Four Preps in Concert - March 9

The movie "Tobacco Road" will be shown Friday night at 7:30, Leone Cole Auditorium. Admission will be 25c, Allied Arts cards will be honored.

There will be a Leap Year Dance Saturday night, Feb. 29, at Leone Cole Auditorium at 12:00 o'clock. Allied Arts cards will be honored.

Dean's List

Mr., Miss Jax State and Mr., Miss Friendly Chosen

In elections held recently the student body chose Mr. and Miss Jax State and Mr. and Miss Friendly for the year 1964. Chosen to reign as Mr. and Miss J.S.C. were Tony Normand and Judy Shanaber ger. Tony is a junior pre-law student from Tarrant and Judy is a senior elementary education student, and David is a senior biology major from Jacksonville.

JSC Pershing Rifles Perform At Mardi Gras

The Jacksonville State Pershing Rifles, Co.1-4, marched recently in Mardi Gras parade in New Orleans, La., winning first place in one and taking fifth place. They arrived back in Jacksonville about 3 a.m. Monday.

Mr. & Miss JSC -- Tony Normand and Judy Shanaberg

THE FABULOUS FOUR PREPS

Four Preps To Appear In JSC Campus Concert

The Four Preps will appear in concert at Leone Cole Auditorium, Monday, March 9, at 7:30. They will be the Cash Box Magazine poll winners in other hit songs: "Down by the Station," "White Shoes."
Four Preps To Appear
In JSC Campus Concert

The Four Preps will appear in concert at Leone Cole Auditorium March 9, at 8 p.m., according to SGA President Gerald Waldrop. Nigd classes will be excused for those students who purchase tickets in advance. Tickets cost $2.00 per person in advance, and will cost $2.50 per person at the door. Tickets can be purchased at the Grab or from any SGA member.

PRESENTING THE UNPREDICTABLE—
THE FOUR PREPS

Thirty-five girls and not a single boy showed up to try out for a talent show at Hollywood High School in 1955. Into this crucible void stepped four young men who were to become nationally famous as The Four Preps.

"We were terrible," recalled Glen Larson, outspoken spokesman for The Preps. "But we were the only boys in school the faculty could persuade to be on the show; so we were a smash. From then on we were in demand for every free entertainment function.

The Preps have been in demand ever since—and clearly the reason is not because they had the field to themselves.

In 1955, when the Preps began recording for Capitol, they were the youngest vocal group on a major record label. Contrary to what seems to be the musical law of Nature for teen vocal groups, their career didn't end with one big hit. Their first record, "Dreamy Eyes," was a success in 1957, but their million-selling "26 Miles" made them national celebrities in 1958. Soon to follow was "Big Man," which almost overtook "26 Miles" and helped snap The Preps recognition as "Most Promising Vocal Group" of 1958 in the Cash Box Magazine poll.

There have been other hits—"Down by the Station," "Big Surprise," "Lazy Summer," "Got a Girl," and "Cinderella" (which they sang in the motion picture "Gidget") proving that The Preps are as popular as ever with the much-crowd.

But what has made The Preps a phenomenon is that they've grown up in show business—without passing through "that awkward stage."

By mid-summer of 1961, when their smash album, THE FOUR PREPS ON CAMPUS, became a national best-seller, it was apparent that The Preps had smoothly matriculated to college and adult audiences.

Recorded live amid the typical pandemonium of one of The Preps' campus appearances, ON CAMPUS contains audible evidence of why The Preps are one of the busiest vocal groups in the country. Equally as entertaining and successful was their follow-up 'in person' album CAMPUS ENCORE.

In their brief career they've appeared on Ed Sullivan's show four times, Ernie Ford six times, Ozzie and Harriet, another six, and Dick Clark's show 14 times—perhaps a record.

In addition, they've played almost every major state fair in the country and all of the top nightclubs including Los Angeles' Coconut Grove, Hollywood's Crescendo, Reno's Riverside Hotel, San Francisco's Facks II, The Duets Hotel, Las Vegas, and Harrah's Club, Lake Tahoe.

Their college appearances have taken them to every state of the union, leaving behind attendance records in their wake. (For example, recently the University of Minnesota, University of British Columbia.

Cont. On Page 3

Pi Gamma Mu

The Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science fraternity, will have its monthy meeting Thursday, February 27, at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roland Thornburg, associate professor of the organization.

The program will consist of a discussion of the 1964 political possibilities. Members will be assigned particular subjects and will give short reports. Rehearsals will be held.

Pi Gamma Mu is made up of minor study is within the minor study is within the minor science field, and who have a 2-point average overall.

Dr. J.M. Anders, head of the social science and division, is the sponsor of the Jacksonville State chapter.
EDITORIALS

Students’ Right To Know

We have just read a recent edition of the Hofstra CHRONICLE which told of the plans being made for the campus visit of American Nazi leader George Lincoln Rockwell. The paper gives some indication of the extent to which some people are willing to go in an effort to protect the student’s academic right to hear all sides of all issues and the right of all men to have their beliefs presented, right or wrong, for judgment by others.

Now let us say that we have no sympathy with Mr. Rockwell’s beliefs, but we do believe that he has a right to them, and he has a right to present them.

Apparently HU went to great lengths to endorse the Rockwell invitation offered by the Student Council and to offer protection for the visit. (The psychology department of HU was even planning to distribute questionnaires to students in order to study effects of the speech.) The administration made good its promise of freedom to students to listen to whom they choose, and maintained it even in face of threats of withdrawal of financial support from such groups as the Jewish War Veterans.

We haven’t heard from Hofstra since Rockwell’s visit there, but we hope that everything went well— for all concerned.

We are glad that the students’ right to hear was upheld, but we doubt very much that many Hofstra students were seriously interested in hearing what the Nazi had to say. Considering all the conflict and problems it apparently caused, we think that the whole thing surely has a right to present them.

In answer to your question concerning THE MALLARD situation which appeared in the last issue of the COLLEGIAN, I wish to say the following:

You asked, "What IS THE MALLARD?" THE MALLARD is not a fantasy, but a real being. Perhaps it might be more proper to say it is a supernatural being. THE MALLARD lives in the hearts of many Glazner Hall residents. He watches over them, guides them, and otherwise protects them. If a MALLARD member wishes to raise a little cane, then what is the harm in running a MALLARD flag up the flag pole or painting a MALLARD foot in the street? THE MALLARD is simply our way of letting off steam in an orderly and supervised way. No harm is ever done or ever will be done by a real MALLARD member. A true MALLARD must be voted into the organization by other members, and a simple majority is required for membership. The membership is quite small at present, but we are expanding.

The organization originated in Atlanta, Georgia. It has similar outgrowths in The University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, Valdosta State College and in numerous high schools through the Atlanta area. I was the president of the organization in my high school and am primarily responsible for its growth here. My identity will remain unknown except to other members and certain counselors. Any questions anyone might have concerning THE MALLARD, please address them to GREAT MALLARD, Glazner Hall.

Sincerely,
THE GREAT MALLARD

Letters, Letters

Dear Editor:

I wish to thank the COLLEGIAN for the brief but excellent write-up it gave THE GREAT MALLARD in its past issue.

In answer to your question concerning THE MALLARD situation which appeared in the last issue of the COLLEGIAN, I wish to say the following:

You asked, "What IS THE MALLARD?" THE MALLARD is not a fantasy, but a real being. Perhaps it might be more proper to say it is a supernatural being. THE MALLARD lives in the hearts of many Glazner Hall residents. He watches over them, guides them, and otherwise protects them. If a MALLARD member wishes to raise a little cane, then what is the harm in running a MALLARD flag up the flag pole or painting a MALLARD foot in the street? THE MALLARD is simply our way of letting off steam in an orderly and supervised way. No harm is ever done or ever will be done by a real MALLARD member. A true MALLARD must be voted into the organization by other members, and a simple majority is required for membership. The membership is quite small at present, but we are expanding.

The organization originated in Atlanta, Georgia. It has similar outgrowths in The University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, Valdosta State College and in numerous high schools through the Atlanta area. I was the president of the organization in my high school and am primarily responsible for its growth here. My identity will remain unknown except to other members and certain counselors. Any questions anyone might have concerning THE MALLARD, please address them to GREAT MALLARD, Glazner Hall.

Sincerely,
THE GREAT MALLARD

Letters, Please

On the morning of the last day of the semester, I awoke with a feeling of surprise at the relatively uneventful term. It had been a long time since I had felt this way about a semester. But the feeling was intensified by the thought that I might never have a chance at another semester of this kind again. The thought of leaving college behind and stepping back into the real world of everyday life was scary, but it was also exciting.

So, as you see, William Shakespeare— even though he is 400 years old— can’t help but remind me of Grace Metallous— her press agent is Catholic.

Letters, Letters

I wish to thank the COLLEGIAN for the brief but excellent write-up it gave THE GREAT MALLARD in its past issue.

Monday, February 24, 1964, The Collegian, Page 2

Dear Editor:

When one looks back at the days of youth as the evening looks at the distant morning.

When one learns of life the truth, Remember of talk a better warning.

Snakes do bite so hard that make The people yell so loud and quake, Hey, I poor the man who got the blow.

Hey, I poor the man who gets the talk.

some people make this talk their hobby That you hear them talk from hall to lobby. Some even talk with words inspired Changing the story and making a fire.

Today’s hero is one who spies, The one who knows the crowd’s desires.

The one who makes his talks so is his name and presents.

The Mallard From The Student’s Right to Know

Lynn Duty Reviews

If At First...

Dear Editor,

Happy Birthday! I really liked MACBETH—no matter what my roommate says. Keep up the good work and let me know if I can help in any way.

Sincerely, Franclie.

This spring William Shakespeare celebrates his 400th birthday (quite a feat—from England and his appearance by a year long festival during which his works will be presented... and presented.. and presented... and those Romans thought they knew how to throw an orgy—Nero indeed.) This is all very well and I’m sure that the revival of interest in HAMLET and HENRY VIII and all those other musical comedies will help Lawrence Olivier through the 1964-1965 season. We're told much ado about nothing in particular. I mean really— why Shakespeare? Why not National Virgil Week or Dostoevsky Week or Kafka Week? Personally I don't think anyone should lose any sleep over this whole thing. William, pretty sharp, eh! all that long wavy hair and that noble bow— all three feet of it. I mean he was a respectable hypocrite. I am willing to concede that Shakespeare did do a lot with the English language but you must understand I went to law school a long time ago and there were very few lawyers besides Bacon and he had his own lawyer going.

Did you know Shakespeare had a press agent? Max was his name and he was Jewish. I understand there was quite an argument between William and Max when the last act of ROMEO and JULIET came off the typewriter. Max said it was too dirty and had too much sex and William said he'd done to do the publicity. This of course enraged old Max. He was very insufferable by very inconsiderate and obscene girls. The use of profane language even among the comparative privacy of the dining hall is distasteful, but in public?! What has happened to our morals? This thing has become so habitual with some people that they obviously do not even realize they make a disgusting spectacle of themselves. If a person would lower himself to this level, what else would he do? Please, let's concentrate on correcting this situation and raise ourselves back up to a level where we can show some consideration for others.

A foreign student

Watch Language

This is an appeal to individuals to correct a disgusting and appalling situation that exists on our campus, namely the uninhibited use of obscenity in such places as the dining hall. From talks with others, I am not the only person who has been embarrassed and infuriated by very inconsiderate and obscene remarks made in the presence of girls.

Today’s hero is one who spies, The one who knows the crowd’s desires.

The one who makes his talks so

is entitled to his own opinions.

We were happy to see that the man who missed the world’s biggest backfire has been arrested again. He's almost the same Dick Nixon again. There was just a touch of the bitterness that he showed so successfully in the wake of his Adolph Irene.

In Rocinante, his pick-up truck, John Steinbeck traveled "in search of a man". The novel, which won the Pulitzer Prize, is a powerful, moving story of the human spirit. Steinbeck's characters are drawn with a masterful hand, and his writing is vivid and alive.

By John Steinbeck

Letters, Please

On the morning of the last day of the semester, I awoke with a feeling of surprise at the relatively uneventful term. It had been a long time since I had felt this way about a semester. But the feeling was intensified by the thought that I might never have a chance at another semester of this kind again. The thought of leaving college behind and stepping back into the real world of everyday life was scary, but it was also exciting.

So, as you see, William Shakespeare— even though he is 400 years old— can’t help but remind me of Grace Metallous— her press agent is Catholic.

Letters, Letters

I wish to thank the COLLEGIAN for the brief but excellent write-up it gave THE GREAT MALLARD in its past issue.

Monday, February 24, 1964, The Collegian, Page 2

Dear Editor:

When one looks back at the days of youth as the evening looks at the distant morning.

When one learns of life the truth, Remember of talk a better warning.

Snakes do bite so hard that make The people yell so loud and quake, Hey, I poor the man who got the blow.

Hey, I poor the man who gets the talk.

some people make this talk their hobby That you hear them talk from hall to lobby. Some even talk with words inspired Changing the story and making a fire.

Today’s hero is one who spies, The one who knows the crowd’s desires.

The one who makes his talks so

is entitled to his own opinions.

We were happy to see that the man who missed the world’s biggest backfire has been arrested again. He's almost the same Dick Nixon again. There was just a touch of the bitterness that he showed so successfully in the wake of his Adolph Irene.

In Rocinante, his pick-up truck, John Steinbeck traveled "in search of a man". The novel, which won the Pulitzer Prize, is a powerful, moving story of the human spirit. Steinbeck's characters are drawn with a masterful hand, and his writing is vivid and alive.

By John Steinbeck

Letters, Please

On the morning of the last day of the semester, I awoke with a feeling of surprise at the relatively uneventful term. It had been a long time since I had felt this way about a semester. But the feeling was intensified by the thought that I might never have a chance at another semester of this kind again. The thought of leaving college behind and stepping back into the real world of everyday life was scary, but it was also exciting.

So, as you see, William Shakespeare— even though he is 400 years old— can’t help but remind me of Grace Metallous— her press agent is Catholic.
Glenn Jr. for going into politics. defeated; he has no right to be a senator just because he’s popular.

In his very partisan speech Nixon attacked the ‘extremists’ now heading the civil rights movement and said that some “responsible” leaders took over. He very correctly spoke of continued racial demonstrations as contributing to greater unrest and hatred and he drew great applause when he urged that continued disrespect and flouting of present laws would only serve to make a civil rights bill itself less effective. Nixon said that renewed demonstrations and disrespect would only serve to make the new civil rights law “a law in name only.”

The former Vice President then attacked the Johnson administration’s handling of problems with such places as Viet Nam, China, France, Panama, and, of course, Castro’s Cuba. But then everyone is entitled to his own opinions. We were happy to see that the man who missed the world’s biggest prize is much himself again; he’s almost the Dick Nixon again. There was just a touch of the bitterness that he showed so much of after his double loss: his first comment, “I see that here I am seated at the head of the table,” and the statement to the Republican candidates for office, “I’ll be glad to come to Ohio and speak for you or against you—whichever will do you the most good.”

Judging from this address and his other activities of late, Richard Nixon is no longer out of politics—he’s definitely back in, if ever he was out. This is not an endorsement of Mr. Nixon, or anybody else, but we are happy to see him back on the campaign trail. As someone has said, it’s a strong bug that bites these men.

And who knows? Maybe next week he’ll hold a press conference.

On Rains’ Retirement

It is now trite to say that one was surprised at the announcement by Congressman Albert Rains that he will retire from the House of Representatives upon completion of his present term. Mr. Rains has served the citizens of Alabama’s Fifth District for twenty years, and he has served them well. As chairman of the House Housing Subcommittee and No. 2 Democrat on the Banking and Currency Committee, his influence has been felt around the nation. Many feel that he has not been from the South, Congressman Rains would have become Speaker of the House when Rayburn died.

The story is told that when Al- bert Rains was a grammar-school lad at a small Mountain school, the Congressman from the Fifth District at that time made an address to the student body. hope that Col. Glenn is soundly defeated; he has no right to be a senator just because he’s popular.

Afterward, the ambitious young Rains remarked to a friend that someday he was going to be a congressman just like the man who made the speech, laughed and proclaimed that he was going to be President of the United States. The friend did not become President, but Albert Rains did become Congressman, in 1934, Rains began his higher education here at Jacksonville, and from here he went to the University of Alabama where he studied law. He later served in the Alabama House of Representatives and in 1944 was elected to the Congress of the United States.

We regret seeing the political career of this Alabama statesman come to an end. Of course, that is a sad world of politics, one can never tell, Mr. Rains just might run for governor.

But, who was very influential in him after he had written something and inevitably got it wrong. (The reader is respectfully referred to one of Shakespeare’s pictures again.) The hubbub that followed was unseasonably reported in snatches of unofficial scandal sheets which still survive from the annals of 17th century journalism, but Max always came out best—after all he could type faster than William. Moral: steer clear of Jewish press agents if you like to write dire things.

So, as you see, William Shakespeare—even though he is 400 years old—can’t hold a candle to Grace Mapple. Her press agent is Catholic.

Lyndt Duty Reviews

Travels With Charley

By John Steinbeck

In Rockinante, his pick-up truck, John Steinbeck traveled “in search of America” with his poodle Charley. He left his family and friends to journey alone through a land when he was almost sixty years old. Why did he make the trip? In his own words, “In the American West, I heard the speech of America, smelled the grass, seen its hills and water, its color and quality of light. I had not felt the country for twenty-five years. In short, I was writing of something I did not know about, and it seems to me that in a so-called writer’s life, trying for twenty-five years. In short, I was determining to look again, to try to rediscover this monster land. His travels took him through all parts of America, from small towns in Maine and Montana to cities in Illinois and California. He remembered old truths and learned new ones, talking to the people, driving on country roads and on turnpikes.

Everywhere he found that people can’t be on the move, to travel, to get away from where they were. They were a changing, dynamic people in a magnificent landscape. This is the good of the American people, they shine through all of TRAVELS WITH CHARLEY, and makes this book worthy of another Nobel Prize for Steinbeck.

The Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be coming up pretty soon and we would like to say word for the Phi Mu for the concert. The Phi Mu for the concert is contributing to making the campus to promote good concerts of non-classical music such as the jazz concert and the Steve Young guitar concert. The Phi Mu boys are endeavoring to make music interesting for the student who is not a music major, and we encourage everyone to go out and hear them.

Letters, Please

On the morning the last COLLEGIAN appeared an SGA member came to us saying, “I’ve got a complaint, I’ve got a complaint.” We told him, “Write us a letter, write us a letter,” but we never received a letter from him. So now you can never know where his opinions differed from ours.

We realize that there are two sides to every question, but as rational people, it is impossible to believe in both ideas. Therefore, the COLLEGIAN will continue its narrow policy of printing only one side--our side. However, we do reserve a column for use by anyone who differs with us. And we have promised that there will be no rebuttals to letters.

We let the student body know how we feel. Won’t you do the same? WHY NOT WRITE US A LETTER?

Collegian

Jacksonville State College

Alabam.

Editor ........ George Earl Smith
Associate Editor .. Larry Keener
Sports Editor.......... Jean B. Klein
Circulation Manager..... Linda Shaw
Adviser............... Luttrell Hall
Photographer .......... Mrs. R. K. Coffee

***

The COLLEGIAN is published twice monthly by the students of Jacksonville State College, and is distributed free.

The 17th century journalism, but Max always came out best—after all he could type faster than William. Moral: steer clear of Jewish press agents if you like to write dire things.

The COLLEGIAN is published twice monthly by the students of Jacksonville State College, and is distributed free.
Senior Spotlight

Mrs. Newell White, our senior subject this issue, is the type person who has always drawn a sponge across the table of human knowledge, with her purpose to learn and to teach this knowledge to others. Her big goal in life is to graduate from Jacksonville State University. Anyone can see how much she has added to the campus because when she first came there were only two buildings on this site: Graves Hall and the center section of Daugette Hall, and he has been building onto the campus ever since.

This man’s name is Mr. John Duncan and his job is the maintenance of the buildings and grounds around the campus. Mr. Duncan and his crew have also built the addition to Pannell, the president’s home, don’t management house, the press box at the football field, and remedied the Student Union Building four times.

About a year ago Mr. Duncan and his crew built another building—the maintenance shop, located behind Mason Hall. Dr. Cole had this building named for its builder—Mr. Duncan. Asked how this news was given to him Mr. Duncan said, “The letters for the name of the building were just handed to me to put up.”

Meet Mr. Duncan, College Engineer

It seems that in 1949, when Mr. Duncan built the president’s home Dr. Cole wanted a cornerstone laid naming the builder. This job was never accomplished, so when the maintenance shop was built it seemed only natural that this building be named the Duncan Maintenance Shop. At the present time, Mr. Duncan is a consultant for the architects building the new girls’ dorm. His official title is engineer for the college.

Mr. Duncan was born and reared here in Calhoun County. He first worked the college from 1924-1928 on the old campus and on old Forney Hall. He has five children, one daughter graduated here and one son, formerly a student here, is a minister.

When Mr. Duncan was employed there were three foremen on this campus doing the job he is doing now. This just goes to show what one can do if he puts his head to it.

-- BROWNING

Dean Willman Now A Judge

Jacksonville State’s Dean of Students is evidently gaining recognition as a judge of pretty girls. Dean Willman was recently by the editor of THE COROLLA, yearbook of the University of Alabama, to be on hand February 19 to help judge the contest for “Top Corolla Beauty for 1964.”

“I have no idea how they got my name,” Dean Willman remarks; “Mrs. Willman is so sure she will let me go.”

Dr. Spakovskiy Receives Coments On Recent Book

Dr. Anatol von Spakovskiy, assistant professor of sociology, is receiving reviews of his latest book “Freedom, Determinism, Indeterminism,” which came out in 1963.

A complimentary review appeared in Ricerche Filosofiche (Philosophical Research) in Rome, Italy, written by Sergio Bocchichio, a well-known philosopher.

Dr. Spakovskiy has had some interesting correspondence on his book of Russian poems which he published some months ago. Among the letters received were those from Prof. Ludmilla B. Turkvich, professor and chairman of the Russian Department, Rutgers University, a professor at the University of Freiburg, Switzerland, and the wife of the president of the German Federal Republic, the lady of the present of Schleswig–Holstein, Germany, Mrs. Wilhelmine Lubke. He has also received letters from Dr. Albert Schweitzer and Bertrand Russell.

The Contemporary Russian National Review in Canada reviewed the book of poems, and will publish Dr. Spakovskiy’s forthcoming book.

Dean’s List

Cont. From Page 1

L. Eaker, Jasper.

Michael C. Cornwell, Jerry Dillard, Charles O. Duggan, Birmingham; Joy Miller Graham, Fort McGehee; Larry Joe Davis, Boggs, Selkie, L. Graben, Roxo; Beverly A. Graham, Fairfield; Bob Lee Gray, Rainelle; Mike L. Hallman, Woonona D. Jones, Guntersville; Penny Sue Hinkle, Ginger S. Roberts, Perry F. Savage, Piedmont; Billy S. Isom, Arab.

Phi Mu Alpha Concert Set

The annual Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be presented on March 3 in Leon Cole auditorium. The Phi Mu Alpha dance band will perform under the direction of David Walters, faculty coordinator. Stock strings and arrangements by David Walters and Bill Green will be on the program. One of the bright highlights of the concert will be the dance performance by David Walters and Bill Greenhouse.
Spanish Club Entertains Students at Fiesta

Nothing is as much fun as a Spanish fiesta—especially if you are Spanish and can understand what is going on. But still a party is a party and the heterogenous mixture of nationalities which comprises Jacksonville's Spanish Club found it very easy to have a generally uproarious time at a Spanish one and before the piano. The ensemble was deliriously "in-the-spirit" of things.

If you have never attended a Spanish fiesta before, you may be shocked. The first part of a Spanish fiesta is a "fun" party, and before the contents by David Walters and Bill Greenhaw will be on the program. The one of the bright spots to watch for is the lead alto sax, played by faculty member Carl Anderson. With Dr. Albert Lubke. He has also received a Spanish one and before the first semester senior and merceila Sennett, Charleston, S.C. Taylor, Springfield; Nicole Terellen, Brussels, Belgium; Donna C. Watkins, Lanett; Nieves Cabrera and Esperanza Dechaga closing the program with three more Spanish songs.

After this the members joined together to do battle with the dancing Pinta, which marked the end of the festivities. Everyone was reluctant to go home, but were able to feel a little better by thinking how much fun it would be to do it all again.

CHARLES LYBRAND

Phi Mu Alpha Concert Set

The annual Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be presented on March 3 in Leon Cole auditorium. The Phi Mu Alpha dance band will perform under the direction of David Walters, faculty coordinator.

Philadelphia and surroundings have been shown in several one-man exhibitions, and in other museums. She has been in the hospital one more week to do so. Nothing is as much fun as a Spanish fiesta—especially if you are Spanish and can understand what is going on. But still a party is a party and the heterogenous mixture of nationalities which comprises Jacksonville's Spanish Club found it very easy to have a generally uproarious time at a Spanish one and before the piano. The ensemble was deliriously "in-the-spirit" of things.

If you have never attended a Spanish fiesta before, you may be shocked. The first part of a Spanish fiesta is a "fun" party, and before the contents by David Walters and Bill Greenhaw will be on the program. The one of the bright spots to watch for is the lead alto sax, played by faculty member Carl Anderson. With Dr. Albert Lubke. He has also received a Spanish one and before the first semester senior and merceila Sennett, Charleston, S.C. Taylor, Springfield; Nicole Terellen, Brussels, Belgium; Donna C. Watkins, Lanett; Nieves Cabrera and Esperanza Dechaga closing the program with three more Spanish songs.

After this the members joined together to do battle with the dancing Pinta, which marked the end of the festivities. Everyone was reluctant to go home, but were able to feel a little better by thinking how much fun it would be to do it all again.

CHARLES LYBRAND

Phi Mu Alpha Concert Set

The annual Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be presented on March 3 in Leon Cole auditorium. The Phi Mu Alpha dance band will perform under the direction of David Walters, faculty coordinator.

Philadelphia and surroundings have been shown in several one-man exhibitions, and in other museums. She has been in the hospital one more week to do so. Nothing is as much fun as a Spanish fiesta—especially if you are Spanish and can understand what is going on. But still a party is a party and the heterogenous mixture of nationalities which comprises Jacksonville's Spanish Club found it very easy to have a generally uproarious time at a Spanish one and before the piano. The ensemble was deliriously "in-the-spirit" of things.

If you have never attended a Spanish fiesta before, you may be shocked. The first part of a Spanish fiesta is a "fun" party, and before the contents by David Walters and Bill Greenhaw will be on the program. The one of the bright spots to watch for is the lead alto sax, played by faculty member Carl Anderson. With Dr. Albert Lubke. He has also received a Spanish one and before the first semester senior and merceila Sennett, Charleston, S.C. Taylor, Springfield; Nicole Terellen, Brussels, Belgium; Donna C. Watkins, Lanett; Nieves Cabrera and Esperanza Dechaga closing the program with three more Spanish songs.

After this the members joined together to do battle with the dancing Pinta, which marked the end of the festivities. Everyone was reluctant to go home, but were able to feel a little better by thinking how much fun it would be to do it all again.

CHARLES LYBRAND

Phi Mu Alpha Concert Set

The annual Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be presented on March 3 in Leon Cole auditorium. The Phi Mu Alpha dance band will perform under the direction of David Walters, faculty coordinator.

Philadelphia and surroundings have been shown in several one-man exhibitions, and in other museums. She has been in the hospital one more week to do so. Nothing is as much fun as a Spanish fiesta—especially if you are Spanish and can understand what is going on. But still a party is a party and the heterogenous mixture of nationalities which comprises Jacksonville's Spanish Club found it very easy to have a generally uproarious time at a Spanish one and before the piano. The ensemble was deliriously "in-the-spirit" of things.

If you have never attended a Spanish fiesta before, you may be shocked. The first part of a Spanish fiesta is a "fun" party, and before the contents by David Walters and Bill Greenhaw will be on the program. The one of the bright spots to watch for is the lead alto sax, played by faculty member Carl Anderson. With Dr. Albert Lubke. He has also received a Spanish one and before the first semester senior and merceila Sennett, Charleston, S.C. Taylor, Springfield; Nicole Terellen, Brussels, Belgium; Donna C. Watkins, Lanett; Nieves Cabrera and Esperanza Dechaga closing the program with three more Spanish songs.

After this the members joined together to do battle with the dancing Pinta, which marked the end of the festivities. Everyone was reluctant to go home, but were able to feel a little better by thinking how much fun it would be to do it all again.

CHARLES LYBRAND

Phi Mu Alpha Concert Set

The annual Phi Mu Alpha jazz concert will be presented on March 3 in Leon Cole auditorium. The Phi Mu Alpha dance band will perform under the direction of David Walters, faculty coordinator.
The Keener Edge

LARRY KEENER

On behalf of the student body, faculty and administration I would like to thank the departing seniors on the basketball squad. Ronnie Harris, Wayne Ray, J.L. Bellamy, and Mitch Caldwell played their last game before a home crowd against Livingston State and turned in a fine performance to remember long after they have joined the ranks of Jacksonville alumni.

Most students are aware of the glory, cheers and recognition that often come to athletes. But not so many JSC Gears For Spring Training are aware of the long hours on the practice court, the rigid self-discipline and the sacrifices that are inherent in the work of the athlete. The boys mentioned above probably were constantly aware of the more rigorous sides of athletics but they stuck with it. My respect is theirs and I am sure everyone else feels the same sentiments.

Jacksonville Romps

By Livingston 95 - 64

Playing the last home game of the season, the Gamecocks displayed one of their best performances of the season in chalking up a 95-64 victory over Livingston State College. A near-capacity crowd cheered enthusiastically as six Gamecocks scored in the double figures. Mitch Caldwell, who recently established JAX STATE football is pretty much confined to the classroom these days, reports Coach Don Salls. For the past week backfield candidates have had classroom instruction on the new pro-type offense which Coach Salls will use this fall.

On March 2nd players will put on the pads and take to the field to begin six weeks of spring training in fundamentals and drills. Coach Salls is planning to hold a scrimmage session every Friday afternoon or night. Spring practice will be climaxed by an intra-squad game on Friday, April 10. It will also be in April when the try-outs for high school boys will be held.

PASSING IS PROMISED

Joe Kines, shown above, is Jacksonville's only returning center.

Coach Salls thinks he will find a few of the men he needs in the persons of Quarterback Doug Wheeler, End Phil Jolley, Halfback Ray Vinson, and End Frank Dean. But as in every offense the backs can't go without the blocking from big, quick linemen. The Gamecock coach hopes to find the solution in men like Mike Mann, 200; Paul Beard, 240; Gary Tucker, 240; James Turk, 220; and Center, Joe Kines, 210.

One of the basic requirements for building a winning football team is recruiting. The athletic department must "court" many high school graduates to fill the vacancies left by the graduating football players.

This year Coach Salls issued a call to every man on the Jax State campus to try out for the football squad. The response to this call has been very good thus far. Twenty players have indicated their desire to try to earn a Gamecock football berth. Some of these are:
Jacksonville Romps
By Livingston 95 - 64

Playing the last home game of the season, the Gamecocks displayed one of their best performances of the season in over Livingston State College. A near-capacity crowd cheered enthusiastically as the double figures. Mitch Caldwell, who recently established a new scoring record for a single game at Jacksonville, again led the Jaxmen in the scoring column. Caldwell combined 12 field goals and 12 points, each while Ronnie Harris claimed 11 and Jim Leonard hit 10. Charles Ayers and Ernie Bagley rounded out the 95-point total with four points and two points, respectively.

Harris deserves much of the credit for Jacksonville's domination of the ball, as does Leonard. Both consistently went up in the air and came down with important rebounds. Jacksonville was able to build a lead from the beginning and consistently increased the margin to 50-31 at halftime. After a typically beautiful halftime performance by the Ballerinas, Jacksonville emerged from the dressing room and continued to display their scoring skills. For Mitch Caldwell, Rodney Shirey, Ronnie Harris, Wayne Ray and J.L. Bellamy the Livingston game was the last before a home crowd. All will graduate this year and are to be thanked and congratulated for their contributions to the athletic program of Jacksonville State College.

One of the basic requirements for building a winning football team is recruiting. The athletic department must sign many high school graduates to fill the vacancies left by the graduating football players. This year Coach Salls issued a call to every man on the Jax State campus to try out for the football squad. The response to this call has been very good, thus far. Twenty players have indicated their desire to try to earn a Gamecock football berth. Some of these are: James Howard Kirkland, a 190-pound halfback from Oneonta and Marion Institute; Hugh Wheeler, a 200-pound guard from Piedmont; and Joe Beacham, a 235-pound tackle from Shades Valley High in Birmingham.

SALLS SIGNS GRIDDERS

Five outstanding high school boys were recently signed to scholarships by Coach Salls and the athletic department. John Randall Bunch is a 21-year old sophomore from Bamberg, South Carolina. He is 6'1/2", 230-pound fullback. Another player who will seek a backfield post is 19-year old Joe Haynie. Joe is a 6'0" 190-pound quarterback from Emma Sansom in Gadsden.

One of the three linemen receiving a scholarship is Terry O'Court, a sophomore end candidate from Gadsden. Terry is 6'4", weighs 220 pounds and is 20 years old. Robert Shaddix, a sophomore center prospect, is 20 years old and hails from Talladega. Robert's 6'1", 200-pound frame will be welcomed to the Gamecock squad.

The fifth Jax State scholarship winner is 21-year old Thomas Moore who played his high school ball at Marshall County High in Guntersville. Tom is a 6' junior center and tips the scales at 205 pounds.

By Dick Johnson

Intramural Sports News

This year, the intramural department will again sponsor a ping pong tournament. It will be played in the Student Union Building February 25-27 between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 p.m.

Anyone interested in entering may do so by placing their name on a list that will be in all dorms and on the first floor of Bibb Graves Hall.

BASKETBALL PLAY-OFF TO BE HELD

The intramural basketball championship play-off will be held March 23-25 between the two leagues. The four leading teams in each league at the end of regular season play will determine the overall champion in a single elimination tournament.

CALLING ALL GIRLS

A girls' Intramural Program is being set up for all girls interested in sports activities. This program is not reserved for just physical education majors and minors, but it is for ALL girls.

There will be hall meetings in each dormitory to discuss the program. This will be for all girls, married or single, on or off campus.

Committers may sign up in Mrs. Floyd's office, No. 6 in the P.E.B.

Meeting Called

Coach Ray Wedgeworth will hold a meeting for the baseball teams March 2 at 4:00 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Athletic Building.

Also, Coach Wedgeworth stressed that everyone who has not signed the eligibility roster should do so right away.

JACKSONVILLE FANS have come to expect to see Ronnie Harris in control of things during his four years at Jacksonville. Here he is shown in his usual role during the Livingston game. For Harris and four other Gamecocks it was the last game at home of their college career. (Photo courtesy of the Gadsden Times)

Sportswriter Praises Harris

Below is an article written by Jimmy Smothers, Sports Editor of THE GADSDEN TIMES, in last Tuesday's paper. It says everything the COLLEGIAN could hope to say about a fine athlete and a fine person.

"Amazing Ronnie Harris of Jacksonville ended a brilliant four-year sports career at Jacksonville State College last week. And it did not go unnoticed. When the 6-1 guard fouled out of the game against Livingston with 14:46 remaining he received one of the biggest ovations ever afforded anyone at the school.

"As the popular athlete trotted to the sideline, many of the near-capacity crowd of 1,200 rose and extended an applause which must have lasted a couple of minutes.

"And it wasn't the only hand he had received that evening. Almost everybody he patted in a rebound the crowd was similarly pleased. And he did it often.

"In addition to his rebounding, Harris put on a dribbling act comparable to a Marcus Hayes show. He stole the ball and was driving full speed for the basket when he was tripped. But Ronnie caught with his left hand, walked "three legged" out of the crowd under the basket and regained his balance at the side of the court. He retained possession of the ball and dribbled back in for a shot.

"The Sand Mountain lad earned a starting role four years in both football and basketball and plans to enter the coaching field after receiving his degree this spring.

"And if he coaches like he plays, he will be great. The only trouble he will have finding a job will be deciding which of numerous offers he accepts."

Jax May Add Howard

Head Coach Don Salls announced Tuesday the probable addition of Howard College to the Gamecocks' schedule for the 1965 and 1966 gridiron seasons. Whether or not the addition takes place is dependent upon Howard joining the Conference. Indications as of right now are that they..."