Rice Prices Current.

S. P. HUDSON.

CHICAGO, Il.

Cotton—There was a great demand for Cotton at the close of the week, by which the prices were advanced 3c. to 4c. per bale, to from 15c. to 18c. per bale. We are told that the demand is still increasing. The supply is not so heavy as is generally the case, and the price is expected to advance more than it has done for some time past.
