

HIGHLIGHTS OF WORLD NEWS

The heroic defenders of the Alcazar, ancient Spanish fortress in Toledo, are rescued by the advance forces of the victorious Rightist army. The fighting is almost unbelievably ferocious.

The returns from various straw votes give the impression that Landon will win a one-sided victory in the November election, but the betting moguls continue to favor the president by a considerable margin, giving fair odds.

Little Orphan Annie, precocious funny paper brat, rapidly nears new adventures with her mongrel mutt, Sandy, watching carefully over her.

Riggs Stephenson's Barons, winners of the Southern League's Shaughnessy playoff, invade the home field of the Tulsa Oilers two-down for the third game.

Russia threatens to demand a free hand in assisting the Spanish Loyalists if the Rightist nations, Germany, Portugal and Italy do not cease to aid the insurgents.

ASSEMBLY ATTENDANCE INCREASED

Considerable increase in attendance at assembly was noted this week. Dean Wood arranged for N. Y. A. assistants to take the names of all present, and Monday morning all students present promptly saw to it that their names were not omitted. President Daugeite has announced that students who are not regular attendants at assembly twice weekly will not be eligible for extra quality points which faculty members may be permitted to allow.

Meeting in assembly with students and faculty is the best way to keep in touch with all campus activities as important announcements are frequently made. The orchestra is an inspiration to those who wish to sing, or just listen. The marching, directed by Dr. Daugeite, is splendid exercise and training. Students often miss messages of outstanding speakers of the state by being absent from assembly.

ST. BERNARD TO PLAY OWLS HERE

Lone Home Game to be Played November 6.

Coach Tom Shotts announced Tuesday that the State Teachers College will face St. Bernard College football team in the only home showing of the season, probably November 6. The exact date is still pending, but will be confirmed presently, according to Shotts. The St. Bernard fray will mark the first meeting between the two schools on the gridiron, but the local basketball team crushed the Catholics here in a cage contest last season.

A gala occasion is in the offing for the only showing of the Owls here, and record attendance is expected for the contest.

It has been said that "the school teacher writes the insurance policy of democracy."—William J. Bogan.

POPULAR BROTHERS

RIGGS STEPHENSON

By Malcolm Street

On the campus of the University of Alabama some sixteen years ago a stirring baseball duel was being waged. The powerful Crimson aggregation was fighting doggedly against a conference rival. Sitting in the stands watching the embrogia was aveteran scout of the New Orleans Pelicans of the Southern League. Leading the Tide attack were three men; a diminutive shortstop, a fast, squatty second baseman, and a rangy, hustling backstop. To the practiced eye of the ivory hunter, all three seemed to have the goods.

Rushing from the stand immediately after the fray, the scout sent Jules Heinemann, president of the Pelicans, the following wire:

"Have seen three of best college players I ever saw—shortstop, second baseman, catcher Stop Shall I sign them."

BILL.

The crafty Heinemann looked over his large Pel squad. He was well stocked at second and behind the plate. So he wired back: "Sign the shortstop."

The shortstop was Joe Sewell. He reported immediately and began to set the Southern loop on fire. In late August when one of

JULIAN STEPHENSON

Carl May's fast balls killed Ray Chapman, short-fielder of the Cleveland Indians. Sewell was brought up to fill the breach. He performed brilliantly, the Tribe copped the pennant and Joey Sewell played in the World Series only four months off the University of Alabama Campus.

But what, you ask, became of the catcher and second-sacker? The catcher was Luke Sewell, brother of Joe, and destined to become one of the greatest receivers of all time with the Washington Senators and Chicago White Sox. The second baseman was a lad named Jackson Riggs Stephenson, and this is where our story takes on local interest. Riggs has an older brother who is none other than our own Athletic Director, Julian W. Stephenson, himself a great diamond luminary at the Capstone in former days.

Riggs Stephenson crashed the major league with those same Cleveland Indians, playing at second base. Having an uncanny knack at hitting the ball, Steve combed the Johnsons, Pennocks, and Hoyts for a respectable average during his stay in Cleveland. But one day that bane of all ball-players' existence overtook him—

(Continued on page 2, column 5)

Lucy Williams Named Head of Tennis Club

Courts Will Be Kept in Condition by Committee

The Tennis Club held its second meeting of the quarter Tuesday, October 6. During this meeting new officers were elected and important business disposed of.

Lucy Williams was elected president; Robert Felgar, vice-president; Lois Giles, secretary-treasurer, and Bennie Steinberg, reporter. Dr. Humphreys and Dr. Thompson are faculty advisers.

A motion was carried that the club make regular reports to Coach Stephenson regarding condition of the courts. Chairmen in charge of this work are the following:

Robert Felgar for the Pelham Road courts; Harry Frost for the Forney Hall courts, Mrs. Lorraine Porch for the Daugeite Hall court, and Ruby Burton for the Weatherly Hall court.

Regular meetings of the club will be on the first and third Tuesdays. The next meeting will be October 20. All students interested in the club are invited to join.

MORNING WATCH AT DAUGETTE HALL

Morning Watch was conducted in Daugeite Hall Sunday morning at the regular hour. Fanny Thompson was in charge of the program. Capitola Moon gave the devotional in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Porch sang a solo, which was followed by the Watchword.

October 4, Morning Watch was in charge of Sara Bichfield. Jessie Frank Clark gave the devotional. Louree Gregg read a poem, after which the meeting was brought to a close by the Watchword.

Morgan Society Opens For Year

Elect Officers and Plot Campaign in a Joint Meeting Wednesday Night

FORTY SINGERS MAKE UP THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Forty students who tried out for the Glee Club have been accepted for membership, according to the list released by Miss Ada Curtiss, director. At the first meeting, September 23, plans for the year were discussed by the group.

Officers elected were Mrs. Lorraine Porch, president; Eleanor Jeffers, secretary-treasurer; Claire Mae Jones, corresponding secretary.

The mebership includes the following:

First sopranos—Ruby Burton, Cara Mae Hendrix, Captolia Moon, Elsie Moses, Mrs. Lorraine Porch, Nadine Rosser, Edith Street, Marie Vaughn, Margaret Hinds, Mrs. Hannah King Waldrip, Margureite Perry, Rachel Wheeler, and Gladys Kidd.

Second Sopranos—Cleat Elizabeth Carr, Olive Crowley, Sarah Ford, Olive Harlis, Eleanor Jeffers, Arra B. Jones, Cleo Lambert, Nell O'Mary, Mildred Presley, Eleanor Simmons, Elizabeth Stuart, Florence Edwards, Estelle Miller, Benevis Harris, Virginia Satterfield and Mary Brewer.

Altos—Lila Bramblett, Louree Gregg, Ruby Hyatt, Claire Mae Jones, Ruby Poole, Paula Taylor, Louise Howle, Mabel Hopkins, Sarah Birchfield, and Evelyn Veazey.

LARGE NUMBER OF STUDENTS TAKE IN ATHLETICS HERE

Athletic Department Plans a Well-rounded Sports Calendar

All sports are getting well under way as the students settle down to the grind of the school year. Miss Sellers and Coach Stephenson are sponsoring intramural athletics and a large number of students are taking part. Every year finds more emphasis being placed on intra-mural athletics in an effort to get all students to take some form of exercise.

On the outdoor-courts below Daugeite Hall the girls' athletic clubs are practicing hard for their coming volley ball tournament. In the gymnasium Coach Stephenson has his boys working equally hard, and there will be many a hard fought battle before the champion is crowned.

The tennis courts are usually full of students practicing their service of backhand for the tournaments which will begin soon. The forming of the Tennis Club, with Dr. Humphries and Dr. Thompson as faculty advisers, should arouse a greater interest in this popular sport.

Baseball has its spot in the interest of the boys, and some ambitious upper-classmen are already looking over the freshmen for prospective members of their intra-mural teams next spring.

The Morgan Literary Society met Wednesday night in a joint meeting, with Kermit Mathison acting as temporary chairman. A program, including the invitation by Newburn Bush, past president, vocal solos by Mrs. Porch, and a reading by Helen Mathison was presented.

Officers for the girls elected were, Claire Mae Jones, president; Marguerite Perry, vice-president; Emma Kate Mynatt, secretary-treasurer; Dimple Smith, reporter, and Margaret Hinds, cheer-leader.

The following boys were elected: Bryant Steel, president; Kermit Mathison, vice-president; James Kemp, secretary-treasurer; Malcolm Brewer, cheer-leader, and Thad Barrow, reporter.

Although the matter was not discussed at length, it is the plan of the Morgan heads to nominate officers for all classes and for each elective position on the social committee. As one Morgan put it, "We'll correspond more or less to the Democrats, while the Calhouns may be likened to Anarchists or Communists." It is anticipated that most loyal Morgans will vote the straight Morgan ticket in the school-wide elections, although this will not be required.

The usual Morgan spirit was even more evident last year, when the Morgans joyed a banner season. Many new members came out.

PROF. A. C. SHELTON ANNOUNCES EXTENSION COURSES

Prof. A. C. Shelton, director of extension, has announced extension courses for Attalla, Gadsden, Woodland and Wedowee. The courses at Gadsden will be English and Psychology, and will be offered at the Elliott school Wednesday afternoon, October 14, at three o'clock. Prof. Hendrix will teach the English class, and the Psychology course will be with either Dr. Allison or Dr. Austin.

October 17, at nine o'clock, Dr. Austin will meet a class in Psychology in Attalla for Etowah County teachers. Probably another course will be offered there on that date.

Geography 401 and 403 will be offered with Prof. McCluer at Woodland October 17, at nine-thirty. Courses in English will be offered in Wedowee on the same date.

PROF. SHELTON ELECTED ALDERMAN

Prof. A. C. Shelton, registrar and director of extension, was elected alderman in the recent city election. Prof. Shelton, who was one of the councilmen re-elected, has shown considerable interest in civic matters since coming to Jacksonville to reside in 1924.

Weatherly Hall

One of the Dormitories for Women

SEE A SHOW—ON US!

Through the courtesy of the Princess Theatre, The Teacola is inaugurating a policy of awarding two tickets to the afore-mentioned movie house each week to the winner of a football-guessing contest which will be run until further notice. The contest involves the naming of the winners of 20 outstanding grid battles to be played each week, the contending teams in which will be published in The Teacola.

The following rules will govern the contest:

1. The contest is open to all bonafide students of the college and the faculty members, excluding persons connected with The Teacola.
2. Only the winning team must be designated. No estimates of the scores are necessary.
3. All entries are to be in the Morgans!

Play the winner, Freshmen!

The Morgan Literary Society invites all new students who have not as yet made up their mind to join the Morgans to attend our next meeting. you'll be heartily welcomed.

Teacola office or in the hands of Mathison, Steele or Street before 12:00 noon on the Friday of each week.

4. Prizes will be awarded to the person or persons naming the most winners.

The games must be designated as such.

5. The decision of the judges will be final.

6. No person may submit more than one entry for any one week.

Games for Saturday, October 10:

1. Alabama-Miss. State.
2. Auburn-Tennessee.
3. Southwestern-Vanderbilt.
4. Rice-Texas A. & M.
5. Southern California-Illinois.
6. Mercer-Birmingham - Southern.

7. Minnesota-Nebraska.
8. California-Oregon State.
9. Purdue-Wisconsin.

1. Fordham-So. Methodist.
12. North Carolina-Delaware.
11. Georgia Tech-Kentucky.
13. Notre Dame-Washington Univ.

14. Ohio State-Pittsburgh.
15. Yale-Pennsylvania.
16. Columbia-Army.
17. Howard-Loyola.

- High school games:
18. Anniston-Oxford.
  19. Jacksonville-Ohatchee.
  20. Gadsden-Bessemer.

Games for Saturday, October 17:

1. Alabama-Tennessee.
2. Auburn-Detroit.
3. Georgia-Rice.
4. Georgia Tech-Duke.
5. Kentucky-Washington & Lee.

- L. S. U.-Miss. University.
7. Tulane-Colgate.
8. Vanderbilt-So. Methodist.
9. Bowdoin (Maine)-Williams.
10. Nebraska-Indiana.
11. Minnesota-Michigan.
12. Holy Cross-Manhattan.
13. Montana-Gonzaga.
14. Illinois-Iowa.
15. Centre-Birmingham - Southern.

16. Roanoke-Catawba.
17. Iowa State-Cornell College.
18. Alfred-Buffalo.
19. Texas A. & M.-Rice.
20. Oglethorpe-Troy Teachers.

NOSEBAG

By THAD BARROW

A printing shop is a most interesting place to visit, but I wouldn't advise it as a place to loaf, especially if it's Steve's shop and you are supposed to be reading proof. There's usually a tremendous rush, due to The Teacola staff's failure to send in the copy on time, and if you don't watch out you'll get run over.

Mr. Church, who was running a linotype before most of us were ordered, looks properly annoyed at our failure to give him a little more time on the printing. If the staff had yours truly's job of reading the proof, there wouldn't be so much procrastination.

I won't even try to comment on the political question intelligently, but to he alarmist's cry of radicalism in the present administration, I can at least point to other countries. We are still the most "middle way" of the major powers, and there seems to be no powerful growth in either wing. Some of the commentators try to give the impression that under the present administration the country will soon be one vast commune.

There is the usual fall rise in the literary society stock coming on, and the year promises to bring out some fine debaters. Pete Matthews, the standout debater of last year's affair, is virtually assured of the first speakership of the Morgan entry, but he will not have a walkaway. All place will be wide open, and there will probably be a real scramble for them.

Red Hudson will probably try to run into somebody nearer Maxwell's size than Johnny Baker next time. The big end is still nursing a nice bruise on his face where he collided with his teammate in the M. T. T. game. A case of the irresistible force hitting an immovable object, or something.

Five hundred new books in the library look plenty good. The sad part about it is that we don't have time to read any of them except the history and education references with math, and French taking up so much of what we wish were leisure time. When we have used up the customary time in doing exactly nothing there is none left for "orthwhile" leisure projects.

Wickes Wamboldt, in an editorial in yesterday's paper, scathingly denounced the American policy of staying out of the League of Nations. He reiterates again and again that the time will come when the United States will realize that she could have averted the recent debauches in foreign powers' aggression had she properly used her influence for peace and goodwill. He apparently thinks that the United States' intervention in world affairs through the league would have corrected the living conditions and birthrate of Italy, the economic conditions of Japan, and kept Germany in the paths of democracy. No, the troubles of the world are too deep-seated to have been precipitated merely by the decision of one major power to isolate herself diplomatically.

He says that we made a magnificent gesture in the World War and criminally neglected to follow up our bid as savior of the world. I say that we learned an expensive lesson and applied it as well as we might.

There's a good program at the Princess for the coming week. The highlight of the offerings seems to be "Trouble For Two," with Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell.

"Education is the function of the whole state, to be exercised for the equal benefit of all children within its borders."—Governor Pollard of Virginia.

POPULAR BROTHERS

(Continued from page 1)

a weak arm. For some unknown reason, the salary whip became useless and back to the minors went Riggs. But you can't keep a good man down! Stephenson turned to the outfield for his salvation. He slowly regained his throwing prowess and his lusty clouting earned him another trial—with the Chicago Cubs. For years "Ole Hoss" patrolled left field for the Wrigley entry in flawless fashion. He became one of the greatest right-handed hitters that the National League has ever seen.

He played in the World Series of 1929 and 1932 teaming with the illustrious Hack Wilson and Kiki Cuyler in the outer garden.

But youth must be served, and Stephenson once more slipped back to the minors in 1935, pounding the agate for a .340 average at Indianapolis. In the fall of 1935 Riggs was named manager of the Birmingham Barons. It is common knowledge how he took a squad of players rated to finish well down in the second division and personally led them into the playoffs, and into the Dixie Series, not only telling them how but showing the way with a nifty .355 batting mark.

Despite his years, Stephenson is one of the best defensive outfielders in the league, as he knows how to play the batters. Those of us who have watched his play this year know that he rarely has to move out of his tracks for a fly ball.

Stephenson was also a great football star at Alabama, being named by The Birmingham News last year as fullback on the all-time Alabama team, gaining the nod over Johnny Cain, to who's prowess we can all attest.

Jacksonville is proud of Julian and Riggs Stephenson, two of Alabama's finest contributions to the field of athletics.

Mrs. Lois Anderson of Lanett, visited her daughter, Mildred, Wednesday.

THE MORNING AFTER SATURDAY NIGHT

By Lee Jones

Well—what's your program? Or do you have one? You are sleepy, of course. When thoughts of church come, do you like far too many of do? Just say, "Heck, I can't make church today. Dated too heavy this week-end. I guess I better study some for that stiff exam tomorrow."

Or perhaps you are a little cold toward the church, and think that going will help you none, besides causing the loss of several good study hours. I'm no preacher, but think on this:

"No time for God?

What fools we are, to clutter up
Our lives with common things
And leave without heart's gate
The Lord of life and Life itself—
Our God!"

Be honest about the matter. You know Sunday should be neither toiled away nor idled away. If one comes to college and studies only books, he grows one-sided, and may be compared to a knotty apple—good on one side, without merit on the other. Education should give us a broader outlook on life and a greater appreciation of its values, physical, mental and spiritual. So go to some church—it needs you; you need it. Give it a chance to help you.

A word to the freshmen: Start off right; go to church as you did at home; don't let some upper-classman tell you that "real" students do not go to church. Real ones do go.

"Just gotta study." If you feel that here is no other time except Sunday, study Sunday afternoon; or try this policy: Determine you aren't going to study on Sunday. Throw books away Saturday night. You'll enjoy the freedom on Sunday—you'll feel better over it. Try it out a few times and you'll be glad I wrote this. You'll find time for your work.

I challenge you to give yourself a "break." Go to church, pray a little, read the Bible a little. Life will be fuller.

President Daugette Addresses Assembly

Proper Attitude of Students Stressed

President C. W. Daugette addressed the faculty and student-body at assembly Friday morning, October 2. The president talked on a high standard of attitude, referring particularly to the attitude of students toward attendance at benefit performances frequently given in Jacksonville for the purpose of raising money for scholarship and loan funds with which various organizations endow the college. He called attention to the fact that many students now attending J. S. T. C. are reaping the benefits of loan funds, and should show their appreciation by patronizing benefit performances in order that others may be permitted to take advantage of loan funds.

FORMER STUDENT
PRESENTS ASSEMBLY
PROGRAM ON FRIDAY

Marvin Glasscock, of Cullman, and associates presented a program at the assembly period Friday morning, September 25. The program consisted of readings and vocal numbers. Mr. Glasscock attended J. S. T. C. in 1932-33 and again at the Summer session of 1936. He is teaching in Cullman County at Center Hill. He was in Jacksonville for a visit with Mrs. Glasscock who is a student here.

DAUGETTE HALL
A fire-proof Dormitory for Women

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
SPONSORS PLAY FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church sponsored a play which was presented in Kilby Hall Saturday evening to augment the scholarship fund which that organization gives to the college.

The play, A Mock Trial, was full of wit and humor with Judge R. B. Carr, of Anniston, presiding. Other Anniston attorneys in the cast were Messrs. Walter Merrill, Clarence Williams and Rankin Daugette. Faculty members and J. S. T. C. students also played parts, the leading roles being played by Prof. Lance Hendrix, plaintiff, and Mrs. Thomas Shotts, defendant.

REV. EDWARDS SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

The Rev. J. Ivey Edwards, pastor of the Baptist Church was the guest speaker at assembly Monday morning, October 5. The Rev. Mr. Edwards urged the students to make a definite program for living by throwing themselves wholly into their work at the proper time, and by giving no less enthusiasm to play in turn.

Mrs. Love directed group singing to accompaniment of the college orchestra.

Mrs. Eudora Frith, of Gadsden, visited the campus and friends at Weatherly Hall last week. Mrs. Frith will teach at Arab.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Sheridan, of Bessemer, visited their daughter, Catherine, Saturday.

Sue Neely and Thelma Longshore spent the week-end at Cedar Bluff.

WITH FORMER "J" CLUB MEMBERS

Lettermen from last year who have found new fields to conquer are: Hoke Wallace, who played guard on the football team for three years, is now teaching at Wigginton, in Marion County.

"Red" Jacobs, captain and forward of last year's basketball team, has assumed his duties as head coach and athletic director at Fruithurst, the metropolis of East Alabama. (Population 220.)

Shelton Akers, center on the football team last year, is assistant coach at Brilliant High School.

"Fuzzy" Huchins, who played end, did not return to school and is working at Gulf State Steel Corp., in Gadsden.

Excel Baker, fullback, is working at Goodyear Tire Co., in Gadsden.

Eulon Hill, forward in basketball and one of Jacksonville's most brilliant baseball players, is teaching in the public school at Boaz.

Emmett Baker, an all-around athlete who was a star at quarterback on last year's football team, is teaching at Rison Mills, in Huntsville.

R. P. Steed, the hustling manager of last year's basketball team, has accepted a teaching position in Cherokee County.

"Swede" Sandlin, a hard-hitting tackle last year, is working at Monsanto Chemical Co., in Anniston.

Ralph Burleson, a tackle of last year's football team, is now teaching and coaching in Marion County.

Jack Bartlett, a forward on last year's basketball team, is teaching in Randolph County.

Audrey Mae Penton spent the week-end as guest of Rubye Hyatt at White Plains.

Farming Leads Occupations Among Patrons

According to statistics compiled from registration cards, farming is far in the lead of occupations among patrons of J. S. T. C. Grocers and other merchants stand second, with teachers third. Postal employees are fourth, with carpenters, miners, lumbermen and salesmen following in order. The fathers of some students are county officials, bank employees and other clerical workers, insurance men, physicians, dentists, lawyers, ministers and real estate men. Others are steel workers, highway and other state employees, photographers, barbers, engineers, garage operators, railroad men, veterinarians, mechanics, painters, plasterers, electricians, textile workers, policemen.

There are students who report parents unemployed or deceased, and in a number of these cases it is interesting to note how, in spite of most adverse circumstances, boys and girls are managing to get the coveted college education. Many are paying their own expenses by teaching or doing other work between school terms, while others are being educated by brothers, sisters or other relatives. The education of more than one student represents the sacrifice of a widowed mother who is eagerly looking forward to the day when her child will be equipped to meet life. In a few cases understanding friends have arranged for expenses of students in whom they have vested confidence and who show promise of developing into teachers who will repay their benefactors.

LIBRARY ADDS 500
NEW BOOKS

MAGAZINES BOUND

Interest Manifested in Books on Southern Literature, History

Approximately 500 new books were added to the college library at the opening of school, according to Mrs. Ramona M. Wood, librarian. This brings the total number to about 20,000.

Contributing to a broader opportunity for study, the new books cover the needs of the various departments, and include numbers for popular reading, Mrs. Wood said. They were chosen from lists recommended by heads of various departments who collaborated with the librarians in the selection.

To the magazine shelves have been added neatly bound issues representing weekly and monthly periodicals received at the college during the past year. They are bound in well selected shades of buckram and are attractive as well as durable bindings. Mrs. Wood's selection of magazine bindings is a departure from plans noted in some other libraries where magazines are bound in black or such somber shades that give one a ghastly feeling upon entering the magazine section. Current magazines are received regularly and cover the need of the student for such periodicals.

Daily and weekly newspapers from over the state continue to arrive, and students who feel the urge to keep in touch with current topics may check out papers for reading in the library.

Mrs. Wood and her assistant, Mrs. Daugette, are enthusiastic over building a collection of history and literature of the South. They aspire to make it a collection giving a true picture, impartial and unbiased, of Southern history and literature.

MRS. JONES CALLED TO MISSISSIPPI

Mrs. James H. Jones, wife of Dr. Jones, assistant professor of French, was called to University, Mississippi, last week on account of the illness of her father, Dr. Alfred Hume. Dr. Hume is chancellor emeritus of the University of Mississippi. He was injured in an automobile accident.

Lois Collier and Jewel Jackson visited relatives at Altoona Sunday.

J. H. FRYAR
General
Merchant
STUDENTS WELCOME

Today
PAT O'BRIEN
—in—
"CHINA CLIPPER"
Saturday
Anne Shirley—John Beal
—in—
"M'LISS"
Monday and Tuesday
LORETTA YOUNG
—in—
"RAMONA"
In beautiful natural colors.
Wednesday
HERBERT MARSHALL
—in—
"FORGOTTEN FACES"
RITZ THEATRE
Anniston

THE TEACOLA

Published every two weeks by the Student Body of The State Teachers College, Jacksonville, Alabama.

Subscription Rate $1.00 Per Year

Entered as second-class matter March 30, 1934, at the post office at Jacksonville, Ala., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

—S T A F F—

Editor	Thad Barrow
Associate Editor	Harolyn Franklin
Business Manager	Malcolm Street
Society Editor	Hannah King Waldrip
Associate Society Editors	Jescar Irvin and Geraldine Merritt
Associate Sports Editors	Bryant Steele and Kermit Mathison
Laboratory School Editor	Sarah Jordan
Feature Writer	Pete Matthews
Circulation Manager	Ernest Penny
Publicity Chairman	Dana T. Davis
Faculty Adviser	A. C. Shelton
Reporters	Ruth DeArman, Arthur Allen Bismarck Evans, Marguerite Perry, Bennie Steinberg, Rupert Burnham and Richard Barnes.

JACKSONVILLE SPORTS

With this sports edition of the TEACOLA coming to print, and with a national interest in the World Series and the beginning of the football season being reflected brightly here, it is but natural that something should be said about the college athletic program.

To begin with, we don't have a huge endowment, we don't have a wealthy alumni, and we don't choose to impose a staggering athletic fee. We have a broad program of athletics which naturally necessitates the judicious division of funds for each, and it follows that we can't go out and recruit enough ex-pugs and coal miners to put us on a parity with the University in football. Rather, it is the aim of the administration to give as many as possible an opportunity to take part in as many sports as possible under the present conditions. That the program is successful is evident. We have a football team that ranks well with almost any other teachers college product, a fine basket ball team every year, and the tennis team is the terror of the campuses of this section.

The latest plans for the college athletics involve the organization of a track team. We have an abundance of track material here, and with the traditional Jacksonville competitive spirit we have no doubts that in time the J. S. T. C. runners, jumpers, and weight men will make real records in Alabama athletics. The plans are as yet embryonic, and the student-body can do much good by putting the right words in the right places.

And in talking about local athletics, don't forget the intramural program. Last spring and summer we saw some of the most interested and rabidly enthusiastic sporting crowds in our experience watching—soft ball games!!

ATTIC-SALT

When Will Rogers died he was mourned by many nations, which proves that the world likes to laugh. All of us miss his keen flashes of wit over the radio and in various publications.

We here at J. S. T. C. like to laugh as well as the rest of the world, and TEACOLA wants wit and humour for its readers. Just as the humourist is the life of the party with "agreeable rattle," (as Goldsmith puts it), ready wit is smart and makes the humorous article bring the whole page to life.

TEACOLA is read by hundreds of people on and off the campus. We are asking those who contribute wit and humour to our columns to use only the clean type of fun that would be used as clever repartee were the writer in conversation with the readers instead of reaching them through the written word.

Ye campus wags, let us have jokes that you can make merry with. Consider their age; we cannot use chestnuts. Some have been discarded on account of their whiskers.

The clean or evil mind is revealed by the type of humour a fellow radiates. TEACOLA wants jokes that are clever, keen-witted, sprightly, full of point. The lines fall flat upon the ear and humour is horribly disfigured when it becomes uncouth or crude. A brilliant mind leaves an impression of a dearth of ideas when it resorts to suggestive slants.

And don't forget, campus wags, "brevity is the soul of wit."

STUDY COURSE IS HELD FOR BAPTIST STUDENTS

Baptist students at J. S. T. C. participated in a study course each evening last week at the Baptist Church. The course was conducted by the Rev. Davis C. Woolley, Baptist student secretary at Auburn. The subject for study was "Investments in Christian Living." The class was concluded Friday evening when tests were given. A number of dormitory students, as well as those residing in town, enrolled for the course.

METHODIST STUDENTS ORGANIZE

Mrs. Lorraine Tingle Porch was elected president of the Methodist Student Conference when a group of Methodist students met for organization with the Rev. R. C. Wilson, pastor of the M. E. Church, South. Other officers elected were Harry Frost, vice-president, and Bobbie Jean Burgess, secretary. Mrs. Porch and Miss Burgess were appointed leaders of the Methodist music department.

Other departments will be organized and committees appointed.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

BIBB GRAVES HALL

SOURCASM

According to Lee Jones, dim lights have the most scandal power.

1st. "Has Percy looked over those freshman themes yet?"

2nd. "Oh, a sort of cursory examination."

3rd. "I'll say, I never heard such language in all my life."

R. P. Jr.: "What about a little publicity, Editor?"

Editor: "Maybe, what about?"

R. P. Jr.: "Little ole Lorraine Saxon."

Editor: "What do you get out of it?"

R. P. Jr.: "Oh, a little consideration."

Edgar Sanders: "Could you learn to love me?"

Key: "Well, I learned to eat the carrots and peas mixture."

Grier: "This is the slickest floor I ever danced on."

Lois: "You never danced, and that's my new patent-leather shoes, not the floor."

Benny: "I've had a hard life. At eighteen I was left an orphan."

Big'n: "My goo'nes', what did you do with it?"

Connie: "Times is awful hard."

Weatherly Griper: "Yeh, especially meal times!"

Bennie Gorman: "That's all very well about throwing in an extra pair of pants; throw in an extra coat and I'll take it."

Back during the fifth quarter when all the suitable lodging places had been crowded out, it is reported that a certain gent had this experience. One landlady was showing him through a dingy bedroom, and remarked, "As a whole this is quite a nice room."

"Quite right", he replied, "but as a bedroom it won't do."

G. I. Lovett is quite a pitcher. At the National Guard camp sundown came as he was pitching in the last half of the ninth inning, one run behind. Two were out, and the count was three and two on the batter when Lovett loosed one of his famous slow balls. The game had to be called on account of darkness!

There may be plenty of horse sense represented on the campus, but there's a tragic lack of "Rat" sense!

Plunkett: "Have you even been pinched for going too fast?"

"Red" Kemp: "No, but I've been slapped."

Pentecost: "Someone wants you on the phone."

Frank Bassett: "Well, if it's a girl tell her I'll be there and if it's a man tell him I'll take a pint."

Mary: "Oh, my, I'm so sick."

Beatrice: "What's the matter?"

Mary: "I think it's my heart."

Beatrice: "See Dr. Rowan. He'll put a stop toy that."

Lee: "That picnic was all right except for the chicken. It was so tough I couldn't eat it."

Rita: "That was one of those Plymouth rocks they raise in Cleburne County."

HORATIO

der ma

seems lik i bin her a yer now but i dont gess so mr hendrickz sed we got a cwiz cumen for sickz weeks i dont gess he liks me he sez i cant spel worth a bad word i guess ime pretty iggerrent mis un dont lik the way i seng threw mi noze she dont no nothen about singin i gess miz hendrickz tride tu make us al ete spenetch fer our vitlz but i cudn ete the mes so i wint tu toun to ete at jortiz i dax em what he had and he sed hot dogz i thot of mi pore cune hounz an i dint hav the hart tu ete a pore ole dog hot or cole i finale et 7 or ate hambirgez an wint to the domytory its wher i sta and itz a big plac i gess 4 or five duzn boyz sta there sum boyz sed as how tha shud rat me i tole them i dint no as tu what the deferd but tha cudn rat me or cat me nethr their cowrdz caus the wudn scrap wuth 2 cinse mister croe ant in jale the barz is to kepe out the boys from stelen the muny watch out for mi cune houns yore luvén sun horatio.

Jokin' Along

Freshman: "Central, how much will it cost to talk to a girl in Daugette Hall?"

Central: "Deposit your nickel, please."

Freshman: "Can't you make me a special rate for just listening? I want to call a sophomore."

Student: "Mr. McCluer, there's a question that bothers me."

Mr. McCluer: "Well, what is it?"

Student: "I understand how we acquired Alaska by purchase from Russia, but I never have understood how the United States got Canada."

The Wandering Reporter Reports

Edith Hestle saying "tell me no."... Edgar Sanders telling a femme he has a physique like Tarzan... Marguerite Perry wanting to know why a loop thread is on a plain weave... Lee Jones having Dr. Glazner back up three questions so he could spout off about yesterday's lesson... Malcolm Brewer talking in his room in an unknown language to three pictures of the same girl... Sarah Birchfield wanting a drop card... Fanny Thompson going to Pleasant Valley to teach... Eleanor Mapes carrying an emty piece of paper all over Anniston under the impression that it contained musical possibilities... Ray Hollis pretending to be interested in his studies... Thad Barrow remaining in Jacksonville for three months in order to keep up with the new serial at the Princess Theatre... Rat Childress with a forced smile on his face when he meets an upper-classman... Willie Brooks checking up on the chapel-goers... "Rat" Steinberg looking slightly squelched... Mr. Shelton re-elected to the City Council... Scrambled eggs for breakfast at Daugette Hall... Key Waldrip dictating the Teacola policy... Mrs. Samuels reading this as it takes form... Mrs. Pyron accusing the wandering reporter of being a loafer... Maxwell growing in his own estimation... The chicken coop (Way-side Inn) being publicized... The wandering reporter signing off.

Nola McIntyre spent the weekend with her parents at Roy Webb.

GEORGE'S LUNCH
Phone 9103
"The Talk of the Town"
We Specialize in
Chicken Dinners, 25c.
All Sandwiches on Toast
5c and 10c.
Candies, Cigars, Cigarettes,
Soft Drinks
Next door to Holden's Filling Station
College Students Cordially Invited

Crow Drug Co.
●
"LITTLE BUT LOUD"
●
We Deliver

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of Jacksonville
Solicits your patronage. Feel free to command our service.
All deposits guaranteed up to $5000

Princess Theatre
COOLEST SPOT IN TOWN
"GOOD SHOW OUR MOTTO"
Students We Strive To Please

SOCIETY

He Forgot to Register

By Edgar A. Guest

He kicked about the taxes and he jeered at men in power,
He called the politicians thieves and crooks;
On governmental theories he'd argue by the hour
And he got his economics from the books.

He didn't like the President; he didn't like the mayor.
In every leader's eye he saw the mote.
"It is time we changed the system" he would frequently declare.
But he forgot to register to vote.

"We should throw 'em out of office!" was the burden of his cry.
"That gang is but a crowd of racketeers!
They're squandering our money till the debts are mountain high
And our children will be paying them for years."
He'd get you in a corner and he'd whimper all night long.
He repeated every rumor that's afloat.
He was very glib at telling everybody what is wrong.
But he forgot to register to vote.

I have patience with the grumbler who can justify his whine.
To an earnest man I'll lend a willing ear.
Twixt right and wrong not always can we truly draw the line;
But that much could be improved is very clear.
Still whatever be their politics, all citizens agree
On this most important matter which I note:
That no man should ever grumble at his government if he
Will not qualify himself to cast a vote.

A. A. U. W. LUNCHEON WITH MRS. HOOPER

The Anniston branch of the American Association of University Women will meet October 10 for the annual Autumn luncheon. The meeting will be with Mrs. Amy R. Hooper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D.

Student House Keepers

For your Coal, Groceries and Meats, see

M. B. SEWELL
Phone No. 61-J

LOLLAR'S

For 25 Years the Kodaker's Friend

KODAK FINISHING THAT SATISFIES
VELOX PRINTS—THEY LIVE ON

Get our complete price list and FREE Enlargement Offer

1808 N. 3rd Avenue and 302 N. 20th St.

P. O. Box 2622
Birmingham, Ala.

Rhodes, at Golden Springs. Several faculty members who are affiliated with the association will attend. Prospective members are cordially invited, Mrs. Hooper said.

DAUGETTE HALL GIRLS HOSTESSES AT LOVELY TEA

The Daugette Hall girls were hostesses at a lovely tea Sunday afternoon when they entertained for other dormitory residents. They received from four till five. The arcade and living room were attractively decorated with autumn flowers, the color scheme being green and gold.

Benevis Harris and Jescar Irvin presided at the tea table which was beautifully appointed, the decorations being flowers in the chosen shades. Dorothy Pitts was in charge of the register. Fannie Thompson welcomed the guests at the door and ushered them to the receiving line which was headed by Mrs. Ada M. Pitts, social director. Others receiving were the assistant social directors, Miss Minnie Sellers and Mrs. Dana T. Davis; Mr. Chas. M. Gary, advisor for men; Dr. Clara Weishaupt; house officers at Daugette Hall, Claire Mae Jones, president; Sara Birchfield, vice-president; Eleanor Jeffers, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Hannah King Waldrip, president of the Y. W. C. A. Others assisting in the hospitality were Mildred Sheppard and Mrs. Lorraine Tingle Porch.

During the afternoon a musical program was rendered by Lamar Triplett, pianist, and Della Deuell, Henry Lee Greer and Mrs. Porch, soloists.

About one hundred guests called. Out-of-town guests were Elizabeth Franklin, of Birmingham, and Barney Isbell and Govin Minor, of Columbiana.

PERSONAL MENTION

Jonnie Ford and Lois Giles spent the week-end in Birmingham with Ruth DeArman.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McIntyre of Roy Webb the past week-end.

Omega Woodall was the guest of Wilma Johnson the past week-end at Center.

Olive Burkhalter spent the week-end at her home in Gaylesville.

Aosa Nell Tracy and Hazel Tidwell spent the week-end with parents at Center.

Eleanor Simmons spent the week-end with her parents at Gadsden.

Fannie Mae Hart spent the week-end at Huntsville.

Sarah Ford spent the week-end at Gadsden.

Thelma Kinney spent the past week-end with her parents at Altoona.

Nettie Giles and Marie Vaughan spent the past week-end with their parents at Hefflin.

Foster Oliver of Arab visited the campus last week. He will teach at Arab this year.

Ernestine Crane, Louise Ellis, and Elizabeth Fennell spent Sunday at Goodwater with Mrs. Samuels.

Fannie Faintheart

Dear Fanny Faintheart:

I am a Freshman boy; thus I do what the upper classmen say. They named me as a committee of one to interview you by correspondence on the matter of boys' popularity—in the way of girls, I might add. To be exact, they want to know what things a boy might have that would make girls like him and what things a boy might have that would make girls dislike him.

Sincerely,
"RAT."

Dear "Rat":

That is quite a big order that you have left me to fill; however, I'll do my best. In response to the first demand, I would say:

A boy should have a well-groomed appearance. He should not go about with his buttons hanging on by one thread, his shirt always looking as if it were about to take departure from his pants.

A boy should be well spoken, pleasant, and friendly to everyone he meets.

He should know how to make a girl feel that she is well cared for when she is with him—a little attention means a great deal to girls. Be courteous and attentive. Make her feel that her welfare and pleasure are first with you.

After all, those three things will cover a multitude of sins.

Now for the things a boy should avoid:

He should not go around with a smug, complacent, holier-than-thou expression on his face. Not only girls, but boys, are utterly contemptuous of that. A little wholesome conceit is not objectionable if it is due, but don't let it break out at every seasonable moment.

Don't be a wind-bag. One usually expects the girl to be the much-lauded "good listener"; however, they never think how bored a girl will get keeping her face frozen into a smile while listening to some bag of wind elaborate on all his deeds great and small (mostly great in his opinion). Give the girl a break. Try letting yourself be a listener and let her enjoy herself. A little silence can sometimes be very useful. You don't have to "jabber" all the time to be entertaining. Put your eyes to good use.

Most girls object to having themselves the object of much attention on account of his being in an hilariously pie-eyed state. Go home and sleep it off instead of trying to be a lady-killer. The "pie-eyed" ones usually end by making themselves ridiculous.

I hope these few points will help you on your mission.

Very truly,
FANNY FAINTHEART.

THIS WEEK'S NEWS STEM:

Dr. Austin drove his car to Bibb Graves Hall, took the key out, and went to class. On leaving, he deserted his faithful automobile, walked home, and on starting to get his car to go somewhere, discovered that he had left it at school. Could it be a case of the "Absent-minded Professor"?

GIRL LEADERS OF MORNING WATCH AT WEATHERLY HALL

Morning Watch programs at Weatherly Hall have been well arranged by committees appointed by Bobbie Jean Burgess, vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. and

43 Counties and Four States Represented in Enrollment

Students registering at the beginning of the Fall quarter are from 43 Alabama Counties and four states.

Counties falling into the upper ten in number of students are in the following order: Calhoun, Etowah, DeKalb, Coosa, Marshall, Cherokee, Clay, Cleburne, Blount, Cullman and Marion. Coosa and Marshall tie in number of registrations.

Other counties represented are Autauga, Baldwin, Bibb, Conecuh, Chambers, Chilton, Clarke, Crenshaw, Elmore, Escambia, Fayette, Franklin, Geneva, Hale, Houston, Jackson, Jefferson, Lamar, Lawrence, Madison, Marion, Mobile, Morgan, Monroe, Pickens, Randolph, Russell, St. Clair, Shelby, Talladega, Tallapoosa, Walker, Winston.

States represented are Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and California.

officer in charge of association activities in that dormitory.

Ruth DeArman and Jonnie Ford were in charge of the program September 27, while Elizabeth Fennell and Ernestine Crane carried out their plan on October 4.

Margaret Rhodes and Della Deuel, committee for next Sunday, on behalf of the Y. W. C. A. cordially invite all Weatherly Hall girls to attend the Morning Watch program immediately after breakfast.

CRESCENT STAGES

SERVES EASTERN ALABAMA

and

CONNECT FOR EVERYWHERE

Ride The Bus Lines

MANGEL'S are style leaders In Campus Fashions

Always first to show the newest and smartest.

MANGEL'S prices are always the lowest for quality fashions.

MANGEL'S for dresses, suits, coats.

MANGEL'S for lingerie, blouses, Fan Tan hosiery, sweaters, skirts.

ON TO MANGEL'S!

Mangel's

1001 NOBLE STREET, ANNISTON, ALA.

Helen Summers spent the week-end at her home, Cedar Bluff.

Mabel Hopkins and Bennie Faye Hurley visited their parents at Round Mountain Sunday.

Cleo Lambert spent the week-end at Anniston with friends.

Adele Crews spent the week-end with her parents at Wedowee.

Ora Bain spent the week-end at Guntersville.

Mrs. Clara Mae Hendrix spent the week-end at Weogufka.

Kathrine Cheatwood spent the week-end with her parents at Boaz.

COLLEGE ORCHESTRA HAS THIRTEEN MEMBERS

Thirteen musicians make up the personnel of the J. S. T. C. orchestra which provides music for various campus gatherings, notably the semi-weekly assembly of students. The group is under the direction of Mrs. Nathalie Ewing Love, instructor of public school music.

Mrs. Love announces the following arrangement of the players: Pianist, Helene Easley, Attalla; violins, Hewett Burgess, Marguerite Posey and Eleanor Mapes; trumpets, George Griffin and Sara Birchfield; saxophones, Glenn Ad-derhold, Louree Gregg and Dewitt Hanks; trombone, Lenwood Cole; drums, Ed. Taylor; xylophone, Lamar Triplett; tuba, Lewis McGee.

CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Geography and International Relations Club Name New Officers—Will Study War in Spain

The Geography and International Relations Club launched activities for the Fall quarter Thursday evening when the first of a series of programs on the Civil War in Spain was presented. Ray Hollis discussed "The Physiographic Features of Spain" and Earnest Plunkett talked on "The Issue Between the Loyalists and the Rebels."

Officers of the club are Lois Collier, president; Chas. Hallman, vice-president; Marguerite Perry, secretary; Harolyn Franklin, reporter.

The president named the following committees:

Program: Ray Hollis, Earnest Plunkett, Ernestine Crane, Nan Sheppard and James Corley.

Social: Horace McCord, Harry Frost, Ernestine Crane, Malcolm Brewer and Frances Sheppard.

The club holds to a scholarship qualification for membership, those eligible making an average of B or better on college work. The next program will be presented by James Corley, who will speak on "Results and Consequences of the Spanish Civil War", and Harolyn Franklin who will discuss "The Resources of Spain."

BAPTIST STUDENT SECRETARY TALKS TO MEN'S GROUP

The Rev. Davis C. Wooley at Y. M. C. A.

The Rev. Davis C. Wooley, student secretary at Auburn, who spent last week in Jacksonville conducting a course of study for the Baptist Student Union, spoke at the regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. October 1. His subject was "By What Authority Do Ye These Things?" He said in part, "People do and do, but do they know why they do what they do? Christ is the authority by which all Christians do what they do."

The speaker told of some of the experiences he had in Y. M. C. A. work while he was in college. The Rev. Mr. Wooley is a splendid speaker, and his message was inspiring to the group present. He puts his whole heart into his work, and it was a pleasure to student organizations to have had him on the campus.

WAYSIDE INN

One of the many attractions on the campus of the State Teachers College is the Wayside Inn, a cottage for worthy college boys. The students who stay there are: Horace McCord, a senior; Troy Tullis, a sophomore; J. C. Maxwell, a sophomore; and Willie Brooks, a "RAT."

Horace is a good dancer and a ladies man. He is a person of clean habits, and is very friendly; a member of the National Guard, and teaches in the high school when Coach Shotts is away on ball trips. Horace is sometimes called "Brains" or "Brainless."

Tullis is a handsome, dark-haired young man. He is five feet nine inches tall and a good dancer. He is a member of the National Guard, and an all around good sport. His home is Chavies, and he is a heart-breaker.

J. C. Maxwell hails from Andalusia, a red-head and a flirt. He is a slick fellow, and a fast worker. He likes to dance, plays football

STUDENT FROM ROANOKE TO HEAD Y. M. C. A.

Dr. John Green Austin Faculty Adviser

James Corley, who was elected president of the Y. M. C. A. at the close of last year, has assumed his duties with a great deal of enthusiasm. Corley, who hails from Roanoke, is one of the campus leaders in religious work, being treasurer of the Baptist Student Union and pianist for the B. Y. P. U. Other officers of the Y. M. C. A. are Lewis McGee, vice-president and Adrian Haon, secretary-treasurer. Dr. John Green Austin, assistant professor of psychology, is faculty adviser.

The president has announced the following committees:

Executive — Lee Jones, Millard Lawrence, Ogburn Gardner and Glenn Bates.

Membership—Lewis McGee, B. B. Desmond, Quinton Porch, William Orr and Sidney Griffin.

Program—Charles Adams, Stanley Camp and Adrien Haon.

The Y. M. C. A. meets in room 27 every Thursday morning from 10 till 10:30. All college men are cordially invited to attend.

"KNOCK, KNOCK!"

By Marguerite Perry

Knock, Knock!
Who's there?
Ada.
Ada who?
Ada lady up the steps when you walk with her.

Knock, Knock!
Who's there?
Daugette.
Daugette who?
Daugette up the piece of cake I saved for you.

Knock, Knock!
Who's there
Ewing.
Ewing who?
Ewing Love with anyone?

Knock, Knock!
Who's there?
Lessus.
Lessus who?
Lessus tell Mrs. Pitts where you went last night.

Knock, Knock!
Who's there?
Hannah.
Hannah who?
Hannah salt down this way.

Knock, Knock!
Who's there
Rita.
Rita who?
Rita Shakespearean tragedy for next time.

Knock, Knock!
Who's there?
Dana.
Dana who?
D'ana thing for lunch but beans.

Editor's Note: Submit "Knock-Knocks to Miss Perry.

and Court. His motto—Judge a girl by the company she keeps. He thinks of marriage often, but is not a candidate for matrimony. He is a good sport and a fine fellow.

Brooks, last but not least, is from Alexander City. He has black hair, a sweet smile, and wears glasses. He is another "Romero"—He is a swell dancer and football player, a National Guard man, good basket-ball player, and a smart Alex to the women. He has a good personality and a keen sense of humor.

The boys who live at Wayside Inn are not so bad after all, and they offer much protection to the young ladies in Daugette Hall.

ON THINKING UNDER PRESSURE

There wasn't a flicker of my curtain
As I sat in my window last night
And tried to concentrate on Shelley's
Struggle for release from the misery
Of existence.

My fingers stuck to the pages as I turned them.
The perspiration oozed from every pore of my body,
And got in my eyes
And in my mouth.

Which was suddenly a sand tunnel.
I went to the
Refrigerator, took half the fast diminishing
Piece of ice, made a glass of lemonade,
Gulped it down, and was twice as miserable as before.

I walked out on the lawn where I thought I saw
A blade of grass moving.
But it was only a rusty lizard
Crawling up to the yater fountain.

I listened to the katydid
Half heartedly singing their songs,
And heard one say, ever so faintly,
"Water, water."

I sat down in the swing, and watched the stars
Laughing at my helplessness.
I heard the ambulance go screaming by
And wondered what poor soul had now
Succumbed to the forces of nature.

The clammy stillness Pressed down upon me,
My blood beat in my temples,
Invisible hands strangled me,
And left me fighting for breath.
Then I could understand Shelley's contempt for Earthly power.

—Edith Putnam.

MISS JEWELL TANNER SPENDS ENJOYABLE VACATION IN NORTH

Miss Jewell Tanner, who attended school here this summer, had as her late summer vacation a trip through the Northern and Northeastern states and Canada. Among the more interesting of the many historic points viewed by her party were Niagara Falls, Quebec, Boston, and Washington. Miss Tanner is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. W. E. Tanner of Holly Pond, Ala.

THE WEST SIDE SHOOTING GALLERY

Invites all Students
Prizes Awarded Weekly
for both ladies and men
scoring highest.

REID'S SHOE SHOP

Our cementing process is winning friends every day.

It makes your shoes
look new.
All work guaranteed.

SHOES DYED ANY COLOR

"I have been serving the students for twenty five years"

GLEANINGS

Only what is fundamentally good really matters.

Success is never worth the tarnishing of the soul.

The minds that can be influenced by flattery are really small, however great they may appear.

True pride lies in never going beneath your own standard.

What the outside world thinks of you is of not the slightest importance. All that counts is: What you yourself think of yourself.

Self-satisfied beauties reveal often the tiny, tiny mind that goes with their pretty faces.

One drop of nicotine placed on a cat's tongue will kill it.

Until the middle of the nineteenth century soup was considered a dish only for sissies in this country.

The largest check ever written was for one hundred and forty-six million dollars and was issued by Dillon Read to the Dodge brothers in 1925.

According to a study made by the Daily Cardinal, University of Wisconsin newspaper, the co-eds use enough lipstick in one year to paint four barns.

Every night count your blessings. Every morning count yesterday's mistakes and be careful.

OCTOBER 26 DATE OF ENTRANCE FOR LAST HALF OF QUARTER

Monday, October 26, has been designated as the last day for registration for entrance to the college for a half quarter's credit. Students who wish to enter on this date may get in six week's work before the opening of the Winter quarter, December 7.

PRES. DAUGETTE WILL ATTEND WESLEYAN CELEBRATION

President C. W. Daugette has been invited to attend the Centennial celebration of Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga., and will go to Macon October 26 for this occasion as a delegate from Jacksonville State Teachers College.

Dr. Daugette will bear greetings from this institution to the college in celebration. The scroll upon which the message appears will be preserved in the archives of Wesleyan College, which is the oldest chartered woman's college in the world.

THE ROBBING OF MR. BLUE JAY'S NEST

By John Powell Deason, Jr.
Sixth Grade

"Who robbed my nest"? said Mr. Blue Jay.

"Who robbed my nest" this summer day?

"It was not I" said Mr. Hawk.

"It was not I" said the pig.

"It was not I" said all The birds and they began to squawk.

"It was not I" said all the Sheep and they began to dance a jig.

And Mr. Blue Jay began to Look o sad,

And his feathers looked so bad.

And no one ever, ever knew

Just where Mr. Blue Jay's eggs went to.

KITCHEN'S DRUG CO.
State Teachers College Students Always Welcome at our Store

Compliments of
HOLDEN SERVICE STATION
Tires, Batteries, Auto Accessories.
Sincliar Gas, Oil, and Lubrication.

Stephens Printing Company

Publishers and Commercial Printers

HIGH CLASS OF PRINTING EXECUTED HERE.

Nothing Too Small—Nothing Too Large

OFFICE SUPPLIES
RUBBER STAMPS

Phone 418

The "TEACOLA" Printers

12 E. 11th Street.

Anniston, Ala.

State Teachers College

Jacksonville, Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1883

Member of Southern Association of Colleges

Member of American Association of Teachers Colleges

With Rating of "A"

Graduates constitute a high percentage of county superintendents, supervisors, high school and elementary school principals, and teachers in all grades of school and college work in Alabama.

WINTER QUARTER WILL OPEN DECEMBER 7.

C. W. DAUGETTE

PRESIDENT

Kilby Hall

The Demonstration School, Auditorium and Gymnasium

IDYLLS OF THE OWLS

In order that the students of State Teachers College may become better acquainted with the members of the college football team, the Teacola will run thumbnail sketches of a few players each issue.

Paul "Red" Hudson, end, a veteran wingman, who is playing the best ball of his career. Stands five feet and eleven inches in his stockings and weighs 175 pounds. A product of Walker County High School. Very aggressive and a great leader.

Clyde "Farmer" Brown, a squatly veteran guard from Clay County High School. A heady guard who uses his 175 pounds to good advantage. Brown is cool under fire and a great offensive man. A veteran in every sense of the word, Brown is playing his fourth season for the Owls.

Frank Bassett, a sophomore end, is looking great at the terminal after being switched from guard. Bassett's 168 pounds shows handily on defense. His inexperience prevents his being a star pass-receiver, but he will develop. Prepped at Randolph County High.

Henry Greer, a five-foot eleven inches, 160 pound substitute center. Greer is an alumnus of Gadsden High School where he performed under Ben Hudson. A first year man, Greer's lack of weight precludes his crashing varsity lineup. Should be a valuable pivot man next season. A very polished defensive player and a fighter all the way.

Quinnis "Dusty" Carter, 170 pound protege of Ox Clark at Calhoun County High School. Third year on squad. Carter is looking great this season and would be a star if he would get more aggressiveness into his playing. A smooth playing offensive performer.

"What its defects, free public education is the only hope of the common man."—William J. Bogan.

Jacksonville High School News

IMPROVEMENTS ON BUILDING AND GROUNDS

During the summer months, the high school building was repaired and improved. The woodwork was repainted, walls were calcimined in some of the rooms, the rest rooms were remodeled, a physical education dressing room was made, and the library chairs and tables were repainted.

Shrubbery was planted around the building and 400 Iris bulbs were set out bordering the walk. In addition, iron posts have been set out to make a driveway. Most of the material, (the cost of which is estimated at $400.00) for beautification of the grounds was donated. The work was done by summer school students, directed by Mrs. Sara McDonald.

JUNIOR CLASS ACTIVE

In order to raise funds with which to carry on its activities, the junior class sells home-made candy every Thursday. With Adele Crews in charge, the class sponsored a show at the Princess Theatre last Tuesday. A popularity contest to raise money will be held in a few weeks.

ENROLLMENT INCREASES

The number of pupils has increased over that of last year, the present enrollment being 275 in comparison with 223 at the same time last year. The enrollment by classes is as follows: Grade 7, 58; Grade 8, 38; Grade 9, 32; Grade 10, 60; Grade 11, 48; Grade 12, 39.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL FACTS

Coach H. L. Stevenson has released the football schedule for 1936 as follows:

- October 9, Ochattee—there.
October 16, Ranburne—here.
October 23, Pielmont—there—(pending).
October 30, Lincoln—t h e r e—(pending).
November 13, Alexandria—there
James Farrell has been elected

captain of the "Golden Eagles."

Members of the team are: Arlice Vineyard, Charles Watson, Bill Irby, ends; Sargent Johnson, Marvin Tutton, Frank Miller, tackles; Vernon Haywood, Clovis Kendall, William Johnson, guards; Junior Thomas, center; Ben Blackwood, James Farrell, Bobby Cowden, Joe Steele, J. Z. Saxon, backs.

Cheer leaders were elected by each home room last Friday. Those who will lead cheers for "The Golden Eagles" are Mary Edna Taylor, Aileen Cannon, Grover Green, and Lillian McClendon.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

Under the direction of Mrs. Reuben Self, sponsor, the Senior III class presented the assembly program Friday, October 2. Bill Irby, president of the 1935-36 junior class, introduced the new officers of the senior class. The program included songs by the student body, "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "Golden Eagles"; a violin solo, "A Star Fell Out of Heaven", by Miss Eleanor Mapes, accompanied by Miss Mary Brewer; tap dance by Jeffie Pearl Landers; "Knock, Knock, Who's There?" and "Ginger Up" by the freshman class; "Strange Happenings", by Mary Alice Ashmore; "Advice to Freshmen", by Mary Edna Taylor, Irene Elder, and Mildred Jones; "There is a Tavern in the Town", by the senior class.

The first assembly program of the year was in charge of the Rev. R. C. Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Mr. Reuben Self, principal, was in charge of the program Friday, September 25. It included a piano solo by Eleanor Simmons and a comic strip skit. The part of Popeye was taken by Henry Finch; Wimpy, John Finch; Roughhouse, Bob Wilson; Olive Oyl, Jack Nelson. Edward Johnson gave an imitation of Joe Penner.

CLASSES ORGANIZE

The following students have been chosen to serve as class officers for the coming year:

Senior III Class—Ben Blackwood, president; Margaret Horn, vice-president; Wallace Mintz, secretary; Bill Irby, treasurer; Mildred Jones, reporter; Mrs. Reuben Self, sponsor.

Senior II Class—Marguerite Fryar, president; James Farrell, vice-president; Elizabeth Wilson, treasurer; Eunice Adderholdt, secretary; Hilda Dean Williams, reporter; Mrs. Sara McDonald, sponsor.

Senior I Class—Mildred Black, president; Louise Lusk, vice-president; Anna Rae Dyer, secretary and treasurer; Nadine Johnson, chairman program committee; Mr. Newburne Bush, sponsor.

Senior I Class—William McNeal, president; Constance Mock, vice-president; Louise Weaver, secretary; Eleanor Mapes, sponsor.

Junior III Class—Juline Ford, president; Marie Black, vice-president; Vivian Barton, secretary and treasurer; Bill Nichols, sponsor.

Junior II Class—Richard Miller, president; Roscoe Shipman, vice-president; R. B. Patterson, secretary and treasurer.

The Junior I Class has not yet completed its organization.

RECIPE FOR MAKING A JACKSONVILLE SENIOR

By Mrs. Amy Hooper
First select your student
With a porous mind,
Wash off all former knowledge
You can possibly find.

Cut in many small pieces
The many high hopes
Of an easy path of learning
And forbid silly jokes.

Of the agony of homesickness,
Take one level cup;
A teaspoon of fright
To make it heap up.

A bushel of hard lessons
And many a written test
And enough of correction
That work will be the "Best."

A gallon of the soup-stock
Of lectures "worn-out";
A pinch of examinations,
To see what you're about.

Now place the student
In a brick-colored pot
And pour over the above mixture
While it is steaming hot.

In this mixture cook
For four long years
Then cast away each book
With smiles, not tears.

When attractively served
With a diploma of sauce,
You may send the student forth
To be his own "boss."

THE CITY DRY CLEANERS

Solicit the Good Will and patronage of the students and faculty.

WE

Cordially Invite both old and new students to try our LaMAC process that leaves no sign of repairs.

PYRON'S SHOE SHOP

BILL'S SANDWICH SHOPPE

The College Rendezvous
Cold Drinks—Cigarettes
Lily Pure Ice Cream
Candy—Plate Lunches
Special Rates for Student Board

M. T. T. EKES OUT 12-0 WIN OVER SHOTTERS

S. I. A. A. CHAMPS SHADE OWLS 12-0 SCORE

Powerful Tennessee Squad Pushed for Victory

Fighting every inch of the way, a gallant football squad from Jacksonville State Teachers College dropped a heart-breaking decision to the Middle Tennessee Teachers aggregation mainly on the "breaks." The score was 12-0.

Following a scoreless first period, the Murfreesboro eleven cashed in on a break to push over the first marker early in the second canto. A long forward pass, Smith to Hemblen, was battered down by Maxwell, but the referee ruled interference on the play and M. T. T. took the ball on the four-yard ribbon from where Smith punched it over on the second try. The kick for the point failed. Jacksonville never threatened seriously to score, but managed to compile as many first downs as their opponents. The Raiders ran the winning margin to 12 in the closing minutes of the game when Smith cut off left tackle for seven yards and a touch-down.

The locals played the entire last half without the services of Red Hudson, stellar end, who was rendered hors de combat in a collision with Johnny Baker late in the second period.

"Country" Caldwell, alternating at end and tackle, played great ball, finding time to intercept two enemy passes. Frank Bassett and "Taka" Hand were also bulwarks of strength in the forward wall.

Woody Smitherman, former Bessemer High ace, and "Baby" Mims stood out for the victors.

The lineups:

Jacksonville (0) Hudson, left end; Caldwell, left tackle; Carter, left guard; Hand, center; Jones, right guard; Brown, right tackle; Bassett, right end; Maxwell, quarterback; Baker, left half; Hunter, right half; Colvin, fullback.

Middle Tennessee (12). Troup, left end; Jackson, left tackle; Thompson, left guard; Hoover, center; McIntyre, right guard; Mims, right tackle; Hamblen, right end; Hambrick, quarterback; Campbell, left half; McCrory, right half; Smith, fullback.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUBS RALLY

WELCOME TO FRESHMEN

A rally for the Girls' Athletic Clubs was held at the "Park" Tuesday afternoon. Each club had its own campfire, and when the girls reached the site of the rally, they found coffee and sizzling steak over the fire. While the steak was cooking, the following program was given for the enlightenment of new members of the clubs:

1. Introduction of officers and council organization—Grace Hamric.
2. History of the Clubs—Alta Millican.
3. Purpose and Activities of Club—Frances Yates.
4. Welcome to Freshmen and Other New Members—Ila Mae Jones.
5. Response—Virginia Satterfield.
6. Color Day—Benevis Harris.
7. Loving Cup (how it is won and who has won). Attendance count—Harolyn Franklin.
8. How to Make a "J"—Ruby Hyatt.
9. Volleyball Practices, Match

The 1936 Football Squad

Left, standing: Coach Tom Shotts; Manager Livingston, left; Trainer Azelle Carter, right; Greer 44, Hunter 32, Hudson (Co-Captain 26, Baker (Co-Captain) 31, Bassett 27, Brown 25, Hand 33, Colvin 29, Carter 28, Harris 36, Maxwell 34, Caldwell 81, Brooks 46, Ford 41, Britton 34, Jones 55, Hooton 63, Pounds 64, Plunkett 68, Russell 61, Hayes 59, Pentecost 57, Compton 83, Thrash 52, Bonner 65, Russom 50.

EAGLE-OWLS FACE MARION CADETS OCTOBER 16.

Teachers Confident of Victory Over Marion

With a week of rest following their tough game with Middle Tennessee Teachers, the Eagle-Owls will meet the Marion Cadets at Marion on Friday, October 16. The Cadets are reported as having their best team in several years, and are expected to give the Teachers a hard struggle.

Marion was beaten by Jacksonville last year by the score of 35-0, and the Teachers will go into the game determined to garner their first victory of this season.

The Teachers are in good physical condition after their gruelling struggle at Murfreesboro, and Coach Shotts will be able to throw his strongest line-up against the Cadets.

Games—(how to make team)—Lois Giles.

10. Dues (amount 10c paid by 9th Friday)—Jonnie Ford.

11. Sports of the Year—Ludie Mae Cooper.

12. High School Play Day—Sara Birchfield.

13. Affiliation with State and National Organizations for College Women Athletic Games—Miss Sellers.

After the program, assistant volleyball managers for the Fall quarter were elected from the Freshman class. They were:

- Achaens—Louise Ellis.
- Aeoleans—Nell Simpson.
- Dorians—Rachel Wheeler.
- Ionians—Virginia Satterfield.

Each club gave its color pledge, song, and yell; then all the clubs scattered to their respective campfires to consume quantities of steak, coffee, bananas, apples, and cakes, omitting bugs, ants, and so forth. In spite of the rain, nothing got damp except the cooks; thus, "a good time was had by all."

"The hope of America in this crisis is the increased maintenance of education. There is no price too high to pay for education. There is no penalty too great to pay for ignorance."—Aaron Sapiro, Attorney, New York City.

The Official Roster, State Teachers College Jacksonville, Alabama, 1936

Player:	Position:	Number:	Weight:
Hudson (Co. Cap.)	End	26	175
Bassett	End	27	168
Harris	End	36	155
Caldwell	Tackle	81	194
Ford	Tackle	41	178
Pentecost	Tackle	30	180
Compton	Tackle	83	181
Brown	Guard	25	171
Carter	Guard	28	167
Jones	Guard	55	160
Pounds	Guard	82	162
Hand	Center	33	180
Greer	Center	44	160
Baker (Co. Cap.)	Back	31	176
Colvin	Back	29	178
Maxwell	Back	34	140
Hunter	Back	32	162
Britton	Back	43	148
Brooks	Back	46	155
Plunkett	Back	68	151

Manager: Livingston. Trainer: A. Carter.

Coach: Tom Shotts (Auburn). Colors: Purple and White. Average weight line, 176; backfield, 164.

The Calhoun Literary Society

Extends a cordial invitation to all prospective members to attend a meeting and see if you could possibly do any better.

State Teachers College

Jacksonville, Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1883

Member of Southern Association of Colleges

Member of American Association of Teachers Colleges

With Rating of "A"

Graduates constitute a high percentage of county superintendents, supervisors, high school and elementary school principals, and teachers in all grades of school and college work in Alabama.

WINTER QUARTER WILL OPEN DECEMBER 7.

C. W. DAUGETTI

PRESIDENT