Jimm Jottings

It's amazing how often I start this column and never finish it until the very last minute. In most times, I simply have invariably not all my notes.

Well, well, another Spring Festival. It's kind of hard to realize that for many of us this is last one, just one, like this past fall was our last Homecoming, and the test...and the last. If I keep on like this I'll be weeping over all my typewriter keys!

One thing that has been rather amazing to me is the amount of activity that a sudden change. I always don't like it here please, go away. We're small, unimportant things, if you played in. The whole cast comes this column and never finishes it until the very last minute. In the interest of show, we're putting it on.

The Second Annual Convention of the Alabama Chapter of the United Business Leaders of America will be held again at the Jacksonville State College on May 8-9. This announcement is made by Martin Modell, state FBLA president. Miss Loulie Boggs, head of the Business Education Department, is state chairman and sponsor.

The Jacksonville College Chapter of FBLA sponsored the organization of the Alabama State Chapter at the first district convention last May which was held at Jacksonville with 12 chapter presidents on the state chapter has now grown to twenty-five.

An interesting program has been planned to include outstanding speakers, show, films, contests in typesetting, posters and scrap books, the crowning of "Miss Ideal Secretary" and "Mr. Business" and several social events. Election of state officers will be held and plans made for next year's activities.

Today Is The Big Day! The High School Seniors Are Here

Next Friday, April 17, Jacksonville State College is playing host to hundreds of high school seniors from all over the district of 17 counties. This is an annual event keenly anticipated by students and faculty, the day when the high school seniors have the pleasure of showing hometown friends from their high school alma maters their college campus.

A full afternoon and evening's program has been planned and there won't be a dull moment from the time the buses begin to pull out until the last bus pulls out about 9 p.m.

Registration will take place in Graves Hall at 1 p.m. Then will be a series of events, tours of the campus and buildings, a tennis match between Dowdell College and Jacksonville; dancing in the gym; band concert; the annual "3-D" football game with colorful festivities including the crowning of "Miss Spring Festival" between Jaccutns.

The BOTC will have demonstrations of the automobile, a fire house, a barber shop, the police station, an outdoor supper and a special feature, "Memories of the Past," which will be given by the SGA in the gym. Then, the students will return to their classes.

After supper there will be dance in the gym, featuring the music provided by the music department.

Willзвонde Benefield, pretty freckled daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Benefield, will reign today as queen. She was crowned by the last one, just like the previous holder of the crown.

Students Campaign for SGA Posts

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of the coming SGA elections... and the last couple of years have seen a surge of student interest in the student government association. The SGA's primary focus is on providing services to the student body and advocating for student needs. The elections are held in the spring of each academic year, and candidates often campaign actively on campus.

Romance Off The Record Or "Jimping With Jizzy"

Well, Cats, it's 15:00 and time for another installment of "Jimping With Jizzy" with your favorite platter at your request. As before, you can do the same way without having to say a word. Do you wake up in the morning and crave food? Does your hair feel greasy without any matter? Do you see anything coming into your eyes that you feel is "off" while you are walking around? Well, there is no longer a question. It is all this and more that makes life unendurable. Try "Jizz Jule" the joyous, jubilant, jolly, juicy jule tonic that turns the turgid living into a form of living. Millions say that after taking Jizzy their patients never complained again.

Dr. Mountain of Jacksonville, Alabama, writes: "In taking Jizzy Juice my family has grown restful and feeling whole. People have said I have no sailing way of being for I am much more helpful to other people.

What Jizzy Juice has done for famous doctors it can do for you. It is not a medicine, but a tonic, a new amazing discovery of modern nature that is the truth. It is a tonic that will make you feel like a new person. It is also a relaxing tonic for those who wish to get more hours of rest, no more suicide in nurses, with a special tonic.

Dr. Jizzy Juice today and tomorrow your future is "ug".

Carrie Rowan: "I know something good about you."

"I Know Something Good About You"

Wouldn't this old world be better, if the folks you meet would say, "I know something good about you," and then treat you that way!

Wouldn't it be find and dandy, if each hand clasped warm and true, carried with it this assurance: "I know something good about you."

Wouldn't life be less more, if we praised the good we see, For there's such a lot of goodness and love in the world that we could keep our eyes open and be glad to see it, and praise it, and spread it around. The whole world is a better place to live in today if people would say, "I know something good about you."

On Out A Poll

The question asked this month is: Do you think there is any basis for the theory that a spring young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love? Because you see, "Yeah—I hooked Bobby in the spring."

Did you know that when I'm walking with my girl's she's the one that's exercising? "Yes, the girl who's walking up a street."

Polly Dupper: "I love you, but I'm not ready to settle down just yet."

We have a card from Joyce and Kris reconfirming their promise to Till You Return you by Tommy D舜.

Rick Hudson writes in and asks that we play "Twins". Not because she has acquired a bit of culture, but because it is a higher form of Bush.

From Alona there is a little girl who asks, "If I eat them, will they die?"

If the folks you meet would say, "I know something good about you," you would feel a little different. You would feel more important and more valuable to their lives.

Sincerely,

The Teacola Staff.

Rules For Killing A Church

Revised by Rev. W. T. Alan, in Exchange

Contributed by B. J. Norton

1-Don’t come. Ps. 42, 4.
2-If you come, come late. Ps. 84, 10.
3-If to wet or to dry, to hot or to cold, don’t think of coming. Ps. 125.
4-Don’t imagine the front seats are intended for you, people might think you conceited.
5-See to come for the fault. Ps. 100, 4.
6-Don’t for the church ever think of praying for your pastor or the church. 2 Thess. 3, 1.
7-Don’t sing. 1 Cor. 14, 15.
8-Don’t attend prayer meeting, and if you should take part. Acts 5, 1.
9-Encourage the pastor, but tell his faults to others. Gal. 6, 1. If his sermon helps you, don’t let him know it, it might make him vain.
10-If you see a stranger in the audience don’t offer to shake hands or invite him to come again, people might think you were how.”
11-Ne’er try to bring anyone to church with you. John 1, 14.
13-Don’t give much to benevolence. 1 Cor. 16, 2.
14-Let the pastor do all the work. Jas. 4, 6, 17.
15-See that his salary is always behind. 1 Cor. 9, 14.
16-If he doesn’t visit as often as you think he should, treat him very coolly. He has nothing particular to do and could do it often.
17-Don’t take your denominational paper.
18-Try to run the church. Mark 10, 44-45.
19-Ne’er come to church with any one willing to take hold and help carry on any of the church work, be sure to find fault and accuse them of being bold and forward. Ecc. 9,10.
20-Be another about Christ, your pastor should do all that kind of work. Jas. 5, 20, Dan. 13, 3.
21-Don’t come to Sabbath School, it helps children.
22-Don’t be particular about how God’s house looks, inside or out, but keep your own homes looking nice. 1 Kings 6, 4-8.
23-Insist on your views being adopted on all questions brought up by the church, and don’t give in for the moment. Matt. 23, 12.
24-Don’t join any of the church societies, Mal. 3, 16.
25-If you think your pastor word is; he is supposed to find out himself. But tell all the neighbors how he neglected you during your illness. John 13.
26-If you think everything is working harmonously try to stir up something to engender strife. James 3, 14-16.

Pannell News

By George Jarroll

To tell the truth, one would like to say for "Ma" and all the boys of Pannell, welcome, High School Students.

I certainly hope this year's open house doesn't present too many problems as the last one, when someone was missing, but found (of course), I won’t mention your name again.

It has been decided by certain people-no names available—that there will be a church supper to share the spring with the other birds—fowl or human—on campus. Hence the hen.

Do you suppose Sandy will have any music by Spring Festival? We might get him and Dudley Farris for that exhibition. Dixie doesn’t get on the ball, he just might lose his. “Mr. America”

It ain’t safe no more, fellow. Mom’s checking closets and under beds. Guess now the only ones to hide dust is dustpan in the garage ready.

Spring is breaking up the old clay. We all know who sparkles by this time. Jess Smart says "It’s Hunt’s My Bill" for Who?

That Bill is All Paggy and we’ll be sure to let him know. He has the lead in the title speaks for itself he says. Here’s Bill’s just called in and asked that we play a song for something special. Everything he says is "Sweet Sue".

Hey-yes, oh yes, I think we have a chance of getting a new spirit. If it is. "It’s Hunt’s My Bill." Paggy Davis requests he’s "He’s Hunt’s Bill" and also asks to remind Bill to be careful that "Mom’s ever Mine."

And now cats, let us take time to remind you that we have a reputation of being the best whiskey, the finest brandy, the best gin. J. J._MAPPING.

For two days only you can offer you this amazing value of one bottle of 1585 for 52 cents, with 3 cents to buy the next. Just think of it, one bottle of this famous value for a nickel. We can offer you this attraction and the best of all, the price is the lowest. Come down to the drug store tomorrow afternoon and early. We hope you will take advantage of the face.

If you ask for it by name alone, but by its full name—"J. J. Maple." We have advertised in our newspaper and for the past, we have been a big seller.

One of our best sellers is the "J. J. Maple," and it helps get along with the rest. After all, it is the best.

"J. J. Maple" has been used for over 100 years, and it is a well-known name.

"J. J. Maple" needs to be advertised more in our commercial and we have advertised for you a new one, "The Younger." Keep it in mind, folks.

"J. J. Maple" has been used in this country and foreign countries for 100 years, and it has been a big seller.

Student's Delight—Trip to Beach During AEA Holidays

By Fred Lybrand

Whether it come in “like a lion”, vice-versa, neither, or both, March holds something special for everyone. To the nature lover, March brings Spring. To most students it means a refund from personal taxes. To some of the more religious-minded people, it means Lent. But if a vote could be taken to determine which thing the student-body looks forward to most enthusiastically, I believe it would be A.E.A. holidays.

One of the perks of AEA is that the students get to see different parts of the country. At the beginning of the year, the students were given the opportunity to vote on which cities they would like to visit. The final destination chosen was New York City. The students were given the chance to see the sights and do some shopping.

The trip was well received by the students. The weather was perfect, and the city was full of excitement. The students had the opportunity to see many of the famous landmarks, such as the Empire State Building and Central Park. They also had the chance to experience the culture of New York City, trying some of the local cuisine and shopping at the famous stores.

The trip was a great opportunity for the students to bond and have fun. They were able to make memories that they will never forget. The trip was a great way to celebrate the end of the winter season and the beginning of a new chapter in the students’ lives.

International Voice Sends Out Message

By Louis Herzberg (Editor's Note: This article is taken from the publication, "International Voice", a publication of the International House. This mimeographed publication goes to all foreign and American students of the International House.)

Many months have passed between my last letter to you, the student, the year last fall. The months had been eventful and exciting, and we are now eager to hear from you.

One of the main events of the last few months was the election of a new President and Vice-President. The election was held on February 15th, and the following candidates were elected:

President: Edward Forbes
Vice-President: Mary Jones

The election was held by mail, and all students were eligible to vote. The candidates were nominated by the international house, and the voting was done by secret ballot.

The international house is a corporation acting in the interests of foreign students. It is located at the point where the northeast and east meet, and the rest of the world is stripped of the power of the mountains. The international house is a shelter where the international student can find a place to belong.

The international house is a place of international house, and the international student is a member of the international house. The international student is not a citizen of any country, but is a member of the international house.

Must be a college graduate to take Aviation Cadet Training

No, but you must have completed a minimum of 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours toward a degree. In addition, under the new Aviation Cadet training program, you must be between the ages of 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in excellent physical condition—with high requirements for eyes, ears, heart, and teeth.

How long before I get my commission?

60 calendar weeks. You will receive the first aviation training in the world—training that not only equips you to fly modern military aircraft but prepares you for executive and administrative work as well. At the completion of your training, you will have acquired a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the State Air Force.

Where do I take my training?

Pre-flight training will be at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Primary, basic and advanced training will be taken at any one of the many Air Force bases located throughout the South and Southwest.

What happens if I flunk the training course?

each effort is made to help students whose progress is unsatisfactory. You can expect extra instructions and whatever individual attention you may require. However, if you fail to complete the course as an Aviation Cadet, you will be required to serve a two-year enlistment to fulfill the minimum requirement under Selective Service laws. Veterans who have completed a tour of military service will be discharged upon request if they fail to complete the course.

What pay do I get as an Aviation Cadet? And after?

As an Aviation Cadet you will receive $100.20 a month pay. In addition, you get summer and winter uniforms, flight clothes, equipment, food, housing, medical and dental care and insurance—all free. After you are commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant you will be earning $5,300.00 a year—with unlimited opportunities for advancement.

Are all Aviation Cadets trained to be Pilots?

No. You can choose between becoming a Pilot or an Aircraft Observer. Men who choose the latter will become commissioned officers in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation, or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

Do Aircraft Observers get flying training, too?

Yes. Aircraft Cadets receive approximately 200 hours of "in-the-air" instruction. The primary phase of Aircraft Observer training is the same for both branches (navigation, bombardment, etc.). The basic and advanced phases of training vary, depending on the specific course you pursue.

What kind of airplanes will I fly?

You will fly jets. The Pilot Cadet takes his first instructions in a light, civilian-type plane of approximately 100 horsepower, then graduates to the 600 horsepower T-6 "Texan" before receiving intensive training in jets. You then advance gradually until you are flying such famous first-line aircraft as F-86 Sabre, F-90 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet, B-50 Superfortress. Observer Cadets take flight instructions in the C-47 Dakota, the T-29 Convair, and the TB-50 Superfortress before advancing to first-line aircraft such as the F-89 Scorpion, B-47 Stratojet.

Will my commission be in the Regular Air Force or Reserve?

Aviation Cadets Graduate, both Pilots and Aircraft Observers, get Reserve commissions as 2nd lieutenants and become eligible to apply for a regular Air Force Commission when they have completed 18 months of active duty.

How long must I remain in Service?

After graduation from the Aviation Cadet Program, you are tendered an indefinite appointment in the United States Air Force Reserve and are called to active duty with the United States Air Force for a period of three years.

What recreation and leisure time will I have as a Cadet?

Discipline will be rigid—especially for the first few weeks. However, it is not all work. You'll find swimming pools, ball, baseball, tennis, and other forms of recreation on the post.

Where will I be stationed when I get my commission?

You may be stationed anywhere in the world—Hawaii, Fiji, a Southeast Asia, Europe, or in the United States. During your tour of duty, you will be in close touch with the latest developments in flying techniques. You will continue to build up your flying experience and later have no difficulty securing a commercial pilot or navigation rating.

Your future is assured if you can qualify! Here's what to do:

1. Take a transcript of your college records and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination at government expense.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Cong. Rains Warns Against Relaxation Of U. S. Defenses

Congressman Albert Rains warned an audience at Jacksonville High School Wednesday morning that if the U. S. and other Western nations let down their defenses they will be playing into the hands of the Russians who hope to achieve their goal of world domination by false peace moves.

Citing a speech made by Malenkov in December, Mr. Rains declared that the formula issued by the new leader of the Commissars is to make peace with the hope that a depression will result in this country, making it an easy target for Communists.

He made a comparison of democracy and communism, pointing to the differences in their ideology—freedom of the individual versus power of the state. He stressed how the country had been forced into the position of world leadership and of the efforts made, some of which failed, to “buy” friendship among the nations of the world. Most successful efforts, however, he declared, have been those made through the Point 4 program when people have been taught to help themselves.

“You can’t buy friendship, but you can earn it by helpfulness,” Mr. Rains said. “And this is also the best way to spread the doctrine of Christianity and democracy,” he added.

Mr. Rains expressed the opinion that God has set this nation apart for leadership in the dark period and he told the young people in the audience that he believed they would do a better job than we have done in carrying it out.

“The news about a truce in Korea sounds good,” he said. “But I believe it is just a stall for a bigger outbreak in some other place. Malenkov made a speech in December in which he gave the formula by which he expects to take us over. He says that war makes us prosperous and if the war ends we will have a depression. Then Russia will strike. Malenkov will say, as they have in the past, ‘Firing our boys home.’ Then they say they will strike.
to 6ke us over. He says that years have made us prosperous and that if the war ends we will have a depression. Then one day they will strike with the atomic bomb.

"We must recognize that we are leaders. We must try to stay strong in peace time and see that we do not have a depression."

I have the feeling that the war in Korea will end and there will be no new outbreak for several years. If we fail to keep faith with you and don't keep strong, we shall do our nation and ourselves a great injustice," he continued.

Mr. Bunye, who was introduced by Ernest Stone, superintendent of city schools, told his audience of high school students, faculty and student-teachers, that this was a serious speech for high school students, but that they must not make public opinion and that it is important for public opinion to demand strong defenses at this time—perhaps the most serious in the history of this country.
Life at JSC Has Varied Activities & Interests

Career Offered In Many Subjects

Life on the Jacksonville campus is full of interesting activities—whether a student be of the purely academic type or the all-round variety who participates in both academic and extra-curricular organizations.

For those who are interested in sports or in becoming athletic coaches, there are football, basketball, tennis, track, archery, and any number of lesser forms of athletics and recreation.

For those interested in music, there are the band, orchestra, brass, string and reed groups, choral groups, musical productions, sociedades and fraternities.

For foreign-language students, there is no end to the activities of the International House.

Home economics is another area in which there is a wide variety of activities. Life in the home management house offers the thrill of a lifetime.

ROTC, although “smart”, offers satisfaction also, and at the end of the training a commission if one wishes to make it a career.

Many students prefer business education; some teach; most enjoy their courses in art; and few ever find it really dull.

We think you’d like it too, and we hope you’ll decide to come back next fall.

Football Picture Bright With New Crop Added to Regulars

By Bobby Hawkins

As usual there’s never a dull moment in the sports picture for Jacksonville State. The various athletic teams are hard at work whenever playing or practicing.

The football picture looks very bright with a very fine lineman and backs coming back for another season. The Gamecocks will field a very young crop of players come next fall. There will only be five seniors on the team. However, many of last year’s regulars will be in those fighting for the 1953 Gamecock aggregation.

There’s plenty of beef in the line with such fellows as “Bull” Bailey, “Pistol” Bentley, Bill Towns, Travis Walker, Bob Coley, Herb O’Dell, Jack Stewart, Ray Campbell, Jack Grissard, Bob Donohue, and Kendall Batten.

Miss Lucille Branscomb, head of the University’s Home Economics Department; Miss Alta Millican, guidance director; and Miss Mildred Johnston, high school librarian, were chosen by the State Department of Education as members of a committee of 18 specialists in the various areas to evaluate the Jacksonville High School in all its operations. The committee spent the weeks of April 6-10 in Jacksonville. The members of the committee are representatives from the Alabama Education Association, a s c c o n s e r v a t o r y , and Jacksonville college and high school teachers of various subjects.

Miss Branscomb evaluated the departments of business education, guidance, recreation, and home economics.

WESLEY FOUNDATION PRESENTS PROGRAM TO METHODIST WOMEN

The Gamecocks have not had a chance to improve much on last year’s schedule.

Book Review

I have just finished reading one of the most inspiring stories that I have ever read. The name of this little book is "Angel Unaware" by Dale Evans Rogers, wife of Roy Rogers the cowboy entertainer. When I picked up this book, I had no idea what a treat was in store for me. I know you will find it as completely delightful and as poignant a story for you as I have ever read. "Angel Unaware" is the story of Robin Elizabeth Rogers, who came to earth with a very special mission. It was written in the loving and tender words with which she told me the story of what little Robin told her Heavenly Father after her brief visit on earth. Robin was born with a terrible handicap, and this handicapped child was, and changed the lives of her parents, you will find as you read this story, a story of faith and of courage revealing how Robin’s parents triumphed over one of life’s most revolting experiences. The introduction was written by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and he says that "he will never forget it." It is one book that I will never forget, and I am certain that you will never forget it either.

College Population Boasts Of Colombian Students

Jacksonville State College is becoming a mecca for students from many nations. Some of them are associated with the International House and others are coming on their own.

This year, in addition to the 13 students from nine countries in the International House Program, there have been students from Hawaii and Colombia, South America. The Colombian group is growing. It began last September with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Roy of Bogota. Last week two other Colombians joined them. They are Harry Klein and Silvio Robledo of Manizales.

The three men are interested in engineering and are enrolled in the basic engineering courses. Silvio and Peter were students at Auburn before coming to Jacksonville but Harry arrived last week by plane from Bogota and speaks very few English words. Laura Roy, Peter's wife, speaks limited German and English.

The Spanish-speaking students say they enjoy the association with other Spanish-speaking students on the campus from Venezuela, Cuba and Mexico. Although not part of the International House Program, they do get together frequently with those who are.

The heart-gripping story of Roy Rogers' daughter, Robin, as told by DAVE EVANS ROGERS in Angel Unaware

Introduction by Norman Vincent Peale

Born with a tragic handicap, little Robin Elizabeth Rogers was taken from her world-famous parents last August, when she was only two years old. In brilliant, tender words, her mother—the wife of Roy Rogers—tells the story of Robin's brief sojourn on earth just as Robin herself must have told it to her Heavenly Father. It is a story of faith and courage, revealing Dale Evans' and Roy Rogers' triumph over one of life's most challenging experiences. This is a book to be read—and cherished—by every man, woman and child in America.

LEONIE COLE HOME EC CLUB OBSERVES EASTER

The Levine Cole Home Economics Club celebrated the Easter season with an Easter party on April 2, in the new home management house.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Jo Bardolf. The names of the persons selected for new officers were appointed by the nominating committee. Officers elected were: Ruth Groover, Historian; Carol Dunn, Assistant, vice-president; Joyce Newby, Altar, secretary; Evelyn Walls, Historian; secretary; Jo Ann Lewis, Janesville, Reporter; and Gracie Leamon, Glenville, parliamentarian. These officers will be installed at the first meeting of the Fall Quarter of 1953.

Mrs. Mayce Lee, the guest speaker, chose as her topic, the origin of the word “Easter” and the significant symbols of the Easter season.

Jo Bardolf expressed her pleasure in having been chosen president for the year 1953-54, and the meeting adjourned.

£YEARS AHEAD OF THEM ALL!
Don't you want to try a cigarette with a record like this?

1. THE QUALITY CONTRAST between Chesterfield and other leading cigarettes is a revealing story. Recent chemical analyses give an index of good quality for the country's six leading cigarette brands.

   The index of good quality table—a ratio of high sugar to low nicotine—shows Chesterfield quality highest

   ... 15% higher than its nearest competitor and Chesterfield quality 31% higher than the average of the five other leading brands.

2. First to Give You Premium Quality in Regular and King-size... much milder with an extraordinarily good taste—and for your pocketbook, Chesterfield is today's best cigarette buy.

3. A Report Never Before Made About a Cigarette.
   For a full year a medical specialist has been giving a group of Chesterfield smokers regular examinations every two months. He reports... no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.
