Judge Feidelson Gives Series of Lectures on Current Affairs

S.G.A. Elections Held April 14

MOLLY UNOPPOSED FOR PRESIDENCY; PACKARD IS NEW TEACOLA EDITOR

In the regular annual election held April 14, Student Government Association officers were elected, and students were chosen to edit the school publications — the TEACOLA and the MIMOSA. In addition, an amendment and a resolution were presented to members of the student body for their approval.

Though several of the aspirants for office were unopposed, there had been considerable campaigning during the weeks preceding election day. Candidates made speeches in assembly programs on the Tuesday prior to voting day, in which they pointed out the faults of the plant that they expected to carry out if elected.

Elected without opposition as president of the student body was Charles Masley. He is a third year business major from Wedel, Alabama. His major is political science and history. Speaking of his winning the office, he said, "We are looking forward to a better year in the Student Government.

In a second of the uncontested races, Roy O. Land became vice-president of the S.G.A. He is a junior and studies in the Business Administration, political science, and business education.

Although Judge Feidelson expressed his approval, many students have noticed a decrease in the quality of his lectures. He was signed to speak at the lecture series, but students have been disappointed with the content. One student said, "I was expecting something more engaging, but he seemed to be reading from notes."

The Kappa Delta Phi topping took place in assembly on Tuesday, April 19. The music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Coffee of the organ.

Calhoun-Morgan Debate Scheduled To Take Place Monday, May 3

One morning about this time last year we woke up to find that someone had been very busy during the night. A sign had been painted on walks all over the campus, on food carts, on the water tower at Forney Hall, and even on the Coe Library and other conspicuous places. All of this night work was in the interest of revising the rivalry between the two literary societies on the campus. A great deal of rivalry was stirred up around the campus, climaxing at time by some very heated battles of manipulative kinds.

Last year the annual debate was held in the Rec Center with the Morgans taking the cup for the third successive time. This year the Calhouns, supported to three very capable speakers, are out for revenge.

The debate is scheduled for the night of May 3. The subject is: Repeal: That the St. Lawrence Waterway Treaty Should be ratified by the U.S. Senate and the plan be immediately enforced.

We hope there will be even more of this rivalry built up than there was last year. We are looking forward to a very interesting debate.

Judge Charles R. Feidelson, well-known editorial writer and former juvenile court judge of Birmingham, spent three days in the company of Jacksonville State Teachers College for a series of three lectures. Monday mornings he spoke under the sponsorship of the TEACOLA and the MIMOSA. In addition, an amendment and a resolution were presented to members of the student body for their approval.

Dr. Chester E. Swor Addresses Students

Dr. Chester E. Swor, visiting speaker at Parker Memorial Baptist Church, was our guest in chapel on Friday, April 23. Dr. Swor, though not an ordained minister, brought a wonderful challenging message, which can be applied to our Christian lives.

Because of his magnetic personality and ability to win the confidence of students, he has been welcomed and loved by students on every campus he has visited and by people where he has spoken. Students and faculty on our campus who heard him in chapel on Monday, April 19, called his sermon a "classic" and many of the students said it was their favorite of the year.

Dr. Swor spoke on "The Importance of Music in Our Lives" and he challenged us to make music an important part of our lives. He reminded us that music is a powerful tool that can bring us closer to God and he urged us to use it as a means of worship.

In conclusion, Dr. Swor stressed the importance of music in our lives and encouraged us to make it a part of our daily lives. He reminded us that music is a powerful tool that can bring us closer to God and he urged us to use it as a means of worship.

Y. A. O. Organized Recently At Daughton

On March 18, 1949, at 7:30 o'clock, the new college YWA was organized in Daughton Hall parlor, President Opal Adair presiding. The development of the YWA under the leadership of Miss Faye Pope. During the business session the purpose of the YWA was explained and the idea of an international YWA was mentioned. The new organization was decided upon.

Lula Trotter was elected secretary-treasurer of the organization and a nominating committee was chosen to select the first officers. Miss Beattle Jones was elected as the college YWA sponsor.

Miss Mildred Johnson met with the newly organized YWA and gave a touching talk on the Southern Baptist Mission work from the mission field. The members thought it was a splendid talk.

Many colorful posters were used to illustrate the mission areas to the students and the hemisphere, the great need for more missionaries, and the accomplishments made by the present workers in the various missions.

‘Now Is The Hour’ To Be Theme Of Senior Ball, May 7, In College Gym

The Annual Senior Ball has been scheduled for Friday, May 7, at 8:30 in the college gym. John Lark, the new student president, with partner Miss Jo Varnell, have been selected for the occasion.

The publicity committees—Sarah Cox, Opal Lovett, and Opal Adair—have been busy placing attractive posters around the campus.

The theme for this year’s ball is “Now Is The Hour” as the theme. Miss Hodge has charge of a planning committee to see that the ball is a success. Committee members include Lula Trotter, Chirlene Miles, and Jelinda Stinson who is to decide the theme of the decorations. The decorations committee is James Edmondson, James McConnell, Jay Baugher, and Margaret Ann Stewart to carry out. Other committee include: Card-builders, Barbara Cytwyn, Betty Holcomb; programs and bids committee, Addie Biltz; refreshments, James C. White; Vocalists Thomas; cheerleaders, Ruth Row, Frances Story.

The cheerleaders, under the leadership of Earl Lindsey, president; Opal Lovett, vice-president; and Albert Raines, senator John Sparkman, Dr. John McLure, and Colonel Harry M. Ayers.

College students and faculty will be prepared for the festivities. One thousand people are expected to attend the ball, and all are invited to come and enjoy the fun.

Must We Have War With Russia?
Before the Hitler bugaboos overshadowed it, the "Red menace" was treated in every newspaper. But fear caused by the phenomenal recovery of Germany made "Uncle Joe" seem rather tame when compared with "Handsome Adolf." In 1937, the Nazis were responsible for the whole blame when Stalin made an alliance with the Fuehrer. And when he went Finland gallantly fought overwhelming odds, ridicule of the Red Army was combined with trades against Russian morals.

Our opinion of the Communist character changed over night when the Nazis steered themselves against the U.S. We pride ourselves on our allies, Communist expansion continued elsewhere. The noisome blare of World War II that the United States entered and the inevitable break with Russia. It could not be avoided, as the United States was not neutral. And the inevitable break with Russia" was the subject of a speech made by President Roosevelt in his annual address to Congress.

The inevitable break with Russia occurred. Now, we are ready to forgive the Fins for wittingly defending themselves against the bear. We do not tolerate others; after all, it is not democracy. It may eventually be decided that Germany would make a worthy ally.
What Do You Think?

"What a lovely campus you have here. It is one of the places where people are proud to be seen. This is a beautiful place made by the many people who visit Jacksonville. Yes, we know we have a beautiful campus and we are proud of it. However, as we look at it now, there is one thing which it seems certain to us is missing from the whole appearance of the campus—the area between Pamplin and the oak of Daughton. It looks rough, and it is not attractive, and now that we have a beautiful campus and a lovely place to live on, it seems as though we are missing something in this part of the campus.

I would like to think this would be a nice place if it were improved. A project such as this would take much time and effort, but it is possible that if we put enough money into it, we could make it a fine place. We should make it a place where people can spend their leisure time and enjoy the beauty of the campus."

BEN TOLL FOR JORDAN TROTTER

Mrs. Ed Trotter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Trotter of Stearns, and James Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan of Collinsville, were married in Rome, Georgia, on the evening of Friday, April 3.

The wedding festivities were held at the home of Mrs. Trotter, and the reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

The wedding was a beautiful one, and the couple were very happy. They are now living in Birmingham, Alabama.

But they were afraid to tell anyone what they were doing, so they just went ahead and did it. The boys are red-haired and quite tall.
The Spotlight Shines On

This month the Spotlight shines on the popular and talented group of SGA Officers and Editors for 1948-49. They are the ones who make the student government a success, and we are all grateful for their efforts. The Spotlight is a way to highlight the achievements of these outstanding students.

THE TRACULA

MINISTER/MISIONAIRE IS HEAD AT 32C FRIDAY

Under the sponsorship of the Christian Fellowship of the President's Council, William H. Craner, a ministerial student at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, and future missionary, was present to the assembly of faculty and students at the State Teachers College Friday morning. He was introduced by Thomas J. Pelzer, president of the local youth group.

His very direct and impressive manner made Mr. Craner, better known as "Hank," the story of how he had happened to become a minister and why he is giving his life for the world-wide church as a missionary to Africa. No more dramatic story, perhaps, had been heard by his listeners.

He was born 26 years ago at Lommel in the Belgian Congo, the son of missionaries. He went to elementary and high school there with the exception of two years, in Palestine, and he came to David College for four years in 1938 graduating in 1941. He was induced into military service at Fort McClellan, graduated from OCS at Fort Benning, and was sent overseas to the European theatre.

He fought through the Battle of Normandy, Brittany, Belgium and Western Germany, until he was wounded and captured in the Battle of the Bulge in December, 1944. He was in hospital prisoner in the Rhineland and Bavaria until his release in April, 1945.

He told of how cruelly he was treated, of how he managed to bring his problems before the student government.

Several students voted to the resolution that was submitted to determine if they wished the student government to do more to solve this problem.

The amendment submitted and approved by the student body changed the status of class presidents in relating to the Student Government before the amendment was approved, the SGA representatives from each class unshirked the class president, and it was decided he did not have a seat in the Student Government.

The amendment makes each class president a member of the SGA and gives each class three representatives. It enables each class to help bring its problems before the student government.

The College Concert Band, under the direction of J. Eugene Cranmer, presented its second annual spring concert Tuesday evening, May 4, in the Fisher Auditorium. The program consists of a wide variety of music, including "The Firebird," by Stravinsky; "The Student Prince," by Richard Strauss; and "The Nutcracker," by Tchaikovsky.

This year's program features the popular "The Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky, which has become a staple of the classical music repertoire. The performance will be conducted by the talented and experienced maestro, Dr. Samuel Cohen, a renowned conductor with a passion for the music of Tchaikovsky and other classical composers.

The concert will be held in the beautiful setting of the% campus, where the natural beauty of the surroundings enhances the overall experience. Attendees are encouraged to arrive early to secure their seats and fully enjoy the performance.

After the concert, there will be a reception in the nearby student center, where refreshments will be served and the opportunity to meet the performers and conductors will be available.

Tickets are available online and at the door. For more information, please visit the college's website or contact the event coordinator. Don't miss out on this amazing musical experience! Tickets are limited, so make sure to purchase yours today!

WEATHERLY H A L L LEADS AS LEAGUE GOES INTO SECOND ROUND

To round out a very, very successful, most interesting and definitely exciting baseball season, Coach Stephen's red hot basketball squad divided up to play a benefit intra-squad game. The process by which their was divided was a unique one. One team was made up of the old timers, that is, the boys who lettered last year, and the other team was made up of the boys who lettered this year. Really these boys had been divided up this way all season, and for the most part had played thus. Due to this fact, everyone knew that the game was very evenly matched and that a good game was to follow.

Let's run over a few names to familiarize the reader with the talent born on the two teams. The old letterman's team was made up of George Nancarrow, J. C. Standley, Gilbert Ayers, Jim Proctor, H. C. Meehan, and Tom Rainer. The team of new lettermen consisted of George Bales, Bill Collins, Tom Thomas, Victor Pollet, James Whitley, and Anderson. The team of new lettermen consisted of George Nancarrow, J. C. Standley, Gilbert Ayers, Jim Proctor, H. C. Meehan, and Tom Rainer. The team of new lettermen consisted of George Bales, Bill Collins, Tom Thomas, Victor Pollet, James Whitley, and Anderson.

After the end of the second round of play, there will be a play-off between the two leading teams in the league to determine the champion. The play-off will be held on a two-out-of-three series basis.

League Standings:

Team Wins Loses Pct.
Weatherly Hall 5 1 .833
3 Club 3 3 .500
2 Town 2 2 .833
Pannell Hall 2 2 .833
Abercrombie Hall 2 2 .833
Ferger Hall 2 2 .833

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED FOR B. S. U.

The intramural baseball league, under the direction of Coach Dil-lon, went into the second round of play last week. Play has been fast and the scores have been rather high at times, but that hasn't lessened the interest in the games for either the players or the fans. Large crowds have turned out to watch every game.

At the present time the Weatherly Hill team, under the manage-ment of Bill McWhorter, seems to be the team to beat. It is way out in front in the league standing with a record of six wins and no defeats. The J Club team, managed by Bruce Chase and handicapped by having a number of players playing football, has made a showing and is tied for the number two spot in the league with the Weatherly Hill team, which has a record of three wins and two defeats. The Weatherly Hill team is being managed by Johny Rutledge. Other teams in the league and their managers are: Panhill Hall, Bill Hender; Abercrombie Hall, Bill Hender, and Ferger Hall, Doyle Weil.

Games are played on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday afternoons. All softball fans come out and support your team.
