Friends are all around us. No one who is conscious of the existence of a higher power, of a beneficent and genial providence, of the influence of the benevolent and genial providence, of the influence of the benevolent and benevolent on the world, can ever fail to recognize the presence of a higher power. It is a power that is ever present to us, guiding and controlling our destinies, and we cannot fail to feel the influence of its beneficent influence. It is a power that is ever present to us, guiding and controlling our destinies, and we cannot fail to feel the influence of its beneficent influence.
