AUGUST
To Travellers going North.

The great Fall Route from Chicago to St. Louis, via the Illinois and Mississippi Railroad, and the Missouri Pacific, is now being opened for the fall trade. The lines are all in running order, and the facilities for travel and transportation are improved. The rates are fair, and the time saved is considerable. For the benefit of all who may wish to travel by this route, the following information is given:

DRY GOODS, AND NO DISPARAGE

At the present time, a great variety of fine goods are being sold at greatly reduced prices. For instance, a large stock of fine fabrics, including silks, satins, and velvets, is now on sale, and is being offered at prices that cannot be equalled elsewhere. The selection is extensive, and the goods are of the highest quality. For the benefit of all who may wish to purchase these goods, the following information is given:

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

As the summer season is now drawing to a close, a great many articles of clothing and other goods are being sold at greatly reduced prices. For instance, a large stock of fine linens, including tablecloths, napkins, and table mats, is now on sale, and is being offered at prices that cannot be equalled elsewhere.
