Ordinarily, I make a tremendous effort to keep as much first person as possible out of this column, but this time I intend to be different. This is a lot of saying I want to do.

To start off, I'm haring on an event that just took place during spirit, Jacksonville just hasn't got it. At Troy, the band and a handful of students worked up an enthusiasm and spirit I have never before seen demonstrated in this school. It was a wonderful thing to see happen. People who had never before been enthusiastic about football shoulded themselves. Now why? What caused such a spontaneous outburst? How can a school spiritually dead as this one produce something like the spirit seen at that game? It does prove one thing—

School spirit isn't just enthuiasm over a good football game.
We've had plenty of good teams.
School spirit isn't produced by having an exceptionally fine school to be proud of either.
Etoway High School in the City of Attalla has some of the finest school spirit that can be found anywhere, and the school isn't particularly outstanding. (I'll probelly receive threatening letters for making that last statement.)
We have things to be proud of here. Jacksonville is the best school

I've ever been to, and I'm very proud of them for a change.

I'm one of the few to say that and one might think I could be a pessimist. Most of what I have to say is to the contrary. I am a pessimist. I would like to give a warning. Most of what I have to say about the world is to give pleasants truths and none of it is funny. I have written in a spirit of righteous wrath. If anyone is interested in being

Student Government Assn.
Welcomes Alumni “Home”

Homecoming is a symbol of pride, respect and progress. All the graduates of the nation colleges and aln

Homecoming Festivities
Planned For Saturday

Parade, Campus Tours, Reception, Smoker, Banquet, Football Game, And Other Activities To Mark Occasion

Saturday will be homecoming! From far and near the old grads, former students, and friends are expected to come to the festivities which have been planned by the faculty and students. The day's program will be highlighted by the parade, "K" Club Smoker, reception at the President's Home, the alumni banquet in Hammond Hall, and finally by the football game between the Gamecocks and the Austin Peay Governors. Between halves "Miss Homecoming" will be crowned, and after the game there will be a dance sponsored by the J-S Club. The Melody Makers will play.

In addition to these highlights there will be dormitory and club decorations, the reunion of old friends and classmates and other informal pleasures.

Sarah Lou Armstrong of Leeds was elected "Miss Homecoming" last Friday, and will reign over the week-end festivities. Completing her court will be the other candidates for the crown, who were chosen to represent the vari-

Dr. Henry H. Crane,
Religious Emphasis Week Speaker

Religious Emphasis Week will be observed at Jacksonville State College on Nov. 5-8 with Dr.
Henry Hitt Crane as the speaker.
It has been announced by President Houston Cole. All services will be in the Leone Cole Audtorium at 7:30 p.m. on the weekend. Monday through Thursday, service will be at 10:30 a.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

Homecoming is over and the attendant activities, such as dancing and socializing, have ended. The remainder of the week will be given to the services and activities of the Religious Emphasis Week.
Adolph Menjou
Here Monday Night

Adolph Menjou, noted Hollywood star, will preside at the presentation Monday night of the "Gem of the Hills" at the Leonore Cole Auditorium at 8 o’clock. He will tell of his experiences in the movies, give the score of the show, and play many interesting facts which the public has never known.

He will interject his lecture with humorous anecdotes, many of which he has written himself.

Tickets are available now at the President’s office.

Adolph Menjou
Here Monday Night

Adolph Menjou, noted Hollywood star, will preside at the presentation Monday night of the "Gem of the Hills" at the Leonore Cole Auditorium at 8 o’clock. He will tell of his experiences in the movies, give the score of the show, and play many interesting facts which the public has never known.

He will interject his lecture with humorous anecdotes, many of which he has written himself.

Tickets are available now at the President’s office.

Adolph Menjou
Here Monday Night

Adolph Menjou, noted Hollywood star, will preside at the presentation Monday night of the "Gem of the Hills" at the Leonore Cole Auditorium at 8 o’clock. He will tell of his experiences in the movies, give the score of the show, and play many interesting facts which the public has never known.

He will interject his lecture with humorous anecdotes, many of which he has written himself.

Tickets are available now at the President’s office.

Adolph Menjou
Here Monday Night

Adolph Menjou, noted Hollywood star, will preside at the presentation Monday night of the "Gem of the Hills" at the Leonore Cole Auditorium at 8 o’clock. He will tell of his experiences in the movies, give the score of the show, and play many interesting facts which the public has never known.

He will interject his lecture with humorous anecdotes, many of which he has written himself.

Tickets are available now at the President’s office.

Adolph Menjou
Here Monday Night

Adolph Menjou, noted Hollywood star, will preside at the presentation Monday night of the "Gem of the Hills" at the Leonore Cole Auditorium at 8 o’clock. He will tell of his experiences in the movies, give the score of the show, and play many interesting facts which the public has never known.

He will interject his lecture with humorous anecdotes, many of which he has written himself.

Tickets are available now at the President’s office.
Re-Educate To Freedom

Whatever opposition to the trend toward complete socialization of American life we do have is aimed mainly at legislation, or at politicians who favor such legislation. If certain laws are enacted, or repealed, or if "our kind of people" is elected—good the remaining—then all will be well.

That kind of therapy comes from looking for ugly results; it attacks the effects without looking to the cause. The laws, and the politicians who favor them, are the product of the mass-mind of America, and that mass-mind is the product of the ideas imprinted in it long ago, carelessly cultured through the years. Unless and until this mass-mind of America is re-educated to freedom, the end product of Socialism is unavoidable. No program based on a policy of immediacy can prevent it.

The task of those who would stop our descent should not be the changing of laws but the inculcation of values which will make such laws impossible. That is a difficult chore, to be sure, but it is the only one capable of producing the desired results. It calls for a long-term project and, in the nature of things, those who are doing it cannot see the fruits of their labors. Only our children's children will do the re-education, although some spiritual benefit accrues to those who enjoy fighting for the principle.

It is exactly this kind of zeal that brought Socialism to America. In 1947, the advocates of that kind of thought, 50 years ago, met with an aversion to political action for stronger than the current aversion for it. Nevertheless, they went to their seemingly impossible mission, kept at it, and in less than three decades we had the New Deal. They did an effect on the American mind.

The current and belated opposition to Socialism could do in the "Wk days following Pearl Harbor. According to Educational "science," the evaluation of something is made "by" that something, but it is the only one capable of producing the "translated.

Applications for the December 12, 1951 and the April 26, 1953 Administrations of the College Qualifications Tests are now available at Selective Service local boards throughout the country. All students who intend to offer this test on either date should apply to their nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it im mediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the Dec. 12 test must be postmarked no later than Sept. 15, 1951. According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualifi cations Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application of one, regardless of the testing date he selects. The results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for its consideration.

MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

Major R. F. Freeman has arrived to begin his duties with the ROTC unit of Jacksonville State College. He succeeds Major Tracy B. Rivers, who was detached from the unit for two years.

Major Freeman graduated from "The Citadel" in 1940 and received a commission in the reserve. He was called to the army for active duty in September, 1944, and served until August, 1946. In July, 1947 he received a commission in the regular army and has just completed 16 months of overseas duty, twelve and one-half months of which were spent in Korea.

The MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

Major R. F. Freeman has arrived to begin his duties with the ROTC unit of Jacksonville State College. He succeeds Major Tracy B. Rivers, who was detached from the unit for two years.

Major Freeman graduated from "The Citadel" in 1940 and received a commission in the reserve. He was called to the army for active duty in September, 1944, and served until August, 1946. In July, 1947 he received a commission in the regular army and has just completed 16 months of overseas duty, twelve and one-half months of which were spent in Korea.

The MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

Major R. F. Freeman has arrived to begin his duties with the ROTC unit of Jacksonville State College. He succeeds Major Tracy B. Rivers, who was detached from the unit for two years.

Major Freeman graduated from "The Citadel" in 1940 and received a commission in the reserve. He was called to the army for active duty in September, 1944, and served until August, 1946. In July, 1947 he received a commission in the regular army and has just completed 16 months of overseas duty, twelve and one-half months of which were spent in Korea.

The MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

Major R. F. Freeman has arrived to begin his duties with the ROTC unit of Jacksonville State College. He succeeds Major Tracy B. Rivers, who was detached from the unit for two years.

Major Freeman graduated from "The Citadel" in 1940 and received a commission in the reserve. He was called to the army for active duty in September, 1944, and served until August, 1946. In July, 1947 he received a commission in the regular army and has just completed 16 months of overseas duty, twelve and one-half months of which were spent in Korea.

The MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

MAJOR R. F. FREEMAN

Major R. F. Freeman has arrived to begin his duties with the ROTC unit of Jacksonville State College. He succeeds Major Tracy B. Rivers, who was detached from the unit for two years.

Major Freeman graduated from "The Citadel" in 1940 and received a commission in the reserve. He was called to the army for active duty in September, 1944, and served until August, 1946. In July, 1947 he received a commission in the regular army and has just completed 16 months of overseas duty, twelve and one-half months of which were spent in Korea.
Hysteria reigned from the moment he heard the details of those quick-trick cigarette mildly tests. First he giggled . . . then he guffawed.

wound-up rolling in the aisles! He knew that the "single snuff" test or the "one puff" test didn't prove anything. Millions of smokers have reached the same conclusion — there's just one test that really proves cigarette flavor and mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've enjoyed Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Thorat, T for Taste), you see why . . .

All after the Mildness Tests

Camels leads all other brands by billions! A scared GI, S-Sgt Donald W. Newton
The TEACOLA

Famed Old Hames Hall Will Soon Be Razèd

Hames Hall, a landmark in Jacksonville, has been declared a fire and safety hazard by the state fire marshals and will be razed soon, it has been announced.

Men and women in all parts of the state who want to school in this building and who have a sentimental attachment for it will regret to learn that it is being torn down. For Jacksonville it is the passing of an era.

Hames Hall is closely tied in with the early education movement in Alabama. Since there was little progress made in the state at large with public-school education before 1854, the academy remained the essential educational factor until after the War Between the States.

By 1814 the cultured families of Jacksonville had established two academies, the Jacksonville Male Academy, located on the site on which Hames Hall stands, and the Female Academy on Church Street, which was occupied by the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gray.

During the Male Academy's time, the Female Academy was merged with the newly-established Cahoon College, while the female academy continued until the establishment of the Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

Cahoon College, later Hames Hall, was erected about 1870 by local citizens. In 1883 it was transferred to the Sixe Normal School with other property of Cahoon College. In 1900 the citizens of Jacksonville donated $10,000 for additions to the building and when the cornerstone was laid it was named Hames Hall in honor of Joseph Hames, president of the board of trustees and one of the town's most outstanding citizens.

Until 1929 when the campus was moved to a new site where it became a four-year teachers' college, Hames Hall served as the site of the school during that period. The building is now being utilized for various purposes, but for the past several years it has been abandoned because of deterioration.

Many of the state's leading families have had some association with the school. Both the male and female academies continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

Hames Hall was administration building for the First Normal School until 1929 when the campus was moved to a new site where it became a four-year teachers' college. Since that time parts of it have been used for various purposes, but for the past several years it has been abandoned because of deterioration.

The Community Center

MORGAN BROTHERS GROCERIES - MEATS
Telephone 3521

"Where The College Students Meet For Refreshments and Entertainment"

Highlights of Pannell

(Troy L. Morrison)

The boys of Pannell really enjoyed their final Hawaiian tour on Thursday. The tour was made possible through the generosity of President Robert Helms. At Pannell are located five buildings, and the faculty members include: Dr. Charles M. Gray, president; Dr. Reuben B. Ray, vice-president; Dr. Albert W. Page, secretary; Dr. Charles W. McMillan, treasurer; Dr. W. B. McMillan, professor of English.

The administration building was opened in 1929, and the Female Academy continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

The Male Academy was torn down in 1903. The cornerstone was laid on Oct. 1, 1905, and the Male Academy was in use from 1906 to 1910. In 1910 it was renamed Hames Hall. In 1911 it was used for the first time as a school, and in 1912 it was used for the first time as a meeting place for the local citizens.

The Female Academy was opened in 1884, and it continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

The Male Academy was torn down in 1903. The cornerstone was laid on Oct. 1, 1905, and the Male Academy was in use from 1906 to 1910. In 1910 it was renamed Hames Hall. In 1911 it was used for the first time as a school, and in 1912 it was used for the first time as a meeting place for the local citizens.

The Female Academy was opened in 1884, and it continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

The Male Academy was torn down in 1903. The cornerstone was laid on Oct. 1, 1905, and the Male Academy was in use from 1906 to 1910. In 1910 it was renamed Hames Hall. In 1911 it was used for the first time as a school, and in 1912 it was used for the first time as a meeting place for the local citizens.

The Female Academy was opened in 1884, and it continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

The Male Academy was torn down in 1903. The cornerstone was laid on Oct. 1, 1905, and the Male Academy was in use from 1906 to 1910. In 1910 it was renamed Hames Hall. In 1911 it was used for the first time as a school, and in 1912 it was used for the first time as a meeting place for the local citizens.

The Female Academy was opened in 1884, and it continued until 1871 when Jacksonville had established Jacksonville State Normal in 1883.

The Male Academy was torn down in 1903. The cornerstone was laid on Oct. 1, 1905, and the Male Academy was in use from 1906 to 1910. In 1910 it was renamed Hames Hall. In 1911 it was used for the first time as a school, and in 1912 it was used for the first time as a meeting place for the local citizens.
Since that time, part or it have been used for various purposes, but for the past several years it has been abandoned because of deterioration.

Many of the state's leading families have had some association with this building. Among the early teachers were Miss Clem Snow, Mrs. Persons, Col. John H. Caldwell, Col. Ed Caldwell, Miss Carrie Woodward, who later became the wife of the Rev. F. T. J. Brandon, and the mother of ex-Governor M. W. Brandon.

Among the subscribers to Calhoun College were Thomas A. Walker, E. L. Woodward, Major Peyton Rowan, William Henry Forsey, Sam W. Crook, John H. Caldwell, H. L. Stevenson, John Niblet, William M. Hames, Judge Wood, and James Douthit.

Many men of distinction in the War Between the States received part of their education in the Jacksonville Male Academy. Among them were Generals William H. Forsey, John T. Morgan and Hindman, Major Palham, Col. Peter Forsey, Col. H. L. Stevenson, and Col. James R. Martin.

The committee of Calhoun College trustees, consisting of Thomas A. Walker, chairman; G. B. Douthit and Peyton Rowan, presented the deed and other papers to the State Normal Board of Trustees on June 5, 1883. They were accepted by Capt. Hames, president of the Normal Board of Trustees.

The other Normal trustees were L. M. Greer, John D. Hammond, William N. Niblet, James Crook, E. E. Moffat, H. L. Stevenson, Capt. W. F. Howell and Mr. Alexander.

At that time Rev. Wilkinson was mayor; Gus Stewart, George Rowan, Mr. Robkin, C. D. Martin and Ed Caldwell were councilmen.

James C. Ryals, a graduate of the U. S. M. A., was the first president of the Normal School, serving two years. He was followed by

Martha's Shoppe
Across from City Trading Post
Ladies' Ready-To-Wear

J. F. GIDLEY
Fresh Meats and Fancy Groceries
PHONE 2813
Jacksonville, Ala.

STEINBURG'S DRY GOODS
"The best stocked store on the Square"

"Where Good Movies Are More Enjoyable!"
A colorful feature of the half-time activities during the homecoming football game will be the performance of the band and majorettes, Ann Dunce, Florence, left, and drum major. The majorette leading into right are Nancy Blackburn, Attala; Christine Sharp, LeClair; Carolyn Freeman, Glode; Patrice; Terry Jones, Talladega; Florida Phillips, Jacksonville; and Mary Katherine Lloyd, Atlanta.

Charlie Siebold
Co-captain of the Gamecocks, Siebold has been suffering from injuries and is the only regular, with the exception of John Kruchin, who is out for the rest of the season, who is not reported in good shape.

Estonian Visits
Campus For WSSF
Miss Piril Kolso, a representative of the World Service Student Fund, has been on the campus this week speaking to various classes and groups. Her appearance here was sponsored by the Student Government Association.

The World Service Student Fund is an organization designed to help needy college students all over the world. This college has contributed to it for many years.

Kolso is an Estonian who came to this country two years ago from Germany, where she had been living as a displaced person. Sponsored by WSSF, she was granted a scholarship at Westminster College, University of Richmond (Virginia), and recently won her degree from that college.

Having gained her earlier education at the Fifth Finnish College, Tallinn, Estonia, after the war, she was able to continue her studies in German, majoring in English at the University of England, at the Teacher Training School in La Hert. She had ample opportunity to know the work of the WSSF and its representative, assisted with its aid to Estonian students. During this period in Estonia she also worked with the International Tracing Service in噢 and as a Senior Representative of the Girl Scouts and Girl Guides.

While at Westminster College, she was very active in the College Campus Chest Campaign and spoke for WSSF. She has talked before numerous civic and church groups both in New Orleans and clubs in the International Travelers Club organizations and has been active in World Student Service Fund.

Junior Class
Plans Activities
The Junior Class will sponsor a Masquerade Ball on Oct. 30 in the gym. Dancing will be from 7:30 until 11:00 to the music of Winslow Williams, Jr., and his orchestra.

Wednesday, October 24, 1951

INTRA-MURAL GAMES SCHEDULED

The schedule for intra-mural basketball has been announced by the committee which is sponsoring the intra-mural program. It is as follows:

Oct. 23, Town vs Pannell; Oct. 24, Pannell vs Abercrombie; Oct. 25, Town vs Pannell; Oct. 25, Town vs Abercrombie; Oct. 30, Pannell vs Abercrombie; Nov. 1, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 2, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 6, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 13, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 13, Town vs Abercrombie; Nov. 18, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 19, Pannell vs Abercrombie; Nov. 26, Pannell vs Abercrombie; Nov. 26, Town vs Abercrombie; Nov. 27, Abercrombie vs Pannell; Nov. 27, Town vs Pannell; Nov. 29, Abercrombie vs Town; Nov. 29, Pannell vs Abercrombie. The play-off will begin Monday night, Dec. 2, and will end Tuesday night, Dec. 4. Game time will be 7 o'clock.

Everyday is invited to attend each event. We assure you that there will be plenty of basketball fervor for those who attend. Competition is keen and the desire to win is strong.

MISS BRANSCOMB
(Continued from Page 1)

For their classroom training, members receive college and high school credit. They also participate in air rescue and other flight missions and assist with civil defense. Cadets also win military scholarships. The 12 cadets who attended the November session all won first-place honors in the Class B competition. A number of senior members have secured private pilot licenses through their CAP training.

The young lady tapped the taxi-driver gently on the back. "Won't you pull up your window, please?" she asked. "It's blowing paper off your hair too much."

"How far is it to a little wind blow a man's hair?" snorted the driver.

"The last gift," she informed the driver, "blew it about three miles."
Junior Class
Plans Activities

The Junior Class plans to sponsor a Masquerade Ball on October 30 in the gym. Dancing will be from 7:30 until 11:00 to the music of Mrs. Wheatley and her piano colored orchestra from Fort McVay. This orchestra will be made up of over 600 from many of the high school bands.

Prizes will be offered for the funniest costume and for a dance on the dance floor. The price of admission for all this entertainment is only 65 cents stag for the dance. Don't miss it; this is the chance to be a part of this fantastic low price. The price of admission for all this entertainment is only 65 cents stag for one person.

The Junior Class plans to provide the finest entertainment at minimum cost to the poverty-stricken student. An ambitious social program is planned for the coming year of interest to everyone.

Is it a good time you want? Well, show that you want it by supporting the sponsors of the activities. Without the money, these dances and activities would not be very successful.

Our slogan for the year is: "Quality and Quantity for the poverty-stricken."

Junior Class officers are: Dana Herbst, president; Wilbur Shaw, vice-president; Ruth Simmons, secretary; Norman Staff, treasurer; Pat O'Brien, Social Committee; Grace Langston, and Don Holt, representatives to SGA; and Betty Cole, reporter.

COLLEGE ANNUAL TO BE PUBLISHED

Johnny Charbell

For the first time in its years the school is able to offer you an annual without leaving the school with a deficit. This annual was made possible by the hard work of students and we are interested in having everyone participate actively in the annual.

We urge that you go at the appointed time and have your picture made as the individual pictures are important in putting out a good annual.

Organizations may purchase space in the annual for $2.00 per page or one-half page for $1.00. Please be ready when your organization is scheduled for photographing.

A man who sits in a swamp all day waiting to shoot a duck will raise the roof if his wife has dinner ten minutes late.

Great man shows his greatness by the way he treats little men.

HOMER VERSIFIED

"... and pines with thirst midst a sea of waves"

Homer, 200 B.C.

Homer wrote about ancient times—before Coke.

Nowadays there's no need to pine with thirst when Coca-Cola is around the corner from anywhere.

DRINK Coca-Cola

5c

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY