DECEMBER
The following lines from Col. Ellis Ellis, of the publishing house, will be of interest to the friends of the late Col. Ellis Ellis, who was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.

To the publisher of the Daily News,

Dear Sirs,

I am pleased to inform you that Col. Ellis Ellis passed away on the 10th of this month, after a short illness. He was a prominent citizen and a leader in the community. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Daily News. The following lines are in memory of Col. Ellis Ellis, who passed away in 1843.
JOHN C. CALHOUN.

The selection of the reader is particularly important in the case of the "Ernest Ormes," published on the first page of this number.

From the New Orleans Advertiser.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The Democratic convention, held in the city in last week, was attended by a large number of people. The meeting was called for the purpose of recommending candidates for the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives.

The convention nominated Senator James G.
B. Jones for the Senate, and a number of other candidates for the House of Representatives.

The meeting proceeded in a regular manner,
and the business was concluded.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

The art of photography has recently made some progress in this city. A number of photographs of prominent citizens have been taken, and a number of others are now in the process of being taken. The art is gaining in popularity, and it is expected that it will soon gain more ground.

The following are the results of the photography of the meeting:

The convention nominated Senator James G.
B. Jones for the Senate, and a number of other candidates for the House of Representatives.

The meeting proceeded in a regular manner,
and the business was concluded.

THE HEAT OF CETON.

C. H. Campbell, in the work entitled "Ceteronis: Athletics and Dramatic Art," says:

"The heat of Ceton is not to be exceeded in the whole world. The heat of the sun is inapplicable to the heat of Ceton, and the heat of the moon is not to be compared to
the heat of Ceton."

A PARCHMENT MARRIAGE.

A letter from an officer of the United States Army, dated September 4th, says:

"We have been living in the heat of Ceton for the past few days. The heat is so intense that we have been forced to remain indoors most
of the time."

The heat of Ceton is not to be exceeded in the whole world. The heat of the sun is inapplicable to the heat of Ceton, and the heat of the moon is not to be compared to
the heat of Ceton.

A PARCHMENT MARRIAGE.

A letter from an officer of the United States Army, dated September 4th, says:

"We have been living in the heat of Ceton for the past few days. The heat is so intense that we have been forced to remain indoors most
of the time."

The heat of Ceton is not to be exceeded in the whole world. The heat of the sun is inapplicable to the heat of Ceton, and the heat of the moon is not to be compared to
the heat of Ceton.
Jacksonville Republican.

Vol. 3 - No. 50.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1848.

Whole No. 362.

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]

[Article text...]