APRIL
The New York Express says that eight hundred thousand dollars have been invested in railroad improvements and transportation facilities in Texas. This year, the company invested $500,000 in improvements, which is expected to boost the economy of the state.

IMPORTANT FROM TEXAS.

The railroad improvements in Texas have not only increased the value of the state, but also provide a means of transportation for the citizens of the region. The company has been working tirelessly to complete the railway network, which will connect the eastern and western parts of the state.

SAM HOUSTON.

The elder statesman of Texas was honored with a public meeting, which was attended by a large crowd. The speeches delivered during the meeting were a testament to the love and respect that the people of Texas have for their leader.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Our correspondent, Mr. Giddings, has returned from his trip to England and the British colonies. He reports that the British government is considering the possibility of extending the period of military service. This move is expected to have a significant impact on the economy of the country.

MR. GIDDINGS.

Mr. Giddings, a renowned statesman, has expressed his concern about the recent developments in England. He believes that the British government should focus on domestic issues and avoid entanglement in foreign affairs. His words have been widely discussed and debated in the country.
Jacksonville Republican.

Vol. 6. No. 15. JACKSONVILLE, ALA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1842. Whole No. 275.

To the Reader:

We have received communications from friends in the States, informing us of the recent death of Mr. C. H. Smith, the celebrated American statesman and orator. Mr. Smith was a man of great ability and eloquence, and his death is a loss to the country. We extend our sympathy to his widow and family in their sorrow.

J. Smith.

An Address.

Delivered at the Reunion of the Class, November 19, 1840.

To a Brother.

Companions and Brethren:

The hope of another meeting, the last of these addresses, in which I have had the honor of presiding, is now a reality. The anniversary of our order, though John the Baptist, has been observed at this time. It is a day of solemnity, when the word of God is proclaimed from the pulpit. We are gathered together to celebrate the birthday of our Saviour, who is the light of the world. May this day be a day of joy and gladness for all who are present.

LOVE AND FRIENDSHIP.

He who is loved by his friends is happy.

AN APRIL NIGHT WIND.

The April night wind, with its soft, gentle breath, caresses the earth and awakens the sleeper. The birds are chirping, and the flowers are blooming. The night is a time of rest and relaxation.

As you enjoy the April night wind, remember to be kind to all. May your day be filled with happiness and joy.

J. H. Smith.
CONGRESSIONAL.

From the correspondent of the Charleston Courier.
The question of privilege, in the House, has given rise to considerable discussion. It appears that the committee which was appointed, to consider the question of a new constitution for the state of Texas, has not been properly constituted. It is charged that the committee was improperly constituted, and that the constitution of which they were the authors, was not properly drawn. This has been a source of great irritation, and the House is now in a state of excitement. The subject was taken up as soon as the House assembled, and the question of privilege was at once brought to a vote. The motion for the adjournment of the House was adopted, and the question was referred to the committee.

Highly Important Intel.

Parliamentary proceedings—Rhodesian question.—The question of the right of Mr. D. L. F. Stuart to vote in the House of Commons, was decided in favor of Mr. Stuart. The decision was announced by Sir Henry Petty, who stated that Mr. Stuart was entitled to a seat in the House, as he was a British subject. The House adjourned.

Mexico an Empire.

It is very evident that Santa Anna, now in command of the Mexican army, has no idea of restoring the Mexican empire. He is resolved to keep the empire of his own creation in his own hands.

Parliamentary Summary.

The question of the right of Mr. D. L. F. Stuart to vote in the House of Commons, was decided in favor of Mr. Stuart. The decision was announced by Sir Henry Petty, who stated that Mr. Stuart was entitled to a seat in the House, as he was a British subject. The House adjourned.

Slave Trade Treaty.

The treaty of 1818 between the United States and Great Britain, regarding the slave trade, has been ratified by the Senate of the United States. The treaty provides that no slave shall be transported in any vessel of a neutral nation, from any of the United States to any of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the purpose of being sold as slaves.

Look Here!!!

Cries of the Rock.

Billing—Billie was a fine old man, but he was not a good man. He was a great fighter, but he was not a good fighter. He was a great leader, but he was not a good leader. But he was a great man, and we have to admire him for that.

Red.

Our city was attacked by another enemy on Wednesday night. They came over the bridge in a small boat and entered the city. They were well armed, and they forced their way into the city. They burned the buildings and killed many people. It was a terrible night in our city.

France.

The war between France and Spain continues. France still engages the attention of the world. The French army is still in the field, and the Spanish army is still on the march. The war will continue until the French army is defeated.

Augustus VIII.

The king of Denmark, Augustus VIII, has died. He was a great king, and he was beloved by his people. His death is a great loss to Denmark.

LOOK HERE!!!
CANE CREEK ACADEMY.

Ninth Annual Session of the Cane Creek Academy, Jacksonville, Commences September 16th. Parents and friends of children who desire to send them there, will please forward them at the earliest moment. The academy is now in full operation, and the term will extend for the next three months. Mr. C. D. Robinson, Principal.

March 13, 1848.

TIN-WARE SATISFACTORY.

An enormous quantity of the best Made Tin-ware is now ready for sale at the Flooring and Furniture Store, Main Street, by R. W. Adams, Esq., at the following prices:

- Covered Barrels
- Covered Boxes
- Covered Trunks
- Covered Drawers
- and other Tin-ware suitable for household use.

March 16, 1848.

NEW GOODS.

Hoke & Abernathy.

Corner of Main and Market Streets.

March 16, 1848.

THE RACES.

KENTUCKY RACING REGULATIONS.

The following regulations will be observed at the races to be held at this place on Monday next:

- The races will be run on a straight course of one mile.
- The horses will be divided into three classes: first, second, and third.
- The judges will be selected by the owners of the horses, and their decision will be final.

March 16, 1848.

Branch Bank, Montgomery:

The branch of the Bank of New York, is now open for business under the direction of Messrs. Jones & Company. The following is a list of the officers of the bank:

- President: Mr. Jones
- Vice-President: Mr. Smith
- Cashier: Mr. Brown

March 16, 1848.

State of Alabama?

Benton County.

Under date of November 26th, 1845, R. W. Adams, Judge of the Probate Court of Benton County, declared that the said county had a population of 20,000 souls, and that the same was increasing rapidly.

March 16, 1848.

State of Alabama?

Benton County.

March 16, 1848.

Law Notice.

State of Alabama.

Benton County.

February 18, 1848.

The undersigned, R. W. Adams, Judge of the Probate Court of Benton County, do hereby publish that the said county is entitled to the following amount of taxes:

- Real Estate: $50,000
- Personal Property: $30,000

March 16, 1848.

KNOXVILLE HARMONY.

Music Meets Every Saturday.

March 16, 1848.

State of Alabama.

Benton County.

Baton Rouge.

March 16, 1848.

NOTICE.

State of Alabama.

Benton County.

March 16, 1848.

NOTICE.

State of Alabama.

Benton County.

March 16, 1848.

DELIVERY BONE.

For Sale at the Office.

March 16, 1848.