JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN
JACKSONVILLE, ON THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1877.

AN EVIL OF THE TIMES.

It is peculiarly hard to see two such prominent and important citizens as Mr. E. H. Potter and Mr. J. P. Haines, standing here at the head of the Jacksonville Republican, as being the authors of this article. They have always been strong advocates of the interests of the people, and it is a source of satisfaction to see them active in the promotion of the best interests of the country.

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1877.

STATE OF ALABAMA.

Mississippi.

To the Editor of the Jacksonville Republican:

I am a citizen of the State of Mississippi, and have lived here all my life. I am a supporter of the Democratic party, and have been active in politics all my life. I am a strong advocate of the Union, and have always been opposed to secession.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

A Proclamation by General Scott.

WELLINGTON, June 8th, 1863.

Gentlemen of the Civil and Military Authority.

The city of New Orleans is the most important military post on the Mississippi River, and is the most fertile of all the territories of the United States. The inhabitants of the city, however, are all engaged in advancing the interests of the United States, and it is a duty which it is my own duty to perform.

SIR,—In order to facilitate the operations of our troops, I hereby proclaim the city of New Orleans an independent State, with a government of its own.

G. B. C.

GREAT BRITAIN AND RUSSIA.

By the Peace of the Times.

The Mexican War, which has been carried on by the British and Russian Governments, has been terminated by the peace of 1848. The treaty was signed at Washington, on the 20th of May, in the year of our Lord 1814. The British Government has been represented in the treaty by Lord Palmerston, and the Russian Government by Count Orlov.

The treaty provides for the cession of the territory of Texas to the United States, and for the payment of $10,000,000 to the Mexican Government in satisfaction of the claims of the British and Russian Governments in the dispute of 1816.

The treaty was ratified by the Senate of the United States on the 20th of May, 1814, and by the Senate of the Russian Government on the 20th of June, 1814.

SIR,—I hereby declare the peace of the times to be concluded, and to be in full force and effect, from and after the date of the treaty.

ILLUSTRIOUS THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1857.

NO. 24.

To Cotton Growers.

OUR READERS—The cotton crop of this season is the most important that has ever been grown in the United States, and it is to be hoped that the crop will be saved. The prices are high, and the demand is great. The cotton grower should be careful to see that his crop is properly cared for, and that it is not injured by any means.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, TUESDAY, NOV. 25, 1861.

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE.
NATIONAL CONCERN—Last week we were shown an animal, the like of which we had never seen, before, a large, coarse, unmanageable bovine, with dark and permanent hair. It was said that the demand for a large quantity of this animal was extraordinary, and that the price was exceedingly high. An unfortunate accident has intervened to postpone the arrival of this animal for some days, but it is expected to arrive shortly. It is believed that the demand for this animal will continue, and that the price will remain high.

BREEZIE—The morning breeze is coming in, and the day is looking sunny. The temperature is pleasant, and the air is invigorating. It is a good day for a walk in the park. The flowers are in bloom, and the birds are singing. It is a perfect day for enjoying the outdoors.

BAMFORD'S—Bamford's bank is open for business today. The doors are open, and the tellers are ready to assist customers. The bank is well-stocked with cash, and there is a variety of services available. It is a good day to visit Bamford's bank.

CHOLAS RIDDLES—Cholas Riddles is due to arrive in New Orleans today. He is expected to be greeted with enthusiasm, and his arrival will be celebrated with a grand reception. It is a historic occasion, and the city is looking forward to welcoming him.

WILLIGERS—Willigers is a new business in town. The doors are open, and the staff is ready to assist customers. The products are of high quality, and the prices are reasonable. It is a good day to visit Willigers.

TEXAN AGGRESSION—The Texans are becoming more aggressive. They are demanding more land, and they are threatening violence if their demands are not met. It is a tense situation, and the government is taking steps to appease them.

PLAINS AND RESOLUTIONS—The Plains and Resolutions have been passed by Congress. They are designed to address the concerns of the Plains tribes, and to ensure their safety and well-being. It is a significant step forward, and it is hoped that it will bring peace to the region.

PAPERS AND RESOLUTIONS—Papers and Resolutions have been passed by the House and Senate. They are designed to address the concerns of the people, and to ensure their safety and well-being. It is a significant step forward, and it is hoped that it will bring peace to the region.

MEXICAN AMBASSADOR—The Mexican ambassador is in town, and he is scheduled to meet with President Lincoln today. It is a historic meeting, and it is expected to bring about a new era of cooperation between the two countries.

LITERARY CIRCUS—The Literary Circus is coming to town. The tickets are sold out, and the event is expected to be packed. It is a good day to visit the circus, and to enjoy the performances.
