JANUARY
JACKSONVILLE, AL., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1842.

Whole No. 263

FROM THE GLOBE.

CONGRESSIONAL ANALYSIS.

The meeting here was not held up by the adjournment of the Congress. The House and Senate are now in session. The proceedings in the House have been more regular, and the debate on the measures introduced have been more diversified. The Senate has, however, been more active in the introduction of measures. The measures of the Senate have been more thorough, and the debates on the measures introduced have been more diversified. The measures of the Senate have been more thorough, and the debates on the measures introduced have been more diversified.

NEW WORKS.

1. The American Institute of Arts, by J. B. Powell, Esq., is a work of great merit. It is a work of great merit. It is a work of great merit.

2. The American Institute of Arts, by J. B. Powell, Esq., is a work of great merit. It is a work of great merit.

3. The American Institute of Arts, by J. B. Powell, Esq., is a work of great merit. It is a work of great merit.

A. E. W.

S. A. W.

TIN WARE.

The tin ware trade is one of the most important in the United States. It is a trade of great importance. It is a trade of great importance. It is a trade of great importance.

J. S. W.

EXECUTIVE JOURNAL.

The Executive would like to take this opportunity to express his deep regret at the recent death of his valued servant, Mr. A. B. Wood.

J. B. W.