A STUDENT PUBLICATION, JACKSONVILLE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

VOLUME 11

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, Wednesday, August 13, 1947

NUMBER TWELVE

Isn't it just simply wonderful? The summer vacation, we mean. Another week of school (test week), and bingo! We are dismissed for a whole month. Oh, beautiful summer vacation, what have you in store? At the end of next week we shall depart for many different points throughout the state, each going to his or her particular home town or city. Some of us will go to our fine country estates or to the town house, where we will spend one month of hilarious joy-making and fun, but most fortunate ones of us will go home to the farm and just lie around in the still, quiet loveliness of the summer sun and drink buttermilk while munching on a corn pone. Who could ask for anything more? If there is a better life, surely it is scheduled for hereafter.

From all indications, J. S. T. C. is simply trying to outdo itself in entertainment this summer. It was our pleasure to pay tribute in our last publication to the wonderful summer party given by President and Mrs. Cole. In this issue we wish to show our appreciation to those responsible for the recent Summer Carnival held on our campus. The Carnival was really a gala event and a good, good time was had by all. The various events witnessed at the Carnival ranged from Bingo to the Wild Man from Borneo and from the mystical fortune teller to Whitlock's minstrels. To those people who worked so hard at making the Summer Carnival the great success that it was we say congratulations for a job well done.

The Solo Club did it again. These boys boast of having the most active organization on the campus, and one has only to follow the activities of this newly organized club to understand that they have every right in the

Senator Sparkman Says Job Not Finished

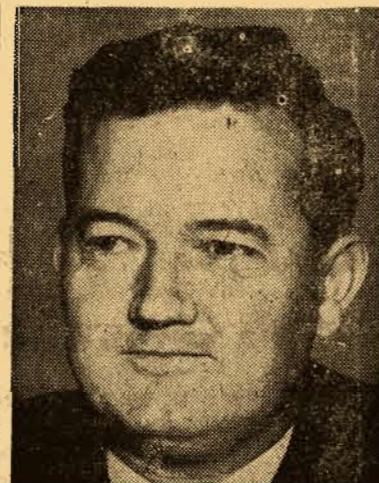

Senator John J. Sparkman, who spent Tuesday night and Wednesday in Calhoun County, spoke to the faculty and student body of the State Teachers College Wednesday morning at a special assembly. He was a guest at the celebration of the Anniston-Jacksonville Highway opening Tuesday night, and spoke at the annual picnic of the Calhoun County Farm Bureau at Alexandria.

Senator Sparkman was introduced by President Houston Cole, who referred to him as a good example of what men can attain in a democracy. He placed Senator Sparkman in the same category with President Harry Truman as men who have risen from the common walks of life to high positions of responsibility and honor.

Senator Sparkman, who served on the Military Affairs Committee before and during the last war, declared that it is the custom of our people to think that when a war is fought and won the job is finished.

"Wars don't finish jobs; they only cripple the enemy and give one side superiority. The winning side has the responsibility of setting things right. We don't get back to normalcy until we rebuild, and the task after this war is rebuilding a world that can live at peace."

Senator John J. Sparkman

Play Production Class Gives One Act Comedy

The Play Production Class presented "The Grand Cham's Diamond", a one-act comedy by Allan Monkhouse, on August 7 at the Recreation Center.

The play was under the direction of Miss Maude Luttrell.

The characters were: Mrs. Perkins, Grace Miller; Mr. Perkins, James White; Miss Perkins, Sara Hardegree; a stranger, Aubrey Burns; Albert Watkins, William Bennett.

The production staff consisted of Lonnie Childers, Mary Ruth Swindall, Mrs. Lera Ramey, Frances Thomas, Latham Sibert, Donald McClellan, Mrs. Lee Payne, and Mrs. Jay Gilliland. Other members of the play production class also helped with the production.

Solo Club Gives Assembly Program

There was a special assembly program on Saturday, August 9, in the assembly room with the Solo Club in charge. Music was rendered by Mr. Mason.

James Moncus was presiding officer for the meeting, and he introduced Miss Branscomb, the founder and director of the Civil Air Patrol unit on this campus. She explained how the organization of the flight program was accomplished, bringing in the point that C. A. P. is now an accredited course in the curriculum.

B.S.U. Plans Pre-School Retreat September 13

Kappa Delta Pi Names New Officers

Barbara Cayley Elected President

On Thursday, August 7, Epsilon Chi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi

The Baptist Student Council members have planned a pre-school retreat to be held September 13, 1947, from 9:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. at Fords' Lake. The purpose of this retreat is to give the council members an opportunity to meet in a scheduled place to plan the Baptist Student Union program of activity for the coming year.

The program is to include spir-

Elaine Gerstlauer Chosen As "Miss Jacksonville" At Annual Summer Carnival

Speaker of House Beck Crowns Queen of Carnival In Colorful Ceremonies Tuesday Night On Terrace Of Graves Hall; McMahan And Sawyer Runners-Up

The annual Summer Carnival which took place at the State Teachers College Tuesday evening was well attended by townspeople as well as students and faculty members. The wind and rain storm which came up late in the afternoon blew down many of the booths and stands which had been prepared for the occasion, but the students refused to be discouraged and replaced them as soon as the rain had ceased.

Kappa Delta Pi Fetes New Members

The summer initiation and banquet of the Epsilon Phi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi was given on Tuesday evening, July 29, at the Community Center.

Dr. C. R. Wood was toastmaster for the banquet and Louise Waters welcomed the new members. Mary Cobb, president of the chapter, introduced the initiates and Gaither Snoddy responded on behalf of the new members.

A. C. Shelton, superintendent of the Calhoun County schools, was the principal speaker. He used as his subject "What is Expected of a College Graduate."

New members initiated into the chapter were Mrs. Gertrude English, Mobile; Mrs. Jesse Thomas, Collinsville; Martha Sue Boyd, Millerville; Sara Cox, Mrs. Helen Eiland, Ashville; Marie Hodge, Gadsden; Ruth Hand, Hazel, Entheikin, Piedmont; Jane Self, Barbara Cayley, Jacksonville; Mrs. Lorel K. Allen, Ashland; Gaither B. Snoddy, Mrs. Pearl Peck Vinson, Charlotte, Kern, Anniston; Mrs. Ozella Welch, Birmingham; Mrs. Lena Mae Landers, Wedowee; Marvorne Henley, Clanton; Mrs. Elizabeth Parks, Mrs. Pauline Wright, Talladega, and Mr. Ernest Stone, honorary member.

Officers of the chapter are Mary Cobb, president; Mildred Bailey, vice-president; Wilhodean Parker, secretary; Wayne Finley, treasurer; Nan Davis, reporter; Dr. L. W. Allison, counselor. Other mem-

The highlight of the carnival was the selection of "Miss Jacksonville", a contest which had been in progress for a week preceding the carnival. Elaine Gerstlauer, daughter of Mrs. Russell Gerstlauer (Pauline McCormick), received this honor. Edwina McMahan of Gadsden and Mary Payne Sawyer of Anniston took second and third places. Miss Gerstlauer was crowned "Queen of the Carnival" by Speaker of the House Beck in a colorful ceremony which took place on the terrace of Graves Hall late in the evening.

Just before Miss Gerstlauer was crowned, President Houston Cole introduced Ward McFarland, state Highway Chairman, and Speaker Beck, who had come to Jacksonville to attend the highway celebration. Mr. Beck had also accepted the invitation to perform the ceremony of crowning "Miss Jacksonville." Both men made brief remarks, Speaker Beck reminding the audience that he was formerly a student here and that it afforded him great pleasure to be able to do his part toward helping this institution broaden its services.

Senator John J. Sparkman was introduced and expressed his pleasure at being present.

Representatives from the Birmingham News and Gadsden Times were present to take photographs of the candidates for "Miss Jacksonville" and the visiting celebrities, as was O. R. Lovett, college photographer.

It was announced that Miss

WILKINSON'S ministers. To those people who worked so hard at making the Summer Carnival the great success that it was we say congratulations for a job well done.

The Solo Club did it again. These boys boast of having the most active organization on the campus, and one has only to follow the activities of this newly organized club to understand that they have every right in the world to do so. Their latest event was an outing at Crystal Springs Wednesday night in the form of a swimming party and weiner roast. All participants in the water splashing game of "Master of the Raft" had thoroughly worked up an appetite by the time the fires were going, and everyone got a good fill of hot dogs and cokes. After the feed, Miss Branscomb suggested that everyone present introduce his guests so that everyone would get to know everyone else. By this process a great number of new friendships were started.

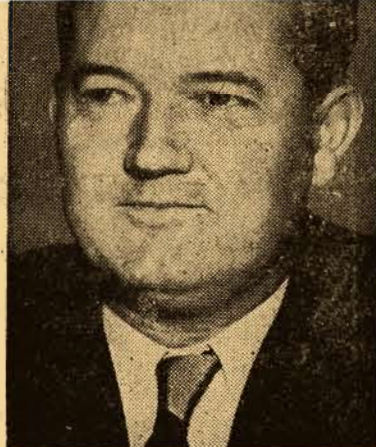

We congratulate all of the "Miss Jacksonville" contestants for putting up such a close race to make a very interesting contest. We especially congratulate Miss Mary Payne Sawyer for taking third place with such charming modesty. To Miss Edwina McMahan goes our congratulations for making the race a hot one and for taking a very close second. To Elaine Gertsclauer we say "Congratulations, Rusty. We knew you could do it." From here we expect you to go and win the "Miss Alabama" contest, and we won't be satisfied until you are crowned "Miss America". Good luck, Rusty. We are all behind you.

If this weather seems hot to you, don't get out your electric fans. Who knows?—It may be cool again tomorrow.

Commercial Club Elects Officers

Martha Thorpe Named President

The Commercial Club met under the leadership of Miss Branscomb on Monday, July 28, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. Those elected were: Martha Thorpe, Millerville, president; Jay Baggett, Bowden, Ga., vice-president; Joy Burnett, Dadeville, secretary-treasurer; Allene Evers, Dadeville, reporter. The club discussed plans for the coming year and decided to draw up a constitution.

Civilization cannot stand the shock of another war; it is not possible to go through another war without civilization's being destroyed or brought to the lowest level in history. "People protest against high taxes, high wages and high prices, but as long as we have a heavy national debt, there is no other way. Some want to withdraw our men, dollars and food from Europe and other countries of the world, but we cannot have peace and withdraw our support. If Europe collapses, we will be pushed back into our own boundaries, and will sink into a worse type of isolation than that which existed before Pearl Harbor.

"I believe that the American people will be willing to see things through when they become familiar with the facts; it will take years that will require good thinking and good judgement on our part. We must be intimately concerned about international affairs and must restore world trade. We must be willing to pay the bill and to take our place in world leadership. Great Britain has very largely carried the responsibility of world leadership in the past but it has shifted to the United States, and we must discharge our duty not only to our people but to the world."

At the conclusion of his talk, Senator Sparkman shook hands with several hundred students and faculty members.

NEWS OF YESTERDAY

Ten years ago (1937)—Here were typical food prices:

Ham, 24 cents a pound; butter, 31 cents; oleo, two pounds for 29 cents; bacon, 33 cents; hamburger, 10 cents a pound; potatoes, 10 pounds for 29 cents; chuck roast, 19 cents a pound; bananas, five pounds for 27 cents.

Twenty-five years ago (1922)—The nation-wide collapse in used car prices was dramatized in Davenport, Ia., where a dealer announced a one-cent sale in which he would add a "going car" for one cent more than the regular price paid for any used car he offered.

New French Students Say America Is Rich

Our new French students have arrived. There are four girls, one boy and a hostess.

Since their arrival here they have been very busy getting acquainted with everyone and attending the various socials given for them as well as the regularly planned college socials.

One of the things which have impressed them most favorably is the spirit of friendly cooperation that exists at Jacksonville between students and faculty members working together toward a definite goal.

They say that Jacksonville is very pretty and peaceful, and yet it is gay with plenty going on. They were especially impressed by the warm welcome accorded them upon their arrival here.

When asked to tell of their likes and dislikes in America, one girl said that they most assuredly did not like corn or sweet potatoes. They consider food to be very plentiful and good, but the habit of eating between meals is something new.

One of the girls said the simplicity, comfort, and cleanliness of the New York hotels caught her eye. Another said she thinks there is nothing in France comparable to the American cabin camps. She believes that France definitely could use many of these quiet homes away from home.

OLD-FASHIONED SQUARE DANCE HELD

On Friday night, August 1, the J Club closed its first year of operation since the war with an old-fashioned square dance, which was enjoyed by many couples—both young and old.

Music was furnished by "Hap" Hammonds, with the assistance of other local boys. The dance probably caused more excitement around the Jacksonville Armory than has been witnessed since the mobilization of the national guard in 1940.

Sets were called by Coach Dillon and Mr. Bush, two of the faculty members. The sets included: Grape Vine Twist, Virginia Reel, Bird in the Cage, Chase the Squirrel, Ocean Wave, and Ladies Break Through and Swing. Demonstrations were given before each set and many of the couples who did not know the dance took advantage of the sample.

The J-Club plans to have another square dance in the fall quarter.

Kappa Delta Pi Names New Officers

Barbara Cayley Elected President

On Thursday, August 7, Epsilon Chi Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi met and elected officers for the coming year.

Mary Cobb, retiring president, presided and the following were elected: president, Barbara Cayley, Jacksonville; vice-president, Marie Hodge, Gadsden; secretary, Sara Cox, Ashland; treasurer, Mildred Bailey, Wedowee; reporter, Charlotte Kerr, Anniston.

After the election, the new officers were installed by Dr. Allison, counsellor for the chapter.

Plans are under way for a very successful year's work.

Music Department Gives Fine Program

Students jammed Bibb Graves Hall Auditorium on July 29 to hear the excellent musical program which was presented by the Music Department and to witness the opening of the "Miss Jacksonville" contest.

The Summer School Chorus, with Miss Curtiss as accompanist, opened the musical program by singing three numbers: "A Patriotic Prayer", Wihtol; "With a Song in My Heart", Rodgers; and "Skip to My Lou", arranged by Bryant.

Tom Arrington then followed with a solo, "The Hills of Home" by Fox, and the College String Quartet gave its rendition of "Petite Etude" by Pochon and "Gavotte" by Handel. Members of the quartet are James Jordan, first violin; Mr. Mason, second violin; Elaine Gertsclauer, viola; and Mr. Duncan, cello.

The musical portion of the program was brought to a close with two songs by the college Male Quartet, which includes James Jordan, first tenor; Tom Arrington, second tenor; T. W. Collier, first bass; and Bill Giles, second bass. They sang the spiritual "I Ain't Gwine Study War" and "If There is Someone Lovelier Than You" by Schwartz.

At the conclusion of the musical presentation, Pat Burnham, chairman of the "Miss Jacksonville" contest, opened the annual event with a few well-chosen words. He gave a brief history of the affair and promised that the present one would be the best of

The Baptist Student Council members have planned a pre-school retreat to be held September 13, 1947, from 9:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. at Fords' Lake. The purpose of this retreat is to give the council members an opportunity to meet in a scheduled place to plan the Baptist Student Union program of activity for the coming year.

The program is to include spiritual plans, the plans of each officer for his office, wholesome recreation and prayer services. Special plans to be discussed are: planning Vesper services to parallel the Morning Watch activities, working out plans for a Baptist Student Paper to keep the student body informed of Baptist activities, discussing in detail the plans for welcoming Baptist students in the fall quarter, and the individual ideas of each officer.

Those who plan to attend the retreat are the council members for the coming year and any other students who may be interested in the success of the Baptist Student Union on the campus in the future. Council members are listed as follows: Mary Jones, president; Joy Burnett, enlistment vice-president; Frances Love, devotional vice-president; Frances Horton, social vice-president; Mildred Langley, secretary; Kathryn Shehane, treasurer; James Jordan, music director; Doris Chumley, pianist; Marie Hodge, publicity director; Charlie Jean Payne, Sunday School representative for girls' class; J. D. Sauls, Sunday School representative for boys' class; James Owen, Baptist Training Union representative; Charles Motley, Baptist Student Magazine representative; Allene Evers, YWA representative; Opal Adair, local Baptist student worker; Mr. P. J. Arnold, faculty adviser; Rev. H. Ross Arnold, pastor.

J CLUB HAS BARBECUE

At Crystal Springs on Saturday evening, July 26, the J-Club sponsored a barbecue which was attended by almost a hundred percent of its members, including those not in school this summer.

Those attending the barbecue were the following members and their wives and dates: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patty, Mr. and Mrs. "Banny" Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Couch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sprayberry, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morton, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Chase, Mr. and Mrs. James Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williamon, Mr. and Mrs. "Ham" Raines, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Driskell, and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Eitson.

Others bringing dates were son, Charlotte Kerr, Anniston; Mrs. Ozella Welch, Birmingham; Mrs. Lena Mae Landers, Wedowee; Marvoren Henley, Clanton; Mrs. Elizabeth Parks, Mrs. Pauline Wright, Talladega, and Mr. Ernest Stone, honorary member.

Officers of the chapter are Mary Cobb, president; Mildred Bailey, vice-president; Willodean Parker, secretary; Wayne Finley, treasurer; Nan Davis, reporter; Dr. L. W. Allison, counselor. Other members present were Jackie Cobb and Louise Waters.

Visitors present were W. O. English, Mobile; James R. Welch, Birmingham; Louie Eiland, Ashville; Miss Dora Ayers, Wedowee; Bonnie Cobb, Dr. J. F. Glazner, Jacksonville and Corley Nichols.

Summer Graduation Exercises To Be Held Thursday Evening

Summer graduation exercises will be held on Thursday evening, August 14, at 6 o'clock on the picturesque terrace in front of Bibb Graves Hall.

Dr. A. R. Meadows

Dr. Austin R. Meadows, state superintendent of education and an alumnus of this college, will deliver the baccalaureate address for the occasion. A. B. and B. S. degrees will be conferred on sixty-five candidates.

Senator John J. Sparkman was introduced and expressed his pleasure at being present.

Representatives from the Birmingham News and Gadsden Times were present to take photographs of the candidates for "Miss Jacksonville" and the visiting celebrities, as was O. R. Lovett, college photographer.

It was announced that Miss Gerstlauer would be entered in the "Miss Alabama" contest being sponsored by the Birmingham News, and that she would thus have an opportunity to compete for a scholarship which is one of the awards of that contest. Should she be selected for "Miss Alabama", she would be eligible to enter the "Miss America" contest.

In addition to the "Miss Jacksonville" contest, the carnival featured a variety of original entertainment which reflected credit upon the students. They originated all kinds of carnivals amusements with a minimum of materials. One particularly interesting booth was "Shoot the Dean", a game of darts in which a painting of the dean was the target. Another one was "The Faculty Graveyard." A dog show had on exhibit about a dozen pedigreed dogs, one of which had seven ribbons. Fortune telling and all kinds of games of chance were included.

The carnival was sponsored by the annual staff this year in an effort to raise funds to complete payment on the annual which is the first to be published in more than ten years.

Pat Burnham served as master of ceremonies, and Johnny Long and his orchestra furnished music.

The Faculty Wives Club had a food booth and sold pies, cakes and other delicious home-made delicacies, which were donated.

The carnival was one of the most colorful ever held here, and the large crowd was enthusiastic in its reception of the winner of the "Miss Jacksonville" contest, and the visitors.

FRENCH STUDENTS PICNIC AT CRYSTAL SPRINGS SATURDAY

On Saturday, August 9, Dr. and Mrs. James Jones sponsored a picnic at Crystal Springs for the French students and the American students of French.

About forty people enjoyed a chicken dinner after an afternoon of swimming, playing games, dancing, riding the whip, and visiting the other concessions.

Importance of Attending Classes Regularly. . . .

How important is it for students to attend classes regularly? Some students regard class attendance as if it were of little importance. As a result, they fail to attend one class, find themselves behind in outside work, and have to drag along, accomplishing only half their task. Teachers are forced for the benefit of those who were absent, to spend valuable time that would be given to an interesting lecture in going over assignments made at the last class meeting. This habit becomes boring to all the students and numbers come to this conclusion: "Well, if he's going to waste time like this every day, I'll just remain from classes, too." Then attendance is cut again.

Not only is class attendance important from this standpoint, but many professors give a cut in the grade for the quarter if one is absent more than three times at the very most. When we realize that our scholastic record might be changed if we refrained from being lazy, we can readily see the full importance of regular class attendance.

Students misinterpret the rule that one is entitled to three cuts a quarter. The administration has acknowledged the necessity for students to be absent on some important occasions. This does not mean that students are to take three cuts the first month in the quarter and expect to be excused later because of illness or other important reasons. When we foolishly fail to attend a class, we are hurting ourselves scholastically and morally. Oh, it's easy to be lazy and sleep or go swimming after lunch. It is the responsibility of students to attend classes. Habits formed now while we are in college will determine the success we attain in later life. We don't want to be dubbed not capable of meeting the tasks ahead of us. Forming the habit of breaking important appointments—and that is just what a class is, an appointment—is a good way to begin a failure. Then, let's be responsible people and face our responsibilities fairly and honestly.

Return Of School Spirit

Forney Hall Hostess

All the old traditions of "men only" were broken when Mrs. W. Russell Gerstlauer became Forney Hall's first housemother, replacing "Doc" Gary, who is on convalescent leave. We have it from her that she accepted the job with some misapprehensions. She thought the boys would resent a lady's presence. Perhaps they would have resented just any lady, but Mrs. Gerstlauer is endowed with those rare qualities which assure her popularity with any group with which she is affiliated.

During the fall session Mrs. Gerstlauer will be director of the new Pannell Hall, and she will also be active in the Social Planning Committee.

Mrs. Gerstlauer is neither a foreigner nor a "Yankee". She is the daughter of Mrs. E. O. McCormick and the late Edward O. McCormick of Jacksonville. She was born in Anniston, but lived most of her life, prior to her marriage, in Jacksonville. After her marriage to W. Russell Gerstlauer of Philadelphia, her home was Pennsylvania.

During her residence in Pennsylvania Mrs. Gerstlauer was active in numerous women's clubs and social and welfare organizations. She was chairman of the credentials committee of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, president of the Leighton Civic Club, Carbon County Federation of Women's Clubs, Child Welfare Board, treasurer of the Lehigh Valley Congress of Women's Clubs, member of the executive boards of the Lehigh Valley Conference on Problems of Youth, County Tuberculosis

Mrs. Gerstlauer

Association, and Volunteer Services chairman for Carbon County Red Cross Chapter.

Since taking charge of Forney Hall, Mrs. Gerstlauer has sponsored one very successful dance at the boys' request. Almost any evening she may be found playing for a group which congregates around the piano to listen and sing. If you saw her at the recent Class Officers Dance, you may have noticed the pretty corsage she was wearing. It was a present from her boys.

Mrs. Gerstlauer is on record as having said, "I'm very happy here, and the boys have been very considerate." We have it that the boys are very happy to have her.

What Your S. G. A. Is Doing

The S. G. A. has recently set up a plan which we think will function very effectively on our campus. It has joined the National Student Government Association and plans to send a delegate, Clarence Chastain, to the national convention which is held in Chicago on Aug. 30-Sept. 8. The delegate will get information to pass on to our SGA dealing with the student body as a whole. We hope this plan will bring about a more harmonious relationship between the faculty and students.

The S. G. A. is working for a recreation building and a cafeteria here on the campus for the benefit of the students.

The old Teacola office is going to be the Student Government office for the coming year. With this new location, more work can be done and more material can be gathered to help the S. G. A.

At the beginning of the fall quarter, the S. G. A. plans to publish a special edition of the Teacola and dedicate it to the incoming freshmen. There will be pictures of the buildings, information on all school clubs, and activities to give the students a better understanding of our college.

The S. G. A. has many other plans made to carry out in the future. Only with the help of the faculty and student body can it fulfill its plans.

Miss Maude Luttrell will leave Sunday to spend a week with her brother's family at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Return Of School Spirit

For weeks we haven't heard a peep from students who complain because of the lack of school spirit. It seems that this lively spirit has returned after an absence of long months. When did it return? It may have come softly as snow in the night—at any rate it is here. To whom do we give the credit for its return? Nothing amazing or spectacular has occurred. There just seem to be renewed interests in every activity on the campus. Evidently when we began to grumble about the lack of school spirit, there was only one reason for it. We had failed to create an interest in work or play of any type that was offered on the campus. Perhaps the secret was laziness and the great failure to set for ourselves a task which would have taxed our minds and strength and given us the determination to succeed.

Everywhere there is a difference in interests. It seems that almost every student has found his purpose and is striving to reach his goal. We have only to review the activities of any one of campus organizations to find the spirit!

The Student Government Association is alive again and is gaining strength to meet the needs and solve the problems of the student body. All its members feel the importance of the jobs before them and are awake to the opportunities of achieving success—not for themselves but for the honor of the school.

Inventory in the Art Department reveals new desires and as a result work and studiousness are displayed by the students in efforts to obtain the thrill of success. The new music fraternity, the Alpha Sigma Nu, has been organized to provide activities for those students who especially enjoy musical activities. Art students may always be found in the Art Department busily engaged in finishing a project before the quarter closes. Many students have discovered talents which they didn't realize were in their possession. All of these students are proud to display their productions because they have given hours of hard work to painting a picture or to the construction of a design for rugs, tapestries or drapes. The drama class has found a way to develop new interests and has been able to bring enjoyment into the work by planning and presenting a short comedy for the benefit of fellow students.

In the evening many students go to the library to study. They seem so interested in their work that they are loathe to leave, and the librarian sometimes finds it necessary to blink the lights as a reminder. Those who don't go to the library may usually be found in their rooms studying except on special occasions. This proves that the school spirit may be had in hard work that proves worthwhile and beneficial.

Religious organizations have awakened with a new zeal. They are interested in all of the students. Morning Watch has been established as a daily activity. Well planned socials have been sponsored by the different societies. Every activity has been thoroughly enjoyed by the great number of students who attend. School spirit has found a place in the religious activities as well as the other phases of college life.

The last question concerning this matter of the return of school spirit will be answered by the outcome of the final examinations of the quarter's work this week. When we can all feel the pleasantness of successful accomplishments in our academic and social responsibilities alike, we shall know that we have truly revived and strengthened school spirit.

Library Obtains New Books

A large group of new books, including fiction, biography, history, travel, and others, has recently been added to the library. The following are among them:

"Then and Now" by W. Somerset Maugham is a novel of the Renaissance. Machiavelli of Florence was sent to Imola to secure the good will of that city. Because he was beset by the lusts of the flesh in the form of Aurelia, the beautiful young wife of a prominent merchant of Imola, he began an intrigue. How he and the merchant match wits with each other and plan revenge makes a delightful comedy.

"This House Against This House" by Vincent Sheean deals with World War II, its deep-lying causes, its events, and the efforts to make a workable peace. His treatment of the Russian question gives food for thought. The author was an officer in the Intelligence branch of the Air Forces from 1942-1944. At the end of the war he was a correspondent with General George Patton's Third Army in Germany. In his book he combines skillfully an account of his participation in events with a discussion of their significance.

A Middle Western legend is recounted in "The American" by Howard Fast. It is the story of John Peter Altgeld of Illinois. Altgeld sacrifices money, power, and health to become a champion of democracy. He is a true American who comes out of the direct line and the tradition of Jefferson, Jackson, and Lincoln, and wins an abiding place in the hearts of the American people.

Owen Lattimore, in his book "Solution in Asia", shows what the U. S. policy should be in Asia and why the solution is political and economic rather than military. He discusses Asiatic countries from their real basis, the people in them, and tells how these people feel about democracy. The road American policy must take to achieve a victory for democracy in Asia is pointed out.

"Starling of the White House", as told by Colonel Edmund W. Starling to Thomas Surgue, is a story of Starling's work at the White House. He was a member of the White House secret service detail from Wilson's first term to Roosevelt's third term as President. He was personal bodyguard to, and in daily contact with, five successive Presidents—Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, Hoover, and Roosevelt. He gives first-hand accounts of the lives of each president. Starling's accounts plus Surgue's style lead the Chicago Tribune critic to say, "This book is a rich experience for the soul because of its warm humanity, as well as a rewarding experience for the mind in its intimate portrayal of 30 years of White House history."

"Prince of Foxes" by Samuel Shellabarger takes place in Italy during the Renaissance. In Italy the flowering of the Renaissance was most glorious—and in some phases most deadly. The book is a story of a mysterious lord, Andrea Orsini, a man of amazing character and vast attainments. The story moves at a fast pace from one part of Italy to another.

"We Happy Few" is Helen Howe's second novel. Dorothea is the lovely young bud of an old New England family tree. She is very proud of her ancestry—so proud, in fact, that it takes the love and influence of four men to change her from a charming prig into a genuine human being.

"Color Blind" by Margaret Halsey is a good-natured, practical, witty book for the American white people. It answers the question of what any citizen can do to improve Negro-white relations. It is not a book of racial solutions. Much of the book is based on personal experiences and observations of Miss Halsey while working in an inter-racial canteen during the war.

"The Ukraine" by William Henry Chamberlain is a small authoritative book on the "submerged nation" which is made up of pre-war Poland and Russian Ukraine. The discussion is of value for three reasons: (1) its information on history and culture of the Ukraine, (2) its connection with problems in general faced by submerged peoples the world over, and (3) its picture of the role of the various Soviet states.

"Shirt-Sleeve Diplomat" by Josephus Daniels, ambassador to Mexico from 1933-42, as a story of the country with whom we have tried the Good Neighbor policy. The book deals with the people, national life, arts, amusements, and problems of Mexico. Being a part of the things which happened in Mexico during this period, Ambassador Daniels reveals them quite clearly.

SOLO CLUB WIENER ROAST HELD

A delightful wiener roast, sponsored by the Solo Club, was enjoyed by a group of fifty people or more on Tuesday, August 6, at Crystal Springs.

Those present were members of the CAP, the Aeronautics Club, and the Solo Club, along with their wives and dates. Each member introduced his guests for the evening.

In the late afternoon the group enjoyed swimming and in the evening a wiener roast, after which there were speeches by Harmon Lane, instructor for Lane Air Service, Miss Branscomb, and William Bennett, president of the Solo Club.

The club plans to invite the student body when it has another outing.

PACY TURNER? Could it be that she's been getting anonymous letters from Birmingham? Or could it be that FRANCES CULP is beating her time

RFD STEPHENS and JOHNNY MATHEWS seem to get awfully good service at the cafeteria—especially when they are late.

MARY EVELYN and LOYD are good pretenders, or are they?

It's getting to be an old thing to see ROSWELL D. and MARY LOU M. together.

MARY SEALE has stopped dating, it seems, since she visited the University. IRA seems to have had an influence.

MAZELL, who's the fellow who calls you for the purpose of singing to you?

GLADYS is rather lonesome since TOMMY started to work in Birmingham.

We hear that KAT S. doesn't believe in long engagements. She plans to wear her ruby for at least two years before becoming engaged.

CLEO BRASWELL has been looking over house plans recently. We are well aware that "other" plans usually accompany house plans.

MATT B. is there absolutely no way for you to persuade her to set the date? Others have found ways.

Why is CHARLOTTE K. going around with a glow in her eyes this week. Could it be because of CARL'S presence?

It seems that DEAN WOOD, in his speech to the Kappa Delta Pi revealed certain secrets of old members. What about it people?

ONIONS TO:

All those who demand that new chow cards be presented before pay day.

The lack of air conditioning in this summer weather.

Saturday afternoon classes.

Those who disturb during quiet hours.

ORCHIDS TO:

Those who attended the Class Officers Dance.

The people who worked so hard for the Carnival.

Dr. Jones for his promotion of a good French Program.

The participants in the contest for "Miss Jacksonville."

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Coffee for their splendid cooperation and assistance with the TEACOLA.

Wonder what STEVE PYRON is hunting these days. Could it be a BONNIE?

Retiring TEACOLA Editor

Have you ever associated with a person who could make every situation a hilarious one? I have, and she is one of the most unforgettable characters that I have ever known. Those of you who know Louise Waters will, I am sure, agree with me. And I hope that you who do not know her will find in this article some enlightening information concerning our campus personality for this issue.

I shall never forget a dreary Sunday afternoon when I walked down a corridor of Daugette Hall and came face to face with Louise as she stood in a pool of her own red blood. At first I was shocked speechless as I viewed the open wounds, the torn slacks and blouse, the bloody shoes, and her swollen limbs; then I opened my mouth to speak. But before I could say a word, Louise grinned and feebly mumbled in a high-pitched voice, "I got scratched!" We both began laughing even in that serious moment, and it was several minutes before I learned that she had been thrown from a speeding motorcycle on a slippery pavement. Her injuries, though not dangerous, were bad and could have been much worse. They cost her a precious week of school, and she spent a miserable and painful vacation in bed. But, for those of us who nursed her wounds, there was a continued week of entertainment awaiting in Louise's room; she used her wit to keep everybody laughing. She was a perfect patient.

Louise reads a great deal. In fact, she thrives on the written she has a livelier personality than words and is a bookworm, but is usually credited to bookish people. She has a knack of absorbing information and storing it and is always ready to delight her audiences by rearranging famous quotations, poetry, etc. and giving her own modern versions. And she has absolutely no respect for well-known authors or composers. For instance, she calls her white rabbit "Shakespeare", and quite by accident I once heard her quoting parts of "Macbeth" to him. The poor fellow seemed confused! At the middle of the summer quarter, Louise completed her work for both the B. S. and A. B. degrees, which she will receive on August 14. She has been an honor student during her stay here and has consistently appeared on the Dean's List. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi and was honored by being included in Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges, 1946-47 edition. In the fall of 1946, she was elected editor of our college newspaper, THE TEACOLA, and has served in this capacity for a nine-months period. THE TEACOLA grew from a four to a six-page newspaper under her supervision and became a member of the Intercollegiate Press. Louise says she took great pride in our paper as she saw it displayed with hundreds of other college newspapers at the National Associated Collegiate Press Convention held in Chicago last fall. We as students are indebted to Louise for working so diligently to make our publication the success it is.

In 1944 Louise graduated from the Randolph County High School as valedictorian of her class. She made a speech—so her friends report—but Louise admits that she was so frightened that she does not remember one part even of the graduation exercises. This seems rather queer, since she grew up with five other children on a farm near Wedowee, where dozens of stumps were available for making "stump speeches". Evidently Louise was much too busy to avail herself of this opportunity.

I didn't have to inquire about Louise's taste for music. Many times I've "plugged" my ears as she passed down the hall singing "Live and Let Live" or "Five Minutes More"! And many more times I've opened my door wider to listen in with her on the Saturday afternoon operas or Sunday symphonies. Never have I heard her listen to any "brassy" music, she frowns on it. She prefers the violin and the piano always. But—she adores noisy Betty Hutton! As I write, I think of Louise as one who has rare qualities requisite for success in life. Her outstanding asset is her unique personality. She wins friends and influences people. She has ability in various fields, and her services (except possibly as a cook) will always be in demand. She really should cook, though, for I understand that at this particular time, she has romantic inclinations encouraged by a certain fellow from Gadsden. As yet, she hasn't announced any immediate plans for the future. May I suggest that you watch the social columns of our leading newspapers for the same.

BRIDES' CLUB SELECTS NEW NAME

On Thursday evening, July 1, the Brides' Club held its last meeting until fall. The meeting was held at the apartment of Mrs. James Haywood.

Members of the club voted to have the name of the club changed to Veterans' Wives Club. Delicious refreshments were served after the business session.

When the club re-opens in October, plans will be made for many entertaining programs and parties for the coming year. All new members will be welcomed by the club.

The reporter, Mrs. Herbert Light, bids farewell as she is moving to New York.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP NEWS

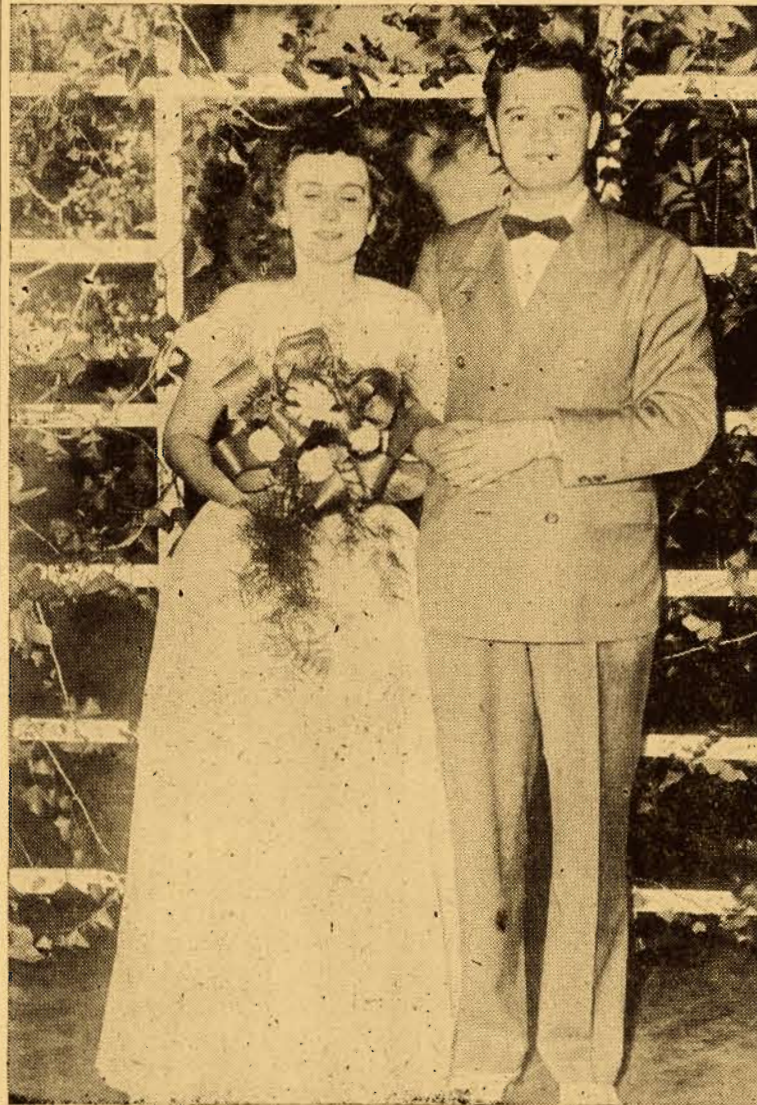

The Christian Fellowship held the August council meeting at the home of Miss Polly Thomas. Plans were made for the fall opening of school, and the reception for new students, which the Fellowship will sponsor.

The reception will take place Wednesday evening, September 17, and a party is to be planned for the second week of school.

A number of students attended the Presbyterian Sunday school picnic at Anniston Beach on Wednesday afternoon, August 7. Swimming, throwing horse shoes, and volley ball were among the amusements enjoyed.

The new French students were present, and they told about picnic picnics in France.

ALPHA MU GAMMA TO FORM CHAPTER HERE

During the fall quarter the local chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma will be activated and members will be selected from eligible candidates at that time.

Alpha Mu Gamma is a national and international foreign language honor society. It was organized by the Foreign Language Department of Los Angeles City College in 1931. It has for its purpose the recognition of linguistic achievement, and seeks to encourage an interest in the languages, literature, and civilizations of other peoples, to stimulate a desire for the continued study of language, and to further the ideals of friendship and international understanding.

Dr. Jones will sponsor the local chapter. The charter members have been selected but no election of officers will be held until after the initial induction of members in the fall.

Requirements for candidates are much the same as those for Kappa Delta Pi, except that with the same language for at least three semesters, not necessarily consecutive.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. COLE HAVE PICNIC FOR SENIORS

On Friday afternoon of last week, members of the graduating class who are attending school this term, were guests of President and Mrs. Houston Cole at a delightful picnic given at Anniston Beach.

The group drove out early enough to enjoy water sports and beach games, after which a delicious supper was served. The menu consisted of baked ham, sliced tomatoes, cole slaw, stuffed eggs, olives, pickles, cookies, and iced cokes.

After supper dancing was enjoyed in the outdoor pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Eiland, who will receive their degrees tonight, will teach in the Jacksonville High School this fall.

For Whom The Bells Toll

Miss Vera Nellie Roper became the bride of Henry Vaughn at a ceremony performed Saturday, July 12, at 5:30 p. m., in the bride's home, Hayden, Alabama, with the Rev. John Calvert reading the vows.

Miss Frances Faulkner attended Miss Roper as maid of honor. She wore a black and white dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Given in marriage by her father, Cecil Roper, the bride wore a black and white summer dress suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Amos Culwell served as best man.

Following the wedding, the couple was entertained with a buffet supper.

After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Hayden, Alabama, where the bride is a member of the faculty of the Hayden High School.

THOMAS-ADAMS

On Saturday, July 12, at 8:30 p. m., Miss Virginia Thomas daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Thomas, and Bester Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Adams, were united in marriage by the Rev. Louis P. Bowen at the home of the groom.

The bride was beautifully attired in a light blue suit with white accessories.

The couple will make their home in Oxford until the groom completes the required work for a history degree from S. T. C., after which he plans to teach.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. William Singerland has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Katherine Hindman, to Ralph Frank Blackmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blackmon, of Anniston. The marriage is to take place on August 28. Both Miss Hindman and Mr. Blackmon are graduates of Anniston High School and Mr. Blackmon is now a student here.

SUMMER BRIDE

MARY COBB

MARY COBB TO WED CLAUDE BENNETT SATURDAY

On Saturday, August 16, Mary Cobb and Claude Bennett will be married in the First Baptist Church in Albertville. They will go immediately afterwards to Tuscaloosa where Mr. Bennett is a student at the University.

Attendants will be Mary's sister, Jackie, who will be maid of honor, and Lamar Bennett, who will be her brother's best man.

Mary will receive A. B. and B. S. degrees tonight at the summer graduation exercises. She has made an enviable record during her college attendance, and is now president of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, and editor of the college

MORNING MUSICAL

INTRODUCTION

Mlle Marguerite Pflieger, of an old Alsatian family, was born in French West Africa. Her father was a doctor in French military service. She herself, a student for several years in the medical school of the historically famous old city of Besancon, has just recently received the doctor's degree from the University of Paris. Mlle Pflieger speaks German as well as her native French.

Mlle Pflieger is hostess and also an instructor in French and German at J. S. T. C.

The Pflieger family left Alsace in 1871 in order not to become Germans.

Mlle Jeanne Bonvin, just 18, of Paris (St. Germain en Laye), has a B. A. degree from Lycee de St. Germain. This past year she was a pre-med student at the University of Paris. Her mother is a professor of art at the College Germain in Paris. Mlle Bonvin and Mlle Pflieger are first cousins. Though quite young, Mlle Bonvin has been a leader in camp work, which is similar to that of our girl scouts.

Mlle Odette Simon, 19 of Paris

(Alfortville), has received the B. A. degree from College Sophie Germain in Paris. She has likewise been a student in English under Mlle Marcelle Andre.

Mlle Jeanne Renahy is assistant hostess and dietician. She has received her B. A. degree from a Lycee and M. A. from the University of Besancon. She is one of a family of ten. This past year she taught French in a secondary school.

Mr. Jean Alhinc, 21 years old, is from Paris (St. Germain en Laye). He received his B. A. degree from a Lycee at Paris. Alhinc was in General Leclerc's army during the liberation of Paris. He was a student this past year at the University of Paris. He has an uncle living in New York who is designer for Westinghouse.

Mlle Denise Devaucher, Paris, (St. Georges Ablon) is 18 years old and has received her B. A. degree from College Sophie Germain of Paris this summer. She has been a student in English under our good friend Mlle Marcelle Andre who is working with JSTC in the organization of our special French program.

Wednesday evening, September 17, and a party is to be planned for the second week of school.

A number of students attended the Presbyterian Sunday school picnic at Anniston Beach on Wednesday afternoon, August 7. Swimming, throwing horse shoes, and volley ball were among the amusements enjoyed.

The new French students were present, and they told about picnic customs in France.

PRUETT-RUSSELL MARRIAGE OF INTEREST HERE

Of cordial interest is the marriage of Mrs. Janie Russell and John Pruett which took place last week in Anniston.

The bride, who is the sister of W. K. O'Rourke, has resided here for several years and has made many friends. Mr. Pruett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pruett, is a veteran of World War II, and is a student at the State Teachers College. He is an experienced aviator and spends most of his leisure time flying.

Mr. and Mrs. Pruett are at home at 205 North Pelham Road.

Mrs. W. M. Posey, Miss Fanny Bush, and Miss Elizabeth Williams are expected to return this week-end from an extended western trip.

After supper dancing was enjoyed in the outdoor pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Eiland, who will receive their degrees tonight, will teach in the Jacksonville High School this fall.

Dr. J. F. Glazner and Miss Flora Wood will attend a meeting of the Alabama Collegiate Registrar's Association Saturday at the Tutwiler Hotel. Dr. Glazner is state president.

Attendants will be Mary's sister, Jackie, who will be maid of honor, and Lamar Bennett, who will be her brother's best man.

Mary will receive A. B. and B. S. degrees tonight at the summer graduation exercises. She has made an enviable record during her college attendance, and is now president of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honor society, and editor of the college annual, "The Mimosas". She has also been president of the Wesley Foundation, and has been active in the work of the Methodist Church. She has acted as secretary to Dean Wood, in addition to carrying on her college work.

Mr. Bennett was a student here before transferring to the University to prepare for medical school entrance. He served in the far eastern theater during the last war, and attained the rank of major. He has been active in young people's work in the Baptist Church, and plans to continue this type of service.

Mary will teach in the Tuscaloosa schools this winter.

TOWN TEAM WINS TOURNAMENT

In the play-off for the championship softball team, the Town Team beat Forney Hall two out of three games. The Townsmen, behind the superb pitching of Tom Arrington, won the first game without much difficulty. In the second game, Forney Hall overcame a wide margin to nose out the Townsmen by the score of 11 to 9.

After the second game, there was some dispute as to when to play the third and final game. After much bickering, the two managers decided to play the game immediately. Jimmy Angelus, who had just finished pitching the second, went in and won the third game easily.

In the preliminaries between Weatherly Hall and Forney Hall, the former won the first game 12 to 5, but Forney settled down, shut out Weatherly in the second, and won the third by the lop-sided score of 14-2.

On The Spiritual Side

BSU LAWN PARTY

A lawn party was sponsored by the Baptist Student Union on July 23 at 7:00 P. M., on the Graves Hall Terrace. Frances Horton, special chairman, planned the activities with the aid of various committees.

The highlight of the evening was a debate on the query "Resolved That The Churn is More Important Than The Dasher." Speakers on the affirmative side were James Jordan, Bill Hamilton and Opal Adair and on the negative side were J. D. Sauls, Doris Shultz, and James Owen. As you can imagine, many important points were brought out by both sides. The affirmative side won the debate and was rewarded by cheers from the audience.

Other games enjoyed by the large number of Baptist students were: Drop the Handkerchief, Put, Race Relay, Pleased and Displeased, Flying Dutchman.

At 8:30 Frances Horton, Charlie Jean Payne and Mildred Langley served punch, sandwiches and cookies to the students, visitors and chaperones. The punch table was made lovely by a lace cloth, a beautiful bowl of mixed flowers, and greenery around the punch bowl.

Chaperones were Mrs. Stapp, Mrs. Rowan, Miss Branscomb and Miss Huger.

CHOIR PRACTICE

BTU members are sponsoring a choir practice each Tuesday evening in the Bibb Graves Hall Assembly room at 7:30, just after the adjournment of the Baptist Student Union meeting. Frances Thomas and Opal Lovett have been appointed as enlistment chairmen and James Jordan as music director.

Everyone is invited to attend choir practice. From singing hymns together one receives much happiness.

WESLEY FOUNDATION HAS ICE CREAM SUPPER

On Sunday evening, August 3, the Wesley Foundation met on the lawn between the church and the educational building, where fourteen Wesley Foundation members enjoyed an ice cream supper prepared by Frances Striplin and Buddy Treadaway. After the refreshments the Reverend Ford McDonald, pastor of Carpenter Memorial Methodist Church in Anniston, made an inspiring talk on the topic "News."

all time; then he mentioned a few of the highlights which will come during the Carnival on August 5.

After imploring the student body to "stuff" the ballot box, he opened the floor for nominations. The following girls were nominated to compete for the cherished award: Elaine Gerstlauer, Louise Woolf, Mary Payne Sawyer, Eva Goodgame, Margenia Casey, and Sue Bryant.

Neal Posey, Walter Wallace, "Gib" Ayers, Byron Shipp, Paul Adams, Linword Wilson, "Bokey" McClellan, Sam Heaton, "Brick" Jones, Bill Cassidy, Joe Barnes, "Blackie" Heath, and Hubert Brugge. Several outstanding athletic prospects in this area were also invited.

ELECTION RULES GIVEN FOR ABSENTEE VOTING

Absentee ballots can be used in the election set for August 26. Under an opinion from the Attorney-General, rendered in 1945, income-tax amendment elections are classified as general elections. Absentee ballots are authorized for all general elections.

1. Applications for absentee ballots will be available for voters in each county on August 6 and thereafter.

2. Ballots must be carefully prepared as instructed by the probate judge and returned to the office of the probate judge before the closing hours on August 20—five days before the election.

3. Each absentee voter should fill every blank on the application for the ballot. This must be done even though the blanks are filled with such words as "None", etc. No line must be left blank.

Several members of the Junior Class treated themselves and their friends to a very delightful wiener roast Monday evening, July 21, in the pine grove back of Forney Hall.

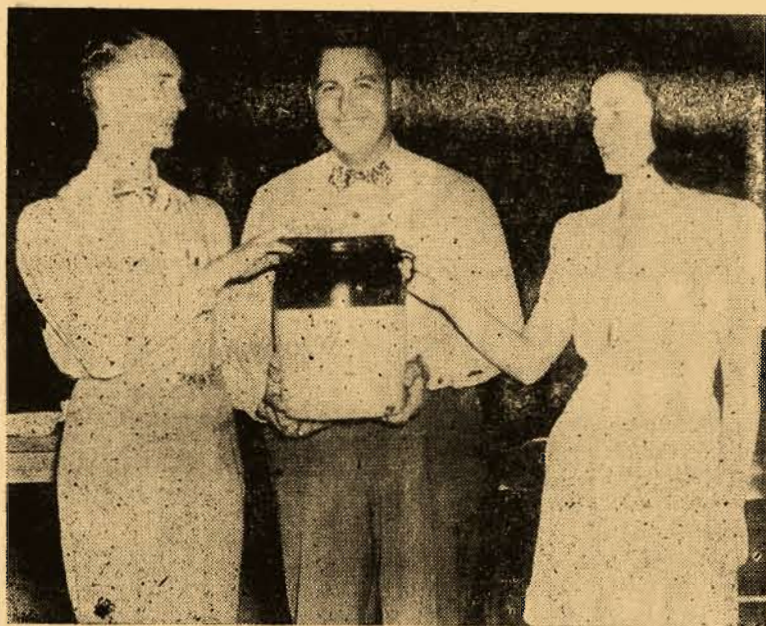

Miss Maude Luttrell, faculty advisor to the class, by way of starting the wiener roast, cleverly illustrated the correct way not to roast and eat a hot dog.

The highlight of a full evening of fun was furnished by Frances Story, the lovely little singer of western ballads, who sang "Twilight on the Trail". Miss Story's guitar accompanist was Neal Posey, class president.

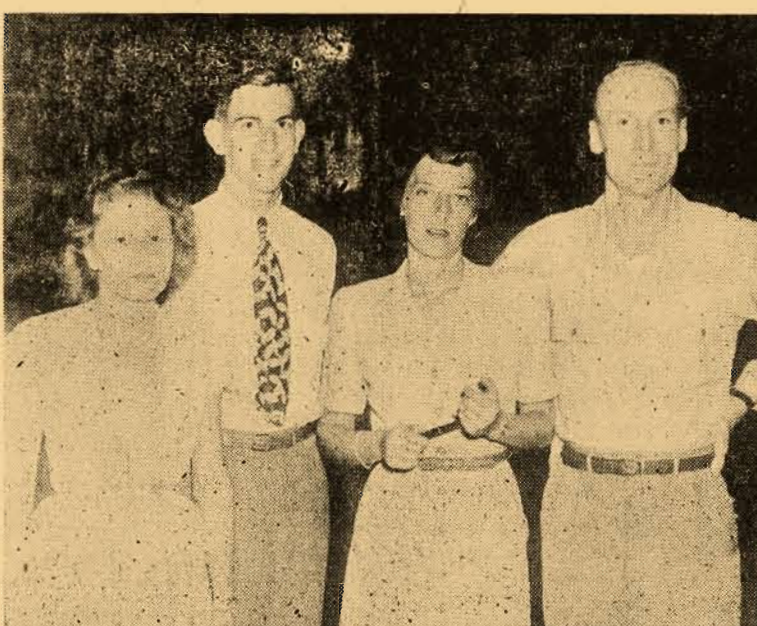

A generous supply of wieners and soft drinks was enjoyed and consumed by class members and their guests.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. James Moncus, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Newman, Mr. and Mrs. "Boots" Hanson, Neal Posey, Margenia Casey, Jay Baggett, Mary Lou Pittard, Gilbert Ayers, Frances Thomas, Tyrus Caldwell, Marie Hodge, Jock Amos, Louise Cleary, Grafton Sharp, Ruth Chavers, Morris Freeman, James Edmondson, Annette Turner, Frances Story, Annie Lee Jones, Martha Thrope, and Miss Luttrell.

Also, they say American girls have beautiful hair—it is soft and well groomed.

They said that they admire the practical mind of Americans, but that they have found that a great many of us aren't particularly interested in studying—books, that is.

The large buildings in New York were quite fascinating and they say they will climb one any time to have a coke—but not to live in. Another thing they noticed was the outside metal fire-escapes which are not placed on buildings in France.

One of the girls said that she liked to drink Dr. Peppers but that with her English it is impossible to make anyone understand anything but Coke.

The group also expressed its appreciation to Dr. Jones who met the members in New York and served as an excellent guide in that city as well as showing them the sights of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Lexington, Washington, Mount Vernon, Asheville, and finally bringing them to their new home at State Teachers College.

SOLO CLUB ASSEMBLY

The woes and troubles of the flying novice were explained by Moncus who, in his interesting way, threw in a few personal experiences. Solo flight, when he finished, was much more clear to the average student.

There are fourteen members of the "Solo Club." Eleven were present. They were Bill Bennett, John Pruet, John Morrow, E. I. McKim, Buren Hanson, William Garner, F. L. King, Rhonald Cagle, Turk Moncus, Menoffe Avery, and Harold Daves.

Two new members were initiated in an impressive ceremony by the officers and members of the Club. These new members were Donald Sharp and Billy Brooks, who took a simulated flight and battled it out with water pistols.

The retiring president, Bill Bennett, made a short talk and introduced the new officers. They are as follows: President, James Moncus; vice-president, John Morrow; secretary-treasurer, F. L. King; reporter, Boots Hansen.

The program was concluded with the reading of a poem by the retiring president and its presentation to the new president.
