with a splurge this week. The photos above were made by Hannah

King Waldrip and Edgar Sanders, and we are sure that all will join us in praise of their efforts, but we are going to praise them more effectively than you can by giving them a couple of tickets to the Ritz. Turn in your photos, and for every one printed you may have your choice of a pass to the Princess or Ritz theatres. Haul out that old camera, or else buy one from a Teacola advertiser!

Jonnie Ford had as her guests at Weatherly Hall Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Ford; her sister, Mrs. Joe Germany; her brother, Byron Ford, and her friends Miss Joie Simms, Miss Tootsie Henderson, Mr. Alfred Pearson and Dr. and Mrs. Guy Denney, all of LaFayette.

fine plunging by Joe Clifton and Schmolke. On a fluke play Schmolke lost the ball in the line and Country Austin recovered it in midair, carrying it over for their first touchdown. Clifton countered the extra point by driving through the line.

Both the Navy and the 'Bama boys scored in the fourth quarter. Clifton drove the ball almost single-handed from midfield over the goal line. Colvin, of the Teachers intercepted a pass, making the longest run of the game late during the fourth quarter, running the ball from his own 20 yard marker to the Navy's 30 fore being forced down. The Navy ran up nine first downs to 11 for the Jacksonville boys. Both teams were penalized five yards and each team had two passes intercepted.

College Classes To Vie For Volleyball Supremacy

Tournament To Be Held In Kilby Hall Tuesday Night

Tournament competition for the Class Volleyball championship will be held in Kilby Hall Tuesday night according to a recent announcement by Coach Julian Stephenson.

Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen will take the floor in the "Kill and Boost" racket for the 1936-37 honor.

The various freshman aggregations will have their run-off for class supremacy Monday night in order to have their entry in the drawing list.

The "Rats" will rule slight favorites to cop the crown due to the fact that they have been playing the game throughout the quarter, whereas the other sextets have not. However, all the classes boast nifty combinations and the result will be in doubt until the final whistle.

All conflicting meetings have been cancelled and a large crowd is anticipated for the games.
