Jims Jottings

I stood there, feeling a vague touch of touch of stage-fright. The band started the first phrase of "Tenderly", and the spotlight blinked surprise pink at me. We walked through the door and up toward the flower stand. The old cardboard lady I had worked on so affectionately smiled at us as we collected the little red carnation and moved on.

The spotlight swung back to the door.

It was a lark. You were supposed to look very bored. All this had happened before. Old hat. And I guess I would have, too, if I hadn't suddenly realized: Senior Ball. Mine. Me. Graduating senior.

Charlie Wilson's familiar drawl boomed across the gym.

These people—President and Mrs. Cole, sitting in front of me—these people—Maw Nielsen, there just below—these people—Joy Ferguson, standing by me—my classmates, filing out in couples from a syntlutic "Club 53"—these people were the ones I'll meet in tenfifteen years. I'm sorry, I know your face but your name eludes me.

ohyesofcourseIrememberyou. The band moved from one melody to another.

There is an old traditional song: "Where, O where are the grand old seniors? Out in the wide, wide world." Of course, I can always come back for a visit. And suffer the half-antagonistic-half-curiousstares of the new ones. There will be hasty handshakes from the old ones, and they will hurry on to matters that do not concern me.

The decorations are certainly unique.

This has been quite a year, hasn't it? No other graduation from any other school will ever be quite the same. Older, blase. What will you remember most?

Those first few months at Forney. Noise. Distance. First tentative friendships. Meals in Weatherly. First Homecoming. Move to Pannell. New roommate. No distance. Hammond much closer. First Spring Festival. Summer school.

Applause for Forrest Killough and Sarah Lott.

I like this place. Its has meant a great deal to me. I'm going on a sentimental, reminiscent, nostalgic jag. I'll even run the risk of being trite. I'm just plain going to miss this place—at least for a month or so. And next fall, I'll think about registration.

We move out onto the floor. "Tenderly" still sounds like "September in the Rain" to me. Those flats used for the "Club" carry quite a history for me under their layers of paint. "Student Prince", "Merry Widow", "Brigadoon". ("Come Back Little Brigadoon"—Tom Wheatley, that crazy sonso.)

Applause for the band.

Well, Mr. Sr., you've almost got maudlin about the whole affair. But you had to, didn't you? You wonder if anybody else feels the same way. Maybe this is saying for them what they didn't want so say out loud themselves.

Twelve O'clock. After the ball. This is my last Jottings. I'm kind of sorry to give it up. I almost hate my successor, but he's a real great guy. So for Jottings, it's 30 and for Fred's Fables—it's all yours, boy.

To The Seniors

I congratulate you as you attain graduation from college.

You have spent sixteen academic years in your formal educational training. This is approximately one-fifth of the average life span on earth. You have spent a great deal of time and money in pursuit of this goal.

This is little doubt that the price you have paid will reap large dividends in personal satisfaction and in fuller living. Your educational attainment has broadened your interest and your capacity for service to mankind. You now join the ranks of 100,000 others in the state of Alabama who have graduated from college.

I want you to know that you carry with you at all times our personal best wishes and the abiding interest of your Alma Mater. Let me urge you to keep in close contact with the college in future years.

Houston Cole
President

You are completing four years of work here and many of you have not only made a good record in your class work but in extra-curricular activities. You have taken advantage of many of the opportunities for growth and development and it has been a pleasure for us to witness the desirable changes that have taken place in you.

Our hope now is that you will not forget us and that you will point other good prospective students to us and that you will be highly successful and happy in whatever you do after you leave our doors.

If at any time you need our services in any particular, you have but to command us. It will give us pleasure to comply with your request.

With good wishes to each of you, I am

What Graduation Means

SUMMER EDITORS—Fred Lybrand, left, Oxford, will be editor of "The Teacola" for the summer session, it has been announced by Dr. Baskin Wright, director of student personnel. Harry Sherman, Anniston, will be associate editor. Fred has been a contributing staff member this year and has attracted favorable attention with his ability to write. Harry, former sports editor of The Anniston Star, is widely experienced. He will be editor of "The Mimosa" this fall.

A Preview Of The Summer Editions ... Or Lybrand On Lybrand

By Fred Lybrand
First of all I would like to congratulate those responsible for as editor of the Teacola for the summer quarter. Having lived with myself the greater part of my life, I think I am qualified in saying that a more able person could not have been selected. There are many more compliments that I could easily bestow on myself, but we must save some of the material for the summer quarter.

My main purpose in writing this article is to inform the student body of the changes to be made in the Teacola. Let us turn to the first page and begin our preview.

Here in the lefthand corner is "Jim's Jottings" no doubt a good article, but the name will have to be changed to "Fred's Fables." At the bottom there is the "Gem of the Hills." "I Can't decide whether to change it to "Bats of the Flats", so all of the girls will have a chance, or simply have a picture of the monthly Esquire Girl reprinted from the Esquire calendar.

"The Spotlight" will be titled "The Shadow." In order to qualify a student must have appeared before the discipline committee a minimum of three times.

These Forney, Dauge, Abercrombie, and Pannell articles have got to go! I might could salvage them by changing the titles to ject, I would like to submit an excellent plan to do away with "Dear Cadenza." Each month, students are to enter letters for the selection of the "Dear John" of the month. This, to some of our ears, is music.

It will, by all means, be necessary to replace the names of the staff members with a picture of the editor and possibly a small mention of the associate editor, whose name I will refrain from mentioning here because of the minor significance.

The sports section will have to be limited to the greater sports, such as checkers, dominoes, and chess.

Football, basketball, baseball, and other minor games will be completely de-emphasized.

The monthly book review will undergo a cultural face-lifting. Only the classical novels of Mickey Spillane and Horror Comics will rate our literary criticism.

There will be many new examples of journalistic perfections. Several suggestions have been made to me. One comes from Forney Hall, which asked that they be allowed to select a "Jim of the Hills." This is to be an honor bestowed on those doing outstanding work in the field of alcohol research. Dauge suggests a new article, "Campused", a monthly report on prison conditions.

The Spotlight

By James Roberts

It's hard to write about someone as well known on this campus as B. J. Norton. A person of his calibre doesn't need words for tribute, but words are the only instruments handy, so they will have to suffice.

B. J., who comes from Attalla, graduates this quarter with an A. B. in psychology and a minor in sociology. These complex fields are preparing him for foreign missionary work. He had wanted to go to North China, but that is impossible now. He is a white man and all that that part of China can see now is Red. Africa seems to be his destination now.

Twenty-seven years old, B. J. has finished his education in spite of circumstances beyond his control—family troubles, an uncle named Sam. He has had the unique distinction of having served in the U. S. Army, Marines, U. S. and British navies. Two ships were sunk under him; one of them in the English Channel during the invasion of Normandy. He holds the Purple Heart, an individual citation, and a group citation. After Normandy, he participated in the invasion of Okinawa.

IS JET PILOT

B. J. Norton

He's been a busy man in a short span of years. B. J. is one of those rare people who seldom says "no", and when he does, he can make it sound like "yes". Usually first and unobtrusive, he contains and controls a pixish sense of humor.

A definite asset to the campus, B. J. has lent his time and talents to such organizations as Phi Mu Alpha, Wesley Foundation, Kappa Phi Kappa, and as vice-president, secretary and treasurer of Pannell Hall. He has been a firm, positive monitor at Pannell. And who doesn't remember seeing him putting his pharmaceutical prowess to work during football season.

It is with understandable pride that the Teacola turns its bright

What Graduation Means

By Homer Stephens
President, Student Government Assn.

As we seniors look back and visualize ourselves as we were when we first came to Jacksonville, we find it very hard to face the actual truth in what it takes to make us graduates of such an institution of higher learning. In our beginnings, we were much the same as the students now entering Jacksonville. We were students who wanted to think for ourselves and accomplish things. We felt that we would need very little help along with our problems and our misunderstandings. We did not all have the confidence that is required of one to assume responsibility; to work hard for ourselves and others. We did not see the need for assistance and guidance from professors, nor did we ever think that our four years would mean so much to us.

Just what have the past four years meant to us? Every individual, man or woman, educates himself. No institution has yet conferred an education upon anyone. The institutions simply provide us with a splendid opportunity—and confer degrees. How do we get that education? We promote a widespread interest in student affairs, we govern ourselves by just and righteous laws, we develop a greater spirit of progressive citizenship, we learn to study hard and develop a capacity to think, we learn to think for ourselves and form our own opinions, and we learn to assume responsibility. We learn to live with ourselves and with others.

We learn to be good citizens, we learn to be friendly and courteous and to practice the good traits that we possess. All of this we learn by doing by associating with others, by reading and studying and by research and lectures.

Nowhere else on the face of the earth can we find a place that offers such opportunities as we might find in an institution such as Jacksonville State College. We came here to learn and it is left entirely to us to take our knowledge, our abilities, and ourselves wherever we go and use them in the best way that would be to the interest of our God and our country.

World Invocation Day

Men and women of many different races and creeds throughout the world joined in voicing a world prayer on Sunday, May 17, the second annual World Invocation Day, according to Lay Service Group.

"The Great Invocation" as the prayer is called, was sounded last year by individuals, groups and congregations in 48 languages from 60 countries according to the sponsors. Widespread distribution by volunteers in the U. S. has gone forward in preparation for this year's massed appeal, when the prayer was again used to invoke Divine Will to guide mankind through present world tensions and bring about right human relations.

The group invites people everywhere to units for goodwill and true peace for all humanity by voicing on May 24th and on other occasions this prayerful demand:

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.

From the center where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men—

The purpose which the Master knows and serves.
From the center which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out.

And may it seal the door where evil dwells.
Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

"The Spotlight" will be titled "The Shadow." In order to qualify a student must have appeared before the discipline committee a minimum of three times.

These Forney, Daugette, Abercrombie, and Pannell articles have got to go! I might could salvage them by changing the titles to "The Brewery Report", "Canine Caper's", "Branscomb's Bums", and "Poker at Pannell."

"Out on a Pole" will become "The Shaft", a list of unsuccessful lovers. While we are on this sub-made to me. One comes from Forney Hall, which asked that they be allowed to select a "Jim of the Stills." This is to be an honor bestowed on those doing outstanding work in the field of alcohol research. Daugette suggests a new article, "Campused", a monthly report on prison conditions.

There is one rule that I am indeed delighted to enforce. All copy must be in by July, thus enabling us to print the June issue by August. This should eliminate all confusion.

ATTEND SOUTHERN STUDENT CONFERENCE—Homer Stephens, (left) Gadsden, retiring president of the Student Government Association, and Arlie Gunter (right), Geraldine, president-elect, attended a meeting of college student government officers from southern colleges at the University of Mississippi last week. An organization was formed to constitute a southern association.

SGA Representatives Attend Southern Student Conference At U. Of Miss.

Homer Stephens and Arlie Gunter represented JSC in the formation of a Southern Students Conference at the University of Mississippi recently. They were chosen by the Student Council.

The meeting was called by student leaders in several Southern colleges after a need had been expressed for a regional association of student government representatives by many of the colleges and universities. It will be an organization for the exchange of ideas and views pertinent to the colleges of this region.

The association adopted as part of its principles and purposes the following: To provide an effective means whereby common student and student government problems of the school represented may be solved through exchange of ideas; research, and experimentation, to establish a concentrated effort to encourage students of college age to better themselves and their communities by attending college; and to provide a medium for the expression of student views on matters of particular concern to the schools represented.

Lt. Bill N. Weaver

Lt. Weaver, an alumnus of JSC, received his wings and commission as a second lieutenant in the Air Force on May 3 at Williams AFB, Arizona. He is now a qualified jet pilot. He will receive further training at Moody AFB, Valdosta, Ga., and Tyndall Field, Panama City, Fla. Lt. Weaver had the highest rating in his class of 140.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Weaver of Jacksonville.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND NATIONAL FBLA MAY 28

Representing the Alabama Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America as delegates to the national convention in Washington, D. C., on May 28-30, will be Charles Huguley, newly-elected president, and Jack Collins, state treasurer.

Scheduled for the convention activities will be outstanding business leaders as guest speakers, discussions of ways to promote the FBLA program, and tours of Washington and vicinity. The meeting will be attended by delegates representing several hundred high school and college FBLA chapters across the nation.

Senior Ball, Brilliant Event, Climaxes Year's Social Events

One of the most brilliant social events of the regular session was the senior ball which took place in the college gym on Wednesday evening, May 6. Art Mooney and his orchestra provided the music for the occasion.

The gymnasium was attractively decorated and the many handsome and colorful evening dresses of the young women added to the festive setting. A number of out-of-town guests and faculty members added to the interest of the affair.

Newbern Bush, as faculty adviser, and Mrs. Bush were among the chaperones. Mr. Bush presented a bouquet of roses to Miss Sarah Lott, the partner of the class president, Forrest Killough.

Taking part in the class lead-out in addition to Miss Lott and Mr. Killough were: Florella Maddox and Roy Smith, vice-president; Nancy Blackburn, secretary, and Russell Harris; Mimi Ballart, treasurer, and John J. Churchill; Joan Hamby, social chairman, and Jack Stewart; Rita Sue Shi-

PROFESSOR COLLECTS MOSSES AS HOBBY

J. C. Wilkes, associate professor of biology, has an unusual hobby—the collection of mosses. He possesses the only collection of mosses in the state with specimens from every county; 178 species in all.

These mosses are preserved in a herbarium and Mr. Wilkes plans to present them to his alma mater, the University of Alabama. He is using the mosses as the subject for his dissertation on his doctorate which he hopes to receive some time this year.

Recently Mr. Wilkes accompanied a group of his botany students to Gatlinburg, Tenn., to the wildflower pilgrimage. A two-day program there included lectures by nationally-known botanists and naturalists, bird-walks and tours to various beauty spots on the Smoky Mountains.

This was the first time Jacksonville students had attended this pilgrimage.

Included in the group were: Mabel Weaver, Sueville S. Pen-

The new office boy reported promptly at 9 A.M. The boss said, "I'm glad you're in early, Willie. I want the phone number of Arthur J. Zacharias right away. Look it up in the directory."

Four hours later the boss tapped the lad on the shoulder and said sarcastically, "How are you doing finding that phone number?"

"I'm doing fine," said the boy. "I'm up to the F's already."

Miss Kay Johnson was the bride's only attendant. Sam Bruce served his son as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of white imported organdy with an embroidered jacket. The veil of illusion was attached to a bandeau of valley lilies. She carried a white Prayer Book, marked with an orchid.

A reception was held after the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will be at home in Collinsville.

Abercrombie Hall News

By Bill Hammill

Well, this is the last issue of the 'Cola this year, so I'd just like to bring back into your minds the highlights of Abercrombians in '52 and '53.

Chub Lewis was elected president—this was quite a blow to everyone, but Chub made a very good president in spite of everything. In his administration we got a television and let pool and ping pong go to pot—but you can't have everything.

Miss Branscomb got promoted to PFC. in the C.A.P. A pay raise, too?

We had the president and vice-president of the S.G.A. with us—Homer and Austin, we had pull all right, but I think it was in opposite directions.

Travis Walker getting married was one of the highlights of the year and to mention his later election to the post of Veep of S.G.A. next year.

When Big Foot Anderson sat in the lavatory and broke it, is one of the biggest laughs of the year. It is a good thing Abercrombians

The Hawk's Eye

The tennis and baseball teams have shown much improvement during their past few engagements. Neither team looked too impressive at the beginning, but, after considerable hard work, I dare say they could hold any collegiate team in the state to a mighty good game.

The tennis squad, after losing to Davidson and F. S. U., came back to trounce Florence, Howard twice, and the University twice also.

The big gun for the tennis squad has been big Dixie Brown. Dixie remains unbeaten in state collegiate competition. I believe Dixie's most impressive victory was over Florence. He continually baffled his opponent by "hittin' em where he ain't."

TRIPLE THREAT MAN!

The tennis squad, after losing to Davidson and F. S. U., came back to trounce Florence, Howard twice, and the University twice also.

The big gun for the tennis squad has been big Dixie Brown. Dixie remains unbeaten in state collegiate competition. I believe Dixie's most impressive victory was over Florence. He continually baffled his opponent by "hittin' 'em where he ain't."

Bill Jones, the No. 1 man, has also looked mighty fine. Bill is under considerable pressure in all his matches since he plays the supposedly best man on the opposing team. Bill played James Nixon, of the Huntsville Country Club, a beautiful game of tennis. They had to play four sets because the contests were so close. Nixon, by the way, was a mainstay in last year's Gamecock tennis aggregation.

B. C. Duke, David Christian, Bill and Jack Hammill, and Ray Bullock have also looked good in their matches. Duke is said to be the smartest man on the squad. He uses his head instead of his calories in a lot of situations. David Christian, Bill Hammill, and Ray Bullock will be back next year vieing for spots on the team.

Mrs. Calvert, coach and general manager of the team, has done an excellent job. She is a faithful follower of her team on the road and she "lives" the game as her players do.

The baseball situation seems to be shaping up somewhat better also. Since spring football has ended several of the football players have come out for the team. Probably the most valuable asset to the baseballers is the newcomer Lyle Darnell, a shortstop. Darnell put some spark into the team on his first day of practice, and really came alive in his first game. His great play and sparkle at shortstop has drawn nothing but praise from Coach Stephenson.

The Gamecocks have won games from West Georgia and Howard.

Tommy Brock has been the mainstay on the mound. Backing Brock on the mound have been Bill Pass and Joe Kurtt. Also showing up well has been Jimmy Little at third base and Bob Nix at second. In the outfield it has been Bud McCarty and Wayne Allen who provided the punch at bat. McCarty hit the longest ball of the season against Florida State University.

On the lighter side in the sporting world: It might not occur to many of the students, but our own Dean Wood packs a mean wallop with a croquet stick. Almost any clear afternoon the Dean may be found on the croquet court behind the gym with his playing partners really knocking the old wooden ball around.

There are also a number of golf pros in our midst (or supposed-to-be pros). Jack Collins, Charles Huguley, Hoyt Butler, Sandy Southerland, and Omar Calciolari frequently visit the golf course. Yeah, cat suits and all.

Don Henderson, Dixie Brown, and Kenneth Paige have a set of weights in the basement of Pannell Hall where they spend the greater part of each afternoon building themselves into what we all desire to be—men. If you have noticed either of these boys build, you could readily tell the physical training they are going through. By the way, Dixie, Henderson and Paige tell me you shave your chest. How about that? What? Yeah, I figured you didn't.

Well, sports, this about wraps it up until next fall and football. One thought though I would like to leave with you—play the game hard, play it fair, but most of all, play it cool.

Travis Walker getting married was one of the highlights of the year and to mention his later election to the post of Veep of S.G.A. next year.

When Big Foot Anderson sat in the lavatory and broke it, is one of the biggest laughs of the year. It is a good thing Abercrombians can swim, eh Bigfoot.

Arlie Gunter came through in the clutch, congrats Arlie I'm sure we'll have good government next year, Good Luck.

Yes, this has been a wonderful year for Abercrombians, football, basketball, baseball, tennis and most of all the dances. I hope all my school years will be as great to me as this one was. I've enjoyed writing this article and I hope you've enjoyed reading it. Have a wonderful summer and see you next year. Attention to all girls who are going to live here this summer. Please, please, please take care of our little home, here, because we'll be back in the fall.

Pannell News

By George Jarrell

The quarter is coming to a close—did I hear a murmured "Thank God"? Wonder what everybody will be doing this summer. Especially the graduates.

There are several people from Pannell who should be congratulated for the offices they have fallen heir to. Fred Lybrand will be summer editor of the Teacola. His cohort in crime against the English language will be Harry Sherman. Fred is also chairman of that minority group, The Democrats Club, and our "Etowah" is treasurer of same.

Oh, yes, Sherman—no connection with Georgia—was elected editor of the Mimosa. Bill Pannell is business manager; Harvey Ham is sports editor; and Shorty Jackson is activities editor.

Over 50 per cent of the Pannellians signed to give blood. There were seventeen volunteer workers from our dorm for the blood-mobile deal. They helped carry the "weak minded" out after their blood had been drained.

After analyzing a pint of Robert Guyton's blood they found it to be 90 proof. O. K., roommate, I won't tell that you belong to AA (Alabama Alcoholics).

Billy Kirby is another Pannell boy who is taking the fatal step. Miss Betty Smity is the girl in question.

What's this about the preacher suggesting matrimony to Herb Griffin? Is it true Herbe?—and has anybody seen Bill Downey lately—without Mary Ruth?

That quiet, intense concentration in the lounge is not text book study, it is glory be—chess. Intellectuals, yet.

The Brains of the Team

Teamwork can work miracles. In a football game the man who sparks these miracles is the quarterback. He's the man who calls the signals. There's a man who calls the signals for an Air Force flying team, too!

They call him an Aircraft Observer.

Do YOU have what it takes to become an Aircraft Observer?

It isn't easy. It's tough. You have to be a MAN to qualify as an Aircraft Observer. But when you are one, brother, you're SOMEBODY! The success or failure of a mission involving over a million dollars worth of flight equipment depends on you.

THE AIRCRAFT OBSERVER IS THE SOMEBODY WHO:

As Bombardment Officer, is number one man on a bombing run, the man who controls the plane in the target area!

As Navigation Officer, is the pilot's guiding hand on every flight!

As Radar Officer, is master of a new science and operator of the device that sees beyond human sight!

As Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, is the one who "keeps the plane flying", the man who knows his plane inside and out, who keeps it fit for the skies and sees that it stays there!

If YOU can accept a challenge like this, you'll take your place beside the best—you'll find your future in the clouds!

TO BE QUALIFIED you must be single, a citizen, between 19 and 26½ years old, have had at least 2 years of college and be in tip top physical shape. If this describes you, then YOU, too, can qualify. Today!

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET! The world's best training. Good food and plenty of it. Uniforms, flight clothes, equipment. Medical and dental care. Free insurance. Flight training in Uncle Sam's greatest aircraft.

AND THEN, AFTER GRADUATION, you'll win your silver wings, and earn more than $5000 a year as an Air Force Lieutenant. You'll enjoy an adventurous, exciting career with a hand-picked crew of real men. You'll be THE BRAINS OF THE TEAM, A TRIPLE THREAT MAN... as a Bombardment Officer, as a Navigation Officer, as a Radar Officer, as an Aircraft Performance Engineer.

THE SOONER YOU APPLY, THE SOONER YOU FLY!

SCABBARD & BLADE TO HAVE INITIATION MAY 12

By George Jarrell

Boy oh Boy! Beginning May 12, 1953 there will be an initiation of the new initiates of Scabbard and Blade. This will be one of the great events of the year because it is the only time some of the members get their "chores" done around the dorm, such as cleaning their rooms, shoes etc.

This is one of the finest fraternities here according to some of the top brass and it teaches the boys how to appreciate some of the military aspects of life.

May 11, will be an important date for all members because an election will be held to elect new officers.

If you notice some peculiar characters around the campus from May 12 through May 14 it will only be the new pledges.

Re'ax, boys, it isn't too bad. We all survived.

Daugette Hall News

The latest thing that happened in Daugette that must be mentioned, was the cool aid party. Joyce Whitehead did a fine job with the job as M. C.

Judy Trotter and Elsie Roberts were aces on the uke while the gang sang a few thousand songs—Peggy Sharpton came through with a darling little tune—but oh what words!? Harriet Hackworth, Helen Thompson and Judy Trotter sang their rendition of "Because, Just Because." It was great! Florida Phillips gave a little Charleston "while the crowd roared!" Harriet Hackworth's impression of Miss Millican, Mrs. Rowan, Miss Luttrell and Joe Bailey was enjoyed by all. Joan Hamby didn't do too bad imitating Mr. Landers. Many jokes were told, but the one about the stableman's daughter brought a pretty good response.

Winning the praise (a whistle) for best dressed, was La Verne Martin who was dressed as a mummy. Running a close race was a hula girl (Mary Jane Clarkson) Jane Mayes and Weepy Wooten, Helen Thompson was dressed as the "cat"—Omar.

The fat short girl was Joyce Whitehead.

Some more of the costumes were: Mary Cater, a China doll; June Murphee, a golfer (Gaylord Southerland), Jean Murphee, A baseball player; Mary Charles Wiggins came as Burl Millings—cigar and all. Shirley Wright and Vivian Carlisle as the ace of spades and hearts, Willodean

Of course, Mrs. Rowan was there with her dog—but she left early with the crowd singing "She's a jolly good fellow." Cigarettes donated by Jack Collins were passed out along with cookies potato chips and cool aid.

The party broke up about 11:30 and everybody raced to their rooms to try and get off the lip-stick that was still on their faces the next morning.

Summer ROTC

The military department has announced that ROTC will be offered during the summer session this year. Entering freshmen completing MS 102 this summer will receive credit for one semester of ROTC and will be eligible for deferment in October.

Also offered this summer will be MS 102 for sophomores who attended summer school last year, and MS301, for students entering advanced ROTC. Both courses are associated with the accelerated program which permits students to graduate and to receive commissions in three years by attending three summer sessions. This is a variation of the normal four-year course offered here, Col. Blodgett pointed out.

MANAGEMENT HOME HAS FORMAL OPENING MAY 3

Several hundred visitors from the surrounding vicinity and all parts of the state called at the new home management house at Jacksonville State College Sunday, May 3, when it was formally opened to the public. Located next door to the International House, it is a four-bedroom house of brick construction fully equipped for the home training of six home economics major students and a faculty supervisor.

The house is beautifully appointed and furnished, its decor was planned and directed by Mrs. A. J. Goodwin, Jr., of Anniston. Flowers in various arrangements added to its beauty Sunday afternoon.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey, head of the home economics department; Mrs. S. B. Matthews, director of the house; and Mrs. John F. Green, a member of the staff. Miss Maude Luttrell assisted in greeting the guests.

A group of home economics students served refreshments in the dining room and on the porch. They were: Rath Groover, Herlin; Virginia Irie, Zebulon.

Student Government Lists Accomplishments For 1952-53

It has been brought to the attention of the Student Council that a majority of the students have little or no idea of what the Student Council has accomplished during the current school year or hopes to accomplish before the end of the spring quarter. Therefore, for your information is submitted the following list of the projects accomplished.

1. Sponsored homecoming and gave loving cup to "Miss Homecoming". (Miss Dorothy Rockwell).
2. Sponsored two dances. (After football games).
3. Sponsored the cheerleaders during football season and paid their expenses to games away from home.
4. Sponsored Chat-'Em Inn which is operating "in the black", and concession stand in stadium.
5. Collected funds for the World Student Service Fund.
6. Arranged with the R.O.T.C. to have military cadets raise and lower the flag each day.
7. Eliminated a great deal of the chow-line cutting.
8. Published the Student Directory for 1952-53.
9. Published the "Stu-Jack."

2. Revised the dormitory rules.

Student Council Lists Summer SGA Officers

The S.G.A. met on Tuesday, May 12, to appoint three officers for the summer quarter. Out of the confusion, motions, amendments to amendments, came the selection of three very capable students. Dixie Brown will serve as president, Charles Hammett as vice-president, and Billy Pannell will hold the temporarily combined office of secretary-treasurer.

Congratulations to the summer officers and to the S.G.A. for their usual exhibition of supreme judgement.

Herbert Hoover, commenting on the mistakes of New Deal economists, called to mind the small girl who said, "Mother, remember that china late you told me had been handed down to us from generation to generation?" "Yes", said Mother. "What about it?" The small girl answered, "This generation just broke it."

She looked upon my balding pate
And thought: 'Too little and too late.'

The Spotlight

By Tom Wheatley

The cat has nine lives. For the ninth and last issue of this year's periodical (for the regular session), we have saved the king of them all, Mr. James Southerland, better known to the business world as the clothing magnet, Gaylord Southerland; to his professors and Arthur Murray as James; and to us lesser cats as "Sandy".

From Birmingham's Ensley High, Sandy set his sails toward a large technical institute in southern Alabama. Not being snowed for a minute by its prestige, Sandy took his first opportunity to come to Jax. Not being snowed for a minute, he reset his sails again and waited for the wind. Lucky for Jax, however, Sandy isn't gone with the wind, although he has gone slightly astray and adopted such foreign phrases as "youse guys" and "chees". No doubt, these can be attributed to the International House where Sandy spent one year of his life as president of the Spanish group, saying "Vamaros a la bosque", and dancing with Smiley Childress, who is now, incidentally, at that large technical institution.

Back to Sandy. Another of his qualities has brought him considerable renown—his voice. With it (stay with it) he has captured such positions as cadet adjutant

"SOUNDINGS" OUT

The "Soundings" staff and the Writers Club were pleased with the interest this year in their literary magazine.

Over 200 copies have been sold. Although efforts are being made to distribute the magazine to the purchasers, it will be necessary to set up a booth near the "Grab" to distribute most of them and to sell extra copies. So be on the lookout!

of the ROTC, football announcer, and recently disk-jockey on Pannell's bolitical nightspot, W—something or other. And coupled with his acting ability, Sandy made a convincing villain in "The

SANDY SOUTHERLAND

Little Foxes", the play which Tom Wheatley made immortal with his brilliant performance.

Sandy was Mary Sharp's business manager for the "Mimosa"; and as usual was one of the few to do all the work.

In the elections, Sandy tried once more to be altruistic, this time on the managing side. His impressive presentation was appreciated in the discriminating circles who would have preferred to say, "Look what the cat dragged in." What is it they say about Rome being built?

Sandy isn't the kind who likes this type of exploitation, so I won't begin listing his unheralded contributions. I'll only say what all of us feel who know him (even a little)—that he is extremely likeable, has helped to make Jax worthwhile, and has, I'm sure, a wonderful future ahead of him.

YEARS AHEAD OF THEM ALL!

Good Time Had By All At SGA Picnic Thurs.

May 14, from noon until night, proved to be a lovely time for all those connected with our campus who attended the college picnic at Crystal Springs. Approximately 400 students and faculty members were there to share in all the fun.

To help pass the time away and to keep everyone happy while a little rain poured down, Mickey Blodgett, Austin Gay, and Homer Stephens led the students in various games and contests. The winners of the contests who received cartons of cigarettes from Ben Nodal, Chesterfield representative on the campus, and various and "foolish" prizes from the Student Government Association, are as follows:

Balloon blowing, boys, Ben Cotton; balloon blowing, girls, Joanne Lewis; ankle balloon, Lamar Howell; three-legged relay, Shirley Stewart and Bobby Hawkins; boys cigarette lighting and smoking, Luke Worthy and Phyllis Norton; girls' cigarette lighting and smoking, Carolyn Freeman and Don Warren; foot race, boys, Byrd Tucker; foot race, girls, Joanne Lewis; boy's, swimming swimming Charles Colman; girls, swimming, Florida Phillips.

No one missed the wonderful supper served by Mrs. McWhorter. No one missed the amusing sights for every one to observe (and there was something happening all the time!). But we all missed the sunshine and the nice warm water (drat it!).

The Student Government Association's Social Committee, which was in charge of the day's events, and the entire Student Government Association, wish to thank everyone who participated in the preparation and the carrying out of the plans for the day.

When Pat O'Brien bought a high-powered convertible, he asked a priest to give it his blessing. The priest agreed, but cautioned, "Remember, Pat, that this blessing is no good above forty miles an hour.
