SGA Votes Mandatory Activity Fee

By a 14-1 roll call vote, the Student Government Association last Thursday night proposed a mandatory six-dollar per semester student activity fee for all JSU students enrolled for more than 10 semester hours or residing in residence halls.

The proposed fee is subject to a referendum of the student body and will be presented for a "Yes-No" vote at the April 23 SGA general election. A two-thirds "Yes" vote of those voting in the election is required for the measure to become an amendment to the present SGA constitution.

Under the provisions of the proposed amendment, the payment of the activity fee for two semesters will entitle the student to one copy of the Mimosa at no additional charge. This fee will also replace Allied Arts cards which are presently sold each semester. The $22.75 paid by many students for these two activities will be reduced to $12 per year by the fee.

In addition, the fee allocations will provide supplementary funds for the publishing of a weekly campus newspaper, support for homecoming activities, a firm budget for the Student Activities Board, and other activities.

Religious Emphasis Activities Underway

College campus circuit speaker, Dr. Thomas Ogletree, will address participants of Jacksonville State University's April 7-12 Religious Emphasis Week at 9:30 a.m. today at the Roundhouse.

His speech, "The Context of a Theology of Responsibility," will also be presented tomorrow evening following a dinner for Religious Emphasis Week resource leaders and counselors.

Dr. Ogletree is the author of "Christian Faith and History" and "The Death of God Controversy."

The noted minister is professor of theology and history at the University of Chicago Divinity School. Prior to assuming his present position, he was professor of philosophy and religion at Birmingham-Southern College. He is married to the former Miss Marilyn Brittain of Anniston.

Dr. Ogletree spoke on the topic, "The Church and Worldly Affirmation of Life," Sunday night. A reception followed.

Religious Emphasis Week is an annual event sponsored by the JSU Interfaith Council, consisting of discussion sessions, film presentations, lectures, and various other activities, Don Brasfield, Methodist chaplain, is serving as chairman of this year's activities. A film presentation has been scheduled this afternoon, featuring a popular religious philosophy movie.

Dr. Ogletree will address the assembly Tuesday morning at 10:30 on "The Church and Worldly Responsibility," followed by another film presentation at 1:30 p.m.

A ministerial and resource leaders' dinner will be held at 5 p.m., followed by a speech by the Rev. Mr. Brasfield.

The film, "Patterns of the Mind," is planned at 7:30 p.m., on Tuesday night, with discussions to follow.

"War Games" Movie To Be Shown

By Don Brasfield, Methodist Chaplain

Suppose last summer's Detroit riots were to erupt in every major city across the United States.

Wanton destruction, lootings, murder, and other atrocities would be of a magnitude beyond the comprehension of the average individual.

Yet, a disturbance of this degree would be minor compared to holocaust of a nuclear war.

A realistic account of "what could happen" during an all-out nuclear attack will be presented in the movie "The War Game," at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Roundhouse.

The controversial 47-minute film is part of JSU's Religious Emphasis Week activities.

According to writer and producer of "The War Game," Peter Watkins, who is former assistant producer of the British Broadcasting Corp., the movie is not an attempt to "sneak across" a propaganda message for unilateral disarmament.

He insists that his sole purpose is producing the movie is "to break the ice of apathy." (See WAR GAMES, Page 3)

All Gems To Meet Thurs

All girls who have been Gem of the Hills since June, 1967 are asked to report at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, April 11, to the office of Dr. Cole's office on Tuesday, April 23, at 11 a.m., for the annual selection of the Gem of the Hills. The meeting will be held at this time.

Young Critics

President Lyndon B. Johnson's recent decision not to seek re-election this year has been attributed by more than one person to pressure by the discontented youth of America.

The widespread opposition to the Vietnam war and the disenchantment with the Johnson Administration had its beginning on college campuses across the nation.

Following the President's Sunday night radio and television address, students at JSU as well as at other colleges across the nation rushed from door to door yelling, "We have heard the news -- it is only a crack in the dam."

Young voters have joined the prodding of younger candidates supported by an increasing number of young voters.

The political process of change in a self-governing nation will not be slowed down by the efforts of an administration which was recently opposed by the people.

The prodding of younger candidates supported by an increasing number of young voters will be a vote of confidence for the future.

The activity fee last week by the Student Government Association is approved and not implemented, it seems only fitting--should be dissolved. --NB

Obstacle Course

A 55-gallon drum filled with concrete placed in the middle of the road is not exactly what we had in mind to help slow down traffic for students going to and from Martin Hall.

In this modernistic world, surely something as simple as warning lights could be set up at each approach to Martin Hall.

As the college expands across Pelham Road, an over-walk is not required. But until then, the problem of crossing the road will continue to be a daily game of Russian Roulette.

Letters to the Editor

Busy Signal

Dear Editor:

For the past few years, I have heard complaints from fellow students and friends about an increase in the dormitory personnel. I never gave the matter much thought until I was confronted with a situation which involved a dormitory director and myself.

One night last week I stayed up studying for a test. I found myself without adequate study material. Shortly after 8 a.m. the following morning, I placed a phone call to a coed on campus to secure some lecture material.

The phone in the dormitory is answered by a lady with an elderly voice, so I assume that I was not speaking to a student.

The telephone conversation, which did not last more than 15 seconds, went as follows:

"Could you please get (name withheld) for me?"

"There are no monitors on duty."

"This call is quite important."

"No monitors on duty."

I am not sure whether the lady was answering for me or for some other student. It is not important. What I am concerned about is why I was so rudely treated. Not only was an injustice done to me, but also to the girl with whom I wanted to speak. As a resident of that particular dormitory, she was denied a privilege to which she was entitled.

If my call had been a sincere emergency, and treated in such a rude manner as has been described, both the coed resident and I would resent and condemn such treatment far more vehemently at the present time. It is my belief that the interest of a dormitory director is in the welfare of the dormitory residents. The attitude shown by the dormitory director seems to be that of irresponsibility for her occupants.

Friendly?

Dear Editor:

As a Negro, first semester transfer student on THE FRIENDLIEST CAMPUS IN THE SOUTH, I feel it is advantageous that I express my idea of this "Utopia."

I must say the students have been very friendly. Some students help you save your breath by not speaking. The students in the cafeteria are the greatest, they will gladly get up and give you their table if you sit with them.

I could not write a letter without thanking those lovely students in Glazer Hall for being so warm and friendly. I feel honored to hear those nice kind compliments that are whispered when I pass (Trigger: "I realize that many people criticize me. All great men are criticized. At least the great ones know that one office of the SGA is behind them.

I would also like to express my opinion concerning the lack of candidates in this year's student government elections. The qualifications for President of JSU, the highest office in the land, are that a person be a student of and a citizen of the United States. If this is sufficient for the higher office in the land, why is it that a person is a full-time student in good standing automatically disqualified as an SGA candidate? Why not let the voters decide the candidate's qualifications rather than an election committee?

I raise the qualification issue because two students told me recently that they would have considered an honor to have

Kaleidoscope Courses On Paper

Ever be thumbed through the JSU catalog and found a course you’d like to take, and then found out it doesn’t appear in the class schedule? Chances are you have, or have a friend who has lisitngs that some courses never seem to be offered. Many courses haven’t been offered recently, or people won’t be for some time, if at all.

(Cont. From Page 2) offered their services to the SGA, but they qualified on the 1.0 quality point average. I know these students to be sincere and dedicated, but I doubt if they are able to see why the quality point qualification should hold these students back. I appreciate your comment.

Mr. Sparkes: as 401, are offered on the campus.

Reply

Mr. Sparkes: Thank you for your moral support of Chanticleer policy.

We agree on your points for qualification for enrollment for SGA office with the exception that a junior standing should be preferred for the president’s office to assure the necessary knowledge of the campus and its activities is possessed by all candidates. You, like many other students, have several good ideas. How about doing something about them instead of reciting on your position and moving on.

With some exceptions, those now in power are expected to change a system which has served them well in the past.

Whether you realize it or not you are a member of the SGA and entitled to express your opinion on the floor of the student senate each Monday night. Of the 25 odd senators, there are usually five student senate, surely you can find one who expresses views similar to yours and will introduce the necessary legislation to bring about an amendment proposal for a campus referendum in an election. Get in gear and I’ll see you at the SGA meeting.

I have included a list of courses that have not been offered recently, or people won’t be for some time, if at all.

Telling It Like It Is

A cartoon in the current issue of Playboy Magazine pictures a ten year old boy writing on a wall and two elderly gently passing the scene commenting, “Kids today like it better when they were young.”

Such was the advice of the editor of the Nashville Tennessean, John Siegenthaler, to 250 newsmen and educators at the March 26 meeting of the American College Public Relations Association at Birmingham.

Siegenthaler, who became editor of the paper in 1962 after serving as administrative assistant to the then Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy told the educators and PR officers that the rebellion of students on U. S. college campuses is the major untold news story of today.

“If it’s not just the New Left at Harvard or Berkeley protestation of the drug or smoking pot, there is a new type of student today.”

He warned the convention participants to “tell it like it is” when speaking of the today’s campus rebellion.

“All the time, we’re saying it’s all just a passing fad, that these youngsters are yesterday’s goldfish swallows and pantry raiders. It’s not true.”

These young people have grown up in a society which they feel has lied to them,” he said. “They have realized that we idealize institutions and political leaders who live by the double standard. “The sense that the society in which they are about to live is not what they want to live in,” he said.

Siegenthaler said communities tend to feel that the problem is not there at all. “The cities are blaming the suburbs, the suburbs blaming the cities. Actually, he said, today’s college rebellion involves the entire college-aged community.

Telling It Like It is

According to city of Jacksonville Chief of Police Ross Tipton, city policemen do not have the authority to and will not stop and question co-ed for no other reason that she being seen entering or exiting a man’s off-campus apartment.

Chief Tipton released this word after being informed that on March 29 a Policeman, Carol Jean Smith and asked her name. According to Carol Jean, the officer implied the only reason he wanted her name was because of an alleged infraction. Chief Tipton explained that the visiting men’s off-campus residences.

The officer had apparently seen her sitting on the front porch of a Polam Road house earlier that afternoon.

On Monday, when he saw her, he held up administrative official, Carol Jean was told she could not get out of the car when visiting such residences.

Chief Tipton further clarified his stand, saying the city policing began to enforce school regulations only when they paralleled a city ordinance, county or state law, or federal statute.

Vanita Packard and Sex

Killian-Campbell Do Verbal Battle for SGA VP Post

(An effort to inform the students of JSU of the beliefs of the candidates in the only contested SGA political and student government elections, the Chanticleer has posed questions to Jim Campbell and Roger Killian.

Question:
What are your views on the assessment and utilization of the student activity fee?

Answer:

The assessment of the activity fee, as proposed at the April 1, 1968, meeting, is the opinion of this student, a step in the improvement of student life at this university.

It seems to me that the position of our student government, that the quality of the student newspaper, the book, and the level of our social, academic, and religious lives could all be improved by the levying of this fee. I was impressed by the sections pertaining to entertainment and was glad to see that a portion of the $6 per semester fee would be set aside to improve the quality of guest speakers on campus.

Co-sponsored sections allocate funds for use by the SGA in promoting religious denomination.

I would advocate, along with the proposed amendment, that a portion of the budget be set aside for educational (such as grades and educational level) for admission and continued enrollment at the institution, and that the student government and regulation of the daily life of an individual within and without the geographic boundaries of that institution's campus, given that the individual is a citizen of the United States and is regularly enrolled student at the institution.

Disregarding the recognized authority of a state supported academic institution's administration to prescribe the A.C.A.D. standards (such as grades and educational level) for admission and continued enrollment at the institution, what is the role and authority of that administration in the student government and regulation of the daily life of an individual within and without the geographic boundaries of that institution's campus, given that the individual is a citizen of the United States and a regularly enrolled student at that institution.

Disregarding the locally traditional activities of an administration franchised student government organization at a state supported academic institution (such as entertainment arrangements, social activities, hosting homecoming activities, etc.), what is the role and authority of that student government organization in the government and regulation of the daily life of an individual within and without the geographic boundaries of that institution's campus, given that the individual is a citizen of the United States of America and a regularly enrolled student at that institution?

The activity fee is one way the student government can pre-plan its role of furnishing entertainment and providing proper activities. By accepting the activity fee, our school would not be setting a precedent but following actions already prescribed by many other universities. I consider the amount to be paid (four per cent of gross income) quite reasonable to both the student-resident and the student-commuter.

As to the allocations of this fund, I am in reason- able favor of spending on the following:

- Recreation
- Guest speakers on campus
- Involvement of the student body in the assessment and regulation of the student government to regulate daily life of the students.

The student should be able to make decisions on how to spend funds for use by the SGA per semester, but students who have previously paid the fee will be considered members of the SGA following the academic fee in which they paid the fee.

The amount of the activity fee is set forth in the proposed amendment as a per cent of the total amount collected each semester. In an attempt to prevent conflicts or personal rivalries from interfering with the utilization of the funds to the minimum satisfaction, the student government, cheerleaders and Associated Women Students.

The amendment provides for setting activities per centages only by constitutional amendment. Other activities may be increased or decreased after the academic year begins in September.

I consider the main purpose of the student government to be bringing light and help solve, the problems of the individual student.

It is difficult for the administration to handle individual problems, because they must deal with and organize the academic side. In addition, large numbers of students enrolled in a variety of fields make it difficult for teachers to involve themselves with students, because they are busy with research, professional activity, and off-campus life.

Therefore, it is through the student representative body that his views have been presented to the students. In order for the student government to function properly, there must be responsible participation on the part of the student body and respectful acceptance on the part of the administration and the faculty. Without either, the student government has little value.

Our student government must over-come the image of something in which it is useful in making a job.

WHERE TO PUT THE TRASH CANS AND HOW TO PLAN A HOME-COMING WEEKEND.

With the spring of the Northeast Alabama, a new fraternity has been formed on the JSU campus.

Omicron Kappa is the third fraternity at JSU with its present membership of approximately 20 young men. Dean of Student Affairs William T. Tom has approved the new fraternity.

Under the auspices of Dean Edwards, Omicron Kappa hopes to eventually affiliate with and become a chapter of Delta Chi, a national fraternity that may take girls as members once it has not established a chapter in this province since 1916. A luncheon meeting is planned by Omicron Kappa with the Ammonia KA alumni and its president Oliver Potter. Interested men students at least a 1.25 GPA and are invited to contract Seymour West, president of Omicron Kappa or members Chip Brewton, John Freeman, Jimmy Howard, and Bob Hufham. The new group meets each Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in room 249 Bibb Graves Hall.

Seymour and Chip have recently visited KA chapter at U. of Georgia, U. of N. C., and Emory U., plans for a campus dance and a stag party before the end of the semester.

Delta Chi and Zeta Omega are sporting teams in the intramural and small leagues. At press time, Delta Chi remained undefeated.

The war cry of the Indian brave pierced the night air at Crystal Springs last Saturday as Delta Chi pow - wowed at a traditional Indian party. According to unofficial reports, Delta Chi "social events" are getting better all the time.

Congrats to Jean Boykin and Wilma Winn of Alpha Xi Delta. They were recently elected Quill Chairman and Keeper of the Robes, respectively.

ROTC Concert Plans Told

JSU officials announced plans this week for a Reserve Officer Training Corps Band concert. The concert is tentatively planned for Friday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Jacksonville High School Auditorium.

Col. George D. Haskins, a professor of military science at JSU, described this year's ROTC Band as, "One of the best military bands I have seen in my military career, and possibly the best ROTC band in the state of Alabama." Local residents can appreciate the marching and musical ability of the band as many of the band members are also members of the famous marching Southerners. Subsequent announcements will be made in this newspaper.

CHANTICLEER CALENDAR OF EVENTS
Things Looking Up At Spring Training Camp

No doubt head football coach Jim Blevins has many problems facing him this spring, but one of them will not be worry about a running game.

The Gamecocks should have a very good running attack in years and probably the most depth.

Back at running back is Howard Long, a 2-year starter; Glen Spann, a promising junior, who has turned running back into a first rate performer when Long was injured last fall; Mike Little, a flashy sopho - more who missed last season because of injuries; and two newcomers, Robert Butterworth and Melvin Barber.

Long was one of the top running backs in the South as a freshman, but injuries allowed the 205 pounder last year. In spite of injuries, however, Long gained 590 yards rushing and caught 14 passes for 138 yards. Long has 1127 yards rushing for 2 seasons and 48 pass receptions for 678 yards. Long holds the career scoring record at Jacksonville with 120 points.

Along with Long at the running back position are Swindon, a 185 pound sophomore.

As fullback, Spann started the last two games for Jacksonville last year, but was not a starter. As a fullback, Spann carried 139 times for 902 yards. He led the Southern States in rushing with an average of 6.5 yards per carry. In addition, Spann caught 14 passes for 138 yards. Long has 1127 yards rushing for 2 seasons and 48 pass receptions for 678 yards. Long holds the career scoring record at Jacksonville with 120 points.

Gamecocks Rip Southern, Athens But Lose to Livingston

Jacksonville tore Birmingham Southern apart here on March 21. Before the Panthers scored what hit 'em 'em down 5-0 in the very first inning of the game.

Catcher Wayne Hester and outfielder Kenny Adams supplied the most damaging blows to Southern. Hester blasted an opposite field three run home run behind Adams who ran single all in the first inning. Adams doubled home another pair in the third inning. Adams had three hits and four rbi's.

Four more runs in the second inning really put the icing on the cake, and Coach Ray Wedgeworth's troops coasted the rest of the way.

A trio of Jax pitchers, fronted by southpaw Jeff McCool of Birmingham, rated Southern to only two hits and fanned 17 men. Meanwhile, Coach Al Wasmus' Panthers couldn't find an effective thrower until Jim Humphries and Jerry Wilson came on. Humphries damage had been done.

Following McCool to the hill for the Gamecocks in winning situation were Lowell Tendall and Jimmy Thompson. The right-handed works together in the Donaldson's piece. McCool fanned 11 in his five innings, while Tendall and Thompson got five outs.

In other baseball action Jacksonville dropped Athens 5-2. Darrell Childress went the distance against the Bears.

The right-hander whiffed 11 men, struck out by only three in his stint. Childress also threw only 103 pitches of which 80 were strikes.

The Gamecocks moved into a 2-0 lead at the end of the first, Ken Adams hanged a double to drive the initial run.

Athens got in the fifth, but the Gamecocks got three more markers in the sixth to clinch the contest.

Also the Gamecocks dropped to Livingston by a score of 5-3. A costly error in the second inning may have cost the Gamecocks the game but neither team had all their runs in that inning.

Netters Fall To Samford

The Jacksonville State University tennis team has had their problems so far this year, but show a lot of promise.

The tennis team has dropped and won matches both by a score of 8-1. They are Birminghams, but have won more than one game.

This year's coach is Ray Bemis from Fort McClellan. Ray is an outstanding player, and has served as a tennis club president in the area and is an excellent coach.

I M News

The Chanticleer will feature one UM game each issue, plus the scores during the week.

This issue...the Corks vs. the 69'ers. Final score: Corks: 6, 69'ers: 0.

Behind 1-0 until the last inning, the Corks had a 6-4 lead when Bill Davis, followed by a Don McWhorter triple and the game winner. Mark Lawless wrapped it up for the winners.

Athens scored their run on a first batter, first inning inside the park bumber. The whole 69'er team was scattered high up with Brook, Fowler and Hill being the stalwarts for the losers.
A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE JACKSONVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY STUDENT GOVERNMENT CONSTITUTION APRIL 1, 1968

Spice

"I'm relaxed, the students are relaxed," said Mrs. Hill.

While encouraging informality, Mrs. Hill requires each student to show a mutual "please and thank you" as is required by ballroom etiquette.

"I like to think of myself as teaching the course for the students' utilization," said Mrs. Hill. "But grades have to be given just like any other college course."

An equal male-female ratio is assured in the class by controls during each semester's registration. The one semester hour course is offered to the full-time student at no additional tuition charge.

"Working with these students is a unique experience for me," said Mrs. Hill. "I love it."

College students have been a part of Mrs. Hill's life since she became instructor for the JSU "Ballerinas" women's precision drill team more than 10 years ago. She has also taught ballet at JSU for six years.
