peace were begun. There are an armed force of a thousand men on the outskirts of the town, under the command of Captain John Smith. The town is now in a state of alarm, and the people are preparing for a long siege. The government has sent a force of 500 men to reinforce the garrison, and the town is now surrounded by a strong line of fortifications. The town is said to be well supplied with provisions, and the people are confident of holding out until relief arrives in a few days. The situation is critical, and the people are anxiously awaiting the outcome of the siege.}

Dr. CHAMPO, Leadville, Colorado, writes that the following cases in diagnosis and treatment he has had to make, which may be of interest:

1. The case of a man in the service of one of our favorite social conventions. Some few weeks ago, a man of that organization who was at one time a heavy drinker, became under the influence of beer, a heavyHenry, and eventually, after much drinking, a fatal case of alcoholism. The man was taken to the hospital, where he was treated with the help of Dr. CHAMPO. The treatment consisted of a mixture of laudanum and brandy. The patient was given a good glass of brandy and laudanum, and he was soon relieved of his condition.

2. The case of a man who had been drinking heavily for some time. The man was given a mixture of laudanum and brandy. The treatment consisted of a mixture of laudanum and brandy. The patient was given a good glass of brandy and laudanum, and he was soon relieved of his condition.
