Jimm’s Jottings

Here we go again. I’m going to try ramblogging along again and see what comes out.

Of course, the thing that would be uppermost in my mind is “Brigadoon.” I’ve been thinking about it all day. It’s been uppermost in my mind since I first saw it on television. I’ve never enjoyed life as much as when I was watching “Brigadoon.” I’ve never enjoyed life as much as when I was watching “Brigadoon.” I’ve never enjoyed life as much as when I was watching “Brigadoon.” I’ve never enjoyed life as much as when I was watching “Brigadoon.”

For the first time in history, all parts of this great land are given the privilege of watching a President be inaugurated.

At 12:00 noon, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, President-Elect, drove to the White House, to pick up pending President Harry S. Truman, for the long drive down Pennsylvania Avenue to the Capitol. This marked the momentous beginning of a great responsibility for an man and the end for the other.

At about 12:30 noon, the oath of office was administered to Vice-President Richard M. Nixon by Secretary of State Dean Rusk of California. Following this, General Eisenhower became President Eisenhower in the inspiring ceremony conducted by Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson.

Throughout the long parade following the solemn oath of office, President-Elect was surrounded in interest and attention never flagged. Except for short periods between sections, he stood all the way through the procession.

Woody Herman Gets Enthusiastic Reception

By Richard Nordman

Having been interested in listening to Woody Herman, I have sampled a few of his recordings. However, the solution to the problem cannot be revealed. Woody Herman’s style is unique, and the solutions are often unexpected. Woody Herman’s style is unique, and the solutions are often unexpected. Woody Herman’s style is unique, and the solutions are often unexpected.

Wooden Herman, who appeared with his orchestra on Jan. 17, has this to say about the music that he is playing today: “We’re trying to be versatile. Russians and suggested that measures should be taken would probably include a blockade of China: an economic blockade of Russia; a stopping of war in Korea; and exploitation of psychological warfare. The latter would be in line with the Crusade for Freedom, but these are matters for the military leaders to consider.

The Pannelles got some new garments for Christmas. Now, with the lounge being used so much more than it used to be if the piano were regularly tuned, everything would be perfect.

Have you heard Spike Jones’s terrific take-off? “I Went to Your Wedding.” It’s hilarious. What’s with the sudden outburst of music from Spike these days? It’s driving me mad. Regularly, for God’s sake! I don’t think we can take it much longer.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB
RINGS IN NEW YEAR

The Annual Dance in the Home Economics Club was on the cards for the students and faculty members who gathered in Graves Hall lounge on Tuesday night.

After a brief business session conducted by President Elsie Kett. Entertainment Chairman Rita Jones showed a variety of home economics projects and a film on home economics. The program included a slide show and a presentation of a new home economics project.

Carrying out the theme of the evening, the centerpiece on the refreshment table was a "32" made of white chrysanthemums. On one side of the table, a Father Time (23) contrasted with the Baby New Year (23) at the other. Ruth Groover poured tea and Marcelle Bowden served individual dishes of food on individual plates.

The club was made up of faculty members, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Margaret Rice, and Mrs. R. E. Mattheson, and students, Mrs. Harriett Anderson, Carol Dunn, Joye

The upcoming term is a time for new beginnings, for fresh starts, for the promise of what lies ahead. It is a time to set new goals, to challenge ourselves, and to strive for excellence. The Pannelles are ready for the challenges that lie ahead, and we are excited about the opportunities that await us.

Did You Know?

By John Churchill

Six statements are listed below which are from authoritative reference. Each statement is well worth studying for its true worth. No matter what your attitude towards the military, you will be well to keep in mind the following quotation of Cabot Lodge, Sr.: "Of 'Americanism' of the right sort, we cannot have too much. ..Honest, outspoken pride and faith in our country are indefatigable better and more to be respected than the cultivated reserve which sets us down as ill-bred and bad taste over to refer to our country except by way of depreciation, criticism, or general negation."

The statements are:

1. During the past five years Canada has reduced its tax load four separate times while maintaining a balanced budget, that the United States has doubled its tax load during the same period and still has an unbalanced budget; and that Canada has no excess.

2. In 1951, thirty-six of our states spent more than they collected in taxes.

3. If the entire income of the 885,510 Americans who, last year, received as much as $12,000 was confiscated, the amount could not be enough to support the federal government's spending for ten weeks.

4. All our military movements in Korea, the directives to our troops, must be cleared through Constanine Zinchenko, of the United Nations Secretariat; and that Zinchenko is a Russian citizen, as was his predecessor, Arkady Sobolev, his official position being Minister of War, Communication, and Information of the U.N.—an office which the Russians demanded for themselves when the UN was set up.

5. Certain members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff have advised our government to reserve our new tactical atomic weapons to "certain of our Allies", yet these secrets are more important than those stolen by Fuchs and Puente, corvo.

6. The United States spent 22.2 pounds of uranium to Russia under lend-lease when our entire supply of the rare atomic metal was only 4.5 pounds.

The Spotlight

Just a few minutes from Miami by plane is the city of Havana, Cuba. Three years ago, Havana sent to our campus a lovely young lady who graces our spotlight this week. Her name is Nomi "Mimi" Ballantyne. Not only has Mimi studied toward a degree in business education while majoring in English, but she has taught a great many of her fellow students her native tongue, which is Spanish.

Mimi has many hobbies including scrapbooks, dancing, swimming, and baseball. She has also lent her wonderful talents to various organizations on our campus. She is President of Daughters of the American Revolution, a member of our famous Intercollegiate Press Program, Pi Beta Phi, the Wesley Foundation, and Pi Theta Chi. Not all of Mimi's academic honors have gained status; for she holds a degree from Cuba's Havana University College. Personality plus, in English or Spanish, with every success, helpfulness, friendliness, and charm are Mimi's trademarks.

For our rapidly mounting school age population.

The bill would renew an existing temporary program of federal aid to the States for school construction in areas where defense activities have caused serious overcrowding and extend the program to help other communities suffering severe shortages of school facilities.

In introducing the bill, Hill called the situation "shocking," "The nation needs a well-ordered program of new classroom buildings," Hill said. He added, "School construction has failed to keep pace with the huge increase in our national population. 600,000 new classrooms will be needed within the next five years."

“If You Don’t Like Our Way…”

Those college folks, why they leave us alone sometimes. Suddenly the town’s business was interrupted, and the streets were blocked, and there were photographers running about flashing blinding lights in peoples’ faces.

That crowd there on the hill is always up to some far-out, Stern-faced men who could never quite lose themselves to the complete reality of their play-acting, stood in the middle of the streets with empty weapons.

Maybe the whole thing was a bit silly in places; maybe to some it was nothing more than an excuse to miss class or to kill some time that lay idle on weary-idle hands. Some reacted realistically, though, moving into the spirit of the idea.

Perhaps if we recapitulated a bit, substituting in our minds the actuality in place of make-believe, we might have a different story. Squawks of laughter become screams of terror, and the sharp crack of firecrackers becomes the sharp report of firearms followed by an ominous thud.

As you stumble in an alley, you are thinking: this can’t happen here; this can’t be me. In a moment someone will announce over a loud speaker that it’s all been a game… And then near you falls the body of a young girl. She was one of the class beauties. She’s quite dead, and so beauty now.

That’s not a very happy picture, is it? Our whole world… our little world going up in smoke around our ears. It could happen here. If the principals we have been reared to believe in are lost to view, these things can happen here.

We grow tired of having RED, WHITE, AND BLUE furlined in our faces constantly. We know better than to accept the fact that this is the most open-minded country in the world. And we know that we are not above approach. But we do know that we have a spirit of freedom and beauty and truth in the country that no other country can hold a candle to. We know that we have a right to exercise our initiative, to speak our mind out, to write in the vein this editorial is written in, without fear of censure or danger. That’s America, Brother!

Sure we make mistakes in government and we get ourselves all tangled up in red tape, but we grin and say, “What the hell! I’m an American, ain’t I?” If you don’t like the way we do things here, take a flying leap into Russia. That’s all, Brother!”

Tapping Ceremony

Kappa Phi Delta Pi

Kappa Phi Delta is a man’s professional educational fraternity and is well known throughout the United States. The chapter at Jacksonville State College is the Beta Eta chapter of Kappa Phi Delta.

During the fall quarter the Beta Eta Chapter tapped and initiated eight new members who are now lifetime members of the fraternity. During the winter quarter there will be another tapping and an initiation before the quarter is over. The current active membership for the fraternity is nineteen.

We are very proud to publicly announce that from the winter quarter of this year, our chapter will award a scholarship to some male student in each quarter. He must pass a competitive examination and be interested in the field of education. If you are interested and would like to file an application for this scholarship, please watch the bulletin board for further information.

Jaxmen Edge Saints

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 12—The Gamecocks fell off their pace a little as they edged the 30 Bernard Saints of Callahan, 35-30. Both teams were off on their scoring marks but a scoring edge in every quarter except the last meant the game up for the Jaxmen.

Tom Rieley was the Jaxmen’s high scorer with 13 points. Milford Canu followed him with 11. At the beginning of the game the Gamecocks jumped out into the lead six different times where they stayed until the third period. A fast shot by Canu put them back into the lead to stay, 42-41.

Howard Falls 67-54

GLENDALE, Dec. 18—Howard College fell to the Gamecocks at the Garden Memorial Auditorium in the Quarterback’s Benefit Game, 67-54. A good defense along with a solid offense put the Jaxmen in front to stay in the third period.

Howard’s star guard, James Harrison, was to the Gamecocks all night long as he hit 21 points, most of them on long shots. Morris Jacobs and Marilyn Breeding scored a total of over 30 points a game for the Bulldogs but were able to get only one as the Jaxmen outscored them through very well. Jacobs got ten points while Breeding did not score. He scored 31 points in a game previously this season.

Coach Earl Gamburz’s crew battled back into the lead six times after the Gamecocks had gone ahead, but a low-pointer by Max Brown gave Jacksonville a permanent lead late in the third period.

Milford Canu was high man for Jacksonville as he hit the shots that broke the tie. He and John Rieley scored 19 points each, and while Monette did all his scoring in the first half, he hit 10 points in the last ten.

University Defeated 67-64

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 17—The Gamecocks picked up their fourth straight win against no defense as they swamped the game against Redlands of University, 67-64. The Jaxmen were led back after they took a 7-6 lead.

J. W. Slag Rieley was high man for USC with 16 points. Milford Canu was next high with 11. Dallin Woonen was next with nine. Robert was only in the line-up as he scored six points.

Chautauqua Falls To Jax

CHAUTAUQUA, Jan. 8—The Gamecocks snapped out of their two-game slump strong as they came from behind late to dump the University of Chautauqua in both. It was a jumping one-tender by Shag Rieley that put them on the road to victory. The Jax- men scored 16 points on the evening to share the Chautauqua honors with Spivey Ward who received his first starting assignment since the start of the season.

Fidelis was the Chautauqua standout as he poured 26 points through the season. Eleven of those came in the second period. The Gamecocks enjoyed a 36-29 halftime lead.

Jaxmen Lose To Troy 56-55

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 1—The Jacksonville Gamecocks jumped back into losing ways as they fell to the Troy State University, 56-55. It was a solid second half. A jump shot with five seconds left in the ball game by Troy’s Leon Davis was the deciding factor.

Vivian “Spivey” Ward again gave a spectacular performance in the game. He hit five of his field goals and scored seven of 11 free throws for 10 points. Bill Troy sank 18.

Rieley and Canu had 15 and 10 points, respectively, for JSC.

The Jaxmen possessed a tremendous 17-5 lead at the close of the initial period but slid it away as they entered the second. 24-17, third, 18-16, and fourth, 9-7. Both teams hit 2 of 5 field goals and 7 of 10 free throws for 12 per cent.

Gamburz Bumps To Fourth Victory

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 17—The Gamecocks picked up their fourth straight win against no defense as they swamped the game against Redlands of University, 67-64. The Jaxmen were led back after they took a 7-6 lead.

J. W. Slag Rieley was high man for USC with 16 points. Milford Canu was next high with 11. Dallin Woonen was next with nine. Robert was only in the line-up as he scored six points.

Abercrombie News

By Bill Hummell

Abercrombie's faces are all red in the Christmas spirit, and many even have the New Year's five-glow, but nevertheless, school has started again and they are in their pitchforks. Mad cries of "Frogs on!" do the damage, and "It's Brigadoon, guy goes!" among Travis Walker and H.C. Campbell's "Get any old nails clothes to be laundered?" are heard.

Abercrombie has a good basketball team this year, and we hope to win all the games. We won Pannell 28-26 our first try. They were the underdogs in the last game, but they beat the bookies out because Bill Bolliday and Gary Morris are looking good.

Little Benjamin asked me to tell all his friends that he lives in Abercrombie and drop in anytime.

Rules For Selling On Campus Siled

There are certain rules and restrictions which must be followed whenever anything is sold on the campus excluding all dealings handled by the administration.

The student body passed a ruling last year, stated in Art. V, Sec. 4 (A), of the constitution, that anything cannot be sold on campus without the permission of the Student Council or the administration.

Forney Hall News

By James Dusen

I happen to be writing this article at midnight. Tomorrow is deadline, and I don't think of a thing to write. I was trying to get some sleep and just thought of the space-filler, which I am supposed to write.

I guess that I can fill a few lines telling about our dorm election that we held a few nights ago. Actually it didn't turn out too bad, because the day after we elected "Maidhead" Stafford as dorm president, he moved to the new campus. We elected Buddy Johnson as marshal of the "Forney Brewery" international basketball team.

While thinking of more serious topics, a few of the residents decided to start a fund to enable us to buy a new deck of Book Cards. I don't guess there is anything wrong with our old pack, but we do get tired of using that old broken cornered black nine as the "bird."

It is getting late, so I guess I had better pack up, but I don't guess it would do much good. There will be boys wandering around the halls.
Daugette Hall News

Daugette has begun the new year in its usual way, with the addition of new girls in the dormitory.

Among those are Faye Crambley, a junior transfer from Sacred Heart Junior College in Columbus, Alabama.

In the dormitory, we have some boys planning to go and talk up on a little anti-feminism. I might be wrong, but I always thought that was for salmon.

Well, I guess there is a time in every person's life when he just can't think of anything to say or do. I guess this is my time.

If you haven't already quit reading this, you can quit now. That's what I'm doing.

Dear Cadenza:

Peace, it's wonderful. After the past few weeks, it's nice to be able to slow down and be happy again. It feels good to know what you're doing.

Mr. B. Plough took me to the concert in Montgomery. He and his wife were so kind to us. Dandy Duncan's voice was a pleasant surprise.

The Alpha Gamma Epsilon music society served a reception in the lounge afterwards.

We're planning to go to the P. W. Plough's wedding this weekend. It's been a long time since we've had a party.

Miss Barnes has been having quite a time with the flu bug.

I hear by the grapevine that the college band is about ready to prepare another concert. It's great to have music again.

We all miss you and your presence at the concerts.
