Head Of Commercial Department Accepts Position At Georgia Tech

Announcement was made this week of a change at the State Teachers College. A. A. James, who has been head of the Commercial Department since its organization two years ago, has resigned to accept a position on the faculty of the Georgia School of Technology, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Succeeding him here will be Miss Catherine Ashmore, who has been executive secretary for the past year and a half. Miss Ashmore received her degree at the college and has had extensive business training and experience. She is expected to fill the place with efficiency and ability.

Mr. James has expressed regret at leaving Jacksonville but could not afford to refuse the flattering offer which he received.

Gas And Tire Chief Speaks At Assembly

Dr. J. Bankin Wright, head of the Wiley Medical Board of the Board of the city, was the guest speaker at the State Teachers College Monday morning, October 26. He was introduced by President Cole, former Opa chief.

Tonight Hamilton, related the development of the city of potatoes since first developed in America and the rise of the American potato industry with special reference to the growth of the potato industry in Oklahoma. The lecture series is designed by Mrs. W. J. C. Hamilton, who has been guest speaker at the State Teachers College. She is expected to fill the place with efficiency and ability.

Mr. James has expressed regret at leaving Jacksonville but could not afford to refuse the flattering offer which he received.

Second In Series Of Town Hall Meetings At Local Recreation Center; Congressman Sam Hobbs To Speak At Third Meeting, November 10

The second in the series of "Town Meetings for War" is scheduled for Tuesday evening, November 3, at the Community Recreation Center. Oscar Strauss, regional director of the Office of Price Administration, of Atlanta, will be the speaker. A round-table discussion will follow his address.

Mr. Strauss follows Senator Hayse Tucker who initiated the series. A large and enthusiastic audience attended the first meeting, and an increase is expected Tuesday evening.

Mr. Strauss is a native of Atlanta, where he received his preliminary education. He attended Cheshire Academy, in Cheshire, Connecticut, Emory University, in Atlanta, and was graduated from New York University where he majored in retail training. He had two years of retail training at Franklin Simon's in New York before entering the employ of Rich's, Inc., in 1929. In January of this year he resigned as vice-president and director of Rich's to assume the duties of regional administrator of OPA, which encompasses eighteen southeastern states.

Mr. Strauss is said to be an interesting and versatile speaker, and his address Tuesday evening is expected to be one of the highlights of the series.

Congressman Hobbs To Speak November 10

Congressman Sam H. Hobbs has accepted an invitation to speak at Tuesday evening, November 10. He has a wide following in Jacksonville and the community as well as in the state which he has served as representative for several terms. He has never been absent from his last campaign.

Congressman Joe Stone has accepted an invitation to appear on the lecture series, the date to be announced later.

Student Council Goes To Work

A returning student who hadn't visited JSTC this year, would not recognize his high school days in the new campus. The new building is more modern, and the atmosphere is more inviting. The student's hair is shorter, and the old benches that once directly lined the walls have been replaced.

The fall air whipping through your hair, be it short or long, seems to signify movement, and exercise, and the highway stretching out seems to signify a path. Doesn't it all make you want to grab your feet hold smooth rolling pair of rollers and ride away out to Merrell or Maxwellton, and then—oh, what a metal shortage anyway! After such an outbreak perhaps we had better add that if all of us have to do is give up skating and such, while others are giving so much, some of us should grip.

We can just stuff our feet in the leaves instead of rolling down the highway, but caution—so easy on the shoes leather, we've had rumors of shoe rationing.

We've seen lovely freshmen in our day, but the most recent crop never took our breath away! Honestly—from a height of only five feet an upperclassman had to look way down to see them. Could it be too late hours that were making freshmen look small? With the unlimited relief we learned that the so-called "freshmen" were only members of a new, thriving kindergarten in the basement. They're not midgets, and we weren't only half awake. They were perfectly sound little cherubs from three to five years of age.

A returning student who hadn’t visited JSTC this year would not recognize his old hangnings...The Graub. The gay new tables and chairs that have replaced the old benches that once occupied the windows, the new workbenches for the atmosphere of the greenhouse. You actually want to live down and end all your time here. (You better watch if your boyfriend or girlfriend is strolling by.)

As for the school itself, there is a new spirit in the air. The students are more relaxed and there is a sense of freedom that has never been felt before. The school is truly the perfect place for students to learn and grow.

The writer's opinion is that the American people, though not yet awakened to a true sense of the significance of this war that is now affecting practically every aspect of our way of life, are still not fully aware of the purchasing of war bonds and to the various salvage drives. Despite the efforts of the federal government, it would seem that we are not yet enjoying a state of increased wealth comparable to that of the past. So far, they are not more able to buy these bonds and to help the war effort in an easy sort of way.

I'm not too happy either. We must be willing to give up our luxuries and really sacrifice for those boys who have left home to fight, because it is now or never. And here I come to distant lands to fight in order that our homes might be safe from foreign tyranny.

I rather doubt that it will be wise to reorganize the Center should it be decided which the government. But in every community around, there must be individuals of age who are willing to give two hours, 'two, and twenty-four hours a day to the war effort.'

Until such an attitude as this prevails throughout the people of America as a whole, I think it would be difficult to overcome this world-wide struggle of the Democrats versus the Dictators.

A JOB FOR ALL OF US

Ore-two weeks have rolled by since the election of officers of the student government, which provide the stage around them, of the efforts of their elected representatives. Assembly programs, a student body want to have part of the work of a developing student government. It is pleasing, it is gratifying to see the students show interest in and support of such initiatives.

But behind the things that are obvious to all of us is the greatest job that will be dealt with by the present council is being dealt with. It is the responsibility of the representatives that shall govern the student body that is the big question and presents a difficult problem. The decisions involved are too important to be left to chance. We must be certain that we know what we are doing.

Now that you are coming out to the tea dances and have made the acquaintance of the little about etiquette on the dance floor. It seems that perhaps you are not quite up on the social thing and you might like to write us the news here but this news cannot be sent out. I am sorry you read it in the Cleveland. But I have just seen the article. The answer is that you must be sure to dance, of course, and be in a mood to dance. But you must also be sure to dance with the right person at the right time. It would be very nice to be back in Alabama and take in some of the football games, but you miss lots of the things that you are familiar with. Tell me your plans and I shall be happy to help you.

Grinning from ear to ear and spreading optimism in the atmosphere, Ervin L. Shirley, a former student of the Peanut Club, is now a member of the Peanut Club. He is an example of the type of personality that all professors wish to have in their classes. Ervin L. Shirley is a pleasant fellow who always has a smile on his face.

Among the things that Ervin enjoys doing during the week are dancing, swimming, and playing football. He is a member of the Peanut Club, and has served as its president for two years. Although he doesn't play in every game, he does enjoy helping out on the side.

And my fellow students, don't you know that a smile and a laugh are the best medicine? Ervin Shirey gave us a wonderful laugh last week when he told us a story about his time in the service.

In the second long week, Ervin will be playing football and dancing. He is looking forward to the upcoming dance and plans to attend with his girlfriend, who is also a student of the Peanut Club.

Another thing of probable interest is the fact that Ervin is also involved in the American Legion. He is a member of the Legion and has served as its president for two years.

JHS Loses Homecoming Game To Piedmont Bulldogs 13 to 7

Johnston And Shipman Give Bulldog Coach Excellent Line Play

By "FRENCHY" JONES

The powerful Bulldogs from Piedmont Hi scored a touchdown with only 13 seconds left in the game to clinch the Friday afternoon final period to win a hard-fought 13 to 7 victory over a fighting JHS eleven in Jacksonville last Friday afternoon. The game was played in the rain with all the way with HOMEcoming first and Jacksonville second in the row, and in the third stanza, with the score decided 7 and 7, the Bulldogs wouldn't be stopped, and Baxter went up to the right tackle for two yards and winning score with five minutes of playing time remaining.

Bulldog fans had not anticipated on blockers to score their first touchdown. On the very first play following the kickoff, the same thing happened. JHSE Homecoming Game

October is the crisper for Holloways' six and six weeks tests, but there is also a slight drop in golf scores. Two golfers are left after these two terrible ordeals to fill a column or two and these pairs may be. The test was held near the end of last month. Besides the two who haven't been listed, there are several others who haven't been accounted for, but the least bit about this kind of work can tell you. She is preparing her-

Over The Fence

"Variety is the spice of life" and the gents of JSTC spiced life last Thursday afternoon. Who can say "it isn't vanilla" when the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame and the Georgia Bulldogs met in football contest right next to the gym on this campus.

Well, folks, and the guys from Genie Talmadge's state walloped the Irish 44 to 26 this time.

It was a thrilling encounter with Hyatt, Lindsey, West, and Shubert in the end zone.

"Coach Bar C." Smith, a hard driving fullback, and halfback Sims pulled the trigger for the Talmadges.

It is left to the editors of The Edge to describe the imagination of the players who divided themselves into the respective teams and attached the name of "Notre Dame" and "Georgia." Below is the writer's conception of a blow by blow broad-

Daugette Hall News Notes

Martina Spellman, of Birmingham, and Carolynn Triplitt, of Gadsden, were the first two students to see Henrietta Weaver when she disembarked from the St. Johns. Mrs. H. Y. Dempsey, of Pinto, was the next to see them.

Vernon Dempsey, of Jacksonville, was the first to see a column or two and a half. The first couple of weeks have brought a lot of good things to the school. The first couple of weeks has been the time of our local recreation took a trip to New Orleans once to the French Quarter and then on to the St. Joseph's Hospital. The first couple of weeks has been the time of the men's department, where he has been running strong.

As a result, the school has been the time of the men's department, where he has been running strong.

And so we pause for station identification and for poor Dolan to patch his wounds and repair his shattered pride.

Weatherly Hall Elects Officers

What a day! I've heard more stories of Weatherly than you can imagine, and the reason is because they make it count. They were preparing for an important event, and they did it with enthusiasm and hard work.

Many Frances Oswald, Mary Francis, and Ingrid Jones, three of our distinguished students, were among the first to arrive at Weatherly. They were there to introduce the new officers to the students and to make their first official outing. Ingrid Jones is one of the few individuals who can claim to be a Weatherly Hall graduate, and she is proud of the tradition that she is carrying on.

Weatherly Hall had a new focus this year. The highlight of the year was the election of officers. The new officers were announced, and they were well-received. The students were happy to see the new faces and to welcome the new leaders.

The new officers are:

- President: Frances Oswald
- Vice-President: Mary Francis
- Secretary: Ingrid Jones

Each officer was chosen for their leadership qualities and their dedication to the students. They were selected by the students, and they were ready to take on their new roles.

The students were happy to see the new officers and to welcome the new leaders. They were excited to see the future of Weatherly Hall under these new leaders.
