NUMBER EIGHT

Joint Morgan-Calhoun Banquet Will Be Season Highlight Of Society Activities

"Eat Drink and Be Merry for Tomorrow We May Die" Might Well Be Theme of The Festivities Preceding Debate

We are proud to report that the Veterans Club of Jacksonville State Teachers College has been totally revived in the rarest of spirits. We received a number of grunts, groans, and frowns from those responsible for the slack administration of the Club, but any and all of these verbal lashings and criticisms are not too much to endure if we helped in any way the revival of the Club. New officers were elected at the last meeting and everyone present appeared to be thoroughly satisfied with the outcome of the election. How could the membership be anything but satisfied with our old friend Charley Motley on the throne?

We have it firsthand from President Cole that the converted Activity Building will open on June 1 as our new cafeteria. This is the building which is a replica of our beautiful library and is located between Bibb Graves and Dautgette. Most of us, since coming to JSTC, have not been able to understand its purpose. Well, take it from us, me boy, the time ain't far off when you won't have to guess what it is, but ye will see. We had the pleasure of seeing the inside of the plush dining hall just recently, and believe you us, the outcome of the reconversion is delightfully astonishing.

Our fair campus these days is really buzzing with politics. Everybody is canvassing for some office or other. We haven't been able to tell exactly which are the campaign managers and which are the candidates, but leave it to us voters—we'll elect someone. We are glad to see so many of our friends getting their hats in the ring.

Since the date of our last publication, we have witnessed great improvement in the bouncing business on the gridiron. We can definitely see possibilities of an

The Morgan and Calhoun literary societies are completing arrangements for a joint banquet and dance to be held in the Community Center at 8:00 p. m., May 1. Joint meetings of the two societies have been held, at which the final plans were made and committees appointed to take care of the final arrangements. Highlighting the affair will be the steak dinner served night-club style, with candle-light and all the trimmings of a banquet. An interesting program for the dinner has been worked out, and instead of the usual after-dinner speeches, the meal will be followed by two hours of music for the dancing pleasure of those attending. One of the finest orchestras from this vicinity, that of Dick Robertson from Gadsden, is expected to play for the occasion.

The two societies have been keen rivals on the campus, and according to Presidents Burnham and Hamilton, the spirit of working together is the result of a concentrated effort on the part of the faculty advisors and the officers of the societies to retain the element of rivalry and friendly competition, and at the same time divert the energies of the two organizations toward the common aim of social and literary improvement in the student body.

The reservations committee, under the direction of M. L. Roberts, is sending out invitations to the former students of J. S. T. C. and a large number of the alumni is expected to return for the occasion. All those former students wishing to make reservations are requested to contact the Reservations Committee, Morgan-Calhoun Banquet, Attention M. L. Roberts.

Noted Harpist To Appear In Concert Here

Artiss deVolt, an American harpist, will be presented in concert at the State Teachers College on Monday evening, April 28, at 8 o'clock in Graves Hall. Miss deVolt, who was born in Iowa, has become widely known on both sides of the Atlantic and brings to her performance an unusually rich musical background. She studied in Boston and Vienna with the world-famous harpist, Alfred Holy, who was harp soloist with the Berlin, Vienna, and Bayreuth Operas before becoming harp soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

After graduating from New England Conservatory, she went to Europe for extended study, and upon returning to this country taught the harp at the New England Conservatory and was on the music faculty of Boston University. Later she became a member of the distinguished faculty of the famous Mozarteum Academie at Salzburg and was soloist for the Mozarteum Symphony.

Since the outbreak of World War II she has devoted herself entirely to touring the United States. She has been engaged with great success as soloist with many orchestras, including the Boston Symphony, the Melrose Orchestral Association, the Reading, Pa., Bedford, Mass., and Cedar Rapids, Mich., symphonies.

The concert will be sponsored by the Department of Fine Arts.

ERNEST STONE

Ernest Stone Is Elected AEA Head

At the annual meeting of the Alabama Education Association in Birmingham, March 27, 28, and 29, Mr. Ernest Stone was elected president for the 1947-48 term.

Other officers elected were: Miss Zora Ellis, vice-president, Talladega; Mr. Frank L. Grove, secretary-treasurer, Montgomery; Mr. Vincent Raines, director of studies, Montgomery; Mr. Lucien P. Giddens, director of public relations, Montgomery; and Mrs. Callie G. Locke, director of professional relations, Montgomery.

The executive committee is made up of Mr. Stone; Mr. C. F. Taylor, Robertsdale; Mr. W. M. Jones, Camden; Mr. Roy E. Jeffcoat, Troy; Mr. M. C. Whitten, Opelika; Mrs. Esther Turnham, Birmingham; Mrs. W. J. Smith, Center; Mr. J. H. Hadley, Tuscaloosa; Mr. W. H. Walker, Florence; and Mrs. John T. Bristow, Fitzpatrick.

The trustees are: Mr. T. L. Head, Montgomery; Mr. C. J. Going, Birmingham; and Mr. L. L. James, Roanoke.

Thousand High School Seniors Expected To Attend Spring Fiesta, Music Festival Here

H. R. Baukhage Guest Speaker In Assembly

The Jacksonville State Teachers College gymnasium was crowded to capacity for a special assembly at 2:30 on Tuesday, April 1. Mr. H. R. Baukhage, widely known news analyst and dean of Washington commentators, was the guest speaker for the occasion. President Houston Cole introduced Mr. Harry M. Ayers, editor and publisher of "The Anniston Star." Before introducing Mr. Baukhage, Mr. Ayers paid tribute to President Cole for his efforts to include worthwhile current information in the educational program.

Mr. Baukhage stated that he had changed his original plans to speak on the situation in Germany because of the important recent changes in the attitude of the United States toward Russia. Consequently, his address centered around Russia and the Middle East. He said, "One of the great political achievements of this decade is the new bipartisan foreign policy." He indicated that the recent death of King George of Greece would have no effect on the present situation, and that pursuance of the new "Truman Doctrine" would be a help rather than a hindrance to the United Nations Organization. Mr. Baukhage gave a detailed description of Mr. Truman's announcement of the new policy. He asserted that the President described the situation with intense feeling and received an unusual bipartisan applause. "I believe that if the new policy is put into effect, it will mean either peace or war, and if

Art Exhibit Will Be Held April 28 In Bibb Graves Hall

An art exhibit will be held at the State Teachers College beginning April 28 and continuing through May 12, under the direction of Miss Stella Huger, a member of the art faculty. The exhibition comes from the Museum of Modern Art in New York City and will be in Bibb Graves Hall free of charge.

The display will include works beginning with the three famous nineteenth century artists, Homer, Wakins, and Ryder, which will give an idea of the background and variety of twentieth century American painting. Other artists' work will be that of Glackens, Sloan, Bellows, Burchfield, Wood, Marin, Hartley, Dove, O'Keefe, and Fraves.

The color reproductions are mounted on fourteen panels (30 x 16) with brief descriptions of each artist's place in American painting.

Miss Huger plans to follow this exhibit with one of students' paintings, which will include the work of about fifty amateur art-

The annual Spring Fiesta and the Northeastern Alabama Music Festival will be held jointly here at the college on April 25. The fiesta will begin at 1:30 p. m. and will continue until 10 p. m.

Twenty different high schools have accepted the invitation and these schools are sending 750 students. At least 250 more, making a total of one thousand students, are expected to attend this gala affair.

Registration for the fiesta will begin at 1:30 in Bibb Graves Hall. The music festival will proceed during the early afternoon, and at 5:30 a barbecue will be held near the gym for all students and visitors. The program, which will consist of a variety show given by college students and an address by President Cole, will begin at 7:30. A dance with music by Jimmy Simpson's orchestra will end the day's activities.

CARD PARTY IS GIVEN BY BRIDES CLUB

On Tuesday evening, April 1, the Brides Club held its regular monthly meeting in the Weatherly Hall Lounge. An interesting program was presented, including a talk by Mrs. Margaret Stapp on the selection, buying and care of silver, which gave very helpful suggestions to the members of the club.

On Monday evening, April 7, the club entertained at a card party in Bibb Graves Hall. All types of card games were played some office or other. We haven't been able to tell exactly which are the campaign managers and which are the candidates, but leave it to us voters—we'll elect someone. We are glad to see so many of our friends getting their hats in the ring.

Since the date of our last publication, we have witnessed great improvement in the bouncing business on the gridiron. We can definitely see possibilities of an imposing 1947 eleven. To discover reasons for our optimistic forecasts, we suggest that you drop down to the green any school day afternoon or Saturday morning and watch those boys bump heads. Some really interesting things happen down there quite often. We can remember that one afternoon when Terry Hodges got his leg hurt, our good friend "Lippy" White said, "That's o. k., Hodges, I'll take care of the women tonight." About three plays later our friend White charged into the line to make a tackle "with his sad face a hangin' out and his ruby lips a floppin' in the breeze," when bingo—oh well, you saw him later eating sandwiches in the Hub, pinch at a time, and drinking milk through a straw; so why say more?

Hear ye! Hear ye! That day of all days is coming soon. Yes siree, the SPRING FIESTA is just around the corner, Zeke. April 25 is the date set for the big event. As you all know, that is the day on which we have as our guests the dignified seniors from high schools of this area. Yep, our campus is expected to be filled with beaming-faced, jubilant high school students. A big day is being planned for them. Plans are not complete, but so far, two of the outstanding events will be the J-Day football game in the afternoon and the dance at night. Come on, all you rag cutting hep cats; let's go down to the house of the blue lights and, with some solid jive, make those kids know what college life is really like.

Those of you who said, "Spring has sprung, the sap has riz, I wonder where the birdies is," look again—they are here now.

They say a word to the wise is sufficient—Don't fail to make your reservations for the gala CALHOUN - MORGAN BANQUET that is to be held May 1 at the Community Center. All non-members are especially invited. You must be there!

We tapped in on the old grape vine recently and what we heard thoroughly shocked us. We heard on the old grape vine that with the new dormitory for men will come a new person in charge. All the boys of Forney are asking for Professor Charles M. (Doc) Gary to be moved over to the new dormitory along with them. The

Election To Be Held Thursday

Posters fill the hall, cards are being passed out, and candidates and managers are gathering votes, as our election day approaches. Much interest has been created and the race is sure to be close when the count is made Thursday evening.

Clarence S. Chastain and Neil C. Harris are the candidates for president of the Student Government. Robert Cox is campaign manager for Chastain. Theo Lauderdale is the campaign manager for Harris.

Frances Story with Tommy Arrington as campaign manager, Mary Jones with Pat Burnham as manager, and Locklyn Hubbard with Monza Henson as manager, are the three competitors for the office of vice-president of the Student Government.

The two candidates for secretary are Kathryn Trotter, whose manager is Marvoren Henley, and Frances Horton, whose manager is Reginald Tidwell.

For treasurer of the S. G. A. manager Wayne Finley offers Boyd Pruett and manager Charles Motley offers Jay Baggett.

Three staff members, Ann Wallace, Elene Sparks, and Ruth Goza, are running for editor of The Teacola. Their campaign managers have not been announced.

Marzell Culberson is not opposed in her candidacy for editor of the 1948 issue of the college annual, The Mimosa.

Remember to vote on Thursday and watch for the announcement of the winners on Friday.

NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK MAY 4-10; OPENS SUNDAY

National Music Week, May 4-10, will open here Sunday afternoon, May 4 at 3 o'clock with a program of sacred music and an organ recital by Mr. Mason. In addition to the Sunday afternoon program, there will be a band and chorus concert on Thursday evening, May 8 at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Truman's announcement of the new policy. He asserted that the President described the situation with intense feeling and received an unusual bipartisan applause. "I believe that if the new policy is put into effect, it will mean either peace or war, and if we have another war it will likely be the sunset of our present civilization." He pointed out that it was now America's responsibility to shoulder the burdens of the English-speaking family and keep open the sea lanes of commerce as well as the presently vital air lanes. He declared that the one objective of the new policy was to keep powers of peace in the hands of a democratic nation and that the failure to do so would mean turning the world over to Russia.

Mr. Baukhage talked extensively and interestingly of his work. He told of his experiences as a war correspondent and of the intimate details of White House press conferences. He ended with this statement, "If the U. S. takes the proper steps, the Dardanelles need not become another front line."

When asked for a statement of his impression of Jacksonville State Teachers College, Baukhage remarked, "I think the campus here is very beautiful and I am happy to see that the school is getting new dormitories. I hope the enrollment will soon exceed one thousand."

Mr. Baukhage left for Anniston shortly after the address, where he spoke at the U. S. O. Club that night.

ELWYN CARTER HEARD IN MUSIC PROGRAM

Elwyn Carter, bass-baritone, and Ethel Green, accompanist, were presented in a program of music Thursday evening, April 10, at 8 o'clock, by the Fine Arts Department.

The program consisted of the following numbers: Invocazione de Orfeo, Peri; Donzelle Fuggite, Cavalli; Te Lo Sai, Scarlatti; She is so White, Grieg; The Christ is Risen, Rachmaninoff; My Native Land, Gretchaninoff; Thanks for Thy Hand, Grieg; The Pilgrim's Song, Tchaikovsky; Some Rival Has Stolen, Broadwood; There is a Lady, Bury; Clorinda, Morgan; Tell Me Not a Lovely Last, Forsyth; Robin Goodfellow, Morgan; Bird Courting Song, arr. Hughes; I Wonder As I Wander, arr. Saxton; Into the Night, Clara Edwards; Spring Plowing, Jacques Wolfe.

College Dining Room Opened April 15

The new college dining room was used for the first time Tuesday night, April 15, at the joint meeting of the Rotary clubs of Anniston, Gadsden and Fort Payne, and the Exchange Club of Jacksonville. Approximately two two hundred and sixty people were present.

The speaker's table was decorated with beautiful arrangements of iris, gladioli, and spirea, gifts from the Jacksonville Exchange Club and the Chamber of Commerce. All other tables were centered with small vases of flowers.

The dinner was prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. L. J. Hendrix.

President Cole presided at the meeting. The program consisted of numbers by the vocal ensemble, a cello solo, two quartets, numbers by the college orchestra, and a number of humorous skits. The presidents of the visiting clubs and others were introduced. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Pierce Harris, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Atlanta. He spoke on the obligation of a citizen to his community and the part the civic club plays as a channel for service.

The new dining room will be open for college students at the beginning of the summer quarter. It will be used only by the students who now eat at Daugette's Hall until the new building on the campus are completed and in use. The time for meals will be approximately the same as now. It will not operate on cafeteria style, and plans are being made to have table service.

The dining room has mastic tile floor, indirect lighting, new tables and chairs, an all-electric kitchen, and draperies in harmony with the color scheme. It will seat as many as 400 people.

There is also a smaller private dining room, which is used for special purposes, and an office for the dietitian.

The old dining hall at Daugette will be converted into additional bedrooms. Space for a new girls' lounge and playroom will also be provided after these changes are made.

monthly meeting in the Weatherly Hall Lounge. An interesting program was presented, including a talk by Mrs. Margaret Stapp on the selection, buying and care of silver, which gave very helpful suggestions to the members of the club.

On Monday evening, April 7, the club entertained at a card party in Bibb Graves Hall. All types of card games were played and everyone had an enjoyable time. Refreshments were prepared and served by Mrs. Herbert Light, Mrs. Cois Brown, Mrs. James Moncus and Mrs. Clay McElroy.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Light, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. James Moncus, Mr. and Mrs. James Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Cois Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cagle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Cosgrove Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Moon, Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow, and Mr. and Mrs. Garner.

SAETRE IS PRESENTED IN VIOLIN CONCERT

Gilbert T. Saetre, a Norwegian-American violinist, was presented in a program by the Fine Arts Department on April 16, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Saetre studied in New York City. He has been a member of the Stanford Symphony of Stanford, Connecticut, a member of Roxy and his gang of the Roxy Theater in New York City, and at the present time is music supervisor of schools in Bristol, Virginia.

Mr. Saetre was assisted by J. Eugene Duncan, cellist, and Walter A. Mason, accompanist.

The program consisted of the following numbers by Mr. Saetre: Londonderry Air, arr. by Fritz Kreisler; Ave Maria, Schubert-Wilhelmj; Spanish Dance, Fabie Rehfeld; and C Major, Haydn; Prelude in B Minor, Chopin; Chant du Mari de Cornwall, Scott; and Trio in B Flat Major, Mozart.

NOTICE!

Until further notice the library will operate under the following schedule:

8:00 a. m.—5:30 P. M. daily except Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday 8:30 A. M.—12:30 P. M.

Tuesday and Thursday nights 7:00—9:00 P. M.

Romper Suit

The most useful addition to your summer wardrobe this year will be your romper suit. One shown above as pictured in the April issue of Junior Bazaar is made in giddy green and white stripes and is strapless. A little drawstring makes it fit to perfection. Not shown is a matching full skirt to slip on over the suit to convert it into an excellent sun dress.

C. M. Banquet

leading up to the annual debate which is to be held the following night in the same building. The two debating teams have been working feverishly and secretly for more than a month now, collecting and assembling material for the climax of this year's activities. The subject is "Resolved that the United States, as a nation, should take immediate steps to prevent the expansion of Russian influence in the Mediterranean area." This topic is considered one of the major questions of world affairs at present, and with the publicity it is receiving all over the state, a record crowd is expected to attend the debate.

He rushed into the house excited, out of breath.
"Our marriage is illegal", he repeated. "Your father didn't have a permit to carry that gun."

Campus Personality

It is very agreeable to find someone provided not only with poise and personality but also with knowledge. However, this endowment is exactly what our campus personality for this month has. I'm sure that you know by now that we are speaking of Miss Carolyn Triplett.

Carolyn came to Jacksonville in June of '40 after graduating in May from Gadsden High School. (Incidentally she was only 15 years old). She began to prepare for a business education and an English major and was immediately placed in Dean Wood's office as a secretary. At that time she was the only one working for the Dean.

After she had completed two years of college work, Carolyn dropped out of school work as a stenographer at Republic Steel Corporation in Gadsden.

In June of '45 foresightedness got the best of Carolyn and she again resumed her college work. This time she was employed by Miss Branscomb and has continued to work for her.

Our campus personality might be called a "jack-of-all-trades". She is not only an efficient secretary but also an excellent pianist, and she must be a cook because we heard that she walked all over Birmingham to get a cook book.

Carolyn's talents were readily recognized, and she was elected into many organizations and offices, some of which were: Kappa Delta Pi, the "Mimosa" staff, secretary of her freshman class, president of the Commercial Club, and now vice-president of the senior class. But Carolyn considers her membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" the greatest honor.

For enjoyment, Carolyn has varied interests, some of which are: playing the piano, reading, listening to good music, and, last but not least, Aaron Hand.

In May, Carolyn will receive her degree. She says that she does not have any concrete plans for the future, but she has the high ambition of getting a master's degree in English. However, a guiding hand may be influential in determining her future.

Officers of the Student Government, and members of the student body.

Chastain, Harris; Hubbard, And Story Vie For Top Posts In S G A

When voting Thursday, April 24,

Remember:

If you want a strong, progressive student government,

If you want an executive board composed of students who will not be asked to become detectives, stooges, or policemen.

If you want a student government which will represent you and keep you informed of what is happening—

VOTE FOR CHASTAIN FOR PRESIDENT.

If elected president of your student government association, I shall endeavor to carry out the following proposals:

1. A well-balanced plan for recreation and social activities.
2. Contact proper party for all people.
3. Constant supervision of all affairs.
4. Library open for convenience of students.
5. Propose to boost school spirit.
6. Unification of student body.
7. Advocate disposal of outside interference at school activities.
8. Cooperation between student body and faculty.
9. Maintain high scholastic standard.
10. Do best to get definite answers on any matters submitted

Frances Story for vice-president.
The Preamble of our Student Government Constitution at JSTC states that the Constitution was established in order to make our years spent here happier and more profitable, to promote a cooperative spirit and loyalty and to learn to accept individual responsibilities of democratic government.

I think we all agree that a better school spirit is needed and that there should be more interest in the activities that are already organized. If I am elected I shall work with you in every possible way to promote more enthusiasm in all school activities. It should be remembered that the vice-president acts as chairman of the Social Committee and if I am elected to this office I shall work with the students and faculty members in improving the social life on the campus and in improving the school in any way possible to make our years here happy and profitable. I shall be ready to assist the president of the S. G. A. and other students in any plan to improve what we have or to institute new activities. I shall cooperate with the other officers in trying to have the kind of student government that we all want.

Any influence that you may have in helping me to be elected to this office will be greatly appreciated.

For Whom The Bells Toll

FOSHEE-CANTER WEDDING

Hefferman-Whisenant

Of interest to their friends on the campus was the marriage of Elise Carter of Talladega, and James Foshee of Red Level, which took place Saturday, April 19 at Andalusia, with the Rev. Mr. Stewart officiating.

The bride wore a becoming white suit with black accessories. She is a member of the freshman class.

Mr. Foshee, who is a veteran of World War II, is also a member of the freshman class.

They plan to remain in school.

The vows of Miss Patricia Ann Hefferman of Wellington and James Lowell Whisenant of Arab were read Easter Sunday by the mayor of Rossville, Georgia. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. George Bates.

The bride wore a white gabardine suit with brown accessories. Both the bride and bride-groom are freshmen and plan to continue their college work.

The newly-weds are planning to make their home at Wellington, Alabama.

Thompson-Mitchell

The marriage of Miss Eloise Thompson of Fort Payne, Alabama, to John William Mitchell of Bowling Green, Kentucky, was solemnized Saturday evening, April 12, at the First Methodist Church in Fort Payne. The Rev. Steve Kimbrough was the officiating minister.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and woodwardia ferns.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Ardell Thompson. The bride's maids were Mrs. Lila Harrison and Betty Mitchell.

The bride wore a white wedding dress. She carried white roses with satin streamers caught at intervals with lily-of-the-valley.

"Bow" Mitchell of Bowling Green, Kentucky, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Rainy Hotel. Immediately after the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip to the coast.

The bride was a senior here at JSTC.

The groom has an established business in Bowling Green, Kentucky, where the couple expect to make their home.

Cochran-Whitmore

The marriage of Miss Susie Cochran of Centre and Jack Whitmore of Petersburg, Virginia, was solemnized March 30 at the Methodist Church of Centre with the Rev. O. A. Bonner officiating.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Brooks H. Bishop, was matron of honor. Dr. Brooks H. Bishop served as best man. The only attendants were the immediate family.

The bride wore a grey gabardine suit with black accessories. Her corsage consisted of pink and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a short wedding trip.

The bride will receive her degree May 30. She is now serving in the capacity of secretary of the college extension department.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Virginia and served as a commissioned officer in World War II. He is now doing graduate work in engineering at the University of Delaware. He is also engaged as an instructor in the University.

After June 1 the couple intend to make their home in Newark, Delaware.

The old productions of "Cameo Kirby" will take back seats to this colorful and ultra-lavish new musical.

As busy as the traditional paper-hanger these days, ALAN HALE is playing double roles simultaneously at Warner Brothers. In "Whiplash" he is the lovable Irish fight-trainer and in "The Silver River", the Nevada mining saga, starring ANN SHERIDAN and ERROL FLYNN, he is the flashy and boisterous politician. Alan zips from one set to the other on a bicycle. "If my legs start to buckle," says he, "I'll trade this thing in for a put-put."

Being the blind pianist in "Counterpoint" is an assignment just a bit more difficult than rolling off the log for DANA ANDREWS. Wearing contact lenses, he must learn to fake playing the piano without even a glance at the keyboard.

With the deal to borrow BILL POWELL from M-G-M, "The Senator Was Indiscreet" is shaping up nicely at Universal-International. Playwright GEORGE S. KAUFMAN is launching his career as a director on this one . . . At parties LARRY PARKS is constantly requested to "make like Jolson" and the alumni news at his own alma mater, the University of Illinois, mis-printed his "portrayal of Al Jolson" as his "betrayal of Al Jolson." Larry takes a beating from all sides.

The bobby-soxers' idol, VAN JOHNSON finally had a door slammed in his face. Arriving at Watson Webb's to play tennis with TYRONE POWER, Van found nobody home but a houseguest. Seeing that he was un-recognized, he posed as a magazine salesman working his way through barber college. "I can't read", said the house-guest and a high wind from the swishing door nearly uprooted Van's freckles.

Republic has chosen RUTH WARWICK and DEAN JAGGER to co-star in "Driftwood", a story written by Mary Anita Loos and Richard Sale. Allan Dwan will produce . . . In "The Voice of the Turtle" WAYNE MORRIS plays his actual rank in the navy—a lieutenant-commander . . . Guess RAY MILLAND will soon be on the water-wagon. He takes only two drinks in "California".

Alumni Breakfast

One of the most successful alumni breakfasts in the history of the college was held Friday, March 28, in the Terrace Room of the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham. The number present exceeded the reservations by about one hundred persons and many stood throughout the hour-long program. It was estimated that at least four hundred alumni, faculty, students and friends attended.

Frank Stewart, president of the alumni association, and superintendent of Cherokee County Schools, presided. Governor James E. Folsom was the principal speaker. The platform guests were introduced as follows: Mrs. John T. Bristow, president of the A. E. A.; State Senator J. F. Burnside of DeKalb County; Dr. J. R. McLure, dean of the school of education at the University of Alabama; Dr. A. R. Meadows, state superintendent of education; and Mrs. Meadows; Phillip J. Ham, commissioner of revenue, and Mrs. Ham; Mrs. M. P. Walker, president of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers; and Mrs. Houston Cole.

President Houston Cole was introduced by Mr. Stewart and gave a brief report of the college's progress and activities.

A nominating committee composed of D. P. Culp, Montgomery; Clyde O. Westbrook, Goodwater; and Noel Hand, Heflin, made the following report, which was unanimously adopted: Boston Massey, Fyffe, president; Newman F. Nunnolley, Talladega, vice-president; Mrs. Reuben Self, Jacksonville, secretary-treasurer. As members of the Board of Control, the following were nominated: L. P. Camp, Calhoun; Morris Haynes, Chambers; Noel Hand, Cleburne; B. B. Finley, Miller-ville; Eddie Waters, Chilton; G. E. Weaver, Blount; H. L. Greer, DeKalb; Gladys Marona, Etowah; Charles Thompson, Coosa; C. E. Johnson, Marshall; Mrs. H. H. King, Jefferson; J. W. Honea, St. Clair; W. A. Lovvorn, Talladega; J. A. Pruett, Tallapoosa; J. G. Hendon, Randolph; Fred Allen, Shelby; and R. P. Steed, Cherokee.

The college orchestra, under the direction of J. Eugene Duncan, played several compositions, and a double trio sang. Members of the trio were Willodan Campbell, Ina Jo Varnell, Patty Dillon, Jackie Cobb, James Jordan, and Tommy Arrington.

Wesley Foundation

About fifty members of the Wesley Foundation met Thursday evening, April 10, at the Community Center for the annual banquet, which is the climax of the Foundation's activities for the year.

Frances Striplin, president of the organization, was master of ceremonies.

The tables were decorated with candles and spring flowers, with a general theme of green and yellow was carried throughout in the decorations.

James Jordan of Collinsville sang "Without a Song" and "Anniversary Song"; Mrs. Dan Gray sang "Sweet Miss Mary" and "Mighty Lak a Rose". These numbers were followed by a dramatic skit presented by Billy Weaver and the Rev. E. S. Butterley. Group singing, led by Jackie Cobb, ended the program. With hands clasped in the traditional friendship circle, the group sang "Come Into My Heart" for the benediction.

Mary Cobb was accompanist for the evening. Other officers of the Wesley Foundation are Marvoren Henley, Clanton, vice-president; and Buddy Tredaway, secretary-treasurer.

Those attending were: Wallace E. Matthews, Bill Cassidy, Betty Nell Adams, Raymond Lindsay, Catherine Trotter, John Rivers, Robert B. Hebson, Neil Harris, Marzell Culberson, M. L. Roberts, Waymon Clotfelter, William Kennedy, Bill Smallwood, Joyce Smallwood, Sherman Stewart, Billy Wood, Mary, Jackie, and Bonny Cobb, Buddy Tredaway, Nancy Harper, Billy Weaver, Marilyn Belanus, Charlotte Claypool, Miss Lucille Branscomb, the Rev. E. S. Butterley, Monza Henson, Marvoren Henley, Ruth Hand, Valeria Parker, Anna Lee Jones, Kathleen Stowe, James Jordan, Jean McConatha, Dick Amos, Jack Grady, Louise Waters, Hortense Baird, and Jim Mallicoat.

G. I. AMENDMENTS

Easton, Pa.-(I.P.)—Amendments to the provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights which would provide for government educational loans to college students after they had exhausted their eligibility periods for government aid, have been recommended by a group of college administrators, John N. Schlegel, treasurer of La Fayette College, who drafted the amendments, announced here.

Mr. Schlegel said that General Omar N. Bradley, administrator of the Veterans Administration, has promised "careful consideration of the recommendations", and that several members of Congress have shown a sympathetic attitude. A number of leading educators have called the amendments "excellent" and "necessary".

Ted Weems' Orchestra To Furnish Music For Senior Ball

Ted Weems, the first name orchestra to be featured at a dance on the JSTC campus, will furnish the music for the senior ball which will be held at the gymnasium in May. Plans for the dance are getting under way, and the following committees have been appointed:

Decorations committee: Doffis Sewell, chairman, assisted by Marguerite Biddle, Jackie Cobb, Norma Corley, Carolyn Triplett, Robert Cox, and Louise Waters.

Cokes committee: Robert Cox, chairman.

Advertising: Allie Law, chairman; leadout committee, Walter Wallace; door committee, Jim Strong; invitation committee, Louise Waters; finance committee, Sara Dickey Morris, Carolyn Triplett, and Bill Hamilton.

Chaperons for the dance will be Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Anders, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank McLean.

The reason for proposing the amendments, Mr. Schlegel explained, is that many war veterans now in colleges and universities will find themselves unable to complete their courses after expiration of their government aid because of financial conditions. He pointed out that a partial survey showed that some will be compelled to leave college with only half to three-quarters of college work completed since all their present income comes from government aid.

These proposed amendments would make available to student veterans financial aid similar to said. He pointed out that the government to veterans on farms or starting a business, Mr. Schlegel said. He pointed out that the government gives veterans who purchase farms loans up to $2,000 for equipment and livestock, and that it seems reasonable to assume that the same form of loan privilege should be extended to the student veteran to complete his educational program.

The amendments call for the government to give student-veterans loans of not more than $500 for any college year, to be repaid at three per cent interest over a period of seven years after the loan is made. Total individual loans are not to exceed $2,000.

Mr. Schlegel indicated that steps are now in progress to have the amendments introduced before Congress in the near future, as increasing numbers of veterans in college are nearing the ex-

General Brougher

Shown above is General William E. Brougher, commanding officer of Fort McClellan, as he made an Army Day address in an assembly April 8 in the auditorium of Graves Hall.

The general warned against an attitude which would carry this country down the same road that led to World War II—an attitude of false economy, ignorance, and improvidence. In a bedtime story of the Three Little Pigs, he made a comparison between the methods employed by the little pigs for protection against the wolf, and the ideas and attitudes of citizens toward a program of preparedness and defense.

In closing, General Brougher read two poems of his own composition, "The Soldier's Wife" and "Sugar in the Mush."

ested community participation. It is a community in which people act explicitly in the interests of each other rather than for avowed self-interest." This is the second value. In answer to the question about the "liquor problem" as a part of this value, she stated that the moral standards of college students are far more closely correlated with those of their parents than with any other single factor. A new problem for educational institutions is posed by the fact that some girls resent the attitude of the college in deploring excessive drinking because it is a reflection on their parents.

"As social patterns change at home, they are reflected in college. Girls at home and away from college certainly drink more

Class Favorites To Appear In Annual Elected

Eight favorites were chosen Tuesday morning for the annual when class meetings were held. Two were elected from each class, as follows: Freshman Class, Betty Sisson and Elene Sparks, Gadsden; Sophomore Class, Laura Jordan, Cragford, and James Moncus, Geraldine; Junior Class, Locklyn Hubbard, Alpine, and a second one to be elected later; Senior Class, Carolyn Triplett, Gadsden, and Robert Cox, Albertville.

Washington, D. C.-(I. P.)-Dr. Mauricio Hochschild, South American industrialist, has chosen American University to receive the first grant in his scholarship plan to bring Latin American post-graduate students each year to the United States, according to an announcement by President Paul F. Douglass of the University.

This is the first time educational inter-change of this kind has been sponsored by a South American. Dr. Douglass pointed out. Initial phase of the plan will bring three students from Bolivia, Chile, and Peru. Holders of the scholarships are to be known as Hochschild Fellows.

The grant covers tuition fees for three students per year in addition to their living expenses, and was increased by a member of the committee on selection, General Harold L. George, president of the Peruvian International Airways, who has pledged free air transportation from their homes in South America to this city.

Wellesley, Mass.-(I. P.)-The type of education with which Wellesley College is associated is characterized by three values, according to President Mildred McAfee Horton.

The first value is that "A college believes in thinking. Thinking has prestige on a college campus, and girls discover the fun of mental discipline."

"A college believes in disintersingle factor. A new problem for educational institutions is posed by the fact that some girls resent the attitude of the college in deploring excessive drinking because it is a reflection on their parents.

the people whom we are specifically training to be participating citizens.

"If all young people of America show as mature judgment about their social conduct as is characteristic of 1947 college students (granting there are exceptions), I do not fear for the well-being of America," she emphasized.

THE SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME—Shown above is New Hall, the addition to Dauglette, as it will look when completed and ready for use this fall. Ultimately to be used for girls, it will house boys until the new dormitory for boys is completed.

Should The Boys Have A House "Pop" Or "Mom"

For several years the boys at Forney Hall have anxiously awaited the time when they could move into a new dormitory on the other campus so that they would not have so far to walk to classes and would be near for all college events. The time is not too distant when this long-awaited dream will be realized. If progress continues, the new boys' dormitory will be ready for occupancy in the early fall.

However, as the time draws nearer, many of the boys doubt if they even want to move. It has been rumored, and we hope it is only a rumor, that "Doc" Gary will not go to the new dormitory as "house pop" for the boys. To the boys at Forney Hall, this is inconceivable; for a boys' dormitory without Doc would be like breakfast without grits—and everybody knows that's impossible.

It means something to boys to have someone like Doc Gary around. He understands boys. He understands why they do things that others in his position would be shocked at. He is sympathetic and is never too busy to hear boys' problems. When he offers advice, the boys usually take it, for they know that he can be firm when he has no other alternative. When he has to take harsh measures, however, he does so in such a tactful, impersonal way that hard feelings never result. Not every person can be so skillful in human relations.

Doc has carried the dormitory through perhaps the most hectic period of its existence—the post war days when boys returning from the service weren't quite ready to settle down to the routine of college living. His wisdom and guidance have put many boys on the track to success in life, and perhaps no other person on the campus is loved by more people, especially the boys, than is "Doc" Gary.

Brief Browsing In Books

Several new books, almost all of which would make interesting and helpful reading, have recently been added to the library files.

Among them are Harry E. Fosdick's "On Being a Real Person". While promising no short easy road to personal wellbeing, this book will help any intelligent person to get a better hold on himself. It shows how best to deal with fear and anxiety, how to master depression, and how to handle one's "mischievous conscience".

"The Roosevelt I Knew" by Frances Perkins gives a portrait of the Roosevelt she knew, personally and politically, through many exciting developments. She describes with commendable frankness the complicated and often contradictory individual she worked with as political and public servant for thirty-five years in New York City, Albany, and Washington, D. C.

"Our Young Folks", by Dorothy Canfield Fisher, is a discussion of questions that concern us all. It is not a formal sociological study, but rather a talking-over of the American youth situation—how young people are getting along in their home towns, home states, and the nation, and what they need to give them a chance for happy and useful lives.

"Be Glad You're Neurotic", by Louis Bisch means just what it says, because as he points out, haven't neurotics furnished the world with its geniuses—writers, artists, statesmen, thinkers, and leaders? He proves that people suffering from neuroses, as those neurotically inclined, possess the possibilities of greatness. A test is supplied by the author in this book so that you can find out just how neurotic you are.

Some other new books are: "How to be Rich Like Me", Upson; "My Boyhood in a Parsonage", Lamont; "On These I Stand", Cullen; "The Individual and His Society", Kardiner; "From the Top of the Stairs", Finletter; "The Rediscovery of Morals", Link; "Race and Rumors of Race", Odum; "The Making of a Southerner", Lumpkin; "Where Are We Heading?", Wells; "Man Does Not Stand Alone", Morrison; "Brandeis", Mason; "Victory Over Pain", Robinson; "The Individual and His Society", Kardiner; and "The Story of the Sacred Harp", Jackson.

"Temptation"

The temptations of college life are never so strong as when one sits down to study. If you think that there is nothing to do in Jacksonville, sit down for a quiet hour of study. Immediately, a thousand and one different things to do, each more inviting than studying, present themselves in tempting array.

How can these temptations be overcome? If you put them out of your mind, the effort is so great that you are unable to concentrate on your books. If you give in to them, that doesn't get your studying done, either.

There is, however, a possible solution. If you study as soon after class as possible, you will find that your lessons are much easier to keep up with. Such a practice is in line with the general rule of "Never put off until tomorrow that which you can do today." For when you start to put off, it becomes all too evident that tomorrow never comes—not even to writers of editorials.

Ten Years Ago

The following editorial captioned, "A Jacksonville Saga", was printed in the March edition of the Teacola:

"April 3, six young men will mount the stage in borrowed dress suits, and will carry on something that has come down to us from another generation, something with an importance that is intangible to outsiders, and something that we ourselves react to through some inner feeling rather than through a series of logical deductions. Six young men, six of hundreds who have mounted those steps with tight shirts, clammy hands and burning brows will debate something, the subject doesn't matter,—and certain of the more emotional and not a few of the less emotional will nurse sore throats raw from churning.

Why, you ask? We can't answer that question. We doubt if anyone can satisfactorily, but anything that has stood the test of as many years as has the Morgan-Calhoun debate is something real, if not tangible; something that is an integral part of us, a glorious saga in the tradition of Jacksonville.

—For the first time in its history the college boasted a top-notch dance orchestra. Lamar Triplett of Gadsden was the leader and guiding genius of this group of five musicians. The members were: Lamar Triplett, Henry Greer, DeWitt Hanks, George Griffin and "Snooks" Cowart. Besides playing for all college activities this orchestra accepts numerous outside engagements.

—The honor roll was abolished because, according to A. C. Shelton, registrar, "The honor roll places emphasis on grades. It depresses the great mass of students who fail to make the honor roll and makes them feel that they are failures. It gives those who gain places on it an air of superiority which should not exist. We feel that by abolishing the honor roll and thus not emphasizing grades, we may eliminate the temptation to cheat.

—In a letter to the editor of the Teacola an interested student asked, "What is wrong with the athletic department of this school? We have not yet made a move to have a varsity baseball team. With the material which we have for a team and with the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Anniston to sponsor us, there is no reason for our delaying to make definite plans for a good team.

"A baseball team is needed at Jacksonville, and if the students would put their shoulders to the wheel, they would get a varsity baseball team—or a darn good reason why not."

—A tennis club was organized on the campus. Its purpose was to learn better skills and techniques of the game, to stress fair play, to arouse interest in the game among the other students, and to plan tennis tournaments.

—Daugette Hall was a new building. The April '37 Teacola printed an article praising the new building. It was captioned "Beautiful New Daugette Hall Appeals to Many Students."

—The college students were perhaps seeing the movie "A Star Is Born" starring Jeanette Gaynor and Frederic March. It was advertised as—The first Look over Mangel's slips and you find the type that can be worn without a bra even under the snuggest fitting sweaters. Whether you're lean or pleasingly plump you'll find slips here that only accentuate your good points.

—Banana splits were advertised for 15 cents at Crow's Drug Store. (Oh, for those days!)

The following poems appeared in the May '37 Teacola:

My Little Dog
My little dog is named Red,
And is so cute I made him a bed;
All of my playmates play with him,
When he doesn't play with a dog named Tim.
He seems to say when he's happy
That he feels very well and snappy;
He likes to hear the church bells ring,
And listen to the birdies sing.

One day I felt very sad,
Because my little dog went mad;
I felt like I was in a deep well,
Deeper than a deep, deep well.

The little bird said,

"I must go south to keep myself alive."

Carbondale, Ill. - (I. P.) - The nation's colleges and universities have a present need for an estimated 52,101,308 square feet of additional needs of their 2,000,000 students, of whom more than a million are veterans, President Chester F. Lay of Southern Illinois Normal University declared here.

President Lay called attention to these estimates made by the American Council on Education after a survey of the space needs of institutions of higher learning, based on a sampling of 155 such colleges and universities.

Spring

Since April is here again and all the birds are flying in,
Since there are new green buds on all the trees and there's a steady hum of flying bees,
Since the cold north wind has gone to bed and there is a nice warm breeze flying overhead,
Since the hillsides are green with clover,
and the birds sing a song as they fly over,
Since the wild flowers are in full bloom and the children are impatient as they roam the room, and, from the oldest boy to the youngest tyke,
can hardly wait to begin the hike
That will show them nature's wonders and thrills as they roam through the valleys and over the hills,
Since the signs all say that winter is past,
It's only right to say—Spring's here at last.

say that "Doc" has been their closest friend and guide since they have been in school. Without "Doc" who would help them with their problems? Who else would understand the boys' trouble and advise them in the good sound common sense way that "Doc" does? The young men of Forney have grown to love Doc Gary, and if we understand the principles of college life it is only right that Doc should move into the new dormitory along with the boys.

Most people don't realize that a smile is the most contagious thing in the world. Try it sometime, we guarantee it to be catching.

Spring Prelude

Oma Carlyle Anderson
The seasons are not measured
By the ticking of a clock,
Nor yet by just so many
Dusks and dawns.
Winters last only from
The robin's leaving
Until warm winds lift
The forsythia's golden friends.
The seasons are not measured
By sand within the glass,
Nor yet by the sundial's
Ancient art.
And winter lasts only
From the rose's dying
Until lilac's lavender
Lies warm against the heart.

M. L. thinks that the way to a woman's heart is through her stomach, or why the candy, M. L.?

MISS DORA WOOD, what's the idea of trying to take a one-hour course from JOHN H. HAMMOND'S report card last quarter?

Why the longing for Blount County, REGINALD? Maybe you should write a new hit, "Cricket is Chirping"???

RUTH C., what does BOYD go to the movie for? To see "Till the Clouds Roll By", or watch the stars?

PAT and JACK—congratulations and many wishes for a happy married life?

JIMMY and JUANITA are doing the ballet these days! (In white ballet shoes!) It's rather nice to have a friend working in a shoe store, isn't it?

ERNIE NOLES surprised us all recently. Who was the red-head, Ernie? That is a good hold you have perfected.

Which do the girls like—WAYNE FINLEY or the car? Both seem to be doing o. k. JACKIE should be able to answer that.

Why did JORDAN take so much time following KAY to the car Sunday? Not mother-in-law trouble already, is it, JIMMY?

Who is KATHERINE SMITH always waiting for in the lounge at Weatherly? Don't be impatient, Katherine. The KIDD will have to come down some time.

Who is NIX's cradle baby we saw in the church Sunday night?

THE BATTLE OF PEACE

Wilson MacDonald

The windmills of Holland are turning again;
The brown hands of Denmark are churning again;
The red heaths of England are burning again;
And Russians no longer must die.

The birds of the air are home-winging again;
The legions of China are singing again;
The church bells in Poland are ringing again;
And Scotch lasses in the rye.

Tironto and Melborne are joyous again;
The mothers are glad from Seattle to Maine;
For fire, from the skies, falls no longer like rain;

And war, like a dream, has passed by.
Beneath the command of a Carpenter's son;
The battle of peace must be fought now, and win;
A battle that knows not the cry of a gun;
In the land or the sea or the sky.

New And Retiring Vets Club Prexies

CHARLES MOTLEY

This corner is dedicated to the outstanding veterans now attending JSTC. The personality this month is none other than the president of the Vets Club, Charles E. Motley.

He was born November 9, 1922. He attended elementary and senior high school at New Site. After graduation, Charles joined the navy on January 14, 1943. He received his "boot" training at San Diego, California. When Charles finished radar training, he was assigned to duty aboard the U. S. S. Cophee. Later he was assigned to the U. S. S. Bismarck. While aboard the Bismarck, Charles saw action at Leyte, Luzon, and Iwo Jima. Some other places he visited are Australia, New Guinea, Midway, Johnston, Hawaii, Saipan, the Carolines, New Caledonia, and the Admiralty Islands.

On February 22, 1945, while cruising about ten miles off the shores of Iwo Jima, the U. S. S. Bismarck was attacked by two Japanese suicide planes which made direct hits. Three hundred of Charles' shipmates went down with the ship. After spending three hours in the water, Motley was rescued and sent back to the States.

On January 30, 1946, Charles received his discharge from the navy. Six weeks later he entered school at JSTC and is now an outstanding sophomore. He plans to enter Auburn when he finishes his pre-courses here.

WALTER WALLACE

Shown above is Walter Wallace, retiring head of the Vets Club. Wallace will receive his degree in May as an English-Social Studies major. He has served as president of the junior class, vice-president of the Morgan Literary Society, secretary of the Vets Club, and as a member of the Social Committee. Last fall, he was chosen as a representative of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for 1946-47", and is currently a member of the "J" Club.

The Vets Club has been reorganized and the members hope to carry out a program that will help the college and every person that is a student. They will back the faculty to the fullest extent and cooperate in any way that may be for the betterment of our school.

Other officers elected by the club include Bill Hamilton, vice-president; Grafton Sharp, secretary; Clarence Chastain, treasurer; Charles Sprayberry, program chairman; and Bruce Chase, reporter.

The officers have met and decided upon some plans to be presented to the club at the next regular meeting. An outing at Crystal Springs has been tentatively set for some time near the middle of May.

"J" Club Initiates

Pledges for membership in the "J" Club are shown above as they are initiated into the club. Besides wearing this fancy apparel for a day, they were compelled to wait on the tables of the full-fledged "J" Club members, and beg for scraps of food for their "pets". They are, reading from left to right: "Ham" Rains, George NanCarrow, and Curtis Johnson.

Local Yokel Makes Good

Tune your dials to Station WOOB at Anniston on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights at 7:30 and hear Lynn Mullinax "beat the keyboard" on a fifteen-minute program of music. A music major, Lynn is a member of the freshman class and in all probability, will get his degree here.

He is featured currently as pianist for Jimmy Simpson's orchestra.

Willodean Campbell, another music major from Anniston, is heard at 7:15 over the same station in a program of vocal music on Tuesday and Friday nights. Lynn is her accompanist on these broadcasts.

Lynn's sponsor is Stewart Dry Cleaners, and Willodean's is Campbell's Automobile Parts.

Ensemble, Band Tour Etowah

The college ensemble and dance band accompanied Mr. Stone on a tour of Etowah County High School and Emma Sansom High School Tuesday, April 8, entertaining members of the student body and faculty with musical programs of classical, current hits, and jazz music.

The purpose of these high school tours is to extend greetings from Jacksonville and an invitation to attend the annual spring fiesta which is to be held on the campus April 25.

Those making the tour were Tommy Arrington, James Jordan, Jackie Cobb, Pat Dillon, Ina Jo Varnell, Willodean Campbell, Bill Giles, Jack Gurley, Tom Curry, Lynn Mullinax, Julian Stephens, Jimmy Simpson, Gene Holley, Mr. Duncan and Mr. Mason.

Foreign Language Stressed By French Students

Since the arrival of the French students and the organization of the French program on the campus, an attempt has been made to arouse interest in foreign language study among students in the high schools of the surrounding district. This effort has been very successful; many schools have been visited, and much interest has been shown toward the French language in particular.

Woodlawn High School in Birmingham was host for the latest of the visits. The language clubs, in a special joint assembly, formed an appreciative audience for a program similar to those given at other high schools.

For their last appearance, the group performed at the Anniston Rotary Club on Tuesday evening, April 22.

Kermit Hanson Receives Navy Air Medal

New Orleans, La.—Kermit D. Hanson, 21, former aviation ordnanceman, second class, USNR, of Wedowee, has been awarded the Navy Air Medal and a gold star in lieu of a second air medal. Hanson received the award for services as set forth in a citation signed by Vice Admiral J. D. Price, USN, Commander Air Force, U. S. Pacific Fleet. The citation read:

"For a series of meritorious acts while participating in ten aerial flights in a combat area where enemy anti-aircraft was expected to be effective or where enemy aircraft patrols usually occurred."

A graduate of Handley High School, Roanoke, Ala., Hanson enlisted in the navy on October 28, 1942. He served overseas for 20 months and took part in carrier aircraft strikes on Kwajalein, Eniwetok, Saipan, Tinian, Guam, the Western Carolines, and the Philippines. He was discharged on November 10, 1945.

Hanson is now a student at Jacksonville State Teachers College. He is the son of Mr. and A. D. Hanson of Wedowee. He and his wife, Myrtis Bradley Hanson, have one child, Diane, age 18 months.

J-Day Game To Be Treat Of Fiesta

Football fans of this section are in for an off-season treat when the spring squad at J. S. T. C. stages the annual J-Day game. The squad has been equally divided into two teams. The Red team will be led by Captain Irby Cash, and the Whites will be captained by Bill Cassidy, both of whom were outstanding guards on the 1946 Gamecock eleven.

The White backfield will be sparked by Blackie Heath, versatile left halfback and co-captain of the 1946 team. Holding down the triple threat spot for the Red team will be Clarence Johnson, newcomer on the Gamecock roster. Both teams have large, aggressive lines and should prove evenly matched.

Starting Monday, the two teams will have separate workouts. Coach Don Salls will be in the Red camp while the White squad will be under the supervision of Coach Dillon. The event will end spring practice at JSTC and will climax the annual Spring Fiesta. The kickoff will be at 3:00 p. m., Friday, April 25.

Choose Your Secretary And Treasurer Thursday, April 24

Your attention, please: Office holding should be considered an act of public trust. As a candidate for treasurer of the Student Government Association, this will be the conception which I shall have of the office. I shall, first of all, consider that I am regarded as a person worthy of trust. A treasurer of any organization should be not only honest but careful, systematic, and accurate. If elected as treasurer of the Student Government Association, I shall do my best to discharge the duties of the office in a satisfactory manner.

Jay Baggett
 Candidate for Treasurer

As candidate for secretary of the Student Government Association I have no "big planks" in my platform. I stand for all school activities which will better prepare us to assume our responsibility, always keeping in mind that we should be college students in the true sense of the word.

Frances Horton

As candidate for secretary of the Student Government Association, I shall appreciate your vote and support in the coming election. I am for more school spirit at JSTC, and, if I am elected to the office of secretary, as a member of the Student Government, I shall use my influence for bigger and better individual interests in the school. If elected I shall perform the duties of the office of secretary to the best of my ability.

Kay Trotter
 Candidate for Secretary

In seeking the office of treasurer of the Student Government Association, I pledge my whole-hearted support of all measures which will benefit the school and which will keep it ever going forward on the road of progress.

More student participation and continued student-teacher cooperation will make our college grow. I will deeply appreciate your support on election day.
