THE RETURN OF YOUTH.

My friend, this afternoon, for golds.

For by the 'soul, I'll not sell it.

A path which my shoes do not tread, and my eyes do not see, but which is covered with bloom and fragrance of spring, is where I will find the flowers of youth. To the fresh breezes, a young heart is given, and the world is brighter and more delicious.

Till the sun rises, bring her back.

The years are numbered, the days are passing, the sun is setting. The flowers of youth are fading, but they will bloom again. The morning dew is on the leaves, the birds are singing, and the world is full of beauty.

The young and the old.

There are no changes in nature, only in time. The youth of today is the old age of tomorrow. The flowers of spring are the fruits of summer. The youth of the world is the world of tomorrow.

Are there no changes in nature, only in time.

The flowers of spring are the fruits of summer. The youth of the world is the world of tomorrow. The world is full of beauty, and the world is full of youth.

THE PITS.

The world is full of beauty, and the world is full of youth. The youth of the world is the world of tomorrow. The world is full of beauty, and the world is full of youth.

THE PITS.

The world is full of beauty, and the world is full of youth. The youth of the world is the world of tomorrow. The world is full of beauty, and the world is full of youth.

MEDICAL BOARD.

Jacksonville, Dec. 7, 1847.

The following gentlemen were appointed by Governor Black and the President of the State Medical College to form a Board of Medical Examiners: Drs. McCall, Jones, and Osborn.

S. H. Nuss, of Brevard County, and L. P. Montgomery, of Tallahassee.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Board of Examiners:

1. That the examination of candidates for the degree of M.D. should take place in the month of May, and not in the month of February as heretofore.
2. That the examination shall be held at the State Medical College, Jacksonville, and that the candidate shall be required to furnish a list of his medical books and a certificate from his instructor.
3. That the examination shall consist of a clinical examination and an examination of his knowledge of the theoretical branches of medicine.

The Board of Examiners also recommended the appointment of Dr. J. C. M. Black as Professor of Practice.

J. C. C. Clark, Dec. 8, 1847.

The Tennessee Legislature has again proved its determination to prevent any attempt at convicting Dr. J. W. Brown of the crime of treason.

The Alabama Times.

Mr. Brown was arraigned in the Circuit Court of the State of Alabama on a charge of treason, but the court declared that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the charge.

The Patriot of the Republic.

Mr. Brown was released on bail, and the case was set for trial in the next term of the court.

Cheer.

LATE FROM TEXAS.
