JSU drama brings magic to the stage in “The Tempest”

By Katie Cline, Editor-in-Chief

Any Shakespearean play is a mass- ive undertaking, but “The Tempest” may be one of the most complicated shows to put on. That hasn’t deterred JSU’s drama department as it pre pares for opening night on February 16, though.

Every show is big; every show is important; every show requires an immense amount of work, especially from the director,” said Mike Boynton, the show’s director and an associate pro fessor of drama.

“There’s a million ways you can do any Shakespeare play,” said Boynton, “but ‘The Tempest,’ especially, is so mal leable to directorial interpretation. The hardest and most ex hilarating part has been trying to make it as big and grandios e as possible and bringing in the com munity.”

Boynton has in volved faculty from across campus in the production. Dr. Pitt Harding, a JSU Eng lish professor, plays Prospero, the play’s protagonist. Dr. Car mine DiBiase, anoth er English professor and the head drama prof essor, designing Prospero’s magic runes. “It’s exciting,” Harding said. “I can’t imagine anything I’d rather be doing. Mike Boynton is always a pleasure to work with. He’s so well-trained and knowl edgeable. I would act in anything Mike was directing.”

“The Tempest” isn’t Harding’s first experience with Shakespeare. Be sides teaching it, he’s acted in several other Shakespeare pro ductions in college including “The Tam ing of the Shrew,” “The Winter’s Tale,” “As You Like It” (Or lauredo) and “Much Ado About Nothing” (Benedick). Harding has even performed in “The Tempest” once before.

“I played Prospero when I was young,” Harding chuckled. “So it’s a great op portunity to be able to do it again when I’m closer to the right age.”

To incorporate the community fur ther, there will be a special performance for high school stu dents on the morning of February 16.

JSU speaks for the trees

By Eric Taunton, Staff Writer

Jacksonville State University will be hosting its annual Arbor Day event, which celebrates the role of trees in daily life as well as promotes tree planting and care to residents of Jacksonville.

“The annual event is a collaborative ef fort between JSU and City of Jacksonville Tree Committees,” said Tyler Law, Ath letics and Grounds Superintendent at JSU. JSU was named a Tree City USA campus in 2012.

Arbor Day in the United States origi nated in Nebraska City, Neb. By Julius Mor ton, a New York native, Morton moved to

JSU club has ‘gotta’ collect ‘em all’

By Dustin Fox, Staff Writer

Jacksonville State University students interested in collect able items are invited to attend meetings of the student-run JSU-Calhoun County Stamp, Coin and Col lectibles Club.

The club provides a space for the collectors to share with one another and get new information on many aspects of collecting.

The club was originally founded by a JSU student in the 1970s as the Stamp Club, but more people inter ested in the collecting hobby began to expand to include a wide range of small items like coins, toy trains, military patches, soda bottles, post cards, arrow heads and more.

Dr. George Laud erbaugh of the JSU History Department has been involved with the club since his arrival at JSU in 2000. Currently, he serves as the club’s president, and he says that he enjoys the variety of interesting collectibles at club meetings.

In the past we have had some rare stamps exhibited, in cluding Confederate stamps, said Laud erbaugh. “I present ed stamps and coins of the 1972 Munich Olympic Games at the last meeting.”

Lauderbaugh says a member of the club who avidly collects postcards has shown off a wide variety of unusual topics at club meetings.

The JSU-Cal houn County Stamp, Coin and Collectibles Club has a number of alumni and professors who are interested in JSU students and is welcoming to current JSU students. Lauderbaugh says they are interested to create CCSCC page 2

Second Saturday Space Safari

The JSU planetarium is hosting a Second Saturday Space Safari event on Saturday, Feb. 11 from 4-5 p.m. in Marlin Hall room 256. This month’s theme is “Larry Cable in Space.” Admission is $5 for the public and $2 for JSU students and personnel.

ECE Workshops

Workshops for the Spring 2017 ECE will be Monday, Feb 13 from 6-7 p.m. and Tuesday, Feb 14 from 3-4 p.m. in Stone Center room 152. Workshops are free.

Lady Gaga stuns during Super Bowl halftime show, page 4

ождененный фестиваль "The Tempest". Драма преподает университет JSU, и его академические сотрудники часто участвуют в различных мероприятий, чтобы привлечь внимание к важности деревьев. Уже известно, что деревья играют важную роль в ежедневной жизни, помогая в создании и уходе за деревьями в сообществе.

JSU club has ‘gotta’ collect ‘em all’

США. JSU стала первой университетшей, которая была признана “Tree City USA” в 2012 году.

День арборы в США был впервые в 1872 году в Небраска Сити, Nebraska, и был назван в честь Julius Morton, новозеландского гражданина.

JSU drama brings magic to the stage in “The Tempest”

Комментарий от профессора Питта Хардинга: “Мне нравилось работать с Майком Бойнтоном. Его дружелюбие и профессиональные качества делают его отличным партнером. Я всегда с радостью работаю над шекспировскими произведениями. Кроме преподавания, я также играю в нескольких других шекспировских спектаклях в колледже, включая "The TAMING of the Shrew," "The Winter's Tale," "As You Like It" (Orlando) и "Much Ado About Nothing" (Benedick). Я даже играл в "The Tempest" один раз до этого мероприятия. "Я играл Просперо, когда я был молодым, - сказал Хардинг. - Поэтому это возможность для меня, чтобы снова выступать в этой роли." Для интеграции с сообществом, будет проведен дополнительный спектакль для студентов средней школы утром 16 февраля.

JSU speaks for the trees

Комментарий от Эрика Таунтона, студента журналистики: "Jacksonville State University приглашает на ежегодное мероприятие Arbor Day, которое посвящено роли деревьев в ежедневной жизни и пропаганде посадки и ухода за деревьями у жителей Джексонвилла. "Мы приглашаем студентов университета, чтобы они привлекли внимание к важности деревьев. Арбор Дэй начался в 1872 году в Небраска Сити, Nebraska, и является важным мероприятием в области спорта."

JSU club has ‘gotta’ collect ‘em all’

Комментарий от Дастина Фокса, студента журналистики: "Jacksonville State University приглашает студентов к участию в мероприятиях клуба коллекционеров, которые предлагают возможности для обмена коллекциями и ведения диалога с другими коллекционерами. Клуб был создан в 1970-х годах как коллекционерский клуб, но с течением времени количество участников увеличивается и расширяется."
of Friday, February 17. The show, according to Boynton and drama department head Randy Blades, is nearly sold out. The dramatical team also prepared a study guide for students containing short articles on the play's themes and what students can expect from JSU's production.

"We're trying to give them a good introduction," Blades said. "For most of them, they'll read Shakespeare in lit class, but they haven't yet had the chance to see it live. So it's part of our mission in reaching out to the community to do this show for them."

But turning Blades' and Boyton's dreams for the show into reality hasn't been simple. "Time has been the biggest challenge," said Blades, who is also the producer and sound designer for the show. "The rehearsal period is short, and the time we have to actually build it is short."

Some actors, though, disagree.

"The hardest part for me has been the language and trying not to think in English," said Arian Williams, a junior performance major who used to be an English teacher. "It's just unnatural. But I think the way the actors have been able to convey it is just beautiful."

"The pace is hard to get used to," said Brooke Elam, a sophomore who plays Miranda. "It's hard for me to teach myself something and not have time to sit down and figure it out or not. For this show, he taught me to trust my instincts a little more, and that was really hard for me to have to do, since some of them carry me at one point!"

"The pace is hard to get used to," said Arian Williams, a junior performance major who plays Miranda's love interest, Prince Ferdinand. "And figuring out who you're speaking to and the blocking. So keeping it all together has been the biggest challenge."

Williams' favorite part of the show, though, is the comedy. "There are three different styles of comedy," Williams said. "There's slapstick comedy; there are a few other characters with the witty, intellectual banter, and then you have my group with Miranda and Prospero that's basically a romantic comedy."

And since most of the play revolves around Ferdinand and Miranda falling in love, the two actors—and friends—have had to adjust to their new roles as on-stage lovers. "It is and isn't hard to pretend to be in love," Williams said. "The hard part is that, before the play, Brooke and I never had spoken, and she's obviously not my girlfriend. So, I have to take the love I feel and translate it to Ferdinand."

Elam agrees. "It's been a fun experience," she said. "It's been a little awkward at times, but I wouldn't say it's hard. I've just thought about my boyfriend a lot and how I would react if he were saying some of the things that Ferdinand says. But it's also helped that Aaron and I are both easy going and that we're fast friends."

"I am in love with the extraneous stress, Boynton is for audiences to see it live. "I hope this becomes a big, exciting campus event," Boynton said. "I hope that the administration and the students and the faculty and staff all turn out because it's for them. Shakespeare's so good at capturing the human experience that reading Shakespeare and seeing Shakespeare makes you a better person," Boynton said. "It makes you have a deeper understanding of human behavior and a deeper appreciation and compassion for humanity. Good plays do that, and that's why humanity always needs, especially today."

"The Tempest" also stars Brianna Garrett as Ariel, Ebony An- toine as Queen Alona, Savannah Jones as Caliban, Dakota Yar- rugh as Trinculo and Kevins, it is not as Stephaniean and features JSU students and alumni as well as lo- cal high school students.

"The Tempest" runs February 16-18 at 7:00 p.m. and February 19 at 2:00 p.m. in Carlton Ward Theater. Tickets are $10.

Tickets are purchased online at www.jsu.edu/drama/boxesales.php. For the full story with extended interviews, go to www.jsu.edu/chanticleer/
The literary magazine, Something Else, is looking for art, music and writing submissions! Submit yours today through March 15!

For more information on the Writer’s Club or Something Else, contact Mrs. Moersch at smoersch@jsu.edu or Brittany Robertson at brobertson1@stu.jsu.edu

Campus crime report: 2/2 to 2/8

02/02/2017
Information report
Bibb Graves
02/03/2017
Duty upon striking an unattended vehicle
Martin Hall parking lot
Harassing Communications
Logan Hall
Information Report-suspicious person
Fitzpatrick Hall
Duty upon striking an unattended vehicle
Crow Hall parking lot
02/04/2017
Medical emergency
Meehan Hall
Information report
Ramona Wood
Information Report-suspicious person
JSU Stadium
Violations of the student code of conduct
Campus Inn apartments
02/06/2017
Violations of the student code of conduct
Jax Apartments
02/08/2017
Criminal mischief
Crow Hall parking lot

Witness a crime?
For emergencies, dial 6000 from any campus phone.

I know I have said this before, but Jacksonville needs a bagel shop. #justsaying Shoutout to the person that left a fetal pig on my porch. I hope you fail your lab.
I've calculated it, and I have exactly $2.50/day to spend on food while I'm at school. That's the equivalent of two apples, a small fry, or half a container of sushi. I'm involuntarily going on a diet. #thisiscollege
I'm writing an autobiography. If you're in it, the chapter's already named. Better timing next time.
Jeff Sessions and Richard Shelby put their blind party loyalty above their constituents. I don't know of a single person who supported DeVos, even among loyal Republicans. Democracy is dead.
cases of chlamydia, the top 10.
Alabama closing out most sexually diseased down and reports the a new report that breaks Prevention has released Disease Control and is in the air.
soon approaching, love
Editor
Arts & Entertainment
Alissa Camplin
padding and silver hot pants.
She even managed to squeeze in a slight costume glitter and sporting spiky oversized shoulders.
held true to form with a silver leotard covered in nued the artist just before her now historic leap.
Pledge of Allegiance. sang a mix of "God Bless America" and "This the NRG Stadium's retractable roof, where she performance. 51, and descend over the field to continue her Bowl halftime performance by Lady Gaga. The ingredients necessary for a one-of-a-kind Super Dagons, cables, fire, and lots of glitter; all the ingredients for a one-of-a-kind Super
Staff Writer
Joanna Mitchell
Things are not always as they seem however, as "Given today's explosive political climate, it’s not a matter of ‘if’ Lady Gaga will incorporate political opinions.
many assumed Gaga would use her time in the spotlight to make a political statement against President Donald Trump, however nothing but a message of patriotic unity appeared from the singer who is known to be outspoken about her political opinions.
Given today’s explosive political climate, it’s not a matter of ‘if’ Lady Gaga will incorporate politics in her halftime show, but rather, how far she will go.” Said Meave Mcdermott of USATo
A light show made up of 300 drones accompa
Lady Gaga also performed "Born This Way". Lady Gaga also performed "Born This Way".
Becoming a brother: the final steps
Alissa Camplin
Arts & Entertainment Editor

The David L. Walters Department of Music of Jacksonville State University presented the Kappa Kappa Psi Membership Candidates (MCs) in recital on Sunday, Feb. 5, 2017.

The lights of the Performance Center of Mason Hall dimmed at 5 p.m. as Nick Doyle, KKPsi’s Music Chair, welcomed the guests warmly and wished the audience an enjoyable night.

The first MC to perform was Koree “Simba” Martin, a former 20J and upcoming head drum major for the Marching Southerners. He played Vladislav Blazhevich’s “Blazhevich No. 9,” on tuba.

Kayla Cooper was the next to grace the stage. She, accompanied by pianist Preston Winkles, played “Aria” by Eugene Bozza on alto saxophone with impeccable precision. A bassoon rendition of Joannes Rochet’s “Melodious Etude No. 4” followed, and was performed by Michael Johnson.

“Trumpet Concerto in Eb II. Andante” by Joseph Haydn was then presented by trumpeter Andrew Epperson and was accompanied by pianist Kasey Robinson.

Trombonist Jessica Cagle was next. She performed “Melodious Etude No. 12” by Joannes Blazhevich.

Melissa Arias, alongside accompanist Preston Winkles, presented a light rendition “The Swan” by Camille Saint-Saëns on baritone, which is not her primary instrument.

The night continued with “Nocturne No. 2” by Frédéric Chopin being played by clarinetist Kristen Page.

The evening was concluded by Christian Tenorio and his small army of accompanists playing Sonny Rollins’s “Sonnymoon for Two.” Tenorio played tenor sax, and was joined by Ian Williams on bass, Jared Shiver on trumpet, JJ Williams on trombone, and Connor Jannot on alto saxophone.

KKPsi has had the Mu Iota chapter at Jacksonville State University since 2009, but was originally and nationally founded on the campus of Oklahoma State University in 1919.

The eight new MCs have been practicing and preparing for months. MCs were asked to pick their recital piece before Thanksgiving break and were required to rehearse on their own until the big day.

The MC recital is one of the latter steps to becoming a brother, says Melissa Arias, a senior Spanish major.

“The hardest part was preparing for the big day. It’s been six years since I’ve played baritone, but my favorite part was knowing I accomplished something I never expected to. I can’t even read music,” she laughed.

“But the long hours and late nights in Mason Hall made it worth it to have a great performance to show the brothers, my family, and my friends that even though I have been out of touch for so long, it’s still possible.”

The magical night ended as the current brothers of Kappa Kappa Psi surrounded the member candidates to sing their traditional “Fraternity Hymn.”
Reflections of a soon-to-be graduate
by Kristin Roberts

As you grow, you become accustomed to every homelike smell from your mom makes and you crave eating out. Eating out becomes a prize in and of itself, a thing to look forward to. What many people (I’m not one ever tells you is that once you get to college and start living in a dorm or in an apartment by yourself or with a roommate, that those home cooked meals have now become a rarity.

In my five years at JSU, I never once lived on campus, so I’ve never had a meal plan. But I have eaten at every single dining option that the university offers, and let me tell you, after weeks of those being your sole food options, you’ll know how to simply heat leftovers back that could make any of those nice home cooked meals. Even with living in an apartment for five years, I rarely had time to simply eat out. I loved it for a long time because I could have whatever I wanted, but now I’m in my last semester at JSU and simply don’t have time to work to make money to eat out constantly.

I live off of planned grocery shopping trips to get exactly what I need to cook for myself almost every night. With that being said, let me tell you how much my boyfriend lives off of cooking. “Harry Potter”’s recipe book is “Harry Potter”’s magical elixir. I place a thick slice of cheese into this territory, because I love to cook. I’m in my last semester at JSU and simply don’t have time to work to make money to eat out constantly. I live off of planned grocery shopping trips to get exactly what I need to cook for myself almost every night. With that being said, let me tell you how much my boyfriend lives off of cooking.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.

Agape is platonic love. It’s friendship. It’s brotherly. It’s Neville and Hannah have. But eros is just one part of love. It’s never enough. No relationship can survive for long on eros (see Harry and Cho). There is so much more love to celebrate.
Late run lifts SIUE over Gamecocks

Daniel receives preseason All-America honor

DALLAS, Texas – Jacksonville State junior Clayton Daniel collected his second preseason selection from the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, as he was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association’s All-South Region squad to be announced on Tuesday at the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship.

“I am very excited,” Daniel said. “I’ve worked hard for the last two years to get to this point and it is quite humbling. I am very thankful for everyone who has believed in me that has helped me get here.”

Coach John Rittiman said he was proud of his junior for his efforts.

“Daniel was statistically the toughest pitcher in our region to hit,” Rittiman said. “It’s a great honor for him. It’s great for the program.”

Daniel received his first selection last season for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association’s All-South Region squad.

The three All-America squads are filled from the top 100 vote-getters in the nation. The first team was selected by the publication as a Louisville Slugger first team honor, the second team was selected by the American Legion Baseball Writers Association’s 2017 NCAA Division I Baseball Preseason All-America Teams and the third team was selected by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association’s 2017 NCAA Division I Baseball All-America honor.

Despite overachieving a double-digit second half, the deficit, the Jackson State women’s basketball team witnessed a comeback victory Contest against Southern Illinois University Edwardsville on Saturday afternoon.

The Gamecocks fought back from a 10-point SIUE lead in the third quarter to take the lead, but theCougar seized victory with a strong finish in the final minutes.

The old saying “basketball is a game of runs” certainly was a valid statement for the first quarter of Saturday’s contest.

SIUE opened the game on a 6-0 run, but Jackson State quickly responded with a 10-point spurt of their own to own the lead. The Gamecocks scored eight straight before a Lacee Buchanon bucket made the tally 14-2 in favor of JSU.

Buchanon, normally a double-digit scorer for the Gamecocks, struggled to put the ball in the basket, but one big play from the Couples on Saturday, shotting with a career-high 13 of 21 points, that included a 5-of-5 effort on the arc.

The Gamecocks scored seven straight to grab the lead back in the second quarter thanks to an unexpected score of off the bench.

Cougars guard a redshirt freshman playing in just his second game for the first time in the season.

The Gamecocks turned a 3-pointer into the Cobra lead to just one with 6:14 remaining.

Coach Galligan drew his sixth attempt 3-pointer of the second half, finishing with 12 points out of all the games.

After a Tasha Magulad basket completed the comeback and gave the Gamecocks a one-point advantage, the two teams traded leads down the stretch. SIUE posted a 62-60 lead with 4:18 remaining in the fourth, but the Cougars quickly tied it up with two quick points.

On the Gamecocks’ next possession, Donnel Beale stole the ball and raced to the other end of the floor for a layup that put the Cougars ahead 64-62. Beale then pulled down another offensive board and raced to the other end of the floor to put the Cougars ahead 64-62.

The Gamecocks would come back to close the gap, but the Gamecocks’ one-point advantage, the two teams traded leads down the stretch. SIUE posted a 62-60 lead with 4:18 remaining in the fourth, but the Cougars quickly tied it up with two quick points.

Coach Galligan drew his sixth attempt 3-pointer of the second half, finishing with 12 points out of all the games.

After a Tasha Magulad basket completed the comeback and gave the Gamecocks a one-point advantage, the two teams traded leads down the stretch. SIUE posted a 62-60 lead with 4:18 remaining in the fourth, but the Cougars quickly tied it up with two quick points.

On the Gamecocks’ next possession, Donnel Beale stole the ball and raced to the other end of the floor for a layup that put the Cougars ahead 64-62. Beale then pulled down another offensive board and raced to the other end of the floor to put the Cougars ahead 64-62.

The Gamecocks would come back to close the gap, but the Gamecocks’ one-point advantage, the two teams traded leads down the stretch. SIUE posted a 62-60 lead with 4:18 remaining in the fourth, but the Cougars quickly tied it up with two quick points.

On the Gamecocks’ next possession, Donnel Beale stole the ball and raced to the other end of the floor for a layup that put the Cougars ahead 64-62. Beale then pulled down another offensive board and raced to the other end of the floor to put the Cougars ahead 64-62.
Gamecocks overcome first half deficit to defeat SUE

Rebekah Hawkins  Staff Reporter

After falling behind in the first half against Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, the Gamecocks rallied in the second to win 72-61.

Tyrik Edwards had a record night with 19 points against the Cougars. Norbertas Giga also had ten points on the night and Greg Tucker was a perfect 6-for-6 on free throws for the night.

The Gamecocks struggled to find their footing early in the game. SUE started off with a three-pointer from Josh White that set the tone for the beginning of the half.

The Gamecocks fell behind steadily as the Cougars Jumped out to a six point lead 12-6. With the help of Ashton Spears in the second half.

At the opening of the second half Giga moved ahead by 11 with a layup by Christian Cunningham to bring the score to 63-52. Free throws from Erik Durham finally pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five. The score was set up by a forced fumble by Falcon line-backer Drevon Jones.

The Falcons would score again, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to wide receiver Tevin Coleman. He would finish the game with 21 carries, 81 yards rushing and 110 receiving yards on 14 receptions.

With the victory, Brady would carry it in for Super Bowl title. He was able to come within four points from White.

The score was tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation. The Patriots in Super Bowl LI.

The previous record was 446 yards on 45-for-62 passing. With the comeback nearly complete and the victory within reach, Brady led the Patriots down the field to the Falcon goal line, where White would take the ball in from two yards out to give the Patriots the 34-28 win.

With the victory, Brady would also break the record for most Super Bowl titles by a quarterback, now at three. The previous record was held by Drew Brees and Tom Brady.

The Gamecocks would hold on to lead the game to 28-3. Then, the New England Patriots' victory also came in the first overtime in Super Bowl history, with both teams tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9.

The Falcons would score another 2-point conversion, the Patriots in Super Bowl XXII, the Saints in Super Bowl XXXIV, and most recent, the Patriots in Super Bowl XXXLIX.

The Patriots' victory also came in the first overtime in Super Bowl history, with both teams tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman.

Kicker Matt Bryant converted four of four PAT attempts during the game.

Freeman would go on to finish the game with 75 yards on 11 carries.

The score was set up by a forced fumble by Falcon line-backer Drevon Jones.

The Gamecocks would score again, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper. The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper.

On Saturday, Ryan was named 2016 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year.

He would finish the game with 284 yards on 17-for-23 passing.

After another defensive stop, Corner Robert Alford intercepted a Tom Brady pass and returned it for the score.

The score was tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation. The Patriots in Super Bowl LI.

The previous record was 446 yards on 45-for-62 passing. With the comeback nearly complete and the victory within reach, Brady led the Patriots down the field to the Falcon goal line, where White would take the ball in from two yards out to give the Patriots the 34-28 win.

With the victory, Brady would also break the record for most Super Bowl titles by a quarterback, now at three. The previous record was held by Drew Brees and Tom Brady.

The Gamecocks would hold on to lead the game to 28-3. Then, the New England Patriots' victory also came in the first overtime in Super Bowl history, with both teams tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9.

The Falcons would score another 2-point conversion, the Patriots in Super Bowl XXII, the Saints in Super Bowl XXXIV, and most recent, the Patriots in Super Bowl XLIX.

The Patriots' victory also came in the first overtime in Super Bowl history, with both teams tied at 28-28 at the end of regulation.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9. The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper.

On Saturday, Ryan was named 2016 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year.

He would finish the game with 284 yards on 17-for-23 passing.

After another defensive stop, Corner Robert Alford intercepted a Tom Brady pass and returned it for the score.

The score was set up by a forced fumble by Falcon line-backer Drevon Jones.

The Gamecocks would score again, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper. The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper.

On Saturday, Ryan was named 2016 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year.

He would finish the game with 284 yards on 17-for-23 passing.

Another Brady touchdown pass, this time to receiver Dan Thomas, brought the score 28-3.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9.

The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper. The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper.

On Saturday, Ryan was named 2016 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year.

He would finish the game with 284 yards on 17-for-23 passing.

Another Brady touchdown pass, this time to receiver Dan Thomas, brought the score 28-3.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9.

The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper. The Falcons would score once more, this time on a 19-yard pass from QB Matt Ryan to tight end Austin Hooper.

On Saturday, Ryan was named 2016 NFL MVP and Offensive Player of the Year.

He would finish the game with 284 yards on 17-for-23 passing.

Another Brady touchdown pass, this time to receiver Dan Thomas, brought the score 28-3.

The first half of play was completely one-sided, with SUE going into halftime up 21-3.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Falcons struck first on a 5-yard rush by running back Devonta Freeman. It was the closest that SUE would be to a comeback.

Back out to ten and stayed ahead by at least seven for the remaining minutes of the game.

The Gamecocks' lead to just three at 32-29. JSU's Malcolm Drumwright hit a jumper that pushed the Gamecocks out ahead by five.

The Gamecocks would get on the board as time expired in the first quarter with a 28-yard FG at connecting the score 28-9.