DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS.

By far the most important business of this tour was the visit to the Democratic Congress, which was held at the Four Seasons Hotel, New York. The convention was well attended, and the proceedings were conducted in a business-like manner.

At the close of the meeting, President Graham announced that the convention had decided to support the candidacy of Mr. Lincoln for the presidency.

The convention adjourned.

The following is a list of the officers elected:

President, John A. Logan; Vice-President, J. T. Sullivan; Secretary, James D. MacDonald; Treasurer, Edward M. Baker.

The convention adjourned.

A. J. G.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1861.

To the Editor of the New York Tribune:

Gentlemen:—I have just returned from a visit to the Democratic Congress, held at the Four Seasons Hotel, New York. The convention was well attended, and the proceedings were conducted in a business-like manner.

At the close of the meeting, President Graham announced that the convention had decided to support the candidacy of Mr. Lincoln for the presidency.

The convention adjourned.

I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

A. J. G.

THE SYLVESTER CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.-The convention at Sylvester is getting along rapidly. Mr. C. L. French, editor of the Macon Telegraph, says that 2,000 delegates have already registered. The convention will be held at the Hotel New York, and is expected to be attended by a large number of delegates from all parts of the State.

RUSHED AGRARIAN LAW INTEGRITY.

The following change of course, of Mr. Justus, the Judge of C. L. French, is upon the floor of the House, and is being discussed with great interest. The change is due to the fact that the convention has been called to order, and that the delegates are determined to make a thorough investigation of the situation.

The following change of course, of Mr. Justus, the Judge of C. L. French, is upon the floor of the House, and is being discussed with great interest. The change is due to the fact that the convention has been called to order, and that the delegates are determined to make a thorough investigation of the situation.
