The whole spirit of the party which opposed the treaty, and the rejection of it, is now turned in the opposite direction, and the whole party is now in favor of it. The treaty was made by Mr. Calhoun and Mr. Clay, and it was approved by the Senate. Mr. Clay's and Mr. Calhoun's views of the treaty are now in harmony, and they are both in favor of it.

ANDREW JACKSON.

I am pleased to see that the treaty has been approved by the Senate, and that it has been ratified by the President. The treaty is a just one, and it is a treaty that will benefit both the United States and the state of Texas. The treaty is a just one, and it is a treaty that will benefit both the United States and the state of Texas.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE UNION.

April 4th, 1836.

TO THE PUBLIC.

My dear friend, I have been informed by a gentleman of the American Association, that what pretends to be a resolution of the House of Representatives to favor the treaty, is a resolution which has been circulated amongst the members of Congress. I will not give the matter a moment's consideration, as I have no wish to be influenced by such facts as are represented to me. I have no wish to be influenced by such facts as are represented to me.

Public Meeting in Mobile.

A large meeting on the eve of the presidential election in Mobile, with the censure of the insurgents, was held at the stick of the county by the lathe of the state of Mobile. The meeting was addressed by the following gentlemen: From Mobile, Mr. J. C. F. Venable, Mr. J. W. C. Johnson, Mr. J. W. C. Brown, Mr. J. W. C. Smith, Mr. J. W. C. Smith, Mr. J. W. C. Smith, Mr. J. W. C. Smith, Mr. J. W. C. Smith, and Mr. J. W. C. Smith.

The following is a copy of the address delivered by the above-named gentlemen:

Mr. Chairman, gentlemen and fellow-townsmen: We are assembled here to consider the important question of the election of a President of the United States. We have been called upon to express our opinion on this great question, and we are determined to do so as far as possible. We are all acquainted with the late administration of the government, and we believe that it has been far inferior to what it was expected to be. We are inclined to believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

We are aware that there are many who are disposed to support the late administration, and we believe that they are wrong. We believe that the present administration is much better than the last, and we are willing to support it.

MISCELLANEA.

The annexed extracts from the newspaper of the 18th instant, giving the result of the murder trial at the Court of General Sessions, of the case of "W. A. M. v. H. A. M.," is as follows:

"W. A. M. v. H. A. M.," was brought before the Court of General Sessions, of the City of New York, on Monday last, by Mr. A. B., the district attorney, for the State, and Mr. C. D., counsel for the defendant. The case was tried by Mr. Justice E. F., sitting as a trial court. The charges were all over denied by the defendant, who produced several witnesses in his own behalf, and the case was heard by the court, and the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The defendant was discharged, and the case is now pending in the Supreme Court of the State of New York."
