Minosas Will Be Delivered Tues. Morning

A winter of planning and preparation has brought us to the day when we will deliver five large loads of minosas to each of the student organizations. The flowers arrived in early October. The new master artists of one of America's largest floral firms worked for weeks with the Student Government and junior class members.

The New Look

First Order For New Josten's Class Rings To Be Taken Wed.

Jacksonville seniors will have the "new look" in class rings. Josten's newly-designed jewelry rings have been designed by the ring company, and the work that has gone into their creation is a joint effort of the Student Government and junior class members.

Jim Durflacher, Jacksonville student representative for this area, will be on hand Wednesday, May 25, to take the first order for the new rings. Students may order with a five-dollar deposit and pay the balance when the rings arrive next fall. Mr. Durflacher has already announced that the new design will cost more than seniors have paid for three rings during the last two years.

The new design, which is pictured above, combines simplicity with elegance in a ring that is expected to become a standard for Jacksonville seniors. Rich Gravey, Joven, the most prominent structure on the campus, is featured in perfect detail, on one side, with the state flag above. The opposite side of the ring features a majestic eagle hovering above minosas blossoms and leaves. The minosa has become a symbol of our college as we grow as a group of young men and women planted on the campus.

The crest of the new ring features the initials of the college in bold block letters that are painstakingly hand-painted. A perfect ring will combine the hard-core details of the entire ring.

Student Award Winners Are Being Selected

The first evaluation sheets for student leaders on the campus will be filled out by faculty members and organization presidents this week. Dr. Emmett Fields, chair- man of the selection committee for "Certificates of Appreciation," has announced that his committee will begin scheduling the nominations at the end of the week.

Be it known, the names of 25 students have been submitted to be considered for such committee for consideration. Evaluation sheets for each of the nominees will be sent out to each of the instructors and organization leaders with whom the student has been connected this semester.

Each of the students will be judged according to leadership, initiative, character, achievement, dependability, punctuality, attendance at meetings, cooperativeness.

When the sheets are returned, the Student Government committee will review the nomination forms. The committee will determine the winners. The three-member faculty committee will make the final decision on the winners.

Dr. Fields has announced that part of the committee's job will be to go out and see the students who do not have a ride to the picnic grounds.

An editorial will be printed on the front page of The Teacola next week.

School Picnic, 'Sadie Hawkins' Day Scheduled For Thursday

Graduation Exercises Will Be Held June 5th. Rev. McNeill To Speak

The annual school picnic, sponsored by the Student Government Association, will be held at 6:30 on Tuesday, June 2, at Chipley Springs Thursday afternoon, with a big day of entertainment scheduled to begin shortly after lunch.

Miss Lorelle Brammarn has announced that the Student Government Association will sponsor the annual Sadie Hawkins Day in conjunction with the SGA's list of events.

The students will gather at Chipley Springs in the early afternoon Thursday, where they can enjoy a picnic supper, followed by a dance and other activities scheduled for the evening. The dance will be held in the college gymnasium.

An Editorial

Concerning Class Dance, Finances

The Student Government Association and the individual classes have an excellent chance to develop our campus social activities into a well-organized program which will insure highly-successful class dances during the coming year.

The annual dances are becoming more of a problem every year, and the solution to financial difficulties could very well lie in the development of a letter organization.

The Student Government Association could eliminate much of the financial worries which go with the four big dances each year.

Funeral Rites Are Held Here For Dr. Cayley

Funeral services for Dr. Charles K. Cayley, head of Jacksonville's Division of Social Sciences since 1951, were held at the First Presbyterian Church here last Thursday, with the Rev. Edwin Wilson officiating.

Dr. Cayley died at the Jacksonville University Hospital Monday night after an illness of several months. He was stricken with a heart attack last August while vacationing in Canada, and although he had made improvement from time to time, he has been in critical condition of several weeks.

Science Club Plans Outing

Members of Phi Mu Chi Beta, the local organization for science students, will attend the year's activities with a chicken fry at Darlington's. The dinner will be on Friday, and members have agreed to meet promptly at 5:30 p.m. at the club house.

Science students attended several interesting field trips during the past month in connection with class work. Members of the science club and botany students accompanied Dr. Wilcox on a three-day plantation tour to observe ferns. The trip was arranged by Dr. Wilcox, and botany students also spent two days in DeSoto State Park, near Fort Walton Beach, investigating the local flora and fauna.

The SWING of THINGS—Allee Jane Williams, a graduating senior from Oxford, isn't the world's best golfer, but he cares about golf, anyway. The month's Gem of the Hills is one of the most popular members of the graduating class and has been active in many of the campus organizations during her stay here.
It's All In The Point of View

During every school session since our Student Government Association was first established in 1942, there has been a small portion of Jacksonville students who have been dissatisfied with the actions of their student council. The grumbling and complaints come from only a small percentage, but it still persists and probably will until throughout the history of student government here.

Actually, student opinion is the basis for good government, and no one has denied that students have a right to be heard. Yet, there are too many of our students who do nothing but complain, and it seems to be their nature to be discontented with the world in general. They complain because their student officers seem to do nothing to promote the interests of the students. Many of these students refuse to take an active part in the administration of our student government and our other organizations. Many of them argue that certain groups hold too much power and that the majority of the students are on the outside looking in.

When the results are checked, the dissatisfied individuals will find that the so-called dictators are the individuals who are willing to do the work and have exhibited the leadership initiative for the job. The recent stunt at Leona Cole Auditorium serves as a good example of what can be accomplished on our campus. Practically every one of the more than three hundred individuals who saw the show will readily admit that it was the best entertainment staged here in a long time. It was a big job. It took a lot of hard work, initiative, imagination, and organization.

No doubt, the skits represented the largest student participation for any activity here in years. Almost every detail of the play was prepared for months, and it was well known that the entire production was initiated and organized within a period of two weeks. And the best part was that everyone was interested in the play; every student who wanted to work did so. As a result, the production had a successful run, and a lot of students who had never acted before

I was one of the students who wanted to act, but I did not get a part in the play. I was a member of the SGA and a member of the student government, and I was one of the students who wanted to work. I did a lot of work along with my colleagues, and the situation is certain to change for the better.

If I Were A Student Again--

It's time for a break from the usual routine of school life. We all need a little relaxation during the week, and it's important to remember that a little leisure time is necessary for a successful school year. I would like to take this opportunity to share some advice with the students who are considering attending college.

First of all, it's important to choose the right college for you. This may seem obvious, but many students make the mistake of choosing a college simply because it's the one their friends are going to or because it's close to home. You need to do your research and find a college that will be a good fit for you.

Secondly, it's important to make the most of your college experience. Don't waste your time partying or doing nothing. You need to take advantage of the opportunities that are available to you. This includes getting involved in extracurricular activities, participating in clubs and organizations, and getting to know your professors.

Finally, it's important to stay focused on your studies. Don't let anything distract you from your goal of earning a degree. Remember, you're there for a reason, and you need to make the most of it.

In summary, it's important to take advantage of the opportunities that are available to you and to stay focused on your studies. By doing so, you can have a successful college experience and be prepared for a bright future. Good luck!
If I Were A Student Again

(\textbf{Written for the Alumni News})

I believe that a college is basically an atmosphere in which students are consciously and subconsciously influenced by our connection with the college, are especially appreciative of the high life style we maintain in college, and that the atmosphere is something that we enter. We are justly proud of J.S.T.C.'s seventy-five years of life service to the State and the South. The splendid leadership during the past twelve years of our president, Dr. Houston Cole, who is followed by Mr. Robert Williams, they have made a huge step in the college's life.

First of all, I would like to choose my college with the greatest of care. The four years that college students have these opportunities are very rich. They have a great deal to do, and in determining that the rest of their life will take place. They should choose a college (like JSTC) that will develop their mind and character and give them the best philosophy of life.

\textbf{JSC In Position Of Favor}

Student affairs at Jacksonville apparently occupy a favorable position. The strong support of student leaders, student government, and the cooperation of the administration put us in a position to be able to do things.

The Student Government Association, held in Montgomery recently emphasizes the administration Jackson- ville students have over many of the other state colleges. No doubt, the results are just as important, and the system of student government is gaining in strength and in the future might be even more important part of the college curriculum. Our students have the confidence placed in them by making sound decisions, which have done much to modernize our college. This cooperation is a steady increase in enrollment.

\textbf{Herb Griffin, TBLA Leader, Spotlighted}

\textbf{HERB GRIFFIN}

This month's Spotlight shines on Herb Griffin, outstanding senior, class president, and one of the most active student leaders on the campus. The student body administration major has been one of the most productive members of his class, and he possesses the leadership qualities of a student leader.

Herb was a student again I would try to cultivate a spirit of humility. The student leader is the public relations officer for the college and is an important part of the college curriculum. The cooperation between the faculty and student leaders is of great importance. The student leader has a great deal to do, and in determining that the rest of their life will take place.

The time is ripe, perhaps the state and the administration will see the benefit of the student leader in the state colleges and the administration will feel that he is an important part of the college curriculum. Seniors Meet For Reception

On Tuesday night, May 11, at the home management house, a reception was given in honor of the seniors in home economics education.

Sweet peas and astilbe dashies furnished effective decorations to the reception rooms and the centerpieces for the pretty-appointed refreshment table.

Mrs. Mary Lawrey greeted the guests at the door and presented them to the seniors, who were beautifully dressed in evening gowns: Betty Joyce Carter, Carol A. Dunn, Mary Sharp, Ruth Greer, Doris Lee Foster, Alice Williams, Jeannette Hopkins, Nancy Wood, Gertha Hug, Ann Clarkson, Joyce Newby, Evelyn Wells, Hilda Virtue and Viola J. Lu.

Serving were: Inez Morrison, Peggy Morrison, Joyce Smith, Walda Robinson, Carolyn Dwyer, Ina Martin, Ellen Sharmen, Iris Blake, Joyce Powell and Carolyn Baker.

Mrs. B. Matthews, Mrs. Jota F. Green and Mrs. Tyler Posey assisted in entertaining - Faculty and friends called during the evening.

Music Students Are Treated by Faculty

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mason entertained the music faculty and students at a party on Tuesday evening, May 11, at the music hall.

Square dancing under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Elr. Weaver was enlivened in the large recital room which was colorfully decorated with balloons and cut-outs of music symbols. Quantities of mints and mixed flowers were also used.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver gave several excellent dance numbers and informal games were played at intervals.

Punch and dainty refreshments were served during the evening from a table centered with mixed yellow and white garden flowers.

Miss Olive Barnes served punch.

With the termination of the athletic year drawing near, one can look back with a feeling of success in the field of competitive sports for Jax State. Whatever one club lacked, another made it up. Possibly the most successful team is Mrs. Calvert's tennis club. The only loss was at the hands of the renowned University of Chattanooga. After having beaten the Mocs in a previous contest, the Jaxmen were nipped out by a scant 4-3 margin at Chattanooga on May 11. Tennis has gained quite a lot of enthusiasm on the campus as quite a few fellows are out for positions. The starting positions, one through six, are as follows: Joe Tominic, Lionel Layden, Ray Bullock, Bill Hamill, Frank Stewart, and a couple of old Jax veterans. The reason for dropping the seven contests was due to the lack of hitting and consistent fielding. Buddy Mills is the leading slugger with an average 0.300, followed closely by Ernest Spann. Terry Lyde is the most natural hitter and his clutch slugging has been a great asset to the Gamecocks. Buddy Mayes is a great defensive catcher. The Mobile boy has three more years in which to don Gamecock apparel. His seasoning as a Jaxon might prove to be interesting to some scout.

AQUATIC EXPERT

Ben Nodal will leave on June 8 from Roosevelt State Park, Chipley, Ga., where he will represent the Calhoun County Red Cross Chapter at the 10-day National Aquatic School sponsored by the American Red Cross.

On completing the intensive training, Ben will be certified in water safety, instruction, qualified to teach classes in swimming and lifesaving in the community. R. J. Rowe, chairman of the local chapter's safety committee, said:

"We realize that there are some 7,000 drownings in the nation every year," Mr. Rowe said, "and in order to prevent these tragedies from happening in this county, our chapter is financing this training. As a result, youngsters who enroll in the free swimming and lifesaving courses to be offered later in the summer may be assured of learning how to take care of themselves in the water."

Students attending the aquatic school at Chipley will be trained in such skills as swimming, lifesaving, water safety practices, diving, and first aid. All courses will be under the direction of Red Cross first aid and water safety leaders and other specialists in this field from various schools, colleges and safety organizations.

They were given a tour of the new state presidetit; Joyce was elected the state president; Jovon was elected the state treasurer and Kenneth Davis, June Miled, retiring state president from Glencoe High School, and John Griffith of Dothan High School are expected to attend.

Local Civil Air Patrol Nears End Of Busy Year of Activities

The Jacksonville Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol has been working to improve the servicesrendered to the community. They have been active in various activities such as flight orientation for new cadets, maintenance of the fleet, and participation in local events.

They are working hard to prepare for the annual Southeastern Convention to be held May 23 in Dallas, Texas. The Jacksonville Squadron has been invited to attend and is excited to represent their city.

The squadron has been recognized for their efforts in promoting aviation education and safety. They have been awarded the Civil Air Patrol’s highest honor, the Merit Badge, for their outstanding service.

The squadron is looking forward to the convention and is grateful for the support of the community. They encourage others to get involved and support their efforts in promoting aviation education and safety.

The Jacksonville Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol is located in Jacksonville, Florida. They are a group of dedicated volunteers who are committed to promoting aviation education and safety in their community.

THE WINNERS—Ben Nodal, campus Chesterfield representative, presents J. V. Painter, Joe Tucker, and Jay Meadows with their trophies for Chesterfield as the places for naming last month’s mystery girl. Byrd Tucker, manager of Chat ‘Em Inn looks on.

Business Leaders Have Been Among Most Active Students

Frank Tyler Cable, County Superintendent of Education, interviewed Mr. T. A. B. Roberts, a business man from Jacksonville and teacher in the Tuscaloosa High School, as a prospective applicant for a business teaching position. He reviewed the requirements of the position and also discussed the importance of education for young people.

The Jacksonville Chapter of the Business Leaders of America has been an active organization in the community. They have been involved in various projects, such as the “Business Leaders in Action” program, which has been held in conjunction with the Civil Air Patrol.

The chapter has been recognized for their efforts in promoting education and community service. They have been awarded the Civil Air Patrol’s highest honor, the Merit Badge, for their outstanding service.

The chapter is looking forward to the future and is grateful for the support of the community. They encourage others to get involved and support their efforts in promoting education and community service.

Educational Society Ends First Year

Kappa Delta Kappa, one of Jacksonville’s newest honor societies, has added students to their membership list. The society has been an active organization in the community, hosting events and initiatives to promote education and leadership.

The society’s first meeting was held in a local restaurant, where members discussed the goals and objectives of the organization. They plan to continue their active involvement in the community and support the educational needs of their students.

Today’s CHESTERFIELD is the future of JACKSONVILLE.
Dr. Evelyn Wiley, Mrs. Mary Ruth Holleman, and Miss Elizabeth Davis. The first officers to be installed by the new campus organization were Carol Duizi, president; Jo Ann Lear, vice-president; Carolyn Marvin, secretary; Elaine McGraw Campbell, treasurer; and Margery Clark, publicity chairman.

Other charter members include Evelyn Wells, Polly Easterwood, Anna Carter, Major Wood, Corie Bass, Ernesto Craft, Jeanette House, Nelta Jean Thorne, Barbara Shirley, and Mary Hammett.

Dr. C. R. Wood, college dean, deserves much of the credit for the founding of the Jacksonville chapter of the national honor society.

Today's CHESTERFIELD is the Best Cigarette Ever Made!

"Chesterfields for Me!"
Jo Ann Johnson Unv. of Nebraska '55
The cigarette that gives you proof of highest quality — low nicotine... the taste you want — the mildness you want.

"Chesterfield's for Me!"
"Thirty years' scientific research goes into this cigarette. I've seen Chesterfield's research laboratories and I've seen how they're made! I wouldn't smoke any other cigarette but Chesterfield!"
