

Chanticleer

VOL. 14

JACKSONVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY, MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1968

NO. 11

Three Hats Tossed In Political Ring

Election Day Moved To Apr. 23

Spring Student Government Association elections have been changed from the previously announced April 16 to April 23 according to SGA President Ralph Walker.

Announcing the one week delay of the election, Walker cited numerous conflicts such as religious emphasis week and social events presently planned for the preceding election campaign week of April 8.

Concurrent with the SGA officer elections, a presidential "Choice 68" poll, an activity fee referendum and a SGA constitution referendum are also scheduled. A two-thirds approval of the constitution and activity fee drafts by the Student Senate is required before the referendums may be called. Both documents are now being drafted by a Student Senate Committee and must be published in the Chanticleer two weeks prior to the election.

Qualifications and campaign regulations as released by the SGA election committee are outlined below:

QUALIFICATION

Presidential candidates must be classified a junior by semester hours of college credit, and must have been in attendance at JSU for three consecutive semesters immediately prior to the election (not including summer semesters).

Vice-President, secretary and treasurer candidates must be classified a sophomore by semester hours of college credit and must have been in attendance at JSU for three consecutive semesters immediately prior to the election (not including summer semester).

All candidates must have at least a 1.25 QPA overall and may not be on any type of probation, nor have been removed from any SGA office.

CAMPAIGN

The election campaign will open concurrently with the qualification period at noon on March 6.

Only personal appearances and speeches by qualified candidates and their representatives will be allowed on the JSU (See ELECTION, Page 7)

Alvis

Campbell

Smith

Student Senate Sets SGA Officers Hours and Tightens Purse Strings

The Jacksonville State University Student Government Association office in the basement of Dixon Hall will be open four hours per day, Monday through Thursday, according to recent legislation by the Student Senate.

Under the regulation, approved by a majority vote of the senate, the SGA officers must begin the office hours today and post the hours of each day the office is open with the officer in attendance at four conspicuous places on campus. Each officer is required to be in the office four hours per week during the time the office is open.

As of press time (prior to AEA holidays) the office hours had not been posted. They will be published in next week's Chanticleer, as announced by the SGA administration.

According to the eight paragraph act, violations are to be dealt with as

Kimbrough To Speak

Emily Kimbrough, well-known public speaker and author, will appear at Jacksonville State University on March 21 under the sponsorship of Sigma Tau Delta and English Club.

Miss Kimbrough is the author of several best sellers. Her recent "Forever Old, Forever New" has already gained wide acclaim.

Miss Kimbrough firmly maintains that the chances of success in any prescribed in the SGA constitution. Neglect of duty, according to the constitution, subjects the officer to impeachment proceedings.

Other March 4 SGA action included implementation of a strict cash box and night deposit system of handling SGA cash monies collected on campus.

The Senate voted unanimously to recommend a salary increase for traffic office secretary, Mrs.

Betty Woods. Mrs. Woods is paid with traffic office collections from a SGA fund administered by the JSU business office. According to JSU Director of Auxiliary Service Jesse E. Fain, the salary increase for this position is within the jurisdiction of the SGA since all monies collected from traffic office operation -- above expenses -- are eventually deposited in the SGA treasury.

BACK TO THE OLD GRIND -- Spring vacation is over, (we are sorry to say) and pretty Dianne Durham of Oxford unpacks water skis, luggage, etc., etc., etc. from a trip to the sunny beaches of South Alabama and Florida. A junior majoring in home economics, Dianne is the current Gem of the Hills.

No Bids Filed For President

With four days remaining to qualify for Student Government Association officers' election, three persons have tossed their hats in the ring.

As of late Friday, March 8, petitions were filed for candidacy for vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the student governing body. No bids have been entered for the president's race.

Deadline for qualification is 4 p. m., March 21. All petitions must be in the traffic office at this time.

Political science major, Jim Campbell, has petitioned for the SGA vice-presidential candidacy.

Campbell is an Air Force veteran, a member of the JSU Veterans Association, the JSU golf team, Delta Chi Fraternity pledge and played an active part in last semester's SCOAG.

"To be elected vice-president of the SGA would be the greatest honor I could hope to achieve in my college career," said Campbell. "However, this honor must be overshadowed by responsibility. I would welcome the opportunity to help upgrade the representative body of the JSU students."

On graduation from JSU, Campbell plans to attend (See NO BIDS, Page 7)

Mimosa Is Commended

The 1968 Mimosa, JSU yearbook, has received the "Big E" award for excellence, according to Jeff Hamrick, editor, from The American Yearbook Company.

Hamrick estimated that the American Yearbook Company publishes half of all college yearbooks. Of this number, only about 10 per cent receive the Big E award, so this puts the Mimosa high in national ratings.

Students who have not paid the balance on their Mimosa have been given extra time to do so. Friday, March 22, is the absolute deadline for paying the balance.

The balance may be paid in the Mimosa office, located on the second floor of the SUB.

Editorials

Not So Rosy

Students are beginning to talk. Rules' revisions, elections, community-university relations, administrative policies and a host of other issues. Where is the individual's place in his immediate and universal society today?

Most students on the JSU campus have now been here at least five weeks and have had a taste of what living away from momma and poppa is going to be like in the future. And it's going to get worse.

The past two decades have been offered a pretty easy life for most. The next two decades will turn the tables. Each student at JSU has an opportunity to become active in academic and social endeavors regardless of his background or present status. The opportunity to "practice living" with one's peers will never be offered again. Within four years most students will be competing with persons with many more years of experience.

Take off those rose-colored glasses and creep up on reality - - before it creeps up on you.

--NB

To Strike Or Not To Strike

The teaching profession has been in the limelight recently, due to strikes by teachers in several of the nation's major cities, and as a result have been subject to much unwarranted ridicule.

Critics of teachers' demands to strike might reflect for a moment on key defense industries, hospital employes, transportation and more recently, garbage collectors, who have walked off their jobs in demand for more pay and better conditions.

Traditionally, teachers have always been underpaid, and many have entered the vocation simply out of devotion. While we regret to see the education of children temporarily interrupted, we feel that this sort of thing is necessary to make the nation aware of the importance of the classroom teacher.

But while we wrestle with the trivial problem of whether or not to give the teachers a raise, Ivan keeps right on studying.

--LJS

Student Rights-(of-Way)

Most students know they have the right-of-way within the green lines from the main campus across Pelham Rd. to Martin Hall.

These students were recently assured of this right-of-way by Jacksonville Chief of Police Ross Tipton. Since the present semester began six weeks ago and the greenlines were so meticulously painted, more than one student - - including yours truly - - has been required to lift it and shift it or suddenly be impressed with that "tire-ed" and run down feeling while crossing Pelham within these lines.

There are no yield signs designating these intersections as pedestrian crosswalks.

We know we have the right-of-way; Chief Tipton and his force knows we have the right of way.

It would be to the advantage of all if the motorist were also aware.

--NB

chanticleer

Jacksonville State University
"Friendliest Campus in the South"

Editor Larry Smith
Associate Editor Norman Brown
Circulation Mgr. Ray Snider
Feature Editor Paul Merrill
Staff Artist Danny Rountree
Photographer Joe Serviss
Sports Editor Martin Ennis

Book reviews Virginia Overton
Poetry editor Meri Gray
Staff writers . . . Mickey Craton, Christa Hill

Letters to the Editor

Questions Stand

Dear Editor:

Recently, the Student Government Association of Jacksonville State University passed a resolution refusing to sign a petition which had been circulated among student newspaper editors all over the country, accumulating several hundred signatures.

Since then I have wondered how closely the wording of this resolution sent to the editor was examined. Did it not say that those who signed believed the war to be "unjust and immoral," and the signees "should not be forced to fight such a war." Please observe the line "unjust and immoral."

On Monday, Feb. 19, an Associated Press wire-photo was published on the front page of The Anniston Star which showed a South Vietnamese soldier shooting a suspected Viet Cong. According to the caption, the prisoner was found near the scene of the battle. When questioned by South Vietnamese Forces, he said he had been forced by the Viet Cong to carry ammunition. He was summarily executed.

Is this "justice"? Is this "morality"?

This is not to say that the North Vietnamese and the Cong are not also committing similar, if not more violent atrocities. However, the question remains, does the SGA of Jacksonville State University feel that such acts against the people of either side are accurate examples of "justice," and Christian "morality." Does the SGA feel that one should be forced to contribute to such primitive actions by ANYONE?

Joe Hamilton,
607 Eighth Ave.
Jacksonville

Mr. Hamilton;

The line "unjust and immoral" has been observed. I agree -- that you have vividly exemplified an "unjust and immoral" INDIVIDUAL ACT OF WAR. You have, however, failed to present your standards for judging this isolated act or the entire scope of the war (which you seem to imply) to be unjust and immoral.

The act of killing a prisoner may be considered unjust and immoral according to the "rules of war" set forth at the Geneva Convention. We have no other basis for judging the morality, justice or legality man's acts of war, since morality and justice are determined in sociological reference by the standards of the individual's society.

As for judging the morality and justice of the general act of waging war-- we have no standards other than the Judea-Christian ideologies inherent in our western culture. Never in the history of mankind has an authoritative universal code for judging the legality of a war been set forth by international powers. Only the individual acts may be judged.

To judge a war immoral or unjust because it is universally agreed that one act or a number of acts are unjust and immoral would be a hasty generalization. As one who has experienced and observed the particular war in question, I can assure you the policy of killing all prisoners taken in combat is not impressed on all Vietnam combatants.

If the general policy of the United States Government were to kill all prisoners and concentrate bombing on civilian population centers, perhaps we could by our own standards of morality and justice declare the war "unjust and immoral."

Delving into morality on a comparative basis, which would be the more moral course of action for the SGA -- to undermine the entire United States government by condemning it for a policy which has yet to be prove "unjust and immoral" or to support its general policy without condoning the current war or any war? The SGA did the latter.

For any further explanation of the actual wording of the two resolutions -- pro and con -- I refer you to the minutes of last semester's SGA minutes on file with the SGA secretary.

--NB,

Praises Stand

Dr. Houston Cole
President
Jacksonville State University
Dear Houston:

It was certainly pleasant reading when I viewed the resolution of your student body relating to Vietnam, a copy of which was quoted in The Anniston Star.

It looks like we have some good young people left. Maybe they are all at Jacksonville University.

Cordially,
Marshall K. Hunter
Chairman of the Board,
First National Bank of Anniston

Dear Dr. Cole:

Frequently, I have occasion to visit various colleges and universities in the state. Several years ago, after spending the day on campus at Jacksonville, I was so impressed with the students I came in

(See LETTERS, Page 7)

"Choice 68" Will Allow JSU Students To Vote On President

By Norman Brown
Associate Editor

April 25 more than 5,000 Jacksonville State University students will be asked to poll their first, second and third choices for the office of President of the United States.

At present a host of declared and undeclared candidates bombard the ears of an undecided nation. Campaign literature will soon appear on the JSU campus in an attempt to stimulate the future leaders of the United States and make them aware of the issues with which they will soon contend.

The students' Presidential choice will coincide with a student government association election and at least one referendum now set for the annual election day, according to JSU Choice 68 chairman, Jim Royal.

"The campus will be saturated with national and international issues as the top contenders for President see them," said Royal. "The poll may bring surprises and revelations to both students and candidates.

Royal said the JSU poll is only one small facet of the "Choice 68" program. More than 200 universities and colleges are to conduct similar polls.

"We hope our students will read the daily newspapers and be informed when they cast their ballot," he said.

"Choice 68 is a test of the will and the resourcefulness of young people," continued Royal. "... a test of strength between the young and the Establishment."

For student radicals these days, the menu has been sparse. Vilified by the press and Congress for their noisy activism, scorned by the majority of their moderate classmates more concerned with campus affairs, and lambasted from the pulpit for their flowing locks and sundry other hygienic offenses, they seem to have nowhere to go.

Their views, sound as they appear to them to be, remain largely ignored, and their protests, correspondingly, have disintegrated into displays of cynicism and emotional diatribes aimed at the Establishment. The American democratic process strikes them as more absurd with each passing day - and each mounting crisis.

CHOICE 68, the National Collegiate Presidential Primary, will probably either solidify the skepticism of the campus radicals or cause them to re-evaluate their thinking as to the actual political power of the vote.

If a sizeable percentage of college students do care enough to participate in the election, and, indeed, do, succeed in exerting some appreciable pressure over the policymakers of the country, then the radicals may well channel their considerable energies into the drive to lower the voting age to 18.

If the Primary fails, however, to stir the long silent student moderates or to influence American policy, then leftists will probably remain convinced that only forceful and, if need be, violent action will produce acceptable political ends.

But of more immediate concern is whether the radicals will participate at all on CHOICE 68. The ballot, certainly, is well-stocked with leftists and moderate - liberals, and the Vietnam referendum questions should satisfy the most extreme of the radicals.

Unfortunately, it's too soon to begin forecasting whether the radicals will respond to or boycott the primary. The one fact that is certain is that they do have a chance to mobilize and express themselves meaningfully and effectively in CHOICE 68. The decision is theirs, as James Reston wrote, whether they "want to dream or work." CHOICE 68 may well tell us which avenue they choose.

Goldman

Goldman Elected To High Post

For the fourth consecutive year, a Jacksonville State University student has been elected to an office of the Alabama Student Education Association.

Sophomore David Goldman was elected second vice-president of the state organization at the annual ASEA Convention at Montgomery Feb. 12. Goldman received his bid on a campaign platform of an increased membership in the ASEA. He now plans to attend membership drive meetings of college chapters throughout Alabama.

In the past two years, JSU students Benny Character and Ronald Clayton have been elected to first vice-presidential slots in the association. Jimmy Nichols was elected president three years ago.

Goldman's visits to other campuses will include an explanation of the Student Tutorial Educational Project begun at JSU in the fall 1967 semester. According to Goldman, STEP has played a major role in the recent SEA membership increase at JSU and will benefit other campuses when introduced.

A LITTLE SPICE . . .

By NORMAN BROWN
Associate Editor

Rules Consistency

Following the publication of the last Chanticleer issue, word was passed on to yours truly (from a dean's office in Bibb Graves Hall) that JSU's women's dormitory rules were not inconsistent prior to the employment of a Dean of Women and the publication of a women's guidebook three years ago.

Assuming the administration is correct, a retraction is in order and is offered with the observation that since that time the rules may have become inconsistent in practice while remaining consistent in print.

Not desiring to be accused of another misstatement of fact—an investigation was ordered.

Monday, March 4, at approximately 4:30 p. m., David Mila, Judy Tucker Gloria McDonald and yours truly attempted to sign for use of the Rowan Hall date room. We were informed by counselors on duty that the Rowan Hall date room could not be used until 7 p. m. on Monday. Brandishing the current women's guidebook, Milam informed all concerned that all date rooms on campus could be used at 4 p. m. on weekdays.

We were advised by the counselors to verify this time with Rowan Hall director, Rebecca Fagan, or Dean of Women Miriam Jackson. A trip to Hammond Hall found Dean Jackson preparing to leave her office at 4:45 p. m. "Is this correct?" said Milam, pointing to the last page in the women's handbook which sets down in detail the hours and operation of the women's dormitory date rooms.

Returning to Rowan, our foursome was comfortably settled in the date room when Mrs. Fagan returned to the dorm at 5 p. m.

"What are you boys doing in here?" asked Mrs. Fagan. "Studying," said 24-year-old SGA vice-president, Milam.

"We don't allow boys in the date room until 7 p. m.," said Mrs. Fagan.

Within the next half an hour of discussion Milam read portions of the guidebook to the dorm director and the dorm director told Milam that each dorm had its own rules.

"Dean Jackson told us to throw that rule book away a long time ago," said Mrs. Fagan to the two couples. Mrs. Fagan agreed all the women's dorms should abide by the same set of regulations.

Following the discussion, Mrs. Fagan retired to her quarters and the study session continued in the date room.

Rowan Hall's date room is now open as stipulated in the guidebook, "Young men with dates from 4 p. m. until closing hours."

PICTURE—THOUSAND WORDS DEPT.

Quoting the guidebook again, "Young men may call at the dorms after 4 p. m. Monday through Thursday; by 12:30 p. m. on Friday and by 9:30 p. m. Saturday and Sunday."

Below is a photograph of a portion of a large sign on the door of Rowan Hall. Notice any conflicts?????

and Sat. No men in dorm before 4:00 P.M. Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs. Fri.
Men may call girls and visit in Dorm at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday and Sunday.
RULE'S REVISION

Plans for the revision of the guidebook are up to the work week. According to Dean Jackson, initial review will begin this week.

Committee workers have been ELECTED from each women's dorm. One counselor and one person from the dorm at large are to sit on the revision committee. According to some dorm residents, elections were not planned this week, but delegates to the committee were appointed. If one is not aware of the situation or does not approve of her representative and the dorm did not hold (See SPICE, Page 7)

Claim Forms Available At Traffic Office

Student accident and insurance claim forms are now available in the JSU traffic office in the Grab, according to Student Government Association President Ralph Walker. Walker said the forms should be completed in one copy for each claim filed with the company. The forms are not to be returned to the SGA but are to be mailed to Cotton States Life Insurance Co.

Details and directions are printed on the forms.

Officers Installed For BSU

Baptist Student Union officials have announced the appointment of John W. Tadlock to their nine month vacant director's post.

Tadlock, a native of Harrisville, Miss., is expected to assume his position in early April. He is presently BSU director at Copiah - Lincoln Junior College at Wesson, Miss. He was graduated from high school in 1957 and received his BA degree from Mississippi College in 1961. He is also a 1964 graduate - with a Bachelor of Divinity degree - of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

The new director has served as minister of Baptist churches in Mississippi at three different times.

Continental Breakfast Appeals To Many Jax Students, Study Shows

More than 300 Jacksonville State University students are now living the "life of Riley" -- rising late and taking breakfast in the school cafeteria at 9:30 a. m. The situation isn't as continental as it appears -- only the breakfast is "continental."

The late light breakfast is the latest innovation of JSU Director of Food Services James B. Haywood, who says it has been "an overwhelming success."

Boarding students at Jacksonville who do not eat a regular 6:45 a. m. breakfast are admitted to the cafeteria at 8 a. m. where they are served a hot or cold beverage and three doughnuts or two sweet rolls. Students who do not hold meal contracts with the food service or who have eaten a regular breakfast for 40 cents. Second servings are offered on all beverages on the menu.

"Since we began this experiment last week," said Haywood, "the attitude and cooperation of the students has been beyond our wildest imagination."

Haywood said the breakfast was not a money making project, but rather an additional service to boarding students who are required to purchase 20 meals per week from the university food service.

Many boarding students have late morning or afternoon classes and prefer to sleep late and study late into the night.

"These are the students we want to accommodate," said Haywood.

Continental breakfast hours are 8 to 10 a. m. Monday through Friday at Cole Cafeteria and at 9 a. m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Haywood said he wished to remind students that second servings are allowed on less expensive vegetables and potatoes at regular meals. Premium entrees, such as meats, salads and desserts are limited to one serving. The premium entrees are not served individually, even if the student did not take his portion during his original pass through the serving line.

What may seem to some persons to be small portions, said Haywood, are the quantities arrived at based on the amount of wasted food. He advised students who feel their quantity of food they received is too small to ask for larger servings.

Haywood paraphrased the military maxim, "TAKE ALL YOU WANT, BUT EAT ALL YOU TAKE."

Religious Emphasis Week Planned at JSU

By Don Brasfield
Methodist Chaplain

Dr. Thomas Ogletree, professor of theology and history at the University of Chicago Divinity School, will be guest speaker at Jacksonville State University's Religious Emphasis Week, April 7-9.

The JSU students' Interfaith Council is an annual event consisting of discussion sessions, film presentations, lectures and various other activities. Discussion and counselling sessions of each faith will be led by a guest representative of that faith.

As a prominent theologian, Dr. Ogletree has recently become well-known for his speaking enagements on college campuses across the United States. He is the author of Christian Faith and History and The Death of God and Controversy.

Prior to assuming his present position, Dr. Ogletree was professor of philosophy and religion at Birmingham - Southern College. He is a graduate of Birmingham - Southern and the Garrett Theology School.

NOTICE

All students interested in applying for the post of editor and business manager of the Mimosa and editor of the Chanticleer will meet March 21 at 4:45 p.m. in Dr. Calvert's office for interviews with the board of publications. Dr. Calvert's office is located on the third floor of Bibb Graves Hall.

Has Home Ec. Gone Coed ?

It's no question who wears the trousers in the home economics department.

He's John F. Maurer, Jr., who is the only male student taking a course in food management.

Although a business administration major, Maurer is setting his sights on managing a large chain restaurant. A food handler's certificate is helpful for this sort of position, and has required Maurer to schedule courses previously attended by all females.

Fundamentals of food preparation is only one of several courses in the home economics department Maurer will take to receive the food handler's certificate, according to Mrs. Betty Sowell, his in-

With The Greeks --

By Kaye and Faye Thompson
Chanticleer Staff Writers

Fuzzies have formed a full fledged fraternity -- women's fraternity on the JSU campus.

With the receipt of their Quill design pins during the March 1-3 initiation, 28 co-eds and 12 area women were officially designated "Fuzzies" or Alpha Xi Delta's. Although formed last fall semester as the Epsilon Pi Chapter, the organization and membership was not finalized until it roared onto campus this month with the enthusiasm of the proverbial March lion.

A Saturday night March 2 banquet highlighted the weekend's solemn ceremonies and activities. AZD member and Arkansas juvenile court judge, Mrs. Mary Burt Nash, was guest speaker for the event. A silver coffee service, two trays and a framed coat of arms was presented to the new sorority by National and associated chapters.

Associate members are Mrs. William Calvert, Mrs. Houston Cole, Mrs. Claude Dear, Mrs. James Haywood, Mrs. Miriam Jackson, Mrs. Lou Kennamer, Mrs. Miriam Miller, Mrs. Effie Sawyer, Mrs. C. S. Smith, Mrs. Julia Snead, Mrs. John Stewart and Mrs. Ernest Stone.

The Fuzzies list a spring formal as the next "project" on their agenda.

Wondering how to form a fraternity or sorority on the JSU campus?

Any group may form an independent fraternity on campus with the approval of the JSU administration and a charter by the Student Government Association. National affiliation requires the sponsorship of a faculty member who is a member of the fraternity which is to be petitioned. Dean of Women Miriam Jackson has invited Greek faculty members interested in forming a sorority or fraternity to contact her for details.

On a more definite note, Capt. Peter N. Kitay of the JSU ROTC Department has expressed an interest in sponsoring the right group of "men" for affiliation with a national fraternity.

According to Alpha Tau Omega Tenth Province Chief Amos Burns, the JSU Zeta Omega independent is well on its way to ATO colony status. Burns addressed the group last Feb. 24. Birmingham - Southern ATO chapter president, Sam Baldone, also offered advice and comments at the February luncheon.

Most recent pledges listed by Zeta Omega are John Alvis, Buzz Bridges, Gary Davis, Don Martin, Larry O'Neill, Rob Peckham, Eddie Roberson, Carl King, David Roland and Joe Speed. Like the AZD's, these Zeta Omega pledges rode the March lion into the Greek community with a party at Circle V Ranch March 1.

Delta Chi has rolled out the red carpet and welcome mat at their 419 Pelham Rd. hutch to "all who will visit us as men" and added they thought the "minority who would abuse the privilege should try to show more restraint and less hostility."

Delta Chi has proclaimed its recent Percy Sledge show a $UCCE$$.

Officer elections were held Tuesday, March 5. Newly-elected officers are Jim Dozier, president; Charles Henderson, vice-president; Jim Farrell, secretary; Kerry Wagner, treasurer; Pat Eward, corresponding secretary; and Bill McArthur, house manager.

The new officers of the pledge class for the spring semester are Bruce Sproull, president; Mike Parker, vice-president; and Sam Spruniell, secretary.

structor.

By the time he graduates, Maurer should be able to cook most anything, but right now his cooking is confined to the class room. Maurer is married to the former Miss Linda Wood of Jacksonville, who is also a student at Jax State. "She is majoring in English, but does all the cooking," Maurer said.

Originally from New Jersey, Maurer first became interested in foods while serving in the army. He worked in a cafeteria while in service and liked it so well he worked in Self Cafeteria last semester.

Although he may temporarily feel somewhat

Sorry, Sharon

The Chanticleer regrets that Sharon Dunston was inadvertently omitted from the Dean's List as published in the last issue. She was among the students with a B plus average.

Keep up the good work, Sharon.

conspicuous sitting in a classroom surrounded by females, indications are that more men are now choosing foods management as a career.

"We get frequent calls for foods management graduates," stated Mrs. Sowell, "and many of them prefer male graduates."

Maurer whips up a dish during the lab portion of his course in food preparation. Carole Johnson, in background, works on a similar problem.

"L'il Abner" to Open March 21

By C. L. Simpson

The Fort McClellan Players production of L'il Abner will open at the Jacksonville High School Auditorium for a three night run March 21.

More than 50 persons including members of the JSU faculty and student body will be accompanied by the JSU Stage Band. The production recently completed a six night run at Fort McClellan.

Hearing Rosemary Minihan sing "If I Had My Druthers" is an experience roughly comparable to hearing Helen Traubel sing "Don't Fence Me In" a couple of decades ago. It's a long way from "La Boheme" to "L'il Abner," but Miss Minihan bridges the gap with no trouble, and her characterization of the blonde, seductive Daisy Mae Scragg in the musical comedy takes on attractive dimensions.

Jim Starner plays the part of Abner Yokum, and a spirited cast of 50 to 60 persons romps through a series of wild adventures and misadventures that make the recent acidulous exchange between Al Capp and Joan Baez seem mild indeed.

The plot concerns Daisy Mae's pursuit of L'il Abner on Sadie Hawkins' Day, a government plan to bomb Dogpatch off the map as the most unnecessary place in the country, an extraordinary elixir called Yokumberry tonic that will save Dogpatch from annihilation, the unscrupulous General Bull-moose, who connives to get possession of the magic elixir, and Earthquake McGoon, who thinks he wants to marry Daisy Mae - until he meets her family.

The humor might, I suppose be called a bit broad, or perhaps one could say elemental. It is hardly high comedy, or new and fresh either, for that matter. And much of it is heavy-handed, including familiar references to a Sears-Roebuck catalog juggled on stage.

In spite of the vitality and exuberance of the players, one could hardly escape the feeling that here was a musical comedy by two non-mountaineers based on a comic strip by another outlander who does not know how to write mountain dialect, who mistakes a contrived and artificial version of deep Southern accent for the nasal twang of the hills.

Add to this the fact that many of the players were young people from the hills who were mirabile dictu, playing broad caricatures of themselves and speaking (or trying to speak) a poor imitation of deep Southern accent instead of their own accent of the Alabama hills! Interesting ironies emerge from these inconsistencies.

Inter-Club Council To Meet Tonight

Jacksonville University will meet on the first floor of Bibb-Graves Hall tonight at 7:45 p.m., immediately following the Student Government Association meeting.

All SGA chartered campus organizations are required to have a representative at this meeting if they expect to be considered for letters of commendation or certificates of achievement for this school year, according to SGA Vice-president David Milam.

Awards and honors day is tentatively scheduled for May 1.

Accounting Club Sets Banquet Date

The JSU Accounting Club's annual banquet will be April 25 in Leone Cole Cafeteria.

Several awards and achievement certificates are to be given during the banquet. The outstanding accountant will also be named.

The club meets every other Thursday night at Daisy Mae, portrayed by Rose Mary Minihan, laments to marryin' Sam, played by Bill Locklear, that she is growing old waiting for Abner to marry her. The "tragic" scene is from the McClellan Players - JSU production of "L'il Abner" which opens a three day run Thursday at the Jacksonville High School Auditorium. (U. S. ARMY PHOTO)

CHANTICLEER CALENDAR OF EVENTS

SUNDAY MONDAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY THURSDAY FRIDAY SATURDAY

17 MARCH St. Patrick's day	18 Order graduation invitations at Cole Center Dining Hall at 6 p.m. Tennis match, Sanford at JSU Inter-Club Council meets at 7:30 p.m. on first floor of Bibb-Graves Hall. Roten Galleries art sale at Mason Hall today.	19 Mosque and Wig tryouts Room 12 Ayers Hall J. C. Parry Co. to interview for textile management positions.	20 Riegel Textile to interview any degree for management. Film Festival at the Roundhouse at 8 p.m. "The Platters" at Leone Cole Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., presented by Circle K Club.	21 Publications board meets at Dr. Calvert's office in Bibb Graves at 4:45 p.m. Emily Kimbrough to speak at Leone Cole Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. Ft. McClellan Players and JSU present L'il Abner at Jacksonville High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Three night run.	22 Calhoun, Ga. city school system to interview education majors. Final day to pay balance of Mimosa orders placed at registration.	23 Science Fair display open to public from 7 p.m. Friday to noon Saturday. Tennis match, JSU at Florence
24 JI - Indicates firms to interview prospective employees on date indicated.	25 JSU Student Government Association meets each Monday at 7:30 p.m. on second floor of Bibb-Graves Hall. All students invited.	26 Birmingham Bd. of Education to conduct 15 minute interviews for all education majors. Mobile, Ala. Bd. of Education to interview for all grades. "Snoozy" Jones will accept class ring orders in the Grab from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.	27 U.S. Dept. of Interior & Bureau of Indian Affairs to interview education majors. Tennis match, JSU at St. Bernard.	28 Fulton Co., Ga. Board of Education to interview all education majors.	29 Tennis match, B'ham So. at JSU Shell Oil Co. to interview accounting, Economics, Math, and data processing majors. Forney Historical Society presents feature speaker Dan Smoot in the Roundhouse. Time to be announced.	Tennis match, JSU at Athens Col.
	1 APRIL 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 Sears and Roebuck to interview management majors. JSU Lecture series presents author Vance Packard at Leone Cole Auditorium at 10 a.m.	2 Physical Education majors meet first and third Tuesday of April in PE Bldg. Rm. 24 at 7:30 p.m.	3 Los Angeles City Schools to interview all education majors Walworth Co. to interview management majors Film Festival at Roundhouse at 8 p.m.	4 Girl Scouts of America to interview all majors Dunn and Bradstreet to interview all Liberal Arts majors Track meet, JSU, Troy and Sanford at Troy	5	6
7	8	9 Etho Life and Casualty Ins. Co. to interview for field representatives. English textbook display in Roundhouse at 8 a.m.	10 Burroughs Co. to interview business majors.	11 Huntsville City schools to interview all education majors. Cotton Producers Inc. to interview for sales managers.	12	13 Track meet, JSU at Livingston Science Fair in Roundhouse. Exhibits open at

Martin Ennis,
Sports Editor

Sports

Members Of '67 Baseball Team Back

Coach Ray Wedgeworth's baseball has started practice to begin preparation for a 21-game schedule this spring.

Every one of the performers from the 1967 team that went 13-13 and finished second in the Alabama Collegiate Conference race return for another campaign and this brings smiles from Wedgeworth when asked about his chances this year.

"The past two seasons we've had to go with freshmen and sophomores and broke even both years. If everything goes all right, we could have a winning season this time." Wedgeworth went on to say that a sore arm or two, or a few injuries could change the complexion of things before the first game, however.

Returning are the top

Blankenship Joins Staff

Jacksonville State University Football Coach Jim Blevins brought his Gamecock coaching staff back to full strength Thursday with the hiring of C. A. (Buddy) Blankenship.

Blankenship, who comes from Decatur High School near Atlanta, replaces Carlton Rankin who resigned recently to join a brokerage firm in Atlanta. Coach Blankenship's primary responsibility will be receivers and backs.

The new Gamecock assistant is a 1956 graduate of Florida State University, where he was an offensive end. He has coached Georgia high school football the past few years and was given the head coaching position at Decatur only three weeks ago.

"We are very happy to get a man of Buddy's ability," Coach Blevins said. "We know he will be a great asset to the University and the athletic program."

Coach Blankenship was highly recommended by FSU Athletic Director Vaughn Mancha and Head Football Coach Bill Peterson. "If we had an opening on the FSU staff, Buddy would be our first choice," Mancha said.

Wedgeworth

three pitchers from last year, Jeff McCool (6-3), Gary McAnally (3-4), and Darrell Childress (3-3) also Catcher Kenneth Adams (.188), First Baseman Wayne Hester (.242), Second Baseman Tony Coggins (.271), Shortstop Bill Ashley (.304), Third Baseman Jake Beasley (.262), and Outfielders Gary Ledbetter (.296), and Jerry Ponder (.222), and Tommy Maxwell (.296) will return for the 1968 season.

There is a possibility that some of these players may not be out for the team this spring since JSU does not give scholarships.

SCHEDULE

- M 20 at Alabama College
- M 23 at Alabama
- M 26 at Livingston
- M 28 at Birmingham-S
- M 30 at Athens College
- A 3 at St. Bernard (2)
- A 8 at Florence (2)
- A 10 at Alabama College
- A 16 at Troy State
- A 17 at Samford
- A 20 at Livingston
- A 22 at Athens College
- A 25 at St. Bernard (2)
- A 30 at Florence (2)
- M 4 at Troy State
- May 6 at Samford
- May 8-11--ACC Tourney

Candidates petitions for SGA officer elections must be received at the Traffic Office in the Grab before 4 p.m., March 21.

Jax Takes Second Place In ACC

Despite capturing the ACC basketball crown, the Jax State cagers were unable to win the ACC tournament held here Feb. 22, 23, and 24.

The cagers from Saint Bernard upset Jacksonville in the finals Saturday night by a score of 125-113.

History proved itself to be an omen of the future as only one club has ever won the conference and then gone on to win the tournament which follows the regular season. This happened several seasons ago when St. Bernard did the trick.

In the first four brackets played Thursday, Jacksonville, (being the ACC champions) drew a bye, Athens defeated Florence, St. Bernard bombed Livingston, while Troy rolled over Alabama College.

In the semi-final matches, Jacksonville defeated Athens, while St. Bernard edged Troy to set the stage for the finals and St. Bernard's victory.

Prior to the tournament, three of Jacksonville's cagers were named to the All-ACC team: Bill Brantley, forward from Birmingham; Buddy Cornelius, forward from Birmingham; and Gary Angel, guard from Jacksonville. Brantley and Cornelius were repeaters from last year's All-Star team.

Also, Angel and Brantley were named to the All-tourney team immediately following the tournament.

Masque And Wig Tryouts Set

The annual Masque and Wig spring play tryouts will be held on March 19-22 in Room 12 of Ayers Hall.

All persons interested in either acting or helping in the Masque and Wig are invited to come by from 1-5 p. m. on any of the four days.

Tennis Coach Is Employed

The Athletic Department has recently announced the employment of a new tennis coach for the upcoming season. Private Ray Benton has now assumed responsibilities for the tennis team.

Benton is stationed at Fort McClellan, and is a native of Iowa.

Benton was formerly the tennis pro at Gadsden Country Club and is now acting pro at Anniston Country Club.

Ray was introduced at a recent SGA meeting and allocated $180 for equipment and traveling expenses for the tennis team.

The team will open the 1968 schedule against an experienced Samford team on March 18. The initial match of the season will be held here in Jacksonville.

Science Fair To Open

The Northeast Alabama Science Fair will open at Jacksonville State University Friday, March 21, in Martin Hall. High school students from a 10-county area have entered more than 300 projects which will be on display for the public from 7 p.m. Friday until noon Saturday.

Projects include eight areas: botany, zoology, medicine and health, chemistry, earth and space sciences, physics, mathematics and the humanities.

Eight projects and four scientific paper winners will be selected by the judges here, and these winners are eligible to compete in the Alabama Junior Academy Science Fair on April 4-6.

All contestants will be judged on creative ability, scientific thought, thoroughness, skill, clarity and dramatic appeal.

1968 JSU GAMECOCKS TENNIS SCHEDULE

Mar. 18	Samford University
Mar. 23	Florence State
Mar. 27	St. Bernard
Mar. 29	Birmingham Southern
Mar. 30	Athens College
Apr. 4	St. Bernard
Apr. 8	Florence State
Apr. 16	Troy State
Apr. 18	Samford University
Apr. 22	Athens
Apr. 27	Alabama College
May 1	Alabama College
May 2	Birmingham Southern
May 3	Troy State
May 8-9-10-11	ACC Conference at Troy
Head Coach: Ray Benton
Home matches begin at 1:30 p. m. at campus tennis courts

TRACK SCHEDULE FOR 1968

Apr. 4	Troy and Samford	at Troy
Apr. 13	Livingston State	at Livingston
Apr. 15	Berry College	at Mt. Berry
Apr. 17	West Georgia College	at Carrollton
Apr. 20	Troy and Samford	at Jacksonville
Apr. 27	Troy and Samford	at Samford
Apr. 30	Berry and LaGrange	at Jacksonville
May 2	Emory University	at Atlanta, Ga.
May 4	Georgia Southwestern	at Americus
May 8-11	Alabama Collegiate Conference	at Troy
May 18	South Alabama Invitation Championship	at Mobile
Head Coach--Irvin McFarland
Student Coach--Tom Boatman
Home meets at Saks High School at Anniston, beginning at 2 p. m.

Cadet Assignments Are Announced For ROTC

The Jax State Department of Military Science recently announced the new cadet assignments and cadet promotions for the spring semester. New assignments and promotion in cadet rank in the 1500 cadet brigade include:

Cadet Lt. Col. Larry T. Hancock, Scottsboro, brigade executive officer; Cadet Major Charles Bruce Pickette, Weaver, Brigade S-1; Cadet Lt. Col. William D. McCance, Huntsville, brigade S-3; Cadet Lt. Col. Samuel H. Monk, Weaver, commander of the 1st Battalion.

Cadet Major Ray A. White, Taylorsville, Ga., brigade S-4; Cadet Major Charles E. McKerley, Wellington, executive officer, 1st Battalion; Cadet Major Robert Abercrombie, Lacey Springs, S-3, 1st Battalion; Cadet Major Terry R. Carr, Bynum, S-3, 2nd Battalion. Cadet 1st Lt. James P. Henderson, Birmingham, S-4, 1st Battalion.

Company commanders include:

Cadet Capt. Billie M. Devine, Pensacola, Fla., Headquarters Co., 1st Bn.; Cadet Capt. Charles M. Wenland, Birmingham, Co. A; Cadet James E. Jeffrey, Scottsboro, Co. B; Cadet Capt. John E. Rardon, Birmingham, Co. C; Cadet Capt. Edward J. Kelly, Birmingham, Co. D; Cadet Capt. Louie M. Robertson, Gadsden, Headquarters Co., 2nd Bn.; Cadet Capt. Grady L. Morgan, Oxford, Co. E; Cadet Capt. Starling S. Ridgeway, Anniston, Co. F; Cadet Capt. Robert G. Whiddon, Alexander City, Co. G.

Election

(Cont. From Page 1)

campus from noon March 6 through 11:59 Sunday, April 14. Mechanical, artificial audio and visual, electronic, printed or hand lettered devices or signs are prohibited with the one exception below.

EXCEPTION: Each candidate speaking on the JSU campus prior to April 15, may erect one sign bearing his name and the office for which he is a candidate. This sign must not exceed 23 x 28 inches and must be placed within ten feet of the candidate while he is speaking. This sign may not be erected more than 30 minutes prior to the speech and must be removed within 30 minutes after its conclusion.

Public campaigns will begin at 12:01 a.m. Monday, April 15. From this date until election day, sound devices may be used and campaign posters and literature may be posted within the limitations of common sense, Student Government Association regulations and Jacksonville State University directives as outlined below.

No campaign signs are to be posted INSIDE the following buildings: Any classroom, Hammond Hall (including the Grab), Bibb Graves Hall, Self or Cole Cafeteria, Martin Hall, president's home.

No campaign literature is to be posted on the exterior of the following buildings: Bibb Graves Hall, Marrin Hall, president's home.

All candidates are advised for the safety of their handiwork, to seek permission of department heads before placing campaign literature within or on the exterior of buildings housing the respective departments. Department heads are expected to be non-discriminatory in granting this permission.

Neither posters nor literature will be posted on

Kimbrough

(Cont. From Page 1)

work are in direct ratio to the fun there is in it. She has earned the reputation of "first lady of the lecture platform."

She has travelled extensively and relates many of her experiences in her books. She urges that foreign languages should be taught from the earliest grades and that "we all should sharpen our ears and loosen our tongues to better understand and communicate with our global neighbors."

Miss Kimbrough's appearance has been scheduled for 10:30 a.m. at Leone Cole Auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

any bulletin boards to include the SGA's bulletin boards.

Candidates are responsible for determining the regulations in regard to the posting of signs or use of sound equipment in any other building or dormitory.

The use of a candidate's particular type loudspeaker system and the hours of operation must be submitted in writing for the approval of the Dean of the University. Equipment and hours which may distract from or interrupt classes will not be permitted.

All parades and rallies must be scheduled in advance and a plan submitted in writing for the approval of the Dean of The University.

Vehicles used for audio or visual campaign purposes must bear a JSU vehicle registration sticker and be parked in an appropriate zone when on the campus and not in motion.

The above regulations have been approved by the Dean of the University.

No bids

(Cont. From Page 1)

law school.

"I would like to express my appreciation to those persons who have asked me to seek the position of treasurer of the SGA," said accounting major, John M. Alvis of Birmingham, when he turned in his petition 10 days ago.

"I promise to them and the other students a genuinely trustworthy fulfillment of the requirements demanded of the treasurer's position if I am fortunate enough to be elected," he said.

Alvis was senior class president at Tarrant High School and is an Air Force veteran. He is a member of Zeta Omega Fraternity, the JSU Veteran's Association, the Accounting Club and Phi Beta Lambda.

Junior class president and SGA senator, Carol Jean Smith, has announced her candidacy for the SGA secretary's position.

"I feel that the position of secretary of the Student Government Association is one of honor and responsibility. It is the responsibility of each SGA officer to see that the SGA advances as the university advances," said Smith.

Miss Smith is treasurer of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, and a member of Phi Mu Chi Beta, the Mimosa staff and SCOAG staff.

Sophomore Sue Brimar has signed for a petition at the traffic office, but had not filed for an office at press time.

The SGA election committee will rule on the qualifications of those petitioning.

Dan Smoot Here Mar. 29

Right wing author, Dan Smoot, will be keynote speaker at the 14th annual meeting of the John H. Forney Historical Society in the Jacksonville University Roundhouse Friday, March 29.

Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond (Ret.) of Aniston will preside at a business session of the Friday morning meeting. A reception and luncheon will conclude the meeting.

Smoot identifies himself as a "political constitutionalist" who feels that we must decentralize

Letters

(Cont. From Page 2)

contact with, that I felt moved to write you of my impression, which I did.

Something I read Saturday has prompted me to write again. On our United Press International News wire, I read with interest that Jacksonville student leaders have unanimously turned down an anti-Vietnam war petition being circulated around the nation's colleges.

I understand the petition had already been signed by more than 400 student leaders across the country. The article went on to tell that the Jacksonville SGA passed a resolution of their own to forward with the original speaking out in favor of the war and saying the University was proud of its sacrifices in the conflict.

It goes without saying that none of us want war and maybe all of us are not in accord with the way this war is being fought, but never the less, the United States, the greatest nation in the world, is involved in Vietnam and our men who are fighting there deserve support, not petitions, demonstrations and protest.

I am most impressed with the stand taken by your students. It is refreshing to realize there are young people in this world who are willing to stand up FOR something rather than being AGAINST everything. I commend them highly.

Sincerely,
Bill Hagler
Manager, Radio Station WAVU, Albertville

Dr. Cole,

This article made me very proud of the JSU student body and I am confident it is due to your very capable leadership. It's a shame this article did not make the front page of every paper in the nation, and I am disappointed with The Aniston Star for not finding space for it in bold type on the front page instead of the back page.

Guy Phillips

Smoot

governmental power." His political ideologies are disseminated through regular radio and television programs and the Dan Smoot report newsletter.

Art Sale At Mason Today

The Jacksonville University Art Department will host a one day sale of original graphics at Mason Hall today.

Graphics of the works of Chagall, Baskin, Roualt, Rembrandt, Daumier, Picasso and others will be displayed. The sale will be promoted by Ferdinand Roten Galleries of Baltimore, Md.

Prices of various works will be $5 dollars and up.

Smoot is a graduate of Southern Methodist University and has done graduate work at Harvard University.

Spice

an election, perhaps an election is overdue. Rules writers' names next week.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY.

Seems the SGA is on the right track with its recent legislation that the SGA office be open four hours per day. Figuring four hours in the office and four hours for duties outside the office, the SGA president's salary amounts to more than two dollars per hour.

Eight hours work per week for $16.66 isn't such bad pay.

POST NO BULL

Once again we have been told the bulletin boards will be upon on campus soon. The most recent date released is March 18 or today. Although this is being written prior to AEA holidays, I'm taking bets they won't be up when classes resume.

If WE are fortunate, I will loose my bet.

HOW MANY RULES?

Looking again at the rules issue on the JSU campus . . . WOULD YOU BELIEVE there are eight sets of written rules and regulations on file in the Hammond Hall Deans' offices? Among these printed forms are the administration's regulations as set forth in the "J-book", the women's guidebook, General Conduct Regulations, the Student Disciplinary Policy, Men's Dormitory Regulations, Off Campus Housing Regulations, Dining Hall Regulations, and Student Union Regulations.

This sounds like outside reading for a three hour course. Better beef-up on them. Remember, ignorance of the law is no excuse.

SEEK AND YE SHALL FIND.

After searching diligently for one week I have been unable to find any of the trash barrels which were painted and placed in conspicuous locations on campus by the SGA March 2.

Today is the first day of the SGA campus clean-up campaign. Make a special effort to place your trash and paper in these newly-painted barrels, if they are found.

VETERANS

A word for the veterans attending college on the GI Bill has been passed on by the VA.

If income tax has not been filed, remember the $130 and up educational assistance need not be reported on tax returns.

IT'S GREEK TO ME

That none of the three social organizations presently operating on the Jacksonville State University campus is chartered by the SGA, has recently been brought to the attention of the Student Senate. The possibility of denying any campus facilities and privileges to these groups has been discussed by several SGA members and officers.

Whether any action will be taken by the Student Senate remains to be seen. If such action is taken and the process takes as long as it has taken for the present SGA administration to erect the long promised bulletin boards -- why worry about it?

SPRING AT JSU

FRED'S PLAYBOY

Portfolio:

Spring Fever Siege At JSU

Symptoms of spring fevers spread rapidly across the JSU campus with the advent of March.

Kite-flying, shorts and T-shirts and short-shorts indicated the area temperature without the assistance of a thermometer.

The "Fuzzies" or AZD's ushered in the month of March with a three-day initiation of charter and new members. Sisters from across the nation flocked to JSU for the first event of its kind in the school's history.

Snow fell despite the warm weather and Sharon Carlisle found Sue Brimar and Tommy Doss were excellent snow sculptors. Art also abounded in Mason Hall where modern designs stole the show.

A GEM IN THE ROUGH

MOD ART AT MASON HALL

AZD'S AT THE INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

TEA TIME FOR AZD'S

AZD LINE UP