The Presidential vote of 1844 from Present Appearances.

The following is a summary of the results of the presidential vote, as returned by the states as of the 20th of October, 1844:

The Whigs:
- New York: 250,000 votes
- Pennsylvania: 170,000 votes
- Ohio: 100,000 votes
- Indiana: 80,000 votes
- Illinois: 70,000 votes
- Michigan: 40,000 votes
- Wisconsin: 20,000 votes
- Minnesota: 10,000 votes
- Total: 600,000 votes

The Democrats:
- New York: 300,000 votes
- Pennsylvania: 250,000 votes
- Ohio: 150,000 votes
- Indiana: 100,000 votes
- Illinois: 80,000 votes
- Michigan: 50,000 votes
- Wisconsin: 30,000 votes
- Minnesota: 10,000 votes
- Total: 800,000 votes

The Whigs are currently leading by 200,000 votes. The contest is expected to continue until the next election in 1848.

Preparation of seed corn

- Select a clean cornfield for sowing
- Break the ground thoroughly
- Apply manure and lime to the soil
- Sow the seed at the proper depth
- Water the field

Central American Affairs

The New York Times reports that the United States has requested the intervention of Great Britain in the affairs of Central America. The British government has been asked to mediate in the dispute between the United States and Mexico over the boundary of Texas.

A Temperance Society

The Temperance Society has been established in New York. The society aims to promote the temperance movement and to reduce the consumption of alcoholic beverages.

The Select Trustees

A Select Trustees, a law firm in New York, has been appointed to handle the estate of the late William H. Miller. The firm is responsible for the distribution of the estate's assets.