THE REPUBLICAN.

LETTER FROM A FRIEND.

TO THE EDITOR:

Sir,—I have the honor to forward you a copy of the New Hampshire Journal, which contains an article of my father's, concerning a political affair. I think it is very interesting and well written. I hope you will be pleased to have it printed.

With respect,

A Friend.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Extracts from the New Hampshire Journal.

I am happy to inform you that the political situation in New Hampshire is improving. The legislature has been quite active and has passed several important bills. One of the most notable is the bill for the education of the poor, which provides for the establishment of free schools throughout the state. This is a step in the right direction and will undoubtedly have a beneficial effect.

I also wish to mention the bill for the reform of the criminal code. This bill has been debated extensively and has been passed with a majority of votes. It is hoped that this will lead to a more just and humane treatment of criminals.

I shall continue to keep you informed of the progress of the legislature.

Yours truly,

A Friend.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Although the political situation in New Hampshire is improving, there are still some issues that need to be addressed. One of the most pressing is the issue of corruption in the legislature. Reports have been circulating that some members of the legislature are accepting bribes to pass legislation.

I believe that it is essential for the legislature to take strong action against corruption. The public has a right to expect that their representatives will act in their best interests and not for personal gain.

I shall continue to monitor the situation and will keep you informed of any developments.

Yours truly,

A Friend.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The situation in New Hampshire continues to improve. The legislature has passed several important bills, including the bill for the education of the poor and the bill for the reform of the criminal code. These bills will have a positive impact on the lives of the people of New Hampshire.

However, there is still an issue of concern. Reports of corruption in the legislature continue to circulate. It is essential for the legislature to take strong action against corruption.

I shall continue to monitor the situation and will keep you informed of any developments.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The House of Representatives has passed the Ku Klux Klan bill, and the Senate is now engaged in its consideration.

The bill provides for the abolition of all secret societies in the United States, and makes it a crime to form or maintain any such society, or to be a member thereof.

The bill has been under discussion in Congress for several weeks, and has met with considerable opposition from those who believe in the right of free association among the people.

The Ku Klux Klan, which was formed in the South, is now active in many parts of the country, and is considered a menace to the peace and order of the nation.

The bill was introduced by Representative William D. Cole, of Ohio, and has been favorably received by the committees to which it was referred.

The bill is expected to pass the Senate and be sent to the President for his signature.

The President has expressed his approval of the bill, and is expected to sign it without delay.

The bill will be of great importance in the suppression of the Ku Klux Klan and other secret societies, and will help to establish a more free and open society in the United States.
