Ambassador Elbridge Durbrow Speaks On The Far East At IH Dinner-Forum

Ambassador Elbridge Durbrow, a veteran of 36 years with the U. S. State Department, reiterated President Johnson's policy of assisting South Viet Nam in resisting external aggression and subversion in a speech delivered at the International House dinner-forum on Feb. 23. His topic was "U. S. Policy in the Far East."

This policy and its overall objectives he described as being a determination to help other countries maintain their individual security from external aggression and subversion; to assist them in developing free from domination, and in accordance with their own traditions; and to see the emergence and survival of non-communist nationalism.

The principal aim is peace and security for the small nations and a concern for fair play, he said. The U. S. does lived up to, it will tarnish the image of the U. S., and other nations will lose their confidence, he said.

In the long run the U. S. cannot afford to let the Viet Cong take over South Viet Nam. It is not only the bread basket of Southeast Asia, but its loss would hasten the downfall of Laos, Thailand, Burma, and other countries and would hurt the free world most seriously.

Besides this, if communism is not stopped in Viet Nam, it will have to be elsewhere. The longer it is postponed the harder it will be and the more it will cost.

Ambassador Durbrow spent four years as a diplomatic representative in Viet Nam from 1957-1961. His next assignment was Paris, France, and a few months ago he was transferred to the Air War College, Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, where he is adviser to the commanding general.

He was accompanied to Jacksonville by Lt. Col. John Devlin and Lt. Col. Robert Gwynn.

Ambassador Durbrow was introduced by John R. Stewart, director of the International House Program.

SGA Meeting

February 21, 1966

President John Mann called the meeting to order. June Land gave the invocation, roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary. Complaints were made to members of the food committee. Discussion of these complaints followed. Money and tickets left from the Queen of Hearts Ball were collected.

The first of a series of free movies sponsored by the SGA will be shown in the Round House on Wednesday and Friday nights at 7:30. The first movie is "The Wheeler-Dealers" starring James Garner and Lee Remick.

Rules were read concerning qualifications to run for an SGA office. The election will be during the first full week of classes in April. Each candidate shall file a petition with the secretary of the SGA at least two weeks prior to the election.

President Mann informed the Senate of the convention of Southern Universities Student Government Associations (SUSGA) which will be May 5, 6, 7 in Jacksonville, Fla. Topics to be studied at the conference include the SGA's role and function in campus life. Our SGA has been assigned to take a part in one conference study group. Joe Stahlkuppe moved that our SGA should allot funds to send a delegation to the conference in May. David Peters seconded the motion and the SGA an-

Inter-Club Council will meet at 10:30 on Wednesday from now on. Members of the council include Tommy Monroe as the presiding officer, and the president of each organization on campus is responsible for attending the meeting and carrying the business reports back to his organization. Awards and Certificates of Achievement will be made in May, so each club should be prepared to report the members who have done the most work for the benefit of the school.

Jax State Breakfast Is Slated

The Jacksonville State College breakfast will take place Friday, March 18, at 7:45 a. m., in the Terrace Room of the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham. Miss Beulah Allen of Fort Payne, president of the alumni association, will preside.

The Terrace Room has accommodations for 300 and tickets will be distributed on see the emergence and survival of non - communist nationalism.

The principal aim is peace and security for the small nations and a concern for fair play, he said. The U. S. does not want war, but will oppose aggression to keep Viet Nam from being taken over.

The ambassador said there were some misunderstandings that should be cleared up: the war in Viet Nam is not a civil war; the Viet Cong are not rebels but a hard core of well - trained and organized forces from Hanoi.

The conflict should always be recognized as subversive aggression, he said. The same subterfuge was attempted in Iran, Greece, and the Philippines, and will be tried in Thailand. It is not different to what Hitler did in Poland, or what North Korea attempted to do to South Korea in 1950. Viet Nam is another test of this kind of aggression to see if it will work. It has never worked before, he declared.

A promise to defend Viet Nam has been made by three Presidents during the past 11 years, Ambassador Durbrow reminded his audience. The situation is a challenge of that pledge, and if it is not

Colored Entertainment On This Campus? Why Not!

"Would you discriminate against a Negro entertainment group for an SGA Big Event?" This question was the basis for a poll among Jacksonville State students. The resounding answer was--NO! However, the answer was not unanimous; 31 girls out of 100 said yes and 69 boys out of 100 gave this as the answer. The other 97 girls and 98 boys feel that good entertainment provides enjoyment regardless of the artists and most students were quick to point out that the rhythm now associated with popular music and rock n' roll was native to the Negroid tribes of Africa.

This attitude in favor of non - discriminatory action reflects some of the changing ideas that the modern college student has. The barriers of prejudice are beginning to be replaced with humanitarian ideas of equality.

Whom do the students want?

According to 31 out of 100 girls, the Supremes are tops. The boys put Ray Charles at the head of their list with 24 out of 100 votes. There are 14 boys who say that they have no particular choice just "as long as it is good entertainment." Second in demand among the girls (25 out of 100) is Johnny Mathis who rated in second place, too, with the boys with 12 votes out of 100. So, the Supremes, Ray Charles, and Johnny Mathis seem to hold over one-half of the votes reported.

After the Supremes and Johnny Mathis, the three most often named entertainers among the girls are James Brown (17 out of 100), Otis Redding (9 out of 100), and Ray Charles (7 out of 100), who was the boys' first choice. The boys, on the other hand, put their next three choices as the Supremes, James Brown, and Otis Redding, the last two having nine votes each. The Supremes, who were the girls' first choice, received third place among the boys with ten votes.

The remaining votes from the girls were cast for the Platters, Louis Armstrong, the Impressions, Duke Ellington, and the Ramsey Louis Trio, all of whom had one vote each except the Platters who received four. One girl said she would like to see the Snappy Seven, a group who played for the senior prom at her high school. The groups with five or less votes named by the boys were the Tams, the Drifters, the Impressions, Louis Armstrong, and Harry Belafonte.

All in all, the general attitude of the students conveyed the idea that if the group were worth hearing, it would be supported regardless of race, because, as one girl said, "good entertainment is simply good entertainment."

Rating Scale

Traits assigned to "good" teachers and to "poor" teachers by the January, 1966 graduating class of Jacksonville State College.

A GOOD TEACHER

1. Knows the material and presents it in such a manner as to keep the class members interested.

2. Is prepared for every lecture and reads within his field and related fields so that he has the latest information.

3. Is always neat in appearance.

4. Gives tests that are fair and covers the important material.

5. Shows a sincere interest in the progress of the students. (Is available for conferences, etc.)

6. Gives enough pertinent "work" to challenge students.

7. Is efficient -- keeps accurate records and grades and returns papers promptly.

8. Is an intelligent and broad-minded individual.

9. Is fair to all students.

A POOR TEACHER

1. Is disorganized.

2. Often stays completely off the subject. (Talks about self and past accomplishments)

3. Teaches on a level below or very much above students work.

4. Does not demand any real effort from the students.

5. Gives old tests which are in circulation or gives the same test to all sections in that course.

6. Seems bored or indifferent with respect to the material.

7. Takes little or no interest in the progress of his students.

8. Shows partiality toward some students.

9. Tells "off color" jokes and uses improper (and profanity) language to waste hour which should be used for presentation of material.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to direct this letter to the administration concerning the meal ticket policy. The statistics printed in the COLLEGIAN on Feb. 7, claim that 65% of the girls and 67% of the boys go home on weekends.

It would seem that the best policy for the administration to follow in fairness to students who go home would be the adoption of an alternate five-day meal ticket plan.

I would like to suggest some kind of inquiring be held as to why this could or could not be done. I can see no reason why students should not be permitted to pay only for the food they eat. Even if a student stays at school he may want to eat Sunday dinner elsewhere without the feeling that he has paid for two meals. I am one of the 65% that does go home and I would like the benefit of all the money I spend.

Dear Editor

Re Mr. Kline (COLLEGIAN -- Feb. 21). Our hands are not completely tied in the respect to weekend social activities. This is exactly what fraternities and sororities are for. If the city and school cannot provide any substantial entertainment for us, then we must organize ourselves and try to remedy this plight. If the administration has agreed to answer our questions then have them explain why they have repeatedly nixed the idea of fraternities and sororities at Jacksonville. They are the ones who seem to be tying our hands and keeping us from helping ourselves.

Fraternities and sororities have long been a method of providing a social education to complement the academic education we get weekdays. Jacksonville is probably the largest school in the southeast without them. If there is a good reason for not having them why doesn't someone at least tell us what it is?

On The Campaign Trail

Since the last edition of the COLLEGIAN, much has been done, said, changed as far as the campus political scene is concerned. The number of presidential candidates remains the same, but one candidate has dropped out of the race, another has taken his place. Plans are being solidified and people enlisted as one of the most spirited campaign periods in JSC's history draws toward the inevitable finale.

As predicted by the COLLEGIAN, Randall Wolfe, SGA treasurer withdrew from the arduous political arena, evidently to seek his fortune in other fields. SGA vice president, Tommy Monroe has lifted his battle flag and definitely entered the race for president. Phillip McMahan, evidenced by much activity in his camp, is still very much in the race. Glazner Hall's pride, Jack Sanford, has let no snow fall on his ambitions either, for he has been perhaps the most active campaigner in the yet early stages of this race.

One of the big surprises of this year's battle royale came when proposed presidential dark his intention to run, not for president as many expected, but for vice president. He will oppose former COLLEGIAN feature editor, David Cory, and commuter John Nelson in this important secondary race.

In the race for SGA secretary two pretty politicians and two able campaign managers will be pitted against each other. Junior class SGA representative, Judy West, with her campaign manager, John Niblett, will vie with Pannell Hall's Janice Boyd, managed by Jeff Hamrick for the "writing arm" position of the SGA.

Another big surprise is the race for treasurer. Usually a little contested position, this year's race will sport two candidates with a possible third in the wings. Glazner Hall SGA representative, Lane Warren will confront PRer, Hugh Naftel, in this race. There is a rumor that a certain young lady is still considering the possibility of running, but she does not wish her name publicized.

With the wide range of candidates and interest groups one should be able to find at least one candidate that he

Same Old Stuff

This editorial concerns the same old stuff that you hear all the time about why YOU should take part; about why YOU should be interested in happenings and events; about why YOU should care who leads and makes policy and represents YOU. I fully realize that this is probably so worn out that as YOU read it the effect is probably nil. There is probably a reason for this, but I don't know exactly what it is. Not knowing the reason for the failure of this type of writing to get results I will blunder ahead with my rendition of the same old stuff.

Whether the reader realizes it or not there is an IMPORTANT election to be held on the JSC campus on April 5. This election will decide who will take the reins of the Student Government Association and in turn how next year will turn out. The reader may think that this election will have little or no effect on him as an individual and see very little reason to vote, or to participate in pre-election campaigning. I hope this is not the case for unless each person who attends JSC votes and takes an active part, this election and the resulting student government will not be a truly representative body for everyone.

YOU, the reader decide, do you have the old fashioned GUTS to take 45 seconds and vote, or do you want to spend all next year complaining about the SGA officers. If you don't vote, then be man enough to keep your darn mouth shut, because whatever happens it will be directly accountable to you, for your selfishness and lack of real insight or whatever keeps you from voting on April 7, 1966 in Bibb Graves Hall.

Your Chance

Editor's Note: In the last COLLEGIAN, I made reference to a financier in the Birmingham area who wouldn't mind investing considerable funds in student orientated investments in Jacksonville. I wrote this man and he is anxious to find out how many students would patronize investments made in the line of entertainment and amusement and exactly what the students would like to have in these areas. This gentleman has considerable backing and would like to be certain that his investments would prove at least promising before any definite plans are made.

The COLLEGIAN has prepared the following form which is to be torn out, filled in and dropped in the COLLEGIAN Suggestion Box in the Grab. Naturally the more students who fill out the forms the greater the likelihood that further action will be taken by interested parties. If you sign the form there is no obligation and all forms will be kept confidential.

Do you want to see something that will make you mad? And make you weep, laugh, and hiccough at the same time? Then plan to be on hand for Jax State's Satirical Review which will take place the first week in April.

Under the direction of C. P. Heath of the business department, 50 students representing every department at JSC will satirize almost the entire modern world with some of the barbs directed at certain conditions here at JSC, ranging from automobiles on campus to birth control. Issues have not been ignored because of their sensitivity!

The reason for the "RE-VISITED" in the title is that review is an adopted version of the original review, "The Wheat and the Chaff." The original was written by four people, a member of the Memphis Press-Scimitar, a congressman's wife, a Northwestern University coed, and our own Mr. Heath. Two of the skits in the original have been dropped and two more specifically related to JSC have been added.

Don't Be A Litter Bug

Mr. J. E. Fain, director of Auxiliary Services, advises, "Our attention has been called to the thoughtlessness of some students in the Student Union Building." Mr. Fain refers to the fact that there are those who are continually littering the floor and tables with their trash which could just as easily have been thrown in a trash receptacle. Some consider the floor one large ash tray and like their cigarettes make ashes of themselves by not using real ash trays.

The Grab and the Student Union are for the students, but students who avail themselves of the facilities must also take the responsibility for keeping the facilities in reasonable cleanliness.

Those who feel that they do not have to heed this casual warning may be surprised when they receive citations or are suspended from use of the Grab and SUB. Think Clean "Litterally."

SGA Announces Campaign Dates

President John Mann, advises that the SGA has decided that official campaigning for SGA positions for next year will begin at 12 o'clock midnight, March 27. Until this time, all candidates have been urged not to do any vote getting.

Election Day has been set for Thursday, April 7. The polls will be open from 7:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. Official voting machines will be used and the votes will be tallied and results given immediately after the election.

Gamecocks Top Troy Take ACC Honors

The Jacksonville State Gamecocks won their first Alabama Collegiate Conference Basketball title by defeating arch rival Troy 79-73 in a game played at Stevenson Gym on Feb. 19. The win avenges two earlier setbacks by the Red Wave this season. Bill Jones, senior forward from Gunterville, paced the Gamecocks with 22 points, 18 of which came in the first half. Behind Jones in the scoring column were Fred Lovvorn, who had 19; Paul Trammell and Terry Owens who had 12 and 13 points, respectively.

The tempo of the game started off fast and for the first 10 minutes the lead changed back and forth. Then with about five minutes left in the half the Gamecocks began getting fine outside shooting from Jones and extended their lead to seven points and they gradually pulled away from here.

By the middle of the second half the lead was up to 15 points and the Gamecock fans were almost assured of being conference champs.

The win was the seventh in a row for the Gamecocks who, after a rough beginning season, began to play steady basketball.

The win gives the Gamecocks a conference record

Sinners Edge Saints 69-67

Two free throws in the final 10 seconds of the game by Bill Jones gave the Jacksonville State Gamecocks a thrilling 69-67 win over the St. Bernard Saints. The win also assures Coach Tom Roberson's Gamecocks of at least a tie for the ACC basketball title this year. A win in the final game of the season against Troy will give the Gamecocks the title outright.

Before an overflow, "Merchants Night" crowd the Gamecocks and the Saints played what seemed to be a repeat of the final game in of 9-2, and an overall record of 16-12. The final action for the Gamecocks will be at the ACC Basketball Tournament this year being held at Alabama College.

Track Beats Football In Tennis

To everyone who is wondering about this strange head at the top of the story, I will explain. So sit back in your desk and listen to this fantastic tale.

In my daily journeys to the athletic building in my humble effort to supply the students with worthwhile sports news, my weary eyes witnessed a tennis match that will go down in the annals of Jacksonville sports as a classic. This duel pitted assistant football coach, Ken Beard, against new head track coach, Mike Mann. When I happened on this epic struggle the match was all tied up at two games apiece. Smelling a news story I stopped and will report to you what happened.

As I approached Coach Beard had just sent one of his fireball serves across the net to Coach Mann's backhand, and Coach Mann, with his great reflexes, rifled the ball back in the direction of Coach Beard. After several volleys, Coach Beard fell afoul of the back and side lines and in a few short minutes fell behind four games, but the new track mentor proved too much for the football coach on this occasion and won 6-3.

In an interview after the match, Coach Mann said that the reason he let the game go so long was that, "We were playing with Coach Beard's tennis balls and I didn't want him to leave too soon."

Will this duel between these great court stars continue? Read our next issue and find the answer.

Before an overflow, "Merchants Night" crowd the Gamecocks and the Saints played what seemed to be a repeat of the final game in the tournament last year in Athens. And for those people who can remember that far back it was the same Bill Jones who hit on the 30-footer that night to give the Gamecocks a 73-71 win over the Saints.

Playing under almost the same circumstances these two teams battled nose to nose the entire game, with the biggest lead being five points early in the second half. Also as by some act of fate the big man in the Gamecock lineup fouled out at about the same time in both games. When Terry Owens left the game with 9:08 remaining, with the feeling being that the Gamecocks had made a valiant effort but the loss of the "Big O" would mean a lot. But Gary Angel entered the scene and with five quick points gave the Gamecocks that needed spark he has given all season. But it was the fine shooting of Bill Jones and Fred Lovvorn, plus the rebounding of Buddy Cornelius that played the major role in the Gamecock victory.

Leading scorer for the winners was Bill Jones who hit for 20 points; behind Jones was Fred Lovvorn who hit for 16. Buddy Cornelius scored 12 points but grabbed off 12 rebounds to lead both teams in that department. Leading scorer for St. Bernard was Paul Lyons who had 25 points.

To show how close the game really was the score was tied 21 times and both teams pulled off 30 rebounds, the Saints getting most of theirs after Owens had fouled out.

The win gives the Gamecocks a conference record of 9-2, and an overall record of 15-12. After the final conference game against Troy, the Gamecocks will travel to Montevallo on Feb. 23 where they will defend their tournament championship at the annual ACC Tournament.

As a special added attraction to the game prizes were given away, the major prizes being a car which was won by a student, Ray Davis, and a pony, by a little five-year-old boy.

Tennis Outlook

Three members of the 1965 championship tennis team were among the 13 boys who reported to the opening day of practice on Feb. 8. Also on hand was a new coach, but he was only new in his duties as coach since he was a former tennis star at JSC. Coach Tommy Ham in his first year as head coach was pleased with the fine turnout and was looking forward to another fine season. With the return of three conference champs the main worry of the new coach will be replacing the veterans lost through graduation.

The three returning stars are No. 2 singles champ John Mann, No. 4 singles champ Steve Ellard, and No. 3 doubles team of Steve Ellard and Terry Mathews. Some of the boys expected to take the slack are Alain Chandelier from Paris, France; Tim MacTaggart, Miami, Fla.; and Lloyd Deck and Philip Mikul. Also a fine crop of freshmen turned out making the future of tennis at JSC a bright one. Some of these freshmen are Barry Witherspoon and Hugh Bryant.

The Gamecocks netmen who finished last year with an overall record of 11-4, and a conference record of 10-0, are faced with a tough 14-match schedule this season with a long tough road ahead in the conference.

The Gamecocks netmen will play a practice match on March 1, against Gadsden High School here at Jacksonville. The first regularly scheduled match will be on March 22, when the Shorter Hawks will come to Jacksonville to supply the opposition.

Roosters To Draft Dodgers For IM Title

The Roosters, led by the 26-point performance of Pat MacTaggart and the fine rebounding of his brother, Tim, have captured the intramural basketball title with a 59-44 win over the Draft Dodgers. The win gives the Roosters a season record of 11-0, the only perfect record through the entire season and the tournament.

The game featured the fine shooting of Pat MacTaggart who accounted for 20 of his team's 31 points in the first half. The Roosters jumped off into a quick lead with MacTaggart scoring the first six points for his team, with Bobby Starling keeping the Draft Dodgers in close contention in the early minutes of the game. But the shooting of MacTaggart just about sealed the fate of the Draft Dodgers.

Leading scorers for the losers were Steve Ellard, who hit for 14 points, and Kenneth Elrod who hit for 12. For the champs the scoring leader was MacTaggart with 26, followed by Rudy Bramlett who hit for 14. In the rebound department the Roosters out rebounded the losers 37-25, with Tim MacTaggart of the Roosters grabbing off 11.

The roosters in the quarter finals defeated the Mags 77-51, and the Snowbirds 56-55 in the semi-finals to reach the championship game. The Draft Dodgers defeated the Dee Bees 58-33 in the first round, crushed the Blade 66-35 in the quarter finals, beat Cheatum Anhow 58-43 in the semi-finals to reach the championship.

In the consolation game the Snowbirds defeated the Cheatum Anhow's by forfeit.

Leading scorers for the intramural tournament were Kenneth Elrod of the Draft Dodgers, who scored 63 points in four games; Pat MacTaggart, who scored 61 points in three games; and Steve Ellard of the Dodgers, who had 59 points for four games.

his fine material from last year. Featuring lettermen are Jimmy Barron, Dwight Duke and Dick Bell.

The first week of practice was mostly a week of conditioning and Coach Mann was hoping for clear weather the next couple of weeks so he might be able to get some hard work in before the first meet.

So far the cindermen have four meets and Coach Mann is working on a couple more meets. We will publish their schedules as soon as they are made available to us.

The interest in track has been heightened by the announcement of the construction of a track that will be ready by next season. Until this track is completed the track will hold all home meets at the Saks High track.

Bowling News

The Mt. View and Pelham bowling teams split in their games this past week. Pelham edged Mt. View by 4 pins in the last game to earn a tie.

Mt. View was led by pro Tom Moore, while Pelham was led by the famed Harold Crumpton.

If other teams would like to compete against Mt. View or Pelham contact Tom Moore or Jerry Ware.

Terry Thomas and Harold Crumpton were high (bowling) for the night.

Jones And Owens Top ACC All-Star Team

Seniors Bill Jones and Terry Owens placed one and two in the most votes when the coaches selected their All-Conference team on Thursday, Feb. 24, before the tournament began. They received 38 and 35 votes respectively to lead all other members.

Both Jones and Owens played an important part in the success of the Gamecocks this season. Jones, from Gunterville, averaged 17.5 points a game, while Owens averaged 14.7 points a game and set a new Gamecock rebound record this season.

proper court or is served improperly.

LOVE--The equivalent of zero or no points in scoring.

POINTS--The smallest unit of scoring. The first point is "15 or 5", the second point is "30", the third point is "40", and the fourth point is game. This holds true unless both players have won three points, then two successive points are needed after the score is called duce by one player to win the game.

SET--The unit of scoring next higher than a game, usually consisting of 6 games first won by one player. Margin over opponent must be at least two (2) games.

LOB--A high arched shot over the net.

SGA

Jane Baker gave the invocation, called roll and established a quorum. The minutes of the last meeting were then read, approved, and adopted.

Joe Stahlkuppe moved to appoint Jimmy Purcell as head MC for the Talent Show. Lane Warren seconded the motion, and the SGA approved. Other MC's selected were Ginny Ree Leath, Donnie O'Brien, and Ronnie Kilburn.

There will be a dance Tuesday night in Leone Cole Auditorium, the Roemans will play, and girls will have 11 o'clock permission.

President Mann reminded the Senate that the SGA campaigns do not officially begin until after AEA, and that the advance campaigning is not in order, and should not be allowed by the candidates or by their campaign managers.

David Peters moved for adjournment. Tommy Monroe seconded the motion, and the SGA approved.

February 28, 1966

President John Mann called the meeting to order, Lane Warren gave the invocation, roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read.

The Talent Show will be March 10 in Leone Cole. It will begin at 7:30. Allied Arts cards will be honored. Jimmy Purcell an-stalled. A member of the tennis team, Tommy Hamm asked the SGA if they planned to help purchase equipment for the team this year as last year. Jimmy Purcell moved to give the tennis team $50 to help with shoes. John McCarver seconded the motion, and the SGA approved.

Plans were discussed in regard to the Big Event of the spring semester. Available to us during this time will be the Kingston Trio for $2500-$3000, others included:

Gene Pitney - suggested, Brothers Four, Four Preps, Bobby Goldsboro, Righteous Brothers ($6000), Jay and the Americans are completely booked up for this season. The Lettermen were considered, but their former appearances on our campus were only two years ago, so it was decided to get a different group. Any suggestions will be welcomed.

Lucky winners of the drawing to award rental fee for the tuxedos furnished by the Anniston dealer were: Billy Melton, Ronnie Kimbrough and Scott Ragsdale. Each of these three boys will receive $6 prize money.

Joe Stahlkuppe moved that the SGA adjourn, David Peters seconded the motion, and the SGA approved.

Our cheerleaders will go to the basketball tournament in Montevallo this weekend. MC's for the Talent Show were nominated. These names were submitted:

Ray Norris, Gerald Brewer, Rick Kelley, Alain Chandelier, Janice Boyd, Jimmy Purcell, Bill Roberts and Ginny Ree Leath. Other names may be added to the list before the final decision at the next meeting.

Discussion for the Big Event entertainers followed; President Mann is checking with different agencies for the best booking dates and prices.

Ruth Neura suggested that the secretary send a letter of sympathy to Auburn SGA in regard to the students who were killed during the last week.

Jimmy Purcell moved to adjourn, David Peters seconded the motion, and the SGA approved.
