JANUARY
Further by the Texas.

New Orleans, Jan. 14.—Passengers from the steamer Alabama, which arrived here last evening, are close to D. C. Brewer, Mayor of this city, and his friends. They are on the way to the West, and are expected to leave on the first boat. The weather has been very pleasant, and the trip is expected to be a success.

Contract Between a Monarchy and a Republic.

The government of the United States has entered into a treaty with the government of Mexico, by which the latter is bound to pay the sum of $500,000 to the former. The treaty was signed by the respective plenipotentiaries, and was ratified by the Senate. The treaty is expected to be a great benefit to the United States, and will be of great assistance to the Mexican government.

The Cold Weather.

The cold weather has continued to prevail, and the temperature has been very low. The snow has been falling, and the streets are covered with ice. The people are well prepared for the cold, and are making the best of it.

The Nickel Meeting.

New York, Jan. 16.—A large meeting was held at the nickel meeting, at which speech was made on the subject of the nickel meeting. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were well received.

From Mexico.

The steamer from Mexico arrived here last evening, and a large crowd waited to welcome the passengers. The steamer was in good condition, and the passengers were well received.

The Cold Weather.

The cold weather has continued to prevail, and the temperature has been very low. The snow has been falling, and the streets are covered with ice. The people are well prepared for the cold, and are making the best of it.

Beaver Meeting.

New York, Jan. 16.—A large meeting was held at the beaver meeting, at which speech was made on the subject of the beaver meeting. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were well received.

The Nickel Meeting.

New York, Jan. 16.—A large meeting was held at the nickel meeting, at which speech was made on the subject of the nickel meeting. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were well received.

The Cold Weather.

The cold weather has continued to prevail, and the temperature has been very low. The snow has been falling, and the streets are covered with ice. The people are well prepared for the cold, and are making the best of it.

The Nickel Meeting.

New York, Jan. 16.—A large meeting was held at the nickel meeting, at which speech was made on the subject of the nickel meeting. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were well received.

The Cold Weather.

The cold weather has continued to prevail, and the temperature has been very low. The snow has been falling, and the streets are covered with ice. The people are well prepared for the cold, and are making the best of it.

The Nickel Meeting.

New York, Jan. 16.—A large meeting was held at the nickel meeting, at which speech was made on the subject of the nickel meeting. The meeting was well attended, and the speeches were well received.

The Cold Weather.

The cold weather has continued to prevail, and the temperature has been very low. The snow has been falling, and the streets are covered with ice. The people are well prepared for the cold, and are making the best of it.
Land For Sale.

Ten, one-quarter acres of land, lying on the street of land, lying near the center of the town, contains about 500 acres of land, and has been divided into lots of 10 acres each. For further information, apply to the City of Lancaster.

Iron Works.

The largest iron foundry in the United States, located near the town of Lancaster, has recently been completed. The shop is fitted up with the latest machinery, and is capable of producing large quantities of iron goods. Applications for employment may be made at the Iron Works.

Coal Mining.

The Coal Mining Company, located near the town of Lancaster, has recently opened a new mine. The company is well capitalized, and is expected to produce large quantities of coal. Applications for employment may be made at the mine.

To the Fair Sex.

The Ladies' Clothing Co., located in the heart of the city, has recently opened a new store. The store is fitted up with the latest clothing, and is expected to attract a large number of customers. Applications for employment may be made at the store.

Ready-Made Goods.

The Ready-Made Goods Co., located in the heart of the city, has recently opened a new store. The store is fitted up with the latest ready-made goods, and is expected to attract a large number of customers. Applications for employment may be made at the store.

To the Ladies.

The Ladies' Clothing Co., located in the heart of the city, has recently opened a new store. The store is fitted up with the latest clothing, and is expected to attract a large number of customers. Applications for employment may be made at the store.

Wanted.

An experienced ironworker is wanted for the Iron Works. Applications for employment may be made at the Iron Works.

Conclusion.

The town of Lancaster is rapidly developing, and offers many opportunities for employment. Applications for employment may be made at the various businesses listed above.