

Degrees Due 138 Students In May 27 Ceremonies

Kappa Phi Kappa Presents Scholarship To E. Andrews

Earl Andrews, a senior at Jacksonville High School, has been awarded the first scholarship to be given by Kappa Phi Kappa members at Jacksonville State College. The $100 scholarship will be given annually in the future to some Calhoun County student. Rotating from one high school to another, it was started by Waymon O'Neal, Oelartown, Ga., president of the JSC chapter. Kappa Phi Kappa is a national honorary fraternity for outstanding men in the field of education. Andrews, who plans to enter JSC this fall, will major in the field of education. He is president of the Student Council of the high school; is in the upper 10 per cent of his class scholastically; lettered in basketball two years; is a member of the J Club and annual staff; has served as a class officer and is the senior class "favorite". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Andrews of the Cedar Springs community.

Dr., Mrs. Cole Honor SGA

Dr. and Mrs. Houston Cole were hosts to members of the Student Council of Jacksonville State College at a dinner given at The Club in Birmingham this week.

Included in the group were the following:

Shelby Chandler, Selma; Sandra Lester, Dadeville; Jackie Sue Moore, Attalla; Joan Smith, Gadsden; Judy Graves, Alexander City; Catherine Dunaway, Hartselle; Louise Pickens, Odenville.

Ferrell Drummond, Roanoke; Thomas Dennis, Wade Smith, Gadsden; Willie E. Connell, Jr., Gaylesville; Scott Williamson, Clark Gable, Birmingham; Joe Garner, Hartselle; Bill Lazenby, Eclectic; Bill Anderson, Vine-mont; Cooper Hurley, Shawmut; Horace Lipscomb, Horton.

Joe Garner is the retiring president of the Student Government Association and Bill Anderson is the incoming president.

JSC's Lovett Is Inventor

Opal R. Lovett, who teaches visual aids at Jacksonville State College, has come up with a new visual teaching aid that will be welcomed by most classroom teachers. He has invented a gadget to eliminate the old flip chart. The new aid is designed to offer viewing range to an entire room and pulls the charts out in a rack instead of flipping them over.

The drawing is now in the process of being made into a pilot model.

Mr. Lovett, immediate past president of the Audio-Visual Department, Alabama Education Department, has been working on the idea for some time to improve teaching aids that can be either manufactured and sold inexpensively or custom-made. He has also served on the AEA Television Committee.

Mr. Lovett is associated with the News Bureau of the college and works with college publications.

Graduation exercises will be held Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the Paul Snow Memorial Stadium. Dr. Theodore R. Wright, superintendent of the Birmingham City Schools, will deliver the baccalaureate address.

The order of the program will be as follows:

Processional: "Agnus Dei" (Bizet, Prof. Albert Singerman, organist; invocation, the Rev. Eugene Atkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church; special music: "Syrinx" (Debussy), Prof. Robert Cantrick, flutist; baccalaureate address: Dr. Wright; conferring of degrees, Dr. Houston Cole and Dr. T. E. Montgomery; awarding of commissions; Lt.-Col. D. J. Coleman; benediction, Mr. Atkins; recessional: "March" from the "Occasional Oratorio", Mr. Singerman.

Graduates receiving commissions are as follows:

Regular Army—Robert W. Darby, Signal Corps, Smyrna, Ga.; Gerald D. Dupree, Infantry, Huntsville; Jimmy W. Green, Ordnance Corps, Jacksonville; Theodore J. Leonard, Adjutant General's Corps, Jacksonville; Jimmy R. Morris, Transportation Corps, Gadsden; Edward R. Wynn, Artillery, Gadsden.

Army Reserve—Ernest F. Estes, Artillery, Piedmont; John W. Fox, Quartermaster Corps, Alexander City; Robert G. Graham, Chemical Corps, Lincoln; James C. ## 'Golden Girl' Of The Opera Interviewed By Staff Writer

By BARBARA OWEN

Southern Belles invaded the world of Grand Opera on a red carpet, May 9, at the Municipal Auditorium in Birmingham. They came to enjoy the performance of the charming, golden-haired Dorothy Kirsten, all-American soprano.

One of the most exciting moments of the year was to watch the lights dim and the Metropolitan Opera curtain rise. There was a hush among 4,000 spectators as the footlights went on.

Her stage had a beautiful blooming cherry orchard with vistas of distant hills. To the left of the stage was a quaint Japanese house, the home of Cio-Cio-San.

Miss Kirsten not only captivated her audience with her radiant voice but her magnificent portrayal of the betrayed

Japanese girl won the hearts of the large audience.

Act I took place at her home on the terrace in the beautiful garden there at Nagasaki, Japan. Act II took place in the living room of Cio-Cio-San's home, and Act III was continued there.

Prevailing throughout the opera was a Japanese atmosphere. There were exquisite age-old customs that exercised a hold on the audience, and color ran rampant.

Cio-Cio-San's voice could be heard clearly above the spectacular 90-piece orchestra and the magnificent chorus.

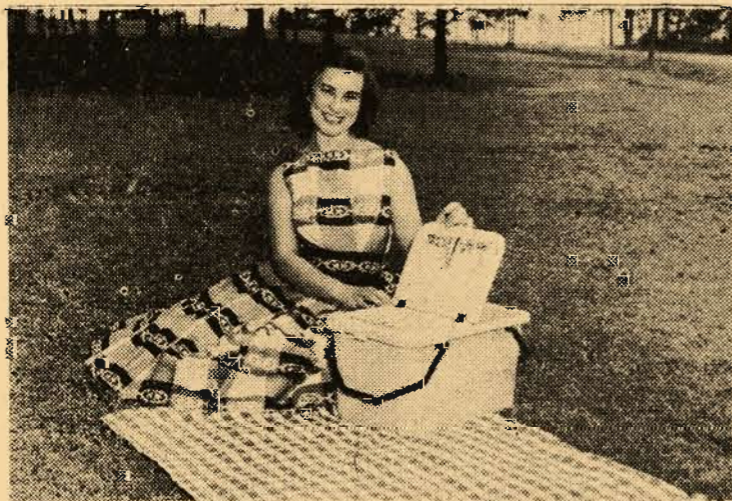

The handsome Eugenio Fernandi, a young Italian, was a new tenor to the Birmingham audience. Playing the role of Pinkerton, his voice was radiant

New Registration Plan Announced

A new procedure in registration is being announced by the Registrar's Office and is of vital concern to all students, other than beginning freshmen, who plan to enroll or re-enroll in September, 1960. These students must file a permit to register in the Office of Admissions and Records no later than August 12, 1960. These blanks are available in the Office of Admissions and Records and should be completed and filed at the earliest possible moment.

No one will be permitted registration until a permit to register is on file.

READY FOR A PICNIC is this week's "Gem of the Hills," Miss Dorothy Jo Oaks. A freshman from Guntersville, Dorothy Jo is a home economics major.

EDITORIALS—

THIS IS IT!!...

For many of us, the end of a college career is very rapidly approaching, and this brings us to wonder if we've really done anything worthwhile during our three, four, five or six years of undergraduate work at Jacksonville.

There's a saying that possibly everyone hears at college, which goes something like this: "The first thing a person learns in college is how dumb he is!" How many of us agree with that now, after fighting our way through books, lectures, reports, papers, etc. for several semesters and then discovering that we still don't know it all? Of course, there are some who seem to know it all, but most of us realize and admit that we've just broken the ice of our ignorance; that, after over a hundred hours of college work, we have just now reached the point where we can think well enough to learn something. We are now prepared to spend the rest of our lives learning — and when we have seen the last float in our little parade of life, we still will not have learned it all, although we will, perhaps, be far above the level on which we started.

The point is this: If we have gone through a college career with our eyes and ears open, then something probably has been gained; but if we have just been "grade hunters" or "vegetables," as one psychology teacher says, then it will more than likely be a long, hard life, because those who "hire and fire" don't particularly care how many A's a person has made or even whether he has a degree or not — they want to know whether or not he has any sense!

ADIOS BABIES...

Call this a farewell note or anything else you like. In any event it's my last JSC editorial, and I can't resist the impulse to leave with you a few ideas that I have picked up. The following are rather disconnected ideas, but I hope you can get some good out of them.

First, let's talk about ideals. We are all old enough by now to know the good from the bad, and I would encourage you to pick out good standards and good ideas on which to base the rest of your life. The things that you do in the next five or ten years are going to make or break you, and nothing will hold up better or longer than a good hold on the best principles that life offers you.

In these next few years, don't be afraid to fight as hard as you can for the things that you want. You've heard the old definition of luck — when preparation meets opportunity. Don't try the impossible first, but don't ignore it, either. Just work your way up.

And, don't be afraid to work. Idleness is not only the devil's workshop, but it's also the world's worst way to spend the precious little time we have on earth. This minute right now is all that we can count on for sure — nothing can be relied on as happening tomorrow. The only way to be happy is to be busy, and you must even make an effort at that. It's so very easy to do a job half way, but don't be like water seeking its own level — it only makes a crooked river.

I would exhort you to be brave and courageous. Be brave enough to stand up for what is right — be courageous enough to act the way you believe and believe the way you act. Just because something is new or different doesn't make it wrong. If you run into a better religion or a better opinion, take it to be your own. Even Emerson said something about a foolish consistency being a little ridiculous.

Don't get excited if you are criticized. A friend once told me that if you weren't being criticized, you weren't doing anything. All of us make mistakes, and I've made my share of both kind: the baby-type and the giant size. Anybody can make one mistake, but only a perfect idiot makes the same mistake twice.

I guess all of this can be summed up like this: fight for what you want; be prepared for a good opportunity when it comes along; be true to yourself and as good as your word; and don't miss a good chance at learning something new just because you might make a mistake.

And above all else, be good. My mother used to tell me that everybody can't be bright or clever or beautiful, but anybody can be good.

Popular Seniors Sharing Regular Spotlight Feature

Sharing this week's spotlight are two active and popular members of the senior class who will be leaving the campus after Friday night's graduation exercises: Marie Brookes of Gadsden, and Gene Motley of Lanett.

Marie, whose home is in Gadsden, will receive the BS Degree in Secondary Education with a major in history and minor in political science. She graduated from Gadsden High School where she was a member of the yearbook staff Choral Club, FTA, FBLA, Library Club and Home Economics Club.

At Jacksonville she has served on homecoming committees, yearbook staff, and is a member of the Social Science Club, NEA, Law Club and Newman Club. She is treasurer of the senior class, served as counselor of freshman girls at Daugette Hall, and her last class activity was serving on the Sophomore-Senior Ball Committee.

After graduation, Marie plans to teach next fall in Marietta High School, Marietta, Ga. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brookes.

Gene, business administration major and economics minor, graduated from Lanett High School where he played football, baseball, tennis and golf. He was a member of the Beta Club,

GENE MOTLEY

Men's Club and Key Club, and was voted "most popular" and "wittiest" in his junior and senior years.

At Jacksonville his activities have included serving as vice-president of the SGA and president of FBLA. He has been an active member of the tennis team and was voted senior class "favorite". He serves as a counselor for sophomore boys at Logan Hall.

Gene plans to enter Auburn for study in business administration and accounting. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Eugene Motley of Lanett.

Because of their fine ability to get along with people, and the records they have made, we predict a successful future for both these young people.

When asked what they remembered most about their years here, they both answered, "all four years". They were most impressed with the friendly people, and both of them are splendid examples of this friendliness.

Summer Session Will Open At Jacksonville State June 6

The 1960 summer session at Jax State will be beginning sooner than you think. Placement tests for entering freshmen are scheduled for Monday, June 6, and classes for all will begin the following Wednesday at 8:00 A. M. Students other than entering freshmen and transfer students will register on Monday and Tuesday, June 6 and 7.

The summer session has become a very important part of the over-all educational program at Jacksonville in recent years. Many who could not have completed requirements for degrees in any other way have graduated by means of hours accumulated in summer sessions. Full-time teachers who lack credit for degrees enter every summer; many teachers who already have degrees take summer courses to secure, extend or renew their teaching certificates; and many high school graduates go right on into college rather than waiting around until the fall semester.

Fannin, Talladega; Mary Evelyn Johnson, Ashland; Rosalio Wences Reza, Coronado, Ometepac, Mexico; Peter Renatus Seyfang, Stuttgart, Germany; Daisy Weller Smith, Jacksonville; Frank Leon Sprayberry, Trion, Ga.

Class schedules for the summer session are available in the office of the registrar. The offerings are fully adequate in practically every field, as the schedule indicates, and this is a good opportunity for those already here to pick up as many as ten hours toward early graduation. See you in June!

Finley And Sparks Attend Band Clinic

John Finley and Dan Sparks, of the music faculty, were clinicians for a county band director's clinic held at Alabama College on May 6. Mr. Sparks had charge of the woodwinds and Mr. Finley, of brass. They were joined by two members of the University of Alabama music faculty.

Don McMillan Is Elected State Brotherhood Leader

By JIM WILSON

At the recent State Baptist Student Retreat held at Shocco Springs, Don McMillan was elected to serve this next year as State Brotherhood Chairman on the State Baptist Student

DON McMILLAN

Union Executive Council. Don served last year as the Student Center Chairman on the Jacksonville State BSU executive council. He was recently elected by the local BSU executive council to serve as Sunday School representative next year.

Don's duties as State Brotherhood Chairman will be varied and many. He will correspond with the Brotherhood Chairmen on other college campuses in Alabama; if a campus has no BSU Brotherhood organization, he will assist in organizing one; he will encourage college brotherhoods to work with younger boys in recreational activities, distribute tracts and church publicity; sponsor annual football, baseball and basketball banquets; serve as usher for church on special occasions; assist in "craft shop" activities provided by the Brotherhood for all church boys; render service in connection with church sponsored missions; visit in interest of all church organizations and services and witness to unsaved boys and young men in an effort to win them to Christ.

Don has proved himself worthy of leading in such a position as State Brotherhood Chairman by his devoted and uncompromising dedication to God and his continued efforts to love and lift his fellow students on this campus.

Home Ec Seniors Given Reception

Home economics seniors were honorees at a reception given this week at the home management house on the Jacksonville State College campus. The group was composed of Mary Jo Sisson, Ohatchee; Mary Culpepper, Fort Payne; Wanda Roberts, Auburn; Peggy Johns, Lurline Robinson, Talladega; Mary Weathington, Gadsden; Doris Pasley and Marcelline Bryan, Piedmont.

Miss Eleanor Kelley greeted the guests and introduced them to the seniors who formed the receiving line. Mrs. S. B. Matthews directed them to the dining room where refreshments were served. Mrs. John F. Green served tea and Linda Green, Jacksonville, poured punch. Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey mingled with the guests during the evening.

Assisting in serving were: Hilda Still, Cullman; Betty Westbrook, Bremen, Ga.; Ellen Smith, Bonnie Ray Parker of Jacksonville; Linda Gail Parker, Glencoe; Bobby Glassco, Boaz; Barbara Powell, Birmingham; Dorothy Jo Oaks, Guntersville; Clara Jean Slater, Flat Rock; Movene Nelson, Newell; Bettie Wade, Munford; Lila Sue Ashworth, Menlo, Ga.; Robenia McDougal, Gadsden; Doan Beck, Warrior; and Brenda Glenn, Sylacauga.

Mary H. Davenport Selected By Home

By JIM WILSON

Mary Helen Davenport, an Elementary Education junior, was selected recently to serve as a summer staff member at the Alabama Baptist Children's Home in Troy. She will work for eight weeks with four other Alabama students to supplement the regular staff at the home. Mary will be serving in many capacities, but will devote much of her time as office worker and librarian. She will be living in one of the cottages with several of the resident girls.

At Jacksonville, we recognize Mary as one of the most deserving persons on campus. BSU activities demand much of her time and effort because she is one of the leaders in this organization. At the present time Mary is serving as Devotional Chairman on the BSU council. Previously, she served as Missions Chairman and Devotional Chairman. These positions, however, are only a part of her contribution.

The daughter of Mrs. Velma Davenport of East Gadsden, Mary is active in many phases of campus activity and was recently awarded a Letter of Appreciation by Governor Patterson during college Awards Day.

COED: Don't you dare tell me I'm overweight!

DOCTOR: Well, then, according to my height and weight chart, you're four feet too short.

Kappa Delta Pi Holds Initiation

Initiation ceremonies for Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary education fraternity, were held at Jacksonville State College on Thursday with the chapter president, Shirley Arnold Pike, Heflin, performing the rites, assisted by Mary Jim Ingram, Pell City, the treasurer, and Miss Lucille Branscomb, faculty counselor.

Students initiated were: Edna Moore Brown, Carolyn West, Jacksonville; Inez Mitchell, Anniston; and Mary Jo Liveoak, Cedartown, Ga. Lawrence R. Miles, director of admissions and registrar, was initiated as an honorary member.

Other members present were: Wayne Wilkinson, Ann Leonard, Mrs. Robert Lindblom, Mrs. C. T. Harper, Jacksonville; Billie Bryan, Piedmont; Wanda Gilliland, Callant; and Joan Lasseter, Gadsden.

Membership in the fraternity is based principally upon scholarship, character, leadership.

Iva May Sherrard Gets WSJ Plaque

The Economics Department has announced that the Wall Street Journal plaque has been awarded to Iva May Sherrard, graduating senior from Tide Head, N. B., Canada.

The plaque is awarded annually to the students chosen by the faculty on the basis of general scholarship and achievement.

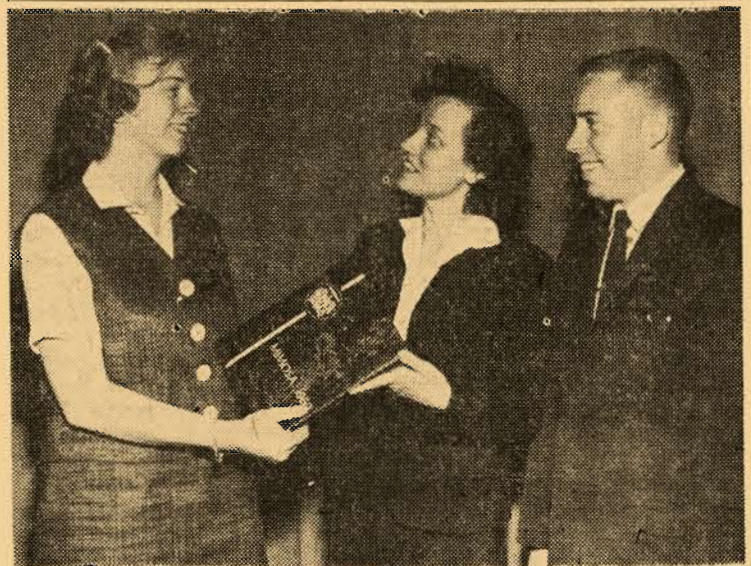

art, Ga., was installed as president; Norman Smoake, vice-president; Sandra Hicks, Gadsden, secretary; Norma Owens, Anniston, treasurer; Naamon Culver, Sylacauga, reporter; Becky Jackson, Gadsden, publicity chairman.

Plans for the fall were discussed and the possibility of bringing cultural films to the campus as was done this year was considered.

Three Keys Installs Slate Of Officers

New officers were installed by the Order of Three Keys, honorary organization at the college, on Tuesday evening when a banquet was held at the Recreation Center.

Gamecocks Finish Season With Thrilling 4-2 Victory

By HAL HAYES

The baseball Gamecocks of Jacksonville State ran out their '60 calendar of games in a blaze of glory here Wednesday (May 18) as they sank Florence 4-2. The victory, limelighted by John Allen's brilliant two-hit performance, was the 12th of the year for the locals and seven straight.

Since St. Bernard pinned the Gamecocks down three weeks ago in Cullman, the Coach Lovrich warriors have laid Alabama College, Livingston, Southern Union, Livingston, again, Athens, St. Bernard, and Florence in the shade of defeat. On the season only St. Bernard, Florence and Troy State have topped the hometown favorites.

First sacker Dabbs Earnest staked Florence to an early first inning lead (May 18) when he piloted a John Allen pitch high over the leftfield fence with one mate aboard. JSC then countered with one run in the third, two in the fifth, and an "icer" run in the 7th.

In recording his fourth victory of the year against two losses, Allen fanned four hitters and did not give up a walk. From the second until the eighth, when pinch hitter Wayne Coulter drilled a pitch back through the middle for a safety, the hard throwing junior moundsman retired the side in one-two-three order.

Coming through like the champions they were throughout the year, Coach Frank Lovrich's JSC Gamecocks waded through St. Bernard today (May 16) to record a 15-8 victory. Thus an early season defeat at the hands of these lads from Cullman was avenged.

Gamecock hitters supplied winning pitcher Butch O'Neal, recording his 5th without defeat, with 14 hits including home-runs by Sam Whiteside and Percy Powell. Whiteside tape measured one in the 5th with two men on the bases and Powell gained two RBI's with his in the 8th.

Big Jim Emfinger, the gentleman outfielder from Tallassee, rocketed two tremendous home-runs in Athens today (May 14) to guide his Gamecock teammates past their hosts for the day, 12-2.

The rifle-armed rightfielder added two RBI's to his total for the season with his first round-tripper in the 6th and added 3 more RBI's with a wall-clearer in the 7th.

Marvin Vaughn, making his second start of the year, was the winning pitcher. The Anniston senior is unbeaten in as many attempts.

Livingston State erupted for 6 runs in a big 8th inning in Jacksonville today (May 13) but they just couldn't get enough. They needed 2 to tie, which is no good, and 3 to win. They didn't get 'em . . . Jacksonville won 13-11.

Jacksonville State easily tripped Southern Union for their second time of the season here yesterday (May 4), 11-1. This triumph was the second of the seven-game winning streak molded by the Gamecocks.

In this one Sam Whiteside continued to build to his home-run total for the season as he clouted a 345-foot, 3-run shot, over left center field. Bobby Sides was the true hitting star of the day, however, banging out three hits in four trips up. He had an inside the park homerun in the third with no one on and two singles.

GERALD DUPREE, lone graduate of the Gamecock baseball squad.

Tennis Team State Champs

By HAL HAYES

All hail the new tennis kings of the Alabama Collegiate Conference. By name they are Coach Jerry Garnett's 1960 Jax State Gamecocks.

The Jaxmen of net fame marched into the ACC throne room of champions Friday and Saturday (May 6th and 7th) as they amassed 30 points in the Cullman - hosted tournament. Troy State gained 22 points for their efforts, Florence 14, and St. Bernard 6.

In individual honors, Gamecock netters won 8 of the 12 golden, miniature tennis balls awarded the top dozen tennis stars of the tourney. James Daily, Stacy Shaw, Jackie Cooley and John McDougald each were awarded two such citations for having won the all together number of matches to gain said honor.

Jax State ended their '60 schedule Wednesday (May 11) as they dropped Southern Union 9-0. The victory thus gave the

Hosses Capture Intramural Softball Crown In Thriller

Gary Rogers' Hosses clinched the championship of the Intramural softball League this afternoon (May 19) as they nipped the Warriors 4-3 despite a brilliant 3-hitter hurled by losing pitcher Harold Green. The Hosses, tied at the end of the regulation season with the Warriors and Yellowjackets for the league lead, eliminated the Jerry Cofield Jackets on Tuesday (May 17), 9-6.

Second sacker Jimmy Haynes, a brilliant proformer throughout the season, always reliable Wade Smith and steady Don McConkey were the lone members of the champions to hit safely off the offerings of the Warriors' Green. The losers punched out 7-hits for the afternoon off winning pitcher, DeWitt Dodd who also toed the mound against the Yellowjackets and received credit for the win Tuesday.

John Calhoun, who homered with the sacks empty in the seventh, and Edwin Usry were the leading hitters for the losers with 2 hits in 4 trips up. Bob Hays, Bobby Joe Johnson and James Usry also had singles to end the hitting show for the afternoon.

The winners eked across two runs in each of the first two innings of the day and led 4-0 into the fourth. The Warriors then exploded for two runs in the fourth and ended their scoring when Calhoun homered in the final frame.

Thus, with the victory for the Hosses, ended one of Jacksonville State's most successful years in Intramural Sports thanks to the very fine supervision of Coach H. L. Stevenson and his team of lieutenants.

Latin American Theme Used At Sophomore-Senior Ball

By BARBARA OWEN

The palm trees swayed as music-man Woodie Herman and his orchestra played for merrymaking at the annual Sophomore-Senior Ball on May 10.

The brewing of Latin American wiles was spectacular in the decorations which gave an authentic taste of the "Paradise of the Pacific" in their color and charm.

Adding elegance to the evening was the presentation of the class officers and their escorts, done in a graceful manner by Dr. Leon Willman, dean of students. Mrs. Katie Lou Byrd, sponsor of the sophomore class, presented a lovely bouquet of roses to Miss Jane Barcliff, who was escorted by Wade Smith, president of the sophomore class; and Mr. George Whatley, sponsor of the senior class, made the presentation to Miss Karen Terhune, the senior class president, Clark Gable's date.

Other couples in the leadout were: Miss Mary Barfield and Hank O'Neal; Miss Sandra Lester and Tommy Dennis; Miss Marie Brookes and Richard Powell; Miss Darlyne Voges, and Tommy Reed; Miss Betty Sue Williams and Don Hodges; Miss Nancy Simmons and Phil Hill; Miss Wanda Roberts and Tommy Ward; Miss Patty Faucett and Ed Neura; Miss Charlotte Snead and John Fisk; Miss Shelby Tankersley and Bobby Lucas; Miss Janice Williams and Bobby Henderson.

The lovely ladies and their dates entered the ballroom through a beautiful golden arch and proceeded to the dance floor to the music of "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody".

Chaperons were: Mr. and Mrs. George Whatley, Dr. Willman, Mrs. Byrd, Miss Elizabeth Weaver, Mr. R. E. Jones, Mrs. C. S. Fagan, Mrs. Myrtle Kelly and Mrs. George Hudson.

Methodist Society Holds Initiation

Dr. W. G. Echols, founder of the honorary religious society, Pi Tau Chi, conducted initiation ceremonies for a group of Methodist students at Jacksonville State College who were chosen for membership by the college chapter.

The initiation was held at the First Methodist Church with Miss Lucille Branscomb, faculty sponsor; Mrs. Charles Fagan, Floyd P. Tredaway and James L. Keith, assisting. At the conclusion of the initiation Dr. Echols spoke to the students on the value and the spiritual meaning of the society.

Students receiving this honor included the following:

Louise Thrift, Birmingham; Betty Jane Pace, Ashland; Wanda and Rachel Daves, Addison; Garland E. Smith, Yadkinville, N. C.; Reeves Smith, Lineville; and the Rev. Eugene Atkins, pastor of the Jacksonville Methodist Church. Walter Eurt of Talladega could not be present.

locals a 11-2 overall seasonal banner.

Chattanooga, unbeaten since 1958, administered both defeats upon the Gamecocks who, nonetheless, ended with the finest tennis record in the history of the sport at Jacksonville State. A real honor and tribute to Coach Jerry Garnett and his tennis Gamecocks.

Women's Chorale Appears On TV

The Women's Chorale of Delta Omicron, national honorary music sorority, appeared on Channel 6 in Birmingham on Monday, May 9, in a program originating from the Birmingham Museum of Art, sponsored by the Birmingham Metropolitan Opera Committee.

The Jacksonville group was an all-student effort, rehearsed and directed by Frances Moss, Oxford, a junior music major. Because of the excellence of its performance, the chorale was featured on the same program with regular faculty-directed choirs from Howard, Auburn, Judson and Birmingham-Southern.

The event was part of the Student's Day program held annually during the Metropolitan Opera's visit to Birmingham.

The choral concert was organized by Mrs. Page Sloss, Jr., of Birmingham, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Lowrey, head of the Home Economics Department.
