Calhoun-Morgan Debate Set
For April 15 At Kilby Hall

Calhoun Duo Favored To Win Battle

MANY FORMER STUDENTS EXPECTED TO ATTEND

Jacksonville State Teachers College has arranged to have a "Jack- teague Breakfast" in the Gay- teague Hotel at 8 A.M. Friday March 24, during the A. K. A. in Montgomery.

The purpose of the affair is to get as many former Jacksonville State students as possible together who are now teaching. Any former student, or patron, will be admitted.

The price will be fifty cents per plate. Latest reports show an enthusiastic response to the program, and the Calhoun will champion the affirmative. It will make the third year in a row that the Calhouns have held the negative with the Morgan defending the affirmative. The two teams have split even in the past two years.

The Calhoun team, consisting of John Harbour and Norman Tart has been established as a slight favorite to win the big battle on the Kilby Hall stage. The Calhouns boast two veteran speakers who are expected to carry the battle to their opponents all the way. Observers believe that in speaking style, poise, and general all-round ability, the Yellow and Red standard bearers hold the upper hand and should be able to turn the Morgan book barring unforeseen reversals of form. However, Ted

New Term At College Here
To Open Soon

Date for opening the Spring term at Jacksonville State Teachers College has been fixed for Monday, March 13. Dr. W. S. Kauffman, the head of the College, announced the same today. At the same time came a co-announcement from Dean C. Wood that new courses in all classes would be available to any student wishing to enter them.

"Snakes Alive!"
To Be Shown Here In March

The evening of Mar. 11 has been set as the date for the Junior Prom, annual dance sponsored by the Junior Class of J. S. T. C. It will be open to faculty members, all students, former students, and invited guests.

President T. White announced late last week that the class had decided upon a Dutch motif for the occasion. Little Dutch dolls, gifts, and other reminiscences of Holland will be displayed in the scheme of decoration, intended to be one of the most unusual and attractive motifs ever to be selected for such an occasion. President White did not make any conclusive statement on the possibility that some attending might further the scheme by coming on the Dutch date plan.

The class officers are: Tom White, president, Aaron Hand, vice-president; Eunice McClellan, secretary-treasurer; Eleanor Simmons, reporter; Alton Ham, social critic representative; John Harper, editor; and Mrs. J. F. Glazer.

The dance will be a program dance. Script has been set at ten students, seventy-five cents; men guests, one dollar. Music will be Swing a la Triplett.

Further Discussion On The Curriculum

On March 26, the faculty held one of its regular meetings for the discussion of the New Curriculum. The meeting after a few preliminary remarks by Dean Wood, consisted of a paper on the New Curriculum by Dr. F. B. Hume.

Norman Tart, a Junior transfer from West Georgia College, will be second speaker for the Calhouns in the annual Morgan-Calhoun debate. Tart has stepped into many places of prominence during his stay short on the campus. He is assistant editor of the Teacola staff, a member of the Greek Club. He holds membership in Zeta Sigma Pi, national honorary social science fraternity. He is vice-president of the Calhoun Society and will be participating in his first debate here.

Calhouns Named For This Noted Statesman

Recognized as a foremost leader of his day and of the American era is John Caldwell Calhoun for whom the Calhoun Literary Society takes its name. Calhoun, a contemporary of Clay and Webster, was the great champion of the Southern cause. He gained fame throughout the world for his ability as a speaker. The accompanying story by a Calhoun reporter discusses some of the highlights of his brilliant career.

Resolutions Of Respect

Whereas Almighty God Whose infinite power, wisdom, and mercy we do freely acknowledge, who made man in His own image; and whose command we willingly obey, has seen fit to call to everlasting and rest our most beloved and companion, Mr. Carpenter, Edwardia's father.

Whereas Mr. Carpenter was a beloved citizen, who never grew weary in the service of his country, and who was ever true, faithful, loyal, and true to the trust imposed in him, and whose example of loyalty is truly worthy of emulation.

Whereas the presence, association, and influence of such good men are and will be sadly missed, not only by his family, but also by the city and college as well.

Resolved that we, the French Club of the Jacksonville State Teachers College, deeply deplore the passing of Mr. Carpenter, though our loss is Heaven's gain; yet we are submissive to the will of our Heavenly Father who does all things wisely; Furthermore,

Resolved that we share the sorrow with his bereaved wife and relatives, and that we extend to them our most profound sympathy for their loss. Respectfully submitted by,

The French Club.

The Wesleyan Foundation again extends to you a most cordial invitation to attend its, meetings, every Tuesday morning at ten o'clock in room fourteen. Very interesting programs are presented each week. Dr. Martin gave an excellent discourse of St. Paul's letter to Philemon at the last meeting.

Calhouh Or Morgan? Or

The two literary societies have as their purpose, and excuse for existence, to contribute to the cultural life of the J. T. C. student. It is true that the Calhouns have a longer history for the Morgan branched out from this Society, but laying this aside, it is the purpose of this article to urge students to join one society or the other and to participate in the activities of the society of their choice.

Many a student, when asked which society he belongs to, answers "I haven't joined either yet." In other words, that student is not contributing to one of these two societies. This is a very bad thing to do from the point of view of character building. "He who has no society or no lost" is very applicable here, College life, at best, is short, and if one fails to seize the best that it has to offer, he has lost much of his wonderful life.

Every student should join one of these two societies. It is the initiative to decide an issue, and the ability to make social contacts, to be successful in life as well as in college.

Editorial comment and Reportorial content in this and succeeding special editions of the paper will be printed in the news and novelty of the Tuscaloosa and should not be regarded in that light.

Malcolm Street, Editor, The Teacola.

Col. H. M. Ayers conceived the idea of placing the portrait of John C. Calhoun in the courthouse in Madison County, and he wrote a letter to Judge Owen Reynolds, of that county, expressing his desire to have the portrait placed. The county commissioners, under the direction of J. H. Whitehead, ordered the portrait of Calhoun to be placed in the courthouse.

Dr. John Temple Graves, of Birmingham, paid tribute to John C. Calhoun in the unveiling ceremonies. He also spoke highly of Senator Benton, whose name this county bore for twenty-six years of its existence. Senator Benton served under Jackson in his Creek campaign.

In 1833 the two great political schools of America were of the opinion that the separation of the states and the general government under the Constitution was the only way to save the Union. In 1850, the anti-slavery men who had signed the Declaration of Independence, had signed the Constitution and the Union, and the states had passed the Fugitive Slave Act.

Col. Calhoun in support of his doctrine, proposed instead of a war of separation, a compromise, which he believed would prevent a war of separation and unite the states.

He was educated at Yale law school, but it was from his father, Patrick Col. C. Calhoun, who was a statesman and lawyer of the day, that he received his legal training.

French Program

Appearing on the regular Tuesday afternoon State Teachers College broadcast, were members of Dr. J. H. Jones, French classes and pupils from Miss Fanny Bush's fourth and fifth grade.

Mr. McCollum talked on "Why We Should Study French." College French students sang the French National anthem and other songs.

Mr. Bush, the principal of the demonstration school, sang a group of French songs which they had learned the year.

"Snookies" Band Has Successful Season

After several flashy appearances at basketball games toward the end of the season, "Snookies" have broken into the market as a big-name attraction and look to continue their success during the winter quarter. Their popularity was brought into the limelight last winter when the band was a part of the cultural scene in the local theatre. They have played fourteen shows, and "Snookie" reports that he received a veritable deluge of compliments from the visiting teams and spectators after his various appearances. The Howard visitors, it was reported, were particularly enthusiastic.

"Snookie" instructs and directs his band in his spare time. In other words, he insists that this faithful Calhoun plays a set of drums and a trumpet in the Lamar Triplett band. Lamar, incidentally, is also a resident subscriber to the Calhoun cause.

Recipe For Morgan

Take one mentally undernourished freshman. Strip him of all remnants of sound judgment. Place in a large bowl and cover with a generous helping of Dr. York's treatment, rolled up under supervision of Dr. York, Dr. Steed, and Dr. Seid, scoff thoroughly in false belief that you don't know what is happening, and mention merits of Calhoun Society. Threaten prospect with expulsion if he descends below for several weeks. Add liberal amounts of hot air and cool waters to taste. Make sure all ends have been dyed in the wool Morgan.

Calhoun Progress Marked By Cultural Interest During Year

In looking back over the splendid record made by the Calhoun Literary Society during the winter quarter, one is impressed with the fact that the society has accomplished many important things. A closer look at the activities of the society shows that it has made much progress during the past year. The society has established a new record in the number of active members, and it has been successful in securing a large number of outside speakers. The society has also made an effort to increase the number of meetings held and to improve the quality of the meetings.

O容易UTISNY

Whereas, the great God of huge has promised the Calhoun Literary Society that it has fulfilled its prescribed destiny.

Whereas, it is highly regrettable that the society has left this life since it removes a few while one of good could be accomplished in its short and troubled life.

Spring Grid Seson In Full Swing

Several freshmen are showing prospects of being varsity players in spring football practice at Jacksonville State Teachers College. Furthermore, some of the varsity boys are showing better form as they go through their paces under Head Coach C. E. Erskine and his aide, Coach Harold Dawson.

Of the fowl tackle Boyes and tackle Meadows, Paul Nixie, another tackle, Guard Meade and Wayne Jones, center Max Davis, ends show stuff that will bolster the varsity line. Then guard Benson and guard Holt are also putting in some good licks.

In the backfield, Quarterback Pope is showing much of what it takes at passing, punting and kicking up the line. Pope is a heady field general who uses coolness and discretion in running a team. Halfback Paul Small, a boe-logged and underslung back, Billy Friedman, a fast and shifty little halfback, Travis Scott and Paul Landt, are halfbacks who are displaying their wares in the mid-winter grid drills.

Improved form is being flashed by Jim Hill, left end, Ralph Williams big right tackle, Herschel Jones, guard, Tom White, and halfback, is out of spring football with flu; Ed Colvin, last year's captain and halfback, has not yet received enough from a broken ankle suffered last September to turn out for spring practices. Eight, Hudson and Red Machen, fullback and tackle, are still playing basketball, but altogether two teams have been laboring for the last two weeks under the Jax mentors. The spring training will probably last three more weeks, though no definite announcement has been made by the Jax coaches.

margin of the night. Anniston gradually pulled up and trailed her adver-

Upsetting the dope bucket in no uncertain fashion, Jacksonville last-moving, but outstanding teachers, rode into the finals of the B. I. A. basketball tournament with a convincing 33-31 victory over Morgan on Monday. Teachers scored second, and highly-touted combination. Jacksonville jumped into an early lead on a "circular" shot by Plunkett and stayed in the saddle all the way as a vast throng of spectators cheered them on to victory. It was Bailey and Plunkett, a pair of "dead-eye" Dirk forwards, who buried Morgan under a veritable avalanche of baskets from all angles of the court. Bailey swished the rims for 22 tallies while Plunkett chipped in with 16 counters. The brilliant Morgan team trailed 39-31 at the half and were hopelessly outclassed from the opening whistle. Gregg did an excellent job of holding Morgan's six-foot, eleven-inch center, Wiggers to a scant seven markers.

Coach Steg-son substituted freely against the team which led by five in the first half. Morgan was in extremis as the game got
