

Welcome, Students and Faculty

Enrollment Soars As 78th Session Begins

Today, Sept. 5, marks the beginning of the 88th regular session of Jacksonville State College. This will be a busy week, beginning with placement tests, orientation and registration of freshmen, followed by registration for upper classmen and graduate students. Classes will not get under way until Monday, Sept. 12.

There will be 16 new faces on the faculty for returning students with changes or additions in the English, history, art, music, business mathematics, psychology and geography departments.

In the music departments will be Harold A. Thompson, piano; Malcolm Griffin, voice; and Gail E. Menk, brasses. Dr. Menk will be filling the place of John Finley, who will be at Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., working on his doctorate. Mr. Thompson will succeed Albert Singerman, and Mr. Griffin, Dr. Lehman's place.

Mr. Thompson was formerly head of the music department of South Georgia College. A graduate of the University of Georgia, he has a Master of Arts Degree from the University of Michigan. Mr. Griffith did his undergraduate work at St. Ambrose College, Davenport, Iowa, and has a master's degree from Louisiana University. Dr. Menk holds AB and MA degrees from Eastern Illinois State College and a Ph.D. from State University of Iowa.

Teaching mathematics will be Col. John B. F. Dice (Ret.) and Faulkner O. Bill. Col. Dice is a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, class of 1930, and holds a master's degree in mathematics from Duke University. Mr. Bill has a BA in mathematics from the University of Virginia and has done graduate work at Memphis State College. As a commissioned officer, he taught mathematics three years in the U. S. Air Force.

The English Department will have as new members Dr. Charles Eugene Mounts, Neal Haygood and Mrs. John Cleverdon. Dr. Mounts was a visiting professor during the summer session and will remain permanently. He has been a member of the University of Florida for 30 years where he taught English. Neal Haygood did his undergraduate work at Auburn University and Jacksonville State, received his master's degree at Birmingham-Southern College, and has been working toward his doctorate at Louisiana State University. Mrs. Cleverdon did her undergraduate work at Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., and received her master's degree at the University of Alabama.

Mrs. Elford C. Morgan and Miss Margaret Hume Callis will teach history. Mrs. Morgan received her AB degree at Womans College, U. of North Carolina, and her master's in history at Columbia University. Miss Callis received her AB and MA degrees at Vanderbilt University.

Mrs. Ruth Sinclair will teach art, filling the place of John Cleverdon, who will be working on his doctorate in art history at Columbia University. Mrs. Sinclair graduated, cum laude, from Mississippi State College for Women, and received her master's degree in fine arts from the University of Alabama. She also did graduate work at the University of Georgia.

J. H. Dyer will teach in the business department. He holds the AB degree from Kentucky Wesleyan College, and the MA degree from the University of Kentucky.

Mrs. Victor Klaus and Earl Clayton McCool will teach psychology. Mrs. Klaus is returning to the faculty after an absence of three years. She graduated cum laude from St. Joseph's

ROTC Staff Adds Five New Members

ROTC cadets will be meeting an almost completely new staff as they report for military training. Old members of the staff remaining are Lt.-Col. D. J. Coleman, commanding officer; Major W. N. Brown, Capt. Louis Holder and Capt. Robert Maxham.

The new members will include Capt. James Mozley, who began his duties in June. A native of Andalusia, Capt. Mozley served with the 31st Division in the Philippines during World War II; he has had a three-year assignment in Germany and a one-year tour of duty in Korea since World War II. He has also been stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Fort Benning, Ga., where he was an instructor in the tactical and ranger departments. He graduated from Troy State College and did graduate work at Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

Other members of the staff are SP5 Allison R. Lee of Na-

Contract Let For New Dining Hall, Conference Center

Bids were opened for the new dining hall, chapel and conference center building at Jacksonville State College Thursday afternoon. Shenesey & Kay, contractors of Anniston, submitted the lowest bid, $753,977.

Other bidders for the job were as follows:

Dethlefs & Hannon, Anniston, $820,516; Algernon Blair Construction Co., Montgomery, $808,483; F. R. Hoar & Son, Inc., Birmingham, $806,175; G. W. Hallmark & Sons, Inc., $791,061; Conner Brothers Construction Co., Auburn, $784,556; G. C. Colyer & Co., Anniston, $783,770; Jones & Hardy, Montevallo, $779,258; H. A. Thompson Construction Co., East Gadsden, $769,225; A. B. Newton & Co., Vidalia, Ga., $770,305; Mayben & Son, Gadsden, $759,927.

The building, designed by Paul W. Hofferbert and Hugh W. Ellis of Gadsden, will be the first to be erected in a building program in excess of $2 million. It will be located on the lower part of the campus between Daugette and Pannell Hall dormitories.

Other buildings to be included in the over-all expansion are two dormitories, extensions to the library and science building, and a fine arts building.

Marjorie Mask Goes To Camp Minnewanca

Margie Mask, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Mask of Dadeville, a sophomore at JSC, attended Camp Minnewanca, located near Muskegon, Mich., during the month of August.

She was chosen by Prof. and Mrs. Leon McCluer for the scholarship they give at the camp annually in memory of their children, John and Mary Elizabeth McCluer.

The camp is supported by the American Youth Foundation and has representatives from every state, Canada, and a number of foreign countries.

Margie was also chosen alternate Maid of Cotton for Tallapoosa County during the summer. She will be remembered as the student whose father paid her tuition last fall with buffalo nickels he had saved.

Whom Do I Call Educated?
Whom, then, do I call educated?

First, those who control circumstances instead of being mastered by them, those who meet all occasions manfully and act in accordance with intelligent thinking, those who are honorable in all dealings, who treat good naturedly persons and things that are disagreeable, and furthermore, those who hold their pleasures under control and are not overcome by misfortune, finally those who are not spoiled by success.

EDITORIALS—

Welcome, Students, Faculty

We are happy to welcome all of you to Jacksonville for the beginning of the 78th year of this institution. We hope it will be one of the most pleasant years you have ever experienced.

For those of you who are here for the first time we would like to give you an extra greeting, and to say to you that we are so glad you chose Jacksonville. We think you made a wise choice and that you will not regret it.

You are entering Jacksonville at a momentous time in its history. The college is about to embark upon the most expensive building program in its history. This year will see the construction of a new $1 million dining hall, chapel and conference center, extensions to the library and science building, a new fine arts building, and two new dormitories.

The enrollment this year is expected to reach new heights, and the future is bright and promising.

The emphasis here is on scholarship and character development and we challenge the new students to enter into their first year with the determination to make a fine scholastic record, and to take advantage of every opportunity for character development.

Jax Need Not Fear U. of C.

CHAMBERLAIN FIELD, University of Chattanooga Stadium, where the Gamecocks will open their season in a traditional game with the "Moccasins."

BENNETT (Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of on-the-scene reports edited by this writer after actual observation on the campuses of scheduled football opponents. They will attempt to relate the attitudes of students and situations there which Jacksonville State students can expect to confront.)

By JAMES R. BENNETT

There are those who anticipate the first football game of the season, marked by the usual anxiety, fear, and hope, with special concern. If won it gives vent to a renewed initiative for a perfect season; if lost it attributes to a psychological slump.

The University of Chattanooga, enrollment approximately 2,000, endowment over $3,000,000 and a reputation which is national in scope, represents somewhat of a "Colossus of the North" to many Jacksonville students. It is with this university on September 16th that the Jaxmen engage in the all-important pigskin premier. With four seniors and fifteen lettermen returning, UC Coach Moore has stated that his "Moccasins" should be potentially strong. The Chattanooga campus speculation is that UC should defeat our Jaxmen but that we are unpredictable, remembering our 12-0 victory in 1956. Some there see Jacksonville State as a nice but somewhat threatening foe, enrollment approximately 3,000; some think we are from Florida!

Most Chattanoogaans remember Jacksonville by the fine half-time shows put on by the marching band which is rapidly gaining national recognition. For the past three years, this writer has witnessed standing ovations by the many thousands attending; some coming only to view the band. In this aspect UC offers little competition. Reliable sources put band membership there at eight.

The schedule for Chattanooga, as usual, is a tough one. It includes: Auburn, Tennessee, Mississippi, Memphis State, Murray, Tennessee Tech, Jacksonville, Abilene Christian, Mississippi Southern, and Middle Tennessee. The Chattanooga News-Free Press, August 12, 1960 stated, "Everyone of those schools has a larger enrollment than UC if you need further proof of their toughness." We have no reason to fear this municipal university which lags behind in enrollment and deems us as "unpredictable".

UC's big advantage is its location. They have the largest stadium that the Jaxmen will invade. Approximately 13,000 representatives of metropolitan Chattanooga's 300,000 plus population will be in Chamberlain Field (one side pictured above) September 16th to view their University's football inaugural.

It is a reputation that Jacksonville will be fighting against during this crucial game — a reputation gained by their 1958 victory over Tennessee, by its usual tough schedule, and by its famous city, Jacksonville's victory over Rhode Island at Evansville, Indiana in 1956 and the subsequent Refrigerator Bowl crown is too something of a reputation builder, however, must Jacksonville students are not even aware of this.

It is this writer's opinion that we should play UC to win, strive to schedule other colleges of UC's reputation and build a Jacksonville reputation. If we venture to this Tennessee industrial city with this type of spirit it is possible that we may derail that "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" for a second time.

Mrs. Rowan Missing At Daugette Hall

Missing at Daugette Hall this fall will be the familiar face of Mrs. John R. Rowan, who broke her leg in a fall during the summer session.

After spending two months in the Anniston Memorial Hospital, she was carried by ambulance to her home in Tuscaloosa where she is still recuperating.

A note received from her this week said: "How I do miss all of you dear, kind people and my beloved Daugette Hall . . . I wish like anything I could step in this fall and be part of all the hustle and bustle at Daugette Hall".

Miss Gerrye Clegg, a member of the English faculty, took over Mrs. Rowan's duties and will continue to fill the position this term.

For the benefit of those who might wish to write Mrs. Rowan her address is 2525 7th St., Tuscaloosa, Ala.

"Doc" GARY HAS First Plane Ride

Charles M. Gary, long-time and popular member of the college faculty had his first plane ride recently.

He was spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Arrington in Troy and went for a ride with Mr. Arrington, who is a licensed pilot. He took Mr. Gary in his plane and during their flight "buzzed" the Frank Casey home. The Caseys recognized the plane and waved to them. The pilot's wing was dipped to acknowledge the salute.

Mr. Gary said he got a great thrill out of the four-hour flight.

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

France; Denise Arousseau, Paris, France; Carmen Rubio, Mantanzas, Cuba; Hoosidar Badipour, Teheran, Iran.

American members of the International House Program will be: Rebecca Owens, Erskine Lane, Carol McKown, Linda Sparks, Sue Gilliland, Martha Pledger, Eunice Stephens, Doris Baker, Malissa Morgan, Diane Rampeuy, Juanita Sharp, Sandra Plummer, Alice Warren, Barbara Brown, Mary Gibbs, William Vaughn and Nancy Ringer.

Information About New Students

Some of the facts about the new students will be interesting to the faculty and student body who follow the activities of the International House.

Jean-Paul Dailly is the son of the director of a music magazine in Belgium and his mother is a musical critic and radio producer. He speaks Flemish, English and a little German, and wants to be an engineer.

Esperanza Vidal plays the piano and sings and wants to be an English teacher. She is much impressed with everything concerning the U. S. and hopes to be a good English teacher when she returns to her country.

Patricia Ong wants to specialize in audio-visual aids and would like to stay in this country until she receives her degree.

Stig-Eyrik Bjorkqvist is the son of an economics teacher in Finland. He speaks Finnish, German, French and English.

Mervette Farid is the daughter of a retired colonel of the Egyptian Air Force, who is presently director of public relations advertising and publicity for the Nile Hilton Hotel in Cairo. She speaks English, French and Italian and her special interest is home economics education.

Suzanne Hanon speaks English, Dutch and German. She plans to specialize in modern languages because she likes languages—a means to understand the way of living of people of other countries.

Yukiko Ana is the granddaughter of Admiral Sakano of Japan, a former naval attaché in Washington, D. C., who instilled in her an interest in the United States. Her special interests are horticulture and education. She plans to major in elementary education.

Merilyn Anne Rumble comes from Australia on a scholarship offered by Rotary International, District 686. She is a graduate of a teachers college in Sydney and is interested in English, French and Social Studies, and especially in the training of young children.

Italo Morales has been a student in Texas for the past two years, so he will not be a stranger to the U. S. His special interests are music, art and psychology.

John D. Gannon of Wellesley Hills, Mass., will teach English. Mr. Gannon holds the BA degree from Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, and the MA degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He also attended Bowdoin College and the University of New Hampshire.

Mr. Gannon has taught as an exchange teacher at Damascus College, Damascus, Syria; Middlesex School, Concord, Mass.; high schools in Rhode Island and Massachusetts; Inter-American University, San German, Puerto Rico; and Delta State College, Cleveland, Miss.

He is single and a member of the Episcopal Church.

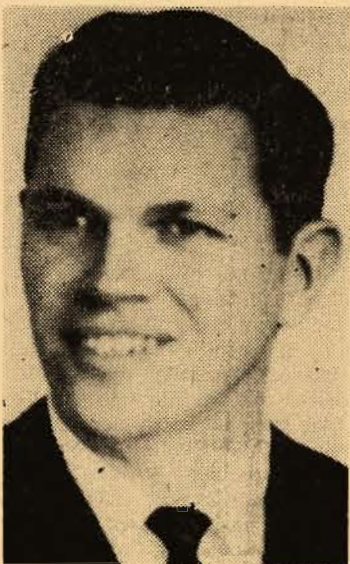

Baptist Students Hold Fall Retreat

Baptist students held their fall retreat Friday and Saturday in the student wing of the First Baptist Church under the direction of Leonard Roten, BSU secretary. More than 50 student and program personalities took part in the program.

Using the theme, "Jesus Calls" the study and discussion groups were as follows:

BSU Methods, Dr. William Weaver, pastor of First Baptist Church, Sylacauga; evangelism discussion, "Could This Happen on Your Campus?"; Eugene Crain, educational director, Parker Memorial Baptist Church, Anniston.

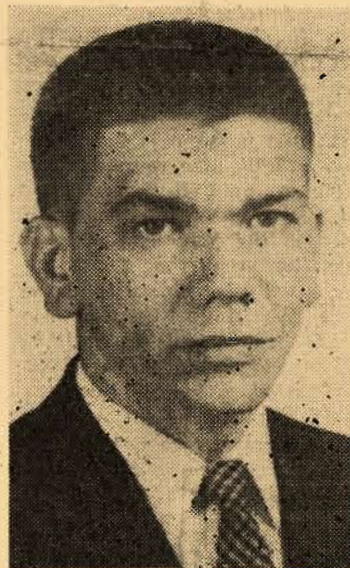

The Rev. Floyd Crow, pastor of South 11th Street Baptist Church, Gadsden, led the campfire service on Saturday night, and the Rev. Jerry Duke, former Jacksonville student and now a ministerial student at How-

'Twas J. Estill Jones who penned:
"Things are seldom what they seem;
"Skim milk masquerades as cream."

Margarine does look like butter; plastic looks like leather; paper looks like cloth. The calendar says summer time; Paul Snow Memorial Stadium echoes the thud-pop-knock sonata of Fall.

And sure enough it's football season, neighbor, and have you any doubts, they may be disproved today, or tomorrow, or the day after. Visit Paul Snow Memorial Stadium. The lads there, clad in JSC gear, have been knocking each others britches since early last Monday in preparation for Andrew C. Moore and his footballers who wear University of Chattanooga athletic apparel.

Our annual pilgrimage to Chattanooga comes Friday night, Sept. 16, for an 8 o'clock date. Thus 1960, pigskin wise, will have officially passed its initial objective. Waiting in the weeds ahead will be Middle Tennessee State, East Tennessee State, Austin Peay, Troy, Livingston, Carson-Newman, Florence and North east Louisiana College.

And at the offset of '60, we'll pick Jacksonville nine — nine, 9, NINE, IX — times.

While in the vicinity of prognostications . . .

Our choices for All Southeastern Conferences:

Ends — John Brewer, Mississippi, and Ga. Tech's Gerald Bunch; Tackles — Ken Rice, Auburn, and Chas "Bo" Strange, LSU; Guards — Pat Dye, Georgia, and Richard Price of Missisissippi; Center —  Goode  of Miss. State; * Backs — Jake Gibbs, Ole Miss., Francis Tarkenton, Georgia, Ed Dyas, Auburn, and Kentucky's Cal Bird.

For All America recognition I feel the following are more deserving . . .

Ends — Fred Mautino, Syracuse, and Mississippi's John Brewer; Tackles — Jerry Beabout, Purdue, and Bob Lilly, TCU; Guards — Pat Dye, Ga., and Southern California's celebrated Mike McKeever; Center — Rugged E. J. Holub of Texas Tech; Backs — Jake Gibbs, Mississippi, Joe Bellino, Navy, Ernie Davis, Syracuse, and Auburn's Ed Dyas.

Closer to home, don't say The Big One didn't say it first after final returns of the Alabama Collegiate Conference are in and the standings read: (1) Jacksonville State; (2) Florence; (3) Troy; and, (4) Livingston.

With the condoling urges and words of encouragement from Aunt Amelia Gail and her ouija affiliates, we shall, each issue in the Fall, attempt to select football winners. If'n you care to match wits with Aunt Amelia and this corner — grab a pen and precede.

- Jacksonville over Chattanooga
- Georgia over Alabama
- Fla. State over Richmond
- Ga. Tech over Kentucky
- LSU over Texas A&M
- Maryland over West Va.
- Mississippi over Houston
- Middle Tenn. State over Austin Peay
- Florence over Delta State
- East Tenn. State over Murray.

NOTICE!

Any freshman boy desiring to be assistant basketball manager is requested to get in touch with Bobby Lucas, head basketball manager, at Abercrombie Hall or at the college gym during football practice hours.

Gamecocks Open 1960 Slate Sept. 16 In 'Nooga

By HAL HAYES

COLLEGIAN Sports Editor

With an unmistakable lust for sweet victory on their lips and vast inexperience staring them in the eyes, the JSC Gamecocks swing open their 9-game, 1960, opponents scroll Friday night, Sept. 16, in Chattanooga against the Mocassins of UC. Kickoff time for the Chamberlain Field entanglement is 8 o'clock E. S. T.

Thus the inaugural debate of Coach Don Salls' 14th season as head football coach will be sounded. Others who plan to also challenge the Gamecocks upon the striped battleground include Middle Tennessee State, East Tennessee State, Troy, Livingston, Carson Newman, Austin Peay, Florence and Northeast Louisiana College.

The Gamecocks, owners of a 6-2-1 '59 worksheet, have been in labor for the forthcoming campaign at Chattanooga since last Monday. Two-a-day sessions dotted the work program for the first week and are to continue through this week with practices in the afternoons and at night.

Some 40 candidates have been toiling each day, 14 of whom are returning lettermen. Previous monogram bearers are Gerald "Harlon" Halpin, Jackie Jackson, Bobby Joe Johnson, Mickey Grimmett and Charles Baker. Ed Neura, Tom Maddux, Rayford Talley, Ron Elkins, Jim Clepper, Ray Gentles, James Williams and Bill Kinzy.

But oh . . . those '59 graduates. Only Kinzy and Phillips own first string status. Two . . .

"It'll take a lot of hustle, spirit and determination." Coach Salls is quoted as stating during spring drills, "in order to make up for the great inexperience we'll be faced with in the fall." Thus the stage was set for the biggest rebuilding job ever facing Coach Salls and his assistants Tom Roberson and Ray Wedgeworth.

At that moment in the spring Coach Salls also reminded this scribe to remind those of you now reading this piece that '60 will be the first season in at least ten years that the Gamecocks will play before the home fans five times. Coming here for Saturday night dates will be Middle Tennessee State, Troy, Livingston, Carson - Newman and Florence.

Royal Named To Collegian Sports Staff

Jacksonville State, meet the newest member of the COLLEGIAN sports page, Jim Royal. He will serve as assistant Sports Editor.

Royal, about 30 (Sez his wife — 22 sez he) and a native of Sand Mountain, recently returned "from the wars" after three years. His home is Albertville.

Three years ago, Royal served as sports editor of the weekly Albertville HERALD and for 8 months assistant sports editor to Hal Hayes on the once daily SAND MOUNTAIN REPORTER.

Watch for the Royal byline as the COLLEGIAN sports page starts a new year of attempting to let you the readers be on top of the news of Gamecock athletics and intramural sports.

Intramural Sports News

By JIM ROYAL

COLLEGIAN Assist. Spts. Ed.

Another fine semester's curriculum of Intramural Sports is in store for fans of its Jacksonville State program. But, such is commonplace with Director Coach H. L. Stevenson.

Ever since highly likable and able Coach Steve took the reins of the JSC program, success has been synonymous with his efforts. He and success seem to go hand in hand on each endeavor.

Although definite plans for this semester's program will not be drawn up until approximately two weeks from now, it is assumed here that the program will again list the highly favorite sport of touch football. Last fall saw one of the finest leagues in the history of Intramural Sports here, both in student appeal and participation.

The actions of this semester's program will once again be under the auspices of Coach Steve's Intramural Sports Lab Class 422. This class supervises the organization and administration of the program with special duties of creating more participation among the students, providing events which will stimulate interest among the student population and aid in the co-ordination of the league's working mechanics.

Coach Salls Shown Real Hospitality

Coach and Mrs. Don Salls were shown real Southern hospitality recently when they were returning from their homes at White Plains, N. Y., and had their car break down in Lynchburg, Va.

During the four days they were guests in a Lynchburg hotel they were shown every courtesy, interviewed by the newspapers, and given the "deep-South" treatment generally.

The owner of the automobile agency which repaired their car took them out to his home several times and they were never allowed to become bored the

Talley To Capt. JSC; Phillips & Kinzy Alternates

Rayford Talley, a daring quarterback with the Steel nerves of a Mississippi gambler when upon the football turf, was Thursday morning named Captain of the 1960 Jacksonville State College football Gamecocks. He is a three-year letterman from Hanceville.

J. E. Phillips, Docena, and Buchanan, Georgia's Bill "Hoss" Kinzy, two rugged competitors, were named Alternate Captains. All of the new leaders will be seniors this fall.

Head Football Coach Don Salls announced the selections following a meeting of all returning lettermen prior to Thursday morning's drill. In making public the choices of his team, Coach Salls told COLLEGIAN Sports:

"I think the team has made excellent choices for Captain and Alternate Captains. They have used superb judgement and I know Talley will make a good captain and Phillips and

Hammett's To Sponsor Jax State Bowling Team

With Hammett's Mercantile of Jacksonville serving as their sponsor, Jacksonville State will have a representative in the newly-organized Anniston Handicap Bowling League at No-Me Bowling Lanes in Anniston. This was learned by COLLEGIAN Sports early last week.

The JSC team should be one of the stronger teams in the entire league based on comparison of the averages carried by the other teams and that of the fellows who will compose Jax State's team. The rest of the league averages 150 while the Gamecock entry has a 160 average.

Members of the Jacksonville team and their averages include: Frank Lovrich, 175; Jackie Cooley, 165; Stacy Shaw, 175; Don McConkey, 160; and, Bill Lazenby, 70. Spare man will be Arnold Johnson whose average is 150.

League play will be scheduled for Thursday nights at No-Me. The JSC team will be easily recognized because of their beautiful monogrammed bowling shirts purchased by their sponsors.

Meet The 1960 Gamecocks

Beginning with the next issue of the COLLEGIAN, a new 5-installment series "Meet the Gamecocks" will be debuted. The articles, honoring the seniors of the JSC football squad, will be written by Hal Hayes and Jim Royal.

The series will be keynoted September 19th when "Meet the Gamecocks" spotlights "handy man" J. E. Phillips. Forthcoming stories feature Max Bass, Rayford Talley, Mickey Grimmett, Jim Clepper, and Bill Kinzy. That's "Meet the Gamecocks", a new feature of COLLEGIAN SPORTS.
