Gala Homecoming Scheduled Here October 3rd

Learned From The Chimes

By Norman Alexander

This semester brings the restitution of the COLLEGIAN'S regular feature — Alexander's Trapshoot, containing various assorted sarcasms, spiced with innate particles of truth, subtle and not so subtle, which can be detected only by the keen of mind and sharp of eye.

This year's class elections made no big splash; everyone was seemingly content to have his name on the ballot sheet—no commericals, platform promises, stupid reform ideas, or Kool-Ade parties. What happened?

Intramural football is just getting started. It won't be the same without Peanut Sherrill's Duces. Maybe, on the other hand, some of us peasants will have a chance now.

Innovations are apparent this fall: girls moving into Pannell, boys moving into Abercrombie. I recommended practically the same thing last fall but couldn't seem to get the administration to see the light. The move they made wasn't exactly what I had in mind, I'm forced to say.

Chat-Em's about the same this annum, same bevy of freshman girls hanging around to get the latest hot scoop on college living—same old crowd of upperclass boys hanging around to show 'em the way. Wade Smith's found a sub for "Cool Wind"—don't know what her name is. Says she admires cheerleaders and fatheads—that ought to get Wade, one way or the other.

Betty Rose is one of the more or less permanent attractions that's still around—and still attracting. There ain't been nothing like that since Balaam's mule talked back. Waist-pincher and all.

Heard someone talking not so long ago about a student "teacher evaluation". That is a thing of the future, but something which is definitely on its way. This is a move which will certainly tend to clear out the dead-wood and faint-of-heart. Will it get you?

Amaze your friends and family yes, shoot yourself—you silly wop. I know a girl that can type. "I like a fight that is right" six or more times per minute, sans errors. You ain't so hot, Judy. Neither is that (Continued on page 3)

NOTICE

There will be a Collegian staff meeting Thursday at 4 p. m. in the Collegian office, first floor of Bibb Graves Hall.

All those who wish to join the staff please be present.

HOMECOMING QUEEN—Lovely Iva Jo Hornbuckle, center, was elected by the student body at J. S. C. last Tuesday to serve as Homecoming Queen during the festivities of October 3. Miss Hornbuckle, a senior at Jacksonville, was the candidate from Pannell Hall. The Brown-eyed, brown-haired beauty attended Etowah High School, and her home is in Collinsville. Business education is her major, and economics her minor. At J. S. C. she has participated in the F. B. L. A. and in the C. A. P. Miss Hornbuckle's attendants during the Homecoming activities will be Miss Sue Merrill, left, and Miss Linda Youngblood, right.

Mimosa Price Increased

On Thursday, Sept. 17, a call meeting was held in Bibb Graves which was attended by the advisors to the S.G.A. and the Mimosa, the editor and business manager of the Mimosa, and the executive officers of the Student Government Association.

At this meeting it was pointed out that due to increased photographic and printing costs that this year's annual would incur a $900.00 loss if a suitable solution were not found. After considering all points in the matter, the motion was made that the price of the yearbook, which had not risen in proportion to advancing printing costs, be raised $2.00 above the price of previous years. By making this move, the plans that had been made for the 1960 Mimosa could be carried out, and any profit which might be made could be used to pay off the debt left by the 1959 Mimosa or could be used to increase the size of the present book.

After the motion was made to increase the selling price of the annual, it was seconded, and the S. G. A. voted unanimously to accept the price change as the only feasible solution.

The date for selling period of one week in October will be announced in the next issue. During this week all payments for the annual will be due, and must be made. The total price for the yearbook, regardless of (Continued on page 4)

Classes Elect New Officials

Class officers were elected Tuesday, Sept. 21, climaxing a week-long campaign by students seeking election.

This year's freshman class officer campaign was marked by enthusiam and interest that was lacking in the other class elections. There were 25 candidates for office, and in a close election the results were determined in a run-off on Wednesday.

Students elected were as follows:

Senior Class—Charles Sweatt, Talladega, president; Waymon O'Neal, Cedartown, Ga., vice-president; Marie Brooks, Gadsden, treasurer; Mary Hubbard, Anniston, and Wanda Roberts, Auburn, SGA representatives; Clark Gable, Birmingham, social chairman. A secretary

Miss Mimosa Title Sought

A contest is being conducted at the present time for Miss Mimosa, who will be featured in 1960 Mimosa. All organizations, dorms, and clubs are encouraged to enter a girl in this competition. Entry blanks will be sent to each organization, and the blank and a picture of the girl (which will be returned) must be submitted to Dean Montgomery's office not later than Oct. 15.

The pictures of all the contestants will be sent to a nationally known celebrity for Judging and there will be a first, second and third place winner. Miss Mimosa will be presented a trophy in a special assembly when the annuals are returned from the publisher in May.

There will be a $1.00 entry fee for each contestant. In addition to the other honors, Miss Mimosa will be featured in full color in the beauty section.

NOTICE

From Dean Montgomery: Anyone tampering with bulletin boards or posters in Bibb Graves or other J. S. C. buildings will be subject to immediate expulsion.

Gov. Patterson, Others Invited

... invited to event

"Spirit of '76" has been chosen as the theme of the 1959 Jacksonville Homecoming. Based on this colorful theme, plans have been made for a week of festivity prior to Homecoming which is Oct. 3.

Some rather important guests have been invited to the JSC Homecoming. Governor John Patterson has been invited, and it is fitting that he should be invited and that he should attend. His father, Albert Patterson, an alumnus, was one of the loyal members of the alumni and seldom failed to be present on Homecoming. The Governor has expressed a desire to come and will, if possible.

State Superintendent of Education Frank Stewart has already announced publicly that he will be here. Mr. Stewart has made his alma mater proud of him on numerous occasions. But his recent success with the Legislature in helping Governor John Patterson and other friends of education has given him added prestige.

The Jacksonville Gamecocks will play the strong East Tennessee College team from Johnson City, Tenn., and strong competition is expected, Johnson City has a population of 28,000 and the college has an enrollment of 4,100 with both the undergraduate and graduate programs. They have 10 coaches, stadium with 8,000 seating capacity, and they offer 70 football scholarships. This game on Oct. 3 should be interesting.

NOTICE

The Veterans Affairs Office has been moved from the business office to the Student Personnel Office across the hall.

Veterans will please keep this in mind when going to sign payroll checks, etc.

Homecoming....'59

The 1959 Homecoming promises to be most successful, and the Collegian welcomes the alumni who can certainly be proud of the "bigger" JSC. Rumors were that enrollment would surely drop if the academic pressure were not decreased. Yet the contrary happened. According to the imformation released by Lawrence Miles, director of the Office of Admissions and registrar, the enrollment number reached the highest peak in history this fall.

Around 1900 students have registered for the day session and 500 for the evening session. This is the largest number to enroll for day classes. The dining room has to serve about 1,000 students per meal. The freshman class alone has 600 members. Indeed we can use the $1,961,000 which has been appropriated.

A total of 2400 students are now enrollment at JSC. Perhaps the tremendous 12% increase in enrollment indicates that Jacksonville will double in size before it reaches another plateau.

We Can Do Better

A noticeable habit has developed among the students at J. S. C. who eat in the dining hall. For no apparent reason, this semester has been a period of a littered campus particularly around Hammond Hall. Our students seem to take delight in eating ice cream out-of-doors after supper, and sonsequently covering the grounds with ice cream papers and other types of trash.

To correct this situation, trash cans have been ordered which will be placed outside the doors of the cafeteria, and it is desirable that we at Jacksonville make an effort to put our papers in the cans, and not on the grounds.

Mrs. Hudson, the dietitian, has sincerely commended the students for their good behavior in the cafeteria. Let's see if we can behave as well when we leave the building. We want our visitors to remember J. S. C. as the school with the beautiful campus, not

In this same vein, it is thought that the chow line is not the best place to hand out notices. They, also, always manage to land on the grounds.

Business Meet

The first meeting of the SGA was held Tuesday night, Sept. 22. After the president, Joe Garner, briefed the group, a lengthy discussion of the general outline for homecoming festivities was heard.

The theme for homecoming this year is "Spirit of 76-1883-1959", following last year's 75th anniversary. Suggestions were given for activities to be held the week preceding homecoming, such as square dances, tacky party and games, costume party, dance, etc.

Penalties to be given those freshmen who do not comply with the rules were discussed. It was suggested that girls not complying with the rules be required to ask boys to the tacky party, and for the offending freshmen to be auctioned off to work, or some penalty equally as unpopular, meaning the freshmen had really better be on the ball. Another suggestion was that it be compulsory for the entire freshman class to remain on campus for the homecoming week-end. It they fail to comply with this, they would be restricted the week after homecoming - both boys and

Gov. John Patterson, whose father graduated here, has been invited to attend homeoming testivities and Frank Stewart. State Superintendent of Education, also an alumnus, has already accepted the invitation to be present.

Now hold your hats, boys! It is hoped that "Miss Alabama" will come to take part in the ceremonies and will crown the JSC "Homecoming Queen". This has not been assured, however.

Bill Lazenby gave the treasurer's report showing that the SGA in $764.47 in the red.

It was announced that the Balfour ring salesman will be here on Cct. 1. Also that College Bowl will be dedicated at homecoming to the memory of the late Paul Snow. The State Board of Education at its last meeting named the football field the Paul Snow Memorial Stadium.

Members of the council were reminded by President Garner that preparations for homecoming will require great effort on the part of the students, and everybody is asked to cooperate to make it the biggest and best one ever held here.

Clay V. Brittain Gets Ph. D. Degree

Clay V. Brittain, '44, received his Ph.D. degree at the University of Chicago in the spring and has joined the faculty of Emory University in Atlanta. He is assistant professor of teacher education in the psychology department.

Dr. Brittain has been a member of the JSC faculty since 1948. During his days as a student be served as the first president of the Student Government Association. He was also a speaker in the annual debates between the Calhoun and Morgan literary societies which were popular events during that period.

NOTICE

The Balfour ring salesman will be on campus Oct. 1.

SGA Has First Local Music Organizations Perform Varied Activities

By Mary Ann Waldrep

The Southerners march again! This event, like the long chow line, the pep rallies, and the football games, announces that a new fall term has begun at Jacksonville State College.

This group is one of the most forward-looking, modern bands in the state. Actually, it is composed of five units-the Southerners, the Marching Ballerinas, the twirlers, the color guard and the set of guidon flags. The guidon flags have been added this season to accompany the front rank.

Marching is done to a company-front style show-an allprecision drill. This difficult precision style is in contrast to the "picture drawing" style used by many large college and university bands. A close observer can detect minor characteristics that enhance the style. For example, there is the high knee lift and the distinctive step off, the left foot put down beside the right foot and the right making the first real forward

There is a new advanced sound characteristic, too. The typical Sousa or concert style has been discarded in favor of a more modern tone quality.

The men behind the group are Mr. John Finley, director, and Mr. John Knox, associate director. Mr. Finley has been at Jacksonville for nine years, and has worked with the band the last three years. Under his leadership, new grey uniforms replaced the old red ones, the official names "Southerners" and "Marching Ballerinas" were adopted as were the permanent theme "Stars Fell on Alabama", the Dixie fanfare, and the precision drill marching style.

Mr. Knox has been here one year. He is responsible for many of the original tunes and special m-sic arrangements used by the band. One appearing this fall is "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."; another, "Little Liza Jane." More of his arrangements will appear in the future.

This spirited and enthusiastic group does not disintegrate at the end of the football season. Concert season follows. Unfortunately one of the handicaps of the "Southerners" is the lack of space to practice together indoors. The large room at the music building will barely contain the seventy-odd musicians and allow then to play simultaneously. They are working for a fuller concert season, however, with more opportunities to appear before the public. Another dream in chance to appear before a television audience.

Many people learn of Jacksonville State College for the first time through the "Southerners." And they couldn't learn in a nicer way. Students in the field of music and practically ever other field are attracted to the college by the renown of the "Southerners".

Students who are spreading the fame of Jacksonville through the Southerners this year are:

Robert Tinsley, drum major; Fran Chandler, Jerry Hill, twirlers.

Young Pianist Appears Here

The first concert of the season was offered in the Leone Cole Auditorium on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock under the sporsorship of the music department of the college. Dr. Robert Cantrick, new chairman of the fine arts division, made arrangements for a promising teen age pianist, Virginia Rubottom of San Diego, Calit., to appear here while on a visit to Birmingham.

The young artist was a professional member of the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra during the 1957-58 season. During that period she was presented in a piano recital and so charmed her audience that she was invited to return this fall and on Sept. 13 repeated the program. She is an accomplished cellist, as well as pianist, and played the cello with the San Diego Symphony Orchestra, Civic Youth Symphony and the San Diego Youth Symphony.

Her program included Partita No. 2 in C Minor (Bach), Variations and Fugue on a Theme of Handel (Brahms), Valse nobles et sentimentales (Ravel) and Sonata No. 3 in A Minor, Op 28 (Prokofiev).

The regular time for meetings was set for 6 p. m., on the first and third Wednesday of each month. # Jaxmen Meet E. Tennessee As Homecoming Opponent Moving on into mid season, the Jacksonville Gamecocks prepare for their annual homecoming game. The foe to battle the Gamecocks this '59 season is East Tennessee State from Johnson City, Tenn.

East Tennessee completed its first year in the Ohio Valley Conference last season, and made quite an impressive showing. The Buccaneers from Johnson City finished in third place of the eight-team conference. Middle Tennessee, Jax State's last opponent, won the conference crown.

East Tennessee is picked as the team to watch in the Ohio Valley this season. The hungry Buccaneers just missed carrying off the crown last season. The Buccaneers will be ready to go again with Doug Nolen, Jim Krause, Don Cameron, Ron Quillen and a host of returning top notchers. The Bucs lost only four seniors from last season's squad.

East Tennessee had a 5-4-0 record in '58, scoring 133 points to their opponent's 120. ETSC lost to Austin Peay, 25-19, and also lost to Middle Tennessee, 27-20. Looking at these scores on what we might call a comparative basis, Jax State defeated Austin Peay, 8-6, and the Gamecocks lost to Middle Tennessee, 18-6. Accordingly, it look like Jacksonville by 7.

This will be the final homecoming game for Jax State seniors,

This will be the final homecoming game for Jax State seniors, Ted Boozer, Jim Glasgow, Grover Whaley, Stan Burger, E. G. Taylor, Bill Nichols, Jimmy Mayben, Harold Shankles, Charles Clark, Wayne Keahey and Roy Fulmer.

In the 1957 homecoming, the Gamecocks romped over Maryville College, 28-6, and last season homecoming battle saw the Gamecocks defeat Troy State, 20-7.

SPORT SHORTS

By Hal Hayes

Lovely Miss Iva Jo Hornbuckle will reign supreme over the glorious atmosphere of homecoming in Gamecockland, 1959 style, Saturday night, Oct. 3, as our Fighting Gamecocks take on rugged East Tennessee State. Kickoff time is set for 7:30.

Gay festivities have been planned for the entire homecoming week-end, with all students expected to turn out to back our heroic eleven. So let's everyone make plans to stay here throughout the entire week-end and partake of the fun and excitement.

But the zenith of the week's activity will be when the great JSC "Southerners" center their entire program around the crowning of Miss Hornebuckle as "Homecoming Queen". At that time her court will also be honored.

Members of the Queen's court will be Misses Linda Youngblood and Sue Merrill.

Student assistant basketball coach Ronald "Crip-Bird" Copeland III has informed the COLLEGIAN sports department that tryouts for the freshman cage squad will begin today.

According to Coach Copeland—one of the Gamecocks top defensive men of a season ago—the opening drill will be held in the College Gym at 3 o'clock .

A large turnout is anticipated by the high-spirited young mentor and all hopefuls are invited to be among the gang. Coach Copeland insists that everyone be prompt and ready at three bells.

Go . . . go . . . go . . . Cripsmen!

In compliance with requests of a few Gamecock footballers for us to put their names in the paper, here goes—Max Bass, Tom Maddux, E. G. Taylor, Duane Mitcham, Ed Neura, Roy Ennis, Roy Fulmer, Grover Whaley, Capt. Jim Glasgow, Mickey Grimmett and Jack Jackson.

Gamecocks Win One And Lose One In Gridiron Battles

Jacksonville State rode the bullish, two-touchdown rushing of fullback Wayne Keahey to stop Louisiana College 21-7 here on Sept. 12. The win thus initiated the Gamecocks to taste of sweet victory on their first attempt of '59.

The visitors from the Bayou country dented the scoring column first in the night's action but then Mr. Gamecocks' lads shoved defeat down their throats.

Tommy Whitecloud, Wildcats' ace back, pierced the Jax State defense for the first score of the night in the second period. Joe Powell then preceded to plant his attempted conversion through the upright for a 7-0 'Cat lead.

But then the Gamecocks dittoed General MacArthur's "I Shall Return" by sending All-American halfback Bill Nichols through the helpless Louisiana defenders from 9 yards out. Harold Shankles then flipped a two-point scoring pass to Nichols and the Gamecocks were in business for the night with an 8-7 lead.

Keahey, senior fullback from Talladega, completed the night's scoring in the third and fourth period with scoring thrusts of 2 and 6 yards. Ron Elkins booted one of the two extra point attempts to end the night's scoring, 21-7.

Chattanooga — Sept. 18—The powerful University of Chattanooga Moccasins defeated the hard-hitting Jacksonville State College Gamecocks by a 19-0 margin here last night.

Scrappy Moore's charges scored their first tally with only 55 second left to play in the first-half. A pass interference call gave the Moccasins a first-down on the Jax 31. Two plays later, on the fullback draw play, Terry Henley went up the middle for the score.

Dan Sheehan booted the extra point to put Chattanooga ahead, 7-0, at half-time.

Midways in the third period the Moccasins drove 53 yards for their second score. Gordon Darnell scooted around left end from four yards out to climax the drive. Sheehan's kick was no good.

Late in the final period the Moccasins went sixty yards for their final tally after recovering a Harold Shankles fumble. Five running plays and a fifteen-yard penalty set the stage for Henley's second score a two-yard plunge. The PAT attempt was no good.

Chattanooga led in first downs for the night 16 to five. They also outrushed the Gamecocks 219 to 97.

Intramural League Opens New Season

The 1959 Jacksonville State Intramural football program got underway Thursday, Sept. 24, with the Governors' Colts defeating Bob Taylor's Bobcats 6 to 0.

After witnessing the Colt-Bobcat game, it is almost certain that this is going to be a close, down to the wire, intramural league. The prospects for each team look good and each team will be pretty evenly matched. The five teams which make up the league are: the Governor's Colts, managed by the Governor himself, Woody Hamilton; Bob Taylor's Bobcats; the Vikings, managed by Gary Powell; the Rooster's, managed by Buck Hawkins; and the Midgets. The manager of the Midgets had not revealed himself at the time this paper went to press.

In Thursday's opener, the Colts and the Bobcats battled to a scoreless tie for three and one half quarters. The Colts gained possession of the ball on their 40-yard line with four minutes remaining. Colt tailback, Arlan Carter, began hitting his receivers, Ted Ford, Jimmy Austin, Richard Pike, Doug Davidson and Hank O'-Neal with short passes. With two minutes remaining, Carter hit Ted Ford in the end zone for the only score of the game.

Outstanding efforts were turned in by linemen Ted Ford, Doug Davidson, Robert "Bear" Brooks, Bobby Brown, and Big DeWitt Dodd for the Colts, along with backs, Carter, Wilkes, O'-Neal, Pike, and Austin.

The Bobcat's stars were Murdock, Savage, and Lee in the line; Mortens and Page in the backfield.
