Mr. And Miss Jax State Selected

By BILL LITTLEJOHN
Staff Writer

On Thursday, December 6, the JSU student body elected the new Mr. & Miss Jax State and Mr. & Miss Friendly.

Approximately 300 ballots were cast in the run-off election which declared Boyce Callahan and Susan Kelley to be Mr. & Miss Jax State for 1973-74. Sindo Mayer and Debra Walters were elected as Mr. and Miss Friendly for the year.

Mother's Little Helper

Mrs. Ranae Coheley registered for classes this week at JSU and she brought her "trusty lieutenant," Barrett, 18 months old, along to help. He was the hit of the "party." Mrs. Coheley of Anniston is a business major.

Gem Of The Hills

Pretty Debra Watson of Birmingham is welcoming all the students back to JSU for the new year and a new semester. Debra is a 5' 4" brown eyed blonde beauty majoring in nursing. She is a Marching Ballerina, and a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ward.

Miss Swinney Named 'Fairest Of The Fair'

(Courtesy of The Anniston Star)

By VERONICA PIKE

Miss Elizabeth Swinney added another gem to her ever-increasing crown of beauty titles when she became the 1974 Miss Alabama Fairest of the Fair in Montgomery last Friday evening.

Chosen Miss Calhoun County Fair last September, Miss Swinney competed for the title with ten other girls who had also won local fair titles.

Three judges made their selection on the basis of an interview, a five-minute talent competition and evening gown competition. Miss Swinney performed an Arabian harem dance, "with bells on my toes and rings on my fingers," she said.

The girls voted Miss Terry Melendez of Holt Miss Congeniality, and Miss Donna Thomas, a student at Lurleen B. Wallace Junior College, was first alternate.

Along with the title, Miss Swinney won a $300 scholarship, a dozen roses and a crown, in the contest sponsored by the Alabama Fair Association. All contestants received a charm bracelet and a charm engraved with their name and "Fairest of the Fair, 1973," a charm from the Governor's office and Alabama Chamber of Commerce, and a set of four silver coins commemorating Montgomery's sesquicentennial anniversary.

In addition to Miss Calhoun County Fair, Miss Swinney also became Miss Anniston in December. From the two contests, she has won $400, two trophies, two crowns, two dozen roses, a scholarship to Macy's Modeling School and an all-expense paid trip to the Fairest of the Fair contest and the Miss Alabama contest, which will be held in June.

A graduate of Saks High School, Miss Swinney is a sophomore at Jacksonville State University majoring in math and minoring in French. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Swinney of Saks.

Parking And Traffic Regulations: 1973-74

After several years of having more cars than parking spaces, Jacksonville State University now has more spaces than cars of students, faculty, and staff. Each year there has been an increase in the number of automobiles registered on campus and totaled 4500 vehicles as of Fall 1973. Certain rules and regulations were established by a student committee with the aim of protecting life and property, as well as providing fair and equitable parking.

The traffic rules have been amended since last semester started. These amendments, as well as the original rules are printed below. If you wish you may pick up a copy of the rules at the Traffic Office in Glazner Hall.

AMENDMENTS

1. If you receive a ticket, you are to pay the fine at the Business Office. The day you receive the ticket is a grace period and all traffic tickets are due on the next working day. FINES WILL BE DOUBLED if not paid within this period. For example, if you get a ticket at 8 a.m. on Monday, it would be doubled on Wednesday at 8 a.m. if not paid.

2. Delinquent traffic fines will be billed from the Business Office. Don't wait to be billed. Pay tickets on time and avoid double fines. These delinquent fines may be appealed only IF: (1) the fine is paid, (2) an appeal request is signed at the Business Office, and (3) the student appears before the appeals court which is comprised of students appointed by the SGA. No appeals will be considered unless notice of appeal has not been instituted within 10 days of billing date (date statement is mailed from Business Office).

1. DEFINITIONS:

- a. Motor Vehicle—Any self propelled conveyance.
- b. Student—Any person registered at this institution for one or more credit hours.

Fines not paid within the allotted time will be doubled. Fines will be paid at the Business Office Bibb Graves Hall. The violators copy must be presented at time of payment. If the copy has been lost or destroyed, a copy may be obtained from the Traffic Office.

The fuel shortage is affecting us all and one group of students, those living off-campus, will be directly affected when rationing of gasoline becomes a reality.

In order to help this group of students find more economical ways to get transportation to school, the CHANTICLEER will begin immediately a free classified service for those wishing to form car pools and find or give rides to the campus.

The service will consist of running a free 20 word classified ad for two consecutive issues of the paper in a special section reserved for transportation inquiries.

The CHANTICLEER staff feels that this small service will aid students in conserving gasoline, getting them to school, and saving them money in the process.

All interested persons should contact the CHANTICLEER office (SCB 4th FLOOR) personally or by mail (Box 56 JSU) or any other method to place the free ads. If more ads are needed by the student to get results, the request will be reviewed by the staff.

Ads should be typed and not contain more than 20 words stating the location of the person's home, the route taken to school, and any other necessary information so that others may make contact.

We would like to take this space to commend the NORTHERN IOWAN of the University of Northern Iowa for suggesting this plan.

Dear Editor:

I've kept this thing pinned up inside me long enough now so I've got to say something about it or I'll explode. It's about the library—the toilets you know. Now, I know that there can't be anything done about it since millions of dollars were put into the construction of the library, but maybe someone could at least write in an explanation to the CHANTICLEER, telling me just what purpose do giant commodes serve.

A number of possible reasons have entered my head, but none of them holds water. Maybe the johns were built so high off the deck because the designers were counting on college students being a couple of feet taller say a hundred or two years from now. Well that may be or it may not—with the energy crisis and the food shortage and all, it's very likely that people (college people included) will be a few inches shorter in the near future, which means their legs will be dangling more than ever and they'll be having a rougher time of it all around if they get the sudden urge to do el numero dos and can't make it to Martin Hall, Bibb Graves, or the weeds behind the library.

It could be that the architects collaborated with the faculty before deciding which size would be best for all of us since they know that we students are more neurotic than students ever have been, so they must have voted on it and found from the vote that we would welcome a change in this important matter which affects our daily lives. But that probably isn't it either. There will always be dissatisfied students no matter what you do and it would be very uneconomical to use all that extra porcelain just to satisfy the whims of a bunch of far-out students.

Now let's question whether this mysterious project was carried out for educational benefits. You see, they might have figured that when a student goes to "beakscuse" he or she will not waste valuable studying time—these toilets cause a lot of discomfort, you know, so one might think that you'd want to get it over with, but there's a flaw in this reasoning also. There laws of physics and biology that can prove (I won't write any formulas) that the more of a squatting position a man is in, the easier it is for nature to take its course. One simple law of physics, that I think everyone should agree on, states that work equals force times distance. Get it? More distance—more work?

Well, what the construction people did by putting in these Cro-Magnon contraptions has upset a lot of people—physically and psychologically—not to mention the emotional frustrations of not being able to pull out more than a few measly shreds of toilet paper at a time when you've got to get to a class and you haven't even been able to complete the job you started because your highness won't let you.

No, I'm not asking that the library be torn down and reconstructed. All I want is for someone to come up with a good explanation. Some advice: If you ever plan to carry a magazine or book to a library bathroom here in hopes of alleviation and relaxation, forget it. It's enough to make a man holler SHUCKS!

New Found Sounds

Greg Allman-Laid Back Capricorn CP-0116

The musicians amassed for this album are competent and play the material well. It is a real pleasure to hear eclecticism used properly and it certainly is on "Laid Back". This LP contains personality and substance not found on many other solo albums. It is beautifully performed and magnificently recorded. The eight tracks on this album are generally lush, though not overly so and seems to contain a quiet inner strength.

'Midnight Rider' and 'Please Call Home' originally from the LP "Idlewild South" are done a bit differently with the addition of horns and more distinct keyboards section than the original. 'Queen of Hearts' is about his love for Janice, his Queen of hearts. It is a very fine love song with an exceptional horn and a distinct piano section. 'These Days' talks of time spent thinking about his failures and contains a very good steel guitar set. 'Multi-Colored Lady', which in my opinion vies with 'Queen of Hearts' for the best song on the album, is about a broken-hearted woman he met on a bus trip from Memphis to Rome, and it contains some very fine acoustic work by Greg. The album closes with 'Will the Circle Be Unbroken', which was also sung at Duane's funeral and may very well appear on this album in his memory, I do know that it is done with a little more class than usual.

Chuck Leavall again demonstrates his gifted abilities on the piano, Jaimoe does the conga sets, and Butch Trucks does the cabasa sets. The album is dedicated to Janice B. Allman. It is quality work and well worth the price.

Bob Dylan-Dylan Columbia PC-32747

This album comes as no surprise, being released just prior to Dylan's first tour in eight years. Dylan and The Band will tour nationwide during the months of January and February which was arranged by promoter Bill Graham. According to Performance magazine "Bob Dylan's tour with The Band is 'Shipping Gold'. Every seat for 40 concerts is sold out before the entourage boards a private jet." This tour is estimated to gross $5 million for Mr. Dylan and associates.

The directness of the lyrics and tight simplicity of the music shows Dylan's ability at turning out sharp, pleasantly unpretentious work. The Classics 'Can't Help Falling in Love' and 'Big Yellow Taxi' appear on this LP in Dylan's distinct and extremely personal style. 'Lily of the West' is a song of lovely Flora and a cowboy's love for her, her betrayal of him, and his finally being tried for murder—set in the typical Western sound. 'The Ballad of Ira Hayes' tells of a Pauma Indian who, despite the white man's abuse of his tribe, volunteers to fight in WWII, and of the irony of his being one of 250 men to Iwo Jima and his being one of the 27 survivors—only to return home to more abuse and to die drunk in two inches of water. Finally 'Sarah Jane' shows the up-tempo boogie side of Dylan.

I can without a doubt recommend this album as being representative of Dylan's professionalism, an ERA in folk music.

Special thanks to HOMESTEAD RECORDS in the Jacksonville Plaza without whose cooperation this article would not have been possible. Also at this time I would like to thank Susan Day for her artistic contribution for the title of the article.

The special this week is Linda Ronstadt at the special price of $3.48. HOMESTEAD has just opened a store in Gadsden at 704 East Broad Street.

Madame Sosotris

Assisted by Ron Carswell (Her Medium)

Happy New Year from your Medium and Madame Sosotris. Within the next year we hope to bring you insight on your own personal lives and the lives of the many well known persons today. Not only do we plan on giving you a weekly forecast on your actions and interests, but we hope to feature the months Zodiac sign at the first of the month. We, your Medium and Madame Sosotris, do hope to influence your lives with dignity, rewarding advice, and thoughts to build a better life for yourself and the loved ones amongst you.

With this being the first issue of the year we would advise you to forget the age-old routine of making public "resolutions" but to sit down, and think of where your life has gone backwards, and attempt to straighten as a natural branch does when it is broken many times in its path of life. Draw within yourself; attempt to find your most important love in your life, and discover new and original philosophies, and ideals to help you construct and attain your love. But do not fall into the paths of the many who put themselves before others. You will find helping others be them friend or foe will help yourself more in time than being selfish and coldblooded. An important influence in my life once stated "a friend is one who walks in when everyone else walks out." Take my advice as I am and between us we can live as we are meant to live.

ARIES: Take time to sway from your own pathways, and venture into different lifestyles. Yours may be sufficient, but we are here to better ourselves not to stagnate.

TAURUS: In the past year you have drawn within yourself too much as this is one of your faults. Come out and show yourself to others as this may also help those surrounding you.

GEMINI: You must set aside your present doings and venture into other worlds strange to you. Try to idealize the reasons you play the role you are acting.

CANCER: You have many chances around yourself to take you onto higher levels. Meditate and attempt to find the way to attain your deserving higher levels.

LEO: The life you are leading is a good one, but you need to think of others as many of us do. Don't be frightened it is only a slight mistake on your part.

VIRGO: The possibilities of a new or more beneficial career is a good one. Take others advice, but make sure the given advice can help you and not them.

LIBRA: Keep striving—you are at a bad time in your Zodiac year but all will work out in the weeks to come.

SCORPIO: You have many competitors as all Scorpios do. You like everyone have a special place in life, but it takes time for you to realize this. But there is a reason for this and when you are ready you will realize it.

SAGITTARIUS: At this time you should simmer your ego, take a mild vacation from life and refresh your ideals and place in life.

CAPRICORN: Your many problems are coming to light now. Don't be downhearted on yourself and others the answers are soon to be revealed.

Dear Sirs:

In response to your article on the Gamecock Chicks—the sentence which said they went to the games even when the band didn't, the Southerners would like to point out that we do not have a choice as to which games we attend.

The school administration decides each year that there is not enough money to send us to all the games. Somehow, other schools manage to find the money, not only for trips to the games but for other activities. Many bands even get paid.

The Southerners, however, work from August 22 until the end of the semester for one hour credit; with no pay, and no scholarships.

We are rewarded only by the support of the students; and if it were our choice, we would attend every game.

The Southerners are a big part of the "Gamecock Spirit"; and we would be an even bigger part if the budget allowed.

Thank you,
s-Diane Forte for the Southerners

Ed.: We regret having lost this letter during football season, so we are printing it now. As to the sentence in question, the author meant no offense against the Southerners and was merely trying to further clarify a point in his article.

downfalls in life awaiting us. PISCES: Many aspects within you must be considered and solved before you can deal with external matters.

Ballerina Tryouts Are Scheduled

By JIM OWEN

With the beginning of the spring semester, most of the campus organizations begin to think about the upcoming fall semester and football season. The Marching Ballerinas are no different since they have to fill the 32 regular and 6 alternate positions on the corp for 1974.

How are the Ballerinas selected? The Ballerinas have adopted the policy of selecting an entirely new staff of girls each year and this is accomplished by the results of tryouts during the spring semester. To become a Ballerina, you must meet the following requirements: (1) you are a student of Jacksonville State University, (2) you are female, (3) that during the spring semester you sign up and take a course labeled "BALLERINA PERFORMANCE" listed in the Music Department courses in the catalog, and (4) that you remain eligible for the staff after all the elimination procedures are completed.

The next question is, "What are some of the events that the Marching Southerners and Ballerinas perform? Some of the events that the Marching Southerners and Ballerinas have appeared are: The Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama; The American Bowl in Tampa, Florida; The Orange Blossom Classic in 1970 at Miami, Florida; The Veterans Day Parade in Birmingham, Alabama; halftimes of the NFL Atlanta Falcons games; all home football games of the Fighting Gamecocks; and other outstanding events. The Ballerina Corp is always busy during the marching season as they appear at each performance of the Marching Southerners.

For further information about becoming a Ballerina contact, Dr. Dave Walter in his office on the second floor of Mason Hall or see Head Ballerina, Charlotte Wilson.

DOUBLE CROSS-UP

By Lara W. Asdorian

No. 2

Consider the clues from all angles; they may CROSS you UP! The clue may be a pun on the word wanted, or an anagram of the word itself. Usually, the clue contains a definition (synonym) as well as a cryptic representation of the word. Certain words may stand for letters in an anagram e.g., NOTHING, TEA, SEE, WHY, YOU, and BE may represent O, T, C, Y, U, and B. The word could also be hidden in the letters of the clue, e.g., the phrase "human being rated as unthankful" contains the answer INGRATE. The word might be defined in two parts, e.g., a clue for FORESTER is "ranger in favor of organic compound" (FOR ESTER).

Write the words over the numbered dashes and then transfer each letter to the correspondingly numbered square in the diagram. Black squares indicate word endings. The completed diagram will contain a quotation reading from left to right. The first letter of the answered words will give you the author's name and title of the work from which the quote comes.

Rotary Scholarship Winner

Each year Alabama Rotary Clubs provide scholarship assistance to JSU's famed International House Program. Recently, District Governor Tom Humphreys of District 686 visited the campus to announce the winner. Shown here from left, is Dr. Ernest Stone, university president, talking with Marina Rodriguez of Columbia, who is this year's recipient of the scholarship; District Governor Humphreys of Birmingham; and on right is Jan Farstad of Norway, the Rotary recipient for 1972-73 academic year.

Dr. Linda Thrower of Jacksonville was honored with other graduates and their families at the president's annual reception Wednesday. Dr. Thrower, an assistant professor at JSU, was awarded the Ph.D. in English for her work on Thomas Middleton. With Dr. Thrower is her husband, James and sons Jason, seven and Joey, five. Twenty-one doctorates were awarded in the Dec. 12 commencement with two specialists, 110 master's and 575 bachelor's degrees.

The Off Campus Association Is Functioning Well At Jacksonville

The Off-Campus Association, known as JSU Student Services, Inc., was organized last fall to serve the needs of the University students who live in the off-campus community.

Recognizing that this group has particular housing needs, the Off-campus Association is prepared to assist you as a student member by relieving you of the financial responsibility of paying deposits, local utility and telephone companies and by helping to locate and secure housing for university students. A special telephone service is provided for resident students.

Because of an agreement which we have reached with the Alabama Power Company, South Central Bell, and Alabama Gas Corporation, you, the student, are now able to join the Off-Campus Association for a membership fee of $5.00. This $5.00 membership fee is paid only once during the student's college career. A semester renewal fee of $2.50 is required for each spring and fall semester thereafter. A semester renewal fee of $1.00 is required for mini and summer semesters, should you, the student, wish to renew your membership during this time. In turn, we will give you stamped deposit slips which will enable you to receive the services of the companies stated above without paying the required deposits. After the slips have been filled out, we will then take the slips to the companies in lieu of the deposits required for gas, electricity, and telephone.

This in a nutshell is the basic service that J. S. U. Student Services Inc., provides to the students that reside off-campus. A special telephone service is provided for those students living in the dormitory. The students living in the dormitory will fill out the form and specify that telephone service is requested. This form will be given to the telephone company in lieu of the required deposit. Also, an apartment evaluation sheet will be published each fall along with the posting of available housing units on the bulletin board in the Off-Campus Office.

We feel that this is without a doubt the best service provided to the students. Therefore, we sincerely urge you to join the Off-Campus Association. Information tables will be set up at registration for your benefit, in order that we may assist you.

ATTENTION TO ALL PRESENT MEMBERS!!!

The 1974 spring semester renewal deadline is Thursday, Jan. 18, 1974 at 4:00 p.m. All unpaid utility bills must be paid to a current balance before renewal will be permitted.

All present members who have not renewed their membership by Friday, Jan. 18, 1974 at 4:00 p.m. will be cancelled for the semester and all deposits will be required by the utility companies. There will be no renewals of membership for present members accepted after this date for this semester.

Sincerely,
Michael E. Sanders, President,
J. S. U. Student Services, Inc.

FOR SALE: TUNNEL

Old locomotives and rolling stock are sold relatively easily, but the German Federal Railways have been trying in vain for the past eight years to find a buyer for a disused tunnel.

They see their tunnel as being tailor-made for mushroom growers or wine stockists on the lookout for more cellar space, but sad to say, not one buyer has come forward.

Anyone interested may write the German Embassy, Washington, DC 20016.
