Smitherman Unopposed, VP Post Challenged

Killian And Campbell In Race For VP

Junior class president, Ronnie Smitherman, has qualified and is apparently unopposed for the presidency of the Jacksonville State University Student Government Association.

Political science major, Roger Killian last Thursday announced his candidacy for the SGA vice-presidential position and will oppose previously announced Jim Campbell in the only contested race. Carol Jean Smith and John Alvis are unopposed in their bids for secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Following his qualification last Thursday, presidential candidate Smitherman said he would run a pre-election campaign just as he had planned it, if he had not been opposed.

"Although I am apparently unopposed," said Smitherman, "I would like to appeal to all students to vote on election day. A favorable turnout at the polls would constitute a vote of confidence in my efforts to build the SGA to higher standards than it has ever been lifted before.

Smitherman is president of the JSU "J" Club and a member of Delta Chi Social Fraternity. He was listed recently in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and is president of the JSU Usher's Club. While lettering in varsity football for two years, Smitherman was selected to the all conference squad in 1966.

"I think I have the qualifications to render the students at JSU the type of leadership that is needed to have a strong SGA," said Smitherman.

Vice-presidential candidate Killian expressed an interest in the current study of a new constitution for the SGA and an activity fee for SGA operations.

"In seeking the office of the vice-president of the SGA, I would first like to state that I believe in a strong and active Student Government - one which is fully aware and respon-

Four Charged On Narcotics Possession

The Calhoun County Sheriff's Department arrested four persons last Monday--two of them Jacksonville State students--in connection with the illegal possession of narcotics.

The four were identified as Carl Stewart, Jr., of Jacksonville and Nancy Smith Bains of Anniston, both Jax State students; William G. Burleson of Oxford, and Timothy Duncanson of Lenlock.

They were arrested at Stewart's apartment at 300 Murphy in Jacksonville, where a quantity of marijuana and "two or three other drugs" were found. The arrest followed an investigation of six months by several area law enforcement agencies, including the JSU Security Police.

On Tuesday, it was announced that university officials had expelled Stewart and Bains from school, and that State Narcotics officials had entered the investigation.

ordinator, Jim Royal.

Opposing the backers of liberal elements on campus in the selection of their first, second and third presidential choices will be the conservative element which is prevalent in the southern states.

"The students' choice of presidential candidates will be an indication of the thinking on the JSU campus," said Royal. "Whether the campus is liberal or conservative will be evident when our results are tallied locally."

If anyone makes a killing through CHOICE 68, the National Collegiate Presidential Primary, it could be the campus conservatives.

Although caricatured endlessly as dedicated young fascists obsessed with the mirage of exterminating insidious communism and related socialist and products, the fact remains that as a semi-professional political machine in the narrow, conventional sense of the word, the student right is unequalled.

If the liberals and moderates go their usual stumbling ways and fail to mobilize, than the conservatives will do handsomely in CHOICE 68--for the conservatives, at least, care enough to vote. Do the liberals?

Awards Day Program Scheduled For JSU

A student participating awards day program has been announced by Student Government Association President Ralph Walker.

At a meeting of the Inter-Club Council, representatives last Monday night, Walker asked for one nomination from each SGA chartered organization on the JSU campus for consideration for Certificates of Achievements and Letters of Appreciation.

These honors are conferred annually by the SGA and the President of JSU. According to Walker, the nominations will aid the SGA and President Cole in their choice of outstanding students.

Nominations may be submitted by chartered honorary, service, social and religious organizations. Supporting information for the nominations should include the individual's service to the SGA, the SGA president, the student body and the administration of JSU. Although outstanding academic achievement will be in the individual's favor, said Walker, it is not the selection criteria for the annual honors.

A Capella Choir Wins Top Award

Jacksonville State University's A Cappella Choir captured the $500 first prize in the first annual College Choir Competition in Birmingham Saturday night, March 9. Bayne Dobbins, assistant professor of music, is director of the choir. The competition was sponsored by the Junior Board of the Birmingham Music Club and took place in the auditorium of Phillips High School.

Student Body Apathy

For the past two semesters, the Chanticleer has been harping on the apparent lack of interest which students have in the affairs of Jacksonville State University. Interest in and attendance of Student Government Association meetings has been one major area the Chanticleer has tried to stimulate.

Our efforts have been in vain. Not only is attendance still lagging at SGA meetings, but for awhile last week it was doubtful whether or not enough candidates would announce for the four SGA offices which are up for election this spring.

When the deadline for qualifying had ended last Friday, five persons had qualified for four posts: three persons are unopposed. Even the candidates admitted they were surprised that no one else qualified.

As if this were not enough, the publications board met 45 minutes after the qualifying deadline time had passed to name the editor, and business manager of the Mimosa and the editor of the Chanticleer. Four persons applied, for the three positions.

One student was overheard saying that he doubted whether or not he could get 50 Jax students to stand in line for $50 bills if the SGA were handing them out.

True, many SGA representatives have shown a lack of interest in affairs of the school by not attending meetings and participating in their assigned duties. However, the past week has born out the fact that the disinterest is much deeper, not only on the SGA level, but the student body level as well. In short, our student body seems to be content in bad-mouthing others, and not willing to remedy the situation.

The SGA-publications board are only two examples of lack of interest. We went through all this last football season, remember?

It has been said that talents lie hidden in persons until the proper occasion arises. We have the occasions, but so far we have not been overrun by talent and those who are really concerned.

Our Man In Sweden

The good which comes from the International House Program here at JSU continues to grow, and has now reached international proportions. Many of the free world countries now have graduates of JSU who were members of the International House Program.

Take Sweden for instance.

Sweden has recently been in the world's spotlight due to her willingness to shelter unhappy American soldiers and draftees. Stokley Carmichael, militant black power advocate, was given a warm reception there and preached his anti-American propaganda to all who would listen.

Henry Tham, former IH student here, is now back in his native country of Sweden, and is reportedly telling his fellow countrymen that he lived in the United States and knows that the things which Carmichael advocates are not true.

Tangible evidence that the IH Program is living up to its purpose of creating good will continues to mount in the form of an international JSU alumni association.

Won't Somebody Help?

Letters to the Editor

Purpose Told

Dear Editor:
I would like to explain the purpose of the recent trek that myself and three other students made to Rowan Hall two weeks ago.

It was not, as I was so wrongly accused, to intimidate Rowan Hall nor the dormitory director -- even though Rowan does seem to afford a good example -- but to bring to light the urgent need for reform in rules that govern students at Jacksonville State University. Not only are the rules inconsistent but some are utterly ridiculous.

Why must we here at JSU live under two codes, the laws of the city, state and nation plus the JSU array of rules, when we are not on campus or don't live on campus and be subject to punishment from both? This seems like double jeopardy to me. Aren't the laws of the state of Alabama and the United States of America enough?

But no, "All students regardless of where they live are responsible for compliance with the University Discipline Policy . . ." according to the Off-Campus Housing Regulations. Did you apartment dwellers know we had such a set of rules? You had better beef up on them before you get caught short.

I say that when a student leaves the campus boundaries the laws of the state of Alabama and the United States of America should suffice. Some other people feel this way also it seems. According to the American Association of University Professors "Statement on the Academic Freedom of Students," students who violate the law may incur penalties prescribed by civil authorities, but institutional authority should never be used merely to duplicate the function of general laws." But at JSU, if you display "improper decorum" even though you are "not held in violation of the General Conduct Regulations" you still may have "appropriate disciplinary action" imposed upon you according to the second paragraph of the General Conduct Regulations.

Now I ask you, who is to determine what "improper decorum" is and what the "Appropriate disciplinary action" will be? I say it is the universities' responsibility to define -- in writing -- specifically what rules apply to its students and to spell out the punishment for infraction of the rules.

Greek Stand

Dear Editor:
We, first as students of Jacksonville State University and second as members of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority, Delta Chi Fraternity and Zeta Omega Fraternity, wish to make this statement concerning the recent arrest of some students formerly enrolled at JSU, on charges of illegal possession of narcotics. These students were by far only a very small minority, who in their actions have seemingly disgraced the name of our university and its fine student body. We agree fully with the administration's dismissal of these students and feel that this was completely justified and the only possible course of action for the administration.

We, as members of Greek social organizations, feel that it is necessary to lead a well-rounded life. Education is a very important part of our well-rounded lives. Also our civic and social activities are important aspects. By social activities we mean those activities which we enjoy and which do not harm us or disgrace our names or the name of our university.

Signed:
Becky Bailey,
President, Alpha Xi Delta

Mr. and Miss Presidents,

Your approval of administrative action taken by JSU officials is as commendable as your disregard for the basic principles of the United States judicial system is apparent.

We should first establish that under our system of law a man is innocent until proven guilty by a jury of his peers.

It appears you and the administration have already passed judgement on the two students dismissed on morals and narcotics charges last Tuesday. They have yet to be convicted by civil authorities.

When asked why the students were dismissed, Dean of Men Gus Edwards cited the JSU discipline policy which provides for expulsion or suspension (See LETTERS, Page 3) sive to the desires of the student body as a whole," said Killian. "I would hope that if I am elected, I would be able to help furnish effective and satisfactory Student Government for all students.

According to incumbent SGA president, Ralph Walker, no other bids are expected for the April 23 elections. Write in candidates were outlawed by the SGA at an April 1964 SGA session.

Walker said write-in candidates would be recognized in the vote tabulation only if a petition calling for a reversal of the 1964 decision is submitted to the SGA and receives a favorable vote prior to the April elections.

Walker encouraged all students to plan to vote in the election, since even the unopposed candidates must receive a majority of the total votes cast to be elected.

The contested vice-presidential race is expected to be of considerable interest since the primary duty of the vice-president is the booking and coordinating of campus entertainment.

Although the campaign period has been open for more than two weeks, campaign material may not be displayed on campus until April 15. Candidates will speak in a general assembly Thursday, April 17.

Notices Sought Wesleyans Plan Flicks For Bulletin

Notices of general campus interest are now being solicited for the bulletin boards recently erected on the JSU campus, according to Student Government Association President Ralph Walker.

The three bulletin boards were installed by SGA officers last week in front of Cole and Self Cafeterias and in front of the Grab.

President Walker said notices should be no larger than 8 1/2 x 11 inches or the size of standard typewriter paper.

Temporary notices or announcements may be hand lettered in black ink. Notices of a permanent nature should be printed or neatly lettered and should be as small as possible.

Material to be posted may be turned in at the SGA office in the basement of Dixon Hall or to SGA officers or campus.

Kimbrough Speaks Here

Emily Kimbrough, author, editor, and traveler extraordinary, kept her audience in a hilarious mood at Jacksonville State University Thursday morning when she spoke under the sponsorship of Sigma Tau Delta and the English Club.

Miss Kimbrough, who is noted for using just the right words to express her sparkling wit, regaled the students and faculty with laughable experiences she has encountered in her travels.

The Wesley Foundation will conduct a movie course on Christian Theology each Tuesday night, 7:30 p.m., in the "Rock House".

The course is presented on film with a lecture by Dr. Ted Runyon of Emory University. There will be eight films each dealing with a principle doctrines of the Christian belief. Following each film there will be a discussion period led by Reverend Donald Brasfield, Methodist Chaplain.

The film series began on Tuesday, March 19 and will continue until Tuesday May 6. Any student who wishes to participate in this course is invited to attend.

BSU Sponsors Talent Show

The BSU is sponsoring a talent show to send Jax State students and other college students to countries all over the world as summer missionaries. Anyone interested should contact Jimmy Nichols in Patterson Hall or Rose Marie Manor in Weatherly Hall. The BSU is looking for all kinds of talent, so if you have any at all see Nichols or Manor by Friday, March 29.

Edwards referred to the implications of the morals and narcotics charges against the pair.

If suspension from a public institution is compared to the serving of a prison sentence, in the sense both actions change an individual's status for a period of time, the implication of conviction is clearer.

According to Dean Edwards, both students may apply for readmission if they are not convicted of the charges now pending. In the meantime several months of college have been denied these persons on the implication of the charges.

Provisions such as the posting of bond rather than confinement while awaiting trial is not provided in the determination of a student's status at an academic institution during a similar period. An individual falsely accused and consequently acquitted would no doubt have a legitimate damages' claim against the State of Alabama based on the delay of his exercise of earning power by a state institution which delayed his education by unjustly suspending him.

These thoughts are not to take issue with the guilt or innocence of the parties concerned. Neither are they to defend them, nor

A LITTLE SPICE . . .

By NORMAN BROWN
Associate Editor

Draw Fast And Shoot Straight

"Draw fast - - shoot straight - - and don't hit any innocent bystanders," are a few words of wisdom passed on to yours truly in the past quarter of a century.

Within the past two months it has been difficult to write within the policy and more than one bystander has been hit by "a little spice." At least one administrative opinion of this shortcoming is that it is a deliberate and personal attempt to harass and antagonize. Nothing could be further from the truth.

When editorial opinion levels its sights on the status quo, those individuals clinging to the status quo in a rapidly changing society may be caught in the crossfire.

The status quo or "establishment" is crumbling - - not only at JSU - - but throughout the nation and most recently and vividly in the Victorian Bible-belt Southern States. It would be unreasonable to maintain that the 5,000 students at JSU in 1968 have the same morals, ideas and interests that the 119 students at this college in 1942 had.

Recent police action in the Jacksonville area has indicated some new ideas have been introduced at JSU. Contrary to the beliefs of some persons, the students at JSU are no "different" from the thousands of students at Auburn, Alabama, Harvard, Berkley and MIT.

A liberal press may be dealt by society the task of describing the departure from the status quo as well as pointing out the shortcomings of the establishment as it exists. In this attempt to editorially shed light on these two aspects of our changing society, bystanders may become involved.

Whether describing or prompting a departure from the status quo is more harmful than helpful is a matter of opinion. The conservative would be expected to see such actions as harmful - - the liberal would be more likely to see the actions as helpful.

In the interest of the continuity of society mores, laws, rules, and regulations area and should be slow to change. When an isolated subculture lags behind the surrounding society or equivalent cultural elements, discontent may arise within the subculture under study.

Such may be the case at JSU, which is in the opinion of many students is lagging far behind other colleges across the nation. To date this discontent has been expressed in an orderly and appropriate manner. It has in the past six months been discussed openly in the columns of the Chanticleer.

A sincere recognition of the attempts of responsible students to express their discontent.

A sincere recognition by the elements maintaining the status quo will assure that these orderly and appropriate means of expression and discussion will be continued.

A little objective thought on the topics of the discussions wouldn't do any harm either.

RULES REVISION PROGRESS . . .

Student Government Association vice-president David Milam was appointed at the March 18 Student Senate meeting to sit in on the women's rules revisions proceedings. The general opinion of the SGA was that at least one male student should at least observe the proceedings when they begin.

At press time, Milam said he had not yet discussed the matter with Dean of Women Miriam Jackson nor received her concurrence on the SGA action.

for "activities which might shock the community sense of propriety or reflect discredit upon the institution . . ."

When asked what actions fulfilled these requirements for dismissal, Dean advocate their return to the campus.

It should be noted however that they are innocent until proven guilty, regardless of the individuals or organizations who may imply otherwise.

Students Making B Average Last Semester Are Announced

The dean's list for the fall quarter was recently published in the Chanticleer. Although students with a B average do not make the dean's list, the office of admissions does compile a record and lists their names.

Many times students with a B average miss the dean's list by only a few points, and in some cases carries a heavier load than those who do make the dean's list, so it seems only fair that these students should also be recognized.

Students with a B average are listed as follows:

Raeletts To Accompany Charles

The date for the Ray Charles Show is rapidly growing near, SGA vice president David Milam has reminded Jax State students. The big night is April 17 and the place is Leone Cole Auditorium. Not only will Ray Charles sing many of his hit recordings, but will be accompanied by the Raeletts, his popular female quartet.

The Raeletts is composed of Merry Clayton, Gwendolyn Berry, Clydie King and Alexandria Brown, all of whom are stars in their own right.

After a successful world-wide tour with the Ray Charles Show, the Raeletts recorded their first single, "One Hurt Deserves Another" and "One Room Paradise," on the Tangerine label.

Several of the Raeletts have recorded individual hits.

NDL Deadline Is April 15 Jax Students Invited To Hear Dan Smoot

All Jax State students desiring to apply for National Defense Loans must do so by April 15, 1968 for both the summer session of 1968 and the academic year of 1968-69, according to Dr. Baskin Wright, director of financial aid.

Applications may be secured in the financial aid office in the Student Union Building. No exceptions to this deadline will be made.

Typing Test March 27

The Typewriting Proficiency Test will be given on Wednesday March 27, 1968, at 7:30 P.M. in Room 107-8 of Mason Hall.

Every student who has had high school or business school typewriting and wishes to take college typewriting must take this test before registering for a typewriting course.

Bring typewriting paper, pen, and an eraser.

Dan Smoot, editor of the Dan Smoot Report, will speak on March 29 at the Roundhouse in conjunction with the 14th annual meeting of the John H. Forney Historical Society.

Jax State ROTC cadets will post the colors to open the meeting at 10:25 a.m. General Edward M. Almond (Ret.), president of the historical society, will preside. The Rev. Robert Archibald, Jr. will lead the invocation and Dr. Houston Cole, president of JSU, will welcome members and guests.

Dan Smoot, of Dallas, Texas, will make the principal address at the morning session.

A reception at the International House will follow. Col. C. W. Daugette Jr. will present the Distinguished Service Award; Jack Boozer will give a report on the historical marker program and T. Weller Smith will conduct the memorial service.

All Jax State students are invited to attend Smoot's speech.

Packard To Speak Here

Vance Packard, one of the most perceptive social critics of our time, will speak at Leone Cole Auditorium on Monday, April 1, at 10 a. m.

His appearance is being sponsored by the political science department. Notices will be posted as to who will be excused for the speech.

Author of several phenomenal best sellers, Packard is internationally recognized for his incisive, meticulously researched investigations of trends in modern society that bear on civil liberty.

The titles of his books have literally become household words -- because he is able, in a phrase, to pinpoint an aspect of modern life that everyone instantly recognizes. The only American author in recent decades to have had three successive books hit the number one spot on the nation's best seller lists in the non-fiction field, Vance Packard now devotes all his time to social comment. He is in great demand as a speaker on college campuses.

A native of Pennsylvania with a master's degree from Columbia University's graduate school of journalism, he for years delivered weekly lectures at Columbia and New York University.

Spring training begins today for Gamecocks

Jacksonville State University's football hopefuls hit the field this afternoon for the beginning of spring drills and the start of the "1968 football season."

"You win or lose in the fall according to the type of spring practice you have," head coach, Jim Blevins, said last week as he went about finishing final details for the beginning of spring drills.

The Gamecocks will work 20 days, with practice slated to climax Saturday afternoon, April 27, with the annual J-Day Game at Paul Snow Memorial Stadium. Game time will be 2 p. m.

Mostly, the work schedule in the spring calls for a lot of fundamentals, meaning blocking and tackling and this is the "menu" for the 42 prospects at Jax State.

Included among the 42 candidates are 23 lettermen from last season and one from 1966 - Fullback Mike Little, who missed last season because of injuries, giv-

Linkmen

Top Athens

Bouncing back from their opening loss of the season at the hands of the Alabama College Falcons, the JSU linkmen blasted the Athens team 16 1/2 - 11/2 in a match played at the Anniston Country Club.

Low man for the Gamecocks was player-coach Marc Calton who shot a 74 for the afternoon. Following Calton were Larry Blackmon who shot a 76, Thomas Howard who carded an eighteen hole total of 80 and freshman Steve Marks, playing in his first match shot a 86.

Athen's only points were scored by Tony D'Amelio who won the total of 11/2 points for the Bears.

Last Thursday the Gamecock linkmen had a return match with Alabama College and Coach Calton was eager to get revenge.

The win gives the linkmen a record of 1-1, and the same record in conference action.

ing a total of 24 monogram winners on hand.

Gone from the 1967 squad which went 4-5-1 are 11 starters on either offense or defense, including seniors Bernard Giovingo, Terry Harris, Don Hedden, Bruce Peck, Jerry Loving, Robert Kelly and Mac Gillam. Also gone are Linebackers Wayne Martinez and Ronnie Smitherman, Quarterback Donald Gables, Tackle Larry Buchanan, and End Mike Chafin.

Some of the top returnees back are running backs, Bubba Long, Glen Spann, Lynn Swinford, and Little while returning lettermen at split end and flanker back positions are Jimmy Jackson, Don Cassidy, Chris Wanzer, and Ray Emanuel while lettermen back at tackle are Bill Stone, Don Austin, Danny Webster and Tommy Hudson.

Athletic

Clinic

Scheduled

Head football Coach Jim Blevins recently announced the Athletic Department will hold its annual clinic on April 12-13.

The lectures will be held in the Round House from 8:00 a.m. till noon each day.

In the past years the clinic has always been a big success and the Athletic Department is planning an even bigger and better clinic for 1968. Participation in the clinic has been good throughout the years as a good many participants are always on hand for the annual event.

The Chanticleer will have a more detailed report concerning participants and subjects in its next issue.

These six pitchers form what may be the best pitching staff assembled at Jacksonville State University in several years and represent the Gamecocks' hopes for conference honors this spring. From left, are, James Thompson, Gadsden; Darrell Childress, Albertville; Harry Douglas, Guntersville; Gary McAnally, Birmingham; Lowell Tew, Birmingham; and Jeff McCool, Birmingham. The fine part about the six hurlers is that all six return next year also.

Publications Board Names Personnel For Chanticleer and Mimosa

Discussion of coordination and controls of campus publications overshadowed the selection of 1968-69 yearbook and student newspaper editors at the March 21 meeting of the JSU publications board.

Incumbent Chanticleer Editor Larry Smith was renamed to the top position on the student newspaper and 1968 assistant Mimosa editor, Bob Lawson was named editor of the 1969 Mimosa. Smith and Lawson were the only applicants for the positions.

In the only contested bid for positions, Maynard Layman was named 1969 Mimosa business manager.

After informing the publications board that the 1968 Mimosa was $1,700 over its budget, incumbent editor Jeff Hamrick cited a lack of controls over the annual, despite the Student Government Association's constitutional authority.

"An editor could sign a contract for a $30,000 book and the SGA or the JSU administration could be stuck for the bill," said Hamrick. "Something needs to be done."

Hamrick said the yearbook had gone in the red several years ago and that JSU president, Dr. Houston Cole had made up the deficit and said no more yearbooks would be published under similar circumstances. Hamrick added that the SGA had agreed at that time to underwrite future publications.

SGA president Ralph Walker, present at the board session, said it did not appear that the SGA would have sufficient funds to appropriate to the annual publication this year. Hamrick indicated a musical might be staged in an attempt to make up the difference.

Following the meeting, Hamrick told the Chanticleer he would recommend to the incoming editor that an annual not be published next year if satisfactory financial arrangements could not be made. He cited a mandatory student activity fee, with an appropriation to pay the cost of the yearbook as one answer.

Chanticleer associate editor Norman Brown asked the board for information regarding the delayed publication of the student directory by the Phi Beta Lambda business club. He alleged a lack of SGA control over the organization's activities and asked to whom the club might be held responsible.

More than 700 of the directories have been sold in advance, and although it is usually published in November of the academic year, it has not been delivered this year.

Brown queried the board's opinion of local advertising for the student newspaper and described the plight of many Jacksonville merchants who purchased non-functional complimentary advertising in the annual, sports brochures and other campus publications, only because they felt they could not afford not to do so.

Publications Board Chairman Dr. William J. Calvert and member Dr. Jackson W. Selman told Brown and Hamrick such administrative details did not fall within their jurisdiction and that the publications board's primary responsibility was to review the content and quality of existing publications.

Zeta Omega fraternity will be sporting Alpha Tau Omega pledge pins next week, according to the social fraternities officers.

President Jim Reaves said ATO has accepted the less than one year old independent frat as a colony and the show is on the road.

Also from Zeta Omega come the report that $75 was collected among its members and at an Anniston road block for the US Olympic Team fund drive.

While ATO is getting its feet on the ground, Delta Chi is already setting records.

On May 4, the JSU Delta Chi colony will be officially chartered. This is one year to the day since it was originally colonized. The usual period of colony status is four to five years. It is only a first at JSU, it is a record time for the chartering of a Delta Chi chapter, according to Delta Chi national headquarters.

Delta Chi house mother, Mrs. Evelyn Swingley was reported in satisfactory condition at Noble Army Hospital and now receiving visitors. Mrs. Swingley was stricken with a heart attack during the AEA holidays.

From the Greeks and the Chanticleer to Mrs. Swingley a public "Get Well Card."

Alpha Xi Deltas scattered to the four corners of the nation during the AEA holidays, according to Carol Jean Smith who reports the University of Kentucky AZD house is plush.

Jan Crim claims the AZD house at the University of Texas is "out of sight" with its own swimming pool, officers executive suites and a multitude of other features.

At JSU the AZD's meet at the Faculty-Alumni Club for lack of a house or meeting room they can call their own. Visions of greater things to come are held by more than one sister.

Zeta Omega and Delta Chi are taking an active part in the current City of Jacksonville "clean-up, fix-up, paint-up" campaign. Both fraternities have received project assignments from the Jacksonville Interclub Council coordinating committee.

Delta Chi pledge class president Bruce Sproull and Zeta Omega president Jim Reaves were among those representing their respective fraternities at the March 18 clean-up effort organizational meeting.

The Delta Chi, the newly formed fraternity on the JSU campus captured the 1968 intramural basketball tournament defeating the Combinations.

Starring for the Delta Chi was Jim Farrell, Bill MacArthur, and Jim Dozier.

Vietnam Referendum Set for Choice 68

A referendum on Vietnam war policy and the urban crisis are to be included in the CHOICE 68 presidential poll at JSU April 23, according to campus coordinator Jim Royal.

The JSU referendum, which will coincide with the Spring SGA officers election is part of a nationwide collegiate poll at nearly 1,000 colleges with enrollments totaling more than five million students.

Meeting in Washington D. C. from February 10-13, the program's student directors selected a slate of fourteen candidates for the presidency. They are: Fred Halstead, Mark Hatfield, Lyndon Johnson, Robert Kennedy, Martin Luther King, John Lindsay, Eugene McCarthy, Richard Nixon, Charles Percy, Ronald Reagan, Harold Stassen, and George Wallace.

The students also decided the three referendum questions be included on the ballot. Two deal with the country's current involvement in Vietnam, and one with the priorities of government spending in confronting the "urban crisis". Mr. Richard Scammon, Director of the Elections Research Center, and Dr. Howard Penniman of the Political Science Department of Georgetown University assisted the Board in their efforts to ensure that the various questions were properly phrased towards achieving maximum clarity.

In addition, the Board resolved several administrative questions, such as voter qualification. It was decided that any student currently enrolled in an American college or university will be eligible to vote in the CHOICE 68 election. This includes graduate, part-time, and foreign students; as well as those studying abroad in American branch universities.

JSU CLEAN-UP WEEK

WALKER AND HIS BULLETIN BOARD!

Portfolio: Spring Blossoms At JSU

DELTA CHI'S AND HOUSE MOTHER SWINGLEY

Jacksonville State University's recent seige of spring fever gave way to a hustle and bustle of activity planned and unplanned on and off campus.

The long promised bulletin boards were "planted" last Monday by T-shirt clad SGA president Ralph Walker. Trash containers were painted Tuesday and new shrubs placed in front of Bibb Graves Hall.

President Walker outlined a plan to the SGA for uniform time and/or chime time on the JSU campus. He said he would take personal charge and get the correct time from Western Union to begin the timekeepers job.

Delta Chi officers Jim Dozier, Jim Farrell, Charles Henderson and Kerry Wagner found housemother, Mrs. Evelyn Swingley to be a mother away from home.

Twenty - one ROTC sponsors will vie next week for the title of Brigade Ball Queen. Quite a bunch of beauties.
