Jim's Jottings

Coming Attractions! — Spring! Old Mother Nature gave us a preview for a few days there, but she is now continuing with the main feature. Any way, I noticed quite a few people, including me, have had a touch of spring fever, already.

From all accounts the Freshman Frolic was a success. However, as always, a few people who really cared did all the work. Ah, 'twas ever thus.

Read a clever article on Adlai Stevenson in this month's edition of PAGEANT. It quoted this story of his which I think is hilarious. It seems that a young Indian brave was out in the desert talking to his sweetheart long distance by means of smoke signals. In the middle of his message one of the experimental atom bombs was set off. He just stood there flabbergasted, then muttered, "Pgh. Me wish me had said that."

This one is too good to keep. At a recent banquet at the International House honoring its new trustees, the director was making introductions of the main speaker. After an appropriate build-up, he ended with a flourish, "Let's all give Dr. Hand a big ole!" That one is nominated as the Spoonerism of the year.

Someone commented that Pat Watson looks like Cleopatra since she's cut her hair. I think so too. After all, pyramid the girls on the campus Nile bet not many others have that distinction. (Ouch!)

Wise crack of the month comes from Bob McCord. Upon seeing someone's automobile of ancient vintage, he commented, "That guy's out of car."

Understand that quite a few Jayvillers made it over to see "South Pacific" in B'ham. You lucky people!

Say, did you know that this quarter is almost over. Finals are breathing down our necks.

Have any of you people taking biology noticed how the smell of formaldehyde seems to cling to your nose long after class is over? Sometimes even through lunch.

Sonata Recital To Include Work By Music Professor

Howard Boyajian, violinist, and Stevenson Barrett, will present a sonata recital in Jacksonville on Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 8:00 p. m. in the Leone Cole Auditorium.

Mr. Boyajian is a member of the music faculty at Jacksonville State Teachers College where he teaches string instruments, conducts the orchestra and teaches theory. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the Juilliard School of Music in New York, and a Masters Degree from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music in Ohio. Mr. Boyajian has performed in either solo recitals or chamber ensemble groups in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Alabama and Tennessee and has recorded for the Bibletone Record Company of New York City. He is also first violinist with the college string quartet and is at present working with the quartet in preparation for a concert in March. He has been at Jacksonville since September of 1951.

Mr. Barrett, who is to play the piano part of the sonatas is director of the Gadsden Civic Music Association, a municipally supported recreational project sponsoring performances of worthwhile musical works, (Elijah, Bartered Bride, Blossom Time), featuring local talent in solo, chorus, and instrumental capacities. Mr. Barrett has conducted opera on both coasts and at Louisiana State University as well as having accompanied such touring artists as Jepson, Pinza, Martini, Garden and Ferrell in the U. S., Canada, Mexico and South America. His chamber music activity has been as pianist, violinist and violist with the South Mountain colony fostered by Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge in the Berkshires, and his works for orchestra, voice, violin and piano have been performed and published.

Works of Bach, Beethoven and Brahms will be performed on the program and a new a-tonal sonata will be given its first concert performance. The new sonata was written by J. E. Duncan of the college music faculty and has received enthusiastic critical acclaim at a composer's symposium conducted at Peabody College in Nashville. Dr. Howard Hanson, (renowned composer, conductor and President of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y.), who was guest critic for the symposium was most emphatic when he said the sonata represents the work of a mature composer whose craftsmanship as evidenced in the sonata is comparable to many great works in the a-tonal realm of composition.

Friends and anyone interested in hearing this annual faculty recital are cordially invited to attend.

Alumni Breakfast Set For Friday, Mar. 27

Plans are being completed for the annual Jacksonville State College alumni breakfast which will be held on Friday morning, March 27, at 8 o'clock in the Terrace Room of the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham.

President Houston Cole has announced that Hugh Comer, well-known textile executive and civic leader, will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. L. Glenn Shores of Gadsden, president of the alumni association, will preside over the breakfast. Other officers of the alumni association are: Lamar Triplett, vice-president; Solon H. Glover, Jacksonville, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the executive committee are: Dwight Murphee, Blount County; Mrs. Lloyd Boozier, Calhoun; Morse Haynes, Chambers; Mrs. Frank Steward, Cherokee; Patterson Hicks, Chilton; Noel Hand, Cleburne; Hubert L. Street, Coosa; Mrs. Nellie Adcox, DeKalb; Mrs. Katherine Heifner, Etowah; Bartow Hughes, Jefferson; Mrs. Marie P. Bailey, Marshall; Mrs. Lem Lovvorn, Randolph; W. W. Elliott, Shelby; L. L. Porch, St. Clair; Newman Nunneley, Talladega; Alton Wallace, Tallapoosa.

The alumni breakfast is one of the most widely attended events of the annual meeting of the Alabama Education Association, and is the spring meeting of the alumni at which time officers are elected for the next year. The fall meeting is held at homecoming.

Jacksonville Makes Fine Showing In '53 Crusade For Freedom

Gary Leach Gets West Point Appointment

Washington—Gary Leach, former Gadsden High School cage star, Tuesday was appointed to the United State Military Academy by Rep. Albert Rains.

The 19-year-old youth, who is now assistant athletic publicity director at Jacksonville State Teachers College is the son of Mrs. Grady Leach and the late Mr. Leach of Gadsden. He graduated from Gadsden High School in 1951 and last year attended Vanderbilt University.

Rep. Rains said Leach was the principal appointment from the Fifth Congressional district for this year. If he passes the West Point entrance examination in March he will enter the Academy in June.

Young Leach's father had over 30 years service both active and reserve, in the National Guard with rank of major and served through two World Wars. In World War I, he served overseas in France with the AEF while during World War II he served for five years and four months on active duty with three and one-half years being overseas in the European theater.

His brother, G. W. (Red) Leach, Gadsden insurance man, is a lieutenant, junior grade, in the United States Naval Reserve.

Ben Carlton To Give Senior Recital Mar. 1

On Sunday afternoon, March 1, at 3 p. m., Ben Carlton will be presented in his senior voice recital in the Leone Cole Auditorium by the music department. He is a pupil of Walter A. Mason.

Assisting him will be W. H. Ashburn of Jacksonville who will play the trombone. He is a pupil of John T. Finley. Accompanists will be Cynthia Kerr, Elkton, Ky.; and Ruth Ann Burnham, Jacksonville.

SGA Placing Washers In Two Dormitories

It's been talked about—it's been kicked about—but now it's coming!! Soon you won't have to be confronted with those dreadful wash-day hands. Wash-day is going to be made easier.

The Student Government Association announces that it has recently purchased two automatic laundromats which are to be installed in Daugette Hall basement and Abercrombie Hall. The washers are for the students' use. A coin meter is attached to each machine which will allow you to wash up to nine pounds for twenty-five cents.

Student Government funds only allowed the purchase of two washers but it hopes to furnish each dorm a washer in the future. Until other washers and a suitable location are available, the boys from all dorms will be allowed to use the washer in Abercrombie Hall for as long as order is maintained and no destruction of the washer takes place.

You will be able to weigh your wash. The machines are equipped with an automatic cut-off in case of an over load. There will be no objection for two persons combining their wash if the total weight in nine pounds or less.

IV. Andante e Allegro (Barat)

On Friday evening, Feb. 13, the annual banquet was held for the college football team in Hammond Hall. Terry Hodges, former football and basketball star for JSC, now coach at Florala High School, was toastmaster.

Terry kept the large crowd of players, coaches and guests in high good humor with his ready wit and easy flow of quips. Dr. Houston Cole welcomed the guests and both he and Coach Don Salls praised the team, calling it one of the "hardest-working squads" in the history of the school.

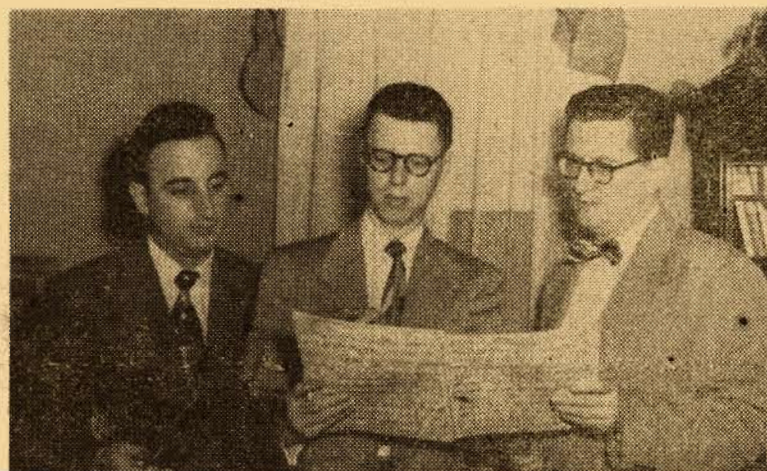

As is customary, awards were made to lettermen. Of the 37 letter awards, only eight were seniors, which gives promise of a stronger team in 1953.

The system of awards is as follows: first year men get sweaters; second-year men, footballs; and seniors get blankets. This system prevents duplication and if a man makes his letter each year, he gets something different each season.

Special awards were given Jodie Connell, famed one-arm guard who recently completed requirements for a degree. In recognition of his selection on the Little All-America team, he was awarded a gold football appropriately inscribed, and a scroll of certification signed by sports writers and radio men.

Tom Whitley, the old Alabama lineman and now a TV sportscaster, was the principal speaker. He praised schools such as Jacksonville for sticking to their guns in keeping intercollegiate athletics alive in the face of competition from big schools. The value of football in the college program is one which should not be underestimated, he said.

Sports writers from the Birmingham News, Gadsden Times, lucky people!

Say, did you know that this quarter is almost over. Finals are breathing down our necks.

Have any of you people taking biology noticed how the smell of formaldehyde seems to cling to your nose long after class is over? Sometimes even through lunch.

Wonder what ever became of that film series the college featured a couple of summers ago. They were enjoyed, and I think they added something as an art form.

Speaking of art forms, reminds me that it is a sad fact that the art of letter writing has become almost nil. I have two very close friends, one of whom manages to write only the bare facts as briefly as possible, and the other who uses broad, colorful phrases. I've always felt that one should write as honestly and as fully as one would speak. Try writing what you THINK about events as they happen; not just that they did happen. You'll find that your letters are more personal and more appreciated.

Dear Cadenza:

Dear Cadenza,

Heard Stravinski's new opera, "The Rake's Progress," on the broadcast of the Metropolitan a week or so ago. The performance, the American premier, incidentally, was sung in flawless English and it was possible to understand almost every word. That's unusual because most of the English presentations recently have been rather sloppy.

Ben Carlton is giving his senior voice recital on March 1. Cynthia Kerr is his accompanist. Ben will be assisted by W. H. Ashburn, trombonist and W. H.'s accompanist, Ann Burnham.

Mr. Duncan is working on a new string quarter. Me-thinks Jacksonville is going to have a famous composer on its hands in the near future.

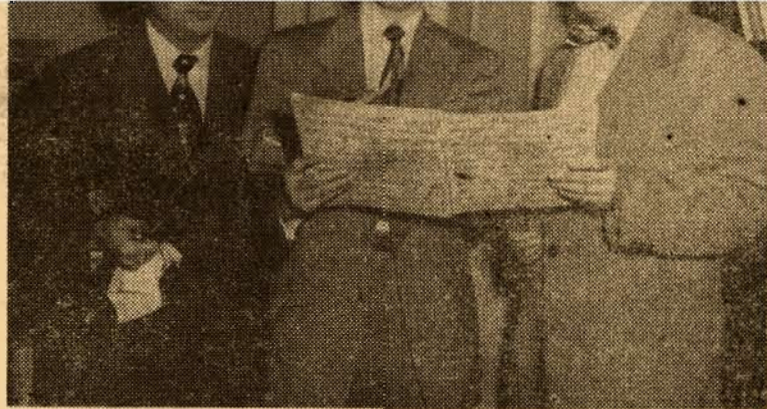

Mr. Boyajian is really glowing over his new Ford. Can't say that I blame him.

Nothing more to write for now.

FARMERETTE DANCE HELD ON THURSDAY JANUARY 22

The W. A. A. sponsored a Farmerette Square Dance on Thursday night, January 22, from 7 to 9 in the college gym. Entertainment was furnished by Earl Childers and his string orchestra.

The gymnasium was appropriately decorated in Farmerette fashion, with hay, pheasants, and ducks. All of the guests wore costumes completing the Farmerette theme. Bobby Donahoo and Jean Lewis were most appropriately dressed, and by this virtue won prizes of candy.

TO GIVE SONATA RECITAL—Howard Boyajian, (left) violinist, and Stevenson Barrett, (right) pinaist, will be presented in a sonata recital Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, in the Leone Cole Auditorium. Shown with them is J. Eugene Duncan, whose sonata will be included on their program.

District Tournament Begins On March 4

Plans for the annual Sixth District Class AA basketball tournament have been announced by officials of the association. The tournament will be held in the Jacksonville State College gym on March 4-7. Drawings for the tournament were made Saturday at a meeting held at Anniston High School.

The Emma Sansom Rebels, who have lost only two games out of 13 this season, were seeded in first place. Four Calhoun County teams follow Emma Sansom. Oxford, the defending champion, was seeded second; Alexandria, third; Jacksonville, fourth; and Anniston, fifth. Gadsden High was seeded in sixth place; Pell City, seventh; and Piedmont, eighth.

The winner in the tournament will go to the state tournament in Tuscaloosa to represent the Sixth District.

The first game of the tournament will begin on Wednesday, March 4, at 6 o'clock with Emma Sansom playing against Sylacauga in the opening round. Other first-round contests will include: B. B. Comer vs. Piedmont, 7:30 p. m., Wednesday; Gadsden vs. Glencoe, 9 p. m., Wednesday; Etowah County vs. Alexandria, 1 p. m. Thursday; Jacksonville vs. Roanoke, 2:30 p. m., Thursday; Heflin vs. Anniston, 4 p. m. Thursday; Pell City vs. Talladega, 7 p. m., Thursday; Centre vs. Oxford, 8:30 p. m. Thursday.

The Friday afternoon games will get underway Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and games will be played at intervals with the last game beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The semi-finals will be played Saturday afternoon at 1:30 and 2:30. The consolation game will be played at 7 o'clock and the championship game at

Crusade For Freedom

Dr. Houston Cole this week made the following statement regarding the Crusade for Freedom: "I wish to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to the people of Jacksonville for the wonderful support given the Crusade for Freedom drive. Total collections have now exceeded $1,000.00 within the city.

"Mrs. Martha Dean Wright and Mitchell Modrall worked untiringly as city and college chairmen. They are deserving of much praise as well as those who assisted them in the drive. Although our records are not complete yet, it now appears that Jacksonville will make the greatest contribution in proportion to its wealth of any town or city in the state.

"Many people believe that the Crusade for Freedom is making a major contribution toward the prevention of a third World War. It is bringing hope and courage to millions of enslaved people behind the Iron Curtain. The people of Jacksonville have certainly done their part toward making Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia more effective during the months to come."

Dr. Cole added that it appears from reports being received from all over the state that the State of Alabama will give to the Crusade for Freedom this year the largest amount yet given in its annual drives.

Never put off enjoyment—there's no time like the pleasant.

ATTENTION! GRADUATING SENIORS OF MARCH, 1953

Please call by the office of the publicity director, Mrs. R. K. Coffee, (next door to Dean Wood) for an interview. We would like to give publicity in hometown papers about your graduation.

Office open from 9:30 to 12:30 every morning except Saturday.

8:30 Saturday night.

Jacksonville High School has won 14 games and lost eight.

The teams will be housed on the campus of Jacksonville State College. Each team will have 10 players, a manager, a coach and the school principal.

MOTHER OF CHAS. M. GARY DIES IN BIRMINGHAM

Mrs. Ella Nix Gary, age 79, mother of Charles M. Gary, died in Birmingham on Sunday, Feb. 15. Her home was in Midway.

In addition to Mr. Gary, she is survived by two sons, B. F. and H. C. Gary.

Mr. Gary's students and friends will regret to learn of his sorrow.

Soion H. Glover, assistant bur-sar, spent two days at the University of North Carolina recently on business for the college.

David Lacey and Bill Mills were among the fortunate ones witnessing the inauguration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. They also had their pictures made with Senators Sparkman and Hill, and Representatives Kenneth Roberts and Laurie Battle.

Are You Guilty Of Murder?

"I ain't never done nothing like that before in my life . . ." It was a good story, and his face lit up while he was telling it. One could almost forgive his grammatical errors except for one thing: He is a graduating senior from Jacksonville State College!

Okay! Okay! Don't preach. I can talk right when I have to? You want me to go around like a walking dictionary all the time?

Nobody is preaching to anybody. Perhaps it is not entirely the student's fault. Somewhere in high school or grammar school some teacher slipped up. So long as that weekly theme came in with a minimum of errors, and so long as the students sat quietly while being read to, that teacher was satisfied. Then high school was over and the usual percentage went to college, so-called practical English grammar is taught for one year. The rest of the time is spent studying what someone else has said or written.

No student should ever be allowed to receive a college degree without knowing and practicing the rudiments of good language usage. Long, complicated words are not necessary. "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." "All men are born free and equal". "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways". Three famous quotations with only one two-syllable word among them.

So he's a fine person. An employer doesn't always have a long-time acquaintance to judge by.

A well-known minister once said that it was not profanity he objected to, it was the tremendous waste of mind that prompted it. He said further that it is the lazy, uncultured person who substituted four-letter words for concrete thoughts and phrases.

The high school teachers and the college professors who are letting us by on the assumption that because we can pass a competence test, and who let us graduate with a degree with the words and phraseology of a field hand are doing us a gross injustice. It is sickening to think that some of the people who are graduating from this college or any other college are going out to teach.

Book Review

By Neil Letson

"We have tried to find the entrance to a great hydrosphere because we feel that the sea age is soon to come."

So Captain Jacques-Yves Cousteau begins his new book "The Silent World" (a must if you crave real adventure). This is also how he sums up his motives for devoting 15 years to pioneering in undersea explorations, in the course of which he has made 5,000 dives (can you imagine anyone diving 5,000 times?).

"The Silent World" is fascinating book (and when I say fascinating, my dears, I mean just that). After the war he and his associates salvaged torpedoed vessels and the scuttled French fleet (the very thought of anyone salvaging an entire fleet is enough to send me to bed with an ice pack and a nembutal tablet). He tells of swimming through the riggings (barnacle encrusted, of course), weed-hung and ghostly (do you ever feel weed-hung and ghostly?); swimming down shadowy gangplanks, passing from deck to deck and exploring drowned cabins and engine rooms (I'm just dead to explore a drowned engine room, aren't you?). Turned archaeologist, he found the remains of an argosy (bet you don't even know what an argosy is, do you?) presumably sunk about 80 B.C. (and I don't mean headache powders) while en route from Athens to Rome with a loot that included Ionic columns, marble statuary, and bronze figures. They even followed a submarine laying mines (the submarine, not the divers) and photographed men emerging from the escape hatch (fiendishly clever of them, wasn't it?).

Captain Cousteau succeeds admirably in giving his readers a sense of personal participation in these explorations of a strange world (personal is right! A couple of times there I just knew I had the bends). We feel that we know what a diver sees, feels, and thinks as he descends into the blue twilight of the sea.

Through the diver's mask, objects seem larger and nearer than they are. Tropical reefs are a fairyland riot of color down to perhaps twenty-five feet; below that level colors rapidly fade into twilight blue. At fifty feet, red becomes black and orange disappears completely (confusing isn't it?). Down 120 feet the blood of a fish or a man runs green (mine would, of course, remain blue). Deeper, only ultraviolet is left.

"The octopus, the manta ray, and the moray eel—alarming as they may appear", says Cousteau, "are creatures who wish only to be left alone."

By Sandy Southerland
When the "Blue Goose" flies by at top jet speed, the pilot is likely to be the person on whom our beam focuses this issue. He is Benny Carlton, a native of Goodwater, and he is majoring in music education, with applied major in voice and a minor in history.

Benny's activities are many, including the college band, the string sinfonetta, and the college chorus. Phi Mu Alpha, Kappa Phi Kappa, and Westminster Fellowship claim Benny in their organization. He also has been president of the junior class—not to mention the fact that he directs the Silver Chapel Choir at Fort McClellan.

If you had the pleasure of seeing "Naughty Marietta", "The Student Prince", "The Merry Widow", "Sidewalk Cafe" and "Brigadoon", you know that Benny's talent helped make these musicals a success.

Benny Carlton's resourcefulness, helpfulness and his contributions to his organizations and his school will be greatly missed when he leaves.

The Spotlight is always pleased to present to its readers a person of Benny's character, and we want to wish him luck at his senior recital on March 1.

having found their behavior unpredictable. A twenty-five foot "man-eater" fled in seeming alarm at the sight of divers. The quite different story of an encounter with a much smaller shark is much too thrilling and full of suspense to spoil by telling here.

One could go on indefinitely (and I will if you ask me about the book) about the behavior of fish during a rainstorm, about the eerie quality of the undersea world at night (and believe me, if you don't think the undersea world is eerie at night, just have a look for yourself. You're not near a sea, you say? Well try bathing in the dark . . . the effect is somewhat the same). One part that particularly intrigued me was the description of an octopus city where each of these quaint little mollusks occupied a "house" roofed with a flat stone propped up like a lean-to with other stones (think what fabulous addresses they must have).

This is a book that leads you on, page by page, and when the end is reached it is very likely that you will begin again on page 1.

I heartily recommend this volume to you. It's illustrated too, and that should make it a lot easier for some of you. You may find it

Forney Hall News

By James Dodson

I've got some good news for my few readers—this is my last column. If I can talk "Big Dean" into giving me a few hours, I'll leave this institution of higher learning in March. Since I don't expect this column to be retired in my honor, I imagine that someone else will be throwing out this stuff next quarter.

Things must have really changed since the time before I learned to sleep through classes. A few nights ago, Hopper actually brought some homework in. We blamed it on some eccentricities of Dr. Mock. Some of the boys are also getting the absurd idea that teachers object to making book reports on classic comics. Why some even think that you are supposed to work those experiments in chemistry. Gad, what is this world coming to? It's a good thing I'm graduating. Why the first thing you know, they'll expect you to read that psychology stuff.

I believe that some of the boys are going out of town to get their girls. I overheard Benny talking about dating "Reformatory Rose" the other day. She's not from around here, is she, Benny?

I was talking to a couple of our boys in a well-known restaurant here in town a few days ago, and one of the topics of conversation was how nice the place was. One of the boys made this statement: "If this place was at Mike's, he'd make a million." I Arthel Parker: Why does it have to be like this? Why do boys just have to kiss?

David Lacey: The answer is simply this; It's you who make us want to kiss.

Rock Hudson: No matter what the face or name, Along with a girl you're all the same.

Billy Pannell: You spend a night on a new hair do, To win a date you fret and stew.

Margie Clark: While driving along on a road so dark, Your strongest desire is to park.

Bill Hammill: You turn on your warmest glance, Until we poor saps haven't a chance.

Jeanne Murphree: Maybe he likes the lipstick taste, Or maybe he just has time to waste.

Oma: You pass and flirt and look so sweet And we melt when you turn on the heat.

Anne Young: But time is like air it's warm and free, When a boy is on a necking spree.

David Christian: With luscious lips and painted nails, You trap us unsuspecting males.

Nat Davis: And when the wrestling match is done, You really wonder who has won.

Dick Cooper: And so we all and like it too, Just what you planned for us to do.

Elaine McGraw: Your lipstick's gone or smeared a lot, Your lovely hair-do is strictly shot.

Ray Campbell: But if a boy doesn't neck, All you say to him is "heck".

Patsy Lumpkin: And in the dark se sure looks queer, With lipstick smeared from ear to ear.

Griff Quick: He's mother's little lambie pie, You CAN'T have fun with such a guy.

I'd like just once to meet a boy whose company I could enjoy. A boy who would command respect, Simply because he doesn't neck.

Bushman: The boy you go with necks with you BECAUSE HE KNOWS YOU WANT HIM TO.

Pannell News

This past month has been one with very few events which might be of any importance; therefore, things in Pannell have been rather dull.

The only new occurrence is that Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is initiating new members into their fraternity, and the poor pledges are catching "$('%)— (and I should know).

Well, boys, it is almost time for final exams. This means that you will have to do some last-minute "cramming".

I should advise you not to wait until the last minute. You are going to have to burn the midnight oil now to do a little studying instead—well, instead of—surely you burn them for something. Oh, when your girl has late permission. Then you burn the midnight oil unless you can get ready for bed in the dark, and from the way some rooms look, this would be possible. This is no reflection on any certain room, Bill Jones.

Since nothing has occurred that might interest you, I will finish by wishing our graduating seniors of Pannell the best of luck and success for the future. These include: Dan Traylor, Bob McCord and Rex Watley. I repeat, "Good luck, boys!"

Well the joint setops rocking about midnight and silence prevails until the call of "Chub", Tray and Ray for dirty clothes.

The high school teachers and the college professors who are letting us by on the assumption that because we can pass a competence test, and who let us graduate with a degree with the words and phraseology of a field hand are doing us a gross injustice. It is sickening to think that some of the people who are graduating from this college or any other college are going out to teach, and pass on their poor speech habits to the coming generation.

This is a book that leads you on, page by page, and when the end is reached it is very likely that you will begin again on page 1.

I heartily recommend this volume to you. It's illustrated too, and that should make it a lot easier for some of you. You may find it difficult to find a copy immediately since it's just off the press, but it is well worth waiting for.

This is another one that I insist you read.

I was talking to a couple of our boys in a well-known restaurant here in town a few days ago, and one of the topics of conversation was how nice the place was. One of the boys made this statement: "If this place was at Mike's, he'd make a million." I wonder what Mike's is. It must be some nearby fruit juice Bar (capitalized out of reverence).

Calvert, Opal R. Lovett, and Mrs. R. K. Coffee.

Program Reviewed

The International House Program began seven years ago when been expanded each year until this year there are 12 students representing eight countries.

French, German and Spanish are taught to small groups of American students, especially selected from foreign language classes, by the visiting students. They learn the folk music, the dances and customs of the various countries. Together they organize programs which are presented in schools, churches and before clubs and civic organizations throughout the state.

The foreign students room with American students in the dormitories and have their meals in the main dining room on week-ends. During the week, the foreign and American students have their meals in the International House.

As the International House family grows from year to year, relationship between those who have returned to their native lands and those on the campus is kept up through the publication, "International Voice" and through correspondence. "International Voice" gives accounts of the activities of the students and reports on the whereabouts and occupations of those located in various parts of the world.

THEY'LL KNOW HOW—These home ec students will know how when the right man comes along. When The Right Man Comes Along, They'll Know How

The girls who are taking home economics at Jacksonville State College will never hesitate for lack of knowledge about social decorum when they have homes of their own. They are taught how to conduct themselves in all kinds of circumstances and how to entertain at all types of social functions.

Right now they are learning to entertain at wedding festivities in a class called Home Problems Class taught by Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey. They are actually going through the experiences of giving the parties leading up to the wedding, the wedding and reception.

The wedding and reception took place last week with Vonde Cockrell, Lineville; Joy Carter, Arab; Jimmy Guyton, Hamilton; and Ruth Groover, Heflin, as hostesses. Ann Nichols, Fort Payne, greeted the guests.

The bride was Mary Ed Smith, Piedmont; the bridegroom was Shirley Wright, Pisgah; Jimmy Ann Guyton was bridesmaid; Marcelle Bowdoin, Ohatchee, maid of honor; and Jo Barclift, Union Grove, was mother of the bride.

Guests were Sue Shirey, Henebar; Virginia Ihrie, Zebulon, N. C.; Mrs. John Rowan, Mrs. Margaret Rice, Mrs. S. B. Matthews, and

USHERS CLUB FETED AT VALENTINE PARTY

The Home Problems Class of the Home Economics Department which is studying how to entertain at various types of parties and wedding festivities gave a Valentine Party on Tuesday night in the lounge for the Ushers Club. Rita Sue Shirey and Virginia Ihrie were hostesses.

The lounge was beautifully decorated for the occasion with red gladioli and Valentine symbols. The refreshment table was centered with a large red heart and red candles burned in candelabra. The mirrors in the room were decorated with hearts and the refreshments carried out the same idea.

Games were played for entertainment.

Present were: Jack Collins, Billy Pannell, Vito Marsicano, Richard Nordman, Neil Letson, David Lacey, Judson Whorton, Gerald, Cooper, Homer Stephens, Robert Palmer, Jack Young, Bill

Program Reviewed

The International House Program began seven years ago when four French students and a chaplain came to Jacksonville to carry out an idea conceived by Dr. Jones, head of the foreign language department. A small cottage on the campus was used as the "French House" and there the American and French students associated at meals and in special programs. Only French was spoken at the house, and an effort was made to develop an understanding of the background and culture of the two countries.

Two years later a seven-room brick house was erected on the campus with funds donated by friends of the program and school. Since that time the program has relationship between those who have returned to their native lands and those on the campus is kept up through the publication, "International Voice" and through correspondence. "International Voice" gives accounts of the activities of the students and reports on the whereabouts and occupations of those located in various parts of the world.

The deep attachments formed between the groups have been continued with reunions of European students, and visits between Americans from this campus who have gone to Europe.

Last year there were five graduates of the college who had participated in the program. Because of their ability to speak foreign languages, they were offered fellowships at some of the outstanding colleges and universities in the country. One has a fellowship at the University of California; one an assistantship at Tulane University; one has a scholarship at the University of Georgia; and a fourth has a Fulbright scholarship and is in Paris.

The bride was Mary Ed Smith, Piedmont; the bridegroom was Shirley Wright, Pisgah; Jimmy Ann Guyton was bridesmaid; Marcelle Bowdoin, Ohatchee, maid of honor; and Jo Barclift, Union Grove, was mother of the bride.

Guests were Sue Shirey, Hene-gar; Virginia Ihrie, Zebulon, N. C.; Mrs. John Rowan, Mrs. Margaret Rice, Mrs. S. B. Matthews, and Carolyn Buckner, Gadsden.

Sue Shirey and Virginia Ihrie will be hostess at a Valentine party; Peggy Bailey, Collinsville and Carolyn Buckner will give an idea.

Games were played for entertainment.

Present were: Jack Collins, Billy Pannell, Vito Marsicano, Richard Nordman, Neil Letson, David Lacey, Judson Whorton, Gerald, Cooper, Homer Stephens, Robert Palmer, Jack Young, Bill Jones, all members of the Ushers Club; Marcelle Bowdoin, Jo Barclift, Jimmie Ann Guyton, Carolyn Buckner, Ruth Grosver, Vonde Cookrell, Mrs. J. H. Pirkle, Joyce Carter, Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey, Mrs. S. B. Matthews and Mrs. Margaret Rice.

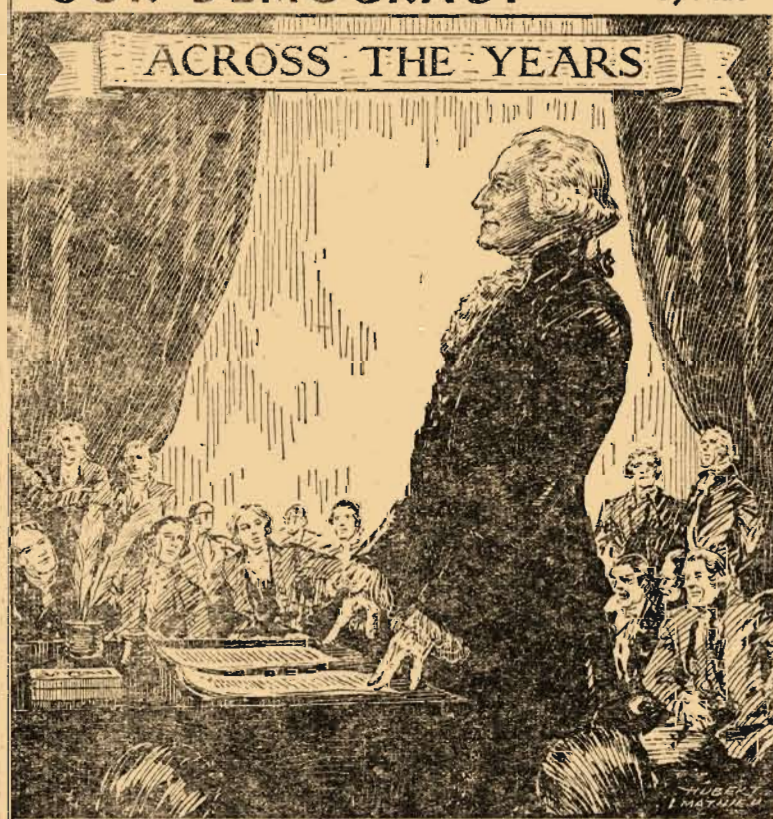

Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey, Mrs. Margaret Rice and Mrs. S. B. Matthews attended a home economics workshop at A.P.I. in Auburn on Saturday.

CAP Members Attend Regional Meeting

Representing Jacksonville and Anniston the past week-end at the two-day Southeastern Regional meeting of Civil Air Patrol at Maxwell Field in Montgomery Major Lucille Branscomb, Commanding Officer of the Jacksonville Squadron; First Lieut. Sam Jones, Commandant of Cadets of the Jacksonville High School Flight; Eugene Johnson, assistant Supply Officer, and First Lieut. F. E. Bonnet, Assistant Commandant of Cadets from Anniston.

The purpose of this annual regional meeting, made up of 10 Southeastern States and Puerto Rico, was a combination of conferences and workshop for State Squadron Officers. It was conducted by Maj. Gen. Lucas Beau, National Commander of the Civil Air Patrol, and his staff of Civil Air Patrol-Air Force Officers.

Discussion groups led by Air Force specialist were conducted on the subjects of communications, supply and maintenance, personnel, operations, and training dealing with both senior and cadet programs.

The Jacksonville squadron is made up of 3 units—a college

Howard Boyajian Gets Critic's Applause

The article below appeared in the Montgomery Journal and will be of interest here where Mr. Boyajian is known as a member of the college faculty. He will appear in recital here later this month.

The comment from the Montgomery paper was as follows:

Howard Boyajian, violinist, and Stevenson Barrett, pianist, highly pleased a very appreciative audience at the Fine Arts Museum yesterday afternoon in a concert sponsored by the Montgomery Music Club and the Museum, the second in the annual Free Sunday Afternoon Civic Series.

The program consisting of Partita in E Minor by Bach and two sonatas for violin and piano by Beethoven and Brahms, respectively, was a compliment to the Montgomery audience. Even though encores are not customary for classical programs of this caliber following the Brahms the audience emphatically called for more. The artists who apparently were as pleased with the audience as the audience was with them

Air Force Team To Be Here Feb. 23

An Air Force Aviation Cadet Selection Team from Moody Air Force Base, Ga., headed by Maj. Ben Nelson will visit State Teachers College on 23 Feb. 1953 (Monday). The purpose of the teams visit will be to discuss Aviation Cadet Pilot and Observer Training with college men interested in a career in Aviation.

Maj. Nelson stated that the team is in no way connected with recruiting but is here merely to disseminate information and accept applications from students who wish to take the Air Force mental and physical examinations to determine if they are qualified.

Due to the expansion of the Air Force to 143 Wings and the necessity for additional trained flyers and rated Officers, an excellent opportunity currently exists for qualified young men. Aviation Cadet training is open to all men between the ages of 19 and 26½ who are unmarried citizens and have completed 60 semester or 90 quarter hours of college, regardless of the major subject. Applicants must pass mental and physical examinations as prescribed by Air Force standards.

All boys who may be interested in becoming a member of the college track team, get in touch with Mr. Dillon or Dana Herbst. Practice sessions are held every afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m.

Dana was a member of the undefeated University of Alabama 1949-50 cross-country track and field team.

He was also a participant in the National High School Track Meet in New York City in 1946 and 1947—scoring second place in the 300-yard dash; also he was captain of his own high school team which won the state title three times in succession.

While at the University of Alabama, he won the annual Turkey Trot meet of two miles in record time. This summer he was awarded a trophy for being the outstanding athlete at the Naval Training Center, Long Beach, California, for participating in 30-odd meets, winning the majority of them. His best event was the half-mile—his best time one minute, 56 seconds.

Track Team Taking Shape On Campus

By Dana Herbst

Jacksonville State College will have its first track and field team in its history. Repeated interest by the male members of this school has resulted in the forming of a track team which will participate in intercollegiate competition with neighboring colleges in the state.

C. C. Dillon, professor of physical education, will be the sponsor of the team, and Dana M. Herbst of Weston, Mass., will be the coach. Both men have had wide experience in track and field.

Mr. Dillon has been head coach at Howard College and several colleges in the middle west. He has coached several great athletes and teams in this 20-odd years of experience.

Herbst, a senior, will be giving valuable aids and tips he has picked up in his seven years of high school and collegiate competition experience.

Intramural Program Is Outlined

The following letter was received by the Physical Education and Health Department:

Director of Intramurals
Jacksonville State College
Jacksonville, Alabama
Dear Sir:

We have been assigned by our physical education instructor to gather information about intramurals in the various colleges and universities throughout the U. S. After considerable study I have chosen your school because I believe you have a very outstanding program at your school.

Would you please send me your intramural handbook and any other information you might have.

A prompt reply will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
Jerry Spitznagel

This was the reply:

Mr. Jerry Spitznagel
800 N. 20th St.
Clarinda, Iowa
Dear Sir:

I am glad that you are interested in intramural sports. We here at Jacksonville feel that it is one of the most necessary parts of college life, and often the most neglected. By keeping a file on each quarter's work we continually improve our intramural program. As a result we have what we consider a well-rounded intramural program, offering much to all participants.

Our program is run entirely by senior physical education majors. This is under the direction and advisement of the head of the Physical Education Department. In working this way we reap two-fold benefits; first, it offers a great source of recreation and amusement for the students of the college and second, the students who take part in the program receive a vast amount of experience in the field of physical education and recreation.

In charge of the program is the chairman. He may select as many assistants as is necessary. Together with his assistants, the chairman makes out the game schedule, secures a place to play the games, procures the necessary

Patrol-Air Force Officers

Discussion groups led by Air Force specialist were conducted on the subjects of communications, supply and maintenance, personnel, operations, and training dealing with both senior and cadet programs.

The Jacksonville squadron is made up of 3 units—a college flight, a high school flight at Jacksonville, and a flight of Anniston Junior and Senior High School students.

Major Branscomb states that arrangements have been made for the Jacksonville-Anniston Squadron to have a training plane available in the near future, which will be based at the Oxford Airport.

The squadron's communications network is also being extended to include seven fixed and mobile 2-way radio stations in Jacksonville and Anniston. Plans are also underway to develop a Ground Observers Corps training program.

DUNCAN SONATA HEARD BY MUSIC FRATERNITY

On Thursday, evening, Jan. 22, Epsilon Nu chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfania Fraternity sponsored the first performance of Sonata No. 1 for violin and Piano composed by J. Eugent Duncan, a member of the music faculty.

The sonata was played by Howard Boyajian, violinist, and Stevenson Barrett, pianist, of Gadsden, in the little auditorium of Graves Hall. After they played it through once, Mr. Duncan gave an explanation of the composition and they played it the second time. The performance was enthusiastically applauded and Mr. Duncan received unanimous approval from the group.

Afterwards a reception was held in the music building. Refreshments were served by Joy Ferguson, Wellington; June Usry, Murrycross; Ann Burnham, Jacksonville; and Miss Olive Barnes of the faculty.

Mr. Duncan's sonata was played at a composer's symposium at Peabody College in Nashville a few days after the premier. In the audience was Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of music in Rochester, N. Y. and renowned composer and conductor. He was very outspoken in his praise of Mr. Duncan's work and called it "the work of a mature composer whose craftsmanship as evidenced in the sonata is comparable to many great works in the atonal realm of composition."

The sonata will be played here on Feb. 24 when Mr. Boyajian and Mr. Barrett give a sonata recital in the Leone Cole Auditorium.

Friends of Miss Dora Wood will regret to learn that she continues ill at the Holy Name of Jesus Hospital.

Beethoven and Brahms, respectively, was a compliment to the Montgomery audience. Even though encores are not customary for classical programs of this caliber following the Brahms the audience emphatically called for more. The artists who apparently were as pleased with the audience as the audience was with them graciously repeated the first movement which was applauded more enthusiastically than the first hearing.

Boyajian, though a young artist, showed fine training, having already acquired a mastery of the violin.

The partita by Bach was originally written with a figured bass, only, but was played with accompaniment written by Tizado Nachez, renowned Hungarian violinist of the 1880s. In his number Boyajian had opportunity to exhibit the qualities requisite for good Bach playing—that of clear technic and a sweeping melodic line. In the Beethoven Sonata for violin and piano in G Major Op. 30 No. 3 both artists showed a keen sense of the dynamics so essential to Beethoven.

These musicians, Boyajian, professor of violin at the Jacksonville State Teachers College, and Barrett, civic musical director for the city of Gadsden, both newcomers to the state, are distinctive assets to musical Alabama.

Veterans Must Report Earnings by March 1

Montgomery, Ala.—World War II veterans taking GI Bill training were reminded today by the Veterans Administration that reports of their 1952 earnings must be submitted to their VA regional offices no later than March 1, 1953.

Failure to submit the reports by the deadline, Harley A. Smith, Manager of the Alabama VA Regional Office, warned, may result in discontinuance of GI subsistence payments until such time as the reports reach VA.

Trainees who haven't yet received the report forms may obtain them from their instructors.

The training reports—covering only income from productive labor for the calendar year 1952—serve a double purpose, Smith said.

First, they are used by VA as the basis for adjusting each veteran's subsistence for the current year (1953).

And second, they are part of the veteran's course of instruction in farm accounting, thus giving him the chance to put into practice what he has learned in the classroom.

The reports, however, do not apply to those in training under the new Korean GI Bill, since their monthly allowances are computed on a different basis.

MUSIC SORORITY HAS MORNING NCOFFEE

The Alpha Gamma Epsilon Sorority had silver coffee Wednesday morning in the lounge.

Members of the sorority are: Ann Burnham, Marlene Boozer Pyron, Florida Phillips, Gloria Wood, Mickey Smith, Jacksonville; Joy Ferguson, Wellington; Carol Dunn, Attalla; Mary Louise Kile, Hueytown; Gail Mountain, Henegar; Cynthia Kerr, Elkton, Ky.; Miss Olive Barnes, a member of the music faculty is advisor.

Right now the sorority has several projects in mind one of which it to make improvements in the Music Department. The donations received from the silver coffee go to buy records for the Music Department. Thanks to all of you who contributed.

college track team, get in touch with Mr. Dillon or Dana Herbst. Practice sessions are held every afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m.

Twice a week the team will journey out to Fort McClellan where they will have the advantage of practicing on a good cinder track generously loaned to them through Major James Peteri, Special Service Officer of the base.

So far 25 different boys have turned out for practice including: Bill Thornton, Jack Parker, Bob Ledbetter, Bill Roddam, Dalton Weems, Bill Pannell, N. C. Hubbard, Bob Crow, Virgil Holder, Chub Lewis, Ernest Winchester, Roy Dyer, Bull Bailey, Paul Thompson, Pete Avant, Jack Bailey, George Smith, Bobby Donahoo, Bob Jackson, Bob Hawkins, Bill Woodson, Carlton Hosmer and Hans Struth.

Practices so far have been concerned with getting into shape and working on style. If it is possible to get several outstanding trackmen, they will go to the Southern Relays on April.

Competition will be with Howard College, Darlington School, and the University of Alabama—with two meetings each.

If you are interested in track—come on out and try to make the team.

Intramural Cross Campus Track Meet will be held on the campus Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 25, at 2:45 o'clock. The course is approximately one and three-tenths miles in length. It will follow the road, starting at the high school, up to Bibb Graves Hall, around the road to the right, past Pannell and Daugeette halls, and back to the high school.

Basketball Season Ends With Gamecock's Record, 15-7

By Gary Leach

Below is given a resume of the Gamecock's basketball season just ended—a record of 15-7.

Milford Coan was high-point man for the season with 236 points. John Krochina, best average with 12.7 points per game. Vivian Ward hit the best percentage of shots taken from the field with 56 per cent. Shag Richey and Harold Waldrep tied in foul goals with 67 percent. Joe Craig, Vivian Ward and Shag Rechey were the chief rebounders for the team all season.

The graduating seniors are: Shag Richey, Vivian Ward, Max Bowdoin, John Krochina and Milford Coan. All will be greatly missed.

Expected to be back will be Pete Brooks, Joe Craig, Max Wilson, Torn Richey, Dalton Weems, Bill Pass, Howard Waldrep, Waylon Norrell and a few men off

Gamecocks Lose To Semi-Pros

On Feb. 6, the Jaxmen five-game streak was broken when the Peerless Mills from Rossville, Ga., defeated them by a 64-56 score. The Peerless team had come from behind to win because the Gamecocks were leading at half-time by a 33-25 count. This was a rough and tumble game played at Rossville. Krochina and Waldrep were high for the Gamecocks with 16 and 14 points respectively. Ben Canada and Brannell led the Woolens with 12 points each.

Gamecocks Thunder Past Georgia Teachers

On Feb. 7, the Gamecocks thundered past the highly-touted Georgia Teachers by a 72-66 margin. The Gamecocks won a game but they lost the services of their starting guard, John Krochina, when he fell late in the game and separated his arm at the elbow. Krochina had put 19 points through the basket before leaving

Freshmen Pleased With Dance Orchestra

By Richard Nordman

Once again Jimmy Simpson's fans crowded around the bandstand in the gym at JSC as he played for the annual Freshman Frolic.

The class was well represented as the dance, and upperclassmen were also there in large numbers. The freshmen appreciate the enthusiastic help of those who were instrumental in making the dance the success it was.

It was indeed a pleasure to have Jimmy Simpson's talented band play for us. The peculiar tonal blend achieved by the reed section was soft and pleasant-sounding to even the most sensitive ears, and yet enough drive and rhythm to satisfy the most exacting dancers.

Intramural Games Arouse Interest

By Jack Abbott

Once again the season has come and is about over for intramural basketball. There has been more interest and enthusiasm shown this year than in any preceding year.

Everyone has to be interested from the very beginning. It was thought that each dormitory would have two teams because so many boys wanted to play. When final plans were made and the schedule drawn up, there were six very fine teams in the league. These teams are: Pannell, Forney, Abercrombie, ROTC, Town and "J" Club.

The schedule was so drawn up as to have four games per week. The first game beginning and the last at 7:30.

The season will be climaxed by a tournament to decide the winner and runner-up. There will be a trophy given to the winner. This will take place in the very near future.

Ormond Richardson and Luke Worthy, along with the manager and players are to be congratulated on having done a very fine and successful job.

The final standing of the teams are:

	Won	Lost
"J" Club	8	0
Forney	6	2
Town	4	4
ROTC	3	5
Pannell	2	6
Abercrombie	1	7

Rep. Roberts' Bill Will Aid Working Mothers

The working mothers of America have found a champion in the person of Representative Kenneth Roberts, (D) Fourth District of Ala., in their battle to obtain needed tax relief. These mothers—wives and widows—nine million strong were happy this week our social meeting. The speaker was Major Jack Bentley, U. S. Air Force, who delivered a most interesting and educational talk.

His topic was, "What a Newly-Commissioned ROTC Officer Can Expect in the Air Force". His evening talk was climaxed by questions and answers which aroused considerable interest.

This year, B-9 is starting a Scabbard & Blade scrapbook which is to be the year's project. This book will be added to each year.

We are planning to elect new officers at our next meeting to replace those who are being commissioned at the end of this quarter.

with the introduction of H. R. 2861 by Congressman Roberts.

This bill would amend the Internal Revenue Code so as to permit a working mother to deduct from her gross income the amount spent for the care of her children while she is at work. This bill would apply to those mothers gainfully employed who have one or more children living at home and who are under 16 years of age. The deduction would apply only to child care expenses which are ordinary and reasonable with a limit of $40 per week in any case. The bill would not apply to working mothers who have an adjusted gross income exceeding $6,000, plus $500 for each child under 16. It would apply to returns for the calendar year 1953 and all subsequent years.

Congressman Roberts was interviewed on the Doug Edwards, CBS nation-wide television network. In support of his bill, Congressman Roberts said today, "This bill would give relief to millions of working mothers who maintain homes but are forced to work because of the pressure of high prices and expanding needs of their families. Many of these mothers have young dependent children, and must hire domestic help to care for the children while they work.

"The law states that a business can take a deduction on its income tax for ordinary and necessary expenses of producing income. This principle should apply to the individual wage earner as well as to business. The domestic help is necessary. It is not a luxury."

"Not to be confused with the baby-sitters' bill," said the Congressman, "this working mothers' bill is for child care while the mother is working in the shop, in the cotton mill, in the grocery store, and in the office."

Mitchell Modrall, assistant professor of science, has resigned to accept a position on the faculty of the Chemical School at Fort McClellan. He will teach chemistry.

Jax Wins Over Livingston, 63-56

On Jan. 27, Jacksonville won the first of two from the Livingston Tigers under Coach Steve, by a margin of 63-56. Coach J. W. Stephenson took over when Coach Wedgeworth had an appendectomy.

Shag Richey led the Jaxmen that night with 15 points while Vivian Ward was close behind with 11 points. Bill Rutherford was high for the Tigers with 10 points.

Gamecocks Win Again Over LSC

On Jan. 27, the Gamecocks won their second game from the Livingston Tigers. In their second straight game, the Gamecocks defeated the Tigers with a score of 74-53. Mousey Waldrep led the Gamecocks with 25 points. Waldrep scored all his points in the first and third quarters. He put on a great show of point making. John Krochina followed Waldrep with 15 points. Milton Johnson was high for Livingston with 13.

Jaxmen Defeat Moccasins

On Jan. 30, the Jaxmen defeated the Chattanooga Moccasins for the second time. The Gamecocks came from behind after the Moccasins led at the end of the first quarter 20-17 to win by a 80-72 count.

This was a great win for the Jaxmen because Chattanooga is rated high among the small colleges. John Krochina and Howard Waldrep led the scoring with 24 and 21 points respectively. Bill Brown led the Moccasins with 17 points followed close behind by Norman Hefferman and Jay Priulsky with 12 points each.

This was the Gamecocks third straight win.

Jaxmen Defeat Livingston 78-60

On Feb. 2, Jacksonville defeated Livingston for the third time. Vivian Ward led the Jaxmen to a 78-60 defeat of the Livingston Tigers in Livingston. Ward hit for 20 points with most of them coming in the last quarter. Ward was followed by John Krochina, Howard Waldrep and Tom Richey with 13, 12 and 12 points respectively. Bill Rutherford was high for the Tigers with 16.

Gamecocks Win Fifth Straight

The Gamecocks won their fifth straight game on Feb. 3 with a 66-54 win over the Livingston Tigers. Sub Tom Richey led the Jaxmen with 16 points but he was followed close behind by Howard Waldrep with 12. Bill Rutherford again was high for the Tigers.

Georgia Teachers

On Feb. 7, the Gamecocks thundered past the highly-touted Georgia Teachers by a 72-66 margin. The Gamecocks won a game but they lost the services of their starting guard, John Krochina, when he fell late in the game and separated his arm at the elbow. Krochina had put 19 points through the bucket before leaving the game, to lead the Gamecocks. Ward and Coan hit for 17 and 16 points respectively. Bobby Phillips, captains of the Pros, led his team with 20 points.

Jaxmen Lose to Howard

The Gamecocks lost their seventh game of the season on Feb. 10, when the Howard Bulldogs, led by Bill Karrh, defeated them at Howard, 89-78. This was a hard loss by the Gamecocks since the schools are such keen rivals on the courts. Bill Karrh, big Howard center, led the point making and scored the most points that a single man has scored this season. He put 32 points through the hoop before fouling out late in the game. He was followed by Morris Jacobs who hit 21. Milford Coan and Shag Richey were the big guns for the Jaxmen with 23 and 17 points respectively. This was the second game between the two teams. Jacksonville won the first 67-54.

Gamecocks Drub Howard

The Gamecocks got revenge on Feb. 17 when they defeated the Howard Bulldogs, 85-67. Big Tom Richey led the Jaxmen with 19 points. Most of Tom's points came in the last two quarters. Max Bowdoin, 15; Vivian Ward, 14; Milford Coan, 13, followed close behind Tom. Jim Harrison was high for Howard with 17 points. This was Jacksonville's second win over the Bulldogs after dropping one.

FILE APPLICATION FOR TEST AT ONCE FOR APRIL 23

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1953 should file applications for the April 23 administration. Selective Service National Headquarters have advised.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 9, 1953. Early filings will be greatly to the student's advantage.
