SEPTEMBER
The Whig Convention.

The news which we publish at this hour is of the greatest interest to our readers. It has been confirmed by the most reliable informants in our city, and we are enabled to state that the Whig Convention is about to meet. The news has not yet reached any of the other whig papers, or the convention has not been called. The Whig Convention is to be held on Monday, at 11 o'clock, at the Mechanics' Institute, in this city. Obituary.

OBITUARY.

The death of Mr. W. B. Sumner, of New Haven, Conn., is announced. He was a native of Connecticut, and had been a resident of New Haven for many years. He was a man of strong character, and was beloved by all who knew him. He died suddenly, and is buried at New Haven.

The Garden of Eden.

The Garden of Eden is a place of beauty and peace. It is a land of delights, and is the home of the angels. The trees are tall and green, and the flowers bloom all the year round. The air is sweet and pure, and the skies are blue.

The Garden of Eden is a place where good things grow, and where there is never any want or need. It is a place where people are happy, and where they are free from care and anxiety. It is a place where God is loved and praised, and where His Word is obeyed.

The Garden of Eden is a place where families are founded, and where children are born. It is a place where the young are taught to love and serve God, and where they are educated in wisdom and righteousness.

The Garden of Eden is a place where men and women are united in marriage, and where they live together in love and joy.

The Garden of Eden is a place where there is no death, and where the dead are raised to life again.

Mail Arrangement.

The arrangement of the mail is an important matter, and should be carefully considered. It is necessary that the mail should be delivered in a timely and efficient manner.

The mail is to be arranged in such a way that it will be delivered to the proper people and in the proper order. It is necessary that the mail should be sorted and arranged in such a way that it will be delivered to the proper people and in the proper order.
