OCTOBER
JACKSONVILLE, ALA., TUESDAY OCTOBER 5, 1863.

J. H. C. MILLER.

A Troubled Day.

The name of the late Governor of the State of Alabama, the Hon. J. H. C. Miller, is familiar to every reader of the press. He was a man of marked ability, and under whose administration the State has been prosperous and happy. The late Governor was an able statesman, and his death is a loss to the State. The people of Alabama are mourning the loss of a good and just governor, and the country is losing a valuable public servant.

GOVERNOR MILLER.

The Governor of Alabama, J. H. C. Miller, was assassinated on the 5th of October, 1863. The Governor was shot while crossing the street in front of the State House. The assassin was a托OTOONI, who had been5 sentenced to death for murder. The Governor was a brave and noble man, and his death is a great loss to the State.

The Man with a Big Foot.

The man with a big foot is a well-known character in the South. He is said to have a foot that is larger than the average. The man is a good shot, and is always ready to take a shot at anything that moves. He is a good fighter, and always wins.

A Murdered Woman.

The murder of the woman was a great shock to the community. She was a good and kind woman, and her death is a great loss to the family. The murderer was a托OTOONI, who had been5 sentenced to death for murder. The woman was a brave and noble woman, and her death is a great loss to the State.

An Illustration.

The illustration shows a man riding a horse. He is a good rider, and is always ready to ride at any time. The horse is a fine animal, and is always ready to ride.

...
FOR SALE.

S. M. Satterfield, 31 S. S. Urch, Baltimore, Md.

Wholesale and Retail Tailors.

S. M. SATTERFIELD,

Tailing, alteration, and repair of all kinds of men's, boys', and children's clothing.

Wholesale and retail tailoring.

For further information, please visit our website at www.tailorsforsale.com.

October 1, 2023.

October 1, 2023.

NOTICE.

I, WILLIAM C. SMITH, late of the town of Augusta, Ga., surcharged with the purchase and operation of a steam mill in the State of Georgia, located near the town of Augusta, and bound by the bond of GEORGE W. PHILLIPS, of Augusta, Ga., for the payment of the amount of said purchase, do hereby give notice to all persons interested in said mill, that I hereby give up all claim to said mill, and that all debts and liabilities arising therefrom shall be paid by the said George W. Phillips.

July 15, 1882.

LAMBERT HOPKINS,

Wholesale and Retail Tailors.

42 2nd St., Augusta, Ga.

For tailoring, alterations, and repairs of all kinds, please call or visit our shop.

September 15, 1882.

PAIN KILLERS.

We are now selling the finest pain killers in the market. For relief from pain, try our products. We guarantee satisfaction.

September 15, 1882.

W. H. BLEWITT, Proprietor.

Assistant Editor.

FOR SALE.

[Signature]

October 1, 1882.

[ADVERTISEMENT]

The undermentioned having been five years engaged in the business of tailoring, and for want of space shall be obliged to sell out.

LAMBERT HOPKINS,

Wholesale and Retail Tailors.

118 2nd St., Augusta, Ga.

For tailoring, alterations, and repairs of all kinds, please call or visit our shop.

September 15, 1882.

PAIN KILLERS.

We are now selling the finest pain killers in the market. For relief from pain, try our products. We guarantee satisfaction.

September 15, 1882.

W. H. BLEWITT, Proprietor.

Assistant Editor.

null