Constitution Also Goes Up For Approval

Qualifying for four Student Government Association offices and three positions on the 1955 yearbook staff began yesterday. and the annual campus political battles probably will be in full swing by the end of the week.

Arlie Gunter, president of the Student Government Association, has announced that candidates may qualify for the offices anytime before Tuesday of next week. The period for qualifying will be cut short for the AEA holidays which begin next week.

Election day is scheduled for Wednesday, April 7, with any possible run-off elections to be held on Tuesday, April 13. The customary assembly program for candidates' speeches is scheduled for Wednesday, March 31.

Revised Constitution

Students will also vote on a newly-revised constitution for the Student Government Association. The constitution has been changed to strengthen the Student Council and to eliminate some of the outmoded provisions which no longer are applicable since the change to the semester system.

Gunter has indicated that the students probably will use voting machines again this year. The names of all of the candidates will appear on the machine, and the constitution may be approved or disapproved simply by voting 'yes" or "no".

Mr. Hays is noted for being an entertaining speaker. He has been described by the Washington Star as the "best story-teller in Washington since Chauncey Depew."

Congressman Hays is a wellknown churchman and in 1951 received the Annual Layman's Award given by the ministers of Washington for out standing service. He is a member of the Southern Baptist Convention's Social Service Commission and for a number of years served on the Joint Public Relations Committee maintained by four of the Baptist denominations. His service to the church was recognized in 1947 when he was invited to address the first postwar meeting of the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark. In May 1950, he was elected a vice-president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mr. Hays has long maintained an active interest in education and at the present time is a member of the governing body of George Peabody College in Nashville, and of George Washington University of Washington, D. #### Your Student Government

Jacksonville's Student Council deserves a lot of credit for the way it has directed the affairs of the student body here this year. The thought and the effort that the student legislature has put into its work during the past year has done much to develope character and spirit on the campus.

Under the leadership of Arlie Gunter, this year's Student Council has gone a long way toward raising the body to the high position that it should occupy. The constructive work that it has done has gained the confidence and support of the vast majority of the students enrolled here.

The progress that the present Student Council has made is only a continuation of the development of a strong and worthwhile student government on our campus. Many things remain to be done, and only a strong student government, with the support of the student body to back it, can accomplish the work that will come later.

Since the Student Council was first organized, it has become the dominant organization of the campus. However, the ultimate goal has never been reached, and will not be reached until the entire student body begins to recognize the authority and the importance of the organization.

The Student Government Association now has the full support and approval of the college administration and the faculty, and our administration realizes the importance of having a much stronger student legislative body. The Student Council is, in fact, a congress of students. Elected representatives pass laws that are designed for the benefit of the majority of the students. No other organization on the campus has the power and the backing that the Student Council enjoys. That is as it should be.

It is time for Jacksonville students to realize the full importance of their Student Council. When the time comes to elect the officers for next year's Student Government, each student should examine the qualifications of the persons who seek to gain the most important student offces on our campus. Judge the candidates carefully, with particular emphasis on leadership and initiative. Once you have made your choice, support your candidate to the limit during the coming campaigns.

When the ssue has been decided, continue to support your Student Government, no matter who wins or loses. Remember! The Student Council will be as good as the people who are responsible for its action.

Spring Football Practice Opens With Promise Of Great Year

Coaches Begin Building Job For '54 Season

By Bobby Hawkins

With a carload of new material, Coaches Ray Wedgeworth and Tom Roberson have undertaken the big job of molding Jacksonville's 1954 football team. The annual spring training session got underway last Monday. During the next five weeks, the coaches will have to determine just how they expect to run the Gamecocks' football next fall.

Coach Wedgeworth has indicated that it will take every bit of the time available to break in a lot of new material and to get some of the boys accustomed to a switch in positions. The job will require a lot of personal attention, and the college coaches have called in Coaches Banty Newman and Johnny Williams from the high school for a little help.

Outlook Good

From early appearances, it looks as if Jacksonville's new crop of backs is the best the Gamecocks have sported for several seasons. Most of last season's top running backs are back on the practice field again, and enough new material has been added to give the ground game most of the punch it needs for a tough schedule next

The new material, including backs and linemen, represents players who were heralded throughout the South a couple of years ago as being some of the best high school footballers in the nation. Some of them signed with the big universities, but they are Gamecocks now and should provide the extra strength to put state's small colleges.

Paul Thompson, a junior halfback from Albertville, and Harold "Pistol" Bentley, a junior lineman from Arab, have been selected as Jacksonville's football co-captains for the 1954 season. The announcement was made last week following a poll of team members on the first day of spring train-

The physical education department has done a creditable job in organizing intramurals here since the beginning of the school year, but the program should be a continuous operation, with none of the long slack periods between the main events. It seems that the usual prgram has been a bit one-Gene Hanson, Don "Tricky" War- sided, also. For the most part, the boys' sports have become ren, and Lamar Howell have been rather well established on the campus, but the girls have no bona fide program of their own.

Most of the blame for our lax intramural program lies directly with the students, especially where the girls are Only four experienced men concerned. There is enough material on the campus to organize strong intramural leagues in practically every major sport to be named. Eight teams in a boys' intramural softball league should be simple, and a strong intramural volleyball league could easily run in unison during the remainder of the spring semester.

Good intramural softball and volleyball leagues for the girls might be a tougher problem, but it can be done with a little more interest from Daugette Hall.

Pannell's volleyball team can vouch for the inadequacy of Jacksonville's intramural program. The Pannellers won the round-robin play-off here last month, even though volleyball has been far from popular with local students. Most students have played volleyball only in physical education classes or at Anniston Beach during the summer.
