APRIL
POETRY.

MY CHILDHOOD'S HOME.

With happy, happy childish feet,
I trod the strokeless fields of light,
Where Nature's shining lamps astir
To lead the way of life were bright.

For there my gentle parents stood,
To cheer and guide me in young days;
Nor was there need for fear or woe,
For I was safe in Love's embrace.

Oh, happy, happy childhood's days,
When all was joy and hope and love,
And all about was fair and bright,
As in the golden days of June.

COST OF FREEDOM IN THE UNITED STATES.

The cost of Freedom being a subject of great public interest, it is fitting that this occasion should be marked by a grand national celebration. The cost of Freedom is estimated at $1,500,000,000, which is to be raised by the sale of public lands. The proceeds will be applied to the payment of the debt, and to the support of the government.

WESTERN PREACHING.

Rev. W. H. Miller, of St. Louis, was recently in this city, and preached at the United Presbyterian Church. His sermon was on the subject of "The Lost Sheep," and was received with great interest and attention. He was a most effective and impressive preacher, and his sermon was received with great approval.

THE REPUBLICAN

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1860.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We have learned with the assurance of the most reliable sources that the Government of Central America has determined to publish immediately the cause of the shooting of the late President of that Republic. It is said the President was shot by a man who was under the influence of liquor. The President had been a bitter enemy of the Government and had been in close relations with the rebels in the south. It is said that the President was shot while he was in a state of醉狂. The Government has ordered a full investigation of the case and has promised a just and prompt settlement of the affair.

Memorial Address.

The Memorial Address of the late President of Central America was read at the Senate of the United States this afternoon. It was one of the most eloquent and moving addresses ever delivered in the Senate. The President spoke with great emotion of his love for his country and his desire to see it free from all wrong and oppression. He said that he had been a sufferer under the oppression of the Government and that he had been forced to seek refuge in the American Union. He said that he had been a toil and labor for his country and that he had been a witness of its sufferings and its wrongs. He said that he had been a firm believer in the principles of the Constitution and in the right of the people to govern themselves. He said that he had been a friend of the Union and that he had been a foe of sectionalism and of the dissolution of the Union.

We shall be indebted to the President of the United States for his inspection and approbation of the proposed "Crime Bill". Mr. Lincoln is very agitated on the subject of crime, and it is feared that he may sign the bill in a manner that will be detrimental to the public interest. Mr. Lincoln is very much opposed to the doctrine of free speech, and it is feared that he may sign the bill in a manner that will be detrimental to the public interest.

THE REPUBLICAN.
TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1844.

Mrs. Pierce any longer opposes the "Wing" paper, and will use her influence in its favor. She has taken a decided position to support it, and has declared that she is not, and never was, a "Wig". In her letter to the "Wing" paper, she says: "I am sorry that the President is about to retire, because I have confidence in his ability, his integrity, and his honesty. I have always been a friend of his, and I trust that he will continue to be so." Mrs. Pierce has been a prominent figure in the Republican party, and her support is valuable. She has been elected to the state legislature, and has been a member of the executive committee of the Republican party in New York. Her influence is great, and her support of the "Wing" paper is a decided blow to the Democrats.

It contains the latest news of the commercial world, and is a valuable source of information for all classes.
