Fashion Show At JSC Dec. 9

The holiday motif will be featured in the fashion show to be presented by the home economics department of the college on Wednesday evening, Dec. 9, at 7:30 o'clock in the Leonce Cole Auditorium.

Members of the freshman clothing classes will model dresses, suits coats and other wearing apparel they have made during this semester under the direction of Miss Eleanor Kelley.

Miss Margaret Young of Anniston will be narrator. Miss Young has served in this capacity in Anniston fashion shows and is considered expert in the field. She will be introduced by Dr. Houston Cole, Waves Roberts, president of the Leonce Cole Home Economics Club will predicate.

Another feature of the program will be the musical section by Errol Tahasky, a student from Hull, Mass., who is a talented accordionist. He will play between scenes I and II of the show. Other music will be under the direction of Dr. Robert Cantrick, head of the fine arts division.

Immediately after the show, a reception will be given at the home management house for parents and friends of the students. Hostesses will be Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey, head of the home economics department; Mrs. S. B. Matthews, Mrs. John Green and Miss Kelley.

WORLD FAMOUS
TH E GLENN MILLER
ORCHESTRA
under the direction of
RAY MCKINLEY

PLAYING THE
GLENN MILLER
TRADITION
WITH THE AUTHENTIC
MILLER ARRANGEMENTS
RCA VICTOR RECORDS

Music: Ray McKinley—

Tonight’s The Night; Big Christmas Dance; Come

By Wallace Johnson

When one thinks of music he automatically thinks of Jacksonville State College and its high-rated music department. Well, tonight Jacksonville State will feature something else which will boost its well-known music name. Of course we mean the presentation of the Glenn Miller Orchestra under the direction of Ray McKinley. For the first time this season Jacksonville is honored to have a big-name band on the campus.

The Christmas dance sponsored by the Junior-Freshman Class every year will reach its highlight tonight when the world-famous band is featured. The 17-piece band will be playing songs of the numbers that made Glenn Miller famous. Selections such as "In the Mood," "String of Pearls" and many, many more will be played for your enjoyment tonight in the college gym.

"Winter Wonderland" has been selected by the decoration committee as the theme. Joe Gregory, freshman from Bar-} mingham, stated that everyone has been working very hard to make the theme the best in the history of the Junior-Freshman Dance here at Jacksonville.

These dances not only are attended by people from Jacksonville. People from Huntsville to Mobile, from Metaphis to Atlanta attend these dances annually. You know if people will drive this far to a dance that it must be good. This is really a chance in a lifetime to hear one of America's top orchestras.

People usually have to go to the Sand in Las Vegas, the Town and Country in Chicago, or to other major night clubs throughout the United States to hear such an orchestra.

The leadout is always a feature of the Christmas dance and this year's dance will be no exception. Ward Burt, freshman from Oxford, is in charge of the leadout and he has stated that it is going to be a very good one.

Another good feature about the dance is where it will be held. The college gym offers (Continued on page 4)

JACKSONVILLE STATE F. GINES' GLEE CLUB

Christmas Music To Be Rendered By JSC Choir

The Jacksonville State College choir will present a vespers program of Christmas music on three occasions before the holidays beginning on Dec. 18. It has been announced by Dr. Charles F. Lehman, the director.

The first appearance will be at the Furt McCallan WAC auditorium on Friday, Dec. 11, at 7:30 p.m. The second will be on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 13, at 4 o'clock in the Leonce Cole Auditorium for the public. The final presentation will be for the students on Thursday morning, Dec. 17, at 9 a.m., in the Leonce Cole Auditorium.

The program will be as follows:

Processional: "O Come All Ye Faithful!" Cantus Diverali.
THE ADORATION: "We Three Kings", arr. by John J. Knox, James Bentley, Childersburg, Bruce Thorrill, Pisgah, and glee club; Scripture: Matthew II:11-12; "Ceremony of Carlina", Britten, women's choir.
"Ceremony of Carlina" will include: Procession, W o l c e m Yole, There Is No Rose, This Yngae Child, Rainbow, Little Baby, Spring Carol, Deco Gracie. Recessional: from "The Ceremon} mony of Carlina"

Members of the college chorus are as follows:

Mary Butler, Trussville; Jimmie Cornell, Holly Pond; Mary Maud Clark, Gail Maze, Patricia Garnett, Romona Love, Jackson-ville; Loretta Gilbert, Hene gar; Nancy Hagan, Barbara Homes, Tena Dean Harris, Nancy Kimberly, Anniston; L. I. I. a.sn Howiet, Sandra Parris, Janice Williams, Rustoke.

Joan Hudson, Jasper; Bar-

(Continued on page 5)

NOTICE!

The Manse and Wig will hold a meeting in room 317, Bibb Graves, on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at four o'clock. Plans for immediate and future projects will be discussed, officers elected, and suggestions entertained for activities both in the group, and for public presentation, in the spring semester. William O'Sullivan, faculty director of the organization, is optimistic for a good season ahead with the excellent dramatic material he has observed in the JSC student body.
EDITORIALS—Serious And Essential

Some very complimentary things were said about the Collegian in the last issue's "daring" feature (Friday). This week's progress in quality is indeed our most important goal.

What the Collegian would like to have in "Letters to the Editor" and elsewhere is information which will help make the student's deepest secrets, something serious and essential. We want to know the lapse on the American campus, the opinions of the college student concerning the religious, social and political philosophies of the day. We want to know their reactions to the hotly and existentialist face of Greenwich Village and California's Beacon Street. We want to know whether they are stirred by the events in South Africa, Hungary, France, China and Little Rock. We want to know what they think of the cold war, the armament and missile races and Rumsfeld's visit to the U.S. We want to know what they think, what they read, what they feel, what are their philosophies of life or, if they have none, why? What we are looking for is something more than the daily college student understandable to those generations before him who were raised upon beliefs of self-confidence and hope or, at least, of courage. Even more important is looking for the present-day student's understanding of himself in world.

With this information the Collegian can become more essential to the Jacksonville State College.

—Ray B. Simpkins

Letters To The Editor

Fay B. Simpleks
Editor of COLLEGIAN
Jacksonville State College
Jacksonville, Alabama

Dear Mr. Simpleks,

I should like to express my appreciation to President Garner and the Student Government Association for doing such a splendid job this year. We feel that things have been well planned and a big success.

I feel that each work deserves a lot of praise and that we all should be grateful for such hard working SGA.

Yours truly,
A Student

Dear Ray:

I would like to take this time to write you about our good work as editor of THE COLLEGIAN. The girls in the editorial advisory committee have had a ball. We all have enjoyed meeting and getting to know each other. I believe that the Collegian has been highly rated for the past year and that the things we have done have made a lot of difference.

Yours truly,
A Student

C.P. Orientation Report Continued

Part II—By Joe Dukett

Continued from page 1.

In the final installment of this series next week, we will focus on the physical aspects of the C.P. experience. What it means to be a member of the C.P. and what the future holds for the members of the C.P. who are entering their senior year. We will also look at the various activities that take place throughout the year, both on and off campus.

Wonder, the dog, will also make an appearance in this installment. She is the official mascot of the C.P. and is known to all members of the C.P. as the "Directing dog." She is a mix of various breeds and is very active and energetic. She loves to play and is very friendly to all who approach her. She is also very good at helping with various tasks around the C.P. such as fetching, bringing in mail, and so on.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Dukett
60 New Members In Phi Beta Club

Jacksonville's Phi Beta Lambda Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America boasts an increase of 60 new members as a result of a week of recruitment held just before Thanksgiving.

During recruitment week business students were given an opportunity to see a display of awards and various type of information concerning the objectives of FBLA, and an opportunity to become affiliated with the local chapter. Various members were posted at the浮LA table every hour during the week to receive membership applications. Officers of Phi Beta Lambda are Gene Stidley, president; Charles Robertson, 1st vice-president; Gene Smith, 2nd vice-president; Darlyce Nogas, secretary; Mary Jo Sarnig, treasurer; and Joan Lasseter, reporter.

Meetings are held regularly every second Wednesday at 7 p.m., and evening meetings from time to time.

One of the most outstanding contributions of the local chapter is music through its student chorus. Various members were posted at the浮LA table every hour during the week to receive membership applications.

The regular meeting of the SGA was at 6:30, Dec. 3, 1959. Joe Garner thanked Dos McMillian, secretary of the "A" Day, and all the SGA members for helping make "A" Day such a big success.

There was much discussion as to ways of improving this big event in the future. Either a trophy or plaque will be bought and given to Pensacola for winning the girls' football game. Every year the same trophy or plaque will be handed over to the team which wins the girls' football game. Good luck girls!

One of the most outstanding contributors of the local chapter is music through its student chorus. Various members were posted at the浮LA table every hour during the week to receive membership applications.

MISSION CAFE (Continued from page 11)

Miss Branscomb, head of the business education department, attended the annual convention of the Southern Business Education Association held at the famous Cavalier Hotel, Virginia Beach, Va., during the Christmas holidays.

Miss Branscomb assisted in the overall planning of the convention program and participated as a speaker in one of its sectional meetings. The theme of the convention was "Widening Horizons in Business Education." Also attending at the Cavalier Hotel, at the same time of the SHEA gathering, was a group of foreign naval officers representing a number of foreign countries who were attending an international conference at the Naval Air Station. Included among the guests were the Vice-Admiral of the Normanna-Chinese Fleet; the Chinese General in command of the Nationalist Marine Forces; the Chief of Staff of the Pakistan Navy; the Chief Medical Officer of the Netherlands Navy; also its Director of Misses; from Italy and from England.

Also present were the Admiral who is second in command of NATO; the Rear Admiral also present were:

Miss Branscomb was invited to represent the Southern Association, as a gesture of good will, at a dinner given in honor of these foreign naval officers by Admiral William Ramsey, Commander of the Naval Air Station. Included among the guests were the Vice-Admiral of the Formossa-Chinese Fleet; the Chinese General in command of the Nationalist Marine Forces; the Chief of Staff of the Pakistan Navy; the Chief Medical Officer of the Netherlands Navy; also its Director of Misses; from Italy and from England.

Also present were:

- A One - Act Play:
  - "A Good Man Nowadays Is Hard To Find"
  - And other Specialties

Emceed By The Famous "Gable And Hayes" Team

STUDENTS!!
You are Invited
To A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION and
VARIETY SHOW
Wednesday, December 9
At 7:30 P.M.
Antioch High School Auditorium

The 18th Anniversary Of Civil Air Patrol Joint Celebration

By The Jacksonville And Antioch Squadrions
(Planned And Produced By Its Members)

FREE

"Don't Miss The Capering Cadets"

"Marching Ballerinas"

A One - Act Play—
"A Good Man Nowadays Is Hard To Find"
And other Specialties

Emceed By The Famous "Gable And Hayes" Team
Jim Glasgow Drafted By Detroit Lions Professionals

Jim Glasgow, 1958-59 Jacksonville State Gamecock captain and outstanding tackle, was drafted in the thirteenth round by the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

Jim, a 6'6", 260-pound senior from Birmingham, has earned three Alma Mater tags at Jacksonville. It can certainly be said that Big Jim has been a real big factor in the success that the Gamecocks have achieved in the past three football seasons.

Last season, Jim was selected as the "Most Valuable Lineman" and Tampa University named him unanimously to their All-Opponent squad.

Jim hasn't signed the contract but a conference with Jim and representatives of the Lions is set for next week to settle the deal.

Jim was among the very few players from small colleges drafted by the football teams. However, there are many stars players in the NFL from small colleges. Probably the best known to us is Harlon Hill of the Chicago Bears who played his college ball at Florence State.

Other players from the south drafted by the pro's were Billy Cannon, LSU halfback; Los Angeles; John Robinson, LSU back; Detroit and Tom Moore, Vanderbilt back, Green Bay; were first round draftees.

In the second round Detroit choose Warren Rabb, LSU back; Philadelphia; John Hamilton, FU center; and Baltimore selected Mississippi guard Marvin Terrell.

In the third round, Los Angeles got Charlie Britt, Georgia, back; Chicago Cardinals, Hugh McInnis, Miss. Southern, end; and Charles Elzy, Miss. Southern, center.

In the seventh, Cleveland got Tax Anderson, Georgia Tech, back. In the eighth, San Francisco got Max Figler, LSU center; in the ninth, St. Francis got Bobby Wasing, Auburn, end, and in the tenth they drafted Mel Branch, LSU end.

S P O R T  S H O R T S

By Bob Hayes

Basketball Gets Underway; Two JSC Athletes Considering Wrestling?

With the sheer delight one receives from dropping an anti on his toe, Tom Robinson, head basketball coach of Jacksonville State's Gamecocks, sends his warriors into action tomorrow night (Tuesday) in their second home game of the season against Howard. Tipoff time has been slated for 7:30.

The "delight" of the evening rests in the fact that the Gamecocks will go into the Tuesday night scrap without previous practice. Georgia State of Atlanta was here Saturday night no practice was slated for the Sabbath nor today. Decorations and decorators filled the gymnasium early this a.m., in final preparation for tonight's gig, Jacksonville State and Howard.

At the present time, the Bulldogs and the Men for the American league lead with 4-0 records.

The Governor, Woody Hamilton, has massed together an famous campus athletic celebrities have decided to become professional wrestlers. Lots of luck, Eura Cummings and Letty Bolinger. . . . His usually sunny smile was hanging down like a firm pocket as he left the room that Sunday afternoon. Auburn has been shot down by underdog Alabama; and Gamecock halfback Ray Gentles was a typical War Eagle . . . disappointed. Gentles, of Scottsboro, played freshman ball at the state's newest university. . . . Word from basketball practice: Sir Jackie Dawks. D. Hodges III has really been wheeling and dealing on the court. He's really gifted and bears a lot of attention this season . . . Jack Gauldin asked that we mention his name, so JACK GAULDIN . . . Busy, busy work never ends for a football coach. Dr. Donald J. Salls, chief of JSC's football staff, is constantly in demand as an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe. Not flattery, but facts—Coach Salls used to think I'd enjoy being an after dinner speaker and catching him in his office is almost as difficult as a fat one seeing his toe.