NOVEMBER
Jacksonville Republican
Wednesday, Nov. 16, 1842.

At a meeting of the Democratic, Free Soil and Anti-Slavery societies at the Court House, Monday, November 14th, was proposed the following resolutions in favor of the cause of nullification, with the intent of transmitting them to the Assembly in the city of Baltimore.

For the members of the societies, who had been consulted and occupied in the preparation of the resolutions, by the Chase Eves, Clerk of the House, and by the Rev. Mr. Brown, of the Baptist Church, the following resolutions were submitted:

1. Resolved, That the Democratic society, the Free Soil society and the Anti-Slavery society, do hereby, in the name of the people of Jacksonville, present the following resolutions: that the time has arrived, and is pressing, when the people of these United States are in danger of being subjected to a system of interference with their rights and liberties, and that the people of these United States have the right of resistance.
Michigan, Nov. 23, 1842.

AUSTIN HUNTER,

Dear Sir:

I am to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 20th inst., in which you express your concern for the father of your family, and a desire to learn something of his condition.

I am glad to assure you that he is very well, and his health continues improving. We have not seen him for some time, but I understand from a recent letter that he is living comfortably.

I hope this information will be of comfort to you.

Yours truly,

[Signature]
JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

Wednesday, Nov. 28, 1843.

JACKSONVILLE FEMALE ACADEMY.

In this day's paper will be found a full account of the annual meeting of the Jacksonville Female Academy, the distinguished name of which is so familiarly attached to the history of Jacksonville. The meeting will be held at the house of Messrs. James S. and N. J. Isbister, on Monday, the 5th inst., at nine o'clock in the morning.

GRAND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Mr. Bay has opened a school in one of the post offices, which promises to be a most advantageous one. It is a very small one, but the neighborhood is well known, and it is expected to do very well.

SPRUING THE LABOR BY WHICH THEY CLIMBED.

The election of a new Board of Education for the city and county of Jacksonville is now in progress. The Board is to consist of nine members, three from each of the three districts of the city.

MAJORITY FOR GOVERNOR.

The last of the elections for Governor has been held, and the majority for the Republican ticket is 6,000. The election was held in the city of Jacksonville, and the majority for the Republican candidates is 6,000.

FREEMASON'S LUXURY.

The Free Masons of Jacksonville have purchased a piece of land on the west side of the city, and have erected a Masonic lodge there. The lodge is to be used as a place of worship.

THE NEW YORKER.

The New Yorker, a vessel of 1000 tons, has arrived at Jacksonville, and will shortly start for the west coast.

 pupils in the city, and will shortly start for the west coast.

THE FLORIDA TIMES.

The Florida Times, a weekly newspaper, has been started in Jacksonville. The paper is to be published every Saturday.