Dear Freshmen:

You are probably wondering why I am writing to you in the middle of your summer vacation. Well, let me explain.

This is my final letter to the students as Registrar of Jacksonville State University. I have enjoyed working with you all during the past few years, and I look forward to the possibility of seeing you all next fall. I hope you are having a good vacation and that you are keeping in touch with your classmates.

In conclusion, I want to wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors. I hope you will find success and happiness in your new college environment.

Sincerely,

Dr. C. R. Wood
Bibb Graves Hall will be a busy place on Monday and Tuesday when the fall registration takes place. This will also be the building where students will meet most of their classes, and conduct their business transactions. All the business offices, the College Book Store, The Grab, where students gather between classes, and the administrative offices, are all located in this building.

Bibb Graves Hall was named for the late Bibb Graves, Governor of Alabama, at the time the building was erected. It is built on the site of the home of Emeritus George, Yancey, general, who was stationed here during the War Between the States. He liked it so well that he came back to live, and to rear his family.

You will be in Miss Edwards' English or Mr. Brown's 101 Biology. There are other groups which will draw your attention, depending on their range. Inbr- available, as well as a distinctive Army ROTC school, which can teach you the art of commanding officers.

The Teacola will give you this information beginning next month in a column entitled, "If You Want to Join-----". Next month we will give you information concerning the clubs mentioned above, Writer's Club, Sigma Delta Chi, Teacola staff, math department, and Kappa Delta Pi. Calculus Or Korea

The Korean War is the one we are talking about this particular time. Many fellows who had not lost the war battles had to return to the land of jet planes and atom bombs. Many faces that were familiar to this campus will not be seen again. Some will be more on the front than in the States. If you are interested in continuing your work in calculus, you may want to study Korea, or vice versa. It is a question of interest and excitement for everyone. There will be many new features in a column entitled, "If You Want to Join-----". Next month Military Department will carry on a news release, "military on stretchers."

The Korean War is not the thing we wanted at this particular time. Many people did not like it, so the war has not gone as well as we had hoped. The situation is not as we wanted, but one which we cannot ignore. Something has to be done and Korea is the only nation which is financially able to provide men and equipment of any great size.

This is not our war, but if we don't make our war, there will be peace for no one at all. We have to fight BAC. It is not wise for a man to quit school to go to war. There is a vast resource of male population without YOU. Think twice before you give up your books. It may not be the best thing for you to do after all. Naturally you want to help. You were born with a peculiar sense of patriotism, and it is your duty to help your country; but can you help it if you are not trained? It is not training that you need, it isn't so important that you equip yourself with an education that will help you if peace should come during your career. But it will help you to be a better soldier should you have to go later.

The situation isn't so desperate now that the men who are studying to be better citizens—better citizens because they are preparing themselves to be useful citizens through their education—have to chuck their plans and take up their kahi coats and head for Eastern shores. We have no liking for men who would go to school merely to get out of war, but neither have we a liking for a man who thinks so little of the importance of education, particularly his education, that he would give it up at a moment's notice (Moment being Uncle Sam). Stay in school until the demand for YOU is stressed. You'd be surprised how good a war you can fight from a textbook.

Ground was broken Wednesday for the education building of the First Presbyterian Church. The architect's drawing of the building is shown above and the contract for an expenditure of $36,000. It is being financed jointly by the Synod's Student Fund and partly by the local congregation.

The building is designed to promote better facilities for ministering to college students, and it will be available for student use at all times.

The building will have twelve rooms and will be joined to the church by a cloister.

The Department of Mathematics is now conducting a survey of students interested in mathematics. The survey will be used to determine the level at which the course should be taught and will help in planning future courses.

President Cole was appointed district chairman of the "Freedom Crusade." The drive will continue until October 24, and as soon as the preliminaries of the school opening are settled, the drive will get under way at the college.

The Crusade For Freedom movement is a thrilling and challenging one. It was launched by President Harvey Northup on Labor Day, and General Lottus Clay is the national chairman. The purpose of the drive is for Americans to reaffirm their belief in freedom, and with their contributions to erect a powerful radio station in West Germany to broadcast behind the Iron Curtain.

“EASIEST TEST IN THE BOOK” Probably the worst blow dealt the Gamecocks was the departure of Austin Wood, a right halfback of Heflin, who left this week. Jacks would no doubt have seen plenty of worthy service as a freshman. The only other fresh man to accomplish this at Jack sonville was John Williams, who drew in the No. 1 fullback spot three weeks after he reported in 1947. Adding more grief to the right halfback slot was the depar ture of "Boom-Boom" Mathis of Gadsden, who was looking very impressive in practice.

The injury jinx was not con tent to leave the already weakened right halfback post as it was, but reared its ugly head and took in Harry West of Bes-smore who suffered a broken leg During the past week Harry has shown even better form than he did in spring training and was counted on to push veteran Earl Roberts for the starting berth.

In addition to West, Hugh O'Grady, left halfback of Dau son, injured the knee that played him all through the 1949 season.
O'Grady, a letter man of two years was going great and was showing that he intended to see a lot of action this fall, but is now definitely on the sideline for the rest of the season.

James Lee, of Windfield, also a letter man of two seasons has been forced to remain idle on ac count of a pulled ligament.

In spite of the injuries, Coach Wedgeworth sent the line through lengthy drills on blocking and tackling and rough work while Coach Salls has been placing emphasis on pass defense, passing and timing of plays. Although comparatively well pleased with most of the performances shown thus far, Salls stated that his charges are a long way from opening game form.

Football Team in the Making Round out two weeks of "daily-double" workouts the 20th Gamecocks held their most strenuous scrimmage on Wednesday.
Afterwards, Coach Salls stated that some of the big seems to be lifting and that he sees a foot ball team in the making. Just how good this year's aggregation will be, however, depends on how well the newcomers can whip themselves into shape to meet the pressing problems of re serve in depth. Salls also stated that the returning lettermen were conditioned to their last season's weight, but were going to require a lot of work to get back their wind and general physical stamina.

now two reserve units from the 1949 squad making spirited bids for recognition. Their are Ray Horace, a 190-pounder from Ca umbia, Ga., and Tilby Wood weight at 175. Both of these boys have given good, accounts of themselves, and expect to see ac tion this fall.

In the backfield, Mickey Wash durn, the Dadeville flash, has not lost his knack for passing. Salls has experimented with several different units in an effort to find the most effective combi nation, but has made no statement as to which he plans to throw
