MARCH
SOUTHERN TAYLORSHI.

On the 13th of July last, Lieutenant Hall of the 4th U. S. Regular Artillery, accompanied by a few men, and a negro soldier, proceeded to the Cherokee Agency, in the northern part of Alabama, to arrest a negro, whom the Indian Department had ordered to be returned to his former master. The negro was under a law for vagrancy, and had been arrested by the whites. The negro had been a prisoner for several years, and had not been allowed to leave the Agency, except upon parole, which he was unwilling to give. He was asked to surrender, and was told that if he did not, he would be taken and returned to his former master. The negro refused to surrender, and was told that if he did not, he would be taken and returned to his former master.
