Civil Air Patrol
Student's Witness
Air Show

Jacksonville students witnessed one of the most thrilling aerial displays ever to be seen over Alab. on November 16 and 17 at Eastaboga Airfield, when the Alabama Wing of the Civil Air Patrol sponsored a giant air show participated in by the most famous Army Air Forces pilots of America.

The Eastaboga squadron of fifty college students, under the direction of Major John E. Branch, commander, assisted the Alabama Wing in making sure a success by directing the publicity and sale of tickets in Jacksonville and Piedmont, and by serving on various committees prior to and during the show. The following squadron officers and members of the editorial board, were on the Operation Committee during the show Saturday and Sunday: John Morrow, cadet chairman; Leo Hayden, editor; William Wood, supply officer; Frank O'Connell, William Garner and Virginia Bennett.

Meet The Frosh

The Kidd twins, Loreis and Floris, from Haleyville, seem to be interested in the same things. They were in the navy two and one-half years together, they are both interested in traveling, and both plan to go to Abilene State College. In two years, Loreis hopes to see the world, while Floris, the “big brother,” is interested in music. There is another slight difference between the two, he is 5 ft. 11 in. tall, Floris, the “big brother,” is 6 ft. 2 in. tall.

A very good friend of the Kidd twins is Ed Snoddy, a 5 ft. 11 in. blond from Double Springs. After he finished high school in 1942, he joined the Air Corps and spent two years, three months, and twenty-four days in the C. B’s. He wants to be an engineer.

For her home town Elene Sparks will stand loyally as long as there is an occasion to do so. Elene, valedictorian of the 1948 graduating class of Gadsden High, is interested in all activities—sports, music, plays, and contests. In high school she was a member of the National Honor Society, the “Magnavox” staff and the band. Although she likes Jacksonville and school here, she hopes to attend Abilene College in Texas next year.

Leaving his home in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Pat Everest, a Navy veteran came by Abilene to live with his uncle and to attend school here. He likes Jacksonville very much, especially its historical background. In two years he plans to transfer to Abilene, where he will study to be a veterinarian.

Reading books on foreign affairs is the hobby of James Jackson, a 1946 graduate of Winterboro High School. During his high school years, he was president of each of his classes. He won several oratorical contests. He was outstanding as a Theta Delta member and FFA member. In two years he plans to attend the University of Alabama, where he will continue his study of law.

Each month “Meet The Frosh” is a chance for the freshmen boys to meet with the freshmen girls in an effort to get to know each other. The students body includes the members of the Freshman Club.

French Students Give Series Of Programs

The French students and Madame Alverna were the guests last month of the Rotary Club and of the Business and Professional Women’s Club in Abilene. In Jacksonville they were guests of the Exchange Club and also appeared before a U. D. C. meeting. On each occasion Miles Simonnet Repasardi and Odetta Michel gave a program of French folk-songs and dances, and the other members of the group talked about their various experiences in France during the war. A similar program was given in Guntersville before the Business and Professional Women’s Club.

A Fall Art Exhibit organized by the French students and sponsored by the Department of Fine Arts was displayed in the College Lounge on November 18 and 19. Reprints of French contemporary paintings were on display.

Explanatory talks showing the new trends in modern French art were given by the French students, and such painters as Picasso were discussed.

Music Department Presents Program

The college music department presented one of the most enjoyable assembly programs of the quarter on November 12. Miss Ada Curtis opened the program by playing “Intermezzo” from “La Traviata” Suite” by Bizet. The college orchestra sang 10 songs in dedication to Armistice Day of World War I: “God of Our Fathers” and “The Recessional.”

Mr. Duncan played a cello solo, “Sax Annex” by Schubert, and Miss Joe Varnell sang “Smoke Gets in Your Eyes,” accompanied by Mr. Mason at the organ. Following this Elene Sparks and Ronald Higginbotham gave a trumpet solo. To conclude the program Lyn Moline played a piano solo.

Before assembly was dismissed President Cole urged that we revere our lost school spirit, and led by the cheerleaders, the assembly gave a number of hearty yells.

Candidates for Graduation Noted

The following have been named as candidates for graduation November 27: P. Arnett, Mattie Ola Caufield, Martha McDade, Johnnie Harper, Alto Johnnie, Hilma Johnnie, Helen Rice, Joseph Riddle, Curtis Rose and Hattie Rose.

Miss Hugger was quite pleased. For the first time there was real rhythm in her art class.

Miss Dumas detected an off-beat in the rhythm drill of her typing class and several students had to be reminded that an o is one syllable.

Miss Homecoming Contestants

At the end of a search to find the origin of an unusual atmosphere about the college one day last week, students discovered a juke box, of all things, in the first floor lounge in Bibb Graves Hall.

It was such an unusual surprise that most students could only blink in amazement, but others went right in and began clinging their limbs in true jitterbug style.

Immediately funny reports began coming in from various classes as to the reactions of the professors. A few of these reports ran something like this:

Annual Cooperation Asked

This year we are undertaking a difficult task. For the first time in many years we are editing an annual. It is needless to recount the value of such an endeavor to this college, but today Oscar, sometimes considered a yearly publication of this type, is raising his frame undaunted. He stood with his chalk-like bones bare to the light of day.

ANY type of writing you might specialize in—features, have confront some of the latest teaching. Take the marriage contract found himself out of favor with the female half of the student body. In six red roses, explaining that he couldn't find a Cashmere Bouquet (soap), she had asked him to try to buy for her.

A course for unknowing males, working with feminising clothes and other necessities, might easily lead to happier relations among newly wedded couples.

New Course Proposed For Future Husbands

Since J. S. T. E. has begun to grow and propose to offer other than B. S. degrees, there should be added the teaching of feminising clothes and other necessities, which has been an almost regular class work. The Teacola needs writers on the staff, and those contributing to it would not only help the paper, but also gain skill in writing. Perhaps things are happening on the campus that a too-small staff cannot cover, and a larger corps of workers would help improve the quality of the paper.

Ka Lo-cells used by Mr. Arnold in his teaching of anatomy, stood silent in the corner of the room as the members of the physical science class assembled nonchalantly. The skeleton, sometimes called Honest Abe, was different. A biology class had been studying its bone structure and had left its frame undisturbed. It stood with its chalk-like bones bare to the full light of day.

Although Oscar was not unnoted by those who observed the annuals, he was given him until two fun-loving boys conceived the idea of making the skeleton's bones glow with a semi-transient glow. He stood with his chalk-like bones bare to the full light of day.

In the next issue of the TEACOLA, we will reprint a story. Since M. Campbell cannot bear any responsibility, she is taking the absence of two young ladies pretty much to heart.

When did sophomores have permission to stay out until 12:00 p.m., J. ALFORD?

CORGILL must have a pretty good line... and be worth staying out for!

RUSTY and JOHN seem to be in heaven since they spend most of their time flying.

Why didn't SPARKIE dance at the Hop after she worked so hard on the costume? Could it be too much competition?

M. COBB, have you perchance heard the saying "One degree, two miles apart? Conveniently close, we're awfully sorry to hear your ill. The play is "Shine On Harvest Moon" and "I'll Be Seeing You".
Patterson Hicks Honored by AEA

Patterson Hicks of Clinton was elected president of the fifth district, Alabama Education Association, at a recent meeting held in Birmingham.

Miss Memie Patton of Jemison was a member of a panel which discussed "Professional Advancement" at the same meeting. Baptists students enjoyed a Masquerade Party given at the institute, teaching in a private boys' education for McKendree Methodist school. He has organized various forms of athletics in the school, and his removal to Riverview is a position where he will serve as principal of the Colliasville Elementary School, and Mrs. Boone was rejoined on the navy.

WESLEY FOUNDATION HALLOWEEN PARTY

Methodist students on the campus celebrated Halloween by attending the Wesley Foundation Masquerade Party given at the Education Building on Wednesday, October 30, from seven until eight - thirty o'clock. Frances Stricht, president of the organization, was hostess for the party and was assisted by a committee composed of Nancy Harper, Mary Lou Greene, Maxell Colwell, Martha Sue Boyd and Perry Treadway.

The usual cornstalks, black cats and witches, orange - colored lights, weird noises, and ghost stories created the setting and atmosphere for this traditional celebration of Halloween's Greetings, attended in grotesque and unique costumes, entered the dimly lighted rooms of the Education Building, and immediately engaged in spooky Halloween games, fortune telling, apple bobbing, and other activities which lasted over the allotted time for the party.

Before the party ended, Wesley Foundation members consumed dozens of 'comics' served with hot chocolate, marshmallows and apples.

State Council

Miss Frances Stricht and Miss Mary Lou Greene, president and vice-president of the Wesley Foundation, represented the Jacksonville organization at the State Council on November 17-18. The meeting was held on the campus of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Retreat

Members of the Wesley Foundation held a retreat at "Hawthorne," summer home of Dr. and Mrs. James Williams, last week-end. The Rev. E. S. Butterly, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and members of the group were in charge.

Those attending the retreat were: Martha Sue Boyd, Jean McCathys, Mary Lou Greene, Billy Weaver, Waymon Cofhatter, Harold Holcomb, Perry Treadway, Frances Stricht, Maxell Colwell, Martha Sue Boyd and Perry Treadway.

Campus Personalities

Rosamond Luttrell

Looking over the list of this quarter's graduating seniors, we find the name of Rosamond Luttrell as one very deserving of this month's campus personality sketch.

Rosamond (Miss Maude Luttrell's niece) came to Jacksonville in 1944 after graduating from Girl's High in Atlanta, Ga., her home town. Maynor, Oneonta, representing the Seventh District; W. H. Wilson, near Wedowee, is one of the basket,ball team.

With her sparkling personality and brilliant mind she immediately became a favorite on the campus and has received many honors, among which are membership in Kappa Delta Pi, recent selection as a member of Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities, and others. She is a Math and Science Major and is now teaching college algebra. With her brown eyes, black hair, and creamy complexion, Rosamond has worked her way into the masculine heart. It could be that Joe is interested in math, but it's a cinch David isn't. For Joe is from Woodland, near Wedowee. He finished high school at Woodland in 1939. He was president of his class and captain of the basketball team. On graduating from high school he entered college at Southern Union, Wedowee, Alabama, in the fall of 1939, where he remained for one and one-half years.

On graduating from high school he entered college at Southern Union, Wedowee, Alabama, in the fall of 1939, where he remained for one and one-half years.

He then taught school in the Tuskegee City School until he entered college here in 1941. Soon after coming here he was drafted into the army. He was in training at Fort McClellan before being shipped overseas, where he saw active duty in Belgium and Germany with the Fourth Infantry Division. As a soldier he was awarded the following medals: Combat Infantry Badge, Good Conduct Medal, and the Bronze Star. He was discharged in February, 1946.

That he was married in 1944 we must not forget. His wife is Lorene Guiste, a graduate of the University of Alabama. They, with their twenty-months old daughter, Mary Lynn, are the envy of many of the girls on campus.

EXCUSED ABSENCE

A certain married student of the college gave a unique excuse for being absent from classes one day recently. "My wife bought three pounds of pure lard," he said, "and I couldn't help staying at home to celebrate."

He wasn't sure the teachers would accept the excuse, but they would under the circumstances, he thought. However, some doubt as to the authenticity of his excuse was expressed and some seemed to believe that the prevailing high cost of the commodity may have forced him to stay out and work for it.

Powerful Southeastern Louisiana

November 15: Jacksonville

Eagle-Owls were defeated by the powerful Southeastern Louisiana College by a score of 39-24. The injury-ridden Eagle-Owls received no praise from fans when they were playing against a team that for the brand of football they played. It was remarked that the Jacksonville team was the trickiest team seen there this year. In playing Southeastern, the Eagle-Owls ran up against one of the few undefeated teams in the nation, listed as one of the power-houses among small colleges.

The Eagle-Owls lost the services of their star tailback, Blackie Heath, and fullback Glenn Hawkins early in the ball game. They were evicted from the game by the officials. Kenneth Smith stepped into the shoes of Heath and looked like a veteran in his punting, passing, and running.

MCCULLARS ELECTED MISS HOMEcoming

Wood, Muldrew Runners-Up

On Homcoming eve, in a thrilling, breath-taking campaign finish at the Rec Hall, Dorothy McCullars was elected "Miss Homecoming" from a field of twelve contestants.

The excitement of the crowd increased while the final deluge of votes was counted.

In the final tally, Mrs. McCullars had 14,700 votes, Madelyn Wood had 11,445, and Betty Muldrew had 6,007.

Misses Wood and Muldrew were selected for mates of honor.

Mrs. McCullars, a beautiful, blue-eyed blond, was attired in a pale blue net evening dress with black velvet trim for the contest. She wore blue evening sandals and no jewelry or ornaments of any kind.

Coach Don Ball's Eagle-Owls will journey to Carrollton, Georgia, Saturday night to tangle with Coach Earl M. Heby's Western Georgia Braves.

Since this is the last game for South teams, each will be seeking victory. Coach Heby is a former Georgia Tech backfield star and his Western Georgia Braves run from the famous T formation. His line averages 180 pounds and the backfield 115 pounds. They are known as a passing team and most of their success this season has been through the air.

The editors of the TRACCOLA wish to apologize for inadvertently misrepresenting Sue Carter in the October columns. Page 4, November 36, of this month’s issue.

At the onset of the third quarter, Heath’s pass to Wilson was intercepted by Ashburn on the Marion 47 yard line. An end run by Cashman and an off tackle kick by Kimbrough made it first down in the Jacksonville 50. Two consecutive losses and an incomplete pass put Cashman in punt formation. then Farquhar broke through to block the kick and Jones picked up the fumble on his own 35 yard line, and assisted by excellent down field blocking by Tidmore, gained across the goal line for his second touch down of the afternoon. Coach kicked the extra point, and the Eagles moved out in front 13-7 as the quarter ended.

There was no scoring in the fourth quarter, but the game ended with the ball resting on the Jacksonville eight yard line.

Shown above are the Eagle-Owls a slyer “hold ‘em line” and go to victory with a score of 13-7 in the game played on the college field November 9 against Marion Military Institute.
