Learned From The Chimes
By Norman Alexander
This semester brings the resurrection of the COLLEGIAN's regular feature, The Chimes. Attend to the following.

The date for selling period of the current book is being determined. Everyone was seemingly content to have his name on the ballot sheet—no complaints, blankets, interesting, stupid reform ideas, or Kool-Aide parties. What happened?

Intramural football is just getting started. It won't be the same without Peanut Sherrill's Dudes. Maybe, on the other hand, some of the previous players will have a chance now.

Innovations are apparent this fall: girls moving into Panzer boys moving into Abernathy. I recommended practically the same thing last fall but couldn't seem to get the administration to see the light. The move they made wasn't exactly what I had in mind. But I'm forced to admit they've given me a chance.

Chet-Ems about the same this annum, same bevy of freshman girls hanging around to get the latest hot scoop on college life. The cop and the cowboys and the switchboard operators and the other boys hanging around to show 'em the way. Wade Smith's found a new favorite. I wonder if it doesn't know what her name is. Says she admires cheerleaders and basketball teams—that ought to get Wade, one way or the other.

This seems to be more of the same or less permanent attractions that's still around—and still attracting. There aren't been nothing like that since Balsam's mule talked back. Waist-pinch er and all.

Heard someone talking not so long ago about a student "teacher evaluation". That is a thing of the future, but something that is constantly on its way. This is a move which will certainly tend to clear out the deadwood and fan-tick-heart. Will it get you?

Another group talks and firmly yes, shoot yourself—you silly wop. I know a girl that can type ten words a minute. That's right' six or more times per minute, sans errors. You ain't so lucky. Neither is that (Continued on page 3)

NOTICE
There will be a Collegian staff meeting at 5 p.m., Monday, in the Collegian office, first floor of Bibb Graves Hall.

All those interested in joining the staff please be present.

Mimosa Price Increased
On Thursday, Sept. 17, a call meeting was held in Bibb Graves which was attended by the advisors to the S.G.A. and the Mimosa, the editor and business manager of the Mimosa, and the executive officers of the Student Government Association.

At this meeting it was pointed out that due to increased photographic and printing costs that this year's annual would incur a $100.00 loss if a suitable solution were not found. After considering all points in the matter, the motion was made that the price of the yearbook, which had not risen in proportion to advancing printing costs, be raised $2.00 above the price of previous years. By making this move, the plans that had been made for the 1960 Mimosa could be carried out, and any profit which might be made could be used to pay off the debt left by the 1959 Mimosa or could be used to increase the size of the present book.

After the motion was made to increase the selling price of the annual, it was seconded, and the S. G. A. voted unanimously to accept the price change as the only feasible solution. The date for selling period of one week in October will be announced in the next issue. During this week all payments for the annual will be due, and must be made. The total price for the yearbook, regardless of C.A.P. Miss Hornbecker's attendants during the Homecoming activities will be Miss Sue Merrill, left, and Miss Linda Youngblood, right.

Mimosa Title Sought
A contest is being conducted at the present time for Miss Mimosa, who will be featured in 1960 Mimosa. All organizations, dorms, and clubs are encouraged to enter a girl in this competition. Entry blanks will be sent to each organization, and the blank and a picture of the girl (which will be returned) must be submitted to Dean Montgomery's office not later than Oct. 5.

The pictures of all the contestants will be sent to a nationally known celebrity for judging and there will be a first, second, and third place winner. Miss Mimosa will be presented a trophy in a special assembly when the annuals are returned from the printer in May.

There will be a $10.00 entry fee for each contestant. In addition to the other honors, Miss Mimosa will be featured in full color in the beauty section.

Classes Elect New Officials
Class officers were elected Tuesday, Sept. 21, eliminating a week-long campaign by students seeking election.

This year's freshman class officer campaign was marked by enthusiasm and interest that was lacking in the other class elections. There were 26 candidates for office, and in a close election the results were determined in a runoff on Wednesday. Students elected were as follows:

Notice
From Dean Montgomery: Anyone tampering with bedrolls or posters in Bibb Graves or other J. S. C. buildings will be subject to immediate expulsion.

Gala Homecoming Scheduled Here October 3rd
Gov. Patterson others invited

"Spirit of '60" has been chosen as the theme of the 1960 Jacksonville Homecoming. Based on this colorful theme, plans have been made for a week of festivity prior to Homecoming which is Oct. 3.

Same rather important guests have been invited to the JSC Homecoming. Governor John Patterson has been invited, and it is fitting that he should be invited and that he should attend. His father, Albert Patterson, an alumnus, was one of the loyal members of the alumni, and seldom failed to be present on Homecoming. The Governor has expressed a desire to come and will, if possible.

State Superintendent of Education Frank Stewart has already announced publicly that he will be here. Mr. Stewart has made his alma mater proud of him on numerous occasions. But his recent success with the Legislature in helping Governor Patterson and other friends of education has given him added prestige.

The Jacksonville Gamecocks will play the strong East Tennessee College team from Johnson City, Tenn., and strong competition is expected. Johnson City has a population of 26,000 and the college has an enrollment of 4,000 with both the undergraduate and graduate programs. They have 10 coaches, the stadium, 8,000 seating capacity, and they offer 10 football scholarships. This game on Oct. 3 should be interesting.

Notice
The Veterans Affairs Office has been moved from the business office to the Student Personnel Office across the hall.

Veterans will please keep this in mind when going to sign pay roll checks, etc.
SGA Has First Business Meet

The first meeting of the SGA was held in the auditorium Sept. 22. After the president, Joe Garner, briefed the group, a lengthy discussion of the planning for the autumn homecoming festivities was heard.

The theme for homecoming this year is "Miss Alabama" and steps are being taken to crown her as the official "Homecoming Queen." This event, like the long chow line, will be funnier this year. It is said that the university has purchased new trays and bowls to help out the students as they wait in line.

Bobby Henderson, Welsey Taylor, Eugene Morrison, and John Knox have been selected as "Miss Alabama" candidates. They will be named Tuesday night at 7:30 in the auditorium.

Local Music Organizations Perform Varied Activities

By Mary Ann Waldrop

The Southerners march again! This event, like the long chow line, the pep rallies, and the football games, announces that a new fall term has begun at Jacksonville State College.

This group is one of the most forward-looking, modern bands in the state. Actually, it is composed of five units—the Southerners, the Marching Band, the twirlers, the color guard and the set of golden flags. The golden flags have been added this season to accompany the Marching Band.

Winning is done to a company-front style show—an all-sing performance in contrast to the "picture drawing" style consisted of many large college and university bands. A close observer can detect minor characteristics that enhance the style. For example, there is the high lonesome and the distinctive step off, the left foot is lifted up to the right foot and the right leading the first real avant garde step.

There is a new advanced character, too. The typical song themes have been changed to a more modern tone quality.

The men behind the group are Mr. John Finney, director, and Mr. John Knox, associate director. Mr. Finney has been at Jacksonville for two years and has worked with the band for the last three years. Under his leadership, new uniforms replaced the old red ones, the official names "Southerners," and Marching Band were adopted as the permanent theme "Stars Fell on Alabama," the Dixie Fantar, and the proud band drill marching style.

Mr. Knox has been here one year. He is responsible for many of the original tunes and special move arrangements used by the band. One appearing this Fall is "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." The "Lily Love" Pat Garnett, Jim Bennett, Pat McWade, and the rest of the band are ready to march.

This spirited and enthusiastic group does represent the end of the football season. Concert season will begin. Unfortunately on one of the handicaps of the "Southerners" is the lack of space to practice together indoors. The large room at the music building will be crowded because it can contain the seventy or so musicians and allow them to play simultaneously. They are working for a fuller concert season, however.

ever, with more opportunities to appear before the public. An entire month has been appropriated to appear before a television audience.

Many people learn of Jacksonville State College for the first time through the "Southerners." And they couldn't learn in a better way. Students in the field of music and practically every other field are attracted to the college by the renown of the Southerners.

Students who are spreading the fame of Jacksonville State College this year are: Robert Tinsley, drum major; Fran Chandler, Jerry Hill, tenor; and Michael Bockhaus, baritone.

Ballineras—Francis M olan, Charlotte Sewell, Eleanor Box, Lori West, Joanne Brook, Cynthia Moskey, Virginia Yevich, Carolyn Hamilton, Jimmie Lee Wright, Doris Griffin, Miriam Pate, Julia Phillips, and Nancy Kimberly.

Colones—Jesse Brown, John Danger, Joseph Giulliani, Tony Martin, and John Jones.

Trumpets—Bill Lacroix, With Eyre, Gordon, Howard, Bryant, Henry McCo1lum, Charls Monroe, Ken Mitchell, Tad Spencer, and Tony Traylor.

Baritones—Ronnie Perkins, and Bill Vessy.

Conductors—John Finley and John Knox.

We Can Do Better

A noticeable habit has developed among the students at J. S. C. who eat in the dining hall. For no apparent reason, this semester has been a period of a littered campus particularly around Hammond Hall. Our students seem to take delight in eating ice cream out-doors after dinner and consequently covering the grounds with ice cream papers and other types of trash.

To correct this situation, trash cans have been ordered which will be placed outside of the cafeteria and it is desirable that we at Jacksonville make an effort to put our papers in the cans, and not on the grounds.

Mrs. Houston, the cook, has sincerely commended the students for their good behavior in the cafeteria. Let's see if we can behave as well when we leave the building. We want our visitors to remember J. S. C. as the school with the beautiful campus, not the littered one.

In this same vein, it is thought that the climb a line is not the best place to hold out notices. They also, always manage to land on the grounds.

YOUNG PIANIST APPEARS HERE

The first concert of the season was offered in the Leone Colle Auditorium on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock under the sponsorship of the music department of the college. Dr. Robert Cottrell, new chairman of the fine arts division, made arrangements for a promising teen-age pianist, Virginia Rubottom of San Diego, Calif., to appear here while on a visit to Birmingham.

The young artist was a professional member of the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra during the 1957-58 season. During that period she was featured in a piano recital and so impressed her audience that she was invited to return this fall and on Sept. 13 repeated the program. She is an accomplished cellist, as well as pianist, and played cello with the San Diego Symphony Orchestra, Civic Youth Symphony and the San Diego Youth Symphony.

Her program included Piano No. 2 in G Minor (Bach), Valse nobles et sentimentales (Ravel) and Sonata No. 3 in A Minor, Op. 28 (Prokofiev).

SOUTHERN BEAUTY—South America beauty, that is. Claud in colorful costume, is this week's "Gem of the Hills," Estalla Ferrarone. A member of the International House Program, this senior is from Pont. Her face is a little familiar as she is the sister of Aida Ferrarone who was graduated last year from BMU. Estalla makes a pretty picture in American dress also.

VOCATIONAL, APTITUDE TESTS AVAILABLE AT DEAN'S OFFICE

Vocational tests, which would cost you $40.00 at a regular testing center, are available to all J. S. C. students free of charge. These tests are administered in the office of Dean Willman, the Dean of Students, Room 201, Bibb Graves Hall.

The vocational and aptitude tests are given to the student at time suitable to the student and are administered by the dean's secretaries.

The tests available for the student fall into several categories. The Ruder Preference test takes about an hour, and it tells the students his likes and dislikes in vocations. Following the Ruder test several aptitude tests are given to the student.

The different aptitude tests include Language, Abstract Reasoning, Mechanical Reasoning, Space Relations, Verbal Reasoning, Numerical Ability, and Clerical Speed and Accuracy. The Clerical test takes six minutes, and the other D.A.T. tests take from twenty-five to thirty-five minutes each.

The personality test (Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory or MMPI) is a test that is given on request. It does not show any deep secrets, as it is supposed, but instead gives the student an idea of the weak points.

PHI MU BELA ELECTS OFFICERS

The meeting of the Phi Mu Beta Science on Sept. 27 resulted in the election of the following students to offices: president, Bruce Trumbull; vice-president, Ann Aldrup; secretary, Dianne Parnell; treasurer, Barbara Lowe; and vice-president, Ann Waldrep.

There's an entirely new resource of instructors around this term—quite a few of the familiar faces are gone. Some left, and others have come handily as last year. This may be indicative of a strong winning season.

PETE SAYS...
Jaxmen Meet E. Tennessee As Homecoming Opponent

Moving on into mid-season, the Jacksonville Gamecocks prepare for their annual homecoming game. The focus this time is on the Gamecocks' 5th '59 season is East Tennessee State from Johnson City, Tenn.

East Tennessee completed its first year in the Ohio Valley Conference last season, and made quite an impressive showing. The Buccaneers from Johnson City finished in third place of the eight-game conference. Middle Tennessee, Jax State's last opponent, won the conference crown.

East Tennessee is picked as the team to watch in the Ohio Valley conference this season. The hungry Buccaneers just missed carrying off the crown last season. The Bucs will be ready to go again with Doug Moore in charge. Jim Cameron, Ron Quinn and a host of returning top notches. The Bucs lost only four seniors from last season's squad.

East Tennessee had a 5-4-0 record in '58, scoring 191 points to their opponent's 193. ETSC lost to Austin Peay, 25-13, and also lost to Middle Tennessee, 27-20. Looking at those scores on what might call a comparative basis, Jax State defeated Austin Peay, 84, and the Gamecocks lost to Middle Tennessee, 18-14. Accordingly, it looks like Jacksonville by 7.

This will be the first homecoming game for Jax State seniors. Ted Bouter, Jim Glasgow, Grover Whaley, Stan Banner, E. G. Taylor, Bill Nichols, Jimmy Mayben, Harold Shankles, Charles Clark, Woody Hamilton, and Ray Palmer.

In the 1957 homecoming, the Gamecocks romped over Maryville College, 28-6, and last season homecoming battle saw the Gamecocks defeat Troy State, 26-7.

SPOUT SHORTS

By Hal Hayes

Lovely Miss Iva Jo Hornbuckle will reign supreme over the glorious atmosphere of homecoming in Jacksonville, 1959 style. Saturday night, Oct. 9th, is the big day. The jamboree will be held out on the Piggie back road, Piggie Road State. Kickoff time is set for 7:30.

Gay festivities have been planned for the entire homecoming weekend, with all students expected to turn out to make their school event look like a college football game. So everyone is making plans to stay here through the entire weekend and partake of the fun and excitement.

But the zenith of the weekend's event will be when the great JSC football team, known as "Southerners" center their entire program around the crowning of Miss Hornbuckle as "Homecoming Queen". At that time her court will also be honored.

Members of the queen's court will be Misses Linda Youngblood and Sue Merritt.

Student assistant basketball coach Ronald "Crip-Blind" Cope of East Tennessee has informed the COLLEGIAN sports department that tryouts for the freshman cage squad will begin today.

According to Coach Copeland—one of the Gamecocks top defensive men of a season ago—the opening drill will be held in the College Gym at 3 p.m. today.

A large turnout is expected by the high-spirited young men and all hopefuls are invited to be among the gang. Coach Copeland insists that both be prompt and ready at three bells. Go... go... go... Cripmen!

POWERFUL AND ANNOYING are the Gamecock captains shown running off the practices field. Preparing to defeat East Tennessee, Jackson B Lump is on the left, Taylor, Glasgow and Nichols.

Intramural League Opens New Season

The 1959 Jacksonville State Intramural League opens the new season this afternoon under-the-umbrella Thursday, Sept. 28, with the Governors' Colts defeating the U.S. Marine's Buccaneers 8 to 4.

After witnessing the Col-Bobcat game, it is almost certain that the Saturday afternoon game will be a close, down to the wire, intramural classic. The prospects for each team look good and each team will be pretty evenly matched. The five teams which make up the league are: the Governor's Colts, coached by the Governor himself, Woody Hamilton; Bob Taylor's Bobcats; the Vikings, coached by Tom Bouter; the Roosters, managed by Buck Hays; and the Midgets. The management of the league this year will be a close-named, Mr. Mike King, Aside Mr. King, there are no extra annuals of any type are been customary in the past. Any name left out is purely unintentional.

\[\text{and strong points in his personality. This test talks about one hour.}\]

Occasionally, students are given one of two L.Q. tests on the file. The most important, the WAIS, is given to the student only by Dean Willman or his trained assistant. The other I.Q. tests, the Primary Mental Ability tests, is administered by one of the secretaries. The WAIS takes approximately two hours, and the PMA takes about an hour.

All the test results are interpreted by Dean Willman for the student. Needless to say, all test results of any type are kept strictly confidential.

I didn't go to college because I was poor—poor in English, math and history.

Jacksonville State Rode the bullish, two-touchdown rushing of fullback Wayne Knox to top Louisiana College 23-7 here on Sept. 12. The win thus initiated the Gamecocks to taste of sweet victory on their first attempt of '59.

The visitors from the Bayou country denied the scoring column first in the night's action, but then Mr. Gamecock's lad shoved down on their throats.

Tommy Whitehead, Wildcats' ace back, pierced the Jax State defense in the third and fourth periods for the night in the second period. Joe Powell then proceeded to place his attack under fire through the upright for a 7-6 "Cat lead.

But then the Gamecocks dished General MacArthur's "I Shall Return" by sending All-American halfback Bill Nichols through for 20 yards. Harold Shankles then flipped their two-point scoring pass to Nichols and the Gamecocks were in business for the night with an 8-7 lead.

Keasby, senior fullback from Talladega, completed the night's scoring in the third and fourth period with scoring thumps of 2 and 6 yards. Ron Ellis booted one of the two extra point attempts to end the night's scoring, 27-7.

Chattanooga - Sept. 12 — The powerful University of Chattanooga Moccasins defeated the hard-hitting Jacksonville State College Gamecocks by a 19-5 margin here last night.

Scappy Moore's charges scored their first tally with only 58 second left to play in the first half. A pass interference call gave the Moccasins a first down on the Jax XI. Two plays later, on the fullback draw play Terry Henry went up the middle for the score.

Dan Sheehan booted the extra point to put Chattanooga ahead, 7-0, at half-time.

Midways in the third period the Moccasins drove 51 yards for their second score. Gordon Danwell scooted around left end from four yards out to climax the drive. Sheehan's kick was no good.

Late in the final period the Moccasins went sixty yards for their final tally after recovering a Harold Shankles fumble. Five running plays and a fit-teen-yard penalty set the stage for Henley's two-point attempt to end the two-yard plunge. The PAT attempt was no good.

Chattanooga led in first downs for the night to five. They also outreached the Gamecocks 219 to 97.
