Faculty Senate prefers lengthened time frame, expanded scope of selection of new president

By LEANNE DANIEL

The Faculty Senate of JSU had a called meeting on Sept. 24 to express strong concern over the resolution which was passed by the Board of Trustees pertaining to the selection of a new president upon the retirement of Dr. Ernest Stone.

The Faculty Senate after much discussion passed a resolution indicating strong concern and expressing a clear desire that the Board rely on the faculty and other constituencies of the University for input into the process of selecting a new president.

"We are disappointed with the time frame and certainly disappointed with the scope of the process," stated Dr. Jerry L. Smith, president of the Faculty Senate.

"In the resolution passed by the Faculty Senate, we clearly expressed our preference in an expanded scope and a lengthened time frame," Dr. Smith continued.

The resolution passed by the Faculty Senate stated that in April of 1980 Faculty Senate president Dr. Daniel Hollis communicated to the board the hope of the JSU Faculty Senate that the accepted academic practice of an open selection process involving a national search and faculty participation in the screening process be instituted.

A survey of the faculty by the Faculty Senate indicates overwhelming that the search for the next president of JSU should be nationwide in order to insure a broader selection process.

The board has a solemn obligation to the people of the State of Alabama as well as those directly connected with the University to secure the best qualified person who can obtain the confidence of and work harmoniously with those within the University and the community it serves.

It was resolved that the Faculty Senate urges the Board to enhance the integrity of the mechanism for the selection of JSU's next president by selecting representatives of the faculty, staff, students and alumni, nominees of which would be chosen by the respective groups, such representatives to be formally involved in the search process which should include establishment of criteria for the office of president, insuring that women and minority applicants are to be considered, and interviewing and recommending prospective students.

"The faculty views this as one of the most crucial decisions the University has made in some time and probably the most crucial decision that will be made for quite a while," Dr. Smith concluded.

Debra Kay, president of the SGA, represented the students and endorsed and commended the resolution.

"Since the SGA is responsible to the president and relies on him heavily for support, I think it is only fair that we (the students) have a voice in the selection process," Miss Kay said.

A motion was also passed giving Dr. Smith the authority to write a cover letter expressing additional points of concern to accompany the resolution.

The Faculty Senate will hold a regular meeting on Oct. 2 at 3 p.m.

Phi Eta Sigma has first induction

By JEFF POURDS

The local chapter of Phi Eta Sigma had its first induction ceremony Thursday, Sept. 20. Twenty-four members and four honorary members were inducted. This year's officers are president, Janice Alig; vice president, Colleen Schmidt; secretary, Jan Nicotra; treasurer, Sherri Brown; senior advisor, Jeff Pounds; and faculty advisor, Dean Allen Smith.

Phi Eta Sigma is a national college scholastic honor society for freshmen. A member of the Association of College Honor Societies, it was founded at the University of Illinois in 1923. Its goal is to encourage and reward high scholastic attainment among freshmen in institutions of higher learning.

There are approximately 100 chapters throughout the United States and some 200,000 members.

All freshmen men and women are eligible to join who attain a scholastic average equivalent to, or better than, one half the highest grade and one half the next highest grade during their first curricular period or their first year. (For example 3.5 when A equals 4.0.)

Committee established to study registration processes

By LEANNE DANIEL

A Refinement Committee has been established by Dr. Ernest Stone to study the registration and pre-registration process.

The committee consists of Dr. Donald Schmitt, chairman, Larry Smith, Jack Hopper, Ben Kirkland and Dr. James Reaves.

The committee met every day last week and listened to everyone involved with the registration process including the registrar, academic advisors, counselors, computer operators, deans, department heads, faculty and students.

After listening to different views, the committee will make recommendations to the President for the betterment of the registration process. Hopefully changes will be made and implemented in time for spring registration.

Phi Eta Sigma Officers

Being an English major has drawbacks...

By JOE BRYAN

Being an English major has its drawbacks. Besides having certain responsibilities to write volumes of fiction and poetry, our society's authorities on the use and history of the English language and literary genre (from here on referred to as teachers and professors of English) insist we understand the infinite periods of literature and the proper grammatical hierarchy. English majors have grown to accept this task with the most enthusiastic of varieties and cannot truthfully be considered a drawback.

However, often times we (the future of culture and a higher plane of awareness which shall be hereto referred to as students of English) are asked to aid, help, forgive or plagiarize in order for those unfortunate who are not oriented in the talents of English to receive 101 credit. This is definitely a drawback. How can we be expected to contemplate and put into words the solutions to the vast problems of the world while we are helping freshmen write a 300 word essay on "How I Spent My Summer Vacation, or A Week in Daytona With No Consideration Of Morality." In the mean meanwhile, students the world over. But if the student will merely choose one of those writing formulas he will find his next composition interesting and his grade an experience. In any event, it will prove a breakthrough.

Professors, the ball is in your court now.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to know why there are no monitors in the dormitories for males? We are people and human just like females. We need someone to answer our telephones that are in the dorm rooms. I have missed important calls because no one answered the phone. Then, when I did find out that someone was trying to call me it was too late to do anything.

Dear Miss Daniel,

I cannot understand why there are only certain places where people can park. It is always frustrating to try and find a parking place and have a monitor assigned to each of the dorms for guys.

I would also like to say that we are the reigning students here at JSU so do not that we need more keypunch machines and another card reader.

The seven keypunches, six in Merrill and one in Martin, are not enough for the great multitude of people who have completed the schools. There are also people who are in other subject areas besides computer science that need keypunch and run programs.

I am positive that Jax State could afford a few keypunches before we graduate. We have the space for them, because room 106 can be cleared out and have a few more keypunch machines and another card reader.

We desperately need the aforementioned items so that we can keypunch and run our programs without having to stand in long lines, miss eating for days, and missing classes.

We would like to graduate sometime in the near future.

Speaking of graduation, I do not know when I started the delterious process of offering a much needed course a semester later than it is usually offered and I do not care, but it is unfair. A lot of us students have to wait at least an extra semester because someone wanted to play God. It would seem that the instructors would know what this is like, they were students once.

I believe I could show some compassion towards us and start offering the courses at the same time ever year or have some other course that we could substitute for another course. Some instructors have the attitude of "I've got you now, you've got to get yours." How can we get ours if they won't permit us to do it?

Preppie fever ... it's everywhere

By CARLA WHEELER

In case anyone hasn't noticed, this campus has a severe case of the preppies. Specifically, a lot of closets have taken a turn for the Ivy League look.

"What is all this nonsense, anyway? I could be a cowboy and rednecks don't understand. Simply, it is fashion. My trusty fifth grade level World Book tells me that fashion is the manner in which a majority of people dress, wear their hair, or behave socially any given time. Permit me to examine this college phenomenon:

As far as style of dress goes, one notices a "retro" look. Clothes are unbelievable. By that I mean that practically any color is acceptable, as well as any style that resembles those worn in the early sixties. Let me state as an example a young couple I saw at a fraternity party (not here) a few weeks ago:

I'll start with the guy. The dominant color in his attire was pink. I'll start at the top—pink button-down shirt, complete with loop and pleat at the back, and an extra button to hold it in place. His belt, a pink one, was almost the same color. I almost forgot—monogrammed, with four initials, no less. His slacks were the real show-stoppers. Imagine, if you will, patchwork pants made out of assorted pastels and checks. The fit was not too bad, although the legs were baggy and the seat rode a little high around his ankles. On his feet he wore leather Fred Perry tennis shoes and no socks.

His date, a short, average-looking girl from a nearby private girls' college, drew almost as much attention as his clothes. She had on a sleeveless white blouse with pink trim and matching buttons, but let's not stop there. She had on a wrap skirt that showed approximately six inches of leg and could only be described as blinding. It looked like she had recently returned from a rummage sale in Hawaii. On her feet she wore pink golf booties, and a pair of aging Jordache.

I asked a pal of mine at U. Ga. what some other examples of preppie are. If you have ever been to Athens, you know that they have the market cornered on preppie there. At any rate, she gave me much more than can be listed here, but I'll attempt to condense for general interest.

PREPPIE PEOPLE WEAR: monogrammed sweaters in moon-glow colors; anything with an alligator on it; khaki pants; bright-colored pants; penny loafers; deck shoes; Noah's Ark rain shoes; loud sundresses; sea-shell earrings; gold-tone belt buckles in assorted forms worn with different colored belt strips; and monogrammed anything. I could go on all day.

Hair is simple. On males it is short and clean-cut. Think of Frankie Avalon without his pompadour. On females, it is one length, but is usually fairly straight so that it can be pulled back from the face by ribbons, Nancy Drew headbands, or cectera.

The "look" is all American. Start with a shining face that got that way from years of washing with Ivory. Add a mouthful of straight white teeth that look like a brand new box of Chiclets, courtesy of the local orthodontist. Finish with a sunburned face that is the result of summers full of swimming and tennis, and you have it.

Allow me to be daring, and delve into "Social Behavior." Those of you who have attended parties at large universities in the southeast can attest to my assumptions. Parties sometimes involve large amounts of "beverages." All this heavy beveraging leads to unrestrained partying. The band, if there is one, is black and loud. They play half disco favorites, and half what is sometimes called "beach music."

"Later on, in the wee hours of the morning, I settle down to enjoy the dull, but even roar of what is called quiet hours. I try to grab a few minutes of sleep around 5 in the afternoon. Then something like this always happens: I eventually give up on the dryer and dry my clothes in front of the fan."

By DELISA RUTLEDGE

Have you ever wondered about the being that exists behind the door marked "Matron?!" Friends, you don't have to wonder any more, because I got some of the highest points of view by just staring at dorm life."Well, it is always fun to be in the shower at 7:30 in the morning when the maintenance men come by. Actually, I take several showers a day just to keep me awake, because my job consists of 24 almost sleepless hours a day. Shortly after the maintenance men leave, I start my series of jogging up and down the stairs to unlock rooms for girls. Gee, whee, I leave this job I'll be in an excellent condition for track!"

"Thought that an interrupted shower was bad, but wait until you hear this! I thought I finally had the last two girls checked into the dorm. It had just been a matter of seconds since they had let my sight, and there they were. They had only one bed, no mattresses, no desk and no chairs in their room."

"After this much, I'm ready for some rest. Occasionally I try to grab a few minutes of sleep around 5 in the afternoon. Then something like this always happens: somebody yells an answer over the intercom that sounds like a volcanic explosion: next a counselor coming banging on the door and tells me the dorm is being turned down. I rush out bare feet, and those chairs feel like a bed of hot coals from all the cigarette butts carelessly thrown there.

When I finally find the source of the smoke, it is nothing but a smoke bomb that frequents the whole dorm with a lovely sulfur scent."

"I give up on the idea of sleep for the time being and enjoy the bull, but even more of what is called quiet hours. I might decide to wash some clothes. The wash goes quite smooth, but I never fail to get the bed, no mattresses, no desk and no chairs in their room."

"Meanwhile, I'm continuously getting reports that the sinks are full of spaghetti, or dead goldfish, or congealed grease, or dirty clothes. As if that is not enough, I schedule some room check and find half the rooms in utter chaos. I find beds unmade, trash unemptined, and worst of all I find food scattered everywhere and still get complaints about bugs as big as horses taking up residence in the rooms. Heck, if I were a cockroach, I'd live there forever with all that food scattered around!"

"Can a dorm director play the games of life?"

"All of this foolishness has no purpose, you may argue. Why would anyone dress or act like that? The only answer I can come up with is this—because it is fun. You'll have to excuse me now, I've got to put on my lime green dress and get ready to shag the night away."

Can a dorm director play the games of life?
By MARY ULRICH

As most students at JSU know, the most miserable way to spend a weekend is with a common cold. The common cold has plagued man for centuries, and the cure for it has eluded scientists for years.

There are more than a hundred different viruses that are causative agents of the cold. The primary ones suspected of causing most of the colds in adults are the rhinoviruses. With such a large number of viruses responsible for the cold, it makes developing an effective vaccine very difficult. Current flu vaccines contain one or more specific influenza viruses and helps the body fight those viruses. That leaves only another 100 or so viruses which can effectively infect a person who has taken the vaccine.

Exposure to a virus is usually through contact with an infectious person. By inhaling the virus from the environment, or picking it up on the hands, the virus has been introduced to the body. It only takes 18-48 hours for the virus to take up residence and produce the all-too-familiar watery eyes, low grade temperature, irritated throat, aching muscles and frequently dry hacking cough.

Antibiotics are not recommended for the mild since they have no effect on a virus. If the cold is uncomplicated the symptoms will disappear in 6 or 7 days. Self treatment of the virus consists of plenty of rest, fluids, aspirin and warm salt water gargles if the throat is irritated. Antihistamines are useful for the watery eyes, but caution should be taken. They cause drowsiness and should be avoided while driving a car or any other activity that requires concentration or alertness.

Complications of the original cold may occur. Severe sore throats, temperature over 101, ear aches, pains in the chest, or cold symptoms that persist and get worse after the first week all need the attention of a doctor.

Everyone seems to have his own remedy for the common cold, but the trio of rest, fluids, and aspirin remains the most reliable, for relief, or at least while the virus runs its inevitable course.
We are planning in the very near future an IFC sponsored party at Fort Forney to benefit WILS. There will be a two dollar over with music and all the free beverages you can drink. This will be open to all students and we hope to raise a lot of money for the radio station.

In football action this week it was Kappa Sigma over Alpha Tau Omega 22-6. Delta Chi leads in the Miller drive with 577 points, followed by KA with 322, ATO has 266 and Kappa Sigma has 199.

Due to complaints from IM officials the council voted to impose a 2$ fine on any fraternity who leaves trash on the IM field so please remember to clean up after your games.

ALPHA PHI ALPHAI
The Xi Xi Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, incorporated, is sponsoring a black and gold beauty pageant. The pageant will be held in Leone Cole Auditorium on Thursday, Oct. 25. All young ladies interested in being in the pageant, contact any brother of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA
We the brothers of Alpha Tau Omega would like to congratulate all fraternities on a successful fall rush with special congratulations going out to our new pledges. Jim Glenn, Alexandria; Jeff Hoggie, Hoover; Dale Holte, Birmingham; Gary Shamblin, Bessemer; Warren Caldwell, Birmingham; Brad Hibes, Birmingham; John Mitchell, Montgomery; John Jones, Mobile; Scott Cousins, Alabaster; Mark Frye, Anniston; Ralph Caten, Montgomery; Tom Carroll, Birmingham; Dewey Vickers, Talladega; George Peak, Tampa, Fla.; Jay Piskorski, Scottsboro; Bi Gill, Fairfield; Roger Weatherly, Birmingham; David Fiorello, Birmingham; Doug Suits, Troy, Ga.; Tom Loesch, Birmingham; Tom Thompson, Birmingham; Randy Ledford, Summerville, Ga.; Doug Suits, Tru, Ga.; Robert Duney, Doxton; Randy Fauldy, Section.

This past week all ATOs were treated to a free party at Crossroads Pkg. complements of a distinguished alumni, Bob Snead. In advi-

dation we had a closed party last Thursday serving as a get together for our new pledges.

Well, football season is here and we just finished a nice scrimmage with Kappa Sigs. We think we will field a respectable team although we are rebuilding through the draft.

This week’s activities involve football games and open party Thursday.

DELTA CHI
By BOB BURLER
This week Delta Chi has been an eventful one for us all. We were pleased to have Mr. Keith Shriver, a field security from our headquarters office, pay us a visit. Mr. Shriver gave us some helpful suggestions and left us with a new sense of optimism.

Last Thursday the brothers and sisters along with the sisters and pledges of Phi Mu Sorority held a pep rally mixer. We would like to thank Phi Mu for all their help and participation. Any sorority interested in having a mixer can come by or call the house. Our social chairman is John Ratliff.

Our Chi Delphina were also active this week. The girls held a car wash at Mr. Good’s last Friday and found it to be very successful. The brothers would like to congratulate them on their efforts.

In closing, Delta Chi would like to commend Coach Jim Fuller and the Gameroos for the fine job they have done this season. Delta Chi has a large following to the Alabama A&M game in Huntsville and believes everyone should come out and support the Gameroos.

KAPPA SIGMA
Kappa Sigma would like to congratulate its fall 1980 pledge class. Twenty-three were pledged in last Tuesday and the brothers really are expecting great things from these young men.

PI KAPPA PHI
The Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity would like to announce its fall pledge class of 1980. We are all proud of these fine, young men.

SIGMA NU
The Iota Lambda Chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity would like to formally announce our fall semester little sister-wildcats rush. The event will be held on Oct. 1 and 2 at the Sigma Nu house at 300 N. Pelham Road. We welcome all those interested in Sigma Nu.

Now that school is in full swing and many activities are planned, Sigma Nu would like to officially announce the introduction of the Sigma Nu Sweepskeps on our campus. The sweepskeps is a week competition among the sororities to determine such things as which sorority has the most spirit, which sorority can raise the most money for charity, who is the most talented sorority pledge on this campus and just how effective the sororities are in working together as Greeks. All indications show that each sorority is worthy of any of the awards to be presented.

We at Sigma Nu also would like to thank everyone who supported our first annual "Foxwood Beach Bash." The party was a huge success and we look forward to future endeavors. Also, we would like to invite everyone to our open parties as they occur.

DELTA ZETA
By DEBBIE HOLT
At the class meetings Wednesday, Sept. 17, several Delta Zetas were on the final nomination ballot for beauties and favorites. Representing DZ for the freshmen is Julie Rake, favorite; junior beauties, Vickie Page, Kim Sewell, Kelly Felker; junior favorites, Pam Chamberlin, Vickie Page; Karen Burns is up for Miss Friendly, and Lisa Williams was nominated for senior favorites.

Delta Zeta has other beauties as well. Patty Nelson was second alternate in the Miss Coosa Valley Pageant. Sharon Butler was in the Miss Calhoun County Pageant.

During a recent informal rush party, seven girls were issued bids and accepted them. The new pledges are Ann Holder, Piedmont; Cheryl Onley, Huntsville; JoAnn McDaniel, Beth Kraft, Weaver; Patty Nelson, Centre; Tina Grant, Carol Sone, Sylacauga; Terrie Matthew, Huntsville; Phyllis Lumpkin, Heflin. These girls were issued bids for a pledge formal to be held at the Officer's Club in November. A pledge retreat is also under discussion.

PHI MU
By DONNA MORRIS
Phi Mu sisters and big brothers enjoyed our recent party to welcome newly-pledged big brothers. The sisters look forward to working with them in the coming months, in social as well as service events.

Members have been involved in several mixers with fraternities. Last Thursday we had a mixer with Delta Chi. The following night we enjoyed a mixer with KA to the theme, "Pajama Party." Both events were fun and helped to form close ties between the organizations.

Phi Mu pledges held a car wash at Mr. Good's last Sunday and found it to be very successful. The brothers would like to invite the sisters to form closer and better relations with Phi Mu.

The new pledges are Ann Holder, Piedmont; Cheryl Onley, Huntsville; JoAnn McDaniel, Beth Kraft, Weaver; Patty Nelson, Centre; Tina Grant, Carol Sone, Sylacauga; Terrie Matthew, Huntsville; Phyllis Lumpkin, Heflin. These girls were issued bids for a pledge formal to be held at the Officer's Club in November. A pledge retreat is also under discussion.

PHI MU
By DONNA MORRIS
Phi Mu sisters and big brothers enjoyed our recent party to welcome newly-pledged big brothers. The sisters look forward to working with them in the coming months, in social as well as service events.

Members have been involved in several mixers with fraternities. Last Thursday we had a mixer with Delta Chi. The following night we enjoyed a mixer with KA to the theme, "Pajama Party." Both events were fun and helped to form close ties between the organizations.

Phi Mu pledges held a car wash at Mr. Good's last Sunday and found it to be very successful. The brothers would like to invite the sisters to form closer and better relations with Phi Mu.

Kappa Delta Epsilon to meet
Kappa Delta Epsilon, the professional education honor society, will hold its first meeting on Oct. 8 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in room 102 RWB. KDE recognizes through membership outstanding students preparing to enter the teaching profession and those actively engaged in the teaching profession. As a professional organization, it is an active group in which students of serious purpose undertake projects of service to the campus and community. Those eligible for membership will be receiving invitations directly. A candlelight initiation ceremony will be held at the first meeting for those joining the organization.

Circle K meets on Tuesdays
Interested in serving your community? Gaining experience in the real world? Making friends? Want to tutor? Circle K International, the Counterpart of Kiwanis International on campus, meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m., at the Wesley House. Circle K will present a program on volunteer service opportunities. See you there.

Want to tutor?
If you qualify for work-study and would like to try out for tutoring positions in the Writing Clinic, come to room 120 PAB and sign up for the qualifying test which will be given to you at a convenient time. The experience is good, and the Benefits are excellent.

Studying seminar scheduled
There will be a "How to Study Seminar" Oct. 8, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., in the Center for Individulized Instruction in Ramona Wood Building, Room 102. The seminar is free and open to all students. The Center's seminar program, as usual, will be under the direction of Phil Egan. This seminar will serve as advisors.

This seminar is being sponsored by the Center for Individulized Instruction, also known as The Learning Center. The center offers two types of courses. One type offers basic skills development, for example, LS 101-Academic Survival Skills and LS 110-Reinforcing Quantitative Skills. The second type uses a personalized system of instruction or computer-assisted instruction in teaching such content areas as statistics, biology, psychology and chemistry.

At their own pace with supervision and encouragement from professors and student advisors.

Class favorites to be chosen
Voting for class favorites, beauties, Mr. and Miss Jax State will be held Oct. 1, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. on fourth floor TMB (SCB). Each student may vote for three males and three females from their class. All class votes may vote on one male and one female from Jax State and Mr. and Miss Friendly. See you there.

Rod Morgan appointed director of Wesley Foundation and campus minister

By LEANNE DANIEL

Rod Morgan was appointed by the United Methodist Foundation as director of Wesley Foundation and campus minister. He has a two-fold ministry at Jacksonville which includes ministering to evangelism on campus and seeking young people to find out their ministry.

Morgan, a native of Cullman, earned a bachelor's degree from St. Bernard's College before entering seminary. He then received Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from Vanderbilt University.

Prior to coming to JSU, he served as pastor of "Fairvale Methodist Church in Tuscaloosa. Morgan and his wife, Andrea, have a 15-month-old son, Jason.
Col. Daugette named president pro tempore of Board of Trustees

Col. Clarence W. Daugette, Jr., of Gadsden, has been selected president pro tempore of Jacksonville State University's Board of Trustees.

Daugette was selected president by his fellow board members at a special meeting last week. He succeeds Hugh Merrill of Anniston.

He has served on the University's board since its creation in 1967, and is the son of Dr. Clarence W. Daugette who served as president of what is now Jacksonville State University for 43 years.

The president and founder of the Life Insurance Company of Alabama, he also is president of the First National Bank of Jacksonville.

A member of numerous civic, social, business and scholastic organizations, Daugette is a graduate of Jacksonville State and Auburn University.

Daugette holds the Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Jacksonville State and the University's famed International House is named in his honor.

Married to the former Florence Throckmorton of Birmingham, he is the father of three children.

Info center—a touch of the past

Visitors to Jacksonville State University for the first time this fall will have little difficulty finding their way around if they make their first stop at a 44-year-old tenant-farmer's cottage on the southwest corner of the campus.

The cottage, constructed when that portion of the campus was still used for row-crops, is now a modern Information Center.

A renovation job this summer restored the native-rock house to near-original condition and is now headquarters for the office of high school relations. Mrs. Jane Rice Holloway, a former Miss Alabama who is now JSU's full-time recruit, heads up the center.

According to Gus Edwards, JSU's dean of men, the house was part of an eight-acre farm which covered the portion of the campus where Glazner, Logan and Patterson dormitories are now located. Edwards, who helped construct the house when he was a teenager, said the rocks were taken from the adjacent farmland.

Because of its beauty and because it represents a bygone way of life in a historic section of Jacksonville, the center is an ideal way to welcome visitors to the University. A focal point for visitors has been needed for several years because of the increased enrollment figures and other growth experienced at the institution.

Anniston Architect David Boozer sketched the floor plan which made the building suitable for office space and at the same time preserved its natural atmosphere. The center is furnished with refinished wooden desks and other furniture.

Signs clearly point the way, whether motorists enter the city from Pelham Road or from Alabama Highway 204.

Jacksonville State University hit prime time TV in a big way Saturday, playing and exciting and action packed game on ABC TV.

Jacksonville Stae, trailing 7-0 at the half, used a tenacious defense and an onside kick recovery to start the second half to overcome a very physical Alabama State team 24-14 before 11,000 fans at Paul Snow Stadium and a regional television audience.

The fans and television viewers watched a game filled with hard hitting, fumbles, interceptions, penalties, and a blocked punt. For the game, Jacksonville fumbled away the ball once threw two interceptions, and had a punt blocked and recovered by ASU for a touchdown. ASU lost four fumbles and had three passes picked off by a tough and opportunistic Red Bandit defense.

Coach Fuller complimented his defense saying, "Our defense was absolutely great. If they hadn't played the way they did, we could have been down 20 or 30 points at half time. They held an explosive football team to two touchdowns."

Jacksonville State found itself on the short end of a 7-0 score midway through the first quarter after Alabama State drove from their 9 yard line to the JSU end zone in just seven plays. Quarterback John Caldwell hit Greg Anderson with a perfect 35 yard touchdown strike with 3:22 to go in the first quarter and ASU took its first lead with 5:22 to go in the first quarter.

Following an ASU punt, Jax State took over at their own 14. Three plays failed to gain yard and Greg Lowery came on to punt. Lowery's punt was blocked and recovered in the end zone by Earnest Carswell and ASU went on top 14-10 following the successful extra point try. Jax State stormed back to tie the lead on the next series of downs. Following a 36 yard kickoff return to the JSU 39 by Derrick Whitley, Lett hit Walker Broughton with a short pass in the flat. Broughton proceeded to fake off everybody but the water boy on his way to a 34 yard touchdown romp, aided by some excellent downfield blocking. Krohn's PAT was good and JSU led 17-10 following the successful extra point.

The Gamecock defense got the ball back when Frankie O'Dell forced Massingale to punt. Lowery's punt was blocked and recovered at the JSU 29 yard line. Following a 10 yard drive from their 32 yard line the second quarter ended. ASU went on to punt again, and the Gamecocks took over at their own 19 following the ASU punt.

Lett was intercepted again and ASU was back in business at JSU's 34. The Bulls drove to the 14 yard line, but JSU's Mark Moore intercepted a Caldwell pass at the 3 as the second quarter began.

The second quarter was a defensive struggle with neither team threatening to score. At half time the score stood at 7-0, Alabama State's way, and JSU, favored by 8 points, looked like they were in danger of a possible upset.

At halftime Coach Fuller changed his strategy at QB and quarterback Ed Lett would have time to throw Fuller

Volleyball team has potential

By LEANNE DANIEL

JSU's volleyball team has a record of 4-4 after defeating Huntingdon, UAB, Alabama A&M and Alabama State.

"We have a fairly young, but experienced team. We have a lot of potential," commented Coach Janice Pace.

The team consists of seniors Kim Hester and Ana Recurt, who was named All-State and All-Tournament at last year's state competition; juniors Nan Jones, Tammy Snider and Jan NiEsta, sophomore Debbie Seales, who was all tournament at Columbus College Invitational last season, Cassie O’Hearne, Carol Johnson, Michelle Richardson, Cori Velazquez and Cherylese Morris and freshman Gayle Sanders.

"Skill wise we're very solid. Our weakest area is working together as a team," Coach Pace continued.

Coach Pace, in her second year at JSU, directed her girls to a victory over UAB recently, which is a Division I team.

Friday the girls defeated A&M which brought them their first district win.

"We have a super talented team if we can get our kinks and problems worked out," Coach Pace stated.

The next home game is Oct. 8 when JSU takes on West Georgia College at 7 p.m.

Women's cross country team attends meet

The JSU women's cross country team competed in the Berry College invitational on Saturday, Sept. 20. The host school won the meet with Bryan College next. JSU and Emory University rounded out the field. Vickie Cluer, of Berry was the individual winner over the three mile course. Jacksonville's Janet Flood, freshman from Toms River, N. J., finished a strong second in 19:16. Other Jacksonville team members who ran well were: Sharon White, 8th place, 20:51; Michelle Heffcrly, 11th place, 21:19, and Denise Coholich, 14th place, 22:05.

In cross country teams can run up to seven members with five of those counting in Middle Tennessee State University invitational.

Kappa Sigma, Omega Psi Phi victorious

By TRACY PFANNKURCHE

Kappa Sigma and Omega Psi Phi both proved victorious in their season openers Monday. Kappa Sig defeated Alpha Tau Omega by a score of 22-0, while Omega defeated Pi Kappa Phi 15-13.

In the Kappa Sigma game, the Sigs led right from the start with a touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Kilgore. The Sigs then went for a field goal but ATO blocked it, unfortunately for them they were offsides so the Sigs got another chance. This time they went for two with another pass from Frasier to Kilgore.

The next score came when Kilgore ran back a punt to bounce the 24 yard line then running back John Cooper took it in. Jeff Taus as he and Ross Henry combined for several long yards. The defense was led by their quarterback Ken Kilgore with touchdowns from Mike Stevenson to David Grissby.

In what turned out to be one of the last plays of the game, pledge Tim Whitt intercepted an ATO pass, ending the game with the Sigs in possession.

Ted Densmore and Bob Newton led the Sigs defense while Frasier and Kilgore dominated play on the offensive side, both wide spectacular plays. Bobby Luttrell proved to be the main offense of the Tau as he and Ross Henry combined for several long gains. However, Ted Densmore got to Ross for a long loss and the Sigs had the ball again. Dennis Alvisson set up the next touchdown for the Sigs when Ken Frasier ran it in. The score stood at 14-0. ATO’s defense held the Sigs at the goal line only to end up giving up a safety, making the score 22-0. The Tau then punted and recovered their punt but had to give up the ball once again.

In the second half Omega had a chance to score but was held by Pi Kappa’s tough defense. Pi Kappa also had a chance to score but missed their field goal shot. They did however capitalize on a six yard touchdown pass from Mike Stevenson to David Grissby. The score was too late though to help much as they lost the game 15-13.

Leading Pi Kaps offense was Jerry Vermillion with four carries for thirty-four yards. The defense was led by Rick Foster, Bob Trent, and Craig Byrd who combined for 12 flag pulls. Omega’s offense was mainly led by their quarterback Ronald Battle.

Intramural tennis ends

By TRACY PFANNKURCHE

Paul Gore remained undefeated in tennis play Wednesday as he defeated David Pace (6-2) (6-1) in the singles competition. In the first set Paul led 3-1 and David captured a game only to lose the next two, finishing up with a 6-2 set for Paul.

In the second set Paul led all the way. His only trouble came in the fourth game as they battled from advantage-to-advantage and back to advantage again.

In the doubles competition Jeff Speegle and his sister, Angie Speegle, took on David Pace and Frank Hugg. Angie was the only girl in the competition and was there as a substitute for Jeff’s partner. Angie and Jeff put up a good fight but the competition was too tough. Pace and Hugg defeated the Speegles (6-4) (6-2) to advance to the doubles competition. Although the atmosphere was friendly it was still very competitive.

In independent play...

Solid Gold wins

By TRACY PFANNKURCHE

In independent play Solid Gold was the only winner with BCM and the Outlaws tying.

In the BCM game, BCM led 16-0 on touchdowns from Bill Welch and Darrel Kirk. Bill Welch ran it in for the first score and Greg Rosser made the two point conversion. Darrel Kirk then scored on a pass from Darrell Hill. Kirk and Hill then combined again for the two point conversion.

The Outlaws then went on the scoreboard on a touchdown from Mike Moanet. Their two point conversion came on a pass from Steve Willingham to Brian Carmack. That made the score 18-0. The Outlaws scored again after that on a pass to Chris Leek. The conversion was another pass from Steve, this time to Brian Carmack.

The last few minutes were thrillers with each team trading a set of downs the final score however remained a tie, 18-18.

Solid Gold totally dominated their game looking awful as they routed Campus Inn 28-6.

The first touchdown was on about 60 yard run by Steve Shefield, who had an excellent game. They went for two but didn’t make it. Then Paul Taylor intercepted to set up the next touchdown. Shefield once again scored, but Solid Gold failed to make the conversion. That left the score 12-0. Their next score came on a safety by Bob Schofield, making it 14-0.

Late in the first half they scored again on a halfback pass from Dennis Patton to Greg Davis. Their conversion was successful this time with Sammy Davis passing to Greg Davis. They then led 22-0 at the half.

The only action in the second half was a 25-yard touchdown pass from Dennis to Tony Taylor. Final score Solid Gold, 23, Campus Inn 0.
